The insignia of membership in the Order of Canada comprise:

- (a) the badges of COMPANION, OFFICER and MEMBER.
- (b) three corresponding miniatures, i.e., small size replicas of the badges.
- (c) three corresponding lapel buttons (men) and brooches (women).

This brief guide to when and how the insignia are worn has been prepared for ease of reference by persons appointed to the Order.

General

There is no hard and fast rule, but it is customary to wear the badge of the Order — and other decorations and medals as well — on ceremonial occasions and at those events when DECORATIONS are called for in the text of the invitation or notice received from the host or the sponsor.

Decorations are not worn at informal gatherings but it is appropriate to wear — indeed, all members are urged to wear regularly — the lapel button or brooch as a mark of their membership in the Order.

COMPANION and OFFICER (men)

The badges of COMPANION and OFFICER when received at the Investiture are suspended from a wide ribbon of sufficient length to pass over the recipient's head. Following the Investiture, it is customary to remove the wide ribbon and substitute a short length of narrow (miniature width) ribbon which is more easily and neatly fastened or tied at the back of the neck.

When worn with formal clothes i.e., full evening dress (white tie), dinner jacket (black tie), morning dress, whether tailcoat or short black (director's) jacket, the ribbon should be passed under the turn-down shirt collar or around the wing-collar under the tie. The ribbon should be adjusted so that the badge hangs about an inch below the knot of the tie (see figures 1 and 2).

Members in these two categories, who have, as well, the neck badge of any other order should wear only one with civilian clothing. The occasion should determine which badge is appropriate.

MEMBER (men)

The badge of MEMBER is worn on the left breast suspended from its proper ribbon. When worn with other decorations and medals, all should be mounted on a medal bar in their proper precedence.

Miniatures (men)

With evening dress, decorations and medals are worn in miniature size, fastened by a brooch pin on the left breast, usually on the lapel of the tailcoat or dinner jacket. A minia- ture of the COMPANION or OFFICER badge is worn in addition to the neck badge, by those who possess one or more other decorations and medals. (see figure 1).

COMPANION and OFFICER (women)

The badge is worn on the left side, suspended from a length of ribbon fashioned into a bow. Other decorations and medals are worn above the badge of the Order (see figure 3).

MEMBER (women)

The badge of MEMBER when it is the only decoration the recipient holds is worn on the left side suspended from a bow. When worn along with other decorations and medals, however, all should be arranged side by side (see figure 4).

Full-size decorations and miniatures (women)

With daytime or evening dress the badge of COMPANION or OFFICER (full-size) is worn. In addition, other decorations and medals (full-size) are worn with daytime dress but in miniature size with evening dress. A miniature of the COMPANION or OFFICER badge should be included with other miniatures and worn in addition to the full-size badge. (see figure 3).

Note for members of the Order wearing uniforms

The uniformed services regulate the manner in which decorations and medals should be worn. Military personnel are advised to consult C.A.F. Dress Regulations.

Women in uniforms of military pattern wear the badges of the Order in the same manner as men.

Les insignes de l'Ordre du Canada comprennent:

- l'insigne de COMPAGNON, d'OFFICIER ou de MEMBRE;
- la réplique miniature de chacun des insignes et,
- l'épingle correspondante, portée à la boutonnière (hommes) ou la broche correspondante (femmes).

La présente directive concernant le port de l'insigne a été préparée à l'intention de tous les dignitaires de l'Ordre du Canada.

Renseignements généraux

Bien qu'il n'existe aucune règle stricte, il est d'usage de porter l'insigne de l'Ordre — de même que toutes autres décorations ou médailles — à l'occasion de cérémonies ou lors de réunions où il est expressément demandé de porter les «décorations», dans le texte de l'invitation ou de l'avis envoyé par l'hôte ou l'organisateur.

Les décorations ne doivent pas être portées lors de réunions sans solennité, mais il serait bon — et nous le conseillons même à tous les membres — de porter l'épingle ou la broche régulièrement, comme signe d'appartenance à l'Ordre.

COMPAGNON et OFFICIER (hommes)

Les insignes de COMPAGNON et d'OFFICIER remis lors de la cérémonie de réception dans l'Ordre sont suspendus à un large ruban suffisamment long pour être passé par-dessus la tête. Après la cérémonie, on remplace habituellement ce large ruban par un autre plus court et plus étroit qui peut être attaché plus facilement derrière le cou.

