— Preface —

This record of the Bruces of Kitley Township in Leeds County, Ontario has largely been made possible and has been produced under the auspices of "The Heirs of History", a New Horizons group in Ottawa, and with the generous help of members of the group.

I should, perhaps, say that those of my generation in this family may already know a great deal of what is written here but, hopefully, the younger generations, some as yet unborn, will find some interesting information on their ancestors and their descendants.

I have done this work fully realizing that it probably contains some errors and some omissions but if anyone has more or better information I hope they will let us know. Perhaps at some future time some younger person may wish to revise or bring this record up to date.

I present this work for what it is worth to my children, grandchildren and all other members of the family.

Robert Bruce with his wife Mary Kennedy and their four children, Elizabeth, Mary, Robert and Anne came from London Derry Ireland to Canada probably in 1823. Robert's brother Ed came with them but he soon went on further west and they lost contact with him. According to family legend James Edgar and his wife Mary McMaster came over on the same boat. The younger Robert Bruce later on married Mary Edgar, James Edgar's oldest child, and they were my paternal grandparents.

I am attempting here to trace and list the descendants of Robert and Mary Bruce, the original immigrants up to the present; following both the male and female lines. There will, of course, be some omissions and some errors. The dates taken from the old census rolls, the headstones and the old family Bibles, do not always agree. I have used what seems to me the most probable dates of birth and death.

I want to say here that I was first prompted to do this when some time after I retired in 1969 I was at my son's place at Sutton, Ontario and my granddaughter, Donna Bruce, asked me to tell her what I knew about our ancestors. She had a tape recorder and we talked for an hour or more and then found that the recorder was not working. I then promised her that I would write down what I had told her. However, since then I have looked at the old census records at the Public Archives, visited many cemeteries and examined other records and so I have much more information than I had at that time.

With regard to the place in Ireland that they came from we only have the family legend which I believe is correct and, it does seem to have been accepted by all branches of the family that they did come from London Derry. I have searched the ships emigrant passenger lists at the Public Archives and in "The Hand Book of Irish Geneology" and have not found anything. It seems the Government did not keep a record of people leaving Ireland but the ship owners did keep a record of people boarding their ships to come to America. From 1860 on the most of these lists have been kept but for earlier dates many have been lost or destroyed especially between 1803 and 1833.

It was thought by some of the family that the first of this Bruce family might have arrived in Canada in 1818 or 1819. I am convinced that this is not correct. First there is the short biographical sketch in the "History of Leeds and Grenville" by Thad. W.H. Leavitt and published in 1879. It says that the James Edgar family came out in 1821 so if the Bruces and Edgars came over on the same boat this would establish the date the Bruces arrived. However, I have a copy of the obituary of Mrs. Robert Bruce (Mary Edgar) who died in 1902 and there it states that the deceased came to Canada from Ireland in 1823 and lived in Augusta Township in Grenville County until 1830 when the family moved into Kitley Township in Leeds County. Again Mrs. Jacob Weatherhead (Anne Bruce) according to early census records was born in 1821 and her obituary states that she was two years old when she came from Ireland to Canada. Also I remember one of my aunts who was born in 1844 telling me that she understood that her father was ten years old when he came out from Ireland and he was born in 1813. It seems to me that 1823 is probably the correct date of the arrival of both the Edgars and Bruces. I believe they came over in the same boat. We do know that the Bruce family did live for a time in Augusta. Elizabeth, the oldest of the family, married and lived there the rest of her life. We do not know whether the Edgars did live in Augusta or not but we find that in December, 1829 James Edgar and Robert Bruce each bought fifty acres of land from William Dowsley, parts of lot 17 in the 6th concession of Kitley. This shows that they probably did move into Kitley in 1830. Edgar bought the N. 1/2 of S. 1/2 of the lot and Bruce bought the S. 1/4 of the lot. In 1845 Bruce sold James Edgar the S. 1/4 of lot 17 and in the same year Edgar bought the whole 200 acres of lot 18. On January 31, 1837 Robert Bruce bought part of lot 18 in the 7th concession from E. Hubbel. Quite a part of this 100 acre lot is in Irish Lake. He lived here until he died in 1856. He is said to have gone to Brockville to sell some firkins of butter in November and got caught in a very heavy cold rain. He died about a week later.

