Re: The Alfred and Isabel Bader Philanthropic Fund

Dear Dr. Bader:

You have indicated to me that you wish to change the persons who may make recommendations to JDC with respect to distributions from The Alfred and Isabel Bader Philanthropic Fund (the "Fund"). As currently drafted, the Trustees of The Alfred Bader and Isabel Bader Foundation may make these recommendations upon your and Isabel's demise.

It is now your desire that Yechiel Bar-Chaim be the person authorized to make recommendations upon your demise. Accordingly, paragraph 3 of the letter dated December 26, 2001 establishing the Fund shall be revised to read as follows:

“ 3. Distributions from the Fund of principal and/or income shall be made at such time or times and in such amount or amounts as may be determined solely by the JDC, to such organizations of the type described in paragraph 2 as may be designated by the JDC (including JDC and its affiliates); provided, however that Alfred Bader and upon his demise, Yechiel Bar-Chaim may from time to time submit to the JDC the names of organizations to which it is recommended by him that distributions be made, which organizations shall not be other than those described in paragraph 2. Such recommendations shall be solely advisory, and the JDC may accept or reject them, applying reasonable standards and guidelines with regard thereto. In no event may JDC honor a recommendation where such donation would be inconsistent with JDC's charitable mission.”

The JDC receives its funds primarily from American Jewry through the Jewish Federations of the United States and the United Jewish Communities. JDC also receives funding from World Jewish Relief of Great Britain and UIA Federations Canada.

Dear Mr. Phillips,

Thank you for your letter of May 12th pointing out that the change suggested by me is not quite as easily made as I thought.

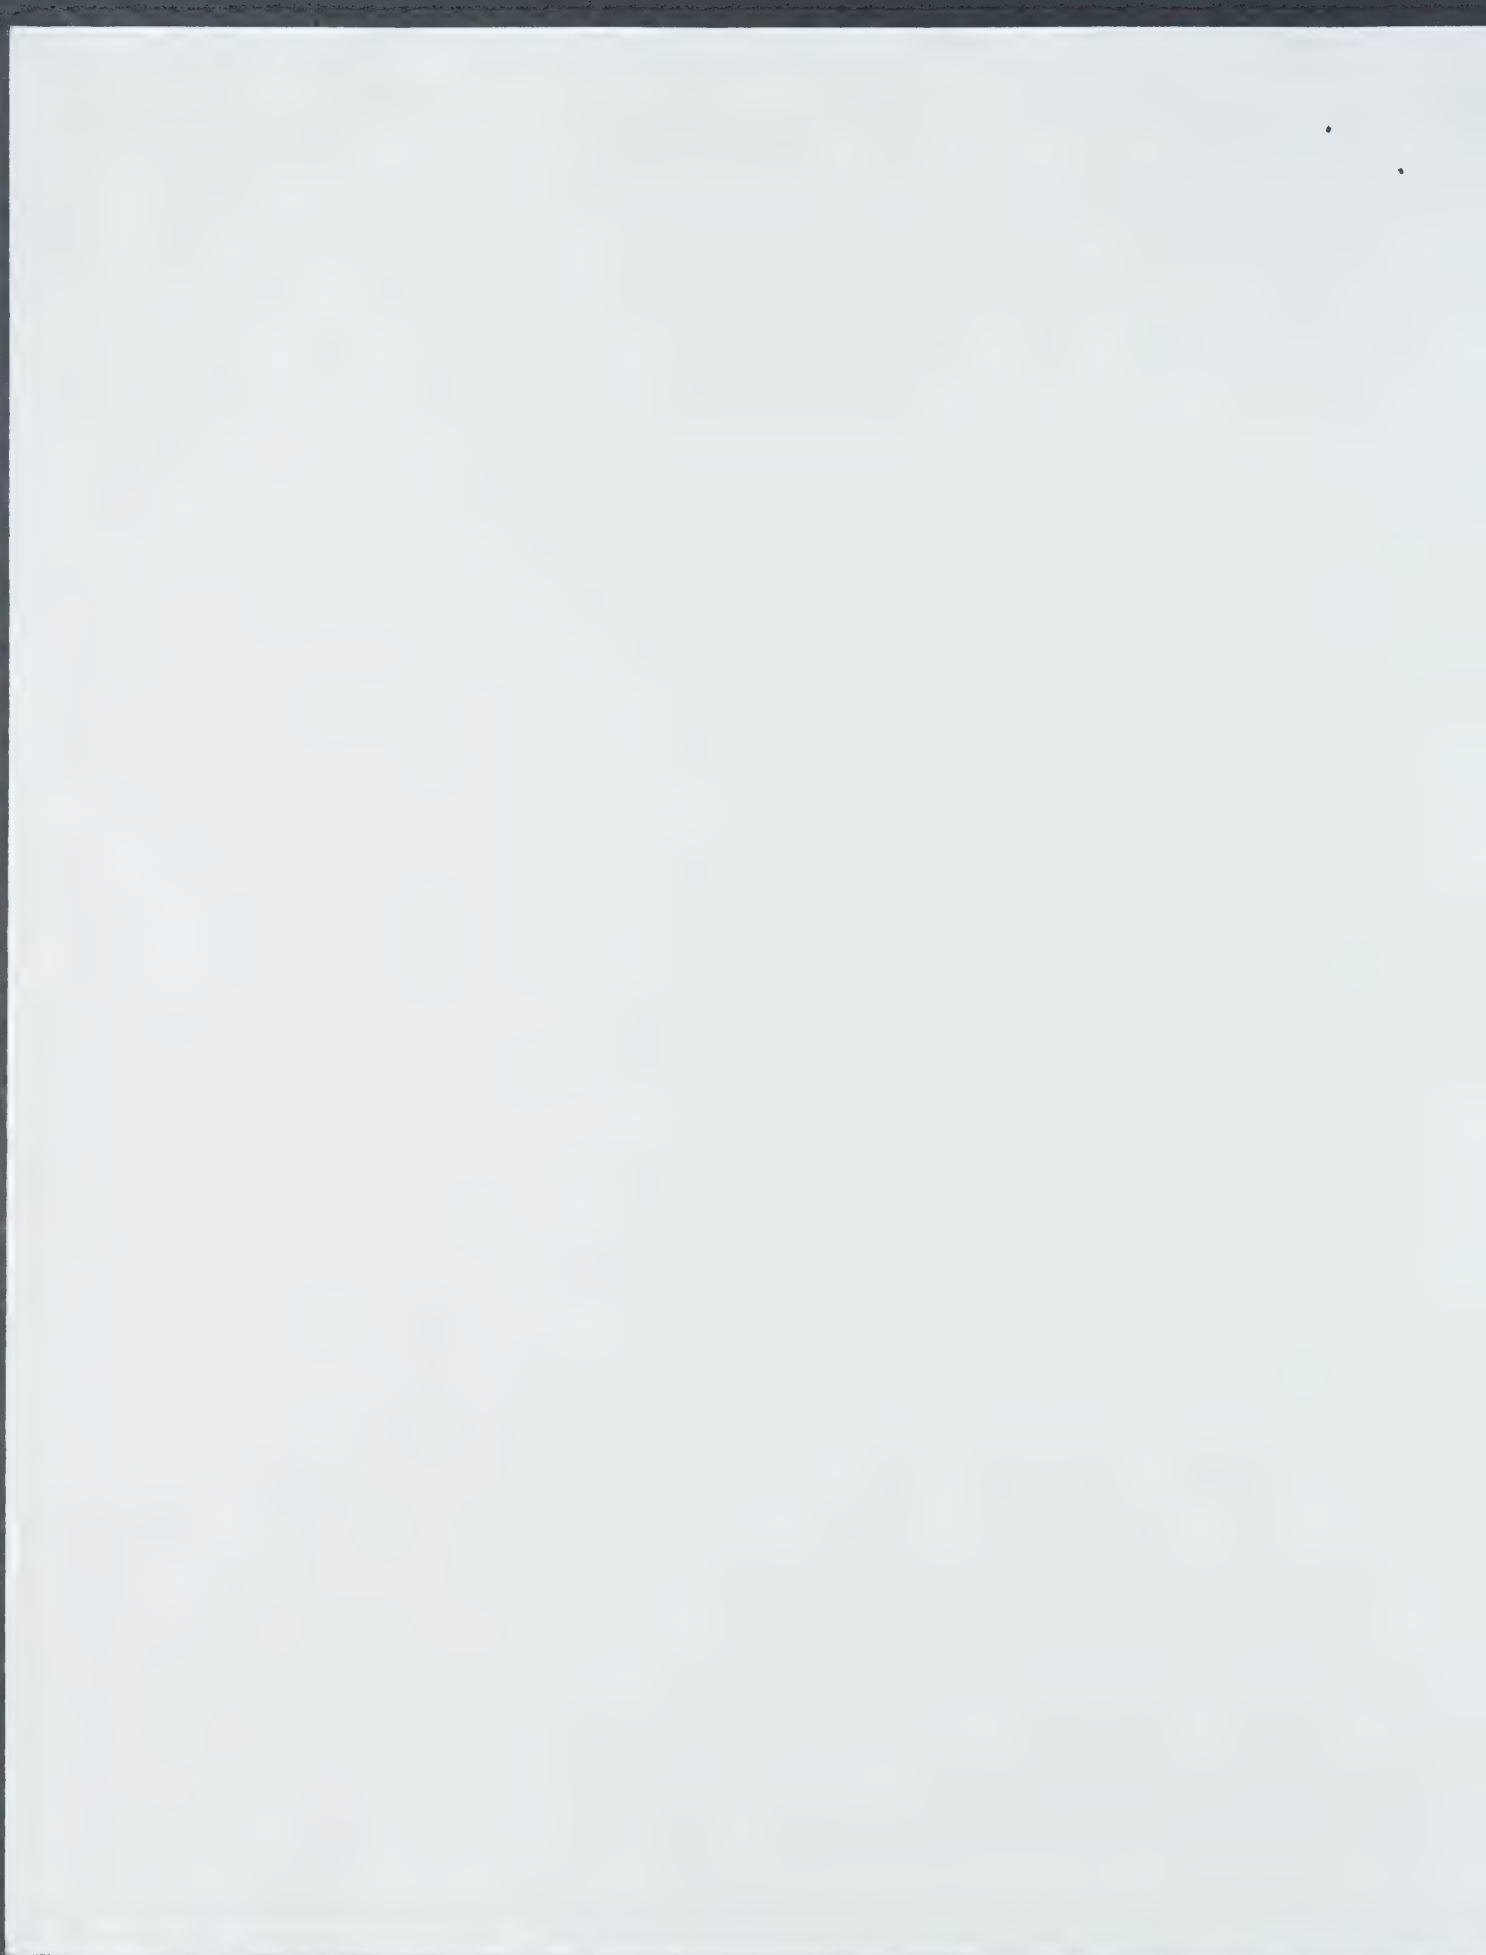

My son Daniel Bader, who is on the Board of Directors of the Joint, is just on his way to China and will not return for a little while. On his return I will discuss with him how to proceed, and I will also take counsel with Yechiel Bar-Chaim, whom I will meet in Prague in the middle of June.

After that we can decide what, if anything, should be done.

With many thanks for your help I am

Yours sincerely,

Alfred Bader

Dear Dr. Bader,

The JOINT acknowledges with gratitude your letter asking that one of our staff, Yechiel Bar-Chaim, become responsible in the event of your passing for the Philanthropic Fund you have created with us.

In order to respect this wish, however, it would be necessary to revise the initial formal agreement setting up the Fund which names your wife, Isabel Bader, as your successor to make grants.

Enclosed, please find the text of the original agreement. If you do wish to revise it, please let us know.

Very truly yours,

Eugene Philips
Chief Financial Officer

Re: The Alfred and Isabel Bader Philanthropic Fund

A fund shall be established in the JDC which shall be known as the Alfred and Isabel Bader Philanthropic Fund ("the Fund"). The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC) may receive additional irrevocable gifts from time to time from the undersigned and from any other source to be added to the Fund, all subject to the provisions hereof.

1. amended by them that distributions be made, which organizations shall not be other than those described in paragraph 3. Such recommendations shall be solely advisory, and the JDC may accept or reject them, applying reasonable standards and guidelines with regard thereto. In no event may JDC honor a recommendation where such donation would be inconsistent with JDC's charitable mission.

4. It is recognized that the JDC in the administration of the Fund and in making distributions from the Fund will do all things that it deems necessary to comply with the Internal Revenue Code and regulations issued thereunder in order to maintain its status as a "public charity" and the status of this Fund as a "Donor-Advised Fund" and that by doing so it be required from time to time, to take action which varies from the terms and conditions hereof.

5. Neither the donor, Alfred Bader or Isabel Bader, or any other person may receive any tangible benefit or privilege in return for a distribution of the Fund. It is understood that no distributions will be used to discharge or satisfy a legally enforceable pledge or obligation of any person, including the donor or his family.

6. It is intended that the Fund shall be a component part of the JDC and not a separate trust, and that nothing in this Agreement shall affect the status of the JDC as an organization described in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and as an organization which is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509 (a) of the Code. This Agreement shall be interpreted to conform to the requirements of the foregoing provisions of the federal tax laws and any regulations issued pursuant thereto. The JDC is authorized to amend this Agreement to conform to the provisions of any applicable law or government regulation in order to carry out the purposes of this Fund. References herein to provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall be deemed references to the corresponding provisions of any future Internal Revenue Code.

APPENDIX

File Joint

In this appendix I would like to share with you some information about our most recent initiatives to respond to desperate needs arising from the wars in the former Yugoslavia. Most probably I will use the funds you donated to JDC to support my work for one or more of them.

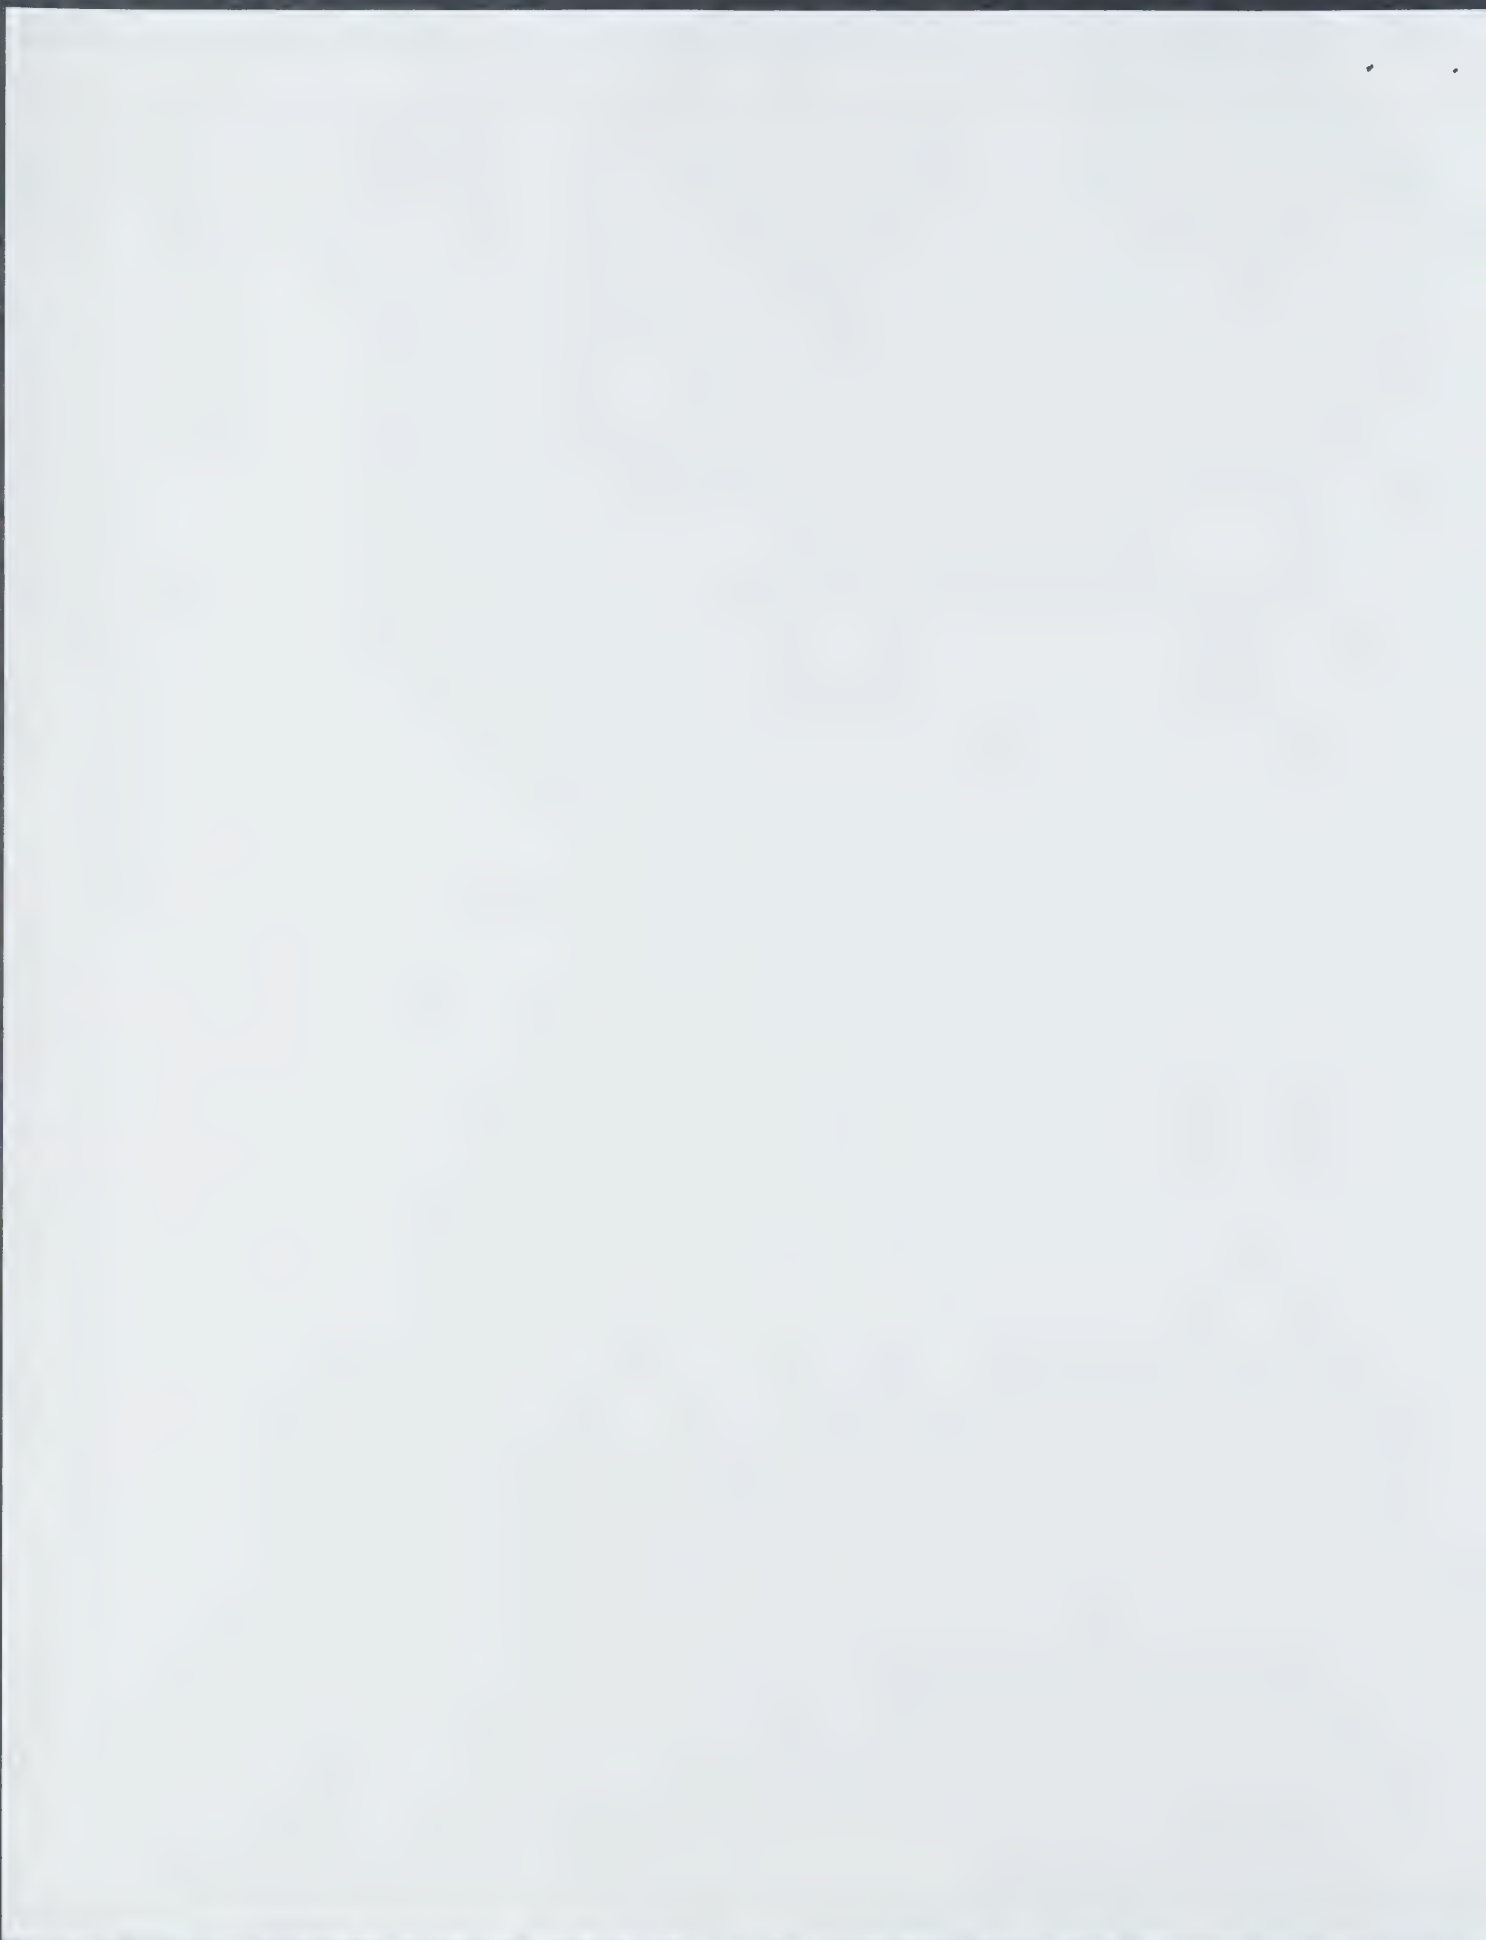

First, let me share with you information about the initial success of the JDC's Roma Scholarization Project we began in Skopje. There are now 174 Roma youngsters (including refugee children from Kosovo) from the very poorest neighborhood of Skopje who were not previously in school and who are now enrolled in a special, intensive catch-up program. If they pass their exams in June they will become regular pupils in the fall.

With support from UKJAID and the founders of La Benevolencija-Skopje, I am now trying to expand the program to assist the Kosovar Roma refugees who are still in the camps. Please see attached.

A second event of note: Today we launch our first Entrepreneurship Training Courses in Belgrade. The courses, led by the same Israeli team that was so effective in Sarajevo, are for both Jews and Gentiles. Although loan capital is virtually absent in today's Yugoslavia and a pall of passivity hangs over much of the population, this initiative is stirring hope. A brand new and surprisingly enthusiastic Business Club has sprung up in the Jewish Community and they are co-sponsoring the program.

Together with World Jewish Relief and in cooperation with local partners we have also established in the Yugoslav cities of Belgrade, Novi Sad, and Subotice soup kitchens serving 800-900 meals a day to Jews and non-Jews. For your information, I enclose the descriptive material I am using to solicit funds. Here too we are finding that lighting candles is almost as contagious as cursing the darkness.

DOBRA VOLJA, LA BENEVOLENCIJA-SKOPJE, is funded by:

- The American Jewish Committee
- The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee
- The Coordinating Committee of Belgian Jewish Organizations
- The Swiss Fund for Kosovar Refugees
- World Jewish Relief (U.K.)

GOALS

To enable up to 200 Roma children, many of them refugees from Kosovo, who live in the downtrodden neighborhood of Skopje called Sutu Orizeri and who were not attending school, to study for six months in a special catch-up school program.

Successful completion of the program will allow these youngsters to become regular pupils in the 2000/2001 school year.

ACTIVITIES

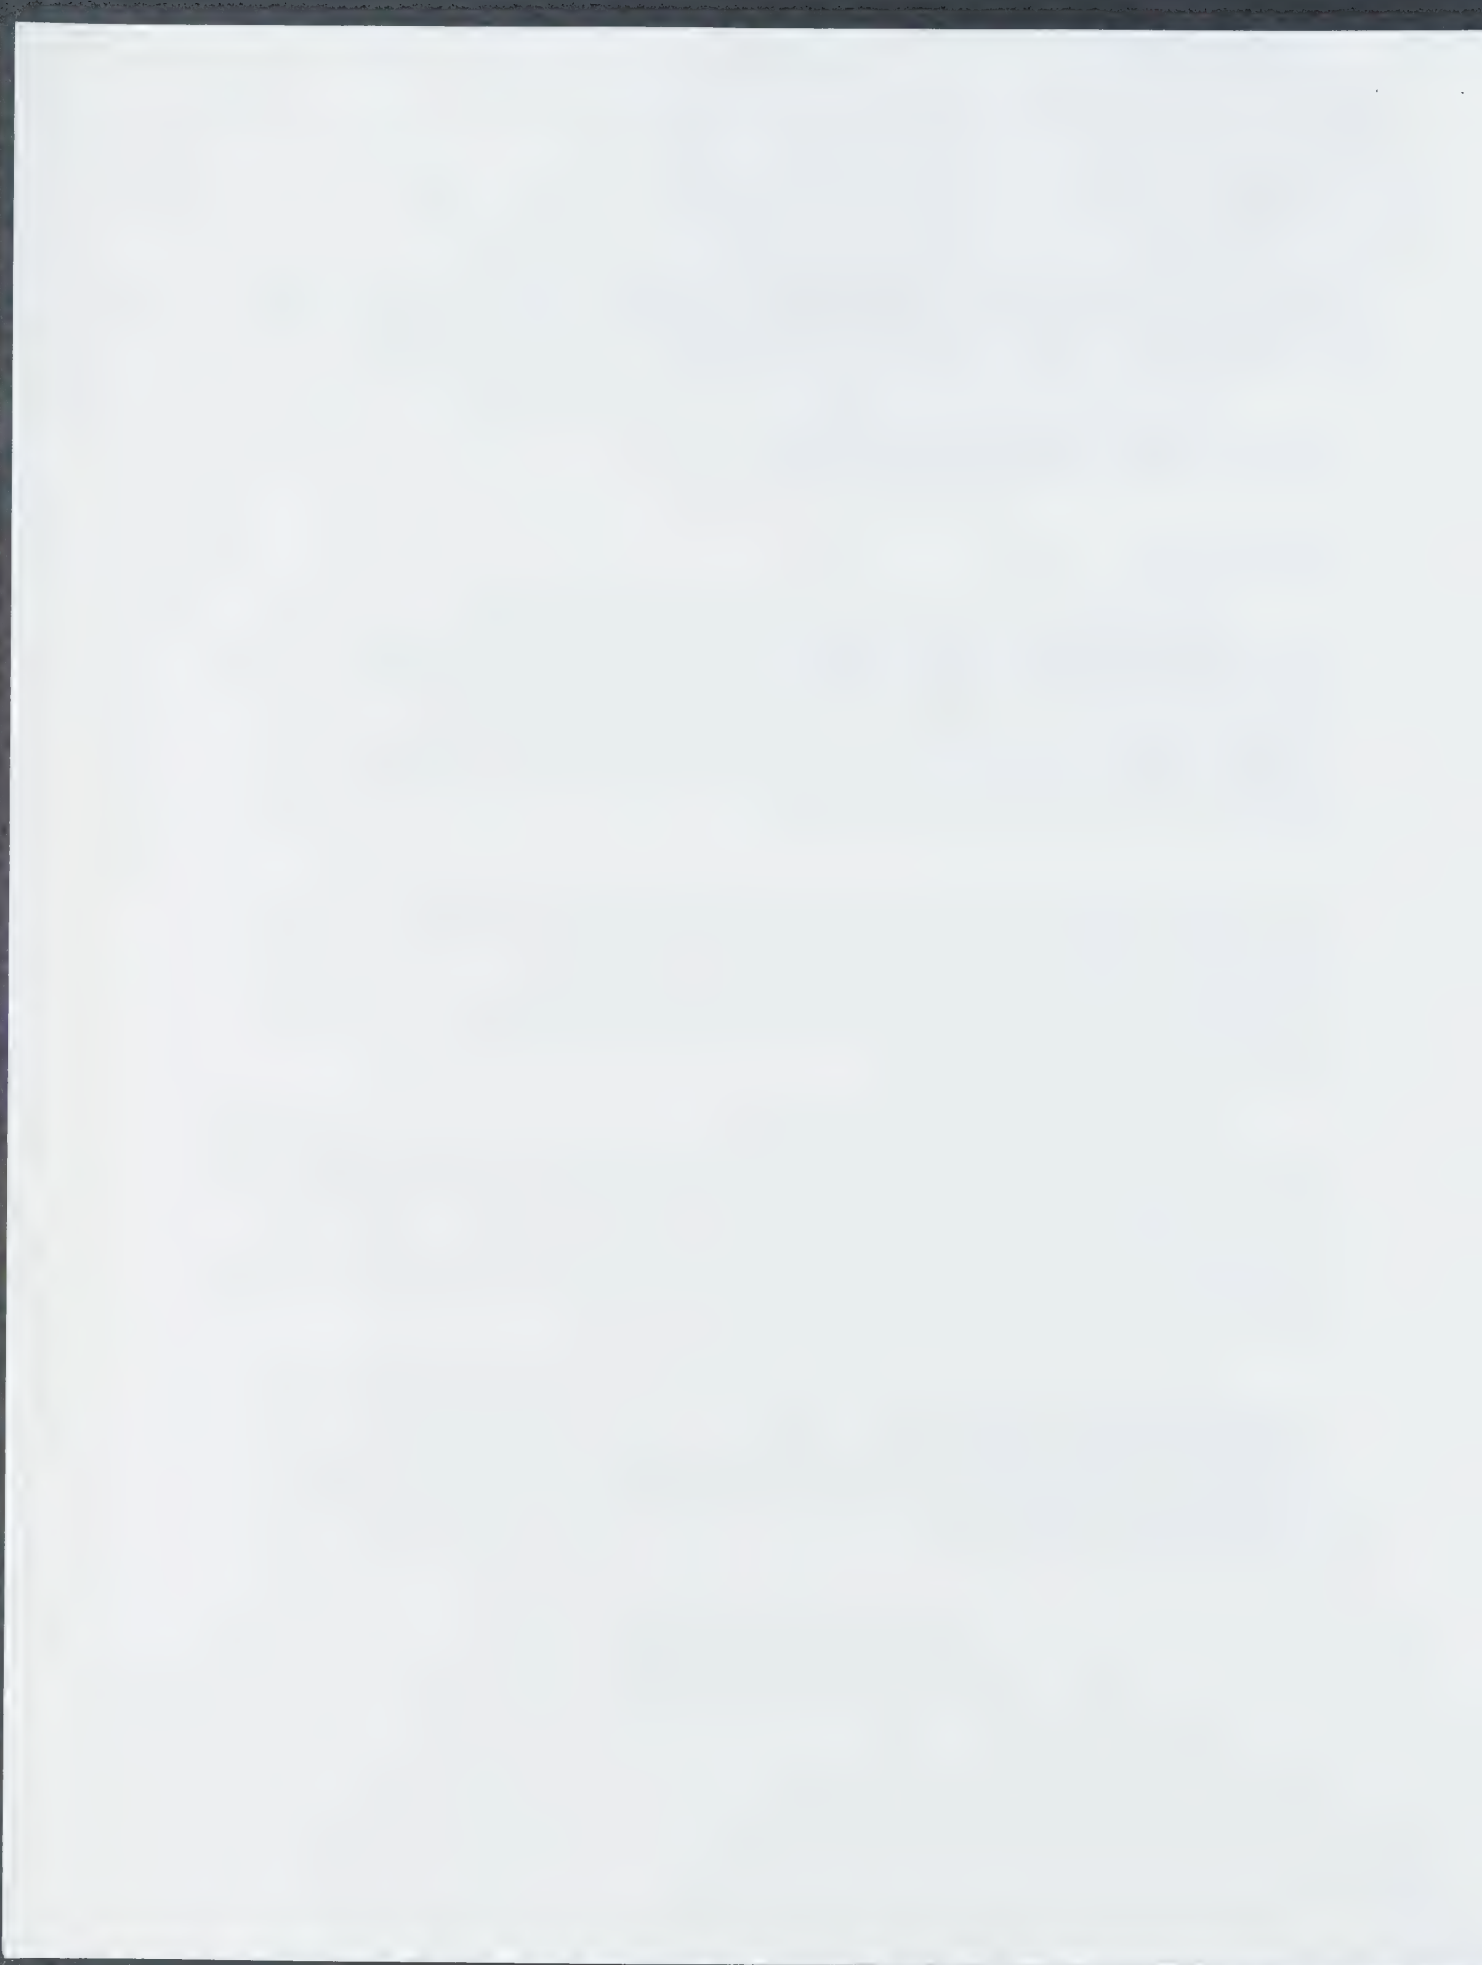

During the summer of 1999, the International Rescue Committee (IRC), with substantial financial assistance ($250,000) from JDC, established a Community Health Clinic in the poor Skopje neighborhood of Chair. As the number of Kosovar Albanian refugees living in Chair diminished and Kosovar Roma refugees entered the nearby neighborhood of Sutu Orizeri, the Clinic Outreach Team surveyed the needs of these families. They discovered that a sizable number of children, aged 7-15, do not attend school.

Once this need was identified, JDC responded immediately with the support of UKJAID by exploring --- through the efforts of IRC's supervisor Dr. Camilo Valderrama and La Benevolencija --Skopje's Goran Sadikario --- the possibility of having these children and others like them study at the Brothers Ramiz Elementary School (where La Benevolencija had previously donated shoes and classroom equipment in a separate project).

An agreement was reached with the School and the Municipality of Skopje. The Outreach Team discovered additional potential pupils and other children from the very poorest families in the area came forward on their own volunteering to begin their schooling. Since January 2000, 174 pupils are now studying part-time at the Braca Ramiz School the basic subjects they need in order to be able to join regular classes next year: Math; Science; History and Geography; and Language (Macedonian).

Eight teachers and a Supervisor are paid modest salaries to implement the program. Fifty chairs and twenty-five additional classroom tables have also been purchased to permit the school to accommodate these new pupils. All the pupils participating in this project receive special school kits, basic clothing, and a pair of shoes so that their abject poverty does not prevent them from receiving an education.

THE ROMA REFUGEES OF DAREBOMBO

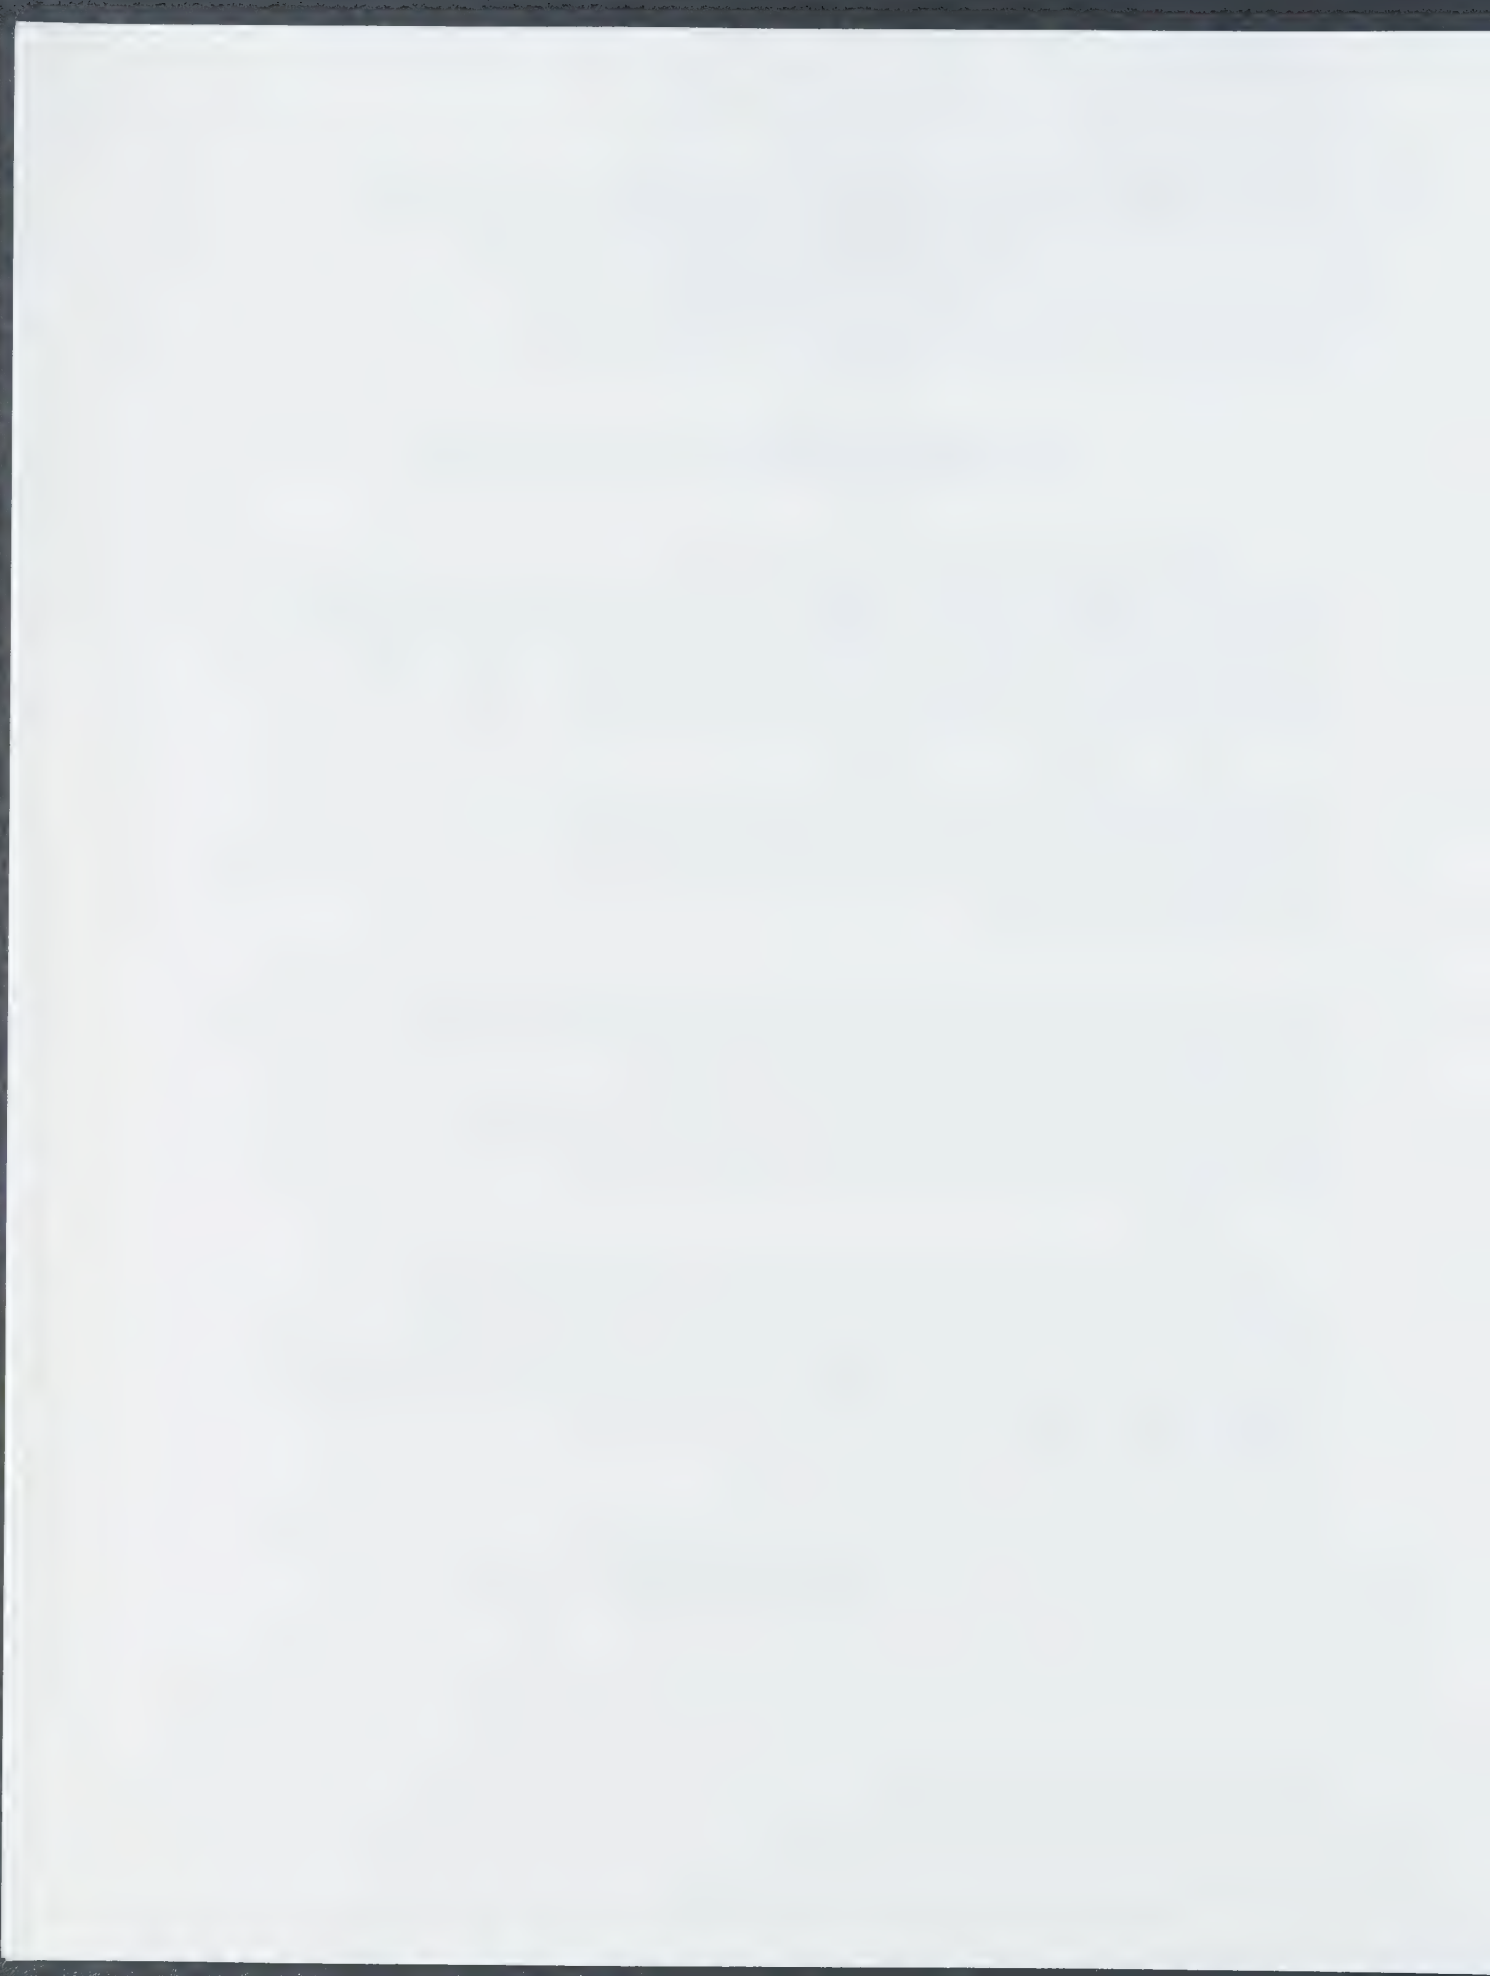

About ten days ago I visited this camp (termed in international humanitarian parlance a "collection center"). Several hundred Albanian-speaking Roma refugees from Kosovo inhabit barrack-like structures in this Darebombo Camp high in the snow-covered mountains above Skopje. (The temperature sunk to -11 degrees Fahrenheit that night in Skopje, so you can imagine the weather conditions at Darebombo).

