A SERVICE OF CELEBRATION

For the LIFE of

ALLIE VIBERT DOUGLAS
(December 15, 1894 to July 2, 1988)

In the presence of: Professor John Coleman, Marie-Jeanne Coleman, Patrick, Audrey, Marie-Claire, Stephen, Valerie(Endicott),
Marianne, Daniel, Krystyne, Isabel

"The Annandale"
Kingston, Ontario
Sunday July 3, 1988

The day is done and the darkness
Falls from the wings of night
As a feather is wafted downward
From an eagle in his flight.

I see the lights of the village
Gleam through the rain and the mist,
And a feeling of sadness comes o'er me
That my soul cannot resist:

A feeling of sadness and longing
that is not akin to pain,
And resembles sorrow only as the mist resembles the rain.

Come, read to me some poem,
Some simple heartfelt lay,
that shall soothe this restless feeling,
and banish the thoughts of day

Not from the grand old masters,
Not from the bards sublime,
Whose distant footsteps echo through the corridors of Time.

For, like the strains of martial music
Their mighty thoughts suggest
Life's endless toil and endeavour;
and tonight I long for rest.

Read from some humbler poet,
Whose songs gushed from his heart,
As showers from the clouds of summer,
Or tears from the eyelids start;

Who through long days of labour,
And nights devoid of ease,
Still heard in his soul the music
Of wonderful melodies.

Such songs have the power to quiet
The restless pulse of care,
And come like the benediction
That follows after prayer.

Then read from the treasured volume
The poem of thy choice,
And lend to the rhyme of the poet
The beauty of thy voice.

And the night shall be filled with music
And the cares that infest the day,
Shall fold their tents, like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away.
-a favorite poem of Aunt Allie's by Longfellow-

As we gather to celebrate the life of Allie Vibert Douglas our aunt and friend. We especially remember those very dear to her who are not here: Mary, who is in Calgary or flying home; Paul who lovingly looked after Aunt Allie last year and who is in hospital in Vancouver; Alec who took up Aunt Allie's care this year; Sarah in Athens; John in Devon with Orion and Lisa; Ingram Cleasby; and Mary L'Estrange. Aunt Allie's thoughts were especially with Paul when she died. All these, and friends in the wider world we remember also.

What especially do we celebrate? First we celebrate her freedom. That her spirit is now free and her body at rest.

We celebrate that her life came to a close as she would have wished: simply and with her family close by.

We celebrate her life of searching for truth, her life of the mind and spirit searching the mysteries of the stars.

We celebrate her life as a peacemaker in all levels of her life in her world wide concerns, in her university life and with her family and friends.

We celebrate her generosity to us. Her givings which provided us with education, travel and homes.

We celebrate her love and care for each one of us infinitely more varied and enduring than any of us could describe.

We celebrate all the good times together in different parts of the world but especially at Ashkirk, her little island, which for her linked the past and present so strongly that finally it did not matter really which was which.

Today then we are going to read some short passages dear to her in the litany of her life.

This verse she sent to her brother as he set out with Shackleton on the Quest in 1921...

Psalm 139 Vs 9-10 "Though I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the innermost parts of the sea; even there shall thy hand hold me and thy right hand shall lead me."

Isaiah 40 Vs 28-31 "Hast though not known? hast though not heard. that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall. But they that wait upon the lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 58 Vs 1-8 "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my way, as a nation they did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God. Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold in the day of your fast ye find pleasure and exact all your labours. Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high. Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast and an acceptable day to the lord? Is not this the fast that I have chosen? ...to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thy bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? When thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Then shall the light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the Lord shall be thy reward."

1 Corinthians 8 Vs 3 "But if any man love God, the same is known of him."

Proverbs 8 Vs 22-31 "The lord possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water. Before the mountains were settled before the hills was I brought forth. While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields nor the highest part of the dust of the world. When he prepared the heavens I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth : When he established the clouds above : when he strengthened the fountains of the deep : When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment : when he appointed the foundations of the earth. Then I was by him, as one brought up with him : and I was daily his delight always rejoicing before him."

Micah 6 Vs 8 "He hath showed thee, O man, What is good ; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God."

John 1 Vs 1-5 "In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not."

John 14 Vs 1-4 "Let not your heart be troubled : ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions: if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know."

Romans 8 Vs 39-39 "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

(the following Psalms said together)

Psalm 23 "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil : for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies : thou anointest my head with oil; and my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the lord for ever."

Psalm 121 "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved : he that keepeth thee will not slumber nor sleep. The lord is thy keeper: the lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and for ever more."

Hymn " For the Beauty of the Earth "

For the Beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies,
Refrain: Lord of all to thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon, and stars of light, Refrain

For the joy of ear and eye,
For the heart and mind's delight,
For the mystic harmony
Linking sense to sound and sight, Refrain

For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above,
For all gentle thoughts and mild, Refrain

For each perfect gift of thine to our race so freely given,
Graces human and divine,
Flowers of earth and buds of heaven, Refrain

Donna Nobis Pacem (sung as a round)

Prayer

Our father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom,
The power and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
And the love of God,
And the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
Be with us all evermore.
Amen

Special Thoughts - Mary, Paul Alec

Ingram, Sarah, John, Orion

Mary L'Estrange.

DAN'S Reading V. D.

As we gather to celebrate the life of Allie Vibert Douglas our aunt and our friend
We especially remember those very dear to her who are not here. Mary, who is in Calgary or flying home. Paul who lovingly looked after Aunt Allie last year and who is in hospital in Vancouver, Ake who took up Allie's care last year Sarah in Athen, John in Devon with Orion & Liz. Ingram and Mary's Est France.
Aunt Allie's thoughts were especially with Paul before she died.

All these and friends in the wider world
We remember.

What especially do we celebrate?

First I think we celebrate her freedom. That her spirit is now free and her body at rest.

We Celebrate that her life came to a close as she would have wished. Simply and with her family close by.

We Celebrate her life of searching for truth her life of the mind and spirit searching the mysteries of the stars.

We celebrate her life as a peace maker in all the levels of her life in her world wide Concerns, in her university life and with her family and friends.

We Celebrate her Generosity to us. Her giving's which provided us with education, travel and homes.

We celebrate her love and care for each one of us infinitely more varied and enduring than any of us could describe.

We celebrate all the great times together in different parts of the world but especially at Ashboink her little island which for her linked the past and present so strongly that finally it did not really matter which was which.

Today then we are going to read some short passages dear to her in the litany of her life.

Ps. 139. Though I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the innermost part of the sea, Even there shall thy hand hold me and thy right hand shall lead me. This verse she sent to her brother as he set out with Shackleton on the Quest in 1921.

Hymn

Domine Nobis Pacem

Ps 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither stumble nor sleep

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee going out and thy coming in, from this time forth and even for ever more

For the Beauty of the Earth

- ① For the beauty of the earth
For the beauty of the skies
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies

Refrain Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise

- ② For the beauty of each hour
of the day and of the night
Hill and vale, and tree and flower
Sun and moon and stars of light,

Refrain -

- ③ For the joy of ear and eye
For the heart and mind's delight
For the mystic harmony
Linking sense to sound and sight,
Refrain

- ④ For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child
Friends on earth and friend above
For all gentle thoughts and mild,
Refrain