We also find that Robert Bruce, the son who, was my grandfather, on March 4, 1838 bought from James Gilpin and wife and Martin Gilpin 100 acres, the N. 1/2 of lot 17 in the 6th concession. He was married to Mary Edgar in April of the same year. My grandmother often told her children that she stood all day in the door of their first log house and listened to the sound of the cannons firing at the Battle of the Windmill at Prescott while her husband was away with the local militia to the battle. The battle of the Windmill was fought in November, 1838. The Americans crossed the St. Lawrence on the 11th November. My grandparents continued to live on this farm part of lot 17 in the 6th concession of Kitley until they died. She died in 1902 and he died in 1903. Their very substantial old home was destroyed by fire in the 1930's. I remember the carriage house and loft contained many old relics of pioneer days such as hand cards and spinning wheels for both flax and wool and also the looms for weaving. There was also the old cradle attached to a scythe for harvesting grain, the yoke for oxen, the candle making moulds and an old lantern designed to use a candle. All of these together with some old carriages and other things were destroyed in the fire.

I shall now proceed to list the descendants of Robert Bruce and his wife Mary Kennedy generation by generation considering them as generation (1) and their children as generation (2) and so on. As we stated earlier Robert and his wife Mary Kennedy had four children and we will list them and their descendants starting with Elizabeth the oldest. I think we should say here that in the 1851 census we find Robert Gen. 1 and Mary and Pamilla Bruce. Pamilla was thirteen years old in 1851 and we are not sure but, she may have been a child of natural birth and a granddaughter of Robert and Mary. We will deal with her and her family later.

So we will proceed using a few abbreviations as follows:

b - born
 div - divorced
 d - died
 gen - generation
 m - married
 1 m - first marriage
 2 m - second marriage
 unmm - unmarried

The earlier date of Mary Kennedy's birth is on her headstone, the later date is from the 1851 census. They are buried in the cemetery on the hill at Toledo

Gen. 2 The children of Robert Bruce and Mary Kennedy

We are very much indebted to Mrs. Herbert Bass and others in Prescott as well as to Mrs. Robert Bruce of Toledo and Mr. Douglas Smith of Ottawa in supplying information about the Bass branch of the family.

MARY BRUCE

Gen. 2- Mary Bruce was the second oldest child of Robert Bruce and his wife Mary Kennedy and this was one of the second generation of this Bruce family to live in Canada.

	Mary Bruce	b.	1811
		d.	1891
M.	Hezekiah Brown	b.	1807
		d.	1884

Hezekiah was a son of William Brown and his wife Betsy Allan who was a daughter of Jonah Allan. They had eight sons and two daughters. William Brown was born in New Brunswick in 1775 and came up into Elizabethtown in Leeds County with his family in 1808. In 1809 they settled on lot 22 in the 6th concession of Kitley. This lot is right at the cross roads in the Village of Toledo and would run north from there. This would be before the old Perth road from Brockville to Perth was opened up. Thad. W.H. Leavitt in his History of Leeds and Grenville published in 1879 states that William Brown attended one of Gourlay's meetings held in William Tallman's school house on June 22nd, 1818. Gourlay who like William Lyon McKenzie was working for a reform of government and the abolition of Clergy Reserves in Upper Canada held meetings all through the Johnstown District at that time. William Brown was appointed a member of a committee at that meeting. William and his family later settled in the 9th concession a short distance west of the Village of Frankville. He died in 1831 at 56 years of age.

We have a note taken from the Farmersville (Athens Reporter dated May 24, 1884 as follows:

"We regret to learn of the death today of an old resident of Kitley, Hezekiah Brown in his 78th year. The funeral will be held at Frankville on Monday May 26th at 2 o'clock".