These refugees are among the most miserable people in Europe today. They cannot go back home to face the anger of the Kosovar Albanians. They cannot be assimilated into Macedonian Albanian society (relations between Roma and Albanians are extremely tense). Not knowing the Macedonian language, they have also no place in Slavic Macedonian society.

Largely uneducated, the women I saw at the camp learning about the menstrual cycle from IRC instructors have obviously suffered physically from births that came too early and too often. Fifteen is a normal age for marriage, and allegedly there is no saying "I have a headache tonight, honey." In response to our questions, the women first said they enjoyed coming to the class to get away from their husbands for a little bit and only then added that it was after all fairly interesting to learn something about their own bodies.

Meanwhile their official status as refugees has temporarily been extended through March, putting off temporarily an eventual confrontation on their status between Macedonia and the international community. The Macedonians want them out, and no one is prepared to take them. Well cared for medically by IRC, the Roma refugees in Darebombo wait idly, hoping against hope that some prosperous third country will accept them.

SOUP KITCHENS IN YUGOSLAVIA

I have just returned from Yugoslavia where, with the help of World Jewish Relief, we have set up soup kitchens in the Jewish Communities of Belgrade, Novi Sad, and Subotice.

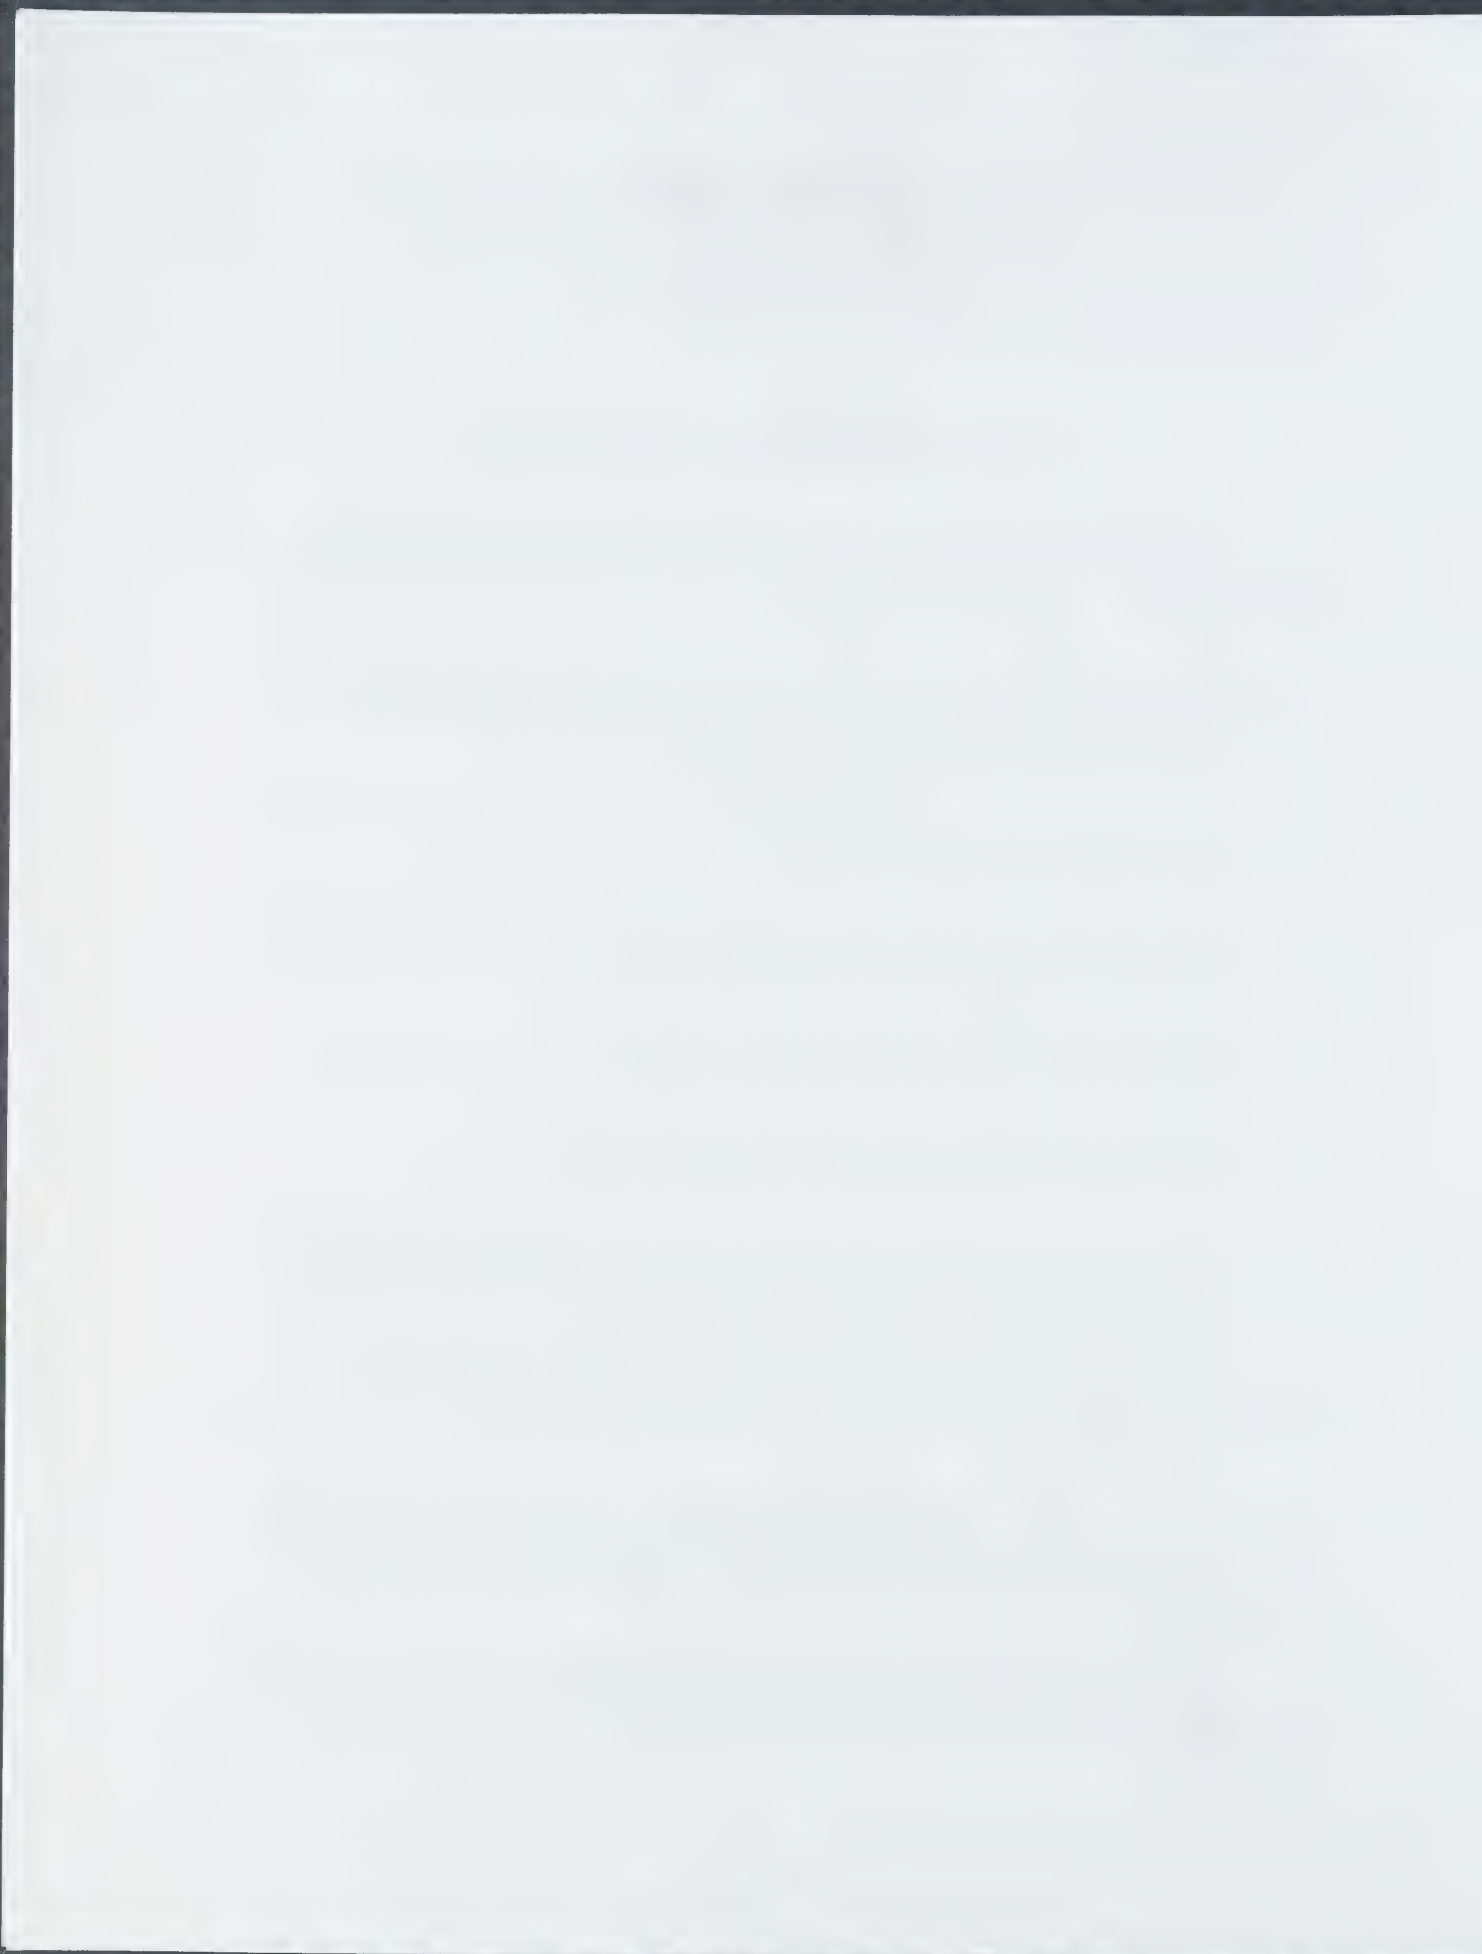

The soup kitchens are one response to the appalling economic conditions now afflicting the citizens of that country and the hundreds of thousands of refugees living there after nine years of successive wars and sanctions.

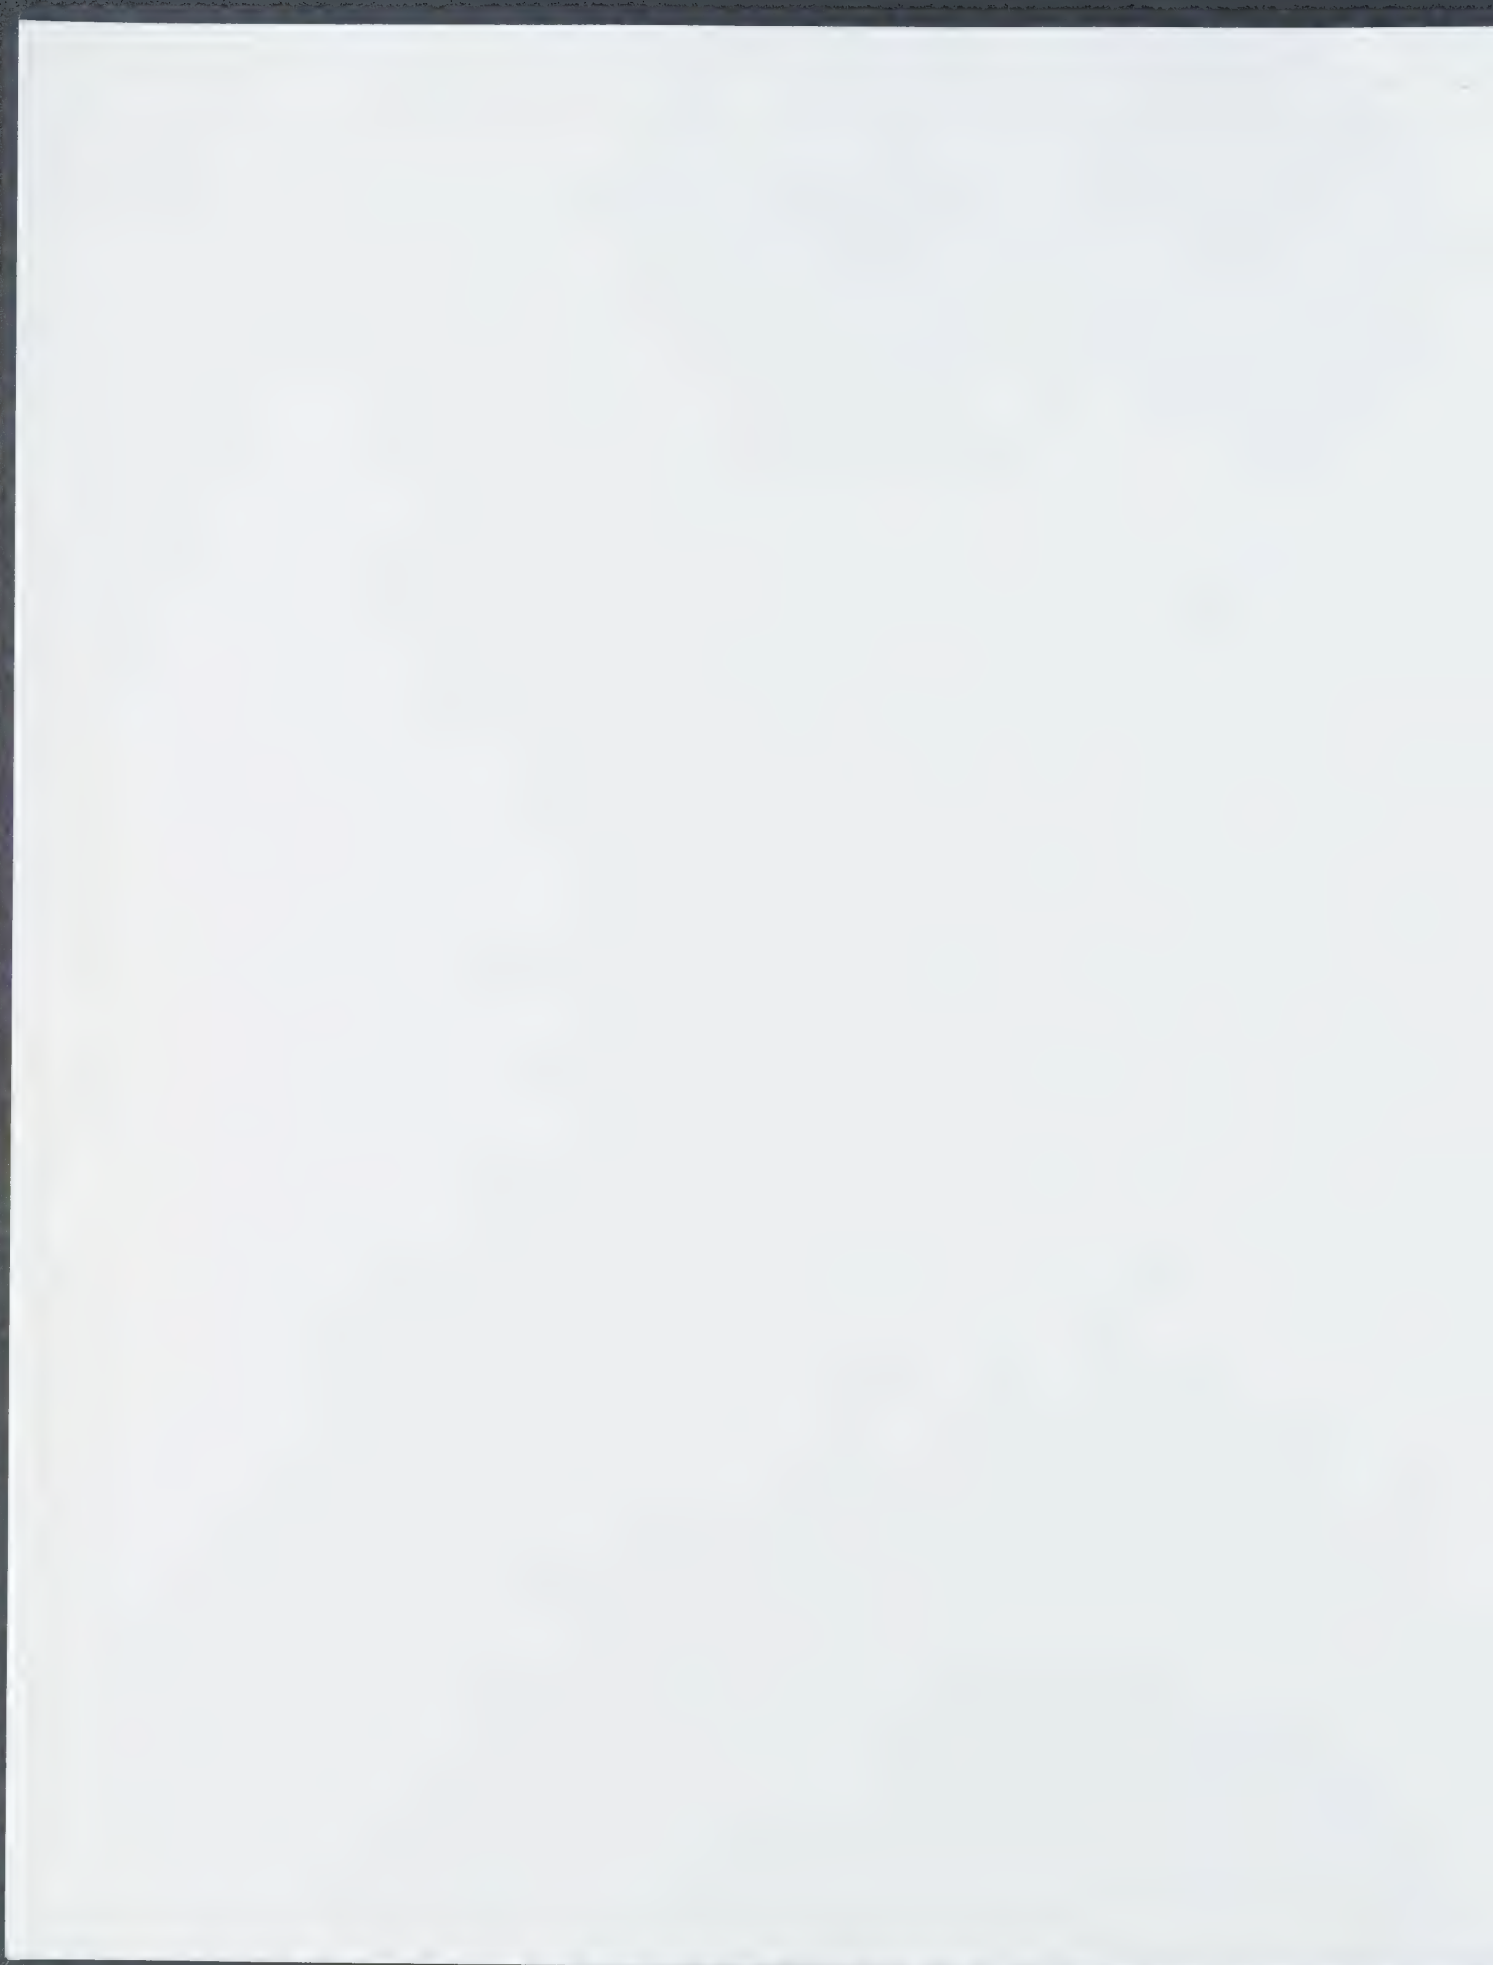

- Average salaries are said to be about £25 a month. Teachers, for example, earn 5% of what they received a decade ago.
- Pensions, when they are paid, are £20 per month. Last year instead of pension checks Yugoslav retirees received several months' worth of vouchers to pay for sporadically available fuel and electricity.
- Lines form during the wee hours of the morning to purchase government-subsidized bread.
- Shortages of food afflict this normally rich agricultural country.
- Public transport in Belgrade operates at less than 15% of its pre-sanctions level. The main bridges crossing the Danube at Novi Sad have yet to be re-built and with the oil refineries now destroyed, there is no asphalt to repair the roads.

When we first launched the soup kitchens in November, our local partners thought that formerly middle-class people would be too shy or ashamed to come. There was no basis for those fears.

Every day 400-500 Community members come and either eat together or take the food home with them. People come because the meals are hot and tasty. They save money and time otherwise spent standing in line. And there is the added feeling of social solidarity.

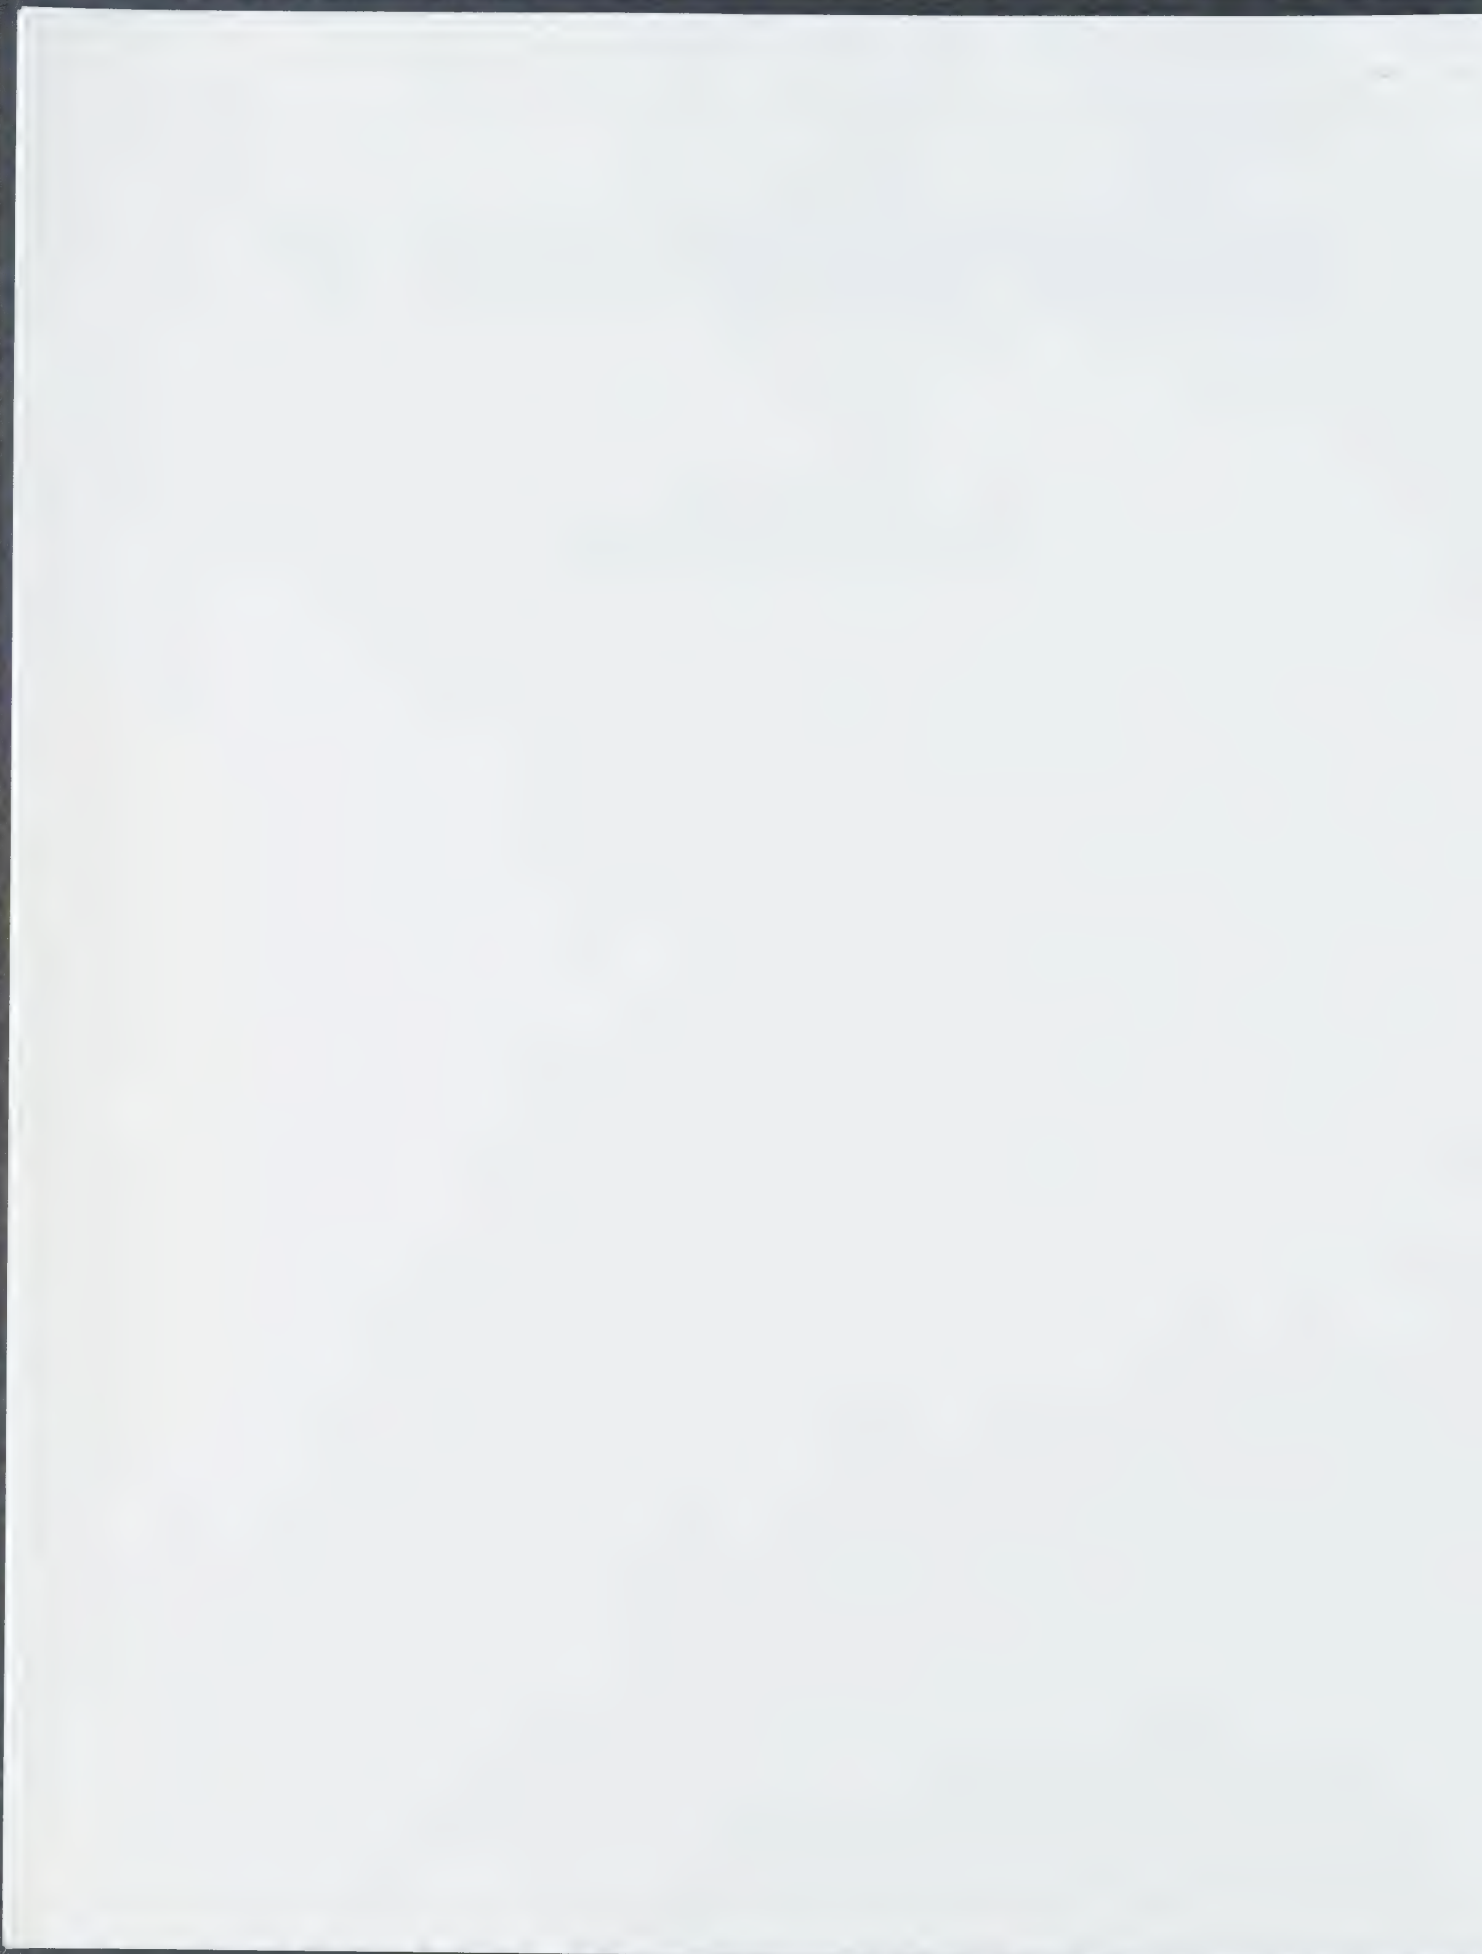

From the very beginning JDC provided free hot meals to Gentiles as well. We are now financing up to 400 such meals a day (100 in Subotice, 100 in Novi Sad, and 200 in Belgrade).

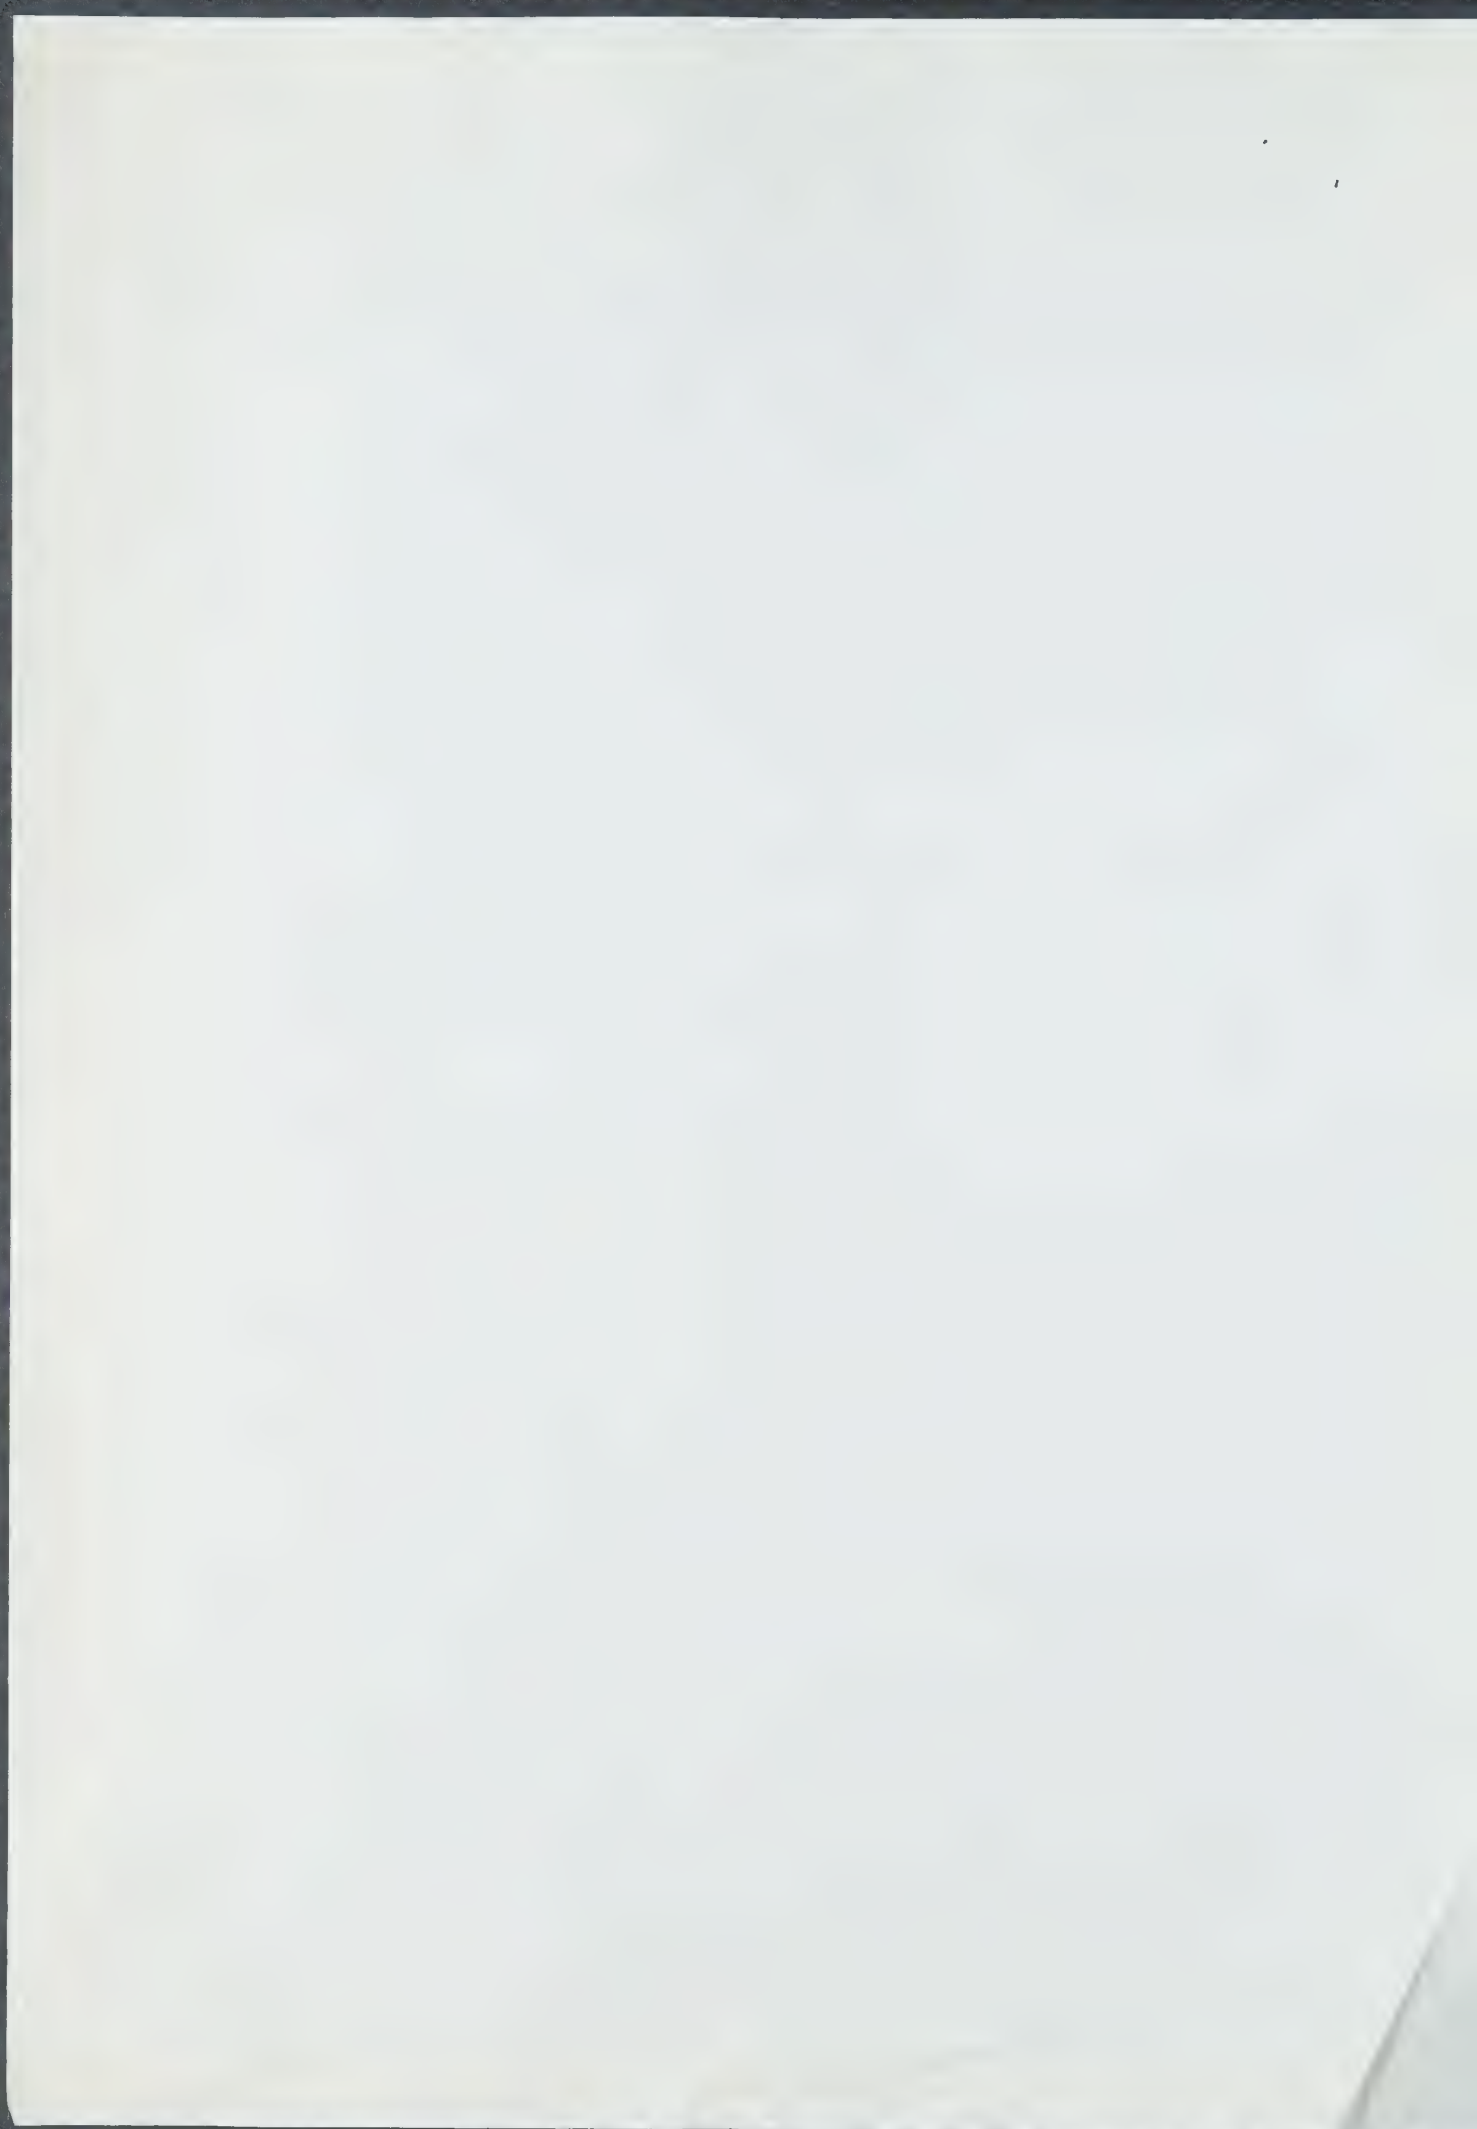

I wish to invite all and sundry to join us in providing such meals. Each three-course lunch costs $0.75. Whatever sum is provided for this purpose will be stretched out over a period of time. 100% of any donation will be used to pay for these non-sectarian meals.