Lorsque l'insigne est porté sur une tenue de cérémonie — tenue de soirée (cravate blanche), smoking (cravate noire), ou habit, qu'il s'agisse d'une jaquette ou d'un costume noir (de directeur) à veste courte — le ruban doit être passé sous le col tenant de la chemise, ou sur le faux col et sous la cravate. Le ruban doit être ajusté de manière telle que l'insigne se trouve à environ un pouce au-dessous du noeud de la cravate (voir exemples 1 et 2).

Les personnes titulaires de l'un de ces deux grades, et qui possèdent aussi l'insigne d'un autre Ordre suspendu à un ruban, ne doivent en porter qu'un seul lorsqu'elles sont en tenue civile. Le genre de cérémonie déterminera quel insigne est le mieux approprié.

Exemple 1

Exemple 2

MEMBRE (hommes)

L'insigne de MEMBRE doit être porté sur le côté gauche de la poitrine et suspendu à son propre ruban. Lorsqu'il est porté avec d'autres décorations et médailles, tous les insignes doivent être montés sur une barrette, dans l'ordre de préséance prescrit.

Répliques miniatures (hommes)

Avec une tenue de soirée, les répliques miniatures de toutes décorations et médailles doivent être portées sur le côté gauche de la poitrine, habituellement au revers de la jaquette ou du smoking et attachées par une épingle. La réplique miniature de l'insigne de COMPAGNON ou d'OFFICIER doit être portée, en même temps que l'insigne passé autour du cou, par tous titulaires d'une ou plusieurs autres décorations ou médailles. (voir exemple 1).

COMPAGNON et OFFICIER (femmes)

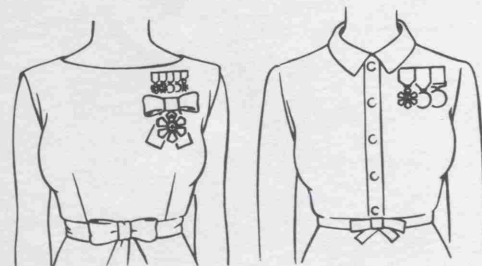

L'insigne doit être porté du côté gauche, suspendu à un ruban en forme de rosette. Les autres décorations et médailles doivent être portées au-dessus de l'insigne de l'Ordre (voir exemple 3).

MEMBRE (femmes)

L'insigne de MEMBRE doit être porté sur le côté gauche avec un ruban en forme de rosette, lorsque le titulaire ne possède pas d'autre décoration. Lorsqu'il est porté avec d'autres décorations et médailles, tous les insignes doivent être placés à la même hauteur (voir exemple 4).

Insignes et répliques miniatures (femmes)

L'insigne de COMPAGNON ou d'OFFICIER est porté avec la tenue de ville ou de soirée. D'autres décorations et médailles peuvent être portées avec la tenue de ville, mais il doit s'agir de répliques miniatures lorsque la personne titulaire est en tenue de soirée. Les répliques miniatures devraient comprendre une réplique du grade de COMPAGNON ou d'OFFICIER, et être portées en même temps que l'insigne proprement dit. (voir exemple 3).

Exemple 3

Remarque à l'intention des membres de l'Ordre portant l'uniforme militaire

Comme il revient aux autorités militaires de déterminer la manière dont les décorations et médailles doivent être portées, le personnel militaire est prié de consulter à cette fin les règlements des F.A.C. concernant le port de l'uniforme.

Les femmes qui portent l'uniforme militaire doivent se conformer aux mêmes règlements que les hommes.

Johnson to Meet Pope

was set and Italian Communists prepared to stage anti-American demonstrations.

An informed source in Madrid said Johnson's plane would refuel and he would spend tonight there on his way home. What began as a trip to memorial rites in Australia for Prime Minister Harold E. Holt, who has been given up for drowned, was turning into an around-the-world flight.

Washington sources believe this would be the first continuous around-the-world flight made by a president while in office. They said several, including Ulysses S. Grant, have travelled around the world but not while in office.

Leaving Australia, Johnson flew into the sprawling U.S. Air Force base at Khorat, Thailand, Friday, to visit airmen, snatched four hours sleep, touched down at Cam Ranh for 1 1/2 hours and bounded on.

In Rome, a Vatican spokesman indicated the president was coming but declined to say the visit was a certainty.

Pope Paul had issued a fresh call Friday for the United States to suspend bombing North Vietnam and for the Communists "to give a sign of serious will for peace."

At Cam Ranh Bay—site of a bustling new harbor on the South China Sea and one of the most secure U.S. bases in South Vietnam—the president told 2,500 fighting men they are discharging U.S. responsibilities in Asia "with blood and sweat and bravery."