Hezekiah Brown and his wife and his son Wesley and his family are buried in the cemetery on the hill in Toledo

We will now proceed with the children and descendants of Hezekiah Brown and his wife Mary Bruce. We find them listed in the census of 1851-1852 as follows:

	Born	Religion	Age Next Birthday
Hezekiah Brown	N.B.	E.M.	46 years
Mary Brown	Ireland	W.M.	41 years
William W. Brown	U.C.		18 years
Eliza Ann Brown	U.C.		16 years
Warren Brown	U.C.		15 years
Ezra Brown	U.C.		13 years
Emily Caroline Brown	U.C.		9 years
Wesley Brown	U.C.		7 years
Cynthia M. Brown	U.C.		4 years

In the 1861 census which was taken about nine years after the 1851-1852 census we find:

	Place Born	Religion	Age Next Birthday
Hezekiah Brown	M.B.	E.M.	55
Mary Brown	Ireland	W.M.	50
Wellington Brown	U.C.		24
Caroline Brown	U.C.		18
Wesley Brown	U.C.		16
Cynthia Brown	U.C.		13

It is quite apparent that William W. in the 1851-1852 census is listed as Wellington in 1861 and Cynthia M. in 1851-1852 census was the one the family later referred to as Minerva. There is some difference of age between the two census. This is not unusual.

We will now take the children of Hezekiah and Mary Brown and their descendants as far as we have information and list them as generations from the original Bruce immigrants.

Gen. 3- William Wellington Brown b. 1834

We have no information about this man except that in a letter we have from Mrs. Harold Irwin of Brantford, Ont. she says that a young man by the name of Bob Brown visited in the Frankville area in the 1920's and he may have been a grandson of Wellington Brown and Wellington likely went to the U.S.A. when quite a young man and the rest of the family lost contact with him.

It is interesting to note that Duncan McClure, who was married to Estella, a daughter of Wesley Brown of Frankville, Ontario still lives alone in Toledo, Ontario and, at the age of 94, still drives his own car. He and Estella visited both the Woods family at Morton and the Gillson family at Collingwood soon after they were married.

ROBERT BRUCE

Robert the third child and only son of the original immigrants Robert Bruce and Mary Kennedy, married Mary Edgar the oldest child of James Edgar and his wife Mary McMaster on the 9th of April, 1838.

This must have been quite an eventful year for this young couple. He bought the farm March the 4th. They were married April 9th and apparently moved into a log house. He was called up in November with the local militia to go to the battle of the Windmill at Prescott. According to family legend the battle was over when the Kitley brigade got there. In February their first child was born. At the time of their marriage he would be twenty-five and she was in her twentieth year. The farm they bought was next to the James Edgar property located on the old Victoria road, now highway 29 and about 10 miles from Smiths Falls. Douglas Bruce, a great grandson, now owns and occupies a new house built on the foundations of the old frame homestead.

It is rather hard to see how my grandparents managed to raise a very large family, build a good house, two barns and other buildings and die at 90 years of age with a few dollars in the bank. There was eighteen births in the family. One child died at 5 years of age and five others in infancy. The children who died in early childhood are buried on the Edgar place now owned by Daniel Fowler and the graves are only marked by field-stones and, of course, there are no inscriptions.

It is said that the first work Robert did away from home was at the construction of the Rideau Canal through Smiths Falls. He would be in his teens at that time.

We will list this family and their descendants generation by generation considering Robert and Mary Kennedy the first immigrants to Canada as gen. 1.

Children of Mary and Gershom Booth.

Gen. 4-	Ira Edwin Booth	b.	1863
		d.	1942 (?)
	Ettie Booth	b.	1870
		d.	1894

Ira Edwin Booth was a medical doctor and we have the following from the American Medical Association in Chicago. He was born in Canada in 1863 - graduated from Medical College, New York University, May 1887 and was granted a license to practice medicine in 1887. He had his office at 437 W. 124th Street, New York City, from 1887 until 1936 when he went to Buffalo (Erie City) with his office at 311 Main Street. 1942 was the last year he held a license to practice. He would be 79 years old at that time.

Dr. Booth married Jessie Gardiner, a daughter of L.M. Gardiner of Gouverneur September 1, 1892. Jessie died and the Doctor married twice after that. He had one son Edwin who visited in Canada with his father when he was a boy of 10-12 years of age. We have no information about the boy Edwin.

Gen. 4-

Ettie Booth was not married when she died at 24 years of diptheria in New York City. She was brought to Lowville for burial. We have some other notes on the Booth family supplied by Mrs. Homer Perkins of Watertown, N.Y.