Re: Suggested Final Draft: Bader Philanthropic Fund Agreement

Date: December 26, 2001

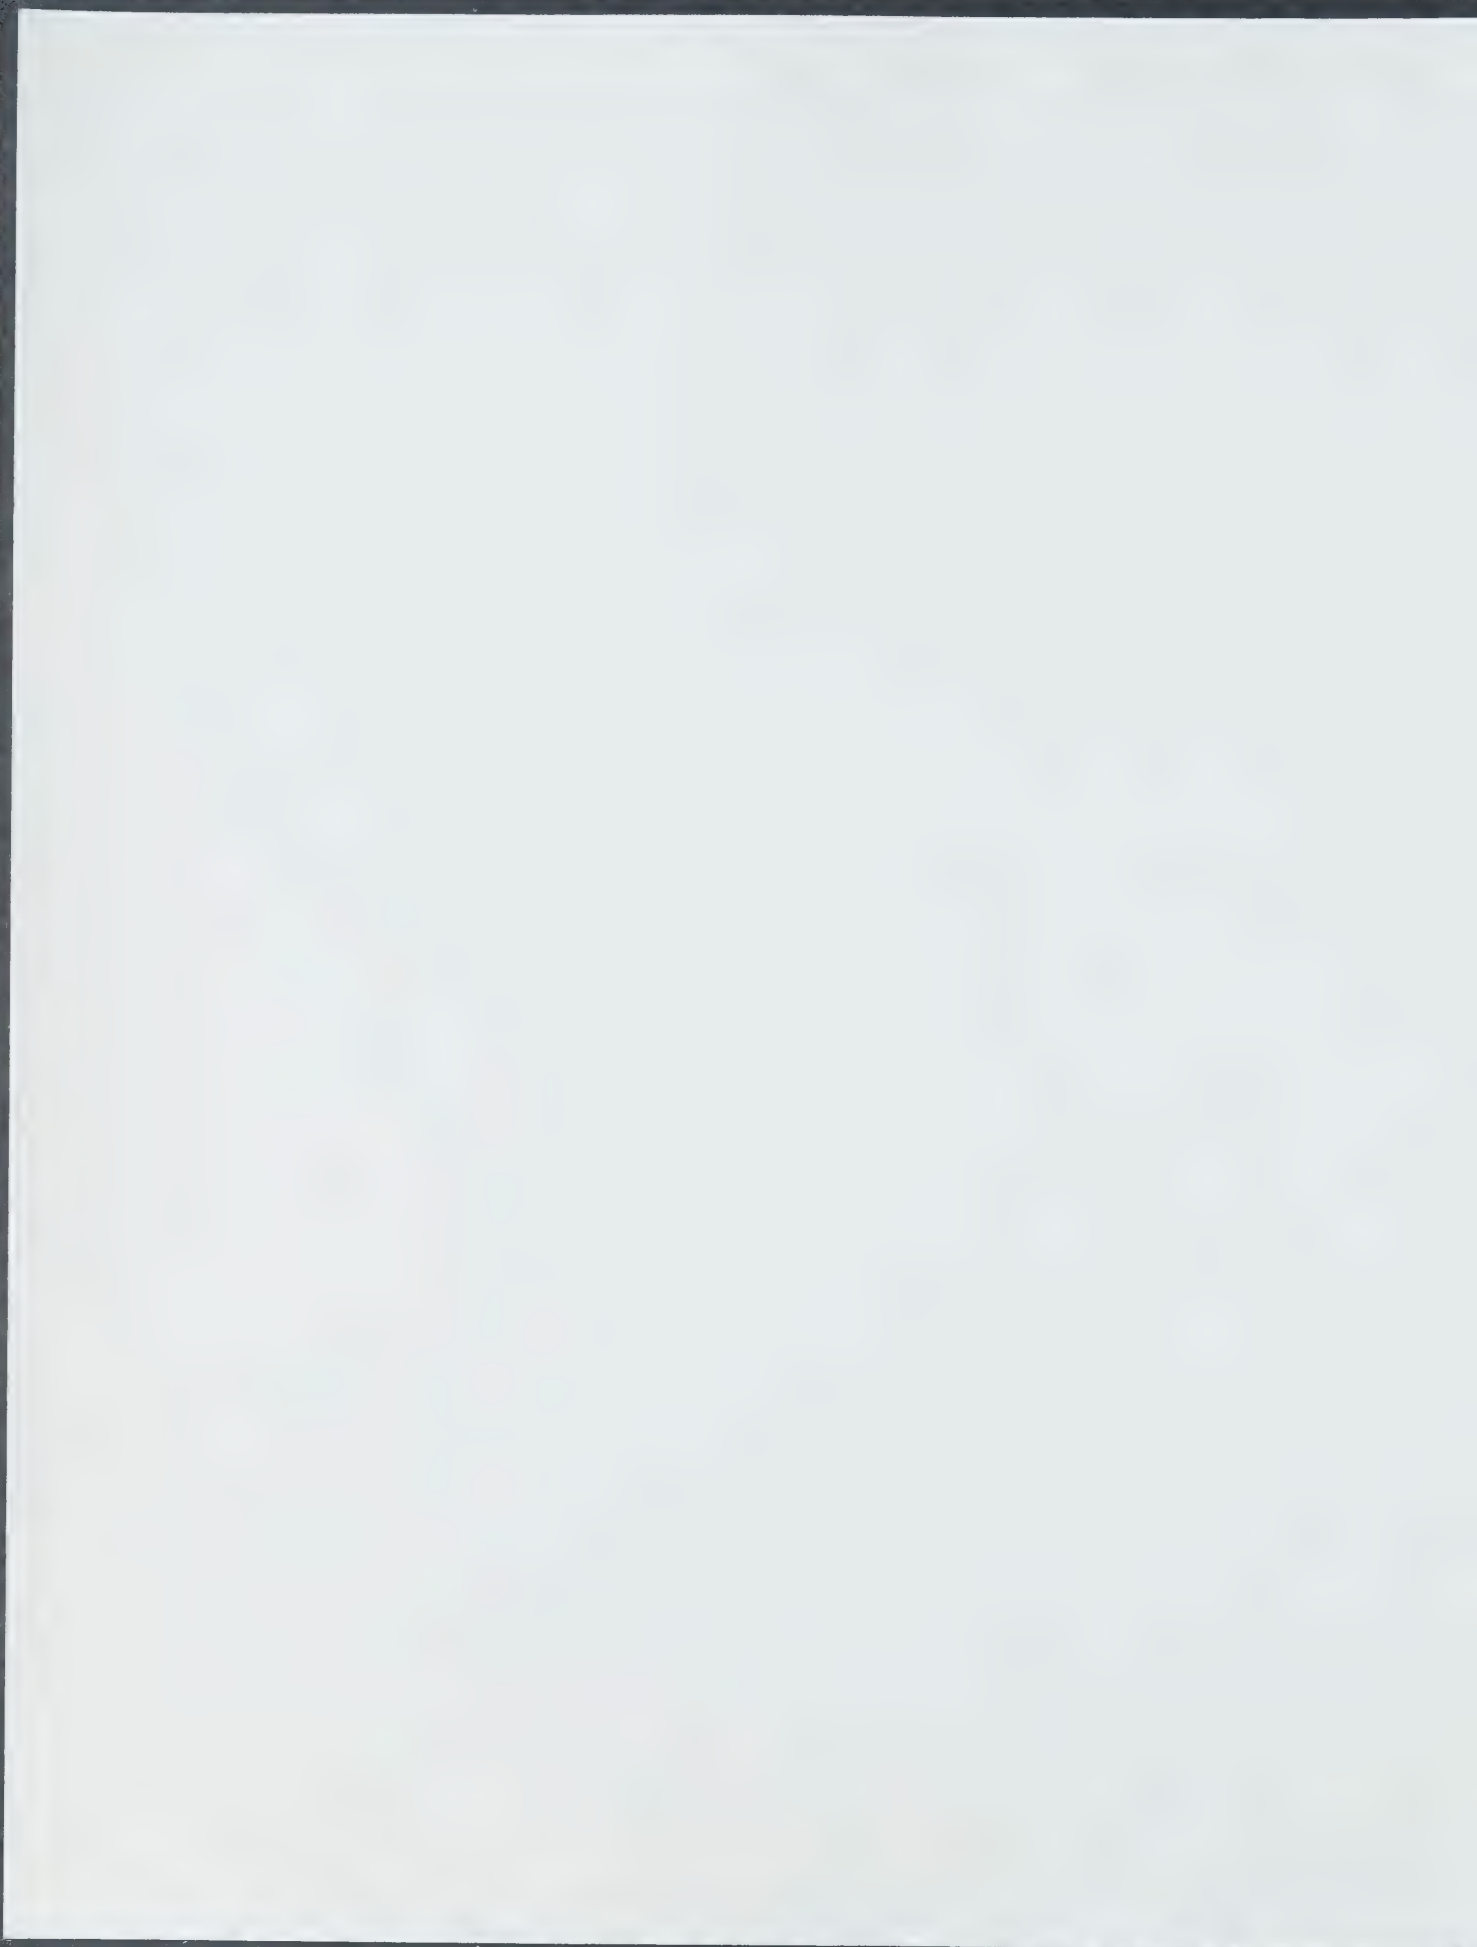

Fax #: 414 277-0709

Thank you for your quick turn-around of our draft of the Alfred and Isabel Bader Philanthropic Fund agreement. I discussed your review with Gene Philips our Chief Financial Officer and Nina Krauthamer our General Counsel. I was in Israel all last week and this afternoon was really the first chance we have had to discuss together this great and generous decision of yours. We have gladly made all the changes you requested in your Fax.

Please also note that we made some minor revisions to protect both our interests. These include: Paragraph Number 3, 1) the fourth line (including JDC and its affiliates); this is simply intended to remind future administrators and donors that JDC itself is a potential beneficiary (Alfred, I realize this may be obvious but we are now including this in all such multi-generational agreements). 2) the last sentence In no event may JDC honor a recommendation where such donation would be inconsistent with JDC's charitable mission. This will help insure the future tax status of your Fund.

In your fax transmittal you refer to the requirement that JDC must maintain discretion while honoring your family's recommendations. We are proud of the partnerships that we have developed over the years with donors and their families. From everything I know of JDC you can rest assured that even with some "give-and-take, we know that it is in our best interest to respond faithfully and accurately to all of your and your family's recommendations. We value your trust and hope that you trust our knowledge of the legal and financial requirements necessary to fulfill your wishes in a tax-wise manner.

I hope the attached meets with your approval. I am available to discuss this with you at your convenience. I look forward to hearing from you soon. Best wishes.

Re: Suggested Final Draft: Bader Philanthropic Fund Agreement

I thank you for your quick turn-around of our draft of the Alfred and Isabel Bader Philanthropic Fund agreement. I discussed your review with Gene Philips our Chief Financial Officer and Nina Krauthamer our General Counsel. I was in Israel all last week and this afternoon was really the first chance we have had to discuss together this great and generous decision of yours. We have gladly made all the changes you requested in

Please also note that we made some minor revisions to protect both our interests. These include: Paragraph Number 3, 1) the fourth line (including JDC and its affiliates): this is simply intended to remind future administrators and donors that JDC itself is a potential beneficiary (Alfred, I realize this may be obvious but we are now including this in all such multi-generational agreements). 2) the last sentence In no event may JDC honor a recommendation where such donation would be inconsistent with JDC's charitable mission. This will help insure the future tax status of your Fund.

In your tax transmittal you refer to the requirement that JDC must maintain discretion while honoring your family's recommendations. We are proud of the partnerships that we have developed over the years with donors and their families. From everything I know of JDC you can rest assured that even with some "give-and-take, we know that it is in our best interest to respond faithfully and accurately to all of your and your family's recommendations. We value your trust and hope that you trust our knowledge of the legal and financial requirements necessary to fulfill your wishes in a tax-wise manner

I hope the attached meets with your approval. I am available to discuss this with you at your convenience. I look forward to hearing from you soon. Best wishes

Dear Mr. Holmon,

Thank you so much for your speedy response yesterday.

Isabel and I have now signed this Agreement and are faxing this to you as well as mailing you a hard copy.

Perhaps you were unaware that my son, Daniel Bader, who heads the Helen Bader Foundation, is a member of the Board of Directors of the Joint.

Depending on the stock market, the first gifts to our Philanthropic Fund are likely to be made with Sigma-Aldrich stock. It is actively traded on the NASDAQ and the sale will be handled by Mr. David Epstein at Robert W. Baird & Company in Milwaukee. Who is the individual at the Joint whom Mr. Epstein should contact when our gifts are made?

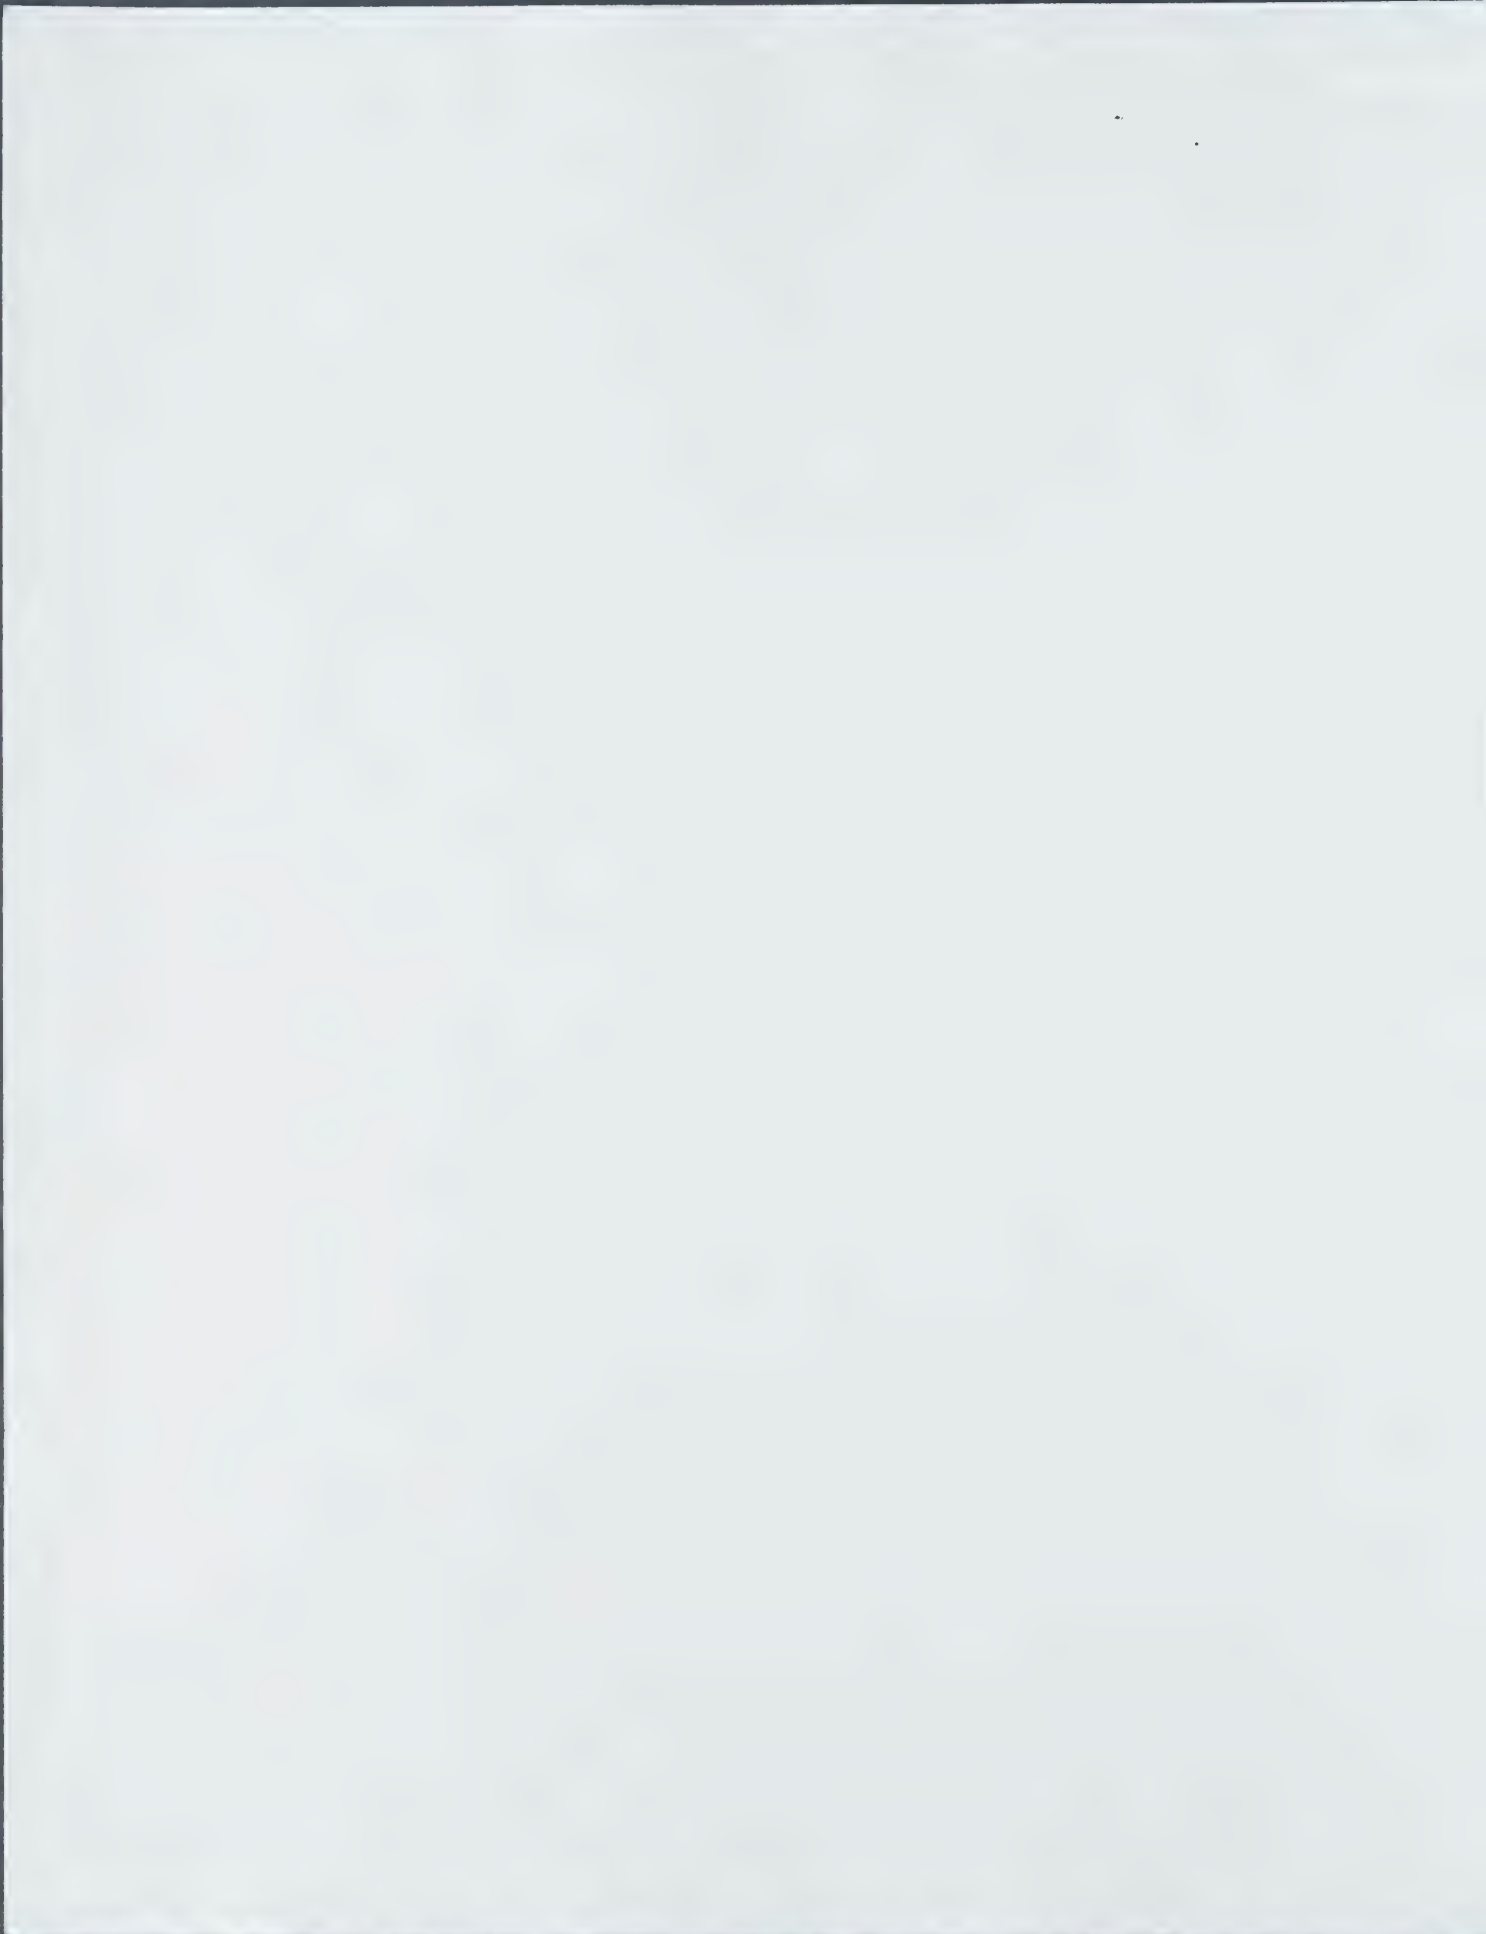

With all good wishes for a happy and healthy 2002 I remain

Yours sincerely,

Re: The Alfred and Isabel Bader Philanthropic Fund

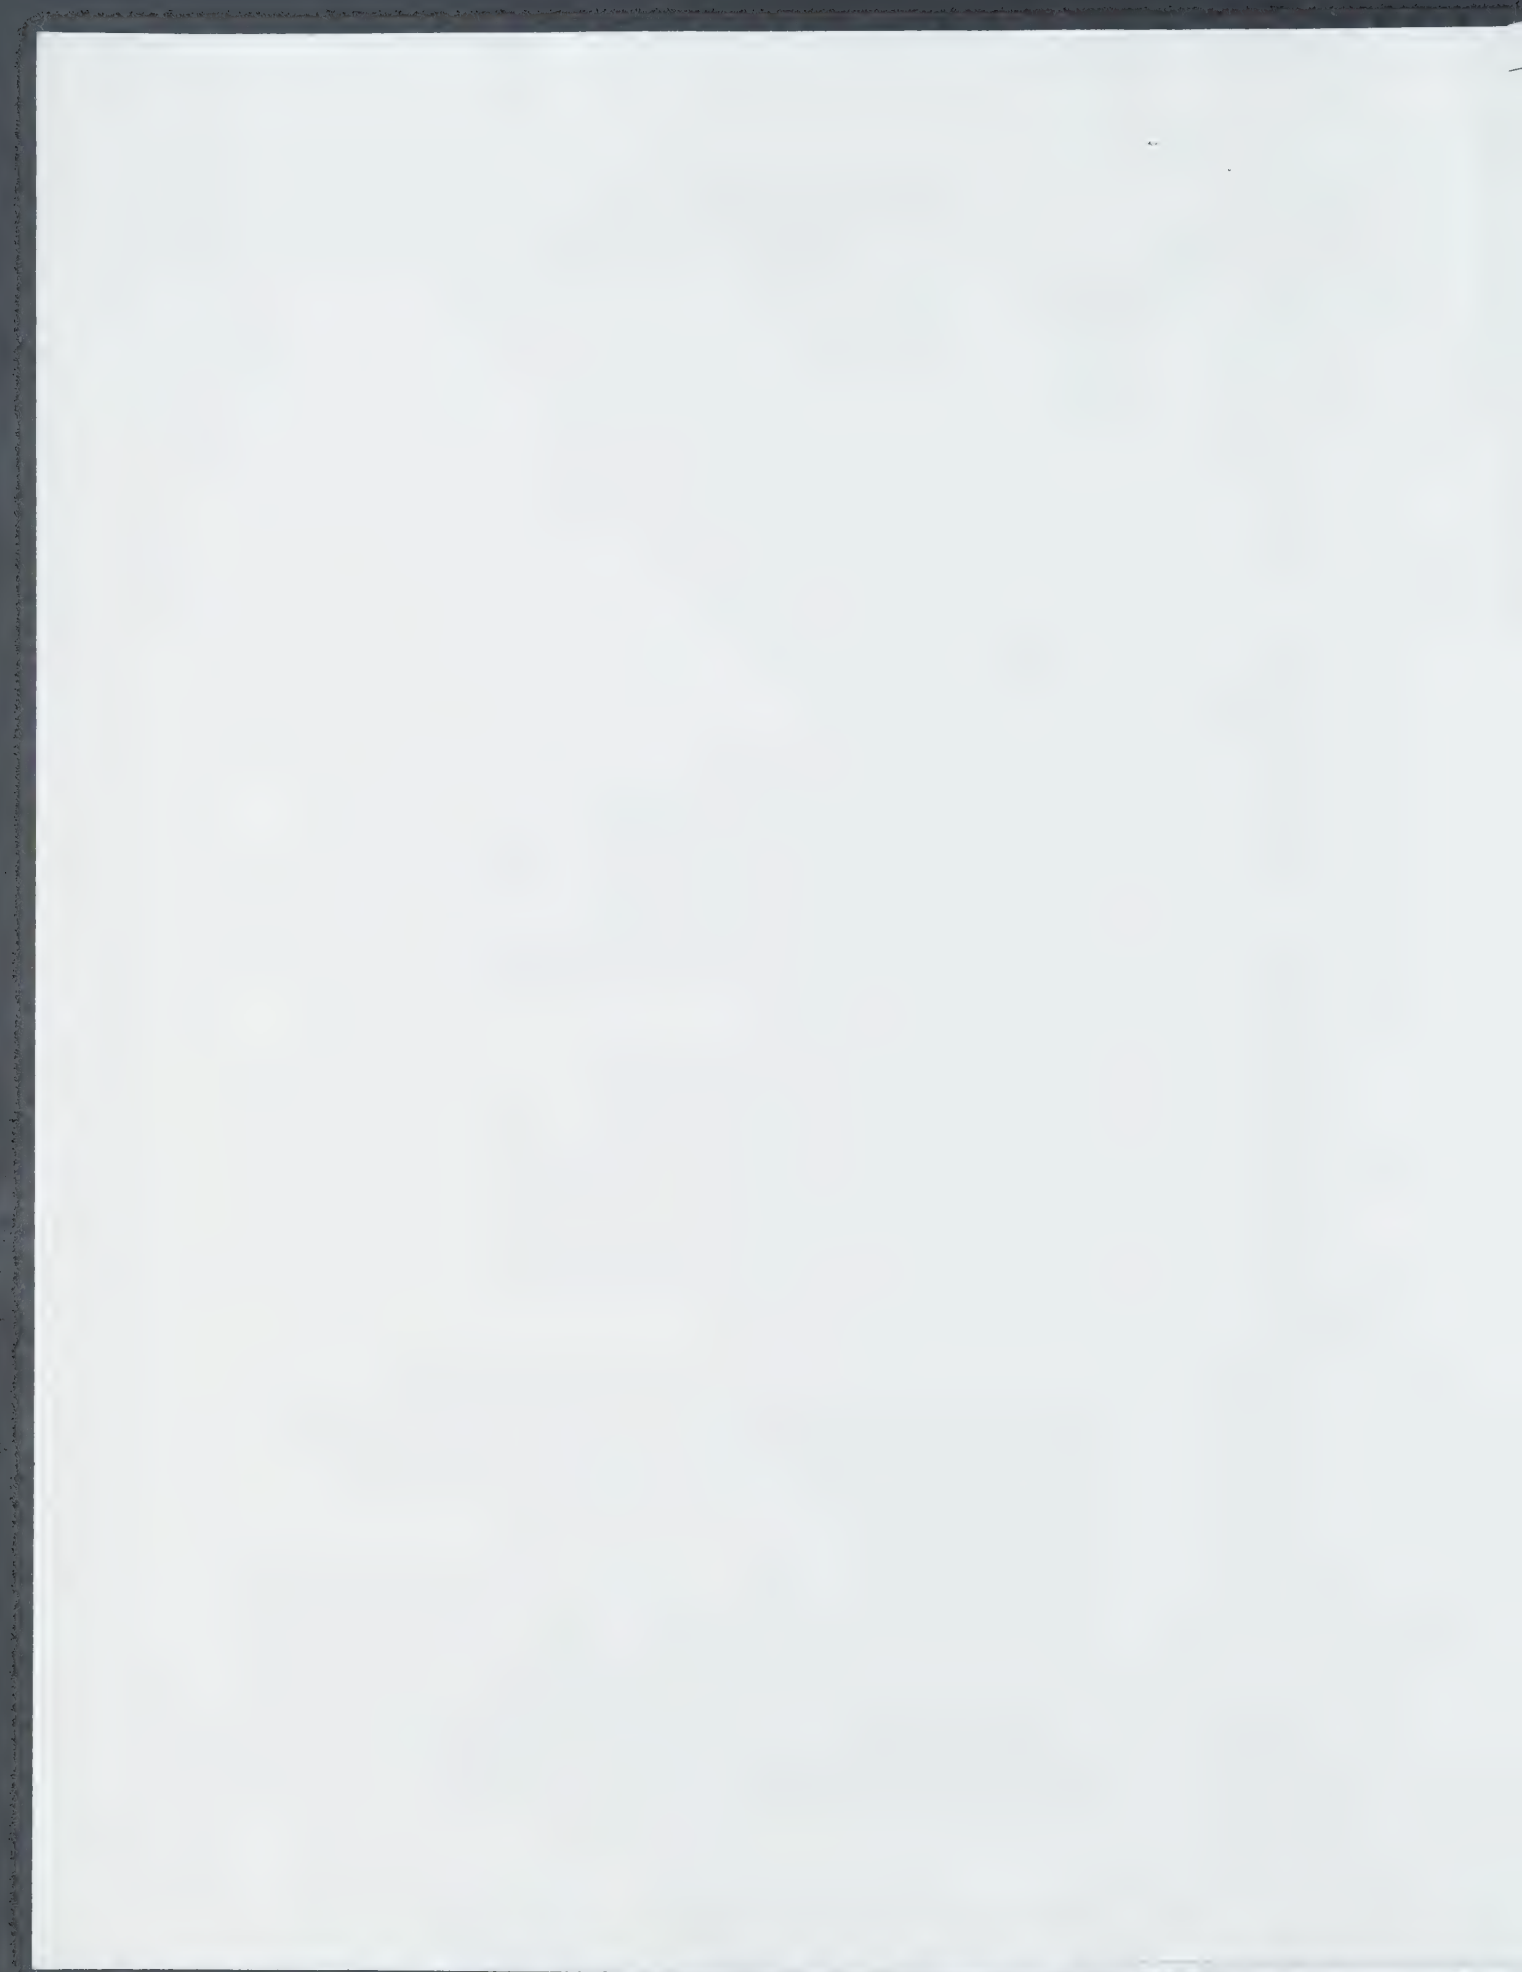

A fund shall be established in the JDC which shall be known as the Alfred and Isabel Bader Philanthropic Fund ("the Fund"). The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC) may receive additional irrevocable gifts from time to time from the undersigned and from any other source to be added to the Fund, all subject to the provisions hereof.

1. The JDC shall have all powers necessary or in its sole discretion desirable to carry out the purposes of the Fund, including, but not limited to, the power to retain, invest, and reinvest the Fund in any manner it may see fit, without being subject to any investment restrictions, statutory or judicial, which would otherwise be applicable to it as a fiduciary, and the power to commingle the assets of the Fund with those of other funds for investment purposes. No person dealing with the JDC shall be required to inquire into its authority to act.

2. The principal and income of the Fund shall be distributed only to organizations of the type to which an individual taxpayer may make deductible charitable contributions, gifts and bequests under the income or gift and estate tax provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, described in section 501 (c) (3).

3. Distributions from the Fund of principal and/or income shall be made at such time or times and in such amount or amounts as may be determined solely by the JDC, to such organizations of the type described in paragraph 3 as may be designated by the JDC (including JDC and its affiliates); provided, however, that Alfred Bader and Isabel Bader and upon their demise, the Trustees of the Isabel and Alfred Bader Foundation may from time to time submit to the JDC the names of organizations to which it is recommended by them that distributions be made, which organizations shall not be other than those described in paragraph 3. Such recommendations shall be solely advisory, and the JDC may accept or reject them, applying reasonable standards and guidelines with regard thereto. In no event may JDC honor a recommendation where such donation would be inconsistent with JDC's charitable mission.

4. It is recognized that the JDC in the administration of the Fund and in making distributions from the Fund will do all things that it deems necessary to comply with the Internal Revenue Code and regulations issued thereunder in order to maintain its status as a "public charity" and the status of this Fund as a "Donor-Advised Fund" and that by doing so it be required from time to time, to take action which varies from the terms and conditions hereof.

5. Neither the donor, Alfred Bader or Isabel Bader, or any other person may receive any tangible benefit or privilege in return for a distribution of the Fund. It is understood that no distributions will be used to discharge or satisfy a legally enforceable pledge or obligation of any person, including the donor or his family.

6. It is intended that the Fund shall be a component part of the JDC and not a separate trust, and that nothing in this Agreement shall affect the status of the JDC as an organization described in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and as an organization which is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509 (a) of the Code. This Agreement shall be interpreted to conform to the requirements of the foregoing provisions of the federal tax laws and any regulations issued pursuant thereto. The JDC is authorized to amend this Agreement to conform to the provisions of any applicable law or government regulation in order to carry out the purposes of this Fund. References herein to provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall be deemed references to the corresponding provisions of any future Internal Revenue Code.

Dear Mr. Holmon,

Thank you so much for your letter of December 21st and the enclosed draft of an Agreement of December 17th.

Please allow me to explain to you that the donations will be made by my wife, Isabel, and myself, hopefully with the advice and help of my two sons, David and Daniel Bader.

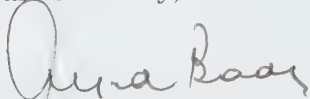

In our Wills, Isabel and I leave most of our estate to the Isabel and Alfred Bader Foundation, the Trustees of which include David and Daniel.

Hence, I have made some hand-written changes which I trust you can approve.

If so, that leaves only one question: namely, the language of PP 3 – that is, that distributions will be determined solely by the JDC. I presume that this is a legal requirement and that the Joint will in fact honor all of our recommendations, provided that they are made to IRS-recognized not for profit organizations.

I much look forward to hearing from you and remain with all good wishes

Yours sincerely,

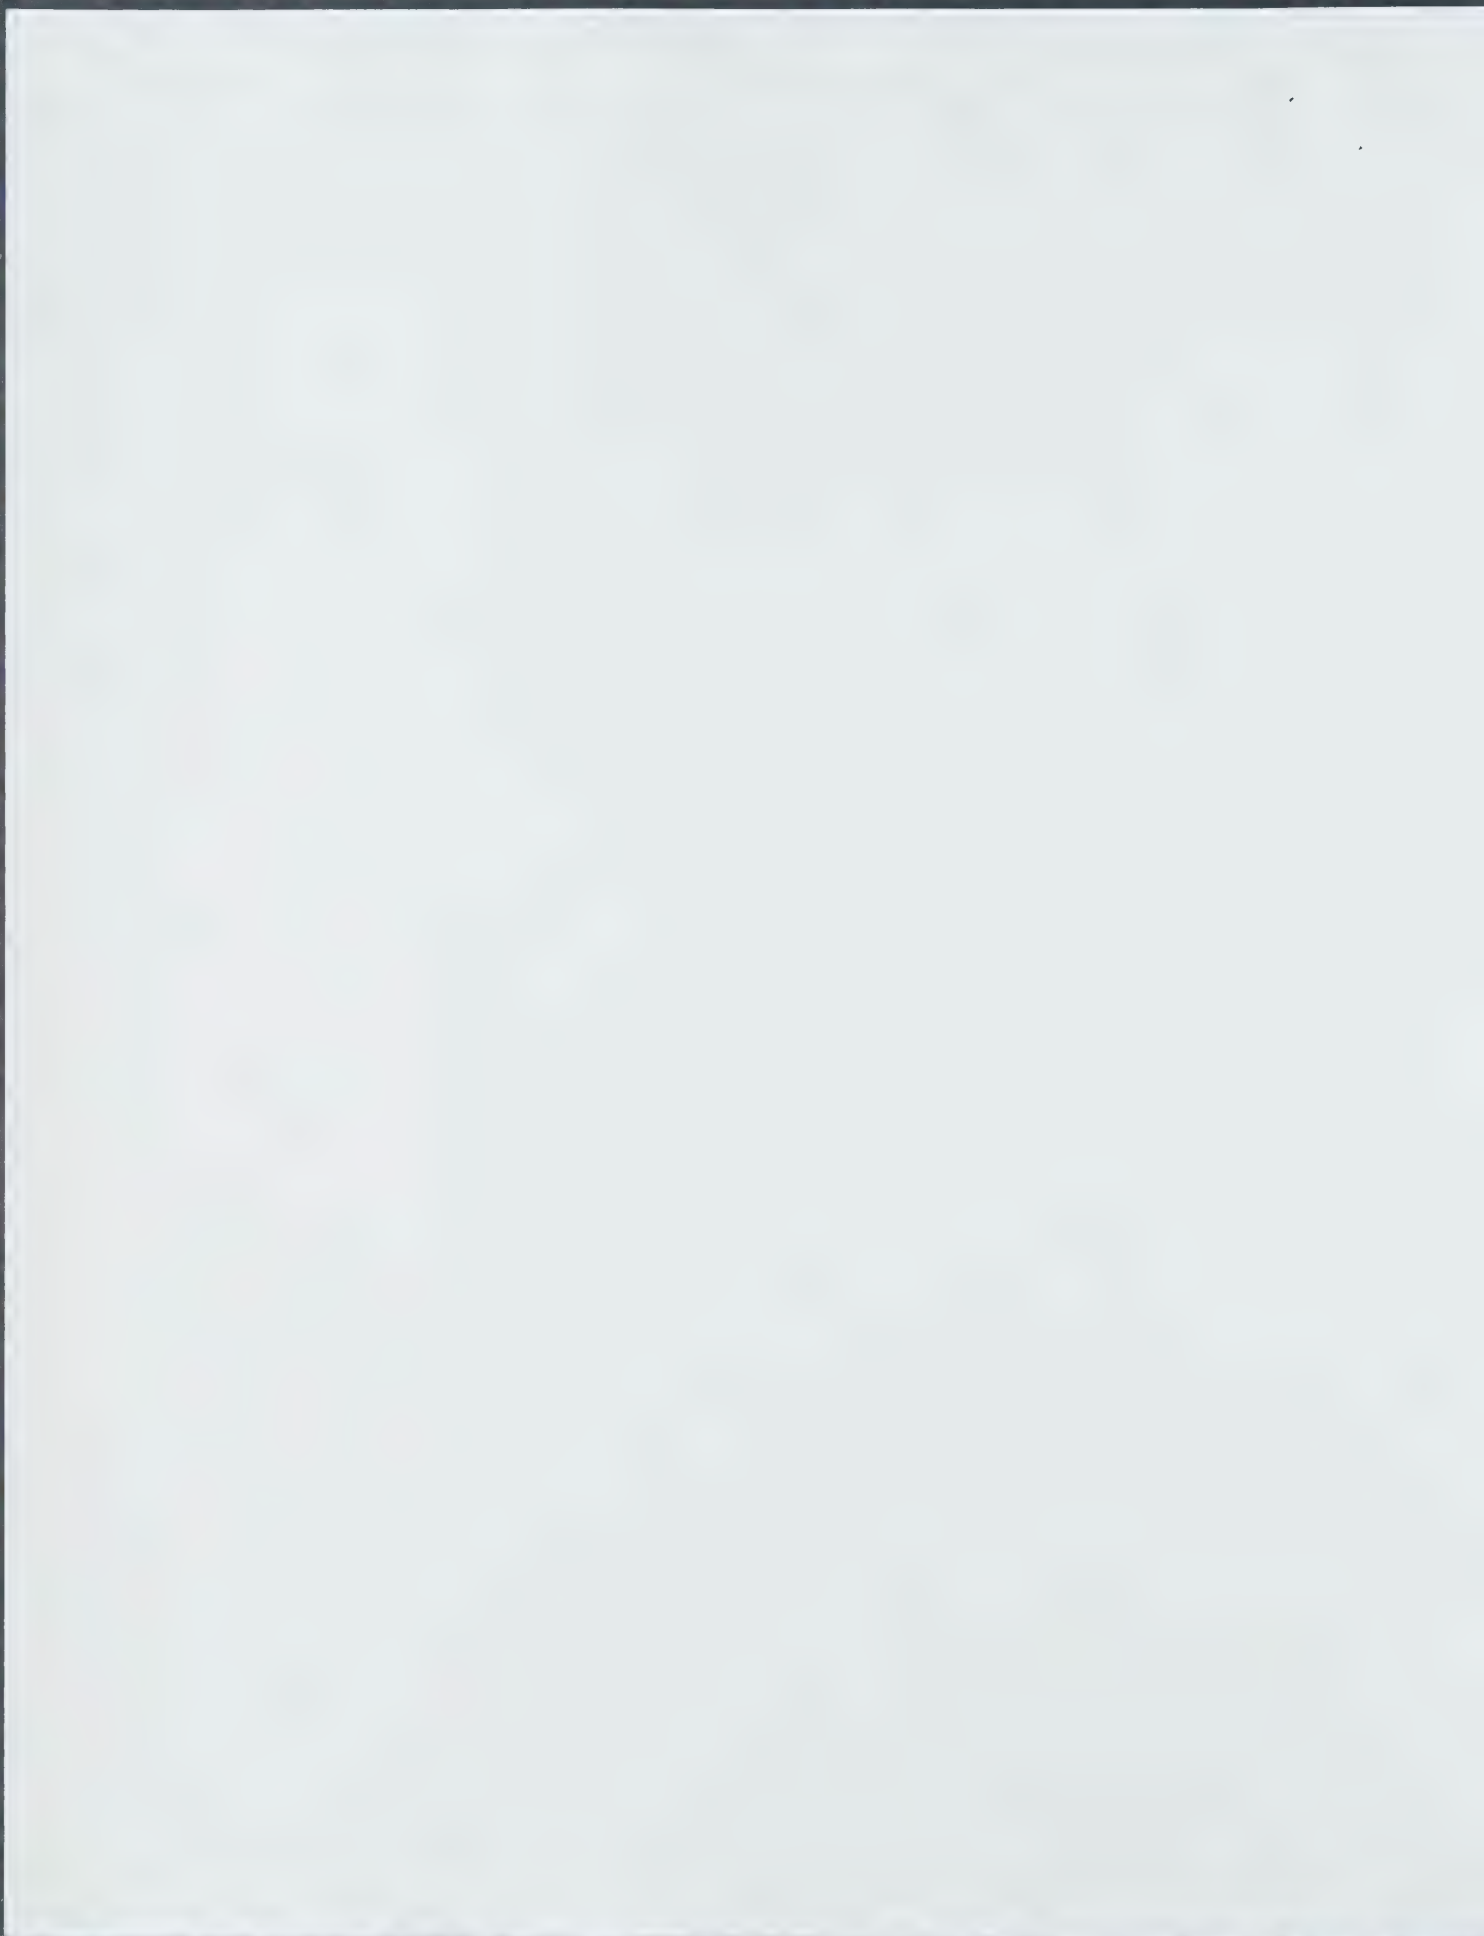

Alfred Bader

Re: The Alfred and David Bader Philanthropic Fund

A fund shall be established in the JDC which shall be known as the Alfred Bader Philanthropic Fund ("the Fund"). The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC) may receive additional irrevocable gifts from time to time from the undersigned and from any other source to be added to the Fund, all subject to the provisions hereof.

1. The JDC shall have all powers necessary or in its sole discretion desirable to carry out the purposes of the Fund, including, but not limited to, the power to retain, invest, and reinvest the Fund in any manner it may see fit, without being subject to any investment restrictions, statutory or judicial, which would otherwise be applicable to it as a fiduciary, and the power to commingle the assets of the Fund with those of other funds for investment purposes. No person dealing with the JDC shall be required to inquire into its authority to act.

2. The principal and income of the Fund shall be distributed only to organizations of the type to which an individual taxpayer may make deductible charitable contributions, gifts and bequests under the income, gift and estate tax provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, described in section 501C(3).

3. Distributions from the Fund of principal and/or income shall be made at such time or times and in such amount or amounts as may be determined solely by the JDC, to such organizations of the type described in paragraph number 2 as may be designated by the JDC; provided, however, that Alfred Bader and ~~upon his demise David Bader~~ may from time to time submit to the JDC the names of organizations to which it is recommended by them that distributions be made, which organizations shall not be other than those described in paragraph number 2. Such recommendations shall be solely advisory, and the JDC may accept or reject them, applying reasonable standards and guidelines with regard thereto.

4. It is recognized that the JDC in the administration of the Fund and in making distributions from the Fund will do all things that it deems necessary to comply with the Internal Revenue Code and regulations issued there under in order to maintain its status as a "public charity" and that by doing so it be required from time to time, to take action which varies from the terms and conditions hereof.

5. Neither the donor, Alfred Bader ~~or David Bader~~, or any other person may receive any tangible benefit or privilege in return for a distribution of the Fund. It is understood that no distributions will be used to discharge or satisfy a legally enforceable pledge or obligation of any person, including the donor or his family.

6. It is intended that the Fund shall be a component part of the JDC and not a separate trust, and that nothing in this Agreement shall affect the status of the JDC as an organization described in Section 501C(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and as an organization which is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509 (a) of the Code. This Agreement shall be interpreted to conform to the requirements of the foregoing provisions of the federal tax laws and any regulations issued pursuant thereto. The JDC is authorized to amend this Agreement to conform to the provisions of any applicable law or government regulation in order to carry out the purposes of this Fund. References herein to provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall be deemed references to the corresponding provisions of any future Internal Revenue Code.

Dear Dr. Bader,

As per your discussion with Yechiel Bar Chaim, I am pleased to attach a proposed document for your signature, which will establish a donor advised fund with JDC. We currently have many such funds with various JDC board members and donors.

I am sure you appreciate that the wording, as formal as it is, needs to comply with the Internal Revenue Requirements so that any monies you give to JDC is tax deductible to the fullest extent allowable. However, please be assured that we will be happy to work with you to fulfill your goals.

A separate accounting will be sent to you quarterly giving you the value of the fund and summarizing any disbursements and contributions you have made. JDC representatives, especially Yechiel Bar Chaim, would be closely involved in periodic consultations with you as you determine future recommendations.

JDC will make every effort to honor all of your recommendations as long as they are made to an Internal Revenue Service recognized not-for-profit organization. As you probably know, the monies cannot be used for any memberships or dinners but all other choices you make will be duly honored.

After you have had a chance to review the attached, please let Yechiel or me know of any changes.

On behalf of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, I wish to express our sincere appreciation for your confidence and continued generosity.