Johnson had conferred with the heads of state of four Vietnam allies who flew to Australia for the Holt service. These were South Vietnam's President Nguyen Van Thieu, South Korea's President Chung Hee Park, New Zealand Prime Minister Keith Holyoake and Premier Thanom Kittikachorn of Thailand.

The president also received assurances from Australia's interim prime minister, John McEwen, that Holt's death will not change Australia's pro-American Vietnam policy.

In his visit to a hospital—the same hospital he visited a year ago—the president pinned Purple Hearts on the pyjamas of 20 wounded men.

The Order of Canada

THE GRANTING OF HONOURS is a graceful way for any country to pay tribute to those who exemplify the highest qualities of citizenship and whose contributions enrich the lives of their contemporaries. It was timely that Canada should have adopted this practice on the one-hundredth anniversary of Confederation. The Centennial was an occasion when the achievements of their fellow countrymen were uppermost in the thoughts of Canadians. And so, on July 1st, 1967, the Order of Canada was established as the centrepiece of our system of honours. Its Latin motto proclaims the aspirations of its members who, in their lives and their work, have shown that "they desire a better country."

THE ORDER CONFERS no special privileges on its members and brings them no monetary rewards. It is a fraternity of merit, not a society of the elite. The three levels of membership — COMPANION, OFFICER and MEMBER — are designed to embrace the full spectrum of achievement and service in fields as diverse as biology and ballet, philanthropy and folklore. Persons who strive for the betterment of their immediate communities or devote their talents to special causes stand with those who have gained high distinction on the national scene.

THE QUEEN OF CANADA is the Sovereign of the Order. The Governor General is the Chancellor and Principal Companion and presides over the affairs of the Order, in accordance with the terms of its Constitution. An Advisory Council, under the Chairmanship of the Chief Justice of Canada, has the task of assessing the relative merits of the persons who are nominated for the Order, and recommending to the Chancellor the names of those considered to be especially worthy of appointment.

Although its ranks are closed to no one, the number of persons who can be appointed to the Order is governed by the Constitution. By limiting membership in this way, high standards of admission are maintained and the prestige of the Order is ensured.

At the first level the total number of COMPANIONS may not at any time exceed 150. At the second level, that of OFFICER, not more than 40 persons may be appointed yearly and at the third level of MEMBER, not more than 80.

Within these limits, the continuing success of the Order depends on Canadians everywhere showing their interest and support by participating in the nomination process. Anyone may propose the name of a candidate for appointment and those wishing to do so are asked to address nominations to the:

Director, Secretariat of Honours,
Government House,
Ottawa,
K1A 0A1.

Each nomination should be accompanied by a biographical sketch setting out in some detail the career and achievements of the nominee. It is especially helpful to the Advisory Council to have the personal testimony of close associates. The sponsor may choose to include all the relevant information in a letter, but a convenient nomination form has been prepared for this purpose and copies will be supplied on request by the Secretariat of Honours. Every name proposed goes before the Advisory Council which meets twice a year to consider nominations.

Persons other than Canadian citizens, whom it is desired to honour, may, with the approval of the Governor General in Council, be appointed as honorary members in any of the three degrees of the Order.

EACH YEAR, a day or two before July 1st, and just in advance of New Year's Day, lists are published in the Canada Gazette and in the news media of the names of those newly appointed to the Order of Canada. Some months after publication, the new members are invited to an Investiture ceremony at Government House in Ottawa where they receive the Badge of the Order from the hands of the Governor General and are guests at a reception to mark the occasion.

Following their initial appointment, members at the second and third levels are eligible for promotion within the Order at some future time in recognition of further achievement.

THE INSIGNIA of the Order worn by its membership are the visible marks of honour, along with the initials following their surnames to which every member is also entitled. When the names of members of the Order are published and when they are addressed in correspondence, it is courteous and customary to place after their names the following initials – CC – in the case of COMPANION: – OC – for OFFICER and – CM – for MEMBER.

Throughout this booklet are illustrations of the full range of insignia. The badges of COMPANION and OFFICER are worn by male recipients suspended from a ribbon which passes around the neck, the badge of MEMBER is worn on the left breast, alone or with other decorations and medals in the accepted sequence. All three badges are worn by women recipients on the left side, except that women in uniform display orders, decorations and medals in the same manner as men.

For each of these badges there is a corresponding "miniature" or small scale replica, suspended from a narrow ribbon and worn on the left breast with evening dress.