1. A copy of Mrs. Booth's obituary which states that she took suddenly very ill about noon on July 4th, 1898 and died within a few hours. She was living alone in Rodman and none of her relatives reached her before she died. Her son, Dr. Booth, it says was rustivating in the wilderness of Canada fifty miles from any mail or telegraph and did not learn of his mother's death until a week later. She was buried in the Rural Cemetery in Lowville.

2. There is a deed where Gersham Booth bought land in Rodman from Egbert Glass.
3. A letter of administration where I. Edwin Booth was appointed administrator for the estate of Mary J. Booth July 15, 1898.
4. From the census of 1880 -
Booth - Ger. W. age 40 born Canada
Mary Jane, age 38, born Canada
Ira E. age 17 born Canada
Ettie age 10 born N.Y.
5. From a scrap book pertaining to Rodman - Spring 1882 - G.W. Booth and family will remove to Watertown this week.
Spring 1883 - Mrs. G.W. Booth and daughter are again residents of this place (Rodman).
July 1895 - Mrs. G.W. Booth came to Rodman visiting from New York.
6. July 4, 1898 - Mrs. G.W. Booth died.

Aldelia Bruce	b.	Sept. 17,	1842
	d.	Dec. 21,	1875

She and her sister Sarah were running a milliners shop in Lowville. Aldelia took sick and died very suddenly. The family thought her death might have been caused by a medical mistake. She is buried in Rural Cemetery in Lowville.

	Earl Bruce	b. Feb. 20,	1890
		d. Jan. 1,	1946

Robert Bruce according to his obituary went to Lowville in 1865. He was a blacksmith and carriage maker and he ran a shop in Lowville until a few years before his last illness. He died of a malignancy in his throat and was sick quite a long time. He and three of his brothers all learned their trade in the old stone shop on the hill in Toledo. This building was first built for a school and was the first school-house in Toledo but was used as a shop by some of the Bruce family for many years in fact until a few years before John Bruce died in 1927. The building is now used as a storage and warehouse by Struther's Furniture and Appliances Ltd. I have some quite fond memories of my Uncle Rob and Aunt Lottie. I went with my father and mother when they visited them in Lowville when I was quite young and I remember they visited us in Canada in later years. He was a rather short but very powerfully built man and he loved to hunt in his spare time. I remember on two occasions he took me with him hunting partridge in the nearby bush. Aunt Lottie was a very kind and motherly sort of woman. (See Appendix 2).

Fred Bruce learned the blacksmith trade in his father's shop and worked at it until he retired when he was well over seventy years of age. He was said at one time to be the best horse-shoer in Lewis County. In 1973 he was living at a nursing home in Martinsburg at 97 years of age. He never married.

John Bruce went to the U.S.A. when he was a young man but returned and ran a blacksmiths shop in Toledo for many years. Mrs. John Bruce was a sister of Mrs. Henry Bruce. They only had one child, Vernon Bruce, a crippled boy. He died in 1934. This family is buried at Toledo.

Abigail Bruce never married and stayed with her parents at the old homestead and after their death she and Alvira lived there until they died. Abigail loved flowers and I so well remember their front yard where the flags (a type of Iris) would be in bloom as soon as the snow was gone, then the lilacs and different kinds of roses, the tiger and orange lilies and peonies as well as beds of annual flowers.

The Coads lived on a farm near Toledo but they moved to Smiths Falls in 1904. He worked for years for the Frost and Woods Company and later at the Smiths Falls Malleable Iron Works. Elissa and George Coad only had one child, Luella, who died March 12, 1886 at 3 years and 9 months of age. The Coads lived for many years at the corner of Russell and McGill in Smiths Falls.

Henry Bruce lived and worked at his trade in Toledo until about 1900 when he moved to Smiths Falls. They were on what is now Chambers Street for some years and then they lived on Elmsley Street until they died. They are buried at Toledo.