The Joint Distribution Committee receives its funds primarily from American Jewry through the Jewish Federations of the United States and the United Jewish Communities. The JDC also receives funding from World Jewish Relief of Great Britain and UIA Federations Canada

Dear Alfred,

When we met in London in November, it is true that I discouraged you from making a donation to JDC to help the poor Jewish elderly in the FSU.

However, the following developments have taken place:

JDC has recently been appointed by a United States court to administer $67.5 million for welfare services for needy victims of Nazi persecution in the FSU over the next ten years from the Swiss bank settlement.

However, I did not realize when we spoke that the Swiss gold money has been designated specifically for victims of Nazi persecution. Only 55% of our caseload are victims of Nazi persecution; therefore, we are now pressed to find additional funds for the non-victims so as to avoid having to provide two levels of services, namely a better standard for Nazi victims and a lower standard for non-victims.

With this new challenge, I felt compelled to designate your $100,000.00 to assist the Jewish elderly in Ukraine. The elderly needy Jews of the Former Soviet Union are the poorest Jews in the world; despite lack of funds, it is JDC's responsibility to help these men and women live out their lives in dignity and some degree of comfort. If you wish, I would be happy to discuss this further at your convenience.

I've asked for a detailed project report on Hesed Menachem for the year 2000, which I will forward to you when it arrives.

I hope that you and your family have enjoyed the Passover holiday. As always, please give my best to Isabel.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely,

Michael Schneider

Dear Dr. Bader,

Based on our conversations I have written to Michael Schneider and my New York colleagues asking that you receive urgently the missing information concerning your previous donations. I also wrote to Ms. Tana Hlavata of NADACE VIA with a suggestion for the year 2000. In addition, a first payment to Ms. Bartlova will now go out in accord with her instructions.

Enclosed for your consideration please find the letter from Dr. Nic I promised you.

I was very pleased to have the opportunity to meet both you and your wife and also to make the acquaintance of your friends the Emanuels

I look forward to our continuing cooperation.

Subject: Alfred Bader and propositions to help Czech chemist

Dear Mr. Bar-Chain,

I was thinking about some ideas which we discussed recently but unfortunately in the middle of the term time is a very scarce commodity. Nevertheless I am sending a proposal, which could be easily implementable and which is based on ideas we discussed some time ago.

I did some research about the current student chemistry competitions (age 16-18, according to my view the best group to target in chemistry should be promoted) in the Czech republic.

There is competition in which almost every secondary school in the Czech republic takes place. It has three rounds, the best students from each round compete at the next level.

It has two categories, for grammar school and for secondary schools specialized in chemistry. This year in the last round there competed 33 student in category A (grammar school) and 10 in category B (specialized chemistry secondary schools).

They had to compete against several thousand colleagues so their quality is assured.

And the proposals:

The next year I would buy each student from the last round a university textbook of organic chemistry. I recommend Francis A. Carey, Organic Chemistry. (We are working with this book at our department and it is very useful for students)

It would fulfill two needs. It would focus the attention of these young excellent chemist on organic chemistry. It would also help them to realize how important it is to read english (you would be surprised how many really good students underappreciate the necessity to master english adequately when they start to study at our university, they often think, I will be a good chemist so why bother with languages, they of course do change their opinion later).
So approx. $2500 would be needed to buy the book.

Now about your excellent idea with the equipment donation for the school, the winner came from. It would need a bit more thinking but the base idea:

I would call it Loshmidt prize. (It would popularize Loshmidt name in the Czech republic, Dr. Bader will be definitively fond of it).

I propose $5000 grant to go with this prize. $4000 to be given to the school the winner came from, and $1000 to the teacher as an appreciation of his work and compensation for the work connected with grant administration.

I do not recommend to buy directly an equipment as needs of schools can vary tremendously, but I would make a list of recommendation to make sure that the school really uses the money for chemistry

If Dr. Bader agrees about the awards I would take care of necessary arrangements. It should not be a great burden as this competition is organized anyway so it is just a question to contact the people from the organizational committee and transfer most of the responsibility to them.

I have a few more ideas but these are in too nascent stages to be communicated but I hope that if this one succeeds it will be of a great help for development of chemistry in the Czech republic.

Please give my regards to Dr. Bader and his wife.

A Chemist Helping Chemists

August 11, 1999

Mr. Michael Schneider
Executive Vice-President
The American Jewish
Joint Distribution Committee, Inc.
711 Third Avenue
New York, NY 10017-4014

Dear Michael,

Naturally the first thing I did when I arrived in Prague in June is to inquire at the Jewish Community Center whether Yechiel Bar-Chaim was in Prague. Unfortunately, he was not there but in Paris. But then when I visited Vivienne Lewis in London she gave me a photograph of herself with Mr. Bar-Chaim, copy enclosed. I very much look forward to meeting him.

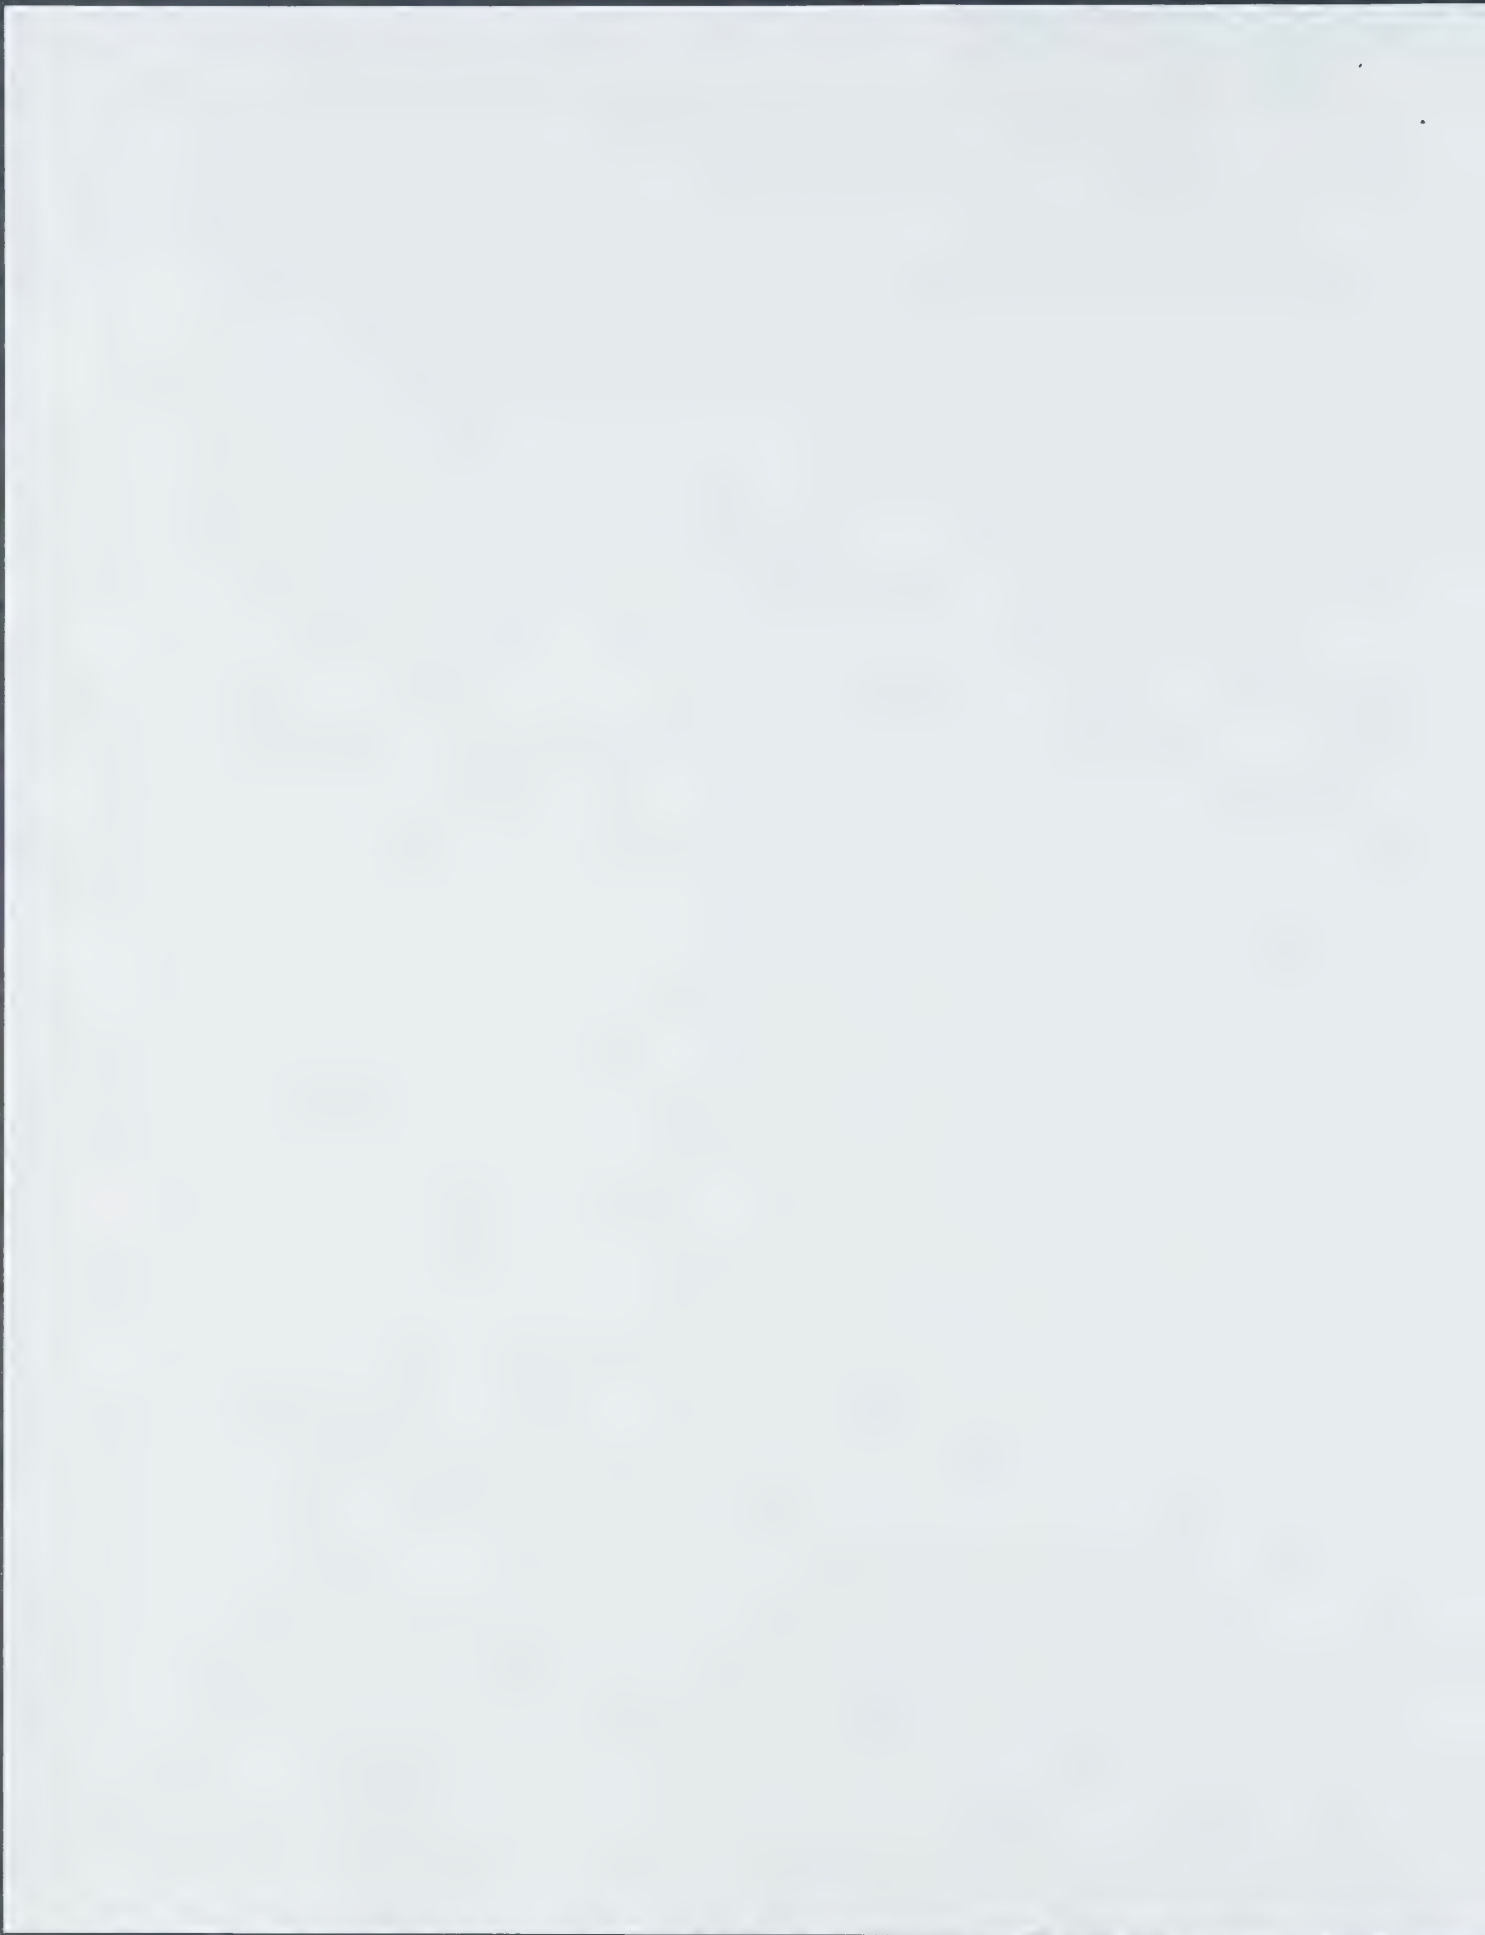

While in Prague I did meet the head of the Jewish community, Mr. Tomas Kraus. He is a pleasant man but he refused to give us an accounting on the funds coming into the Jewish community in Prague. Of course, realistically, I had no business to ask for it, but it would have been interesting to see how the millions of dollars coming in from tourists are spent. Certainly little is given to smaller communities outside Prague. Incidentally, Mr. Kraus told Isabel and me that he had some disagreements with the Joint, for the very same reason!

Isabel and I will be in England the last week of this month and then again in November and December. I much hope to have an opportunity to talk to Mr. Bar-Chaim about the Joint helping with the distribution of our gifts, which up until now were given through the Foundation for a Civil Society.

Vivienne Lewis and Jonathan Joseph in London urged us to contribute to helping in the Ukraine, but I don't think this is really for us. I would much rather give to help very focused efforts, like the orphanage in Odessa.

Of course I have also carefully considered helping your efforts in Kosovo; thank you for the video.

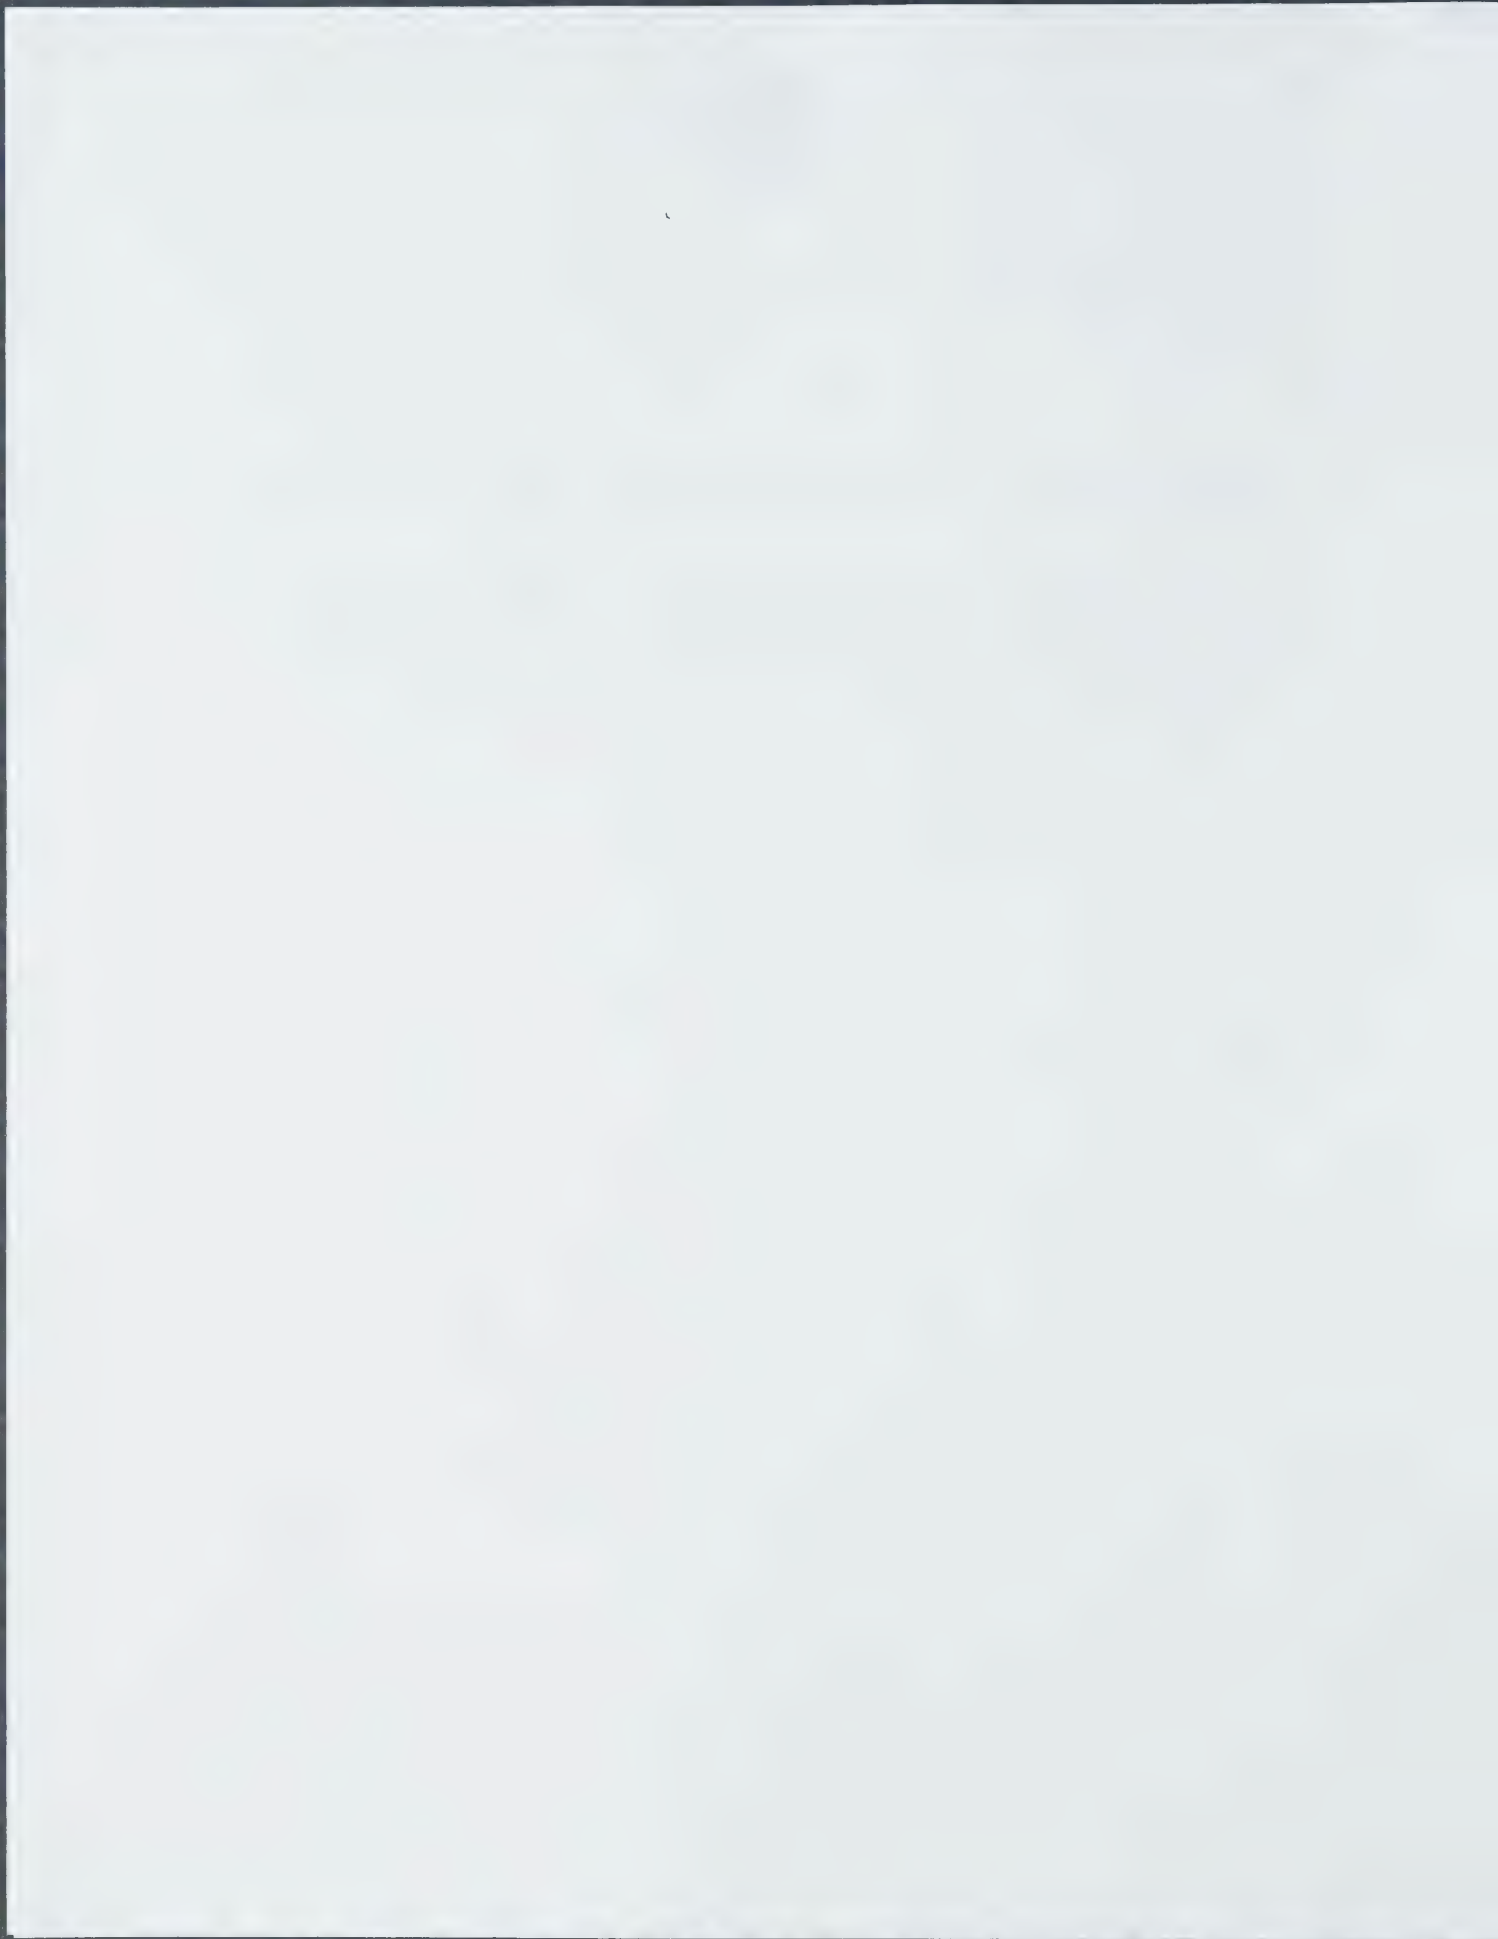

Really the Kosovars have been treated horribly by the Serbs, but now they are retaliating, and surely a great deal of help will come to them from NATO. What discourages me most about the Kosovars is how badly they are now treating the gypsies.

I hope you will understand.

With all good wishes I remain

New WJR strategy is to focus on Ukraine

By JAMES KAYE

WORLD Jewish Relief's newly-elected chairman has launched the organisation's new three-year strategic plan at a breakfast briefing held at the Royal Institute of British Architects.

Jonathan Joseph outlined the project's aims, which will focus on 10 Jewish community centres in Western Ukraine. A fund-raising increase of 10 per cent each year is needed to finance welfare provision in the country as well as an extra £1.5 million to fund community centres.

Mr Joseph said: "If it is to be successful, it is increasingly important for a non-profit organisation to have a business-like approach - that's why we have developed our strategic plan. We have identified what we need to do and how we will achieve it. It means we are focused, with goals to work towards."

WJR has also declared its intention to help rebuild Jewish life in the former Soviet Union and assist the plight of poverty-stricken elderly Jews in Western Ukraine.

Mr Joseph said: "The economic and political situation in the Western Ukraine, where most of our overseas work takes place, is in a state of flux. WJR is a very flexible organisation and, while we have to look to the future, we know that it is not feasible to plan for more than three years ahead. The Strategic Plan will be WJR's blueprint for the next three years."

However, Mr Joseph was also quick to emphasise the importance of partnership, working in co-operation with other Jewish organisations who have specific expertise in different areas.

Dalai Lama meets director of ULPS

THE director of the Union of Liberal and Progressive Synagogues Rabbi Dr Charles Middleburgh has met the Dalai Lama at the Tenth Lambeth Interfaith lecture.

An audience of 250 guests listened to an address by the Dalai Lama in the Great Hall at Lambeth Palace, and Rabbi Middleburgh was able to have a short conversation with him following the talk.

Rabbi Middleburgh said: "I was overwhelmed by the warmth and compassionate aura of the man.

"Philosophically, I was struck by the simplicity of the Dalai Lama's thinking and his understanding of issues of not inconsiderable complexity.

"I also asked him a number of questions about his thesis, which he knocked back convincingly.

"It is clear that the Dalai Lama feels dialogue between the faiths is the key to a more harmonious future and he said people like those present should regularly engage in such discourse. The impression he gave me was that, if conditions were right and serious efforts were made in future interfaith discussions to include him, he would be willing to participate. Dialogue seems an essential part of his make-up."

With considerable foresight, Rabbi Middleburgh had brought a copy of the Dalai Lama's latest book to the lecture and the Buddhist spiritual leader signed it with a special prayer for peace - in Tibetan.

Dear Dr Bader

It was good of you to call at this office yesterday afternoon and Jonathan Joseph and I very much enjoyed meeting you. As Jonathan told you he certainly plans to be here for the next three years and I certainly hope to be here with him. I am sorry that there have been so many staff changes but we will now do our very best to ensure that there is continuity, it is necessary, not only for our supporters' sake, but also for the sake of the Organisation.

Jonathan and I would very much welcome the opportunity to spend some time with you, explaining World Jewish Relief's current position and we would like to share with you our plans for the future.

I understand that you are in England for a few months of each year and if you would be good enough to contact me perhaps we could then arrange a mutually convenient date to meet, either here or at your home.

Yours sincerely

Dear Michael,

Thank you for your letter of February 25th received today.

Isabel and I plan to be in Prague from June 26th until the morning of Wednesday, June 30th.

However, surely it doesn't make sense for Mr. Bar-Chaim to come specially to Prague to be with us. On the other hand, if he should be in Prague any way, we would of course be delighted to meet him.

Our donations are all well documented and going through competent and responsible academic channels.

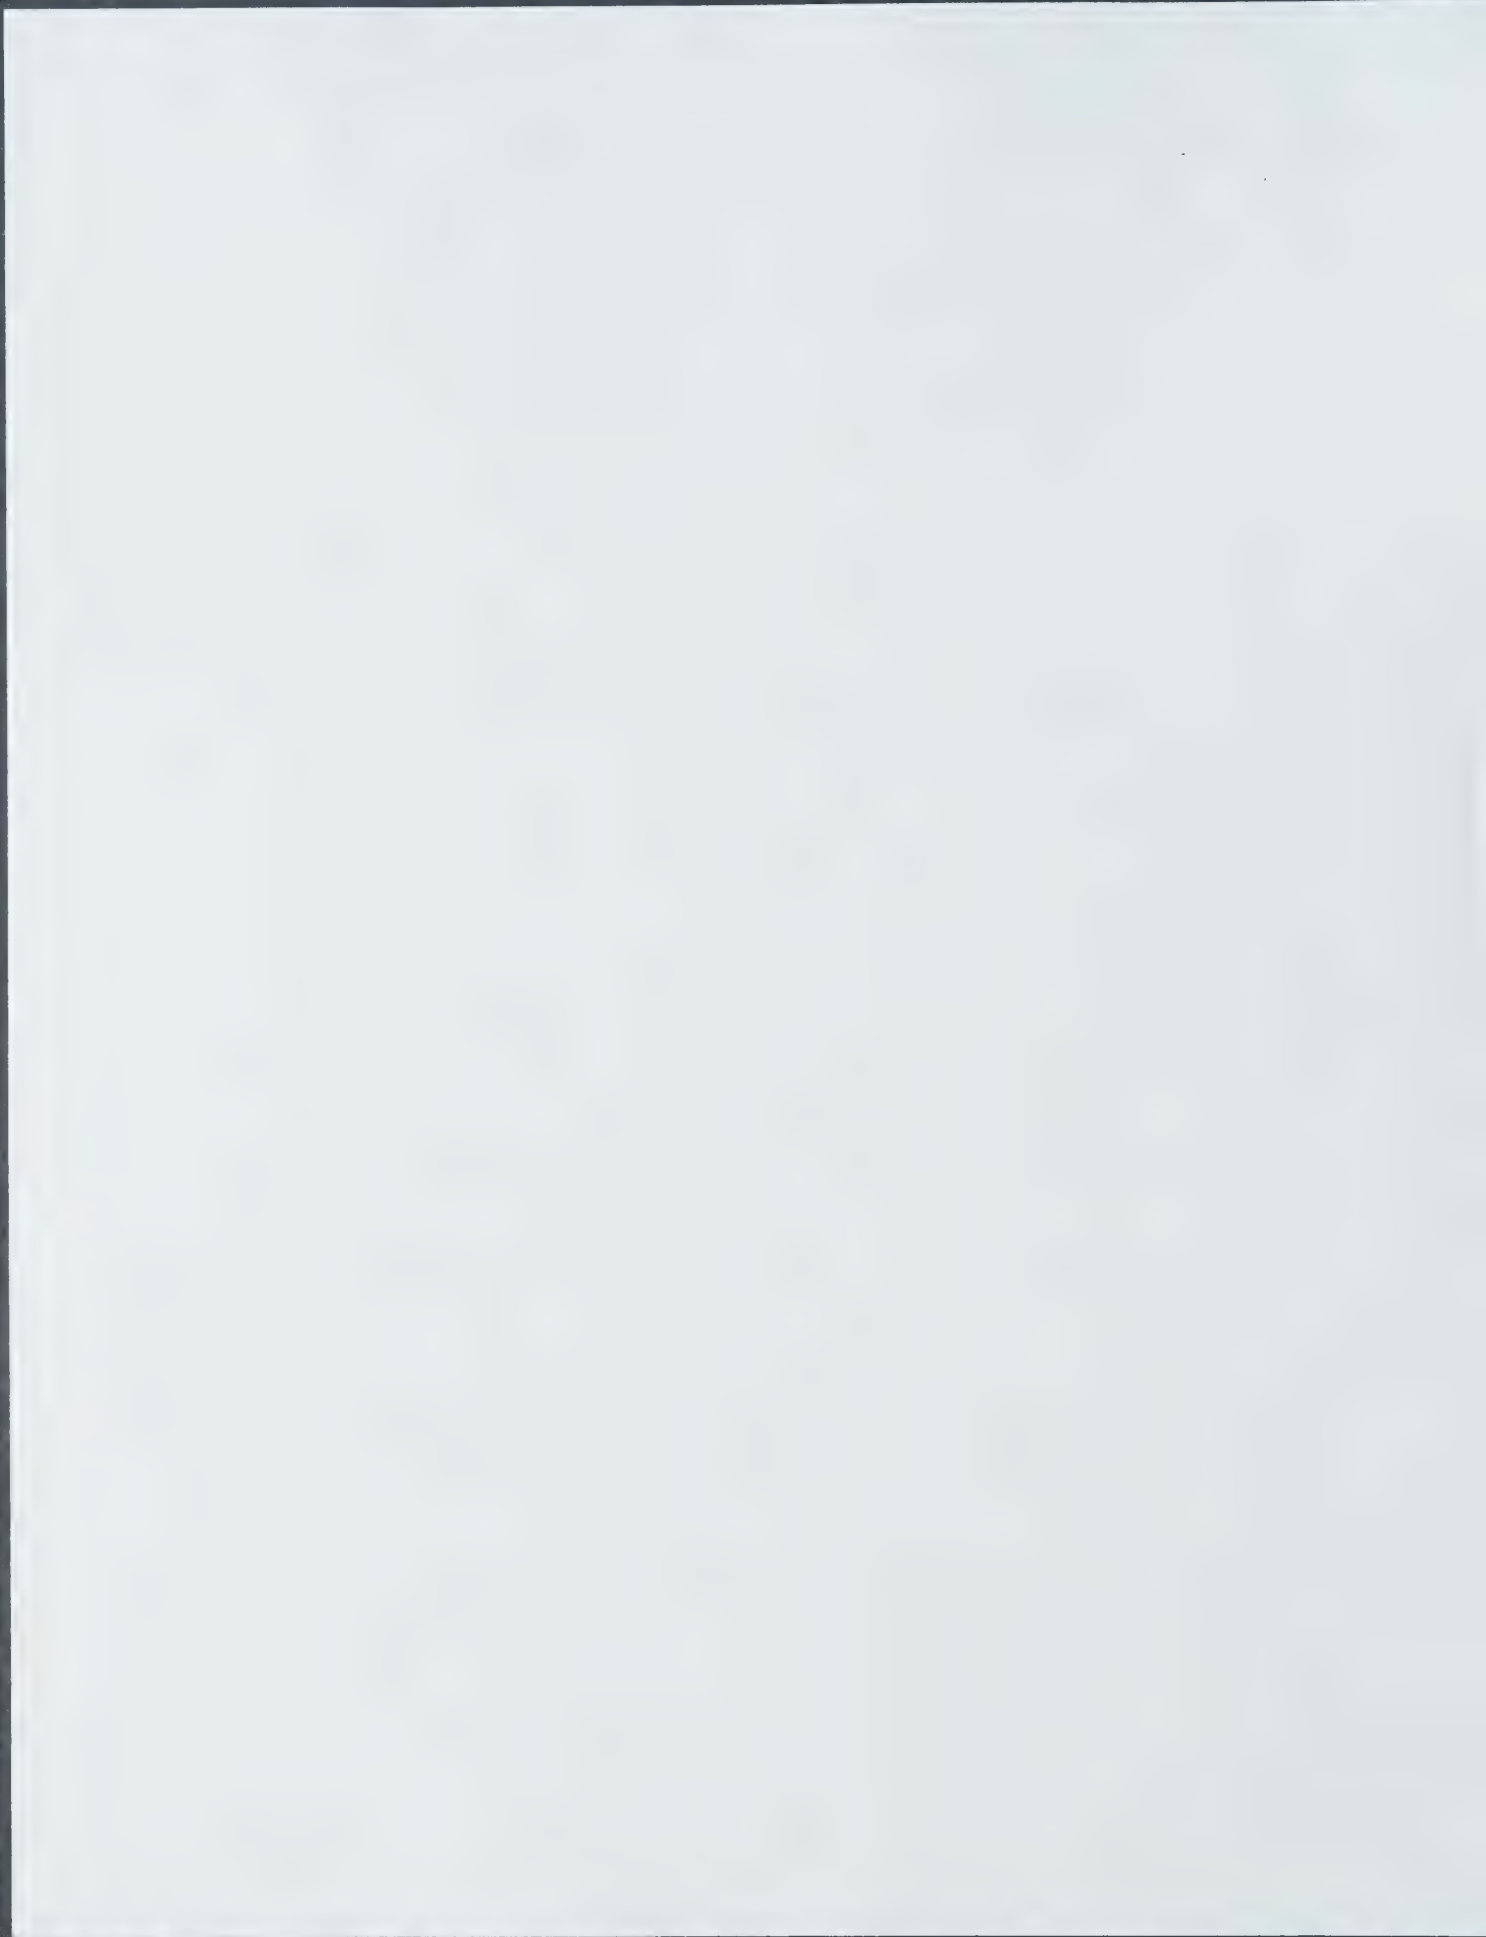

The one really complicated gift has been gifts of $25,000 a year this year and last year, for the Roma and that we certainly do not want to continue. However, you may well have some other really good channel to help the Roma community.

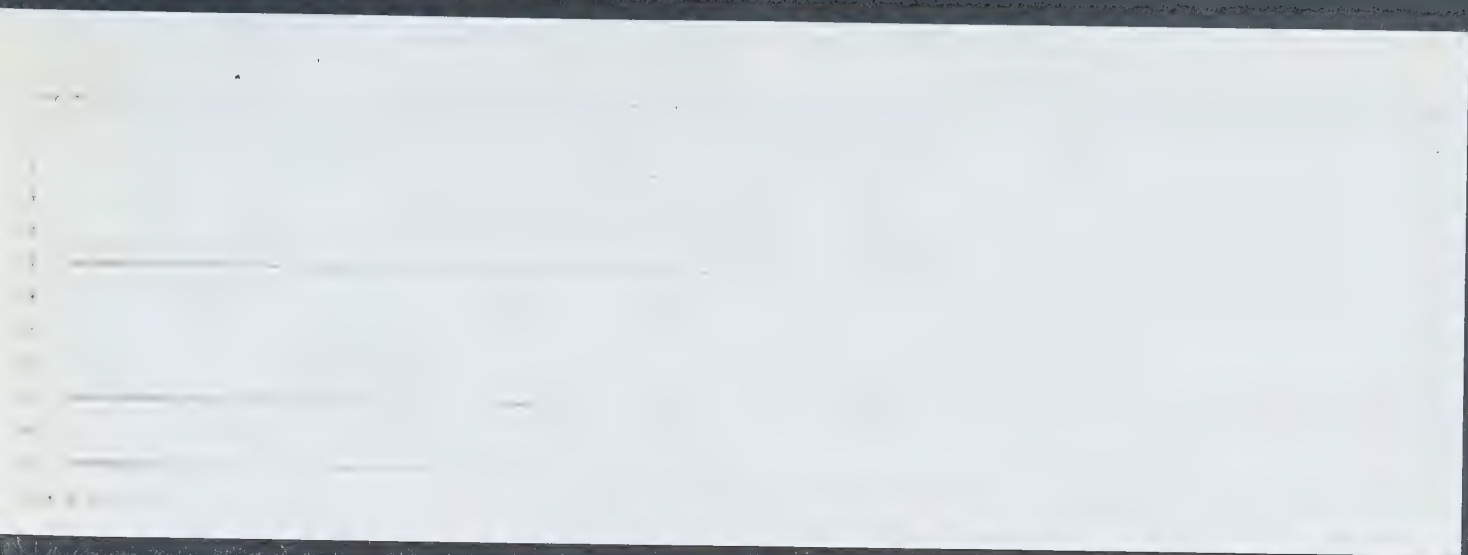

As I mentioned before, I only have your 1997 update for the Joint's non-denominational efforts and I will appreciate your latest compilation.

