MARRIED.

AHERN—HUNTER—On Monday, April 24th, 1911, at the Church of the Holy Name, Kingston Mills, by Rev. Father Kingsley, Miss Margaret Hunter, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter, Cushendall, to Daniel Ahern, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ahern, of the same place.

Wedding at Cushendall.

Cushendall, April 25.—On Monday morning, April 24th, a pleasant event took place at the Church of the Holy Name, Kingston Mills, when Miss Margaret Hunter, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter, Cushendall, was united in matrimony to Daniel 26, 1911.

Ahern, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ahern, of the same place. Rev. Father Kingsley officiated. The bride was assisted by Miss Mamie Moran, of Kingston, and the groom by his brother, John Ahern. The fair young bride looked charming in a smartly-tailored suit of blue coronation cloth, with blouse of lace and an Alice blue toque of mohair braid. The bridesmaid was similarly attired. The groom's gifts to the bride and bridesmaid were beautiful gold bracelets and to the groomsman a handsome tie pin. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. After the ceremony the happy couple left for the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous dinner awaited them, and were greeted by their immediate friends. They then left for their future home in Cataquai.

A Pittsburg Wedding.

A pretty wedding took place Monday morning at the Church of The Holy Name, Cushendall, when Miss Mae Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter, of the Isle Of Man, and Daniel Ahearn, son of William Ahearn, Cushendall, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at ten o'clock, by Rev. Father Wilfrid Kingsley. The young couple will reside at Cushendall.

MARRIED.

MOORE—JENNINGS—On Jan. 4th. at South Napanee. Mrs. Annie Jennings to Charles W. Moore.

MURRAY—AHEARN—At Cushendall on Jan. 9th, 1911, by Rev. Dr. Kingsley, Edward Murray, Josie Ahearn, only daughter of Wm. Ahearn.

MARRIED AT CUSHENDALL.

Miss Josie Ahearn wedded to Edward Murray.

Cushendall, Jan. 9.—Wedding bells rang merrily from the Church of the Holy Name tower, to-day, where a pretty maid ~~entered~~ to plight her marriage troth and came forth again in all the grace and dignity of matronhood. The bride was Miss Josie Ahearn, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ahearn, Cushendall, and the groom Edward Murray, Buffalo, N.Y., formerly of Brewer's Mills. Rev. Dr. Kingsley celebrated nuptial mass and performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her brother, came up the aisle, leaning on his arm, at nine o'clock. Very pretty indeed she looked in her smartly tailored suit of navy blue cloth, with blouse of lace and beaver hat. Her ornament was a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. Miss Esther Briceland, of Kingston, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a handsome suit of blue and hat to match. She wore a gold bracelet, given her by the groom. The best man, Bernard Murray, brother of the groom, wore a signet tie pin, the groom's gift. Only the immediate friends of the bride and groom were present. After the wedding the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous dinner awaited them. The health of happy pair was drunk and portions of wedding cake distributed. The bride received many costly presents, testifying the high esteem in which she is held. Mr. and Mrs. Murray left on the 3:17 train for Toronto and Buffalo. Upon their return they will reside in Kingston.

John Ahearn has been permanently appointed lockman at Kingston Mills, in place of Robert Sargent, who resigned.

FOWLER.—In Kingston, at 98 Barrie St., on Jan. 4th, 1909, Mrs. Esther Fowler, relict of the late Daniel Fowler, aged ninety-one years. Funeral private, Wednesday afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock, to St. Mary's Cathedral.