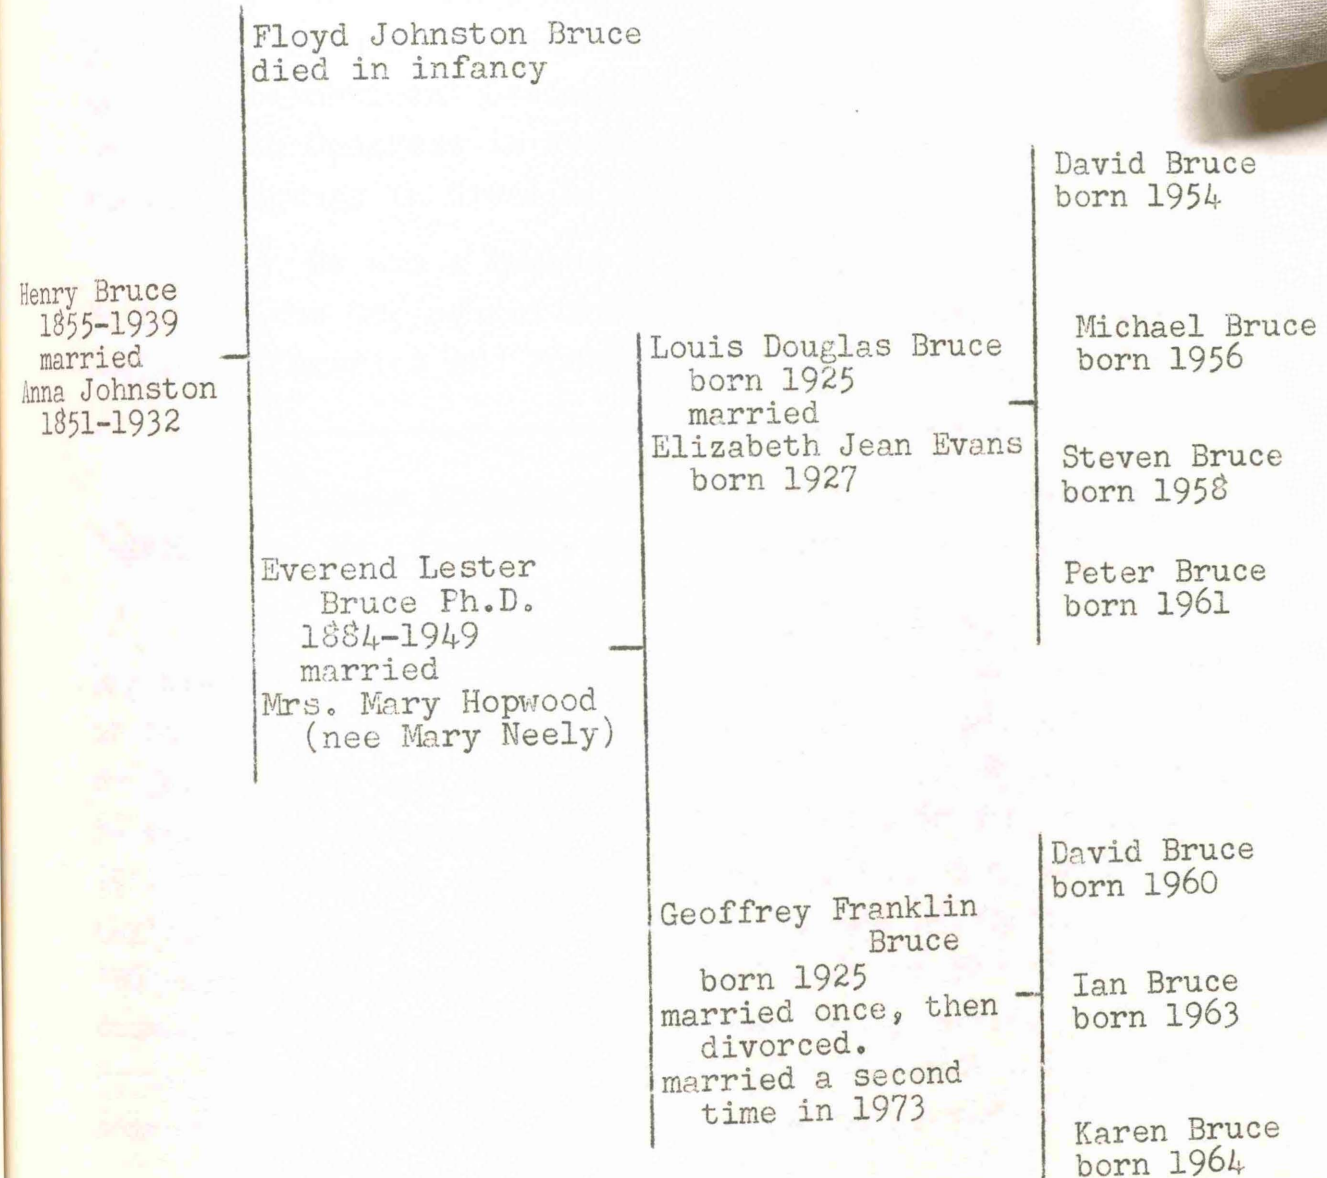

In Smiths Falls he worked for a great many years at the Smiths Falls Malleable Iron Works. I remember watching him as he weighed in the different kinds of iron as they were wheeled in and dumped into the furnace to make a batch of malleable iron.