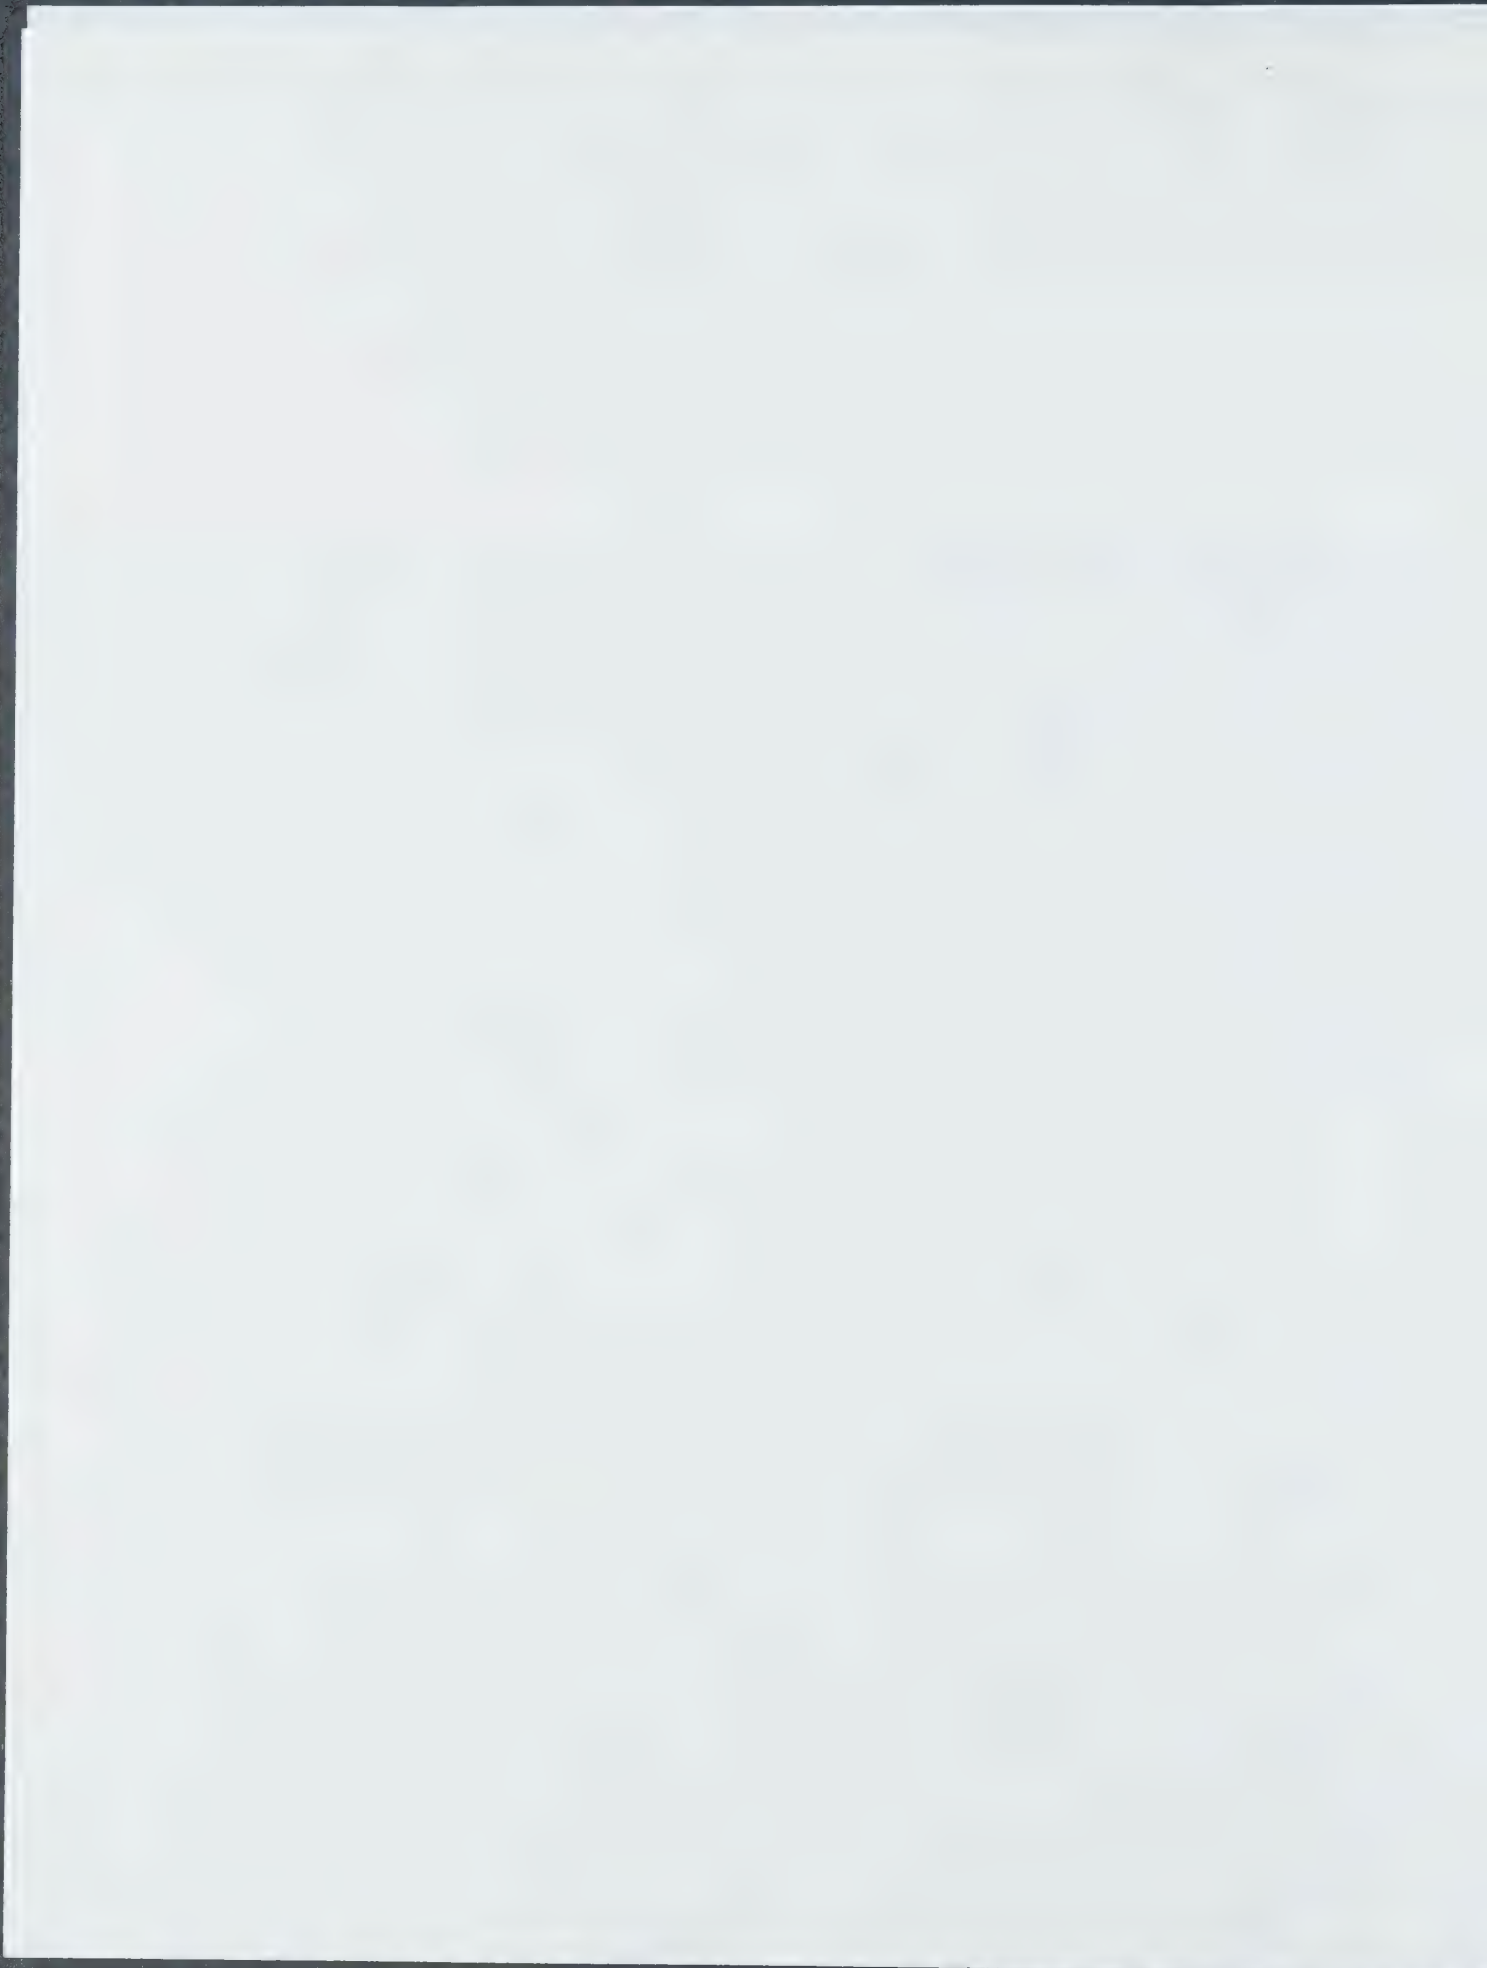

With all good wishes, I remain

Yours sincerely,

Alfred Bader

Dear Alfred,

I have now consulted with Yechiel Bar-Chaim, our Country Director for the Czech Republic. He believes he can absorb the logistics and evaluation of your program in Prague.

Yechiel suggests that he should accompany you in June in order to meet the implementors.

When you have fixed dates for your visit and you agree that Yechiel should meet you in Prague, my assistant, Tzivia Bieler, will coordinate with Yechiel.

He mentioned his appreciation for the donation you made to launch the entrepreneurship -- small business development project in Sarajevo. He is finalizing a progress report on that project which, of course, I will share with you.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Michael Schneider

Just a note to confirm my discussion with your delightful secretary this noon, that the $20,000 I sent you earlier this month is not for the Hurricane Mitch victims.

I have also asked your secretary to send me an update of that very interesting 1997 booklet about non-sectarian aid which you gave me. We would like to do more for non-sectarian aid but it would be helpful to have your updated version.

Dear Alfred,

Thank you so much for your letter of February 8th and your check for $20,000 for aid to the Caribbean. When you say Caribbean, do you mean aid for the victims of Hurricane Mitch or do you mean our non-sectarian work in Cuba as we discussed?

It was a pleasure being with both you and Isabel and having a chance to talk about some non-business matters.

I have sent a letter to Yechiel Bar-Chaim, our Country Director for the Czech Republic and the Former Yugoslavia, and asked him how he might incorporate funding and monitoring of the grant to the Foundation for a Civil Society. You will hear from me quite shortly.

As far as the Jewish community is concerned, they are relatively better off than most other East European communities due to the return of some valuable communal properties confiscated by the Nazis and the Communists.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Michael Schneider

The situation facing children with physical or mental disabilities in most parts of the former Soviet Union is appalling. The children are sent to an institution where they receive virtually no treatment. They are left in wards all day long, with no stimulation, inadequate heating and poor food. They are dumped and forgotten.

But in 1995 the Jewish community of Dniepropetrovsk, a large city in the south east of Ukraine, pioneered a programme for children with cerebral palsy called The Tikvah Club. The children who attend receive therapy, massage treatments and medicines as well as taking part in a variety of educational and social events. Because the children come from poor families, food parcels are regularly distributed.

A team of experienced teachers help the children to develop their physical and mental abilities to the full.

The children are taught about Jewish festivals, celebrate Shabbat and Jewish holidays together. Many of the participants had not left their own homes for many years so for children and parents alike, the Tikvah Club has been an almost miraculous happening.

There are currently 80 children attending the club, but there are a further 120 children in desperate need of the care and support the club could offer.

World Jewish Relief will be supporting the programme by making a grant towards running costs which will enable the Club to help more children. But, the Club is in desperate need of a specially adapted vehicle to take children to and from their homes to the Club, on outings and to receive specialised treatments. The cost of purchasing and adapting the vehicle is $40,000. Running costs of approximately $10,000 will be funded by our partners in Ukraine, the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee.

Dear Alfred,

Once again I returned from a trip to receive your letter dated February 23rd.

We will most certainly meet -- either in New York or Milwaukee.

For your information, I am enclosing a copy of "Snapshots" which will illustrate the size and scope of our challenge in the Former Soviet Union. It is hard to believe or remember that, when I was invited to visit the FSU eleven years ago, there was practically nothing there. Seven decades of systematic cultural murder of the Jewish people had all but obliterated Jewish knowledge and communal infrastructure.

I am also enclosing for your review a Bulgaria Progress Report which we recently received from our JDC representative in Bulgaria.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Michael Schneider

Dear Michael:

I am sorry that your loss prevented our meeting in New York.

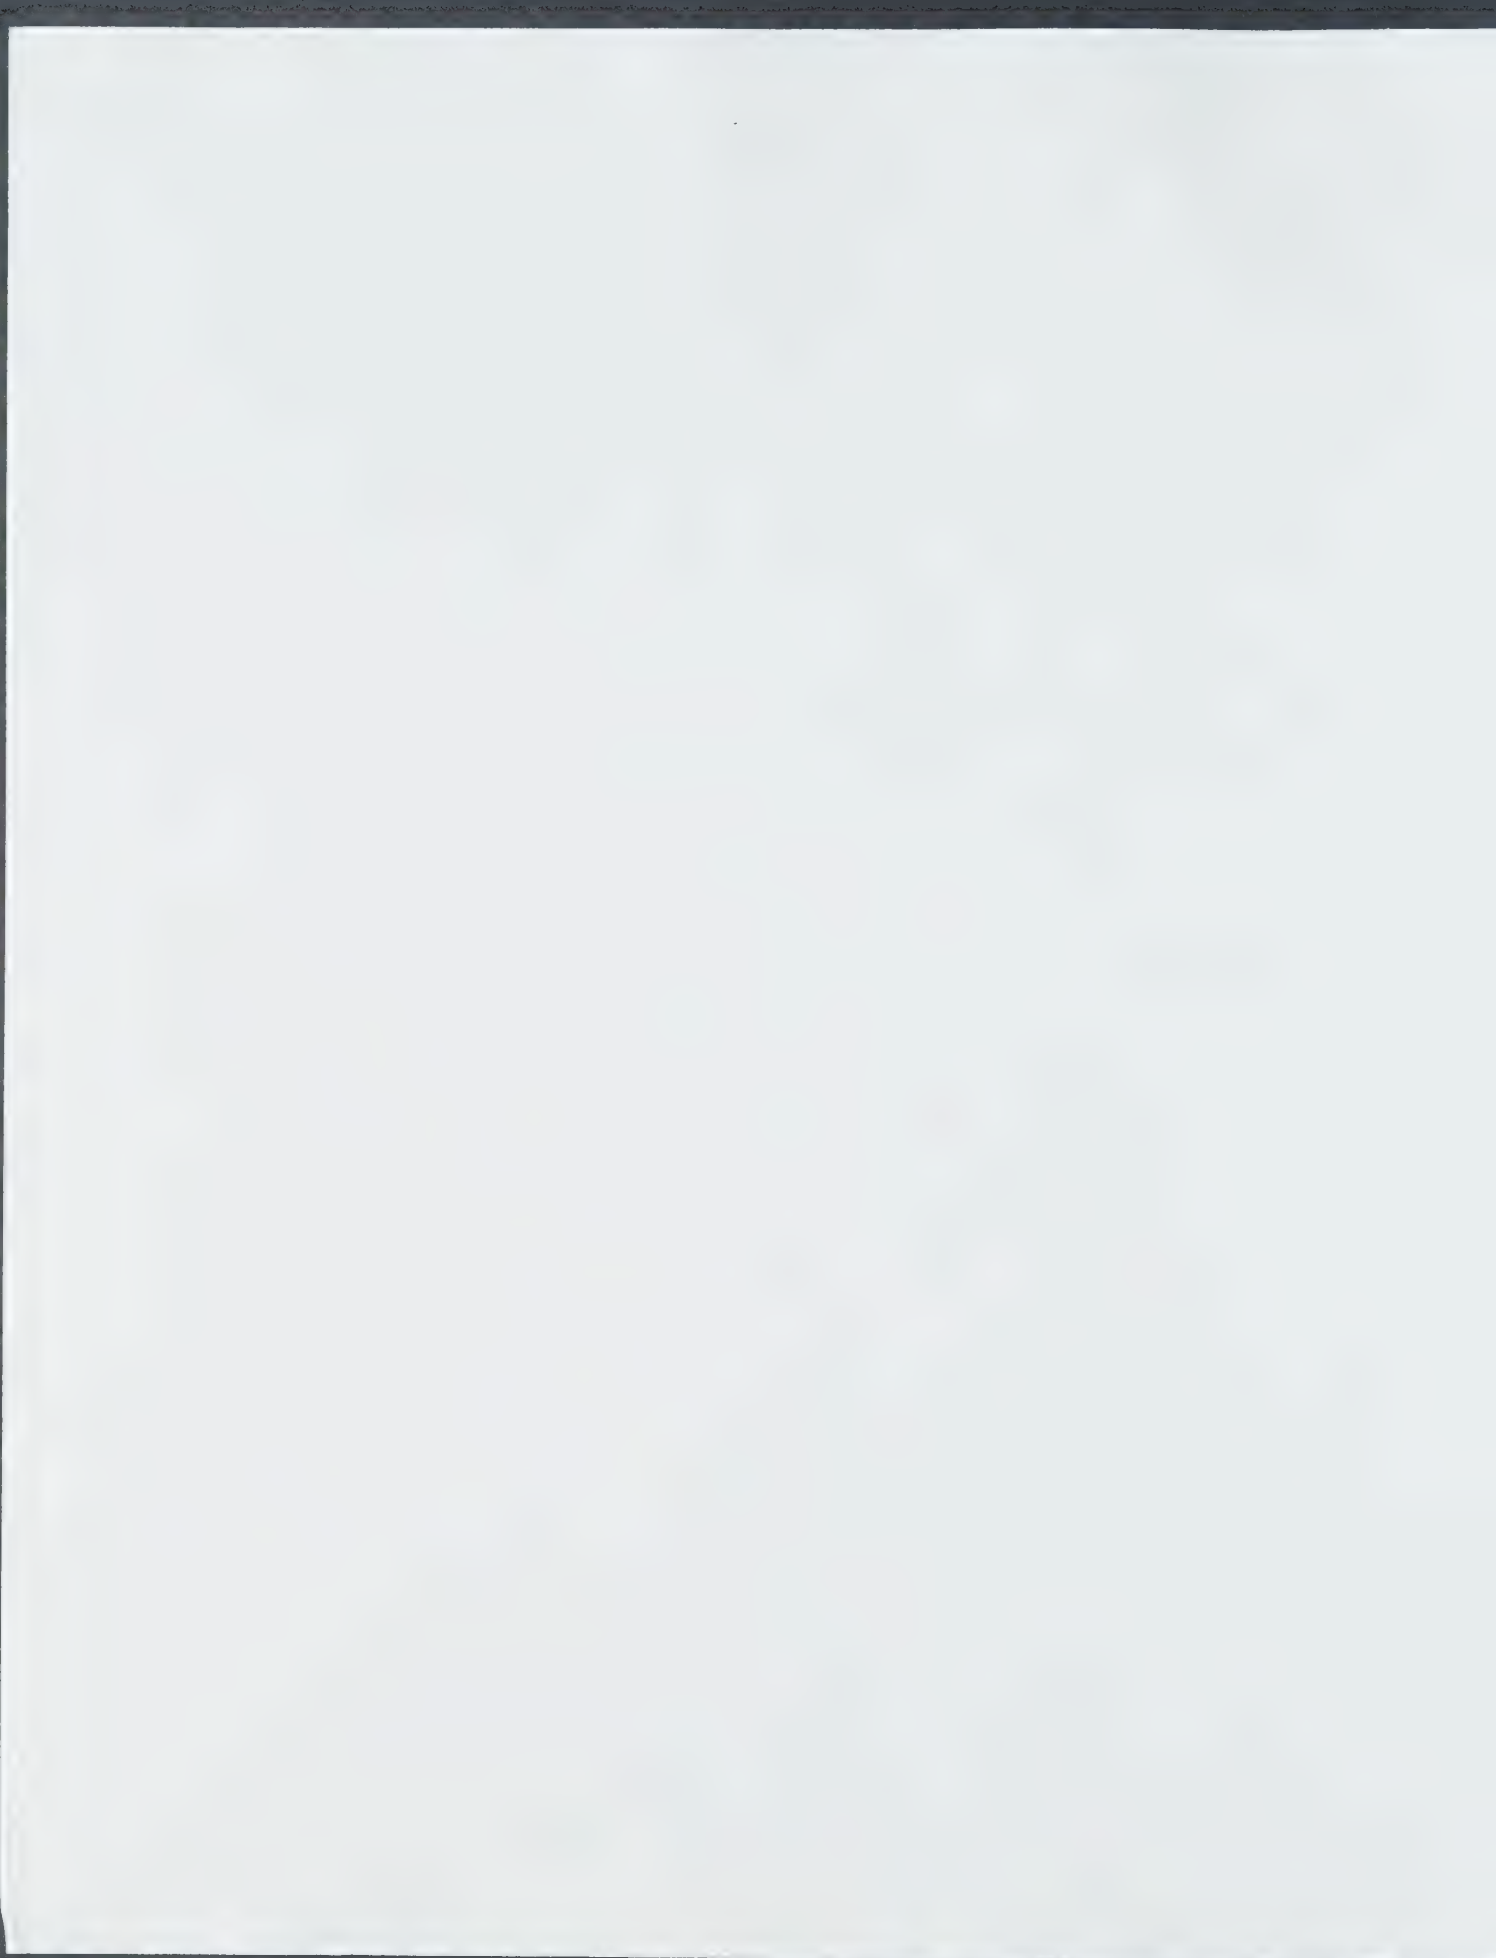

Of course I very much look forward to having some time with you either when next you come to Milwaukee or when we are in New York, to seek your guidance about giving. While we only spent a little time together at the Helen Bader Foundation dinner, I became convinced that there cannot be many people in the world who are as knowledgeable and as giving as you are.

With all good wishes, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Michael:

Thank you so much for your fax sent from your home on February 21.

Isabel and I would very much appreciate your advice - not to the Isabel and Alfred Bader Foundation - but to us personally about really worthy causes.

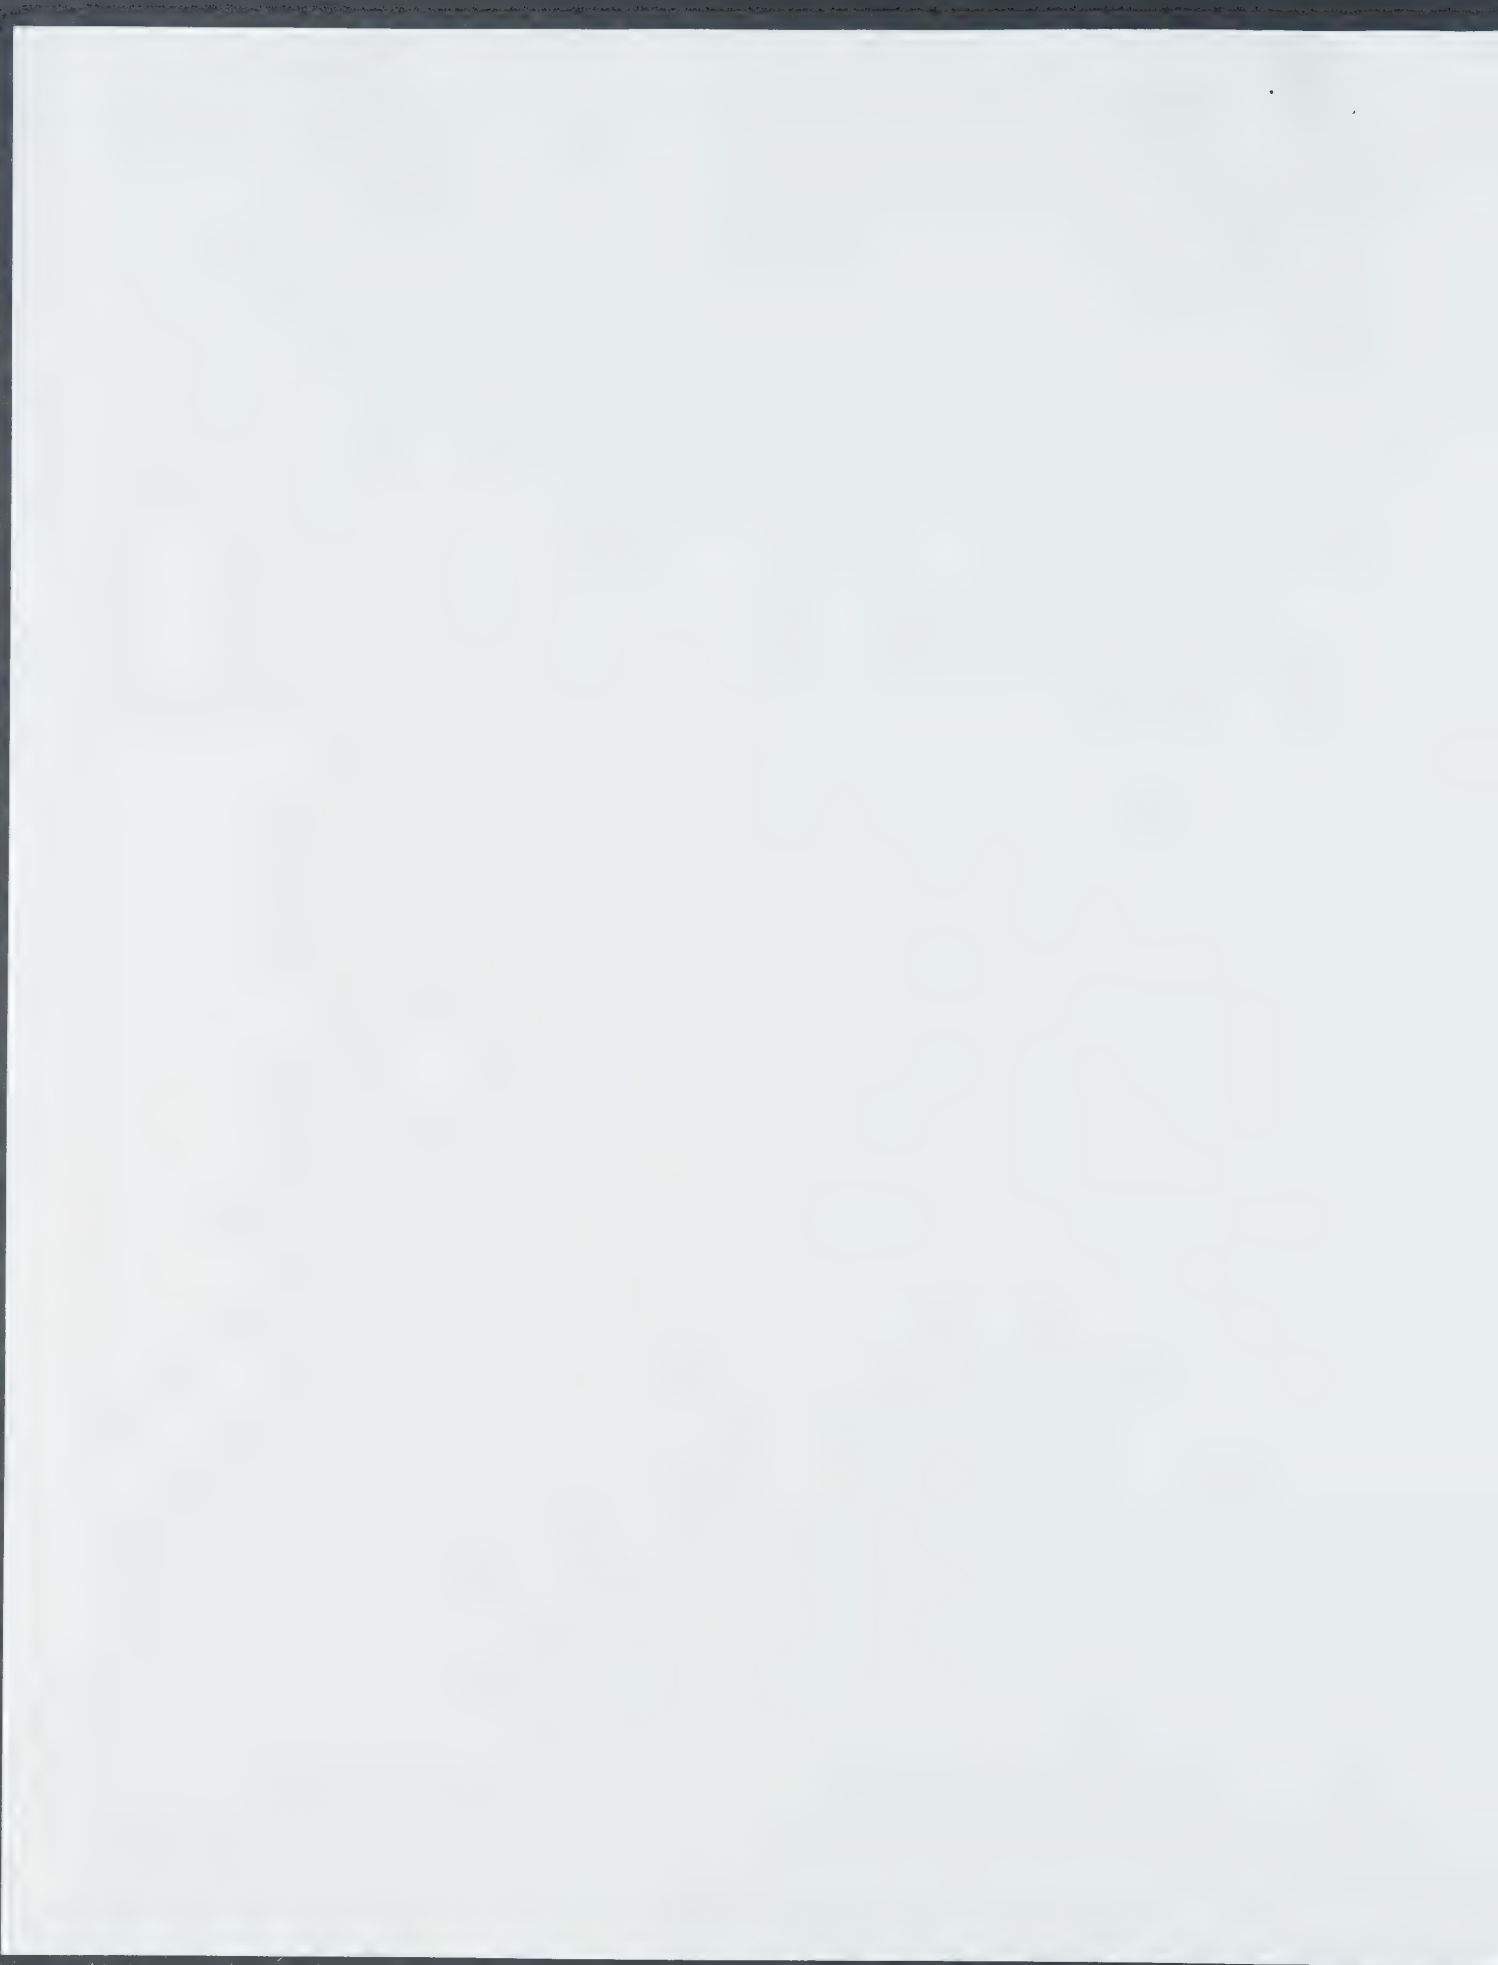

When we pass on, Daniel will take over the Isabel and Alfred Bader Foundation to which we are leaving most of our worldly goods. But why should we not enjoy giving now?

We are looking mainly for causes such as, for instance, the orphanage in Odessa or the needy old in Bulgaria, or traumatized in Bosnia where we can make a difference.

Of course I follow carefully what Daniel and the Helen Bader Foundation do and I am happy that they are so involved with helping Ethiopians in Israel.

Isabel and I will be in Israel for two weeks, before and after Purim, and Zach Harris, the manager of the Helen Bader Foundation office in Jerusalem, will show us what the Foundation is doing there.

I do not know how often you come to Milwaukee but we come to New York two or three times a year and much look forward to meeting you there.

When we visited your office on January 30th, we left a cheque and received a hand-written receipt, copy enclosed. I am not sure that the IRS will accept such a hand-written receipt and I would appreciate a receipt on your letterhead.

But much more than that, I will appreciate your advice in the future.

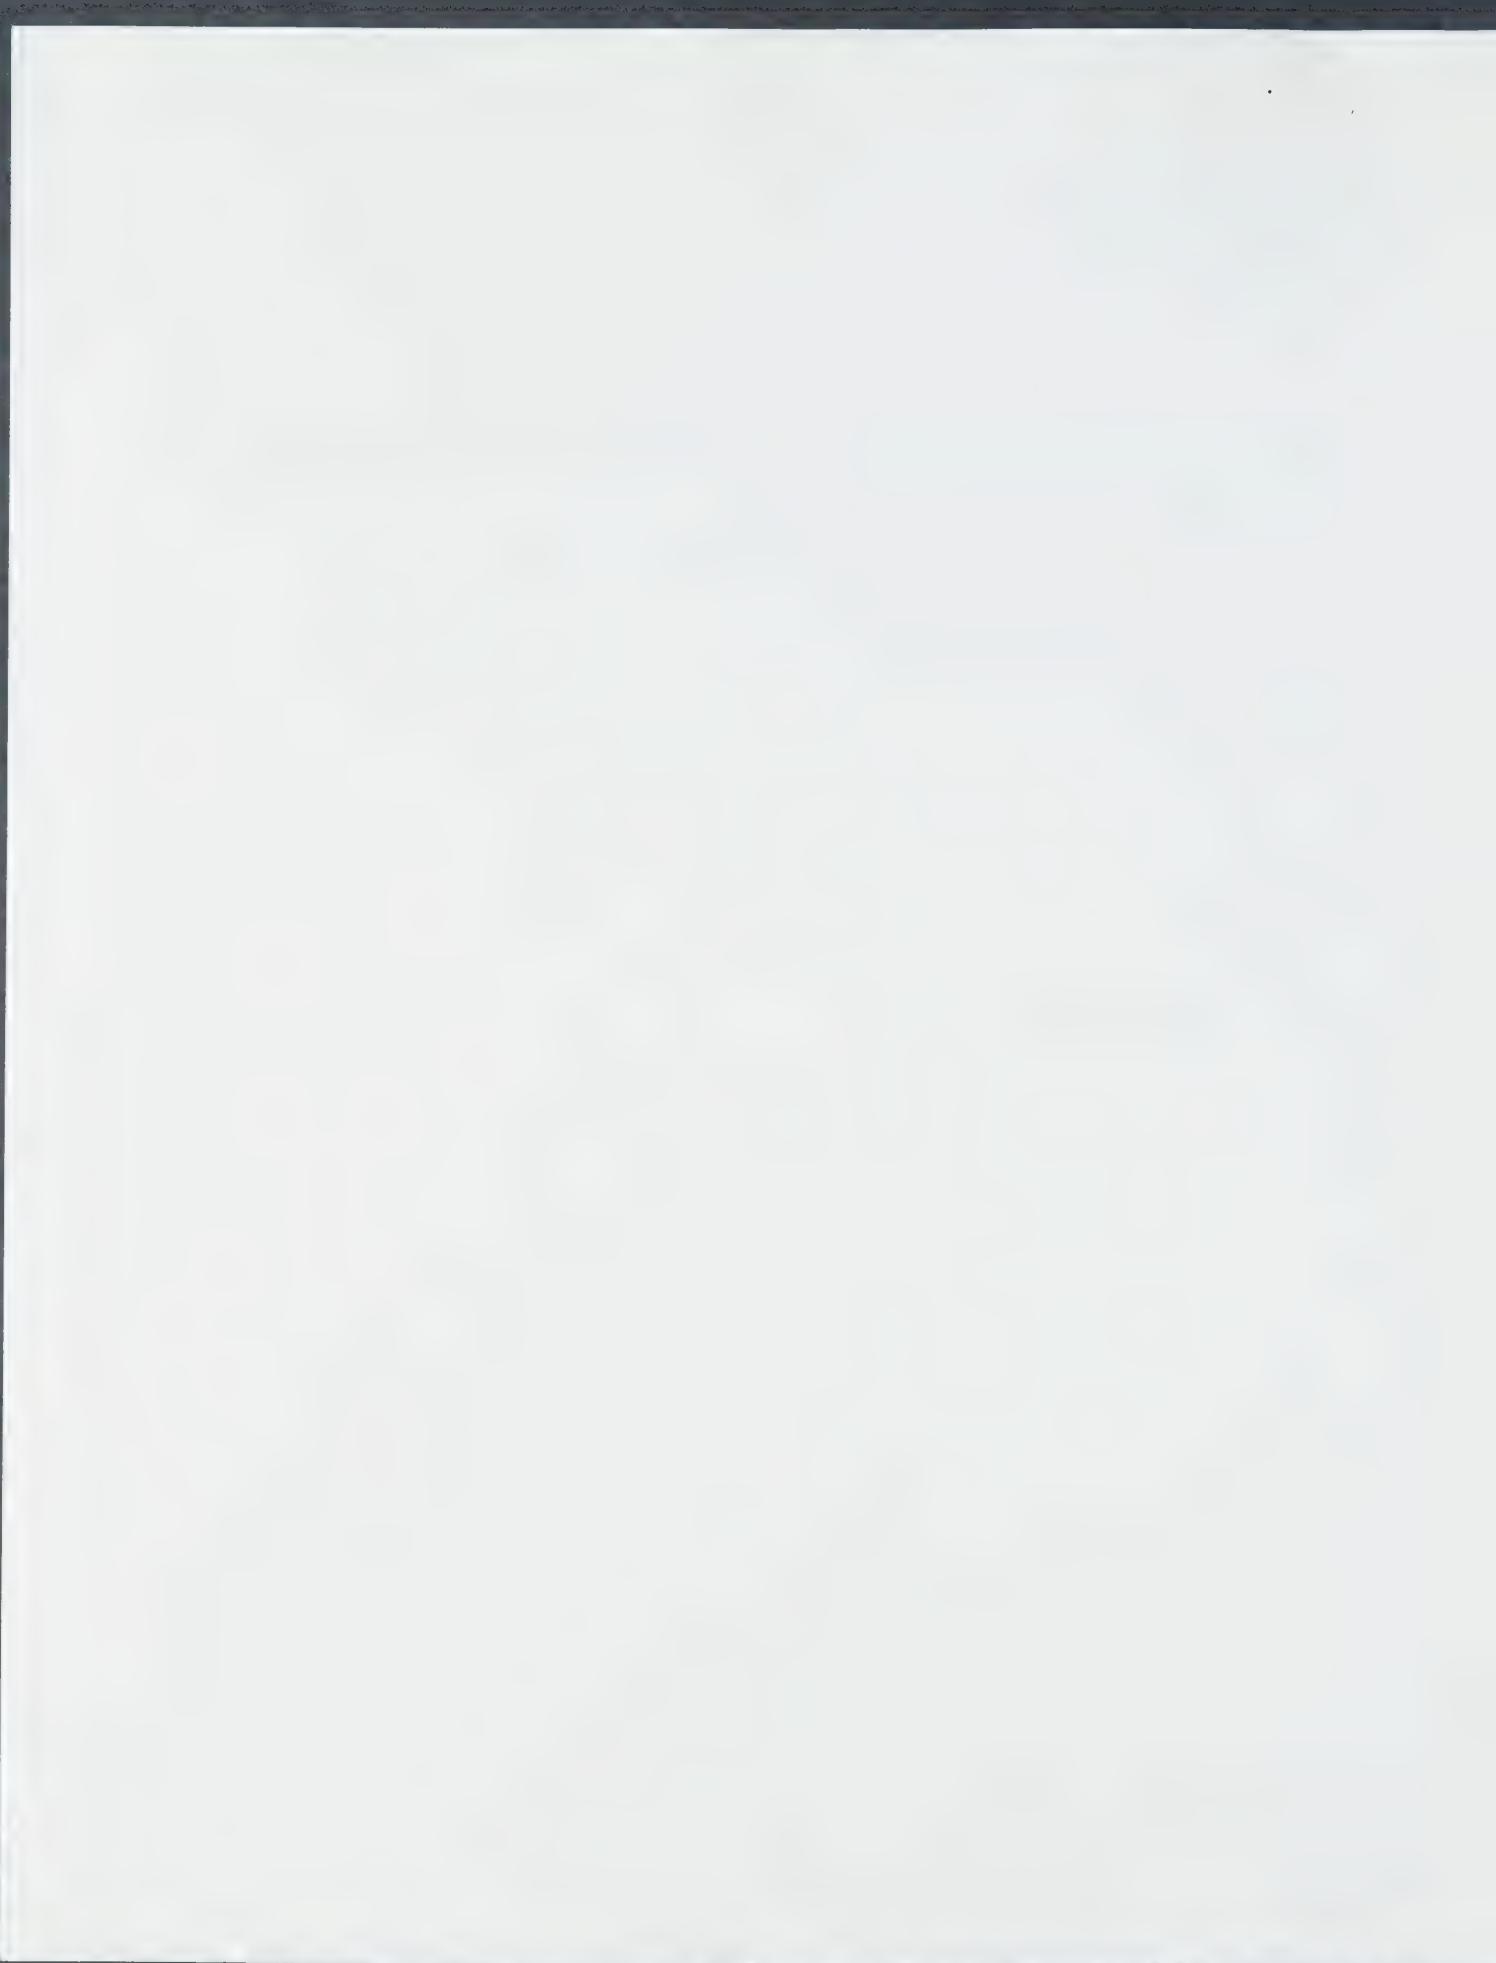

With all good wishes, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Schneider:

Thank you so much for your most helpful letter of September 17th.

I am sure that you will find John Goldsmith, in Basel, to be a very good and efficient man and I am sure that he will appreciate learning about the other efforts.

Daniel is investigating just what Professor Feuerstein's problems are and whether the Helen Bader Foundation should help.

I very much look forward to Israel Singer's explanation why Mr. Bronfman was shocked about Jenninger's speech. To refresh his memory I enclose an article published on November 12, 1988, quoting Mr. Bronfman's shock as well as copy of the letter which I wrote to Dr. Jenninger last month.

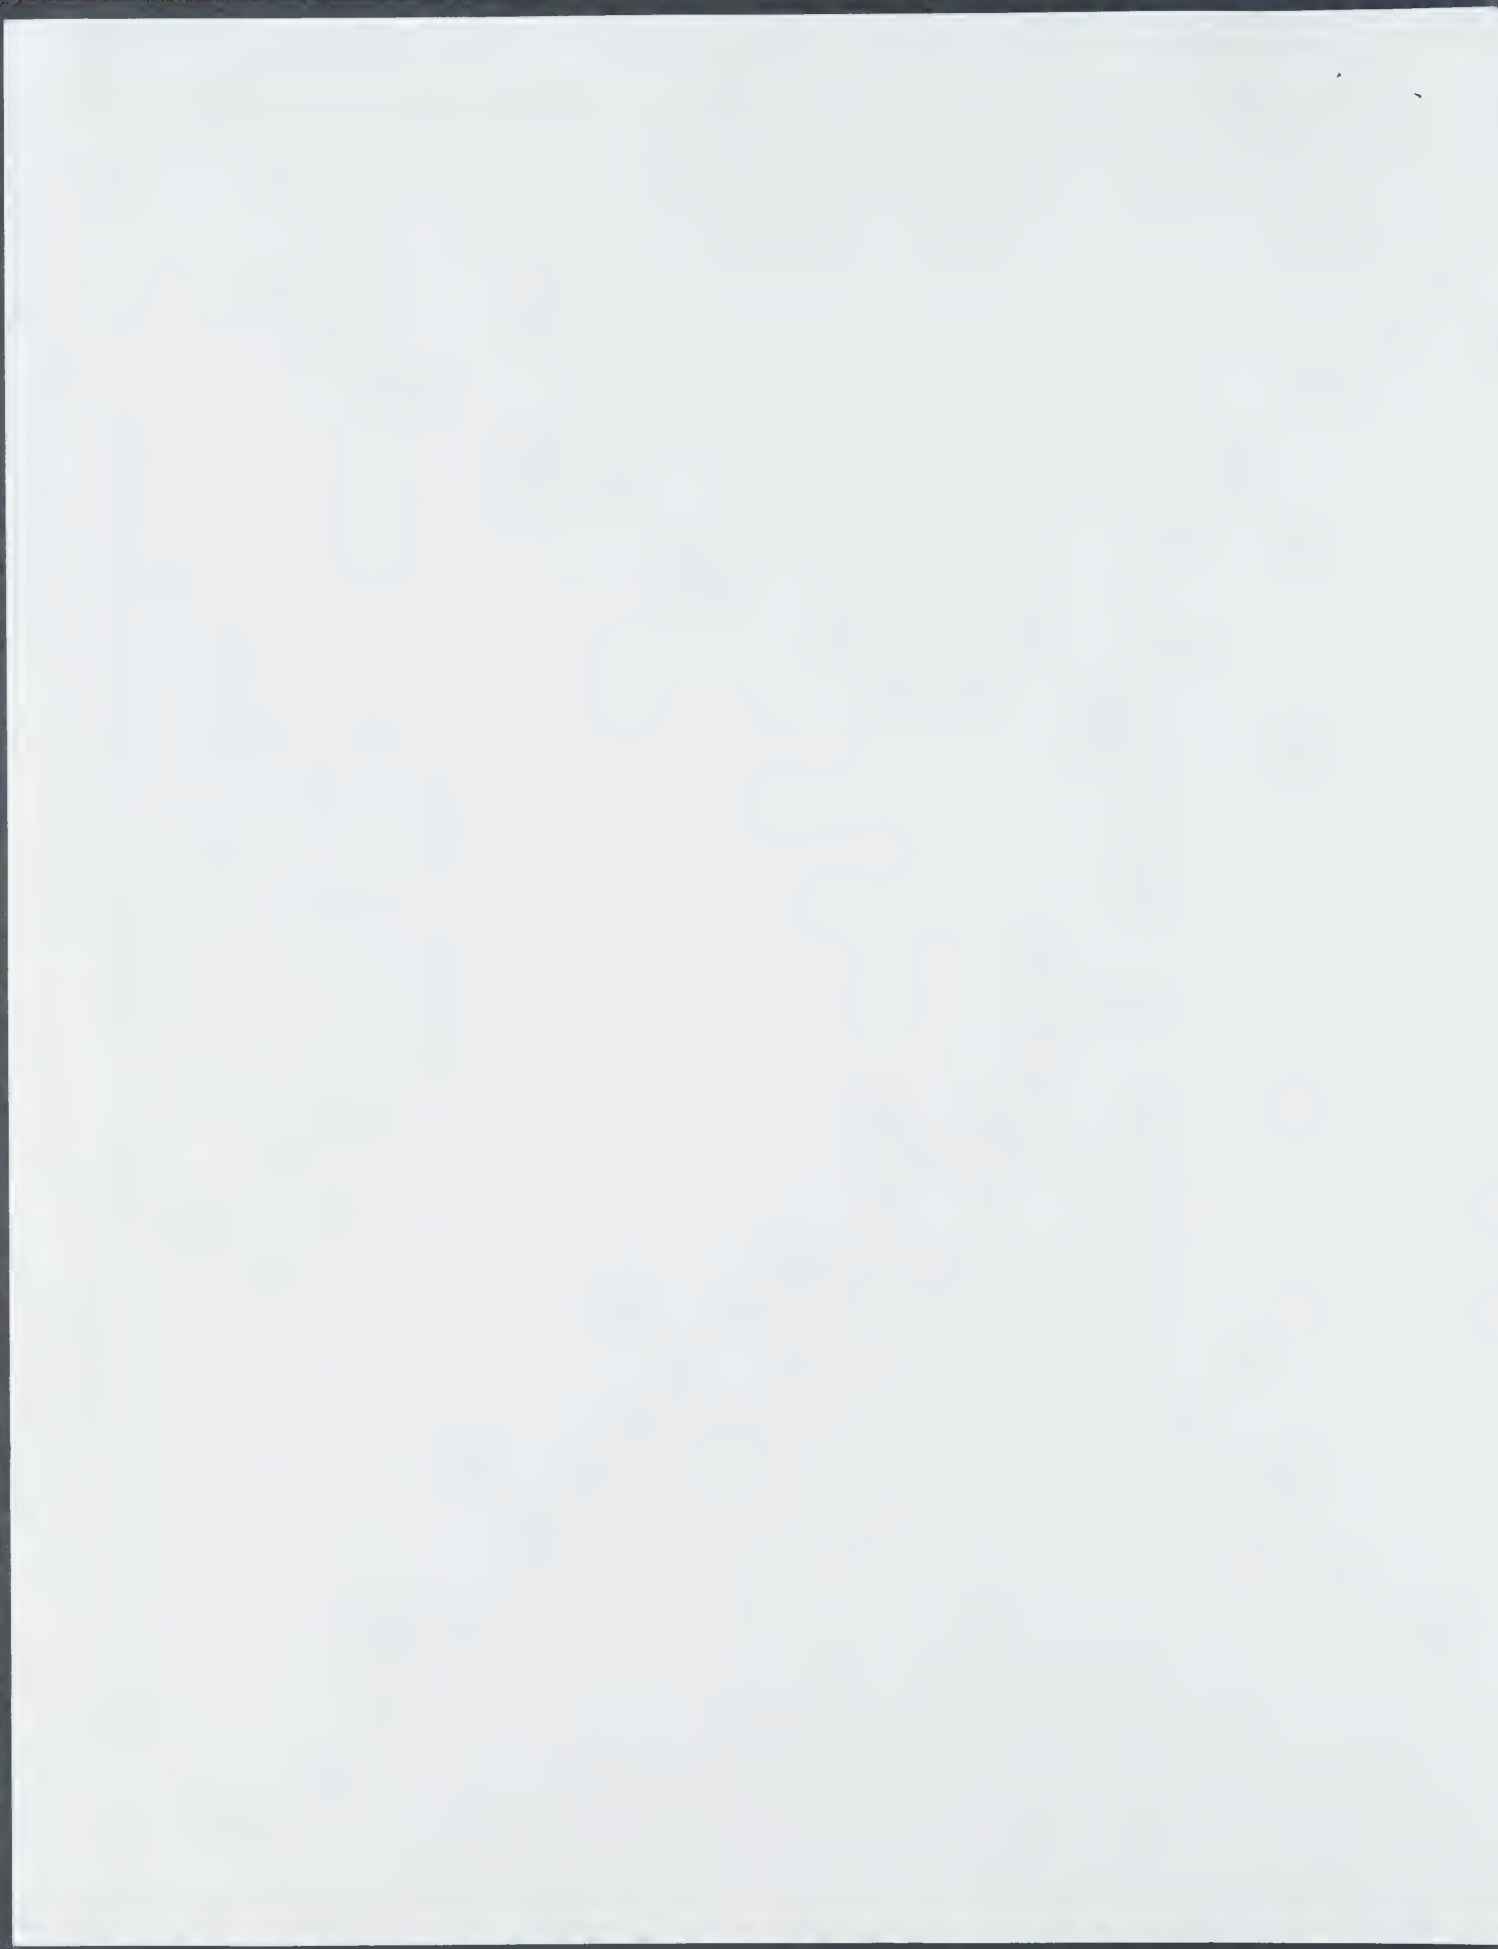

I think that Jenninger has been treated very unjustly. If his speech has not been translated then I would like to do that and also write about it in some detail.