Because ceremonial and other formal occasions on which it is customary to wear either badges of Orders or miniatures are relatively few, the insignia include a series of small lapel buttons (for men) and brooches (for women) which can be worn any time with street clothes.

THE NAMES of the members of the Order will be found in certain standard reference works including the Canada Year Book. Fully up-to-date lists of members may be obtained from the Honours Secretariat which welcomes enquiries about any aspect of Canada's honours system.

THE CONSTITUTION of the Order, when it was first established, provided only two categories of membership; COMPANION and recipients of the Medal of Service. Five years later, it was decided to modify the structure of the Order so as to extend the range of membership. The degree of OFFICER replaced the Medal of Service and the degree of MEMBER was added. The Constitution as amended in 1972 is set out in the following pages.

Just a line or two to offer my heartiest congratulations on the honour so justly conferred on you in the Order of Canada. In times of some doubt and difficulty for our country, it is heartening indeed to see something so very right and proper done.

Dear Dr. Douglas:

The Christmas holidays, followed by a long siege of flu and then a week in Florida, attending a conference where I gave a couple of lectures, have left me so detached from real life that it was only today that I learned, through "Campus - 1968" that you were given the honour of being made a Member of the Order of the Canada Service Medal.

Marie-Jeanne and I were quite thrilled when I read this news. Your vigour and enthusiasm, your thorough commitment to international understanding has been a real inspiration to many of us and certainly to Marie-Jeanne and myself.

Though the real joy of activity is in the doing of it, still I imagine that you must have a deep sense of satisfaction at this explicit recognition by your colleagues and your country that your excellent work has been appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Douglas,

I am writing to you regarding the Reverend Father Michael W. Burke-Gaffney of Halifax, Nova Scotia, who has been actively involved in the field of astronomy, and whose name has been given to us as a nominee for possible appointment to the Order of Canada.

This nomination will be put forward for consideration in October, and I know the members of the Advisory Council would be grateful to receive any comments you are disposed to make in this regard. I am taking the liberty of enclosing the biographical sketch we have on this nominee, should you have any additional details that might be helpful to the Council. Perhaps you would be kind enough to let me know, at the same time, whether or not you would wish to support this nomination.

I can assure you that any assessment you might care to give will be treated in the strictest confidence and will, of course, be made available only to the Advisory Council to assist in their deliberations. I am sure you realize that anyone appointed to the Order of Canada in any particular sphere of endeavour should be outstanding, and be generally recognized as someone who has made a contribution well beyond that of others in the same field.

I am sorry to trouble you in this way, but I will be most grateful for any assistance you can give.

Yours sincerely,

Carl Lochnan,
Assistant Secretary to the Governor General.

August, 1977

Dear member of the Order,

On the occasion of the Tenth Anniversary of the Order of Canada, it gives me great pleasure to join with you in observing this event.

Also, this year my wife and I hope to meet as many members of the Order as possible in their respective Provinces, thanks to the participation of the Lieutenant Governors. We have already had a gathering at Government House with members from Quebec and Ontario on the 1st of July.

Further, we have recently taken part in the launching of a stamp commemorating this Anniversary. I think you will be happy to receive the envelope that we have had specially prepared to mark the first day issue of this stamp.

I hope that these gestures will underline the important place that you occupy in the life of our country, and that your activities will serve as an example for generations to come.

May our motto "Desiderantes Meliorem Patriam" continue to be a source of inspiration to all of us.

Yours sincerely,

ORDER OF CANADA

Dear member of the Order of Canada,

The Order of Canada is ten years old. It is significant that this anniversary should have arisen in the Year 1977, coinciding with the celebrations of Her Majesty's Jubilee and the Jubilee of the appointment of the first Canadian born Governor General.

To commemorate the tenth anniversary of the Order, a souvenir medallion is being presented to all the members. Last October, I had the honour of presenting it at Rideau Hall to Mrs. Lester B. Pearson and to some of the first Companions appointed. Today, it is with great pleasure that I send it to you, under separate cover.

At the first Investiture, my predecessor, the Right Honourable Roland Michener, expressed the conviction that the Order would "serve to enhance our pride of being Canadian and strengthen our national identity."

With this in mind, I hope that the spirit of the celebrations of this anniversary, organized mostly with the assistance of the Lieutenant Governors, will last throughout the year, and that the members of the Order will continue to see, and, if necessary, help each other.

I should like to take this opportunity to offer you my best wishes for Christmas and the New Year. May 1978 be good to you and to the ones you love.

Yours sincerely,