His son Dr. E.L. Bruce had a very distinguished career as a geologist, mining engineer and teacher. He was born and attended public school in the village of Toledo in Leeds County, Ontario. He attended high school in Athens and later in Smiths Falls. He had completed his high school and model school training before he was old enough to teach. He taught school at both Newleiss and Addison, Ontario and then entered Queen's University in 1905. He graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Science in 1909 and then later completed his requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in geology. As an undergraduate he led his classes in geology and minerology, played on the University's first football team and became president of his Alma Mater Society.

He went to Columbia University and took his degree of Master of Arts in 1912 and then his Doctor of Philosophy in 1915. In 1916 he attended the University of Wisconsin for special training in Precambrian geology.

Beginning in 1912 he did geological surveys for both the Dominion and Ontario governments as well as continuing his academic studies. He was a permanent member of the Geological Survey of Canada and in 1919 he joined the staff of Queen's University as Professor of Minerology. In 1927 he became the first Miller Memorial Research Professor at Queen's and in 1944 on the retirement of Dr. Baker he became the Head of the Department of Geology which position he held at his death.

During most of his teaching career he engaged during the summer months in geological surveys for mining companies and different Governments and this extensive field experience was one of the reasons for his great success as a teacher and supplied him with much material for his many publications. We have been assisted in getting information about the Weatherhead family by Mrs. Elma Barrington of Rock Spring, Ontario and Miss Edith Weatherhead of Ottawa.

PAMELA BRUCE

In our introduction we mentioned Pamela Bruce. The 1851 census shows Robert and Mary Bruce, and also Pamela age 13 years. She was evidently a grandchild and may have been a child of natural birth. Be that as it may, she had a number of descendants who were very fine people, and we shall list her as generation 3 and continue from there.

Generation 3-	Pamela Bruce	born	May 6,	1838
		died	Mar. 27,	1891
	married James Quinn	born	Mar. 14,	1825
		died	Aug. 5,	1891

They were married March 16, 1858 and in 1861 they were living on lot 16, concession 6 of Kitley Township. They later lived at two different locations near Rockspring and are buried in Giffins Cemetery near Rockspring. The location in Kitley is verified by the 1861 Agricultural Census. We have the following from the Archives of The Incorporated Synod of the Diocese of Ontario, at Kingston, Ontario.

North Augusta Parish Register, 4-N3, page 247.

- Pamela Quinn, 53 years old, residence - Elizabethtown, died March 27, 1891 - buried March 29, 1891 in Giffins Burial Ground - The Reverend Jose Elliott officiating.
- James Quinn, 66 years old - residence - Elizabethtown, occupation - farmer, died August 5, 1891 - buried August 7, 1891 in Giffins Burial Ground - The Reverend Jose Elliott officiating.

We visited Giffins Burial Ground in 1973. This is also known as Fernbank Cemetery.

Kitley - 11-K-1- John Quinn, 85 years old, born Co. Armagh, Ireland - buried August 1, 1883 by the Reverend S.T. Leathley in the Presbyterian Burial Ground.

We do not have definite proof, but it does seem very probable that this John Quinn was the father of James Quinn, who married Pamela Bruce and also probably the father of Elizabeth Quinn, who was first married to a Lockwood, and then later became the third wife of John Edgar, who lived at Newbliss Ontario. John Quinn was a founding member of this Presbyterian Congregation at Toledo, Ontario.

The children of Pamela Bruce and James Quinn were:

Generation 4 - (1) John Isaac Quinn married Tilly Scott, April 9, 1890 - they had no family.