I much look forward to your comments about the Odessa orphanage.

Also could you please inquire whether the situation in Bulgaria is likely to be better this coming winter than it was last year. When we sent you a cheque of $36,000 to help the very poor in Bulgaria we wanted that help to go to Bulgarians generally not, in this case, to the Jewish community.

I note from the enclosed that the Joint works with a society with a curious name, the R'fa-aye-nu Society. How worthwhile do you think that Society's work is?

As discussed with Mr. Yahoda today, I now understand that you, Michael, were given rather misleading information by that Bulgarian Minister and that, in fact, the situation in Bulgaria is still very difficult.

Hence, enclosed, please find my cheque for $36,000 - the same amount as last year - this to be used 90 percent to help old non-Jewish Bulgarians and 10 percent to help old Jewish survivors in Bulgaria.

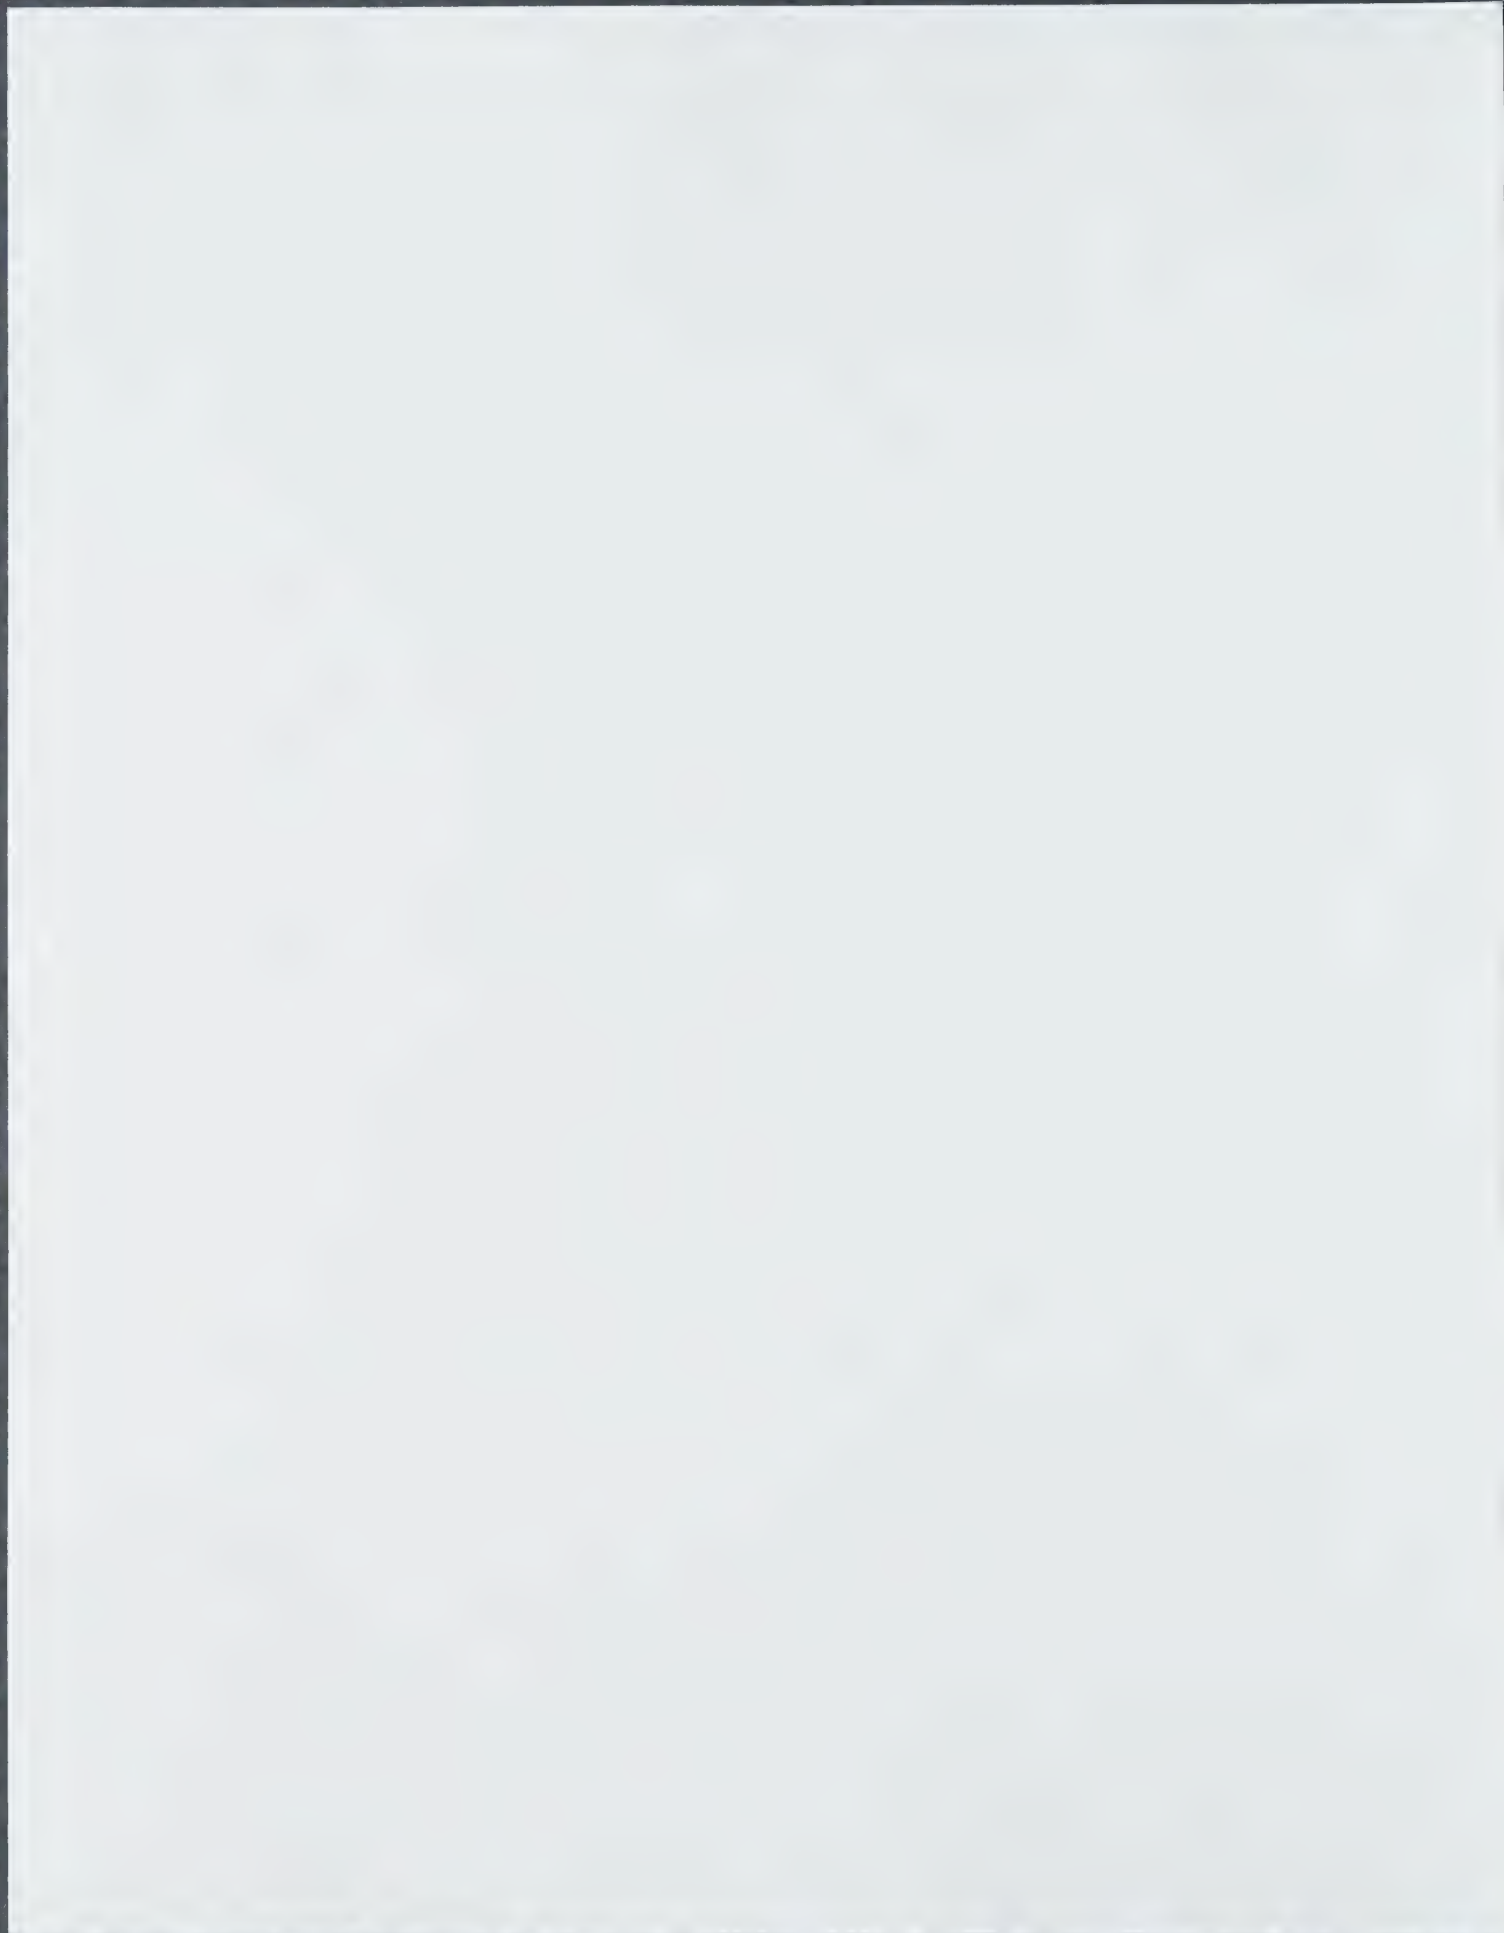

I would also like to confirm, while writing to you, that we would like to increase our help to the Jewish orphanage in Odessa and I will leave you my cheque when I see you in New York at the end of January.

Dear Michael:

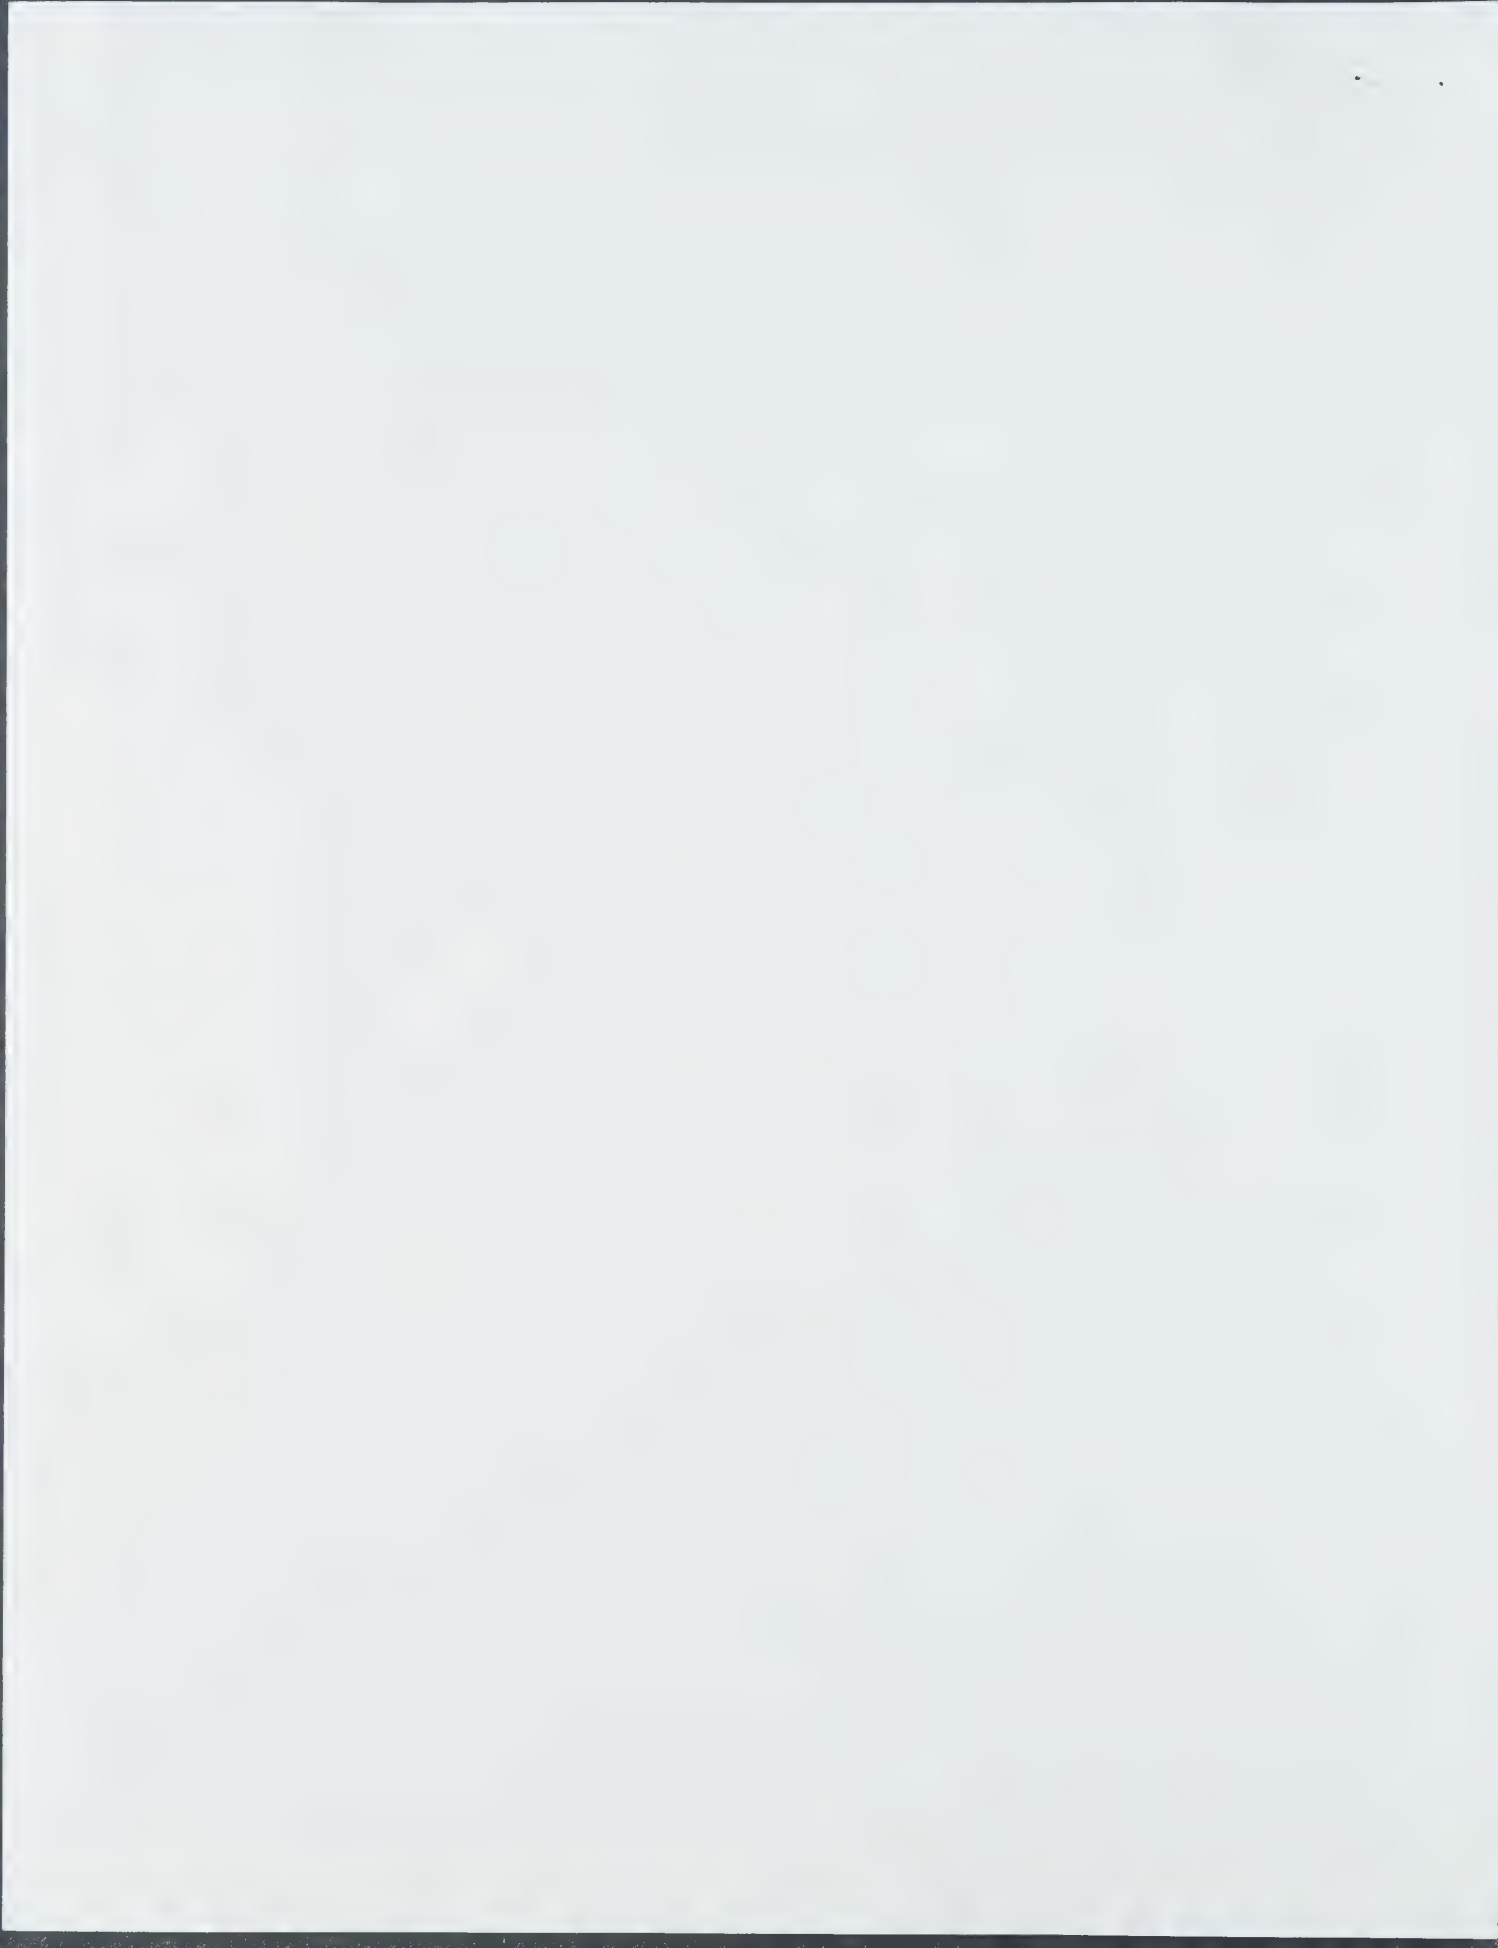

I so enjoy and appreciate knowing you and hearing from you that I wonder whether I may take the liberty to address you as Michael?

Thank you for your fax of October 30th regarding Phillip Jenninger's speech and the problems of baptized Jewish children in Eastern Europe.

I think that your analysis of the Jewish reaction to Jenninger's speech is absolutely correct. It does not reflect well on our people, but understandably many of us over-react.

On our trip to Canada last week, Isabel and I read and re-read Simon Wiesenthal's book "The Sunflowers" and have asked ourselves how we would have reacted to the request by the dying SS man.

The problems raised by our trying to locate the baptized Jews are of much more practical importance and I was impressed by, what appears to me, the true sincerity of Dr. Fisher. I very much look forward to your comments and then to taking counsel how we might help to solve this problem.

Dear Dr. Bader,

Thank you for your most recent letter dated September 24, 1997.

We just met with Bulgarian Foreign Minister Mrs. Nadezhda Mihailova in New York. She thinks the situation will improve. Minimum pensions have been raised and central heating costs can be averaged out to include winter and summer months to spread the unequal costs between seasons.

We, however, are preparing contingency plans in case the situation deteriorates.

I confirm that your $36,000 went to government-sponsored soup kitchens supervised by JDC.

Our relationship with the R'fa-aye-nu Society is not yet fully developed and I am unable to evaluate it as yet. I will try to make enquiries.

I enclose a status report on the Odessa orphanage. It seems that our local staff feel that the operation is worthwhile as the children cannot, for the moment, be released for exit to Israel.

Best wishes.

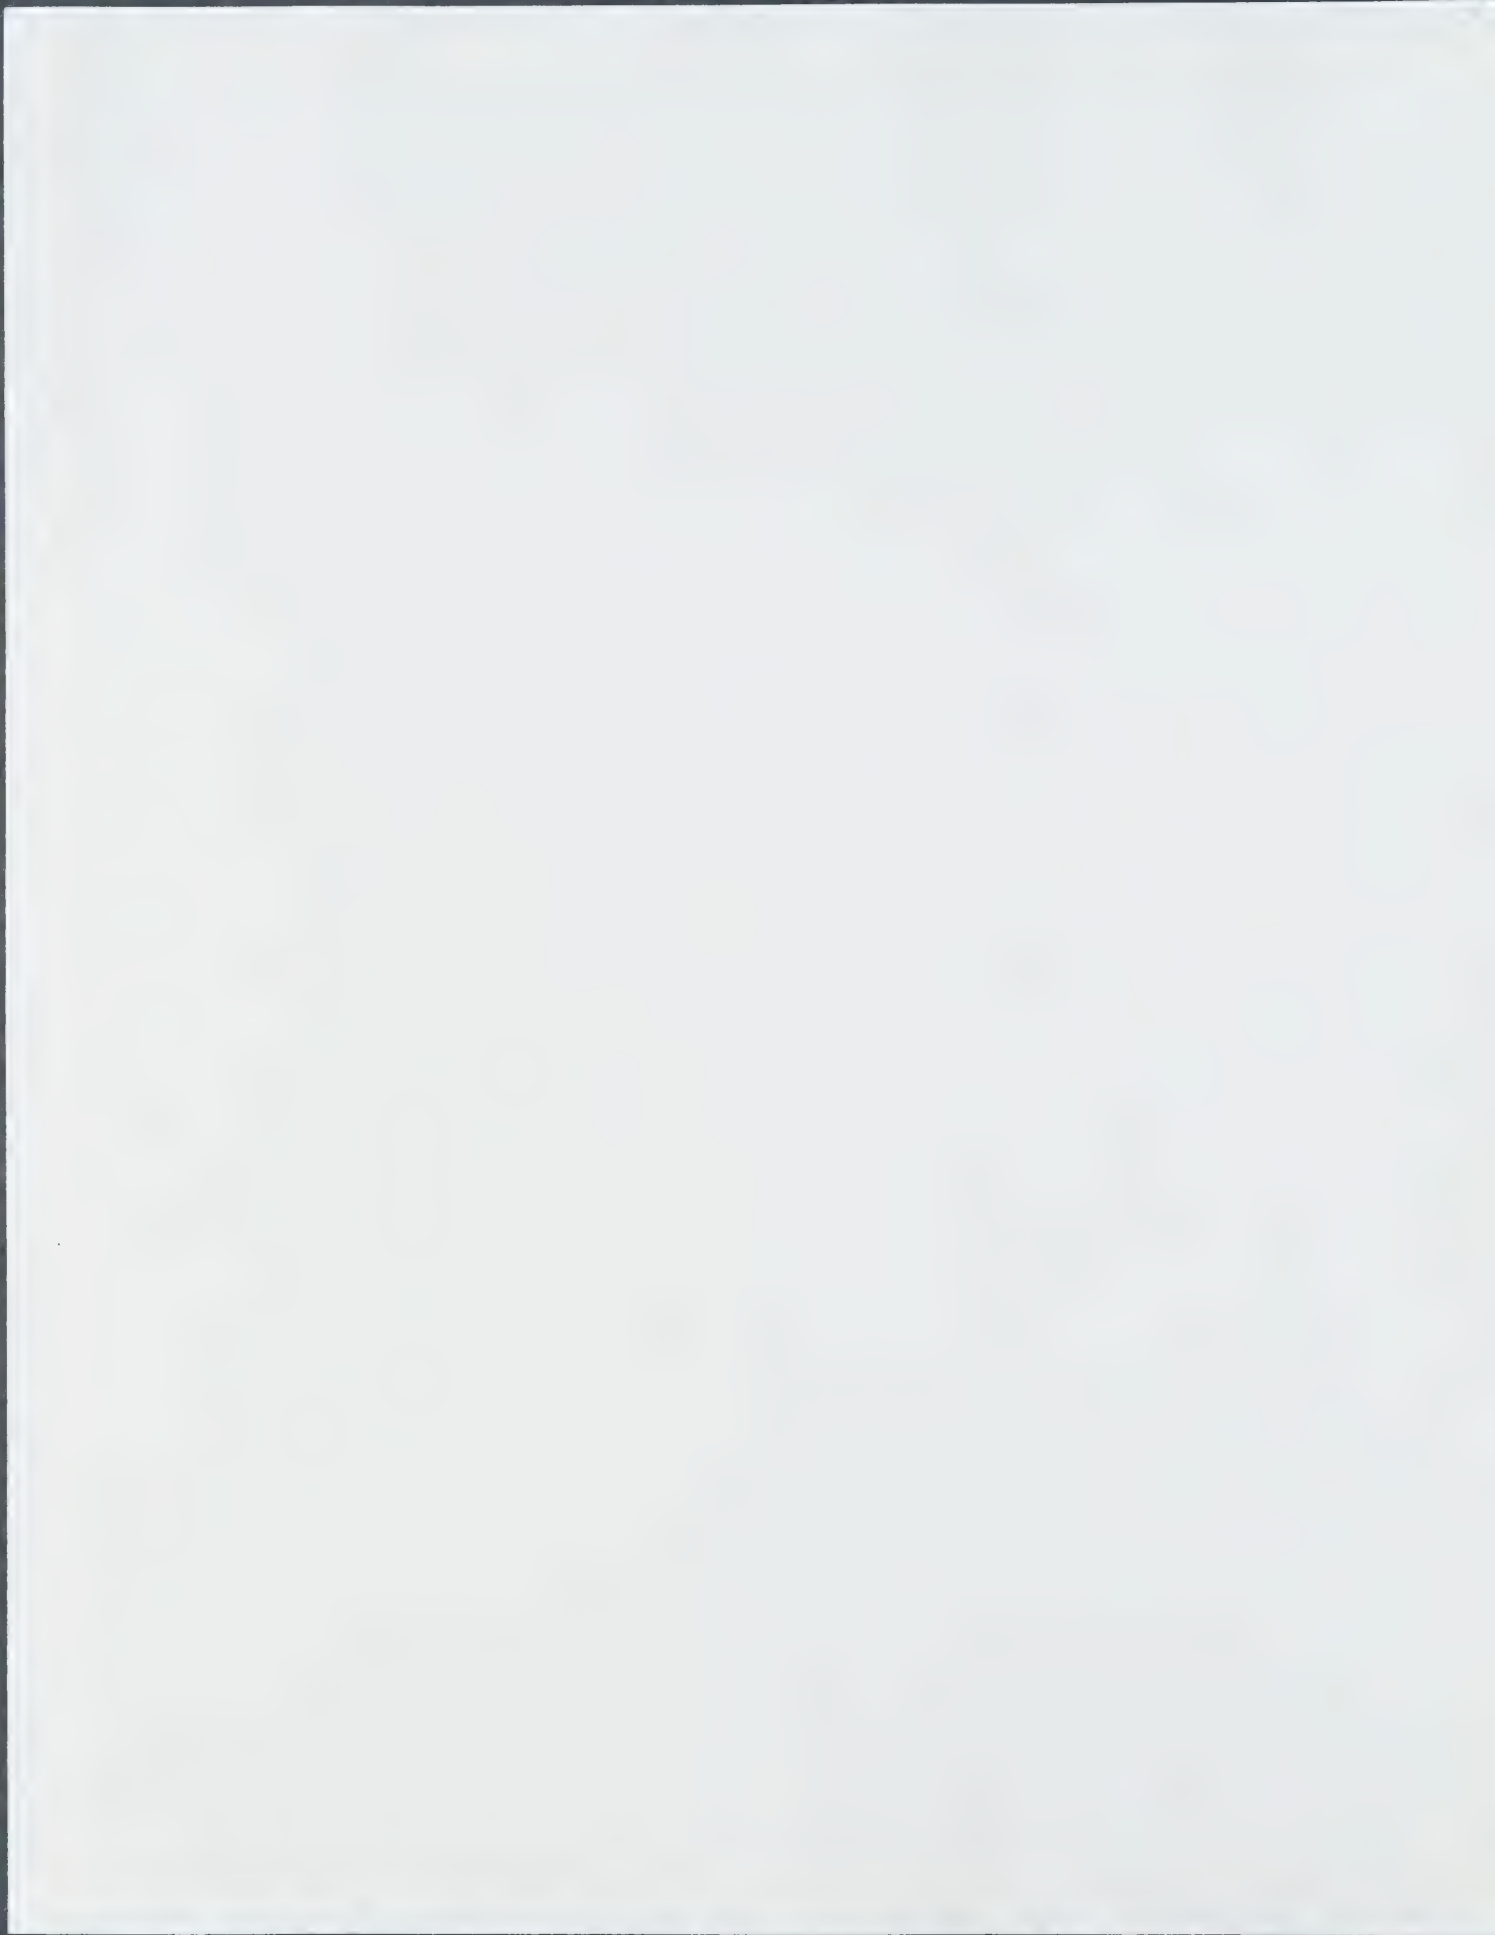

Sincerely,

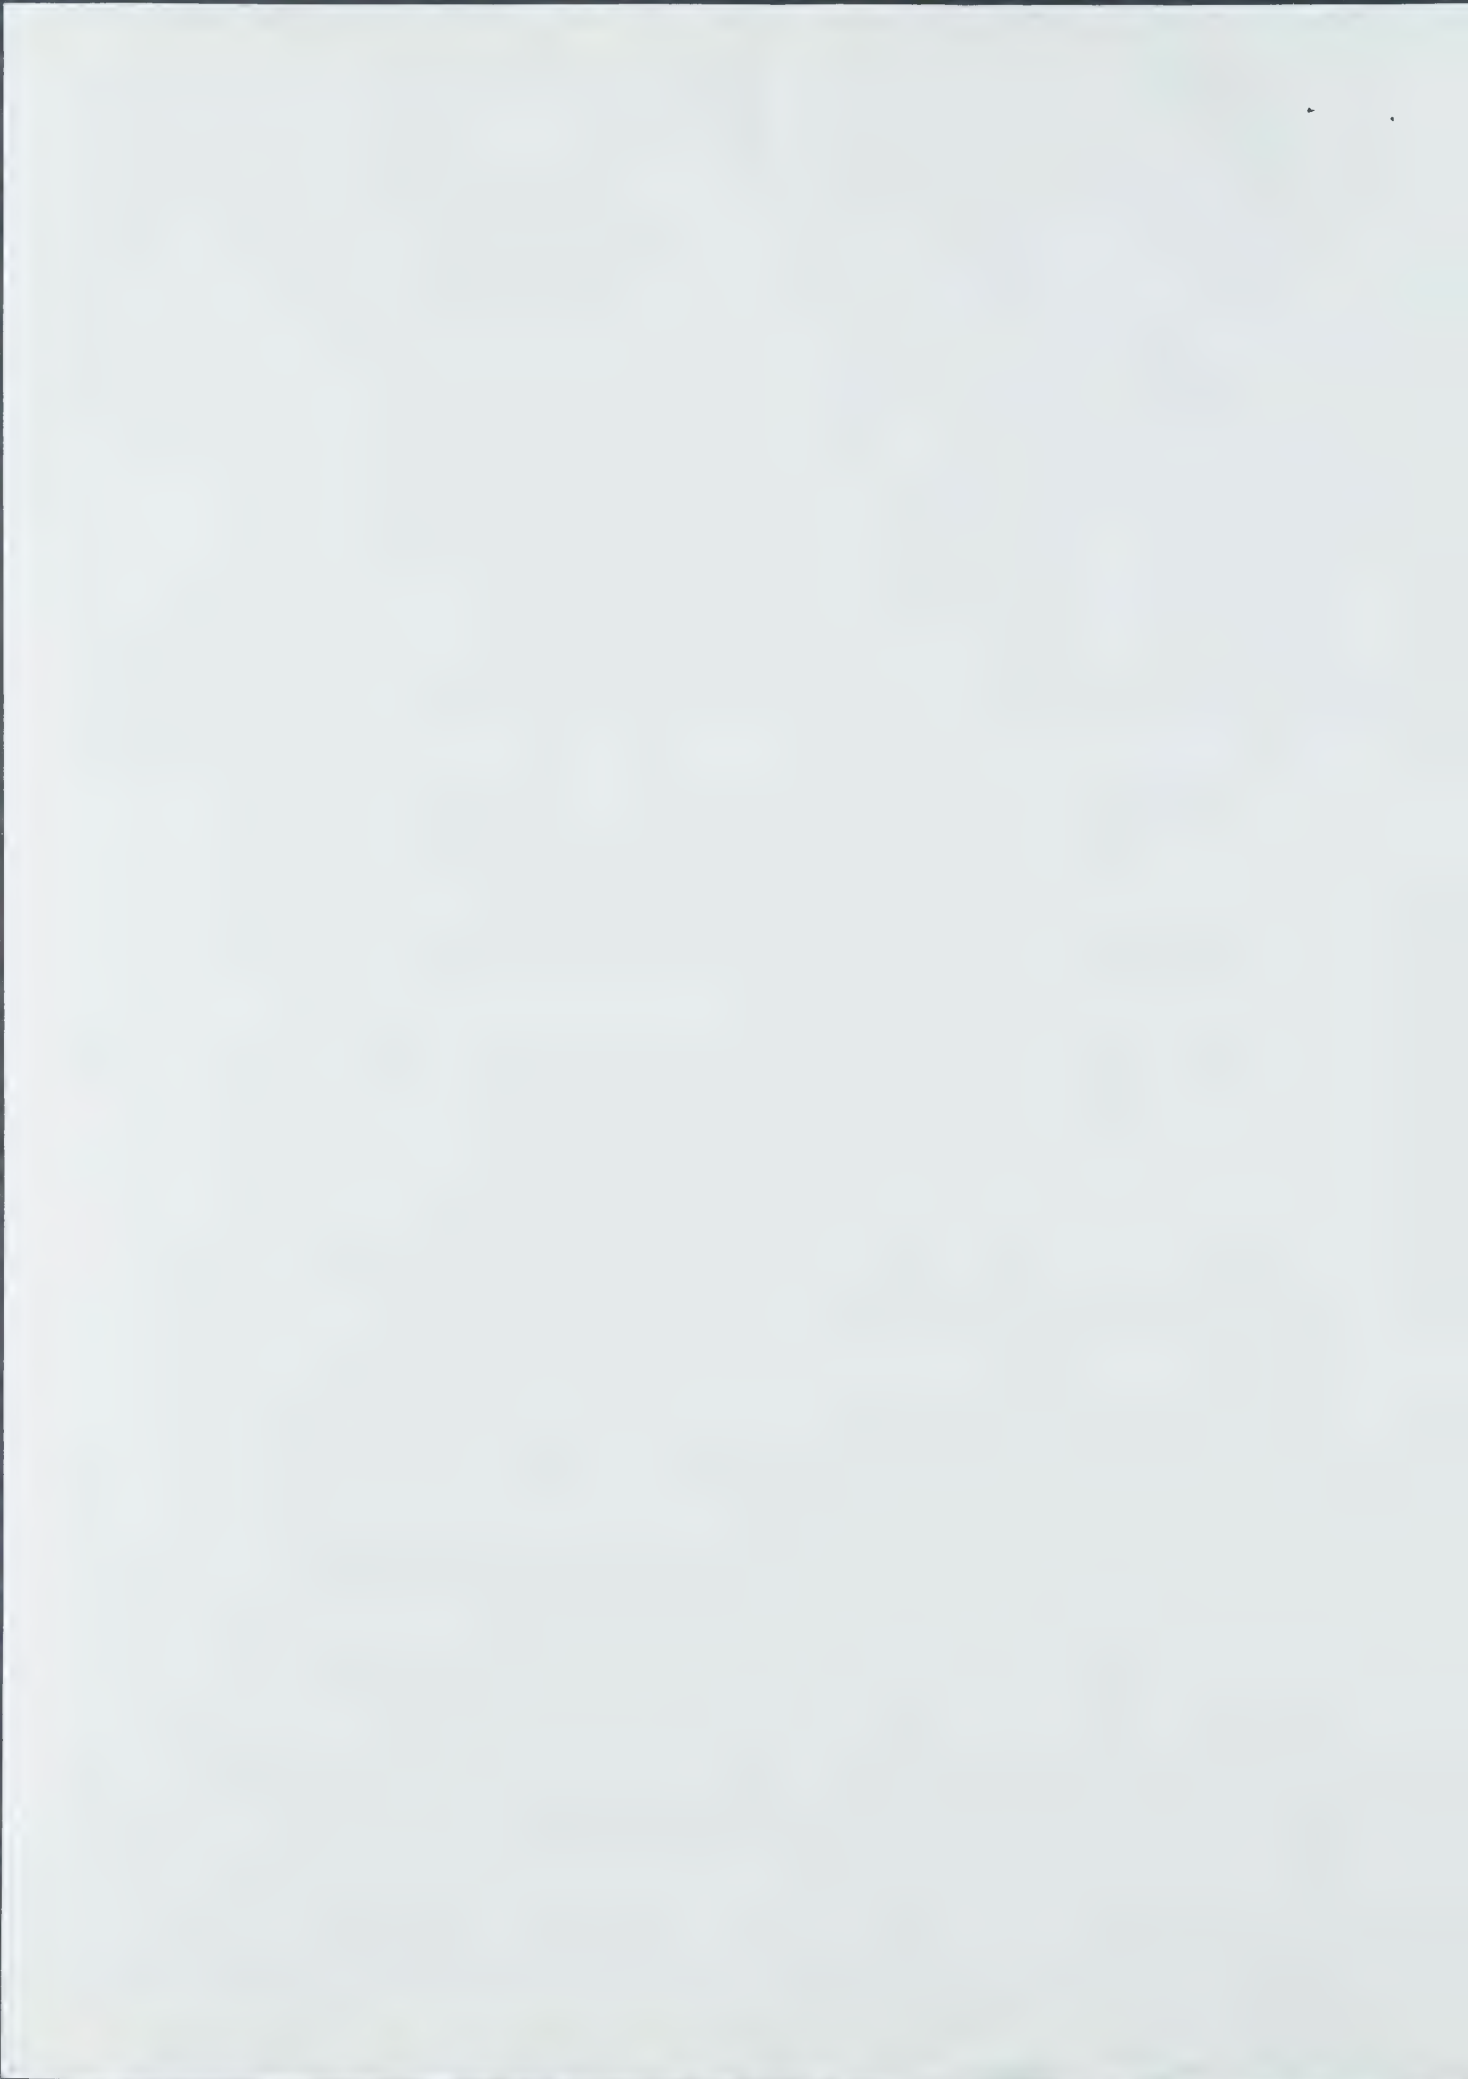

Michael Schneider

Dear Dr. Bader,

Please forgive my delay in responding to your letter dated August 22nd. I have been traveling extensively on JDC business since the end of August and only now have I been able to give my full attention to your correspondence.

I was fascinated by the book that Daniel gave me. It is an astonishing story of the triumph of the human spirit in adversity. I think it is far more difficult for those born to privilege to recover from sudden misfortune than those who have less to lose. It was an uplifting tale.

We are checking to see whether two bodies in the United States are aware of John Goldsmith's efforts. JDC certainly did not until your grant of $10,000 was received from you.

I note that he concentrates on medical assistance for righteous gentiles, whereas we and two other Stateside groups provide regular monthly assistance. We will bring each side to the attention of the other. It would make sense for everyone to be coordinated. I will let you know what happens.

Regarding Professor Feuerstein, he certainly is a world authority on his subject. I would advise your representative in Israel to contact Professor Jack Habib, the Director of JDC's Brookdale Institute in Jerusalem, who could give him information about his work.

