Dear Luciano:

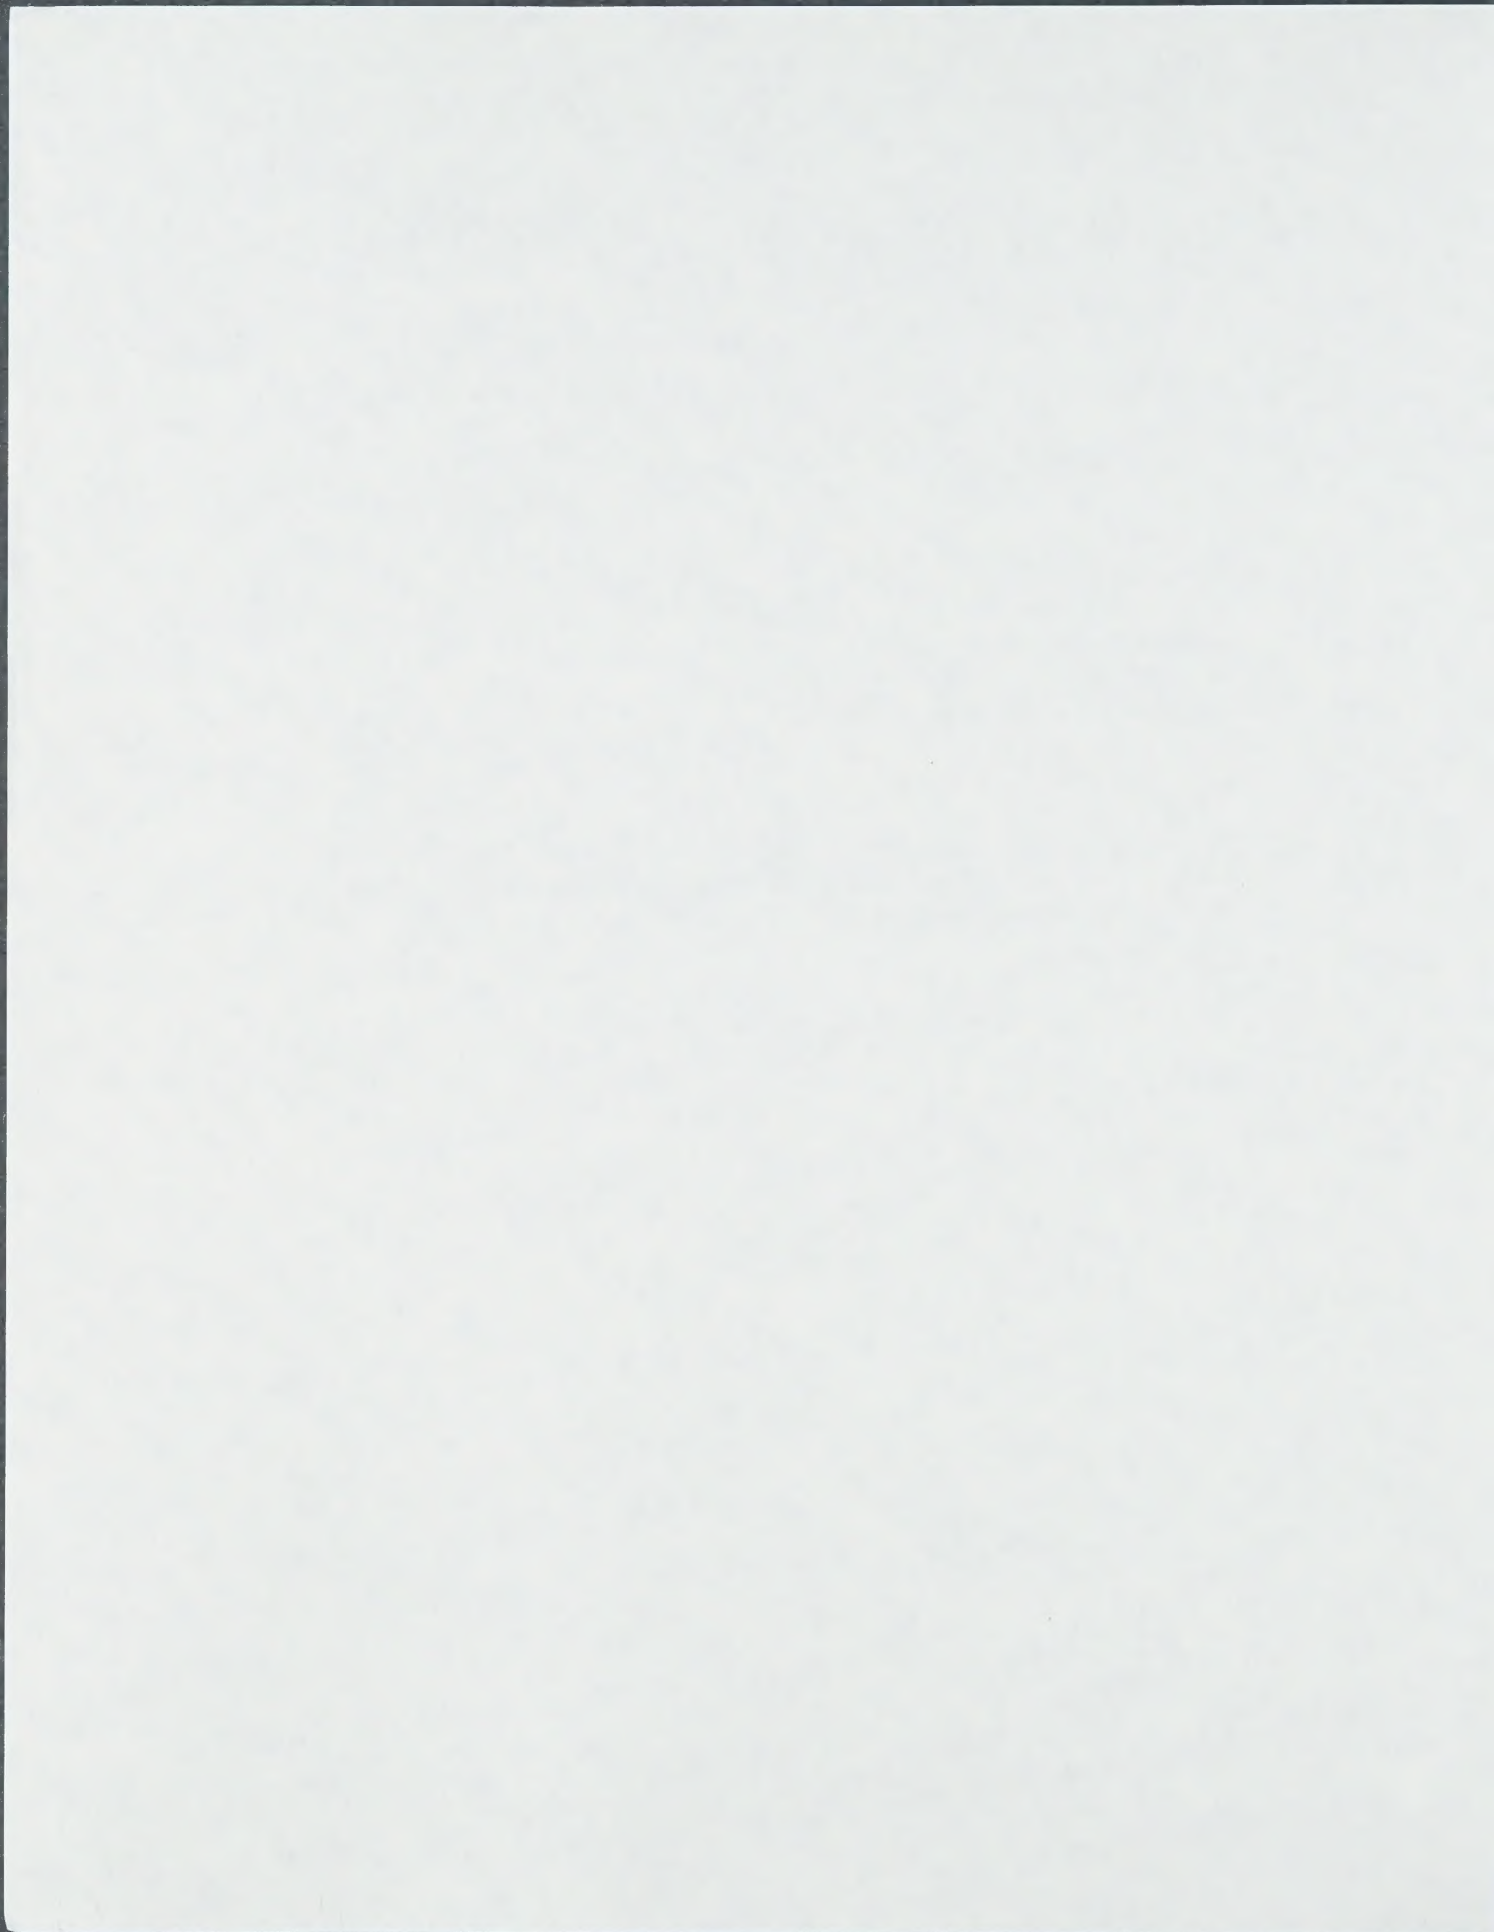

You know that I have enjoyed working with you for many years, yet I must tell you that I am deeply disturbed that three years have passed since I left that large German 19th century painting with you, and you have still not returned it to me.

When may I finally expect it?

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Dear Luciano:

Enclosed, as promised, is a snapshot of the painting of an old man which I believe is by Piazzetta. To you, it would be only $4000.00.

You will have realized during my visit two weeks ago that I was really disappointed and disturbed by your not returning the paintings which I had given you for restoration. Two of them you have had for much longer than a year, and the other four, for several months. Please help.

I will be in Evanston again the afternoon of Thursday, September 26. May I pick up at least some of the finished paintings then?

Best regards,

Alfred Bader