- Gen. 4- (2) Robert Charles Quinn married and lived in Dakota - he had no family.
- (3) Elizabeth Ann Quinn did not marry. She kept the Post Office, and ran a small grocery for many years at Newbliss. She is buried in Giffins Cemetery in the same plot as her father and mother. (As previously mentioned, this cemetery is sometimes called Fernbank).

APPENDIX 1

From the Penguin Dictionary of Names we have the following: The name Bruce is from a place name in Normandy - I Briouze, a muddy place, II Brus meaning a Heath - It is the family name of the Earls of Elgin and three other peers.

From the Dell book of Names we have - Bruce (French) - from the brushwood thicket.

From Black's, The Surnames of Scotland, we have the following: This surname so celebrated in the history of Scotland is of territorial origin from the Chateau d'Adam at Brix, between Cherbourg and Valognes, Normandy. The ruins of the extensive fortress built in the eleventh century by Adam de Brus and called after him Chateau d'Adam yet remain. The first Robert de Bruce in Britain was probably the leader of the Brus contingent in the army of William the Conqueror in 1066. This knight brought with him two sons and it was a direct descendant of his who became Robert Bruce king of Scotland on March 27, 1306. He was given a large tract of land in Yorkshire known as the lands of Skelton. He died about 1094. It seems that another branch of the family acquired a share of the Orkney earldom before 1066 and there is also a Swedish branch of the family ennobled in 1668 and probably descended from Robert Bruce of Lynmylne.

Robert Bruce son of the knight who came over with William the Conqueror's army was given the Lordship of Annandale in Scotland by David I king of Scotland and Robert the king acquired the Earldom of Carrick through his mother.

There is another source that says that the Bruces were of Northern Origin and that Sigurd the Vicking son-in-law of Malcom II had four sons, one of whom was named Brusi. It is claimed that he was the progenitor of the Family of Bruce. Be that as it may the name is widely spread throughout the English speaking world and they seem to have arrived in Ulster in Ireland in the early seventeen hundreds although they probably were in Southern Ireland around Cork at an earlier date.

There is one thing that anybody who bears this surname may be sure of, they are not a descendant of Robert the king or of any of his four brothers, because there were no male descendants.

The present head of the Bruce clan is now The Earl of Elgin, descendant from Bruce of Clackmannan who sprang from a cousin of King Roberts. His seat is at Broomhall, in Fife Scotland.

The first of our Bruce family who came to Canada in 1823 from Londonderry the centre of the linen trade in Ireland was probably a weaver.

Mr. Fred Smith who was a high school teacher and later a school inspector in Kingston, Ont. was a grandson of David Bass and his wife Elizabeth Bruce. Some time before he died in 1958 he did quite a lot of research on the family but we have not been able to see his work. It may be in the hands of his adopted son Malcolm who is living somewhere in British Columbia.

However, we do know the Besses were U.E. Loyalists. Dr. Adonych Bass and his family were living on Bunker Hill near Boston Massachusetts on June 17th, 1775 and they had ringside seats at the battle of Bunker Hill. The doctor was a Loyalist and the family immediately decided to move to Canada but unfortunately Dr. Adonych died before they could make the move. However, the rest of the family came and settled in Augusta Township in Grenville County, Ontario. It is said that the two sons were able to exchange some of their property in Massachusetts for cattle which they drove all the way up to their new home in Augusta. They made more than one trip.

The Brown Family

The Bruce Family book was finished and ready for distribution in late December, 1974 and now some four months later I have found some further information that may be of interest to the descendants of Hezakiah Brown and his wife Mary Bruce.

This information has been found in a manuscript compiled by Mr. Howard Morton Brown of Ottawa. Mr. Brown has used a good deal of professional help in gathering this material and he has very kindly given me permission to pass it on to the members of the Brown family who have been mentioned in my book "The Bruce Family of Kitley Township".

This information pushes back the ancestral record of the Brown family a few generations and also clarifies the record of the family of Hezekiah Brown and his wife Mary Bruce. Mr. Brown's manuscript is in the library of the Ottawa Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society and may be seen and examined there for much more detailed information than I will give here.