LETTER TO: DR. ALFRED BADER

September 17, 1997

I will speak to Israel Singer at the next available opportunity about Mr. Bronfman's statement as he advises him on all issues relating to Germany. I am sure that Bronfman's brief was prepared by Singer. I was due to meet with Edgar Bronfman in Switzerland last week, but the meeting was postponed.

It was a pleasure to meet you and your wife when I was in Milwaukee. JDC looks forward to further cooperation with you.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

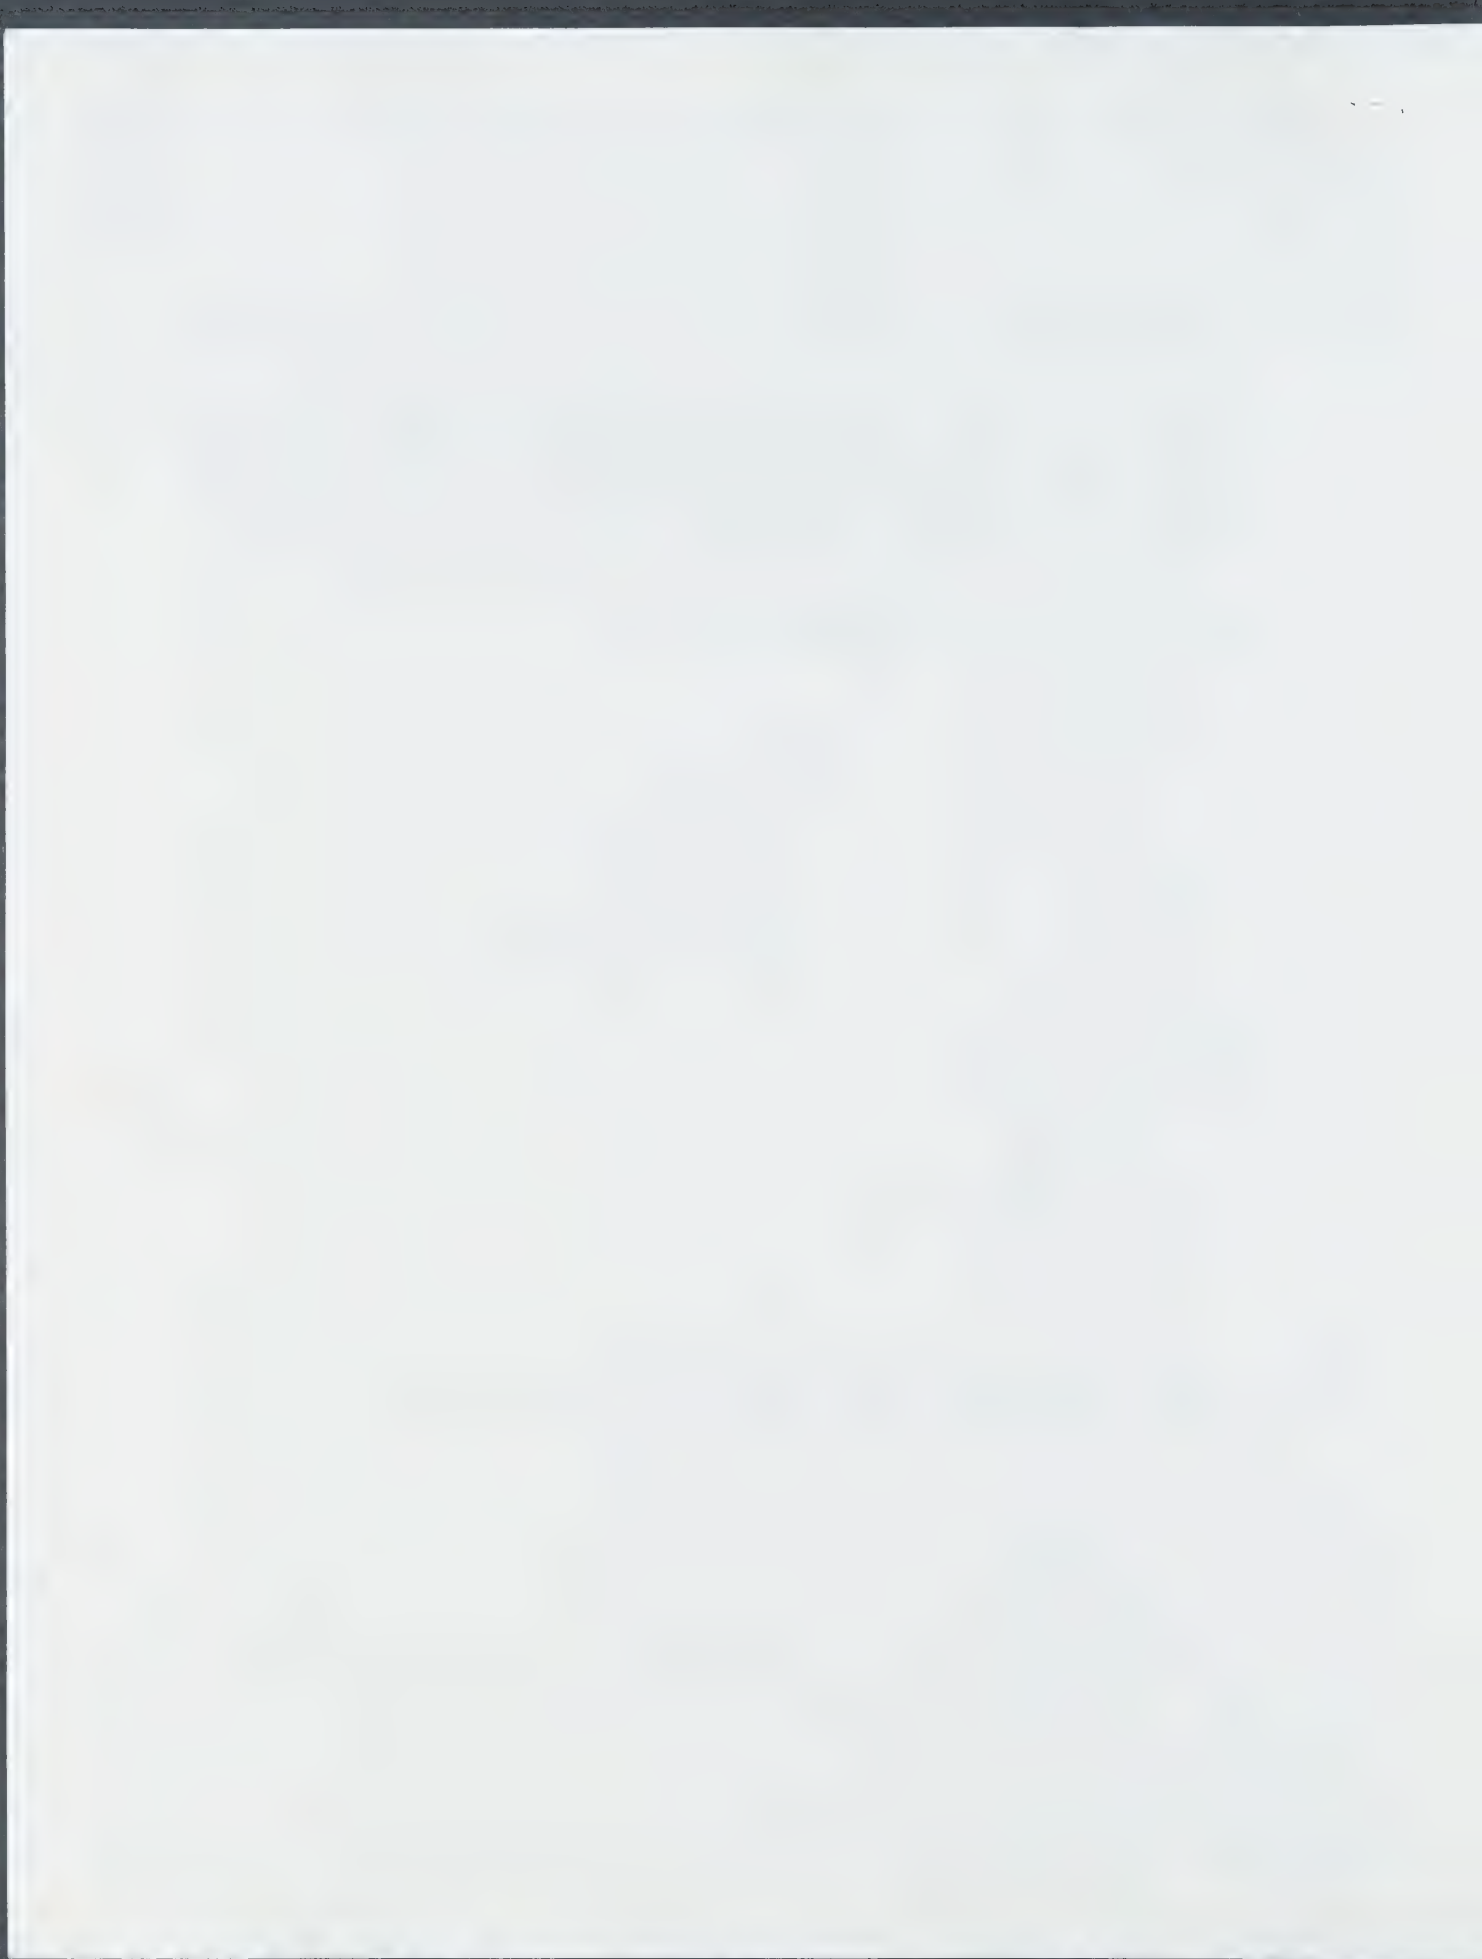

Michael Schneider

Mr. Michael Schneider
Executive Vice-President

711 Third Avenue
New York, NY 10017-4014

Dear Mr. Schneider:

I hope that you realized how very much Isabel and I enjoyed and learned from you last Wednesday evening.

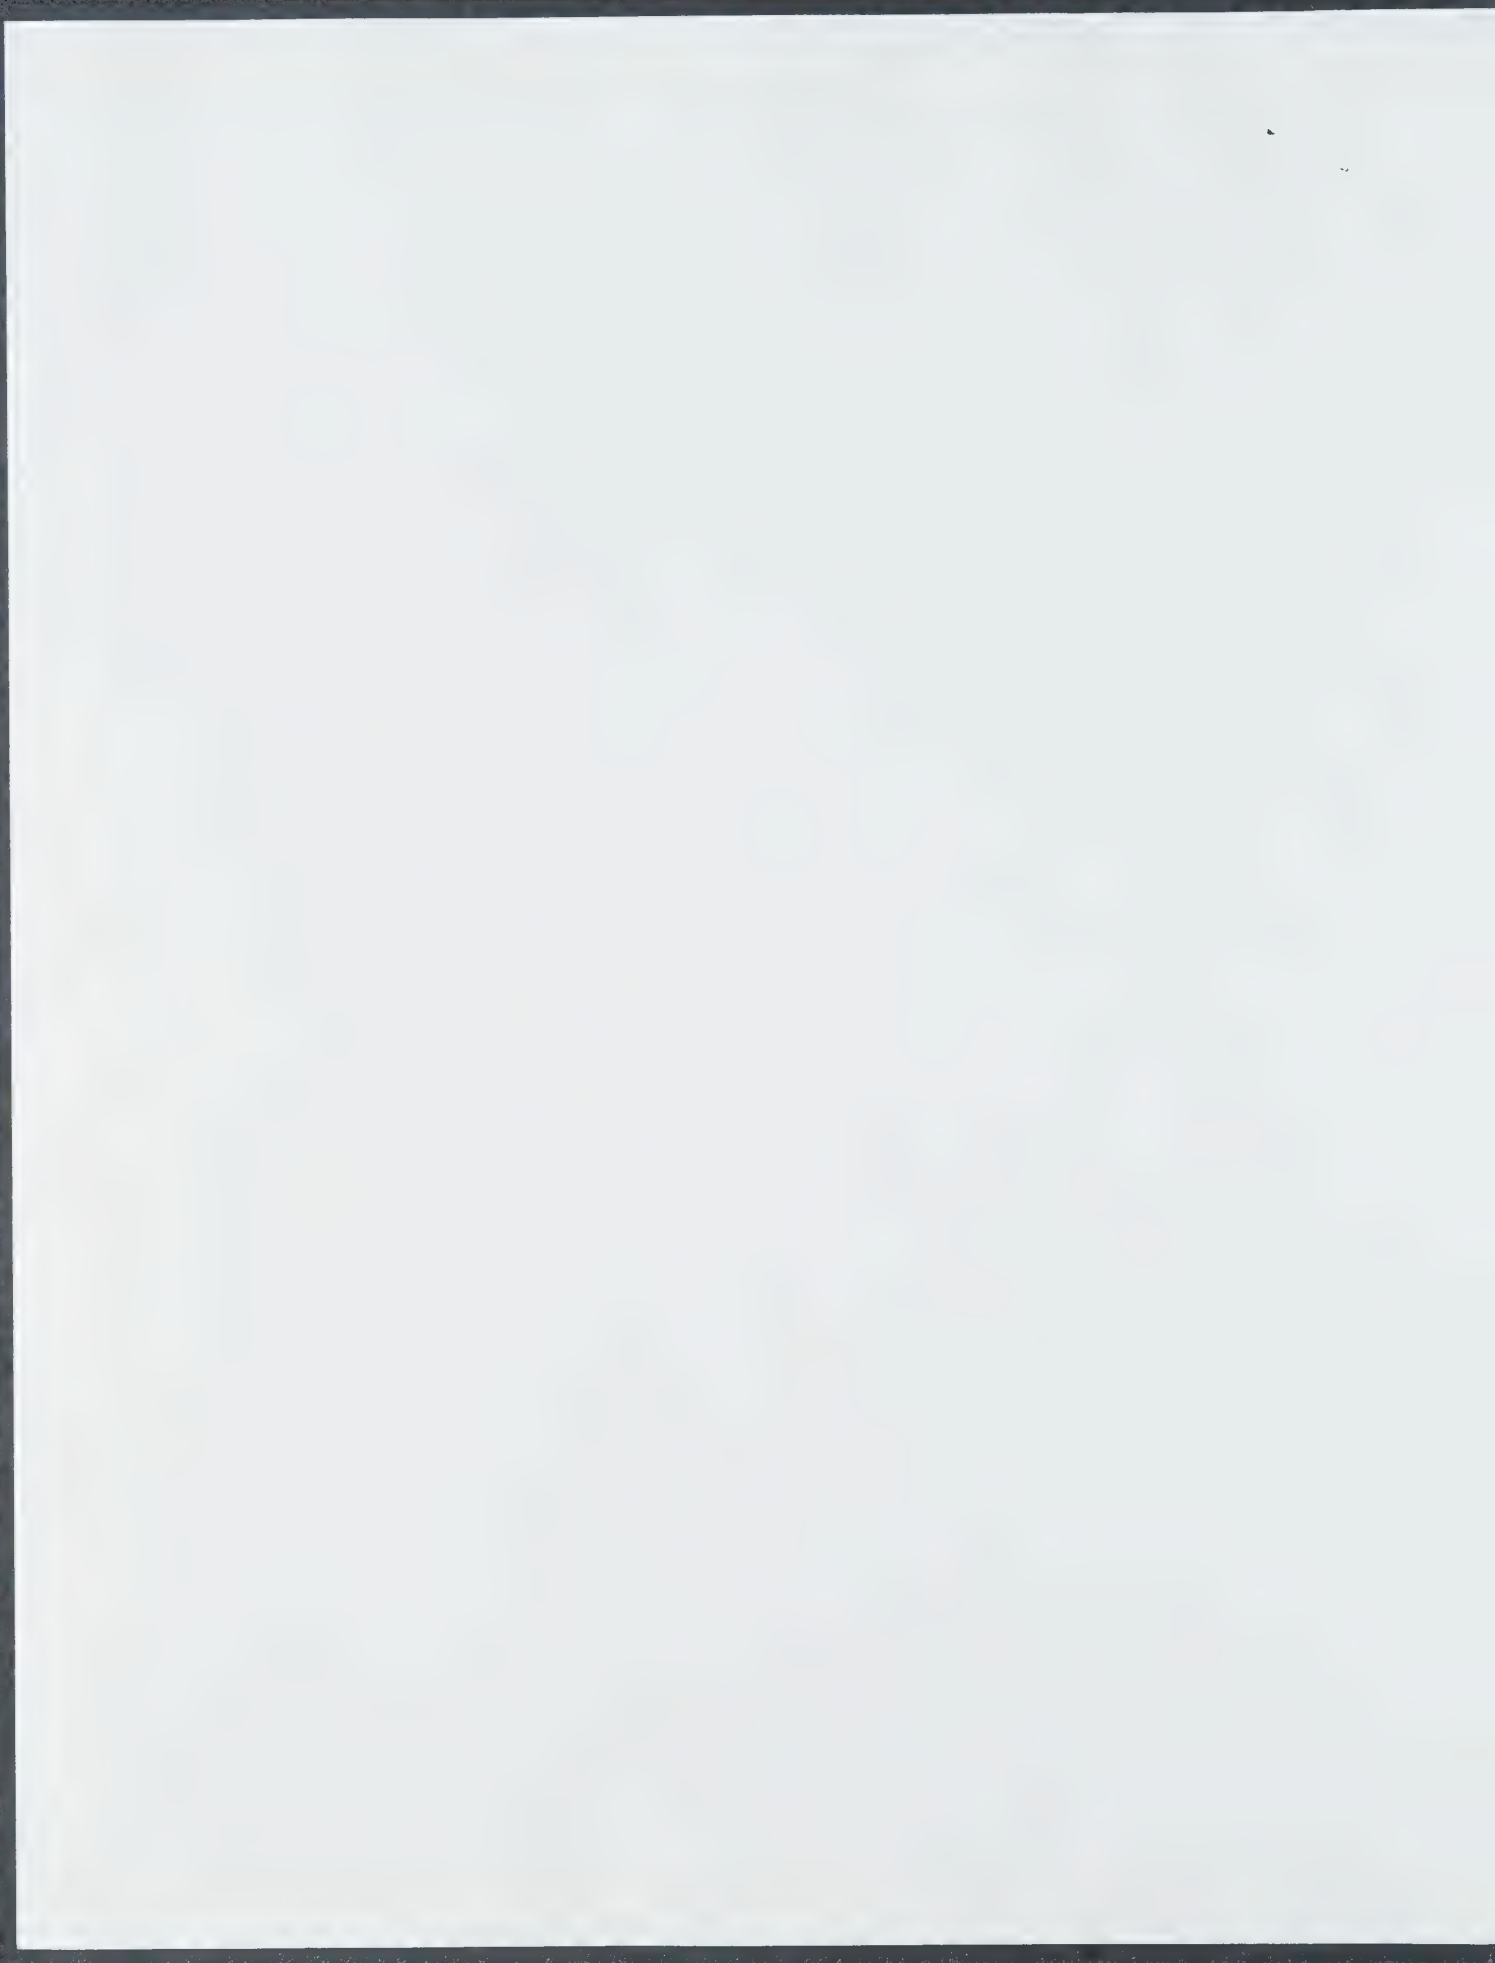

You obviously were weary and yet spoke so clearly about your vital work.

Let me thank you first of all for the efforts in which the Joint has helped me in the last few months: (1) The help to elderly Bulgarians - of course primarily not to the Jewish community - in Sofia seemed to go very well and Warren Alexander promised to let me know if a similar gift should be made before the next winter. (2) The entrepreneurial school in Sarajevo seems to be up and running, clearly guided by experts from Israel.

Before that, we had channelled our help for the thousands of Bosnians traumatized by the war through, what we see to be, a very able effort by Queen's University in Canada. Some details about that are enclosed.

(3) Enclosed please find a copy of a letter from Linda Levi in which she acknowledged our help for the Medical Fund for the Righteous in Poland. This is an effort run by John Goldsmith, undoubtedly an honest and caring person, and details and accounting on that fund were sent to you previously.

I was rather concerned by your telling me that the Joint has a fund with identical goals and there may be overlap. Could you please check into that and let me know.

Mr. Michael Schneider

(4) Clearly the Odessa orphanage has problems that I was unaware of. Please keep me informed.

I enclose a letter from Professor Reuven Feuerstein which will be self-explanatory.

Should a man of that ability be the fundraiser? What do you think about the efforts of his Center?

We discussed briefly a speech given by the president of the German parliament in commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of the Kristallnacht. I found Philip Jenninger's speech truly inspiring and I enclose two excerpts from that speech so that you will see why I was so moved by it. And yet the man was attacked mercilessly and had to resign. Note, for instance, that the president of the World Jewish Congress, Bronfman, said in New York that he was shocked - not by the resignation - but by the speech.

As you know Bronfman, could you please ask him why and let me know.

I very much look forward to being able to work more closely with you.

With all good wishes, I remain,

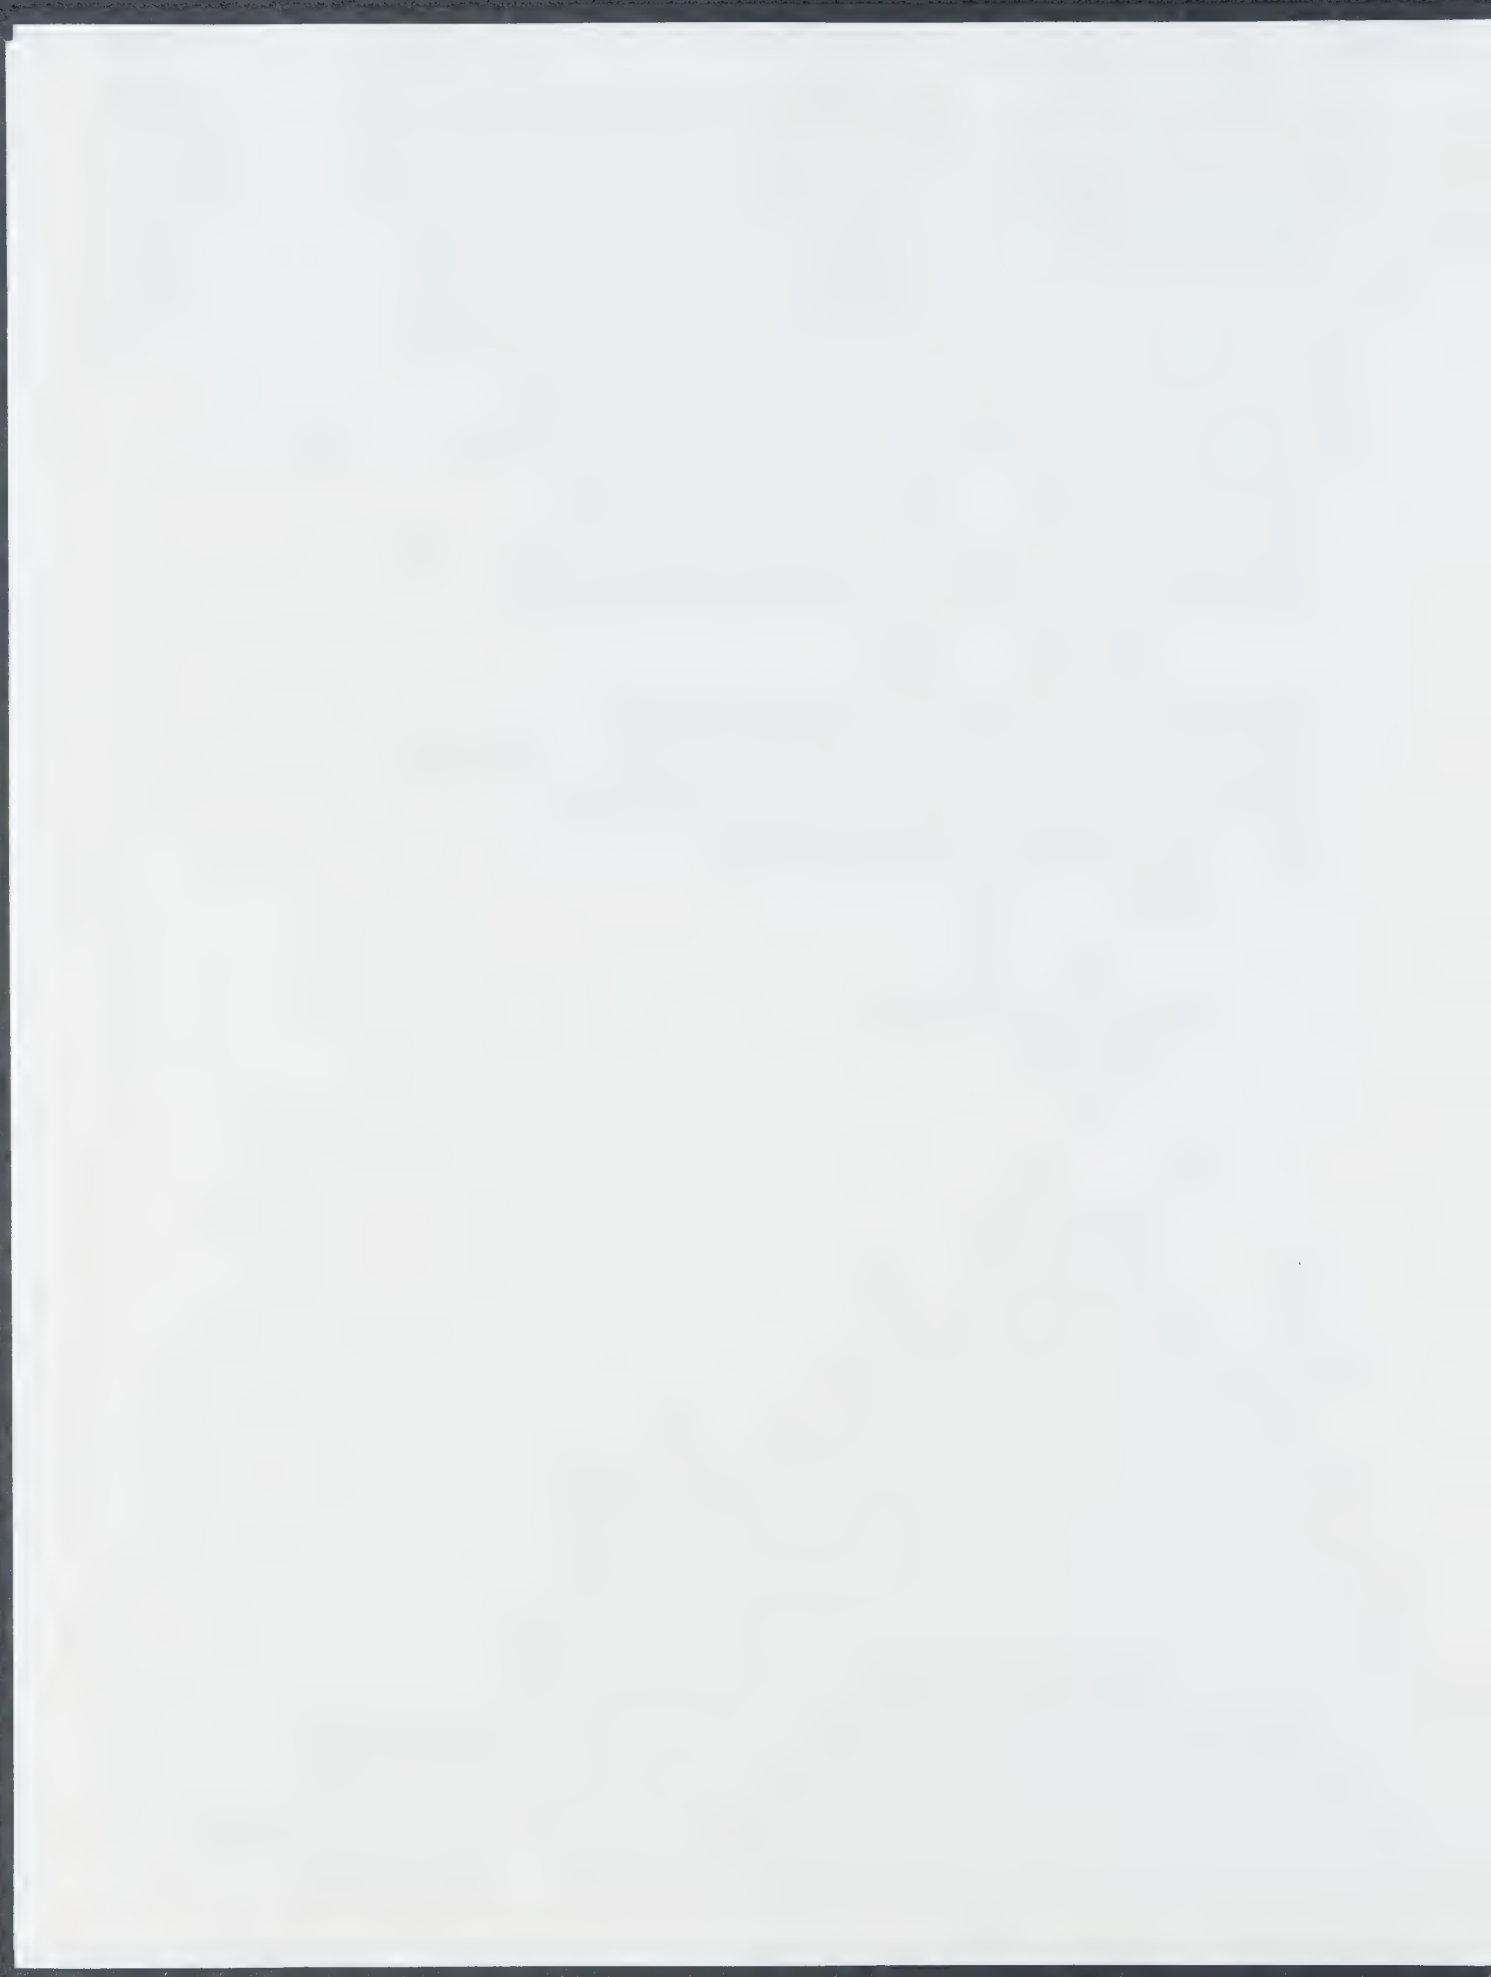

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Beck:

My son, Daniel Bader, the president of the Helen Bader Foundation has told me that you are the man I should contact to get a receipt from the American Joint Distribution Committee for my gift in 1996.

I gave a total of $100,000 (in two [2] donations: One of $10,000, the other $90,000) to help the School of Business in Sarejvo.

A third donation was for Bulgaria, for $36,000.

I enclose some of the relevant correspondence but I really do need a formal receipt from the JDC for the total of $136,000.

As you will see from the enclosed my son also sent me pages fifty-seven to fifty-eight of your recent report, these pages dealing with Bulgaria. I would very much appreciate a copy of the complete report.

Dear Ms. Levi:

Thank you so much for your letter of August 11th, which crossed mine of yesterday.

Enclosed please find my check for $10,000 as my gift to the orphanage in Odessa.

I don't know how the Internal Revenue Service operates and whether they would consider your letter of August 11th as a receipt for my gift. Perhaps it would be better if you could simply send me a receipt for the $10,000 check transmitted to the Anne Frank Fund and then another receipt for the $10,000 transmitted to the orphanage, stating, as I believe the IRS requires, that I have received no benefits (other than my pleasure, which is not taxable).

I note that your Executive Vice President, Michael Schneider, is coming to visit the Helen Bader Foundation next Wednesday, August 20th. The president of that foundation is my son, Daniel Bader, who has invited me to meet Mr. Schneider, and of course, I much look forward to getting to know him.

Dear Mr. Beck:

I wrote to you on March 7th regarding my contributions to the American Joint Distribution Committee and I enclose a copy of my letter.

I have now been working on my taxes and realize that I was mistaken in what I wrote to you.

I did contribute $135,000: $100,000 for the school in Sarajevo, and $35,000 for the needy in Bulgaria.

However, I have now found that the first $10,000 was given in 1995 by the Isabel and Alfred Bader Foundation and our personal gifts in 1996 were only $90,000 for Sarajevo and $35,000 for Bulgaria.

Hence, I will appreciate a receipt for our gifts of $125,000 made by us personally during 1996.

With many thanks for your help, I remain,

Dear Mr. Schneider:

Thank you so much for your most helpful letter of September 17th.

I am sure that you will find John Goldsmith, in Basel, to be a very good and efficient man and I am sure that he will appreciate learning about the other efforts.

Daniel is investigating just what Professor Feuerstein's problems are and whether the Helen Bader Foundation should help.

I very much look forward to Israel Singer's explanation why Mr. Bronfman was shocked about Jenninger's speech. To refresh his memory I enclose an article published on November 12, 1988, quoting Mr. Bronfman's shock as well as copy of the letter which I wrote to Dr. Jenninger last month.

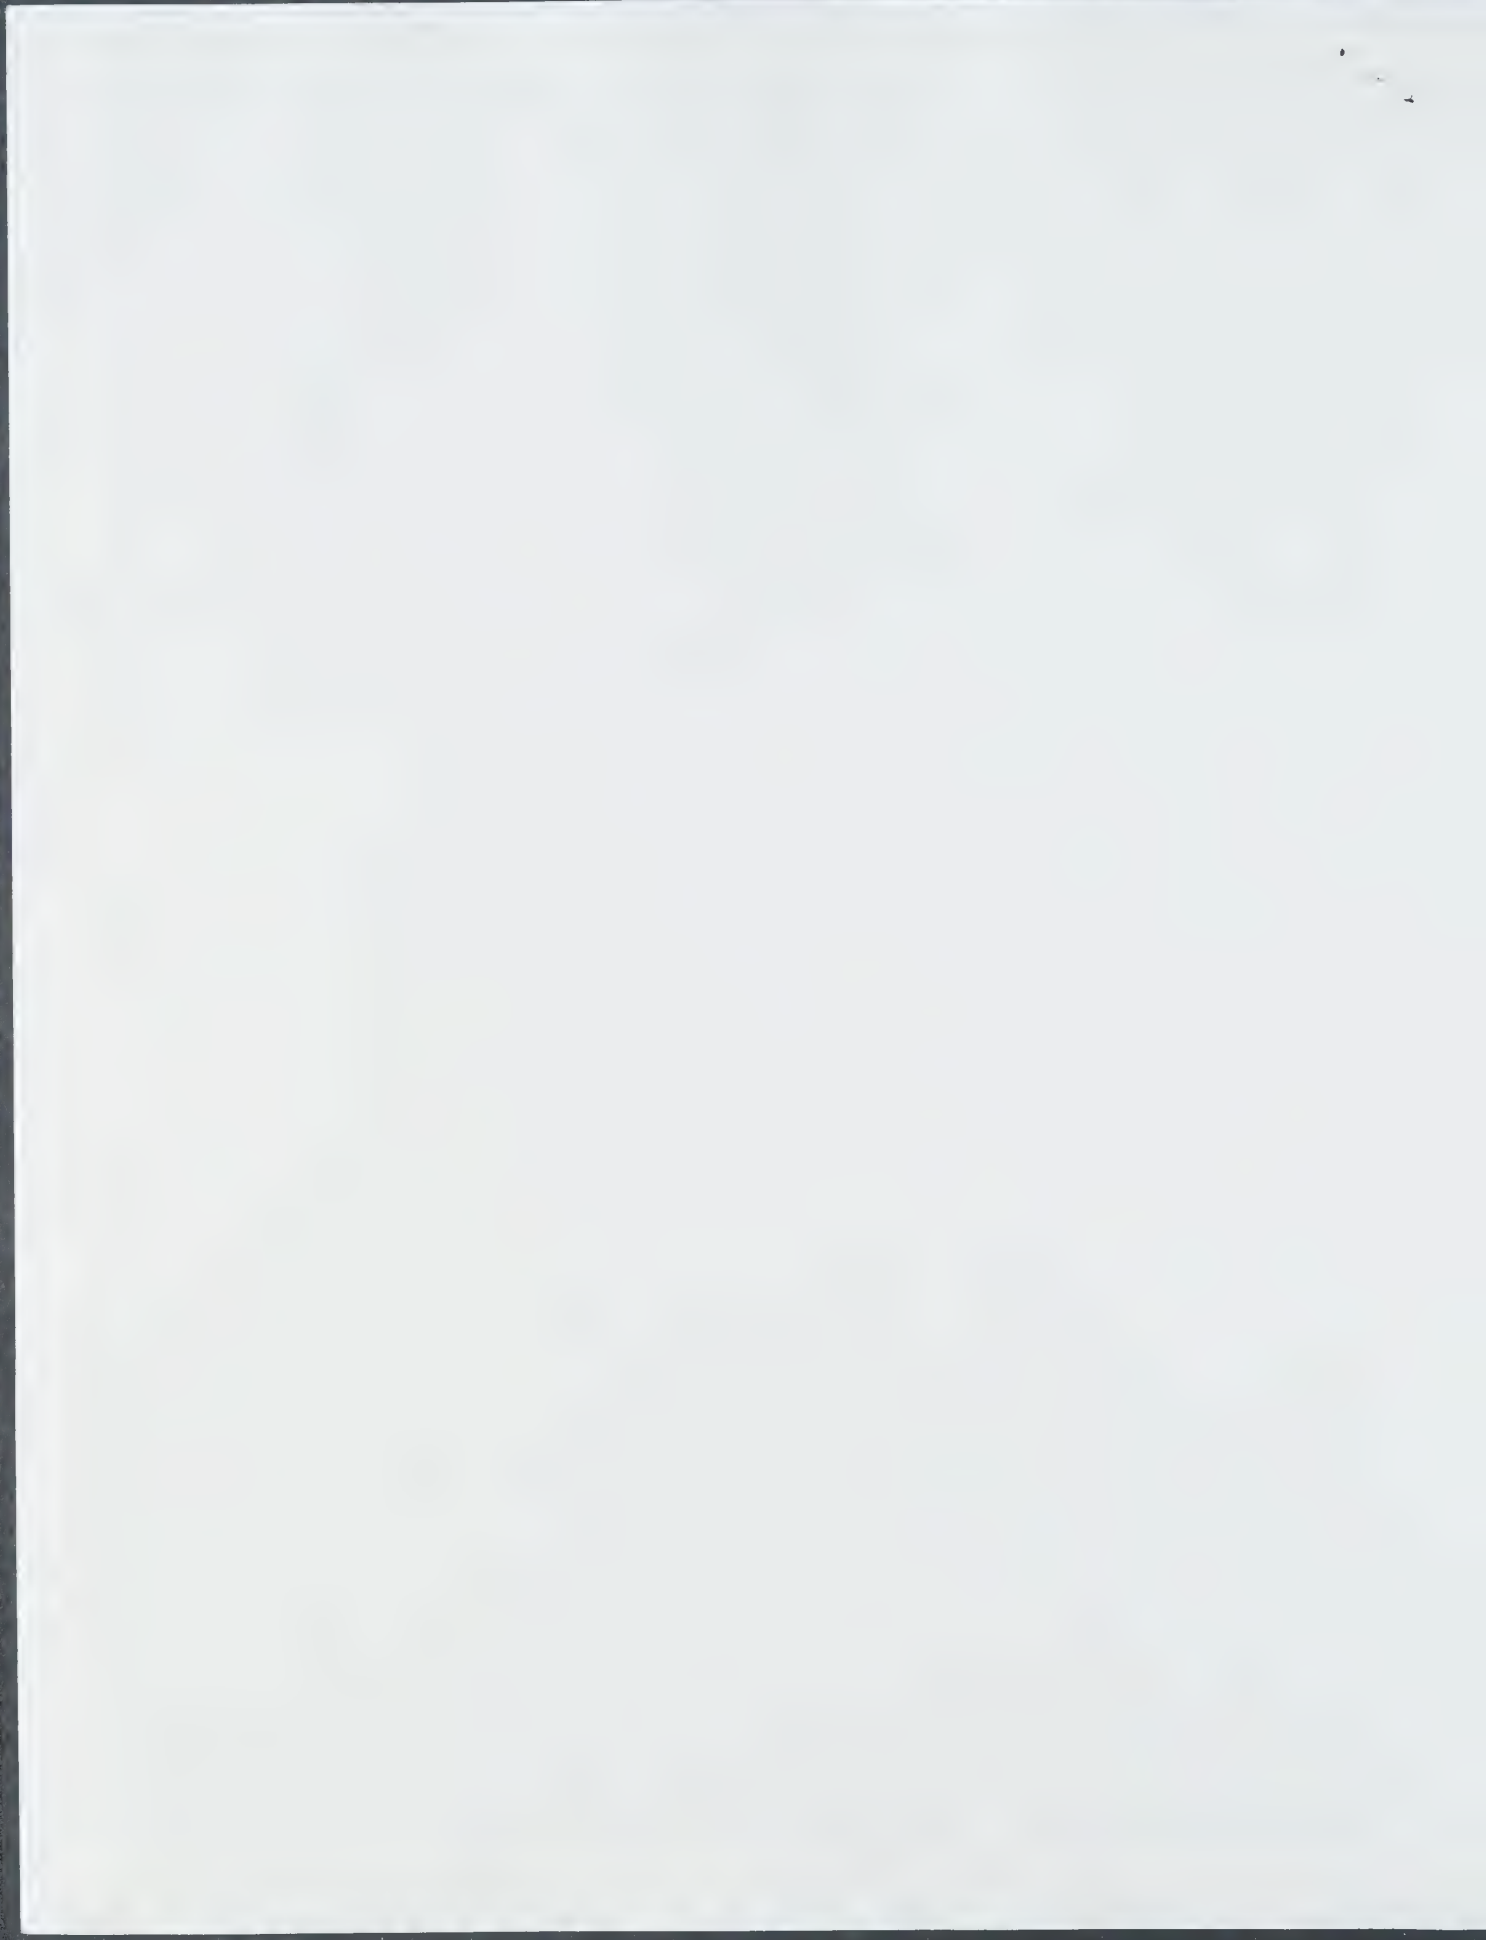

I think that Jenninger has been treated very unjustly. If his speech has not been translated then I would like to do that and also write about it in some detail.

I much look forward to your comments about the Odessa orphanage.

Also could you please inquire whether the situation in Bulgaria is likely to be better this coming winter than it was last year. When we sent you a cheque of $36,000 to help the very poor in Bulgaria we wanted that help to go to Bulgarians generally not, in this case, to the Jewish community.

I note from the enclosed that the Joint works with a society with a curious name, the R'fa-aye-nu Society. How worthwhile do you think that Society's work is?

MEMORANDUM

September 29, 1997

To: Michael Schneider
From: Asher Ostrin
Re: Orphanage in Odessa

The Jewish Children's Home in Odessa, which was opened in 1996, currently provides a home for 67 Jewish boys and girls aged 5 to 15. It's driving force is Rabbi Shlomo Baksht, an Israeli expat living in Odessa. For a variety of reasons, these children are unable to leave Ukraine. The primary reason is that they have a relative in Ukraine who refuses to give the necessary authorization to allow the child to leave the country. Generally, they are products of abusive or otherwise dysfunctional homes. Lishka is aware of the situation and the problem of getting authorization to allow the children to come to Israel for Yanush. Without the necessary documents, these children must remain in Ukraine.

Rumors abound about commercial interests in operations like this. This is certainly not the case in Odessa. Additional orphanages are in various stages of planning/realization in Dniepro, Kiev and Moscow.

