Dear Mr. and Mrs. Isherwood:

Thank you for sending me the photographs of your two paintings, which you showed me.

I like both, but with the Defregger one cannot really be certain until one has had it out of the frame and examined the painting under good magnification to make certain it is a painting, rather than a print. It certainly looks good from the photograph, however.

The still life with strawberries is charming, and I have shown the photograph to a good friend, an art historian specializing in American paintings whose name is Mr. Lee Howard. He will check the monogram and write to you, directly.

The Schragger Gallery is located at 2915 N. Sherman Blvd., Milwaukee, WI 53210, telephone 414 873 3738. Its president, Mr. Al Schragger, is honest, and in his auctions has no reserves, gives no estimates and does not charge the 10% which many auction galleries charge.

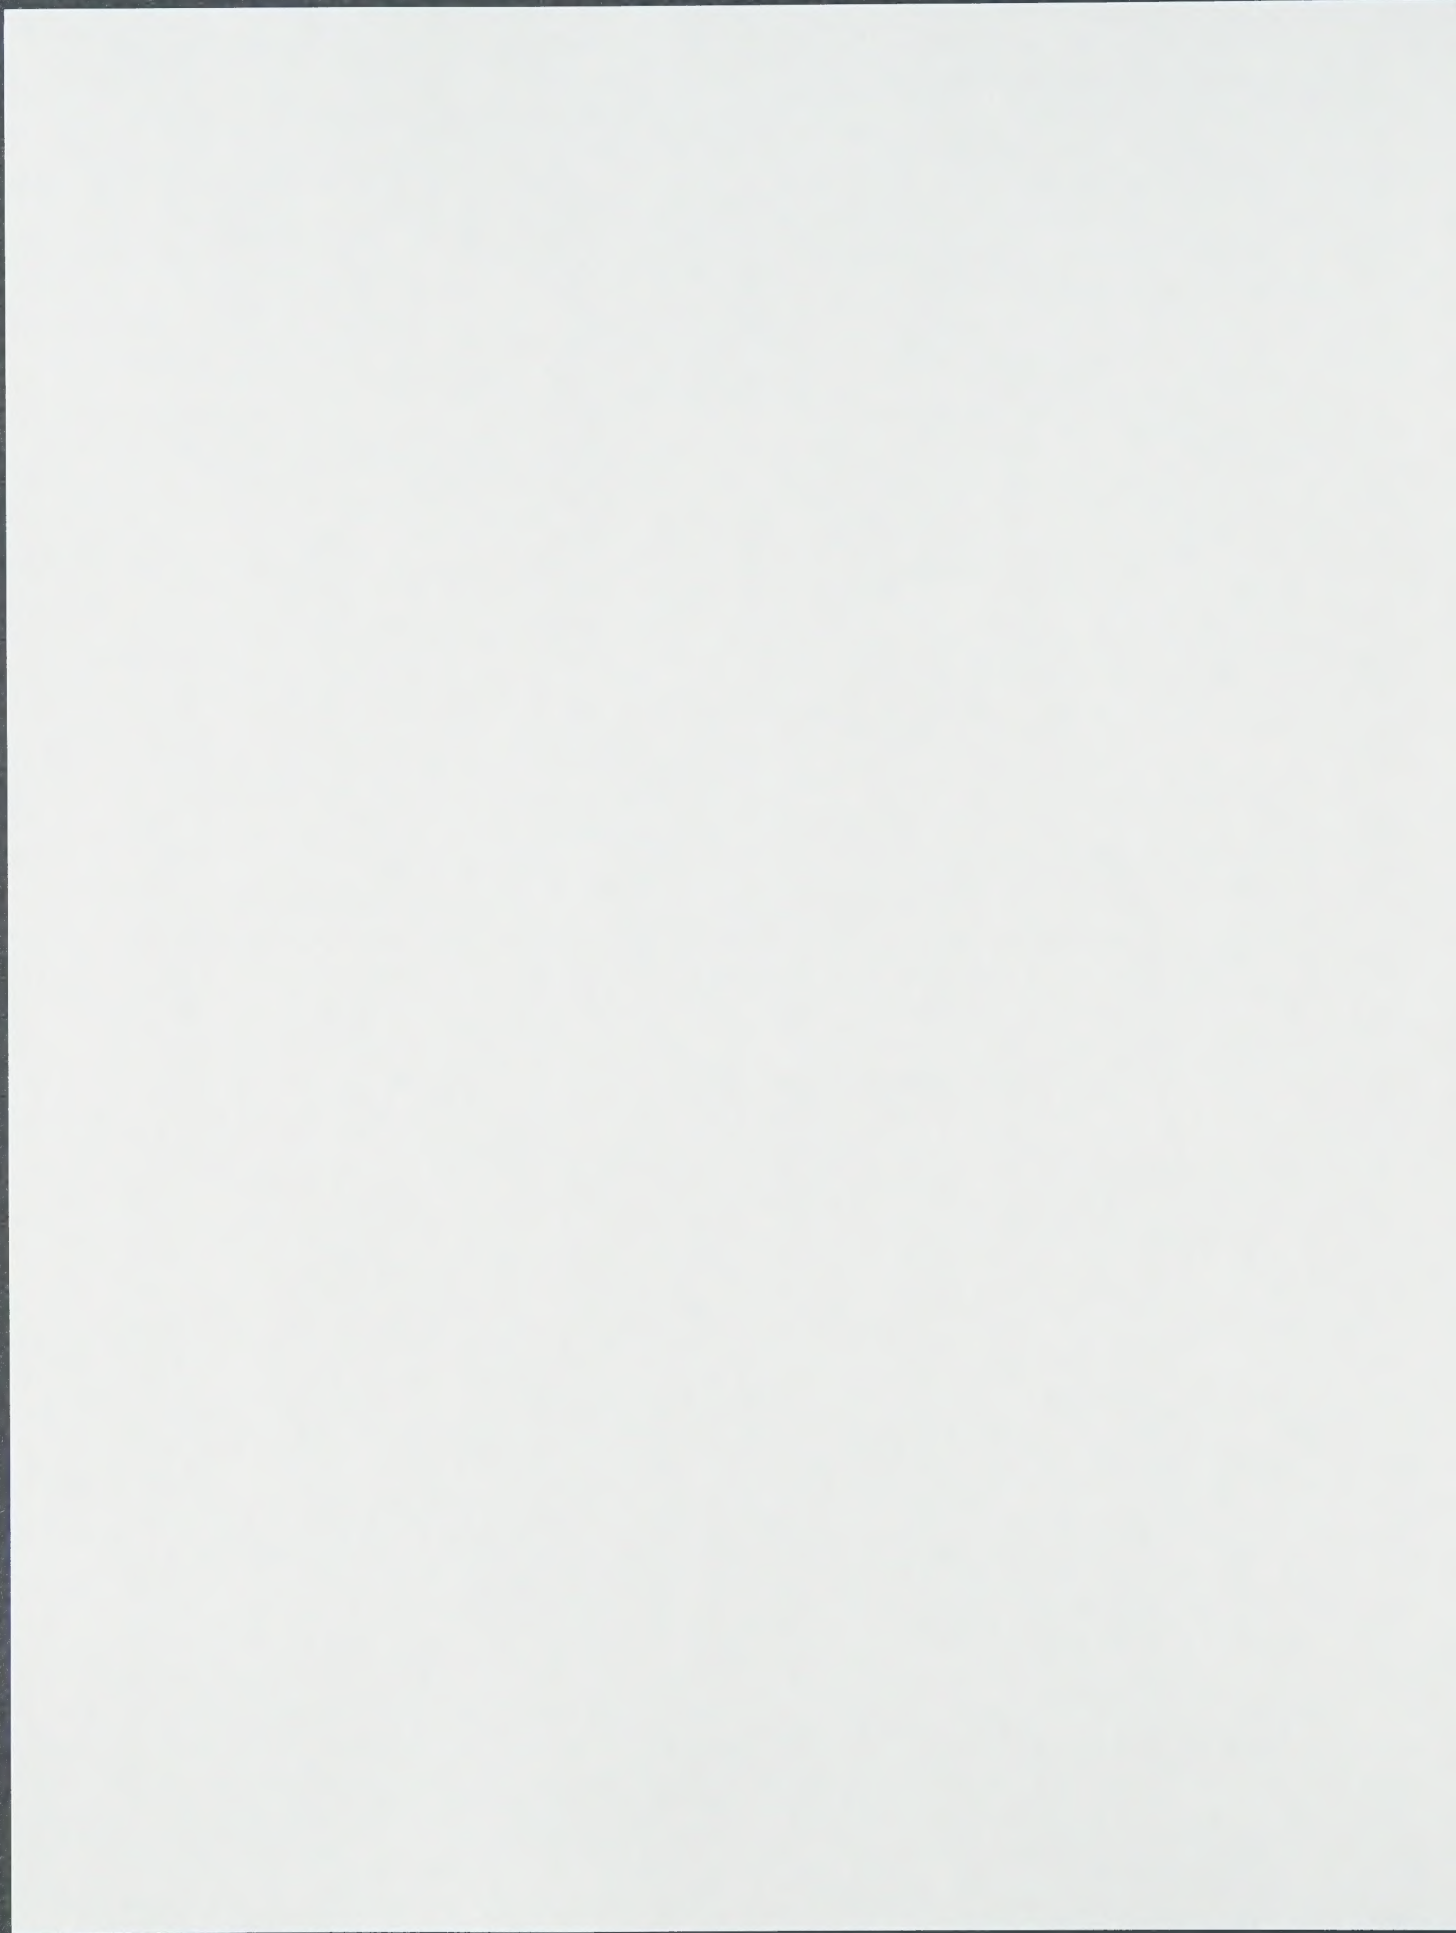

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Alfred Bader

Dear Dr. Bader:

Enclosed please find photos of the DeFregger and "Strawberries" paintings which we brought to your office recently. As per your request they have been reproduced in their actual dimension (pardon the frames) for your perusal.

It was a pleasure meeting with you in your most interesting surroundings. Any further information you might provide will be most welcome, and further, it would be appreciated if you would send us the name of the Milwaukee Auction Company you recommended in our conversation.

Sincerely