Elder John Brown

We do not know the date of birth but Elder John Brown (Browne) died at Killingsworth Connecticut April 29, 1708. His wife Hannah was the widow of Augustine Williams of Stonington, Connecticut and a daughter of Nicholas and Elizabeth Norton of Martha's Vineyard, Edgartown, Massachusetts. John Brown had died without a will and Hannah took oath on June 8, 1709 as to the correctness of the appraisal of his estate valued at 284 pounds 17s-5d. She died before February 4, 1710 and two Bondsmen, John Crane and Daniel Williams, were sworn in as administrators of the estate.

There was only one child from this marriage.

Samuel Brown - was born April 16, 1700. He died before 1745 and according to his grandson Zerah Brown in his application for a land grant in Canada Samuel died while fighting in Cuba. England and Spain were at war 1739-1748, and many men from the American colonies joined the British Army and fought in that war.

Samuel married Joanna Loomis a daughter of Hezekiah Loomis and his wife Mary Porter of Windsor, Connecticut. They were married November 8, 1721. Samuel and Joanna had ten children and after his death she married Dr. Daniel Porter of Waterbury, Conn.

land in Canada, in the Public Archives at Ottawa she went to Nova Scotia and died some time after 1807.

Captain Hezekiah was a very outspoken loyalist. He was charged with saying in the presence of a number of people that the Congress ought to be punished for putting the country to so much cost and charge, for they did no more good than a parcel of squaws and that Boston had wrongfully undertaken to quarrel about the tea and, we had no hand in it; that our General Assembly was as arbitrary as the Pope of Rome, when it cashiered Captain Amos Bronson and ensign Samuel Scovell. Mr. Howard Browne's manuscript continues at considerable length with the affairs of Captain Hezekiah at this time.

m. - Elizabeth (Betsy) Allan and they had eight sons and two daughters. This man was the youngest son of Captain Hezekiah Brown, 1734 - 1777 and the father of Hezekiah
Brown, born August 3, 1806 or 1807 who married Mary Bruce. He was born in Waterbury Conn. and was said to be with his mother at Maugherville, Sunbury Co. N.B. in 1786 on her Loyalist claim No. 466. He was married in New Brunswick and came with his family to Elizabethtown Township Leeds Co. in 1808 and into Kitley Township in Leeds Co., in 1809 where he was granted 200 acres of crown land in concession 6 lot 22.
The oldest child of William Warner was William born in New Brunswick March 4, 1804. He died in Kitley March 25, 1869. He was married November 4, 1829 to Melinda Dack. They are both buried in Lehigh's Cemetery. Hezekiah that married Mary Bruce was the second child. One of the daughters married John Woods of Kitley and a son David was a witness at William's wedding in 1829. There was also Aaron Brown a farmer in Kitley in concession 6 lot 27. We have no record of the rest of William Warner's children.

If we take this Brown family and start with Elder John Elder John as   generation 1
Samuel will be   "         2
Captain Hezekiah    "         3
William Warner   "         4
Hezekiah who married Mary Bruce                               "         5

Mr. Howard Morton Brown compiled his manuscript in 1972 and he is a descendant of Jonah Brown a brother of William Warner who came up into Leeds Co. in 1808. Howard Brown was born in Carleton Place Ont. He is a retired civil servant and he is living at 23 Crescent Hights in Ottawa. He is also a brother of Captain Roy Brown D.S.C. and Bar who shot down Baron Manfred Von Richthofen in World War I.

Mr. Brown's manuscript throws some further light, and makes some changes in what I said on page 18 of the Bruce Family Book. I found in the 1851 - 1852 census William W. Brown 18 years of age his next birthday and no mention of Wellington. However, Wellington was listed in the 1861 census so I assumed wrongly that William W. in 1851 - 52 was Wellington in 1861.

The William W. listed in 1851-52 was William Warner the oldest child of Hezekiah and Mary Bruce and the third child listed Warren was really Warren Wellington.

This William Warner was born in 1834. He is named in his father's will of 1884. He married Lorette Livingston a daughter of John Livingston and his wife Loretta De Wolfe of Kitley. In 1861 they were living in Athens, Younge Township and he was a joiner by trade.

Warren Wellington was born in 1837 and was unmarried in 1861. He was mentioned in his father's will in 1884.
Ezra was born in 1839. He married Nancy L. Livingston November 3, 1858. Nancy was a sister of William Warner's wife who was born in 1835. Ezra's wife was born in 1842. Ezra was not mentioned in his father's will of 1884 and perhaps had died before that time.
