The following material was secured from books of the various Historians in the Libraries of Walkerville, Windsor, Kingston, also the Synod Office in Kingston, Ontario.

The Author desires to acknowledge the help and encouragement from the following People.

H. Pearson Gundy, Librarian Emeritus, Queen's University.

Lt. Col. L.J. Flynn, President, Kingston Historical Society.

Lt. Allan Neil Maclean must not be confused with General Allan Maclean who Historians say was in the 84th. Regiment and with Carlton at Quebec.

It will be noted that some material will be quoted twice but by different Historians.

You will also note there are some records included pertaining to Sergeant Neil Maclean. This was necessary as Lt. Allan Neil Maclean married Harriet, Daughter of Sgt. Neil Maclean and his first wife. Their records both war and Personal were very similar as well as Sgt. Neil being Father-in-Law of Lt. Allan Neil, Allan Neil Maclean was born in Scotland about 1752 and came to Canada or New York as a Lt., in the British Army, 29th. Regiment before or during the Revolutionary War. The Regiment after the War was discharged in Quebec and returned to England.

Lt. Allan Neil is shown as Lt. Reduced and being a Storekeeper in the Commissary at Cataraqui under Sgt. Neil McLean who was the Commissary.

Military records show all Macleans as McLean in all their records.

A report in the book (Centennial of the Settlement of Upper Canada) by the United Empire Loyalists show Allan Neil McLean as a Lt. in the 29th. Regiment and being discharged in Quebec. Major Green reported that the men belonging to the 29th. and 34th. Regiments were discharged in 1787 when the Regiments went Home to England.

Caniff the historian who wrote (History of Upper Canada 1869) dealing particularly with settlement of Kingston and Bay of Quinte, says on page 425 that Neil Maclean not only received Lot 1 as mentioned but also (the Island at mouth of river called Isle Aux Pere) known to us as Bells Island. On page 426 he includes Lt. Allan Maclean as among those who came here two or three years after the Loyalists settlement of 1784. Neil Maclean you will recall was presumed to be attached to the 84th. Regiment and this being the case came to Cataraqui or Kingston, for among the garrison here in the early part of 1784 were members of the 34th. and 84th. Regiments and of Sir John Johnsons 2nd. Battalion of the Kings Royal Regiment of New York.

Note

Lt. Neil McLean - Reduced was in the 84th. Regiment.
Sgt. Neil McLean - was in the 34th. Regiment and Commissary at Cataraqui.

Also in the book (Centennial of the Settlement of Upper Canada by the United Empire Loyalists) on pages 312-313 it shows the following.

Sgt. Neil McLean and Wife Allan McLean Lt. 29th. Regmt. Reduced Neil McLean Lt. 84th. " "

William McDonald

You will notice there were 2 Neil McLeans in the Commissary with Sgt. McLean as Commissary with Lt. Allan and Lt. Neil as Storekeepers. Both of the Lts. Reduced

This Lt. Neil McLeans record has been confused with that of Sgt. Neil McLean. In the John Askin Papers Page 715 it states possibly Archibald McLean a Lt. in the Third York Militia who was born in St. Andrews Upper Canada April 5th. 1791 the son of Neil McLean and subsequently the step son of Robert Hamilton, died Oct. 24th. 1865 in Toronto.

This statement is part in error, Archibalds Father was Lt. Neil McLean who was not the Commissary at Cataraqui but was a Storekeeper under Sgt. Neil McLean.

The following appears in a book.
Kingston before the War of 1812
By Richard A. Preston, Prof. of History, Royal Military College of Canada.

Page 219.

Lt. Allan McLean Born 1752 - Died 1847 was a Storekeeper at Cataraqui where Sgt. Neil McLean was Commissary. Lt. Allan Neil married Harriet daughter of Sgt. Neil.

Allan Neil was enrolled as a Barrister on July 7th. 1794 and was Secretary of the Land Claims Board of the Midland District. He was Treasurer of the Quarter Sessions and Registrar, but vacated his Office by moving out of the District in Jan. 1796. In 1798 was again a Clerk of the Peace. From 1804 - 24 He was a Member of the Legislative Assembly for Frontenac and from 1812 - 16 He was Speaker of the House.
During the War of 1812 he was Lt. Col. and second in command of the First Frontenac Militia. In 1816 he was a Member of the Military Pensions Board for the Midland District and he was also a trustee for the Lancasterian School.

Caniff says on Page 437

Allan McLean Esq. the first Lawyer of Kingston created such by an Order-in-Council. His abilities were moderate and his original defective. (First lawyers were selected from among citizens who were not graduates of law schools. A man of considerable taste, modest, dignified in his deportment. For many years was the only legal adviser in the place. He was a faithful Representative in Parliament for many years. Was liberal in his political opinions. As proof of his good taste, he was proprietor of one of the best gardens in the Province. It covered one acre of ground and contained many choice fruit trees, such as apples, plums, pears and peach etc., all tastefully arranged, kept in prime order and defended from the wind by a high wall. He took honest pride in showing his garden to his friends and did not stint in distributing its lucious products. Mr. McLean left one daughter, who became the wife of John McLean Esq.

Sheriff of the Midland District.

* Note - Allan and Harriet Maclean had 5 Daughters and 4 Sons.

* " The last paragraph stating (First Lawyers were selected from among Citizens who were not graduates of Law Schools) was in error as the following paragraph will prove.

Allan McLean was one of the Barristers admitted by the Law Society of Upper Canada under the Authority of a Statue of the Legislature, he being enrolled on the 7th. of July 1794 together with Messers D.W. Smith, Richard Barnes Tickell, Angus McDonald and James Clark Jr. Roll of Upper Canada Law Soc-iety Osgood Hall and Q 280-I page 245. As a Barrister he was granted 1200 Acres of land, that being the quantity regularly granted to Barristers.

We understand from the description of the garden, also from the following paragraph why when land was subdivided the streets were called Grove and Orchard in Kingston.

Miss Machar in her (Story of Old Kingston) page 95 speaks of the garden,

Mr. Allan McLean probably the son of Neil McLean already mentioned, possessed a tastefully laid out demesne called (The Grove) on the shore of the Cataract near the present Cotton Mill, which contained one of the best gardens in the Province, an acre in extent and filled with choice fruit trees.

A foot note states.

A granddaughter of this gentleman still dwells in Kingston, now the widow of Dr. O.S. Strange, long an esteemed Physician of old Kingston.

* Note - Allan was Son in Law of Neil McLean.

Ontario Archives 20th. Report 1931

Col. Allan McLean represented the County of Frontenac in the Legislative Assembly of Upper Canada for the 4-5-6-7-8- 1804 to 1824 Parliaments being the Speaker of the last 3. He died near Kingston on Oct. 8th. 1847 - 94 years.

Col. Allan Maclean's Property throughout the Province as shown in his Land Book amounted to 17066 Acres.

The original of this list written in handwriting is now in the Archives of the Douglas Library, Queens University, Kingston, Ontario. Copy in hands of Writer.

Original hand drawn map of Kingston is also in the Archives of the Library.

The above as well as other Family Papers will all be in the Douglas Library and in separate file under,

Maclean Family of Kingston

The preceding was written for the express purpose of clearing up some of the records of our Ancestors. In a few cases it is not complete as desired, however from Family and Church records also the Public Archives as well as some research from other sources, results have been cross checked and you will note the source of information has been shown.

You will again note that most of the Military as well as Historians spelled Maclean as McLean but our Family Bible as well as other records show Maclean.

The following records were rechecked from the original records now in the vault in the Synod Office in Kingston.

and of that of the County of Frontenac down

Judge of the Court of Common Pleas with Dr.
Stuart and Mr. James Clark on July 14th. 1788
He had been a Sergeant in the 34th. Regiment and had been Acting Commissary General which was the reason for his Daughter Harriet receiving 3000 Acres of land as the Devisee of her late Father on the 18th. Nov. 1797.

For this same quantity of land he had himself applied to His Excellency in Council on Oct. 17th. 1792 (Q Series Public Archives of Canada Vol. 282 I pages 263 - 4 alleging that he had served His Majesty for 34 years and that he had been reduced in 1783 from 20 shillings per day to seven and sixpence. He represented also that he had been long a resident in the Province. Resolved reads the

He owned Lot 2 in the town of Councilon July 24th. 1793 that occupancy of the Beach in front of the same by any

OUR MOTHER IS DEAD
Died July 17th. 1878 on Wednesday

We laid our Mother down so low In a shady nook where the pine trees grow
We laid her away with prayers and tears
To slumber on through the coming years
Her grave is like a soft green bed
With the waving pine trees overhead
And the hands that laid her down to rest Were the hands of those that loved her best And the sun is just as bright today
As though our Dear Mother had not passed away

But our home is lonely and dear Father is sad Because she is gone who made home glad She sleeps so quietly under the trees
And the Sabbath music is borne on the breeze From out Christ's Church beside the pine Where our loved ones mingle in prayer divine And the little birds how they fly about In the waving branches over her head How little they know our Dear Mother is dead

But by and by in the joyous spring Over her grave the birds will sing
And the little robins will build their nest Just where Dear Mother is laid to rest
It may be wrong to mourn and fret
For her we never can forget
And we know our Mother would tell us so Just as she did ere God called her to go So we'll leave our trouble with him above Who doeth nothing but in tenderest love
And when our day is past and night is nigh
We hope to meet our Mother beyond the bright sky