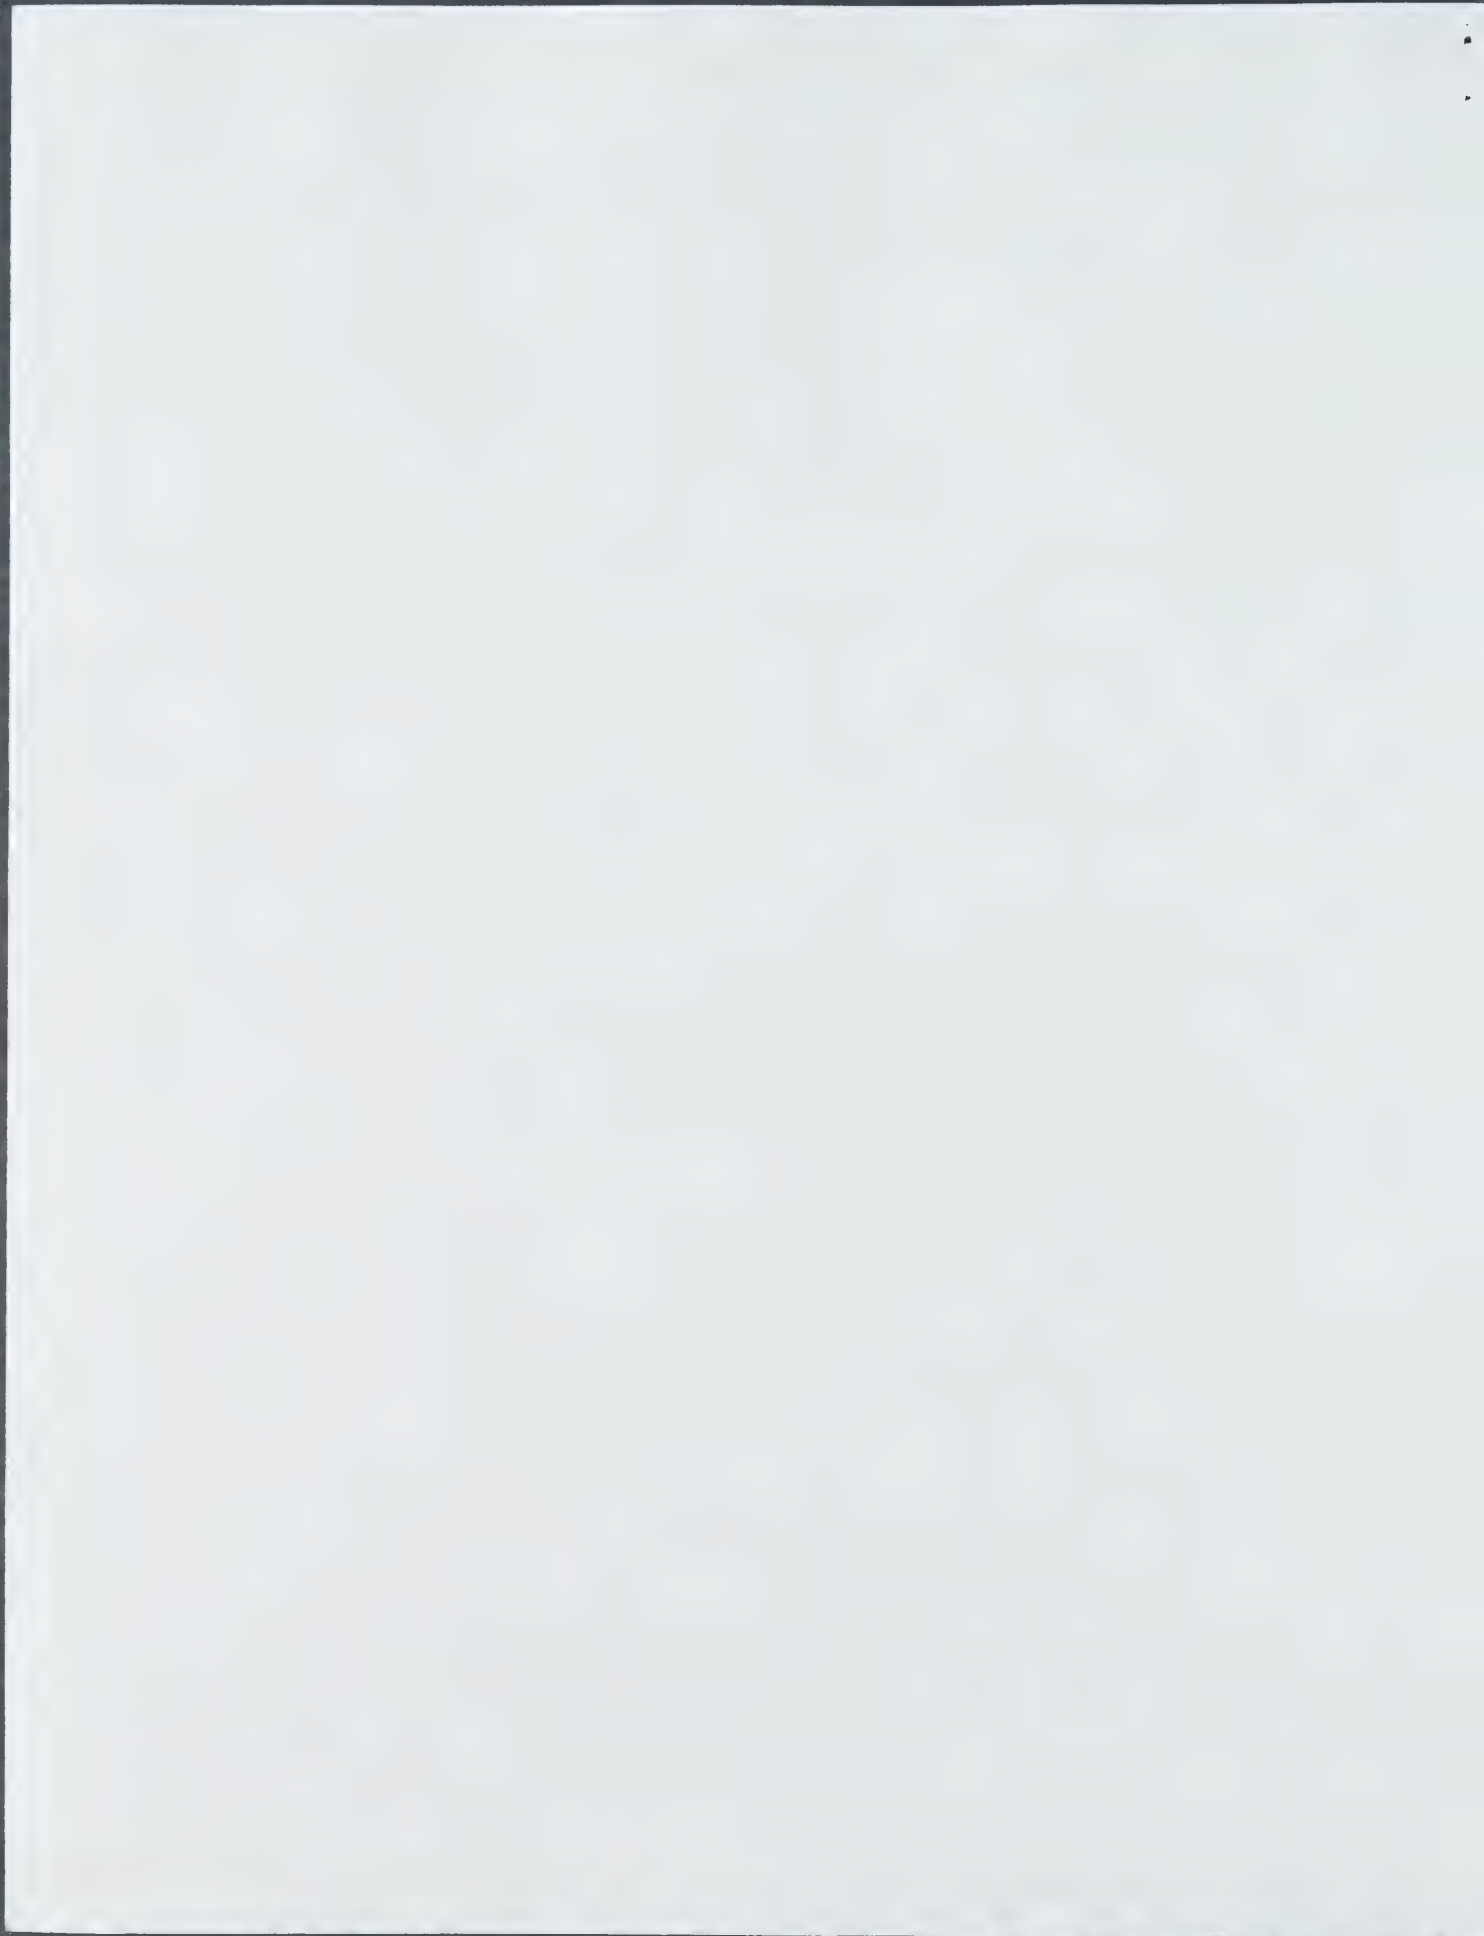

I am attaching a background paper on the Jewish Children's Home. In addition, below you will find a summary of recent funds allocated to this program.

In 1997, the orphanage received:

- $ 14,600 from WJR
- $ 10,000 from Dr. Alfred Bader
- $ 20,000 from JDC

We currently have no JDC funds allocated for the orphanage in 1998.

I hope this answers your questions. If you need anything further, let me know.

The Jewish Children's Home of Odessa

I. Background:

At the crux of the collapse of the Former Soviet Union is irony. While it has given many Jews democratic liberty, better opportunity to make Aliyah, and the possibility of receiving open aid from Jewish communities abroad, there is no longer the necessary infrastructure to provide basic economic and welfare needs. Central to this peril is the future of the Jewish community in the FSU – children.

In the Ukraine, crime, unemployment, and drug and alcohol abuse are rampant. In addition, the divorce rate has dramatically escalated. Consequently, some children are left without much family care – in some cases completely abandoned – and moreover, are the recipients of severe neglect and abuse. In such impoverished family conditions, children become custody of the State which is legally empowered to place them in state-run orphanages. Unfortunately, the conditions at state-run orphanages reflect the family environment with children receiving little care and often times, are the victims of physical abuse by their “caretakers.” Most poignantly, because of intense anti-Semitism at the state-run orphanages, Jewish children endure additional hardship and hostility.

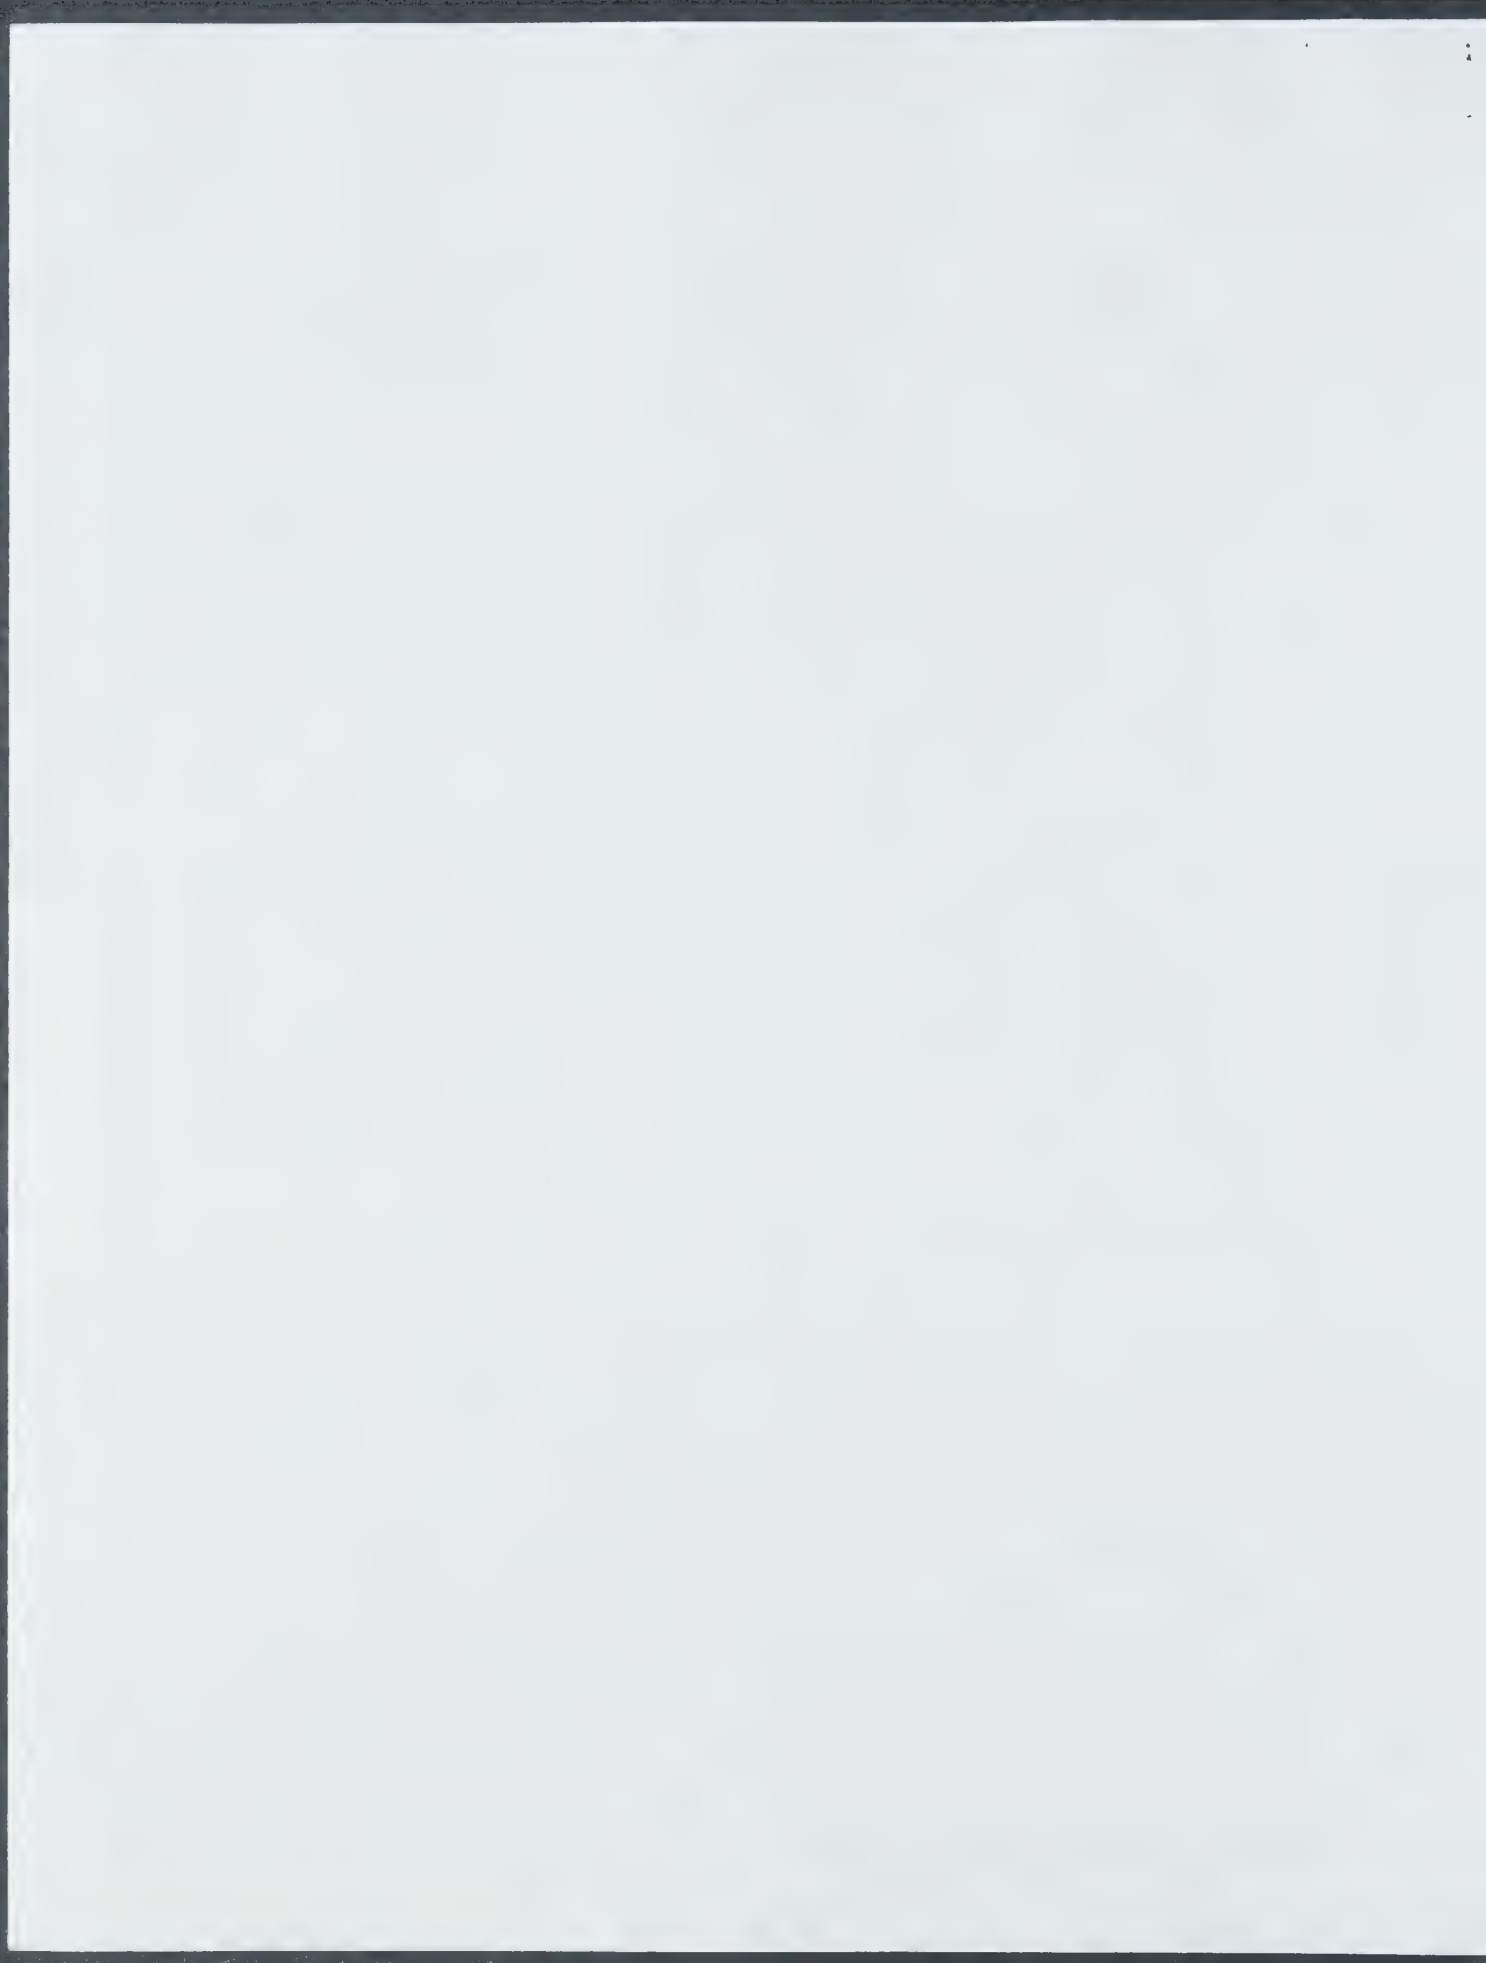

II. Need:

There is an alarming welfare need for Jewish orphans. Since the Ukraine state-run facilities cannot provide a benevolent and supportive environment for Jewish children at-risk, it is the imperative of the local Jewish communities to create a safe-haven. However, with such a frail Jewish community, it is difficult to galvanize local efforts for subsidies, volunteers, teachers, etc. In addition, autonomous Jewish agencies are not likely to receive much support from government municipalities.

III. Project Description:

The recent opening of The Jewish Children's Home of Odessa serves as a unique solution to the current crisis facing Jewish children in the FSU. Still in its infancy, The Jewish Children's Home of Odessa, under the auspices of Ohr Samayach and direct support from the JDC, has been able to begin the work of helping these impoverished youths. Working in conjunction with the Gemilius Hesed of Odessa, the Odessa Community Center and the Library of Odessa, The Jewish Children's Home of Odessa now serves a total of 54 children – 25 girls and 29 boys. The children range in age from 5 to 15 years old. The boys and girls are divided into different sections, however, interact regularly during extra curricular activities. The basic framework of the home is to create a Jewish family atmosphere while providing the necessary medical and psychological attention, educational and extracurricular programs in order to promote healthy development and advancement as future contributors to Jewish life and society in the FSU or abroad.

However, in order to substantially accommodate and develop the programs necessary to aid these children, further resources are significantly needed. In fact, due to a lack of funds, there are currently at least 15 children who are on the orphanage's waiting list. Moreover, while the orphanage already serves 54 children, it is estimated that there are

Dear Mr John D. Goldsmith

I am writing to say thank You for everything You have done for us and especially for my grandfather Jan Plich

Unfortunately, he passed away on the 21-st of November 1996.

For that reason we have sent You back the parcel with Decapeptyl. We realize that thanks to this cure my grandfather could prolong his life for at least two years. Keeping him alive for such a long time let my grandfather share the joy and happiness of living in our family. We are very grateful for all of this and, once again we thank You very much for Your help.

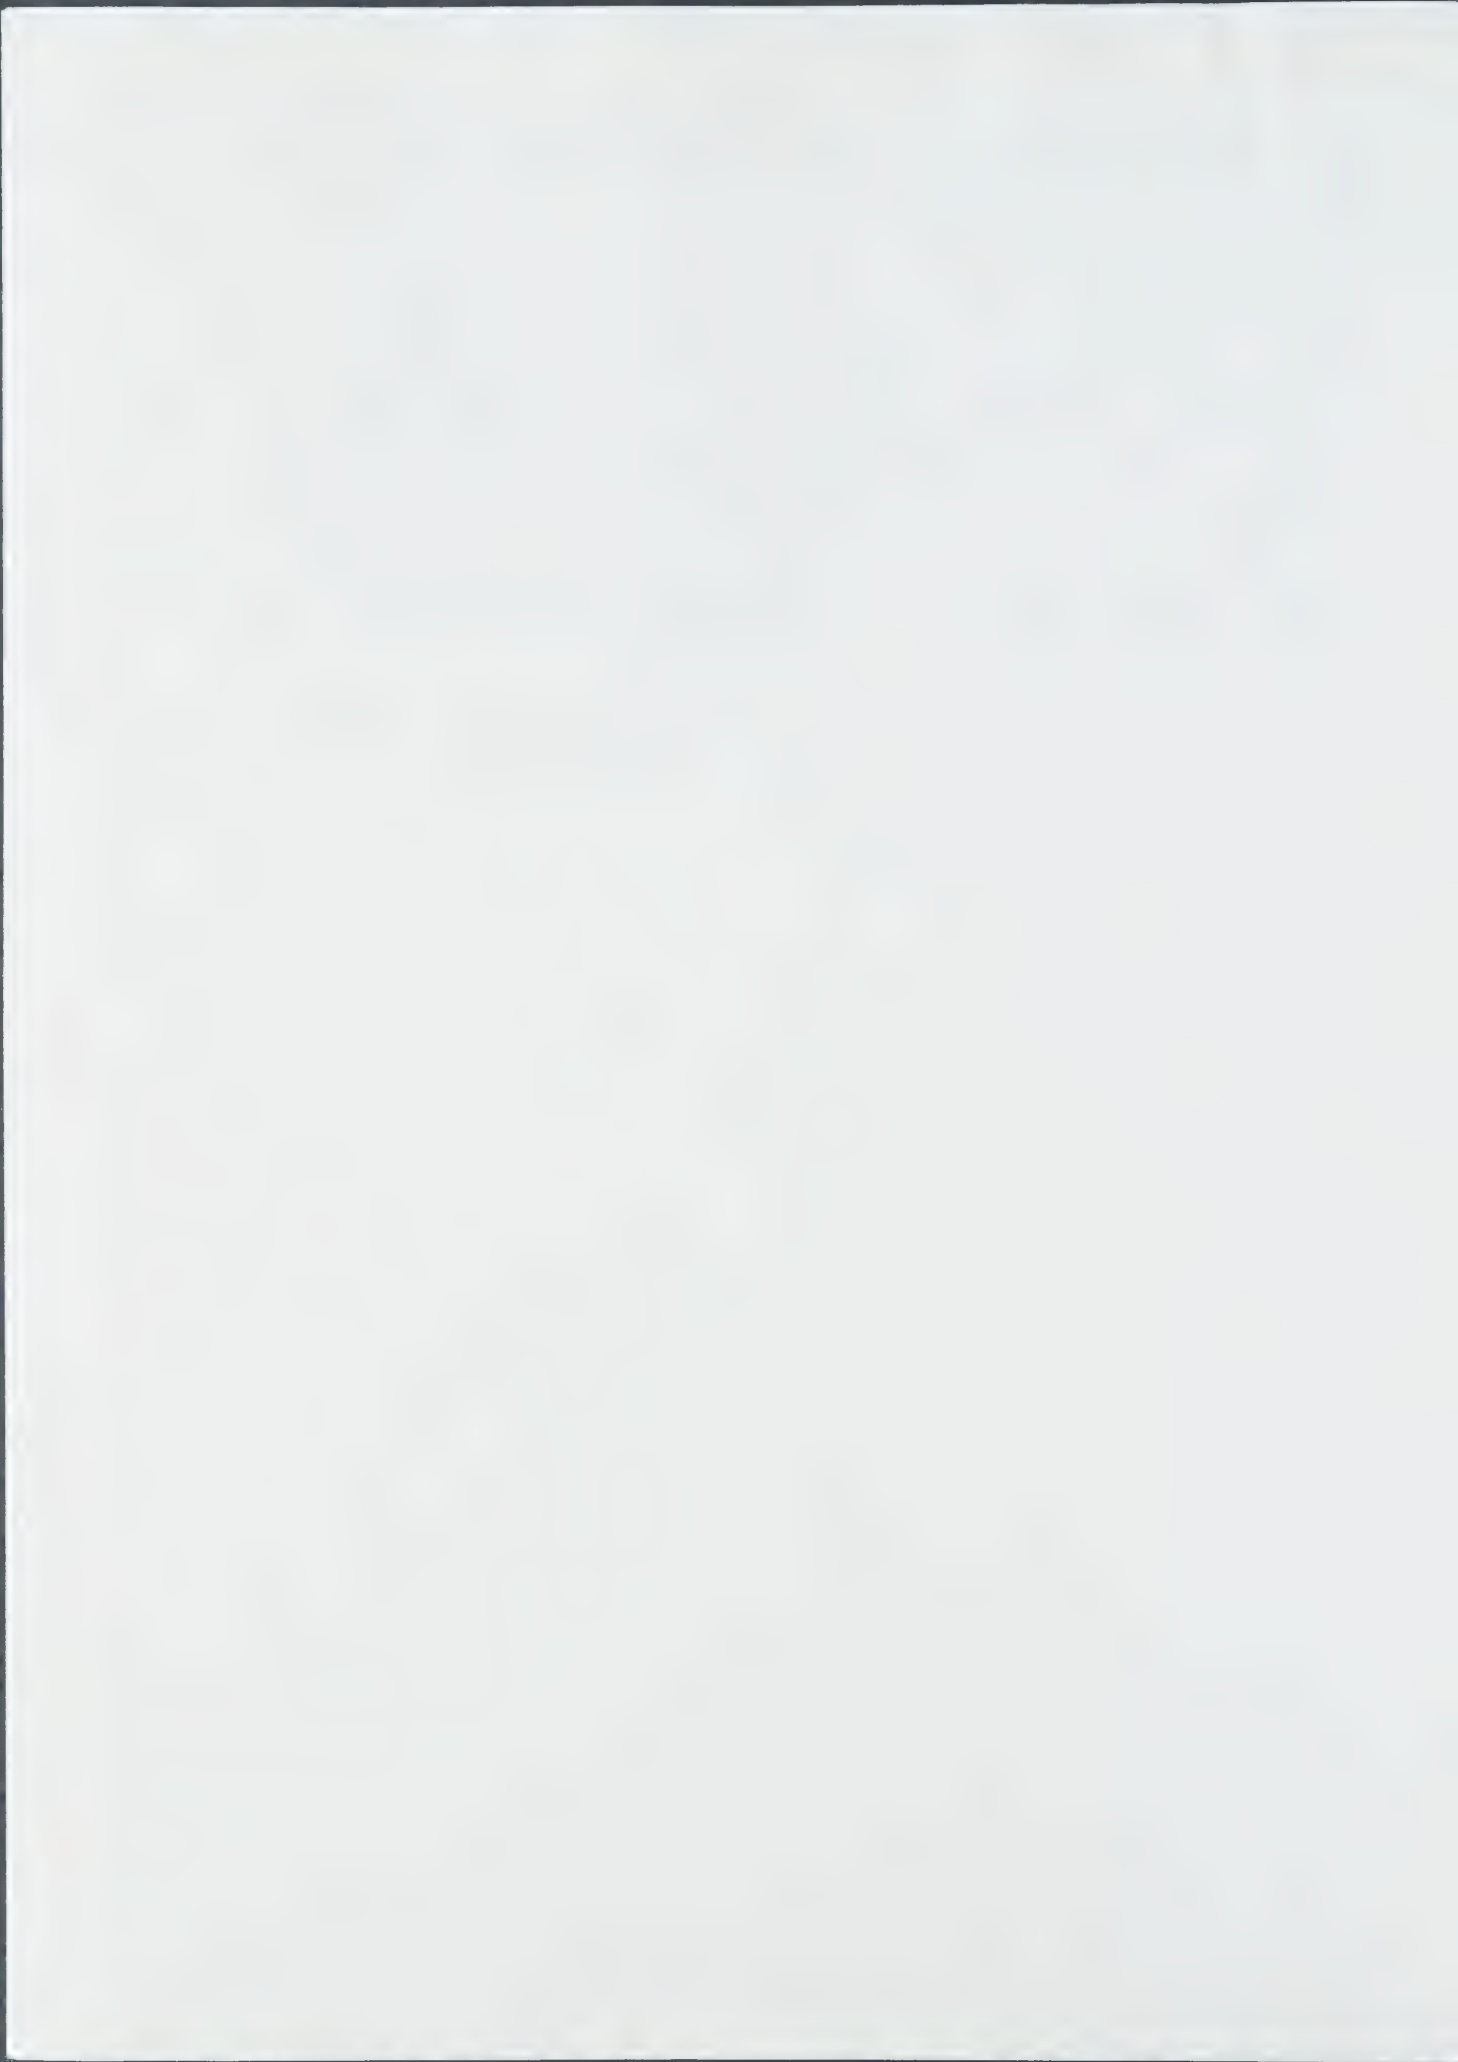

Anyway, my grandfather will never need any cure for his health. All he need is the prayer for his soul. Asking the God for Jan Plich's solvation we thank the Lord for such people like you, who work in Anna Frank Fonds.

On behalf of myself and the rest of my family I wish you all the best and I ask you for continuing this gorgeous activity which may make other people as happy as we were and as grateful as we are now.

Dear Dr. Bader,

Your letter to Michael Schneider dated December 23rd has arrived in his office. Once again I wanted you to be aware that he is out of the country and will not be back in the office until Tuesday, January 6, 1998. I am sure Michael will want to respond personally to your letter and to thank you himself for the $36,000 donation which you enclosed in your correspondence.

In the meantime, however, it is my pleasure to officially thank you for the $36,000 gift. As you indicated, 90 percent of that amount will be designated towards assistance for non-Jewish Bulgarians and 10 percent will be used to assist elderly Jews in Bulgaria.

You again mention that you will see Michael when you are in New York at the end of January. If you know your schedule and are ready to make these arrangements, I would be happy to discuss with you or your assistant a mutually convenient time for you and Michael to sit together. I am anxious to confirm a meeting date since Michael will be out of the country a number of days at the end of January and I hope these already scheduled meetings will not interfere with the two of you seeing each other.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Tzivia Bieler

PROPOSAL FOR EMERGENCY RELIEF AND NON SECTARIAN
AID FOR BULGARIA

Background

Since the beginning of 1997, thanks to the generous donation of Dr. Bader and the efforts of WJR, a full operation of emergency relief for the people of Bulgaria was successfully implemented by JDC.

In cooperation with the Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs, thousands of people from more than 10 cities, benefited from that support which came at the moment when the social and economic situation in Bulgaria was a disaster.

The main group, which was benefited by the donation, was composed by those elderly people who supported the saving of Jewish lives during the Second World War. For them it was much more than an humanitarian action, it was a symbol of gratitude and solidarity.

The aid was distributed through public kitchens at Homecare Centers, Public Canteens, Kitchens at Public Hospitals, and Old Age homes. A very small part of the donation was allocated also for an Orphan Home in one small village in the countryside. 10 % of the donation was granted to the Jewish Community of Bulgaria. These funds were used for covering part of the needs of winter relief for the Jewish pensioners.

Statement of the need

Unfortunately, the general situation in Bulgaria remains very difficult. Although some of the financial indicators have shown a few signs of recovering (the inflation rate has decreased and the Currency Board is keeping the exchange level stable), that's not reflected on the daily life of the people. As the government tries to comply to the IMF requirements in order to get loans, some unpopular measures are beginning to be taken. Electricity prices are going up and the basic food prices are being increased over the average inflation.

But the worst of all, are the expectations for the upcoming winter. Everybody says that the upcoming winter will be at least as difficult as the last one. This will again leave the biggest majority of the population faced to extreme uneasy living conditions.

As last year, people will stand in cues to get food, but the government (which is also forecasting the worst scenario) already claimed that it has not enough sources to cope with the emergency. Anyway, a lot of efforts are being made to get humanitarian help for that purpose.

Proposal

Based on the experience of this year, the proposal is the following:

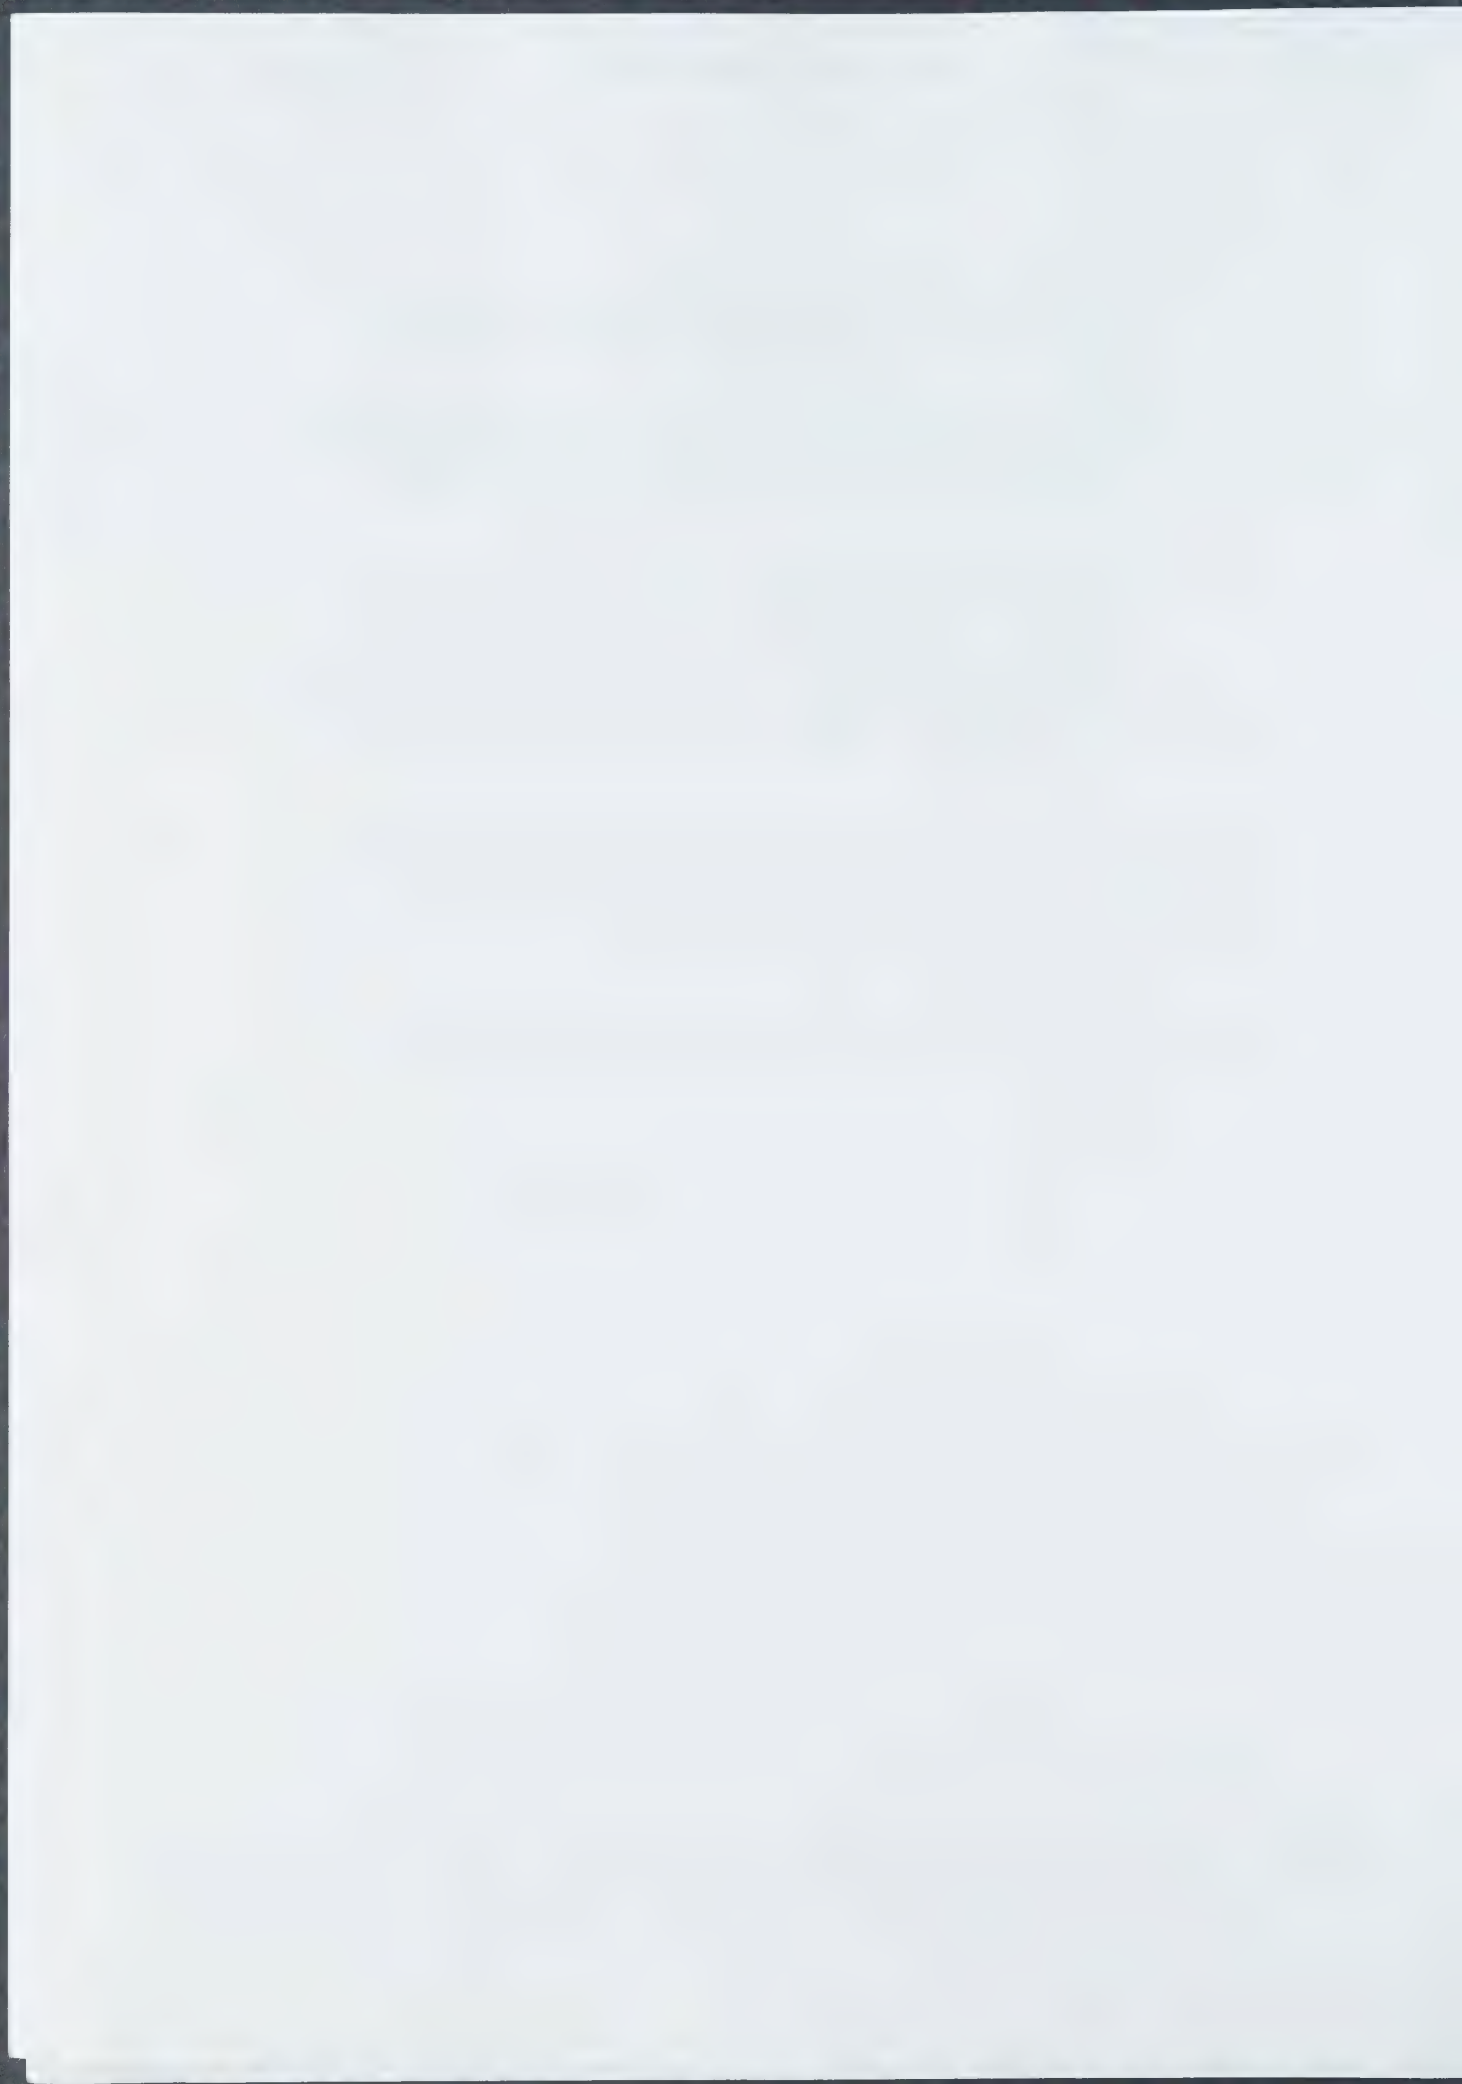

- 1) To continue with the support for the Public Kitchens at Hospitals, Homecare Centers, Old Age Homes and Public Canteens across the Country as it was done during this year.
- 2) To adopt 1 or 2 public canteens and support them completely during the whole winter. The effect of such "adoption" would be very strong. It would imply that about 600 pensioners in two institutions would be completely supported by Dr. Bader generous donation.
- 3) To increase the support for the orphanages where no additional help is being provided by the government (comparing to the pensioners who are receiving at least their small pensions). The situation of the Kids at those orphanages is terrible. The basic needs for essential food are not provided because lack of resources. Supporting somehow those orphanages would be a way to support also the descendants of those Bulgarians who save the Jews during the Second World War.

In order to fund the Program mentioned below the necessary funds are an estimate sum of: $ 45,000.- . This sum includes a 10 % allocation for the Jewish Community as was granted this year. As you can see, by adding only $ 9,000.- (comparing to last year allocation of $ 36,000.-) the Program could be expanded not only in numbers but also in the effect and scope of the aid.

This emergency relief was a great action to provide support to the most needy people in the Country. Next winter when people will see that the emergency relief is coming again, they will feel again our partnership, sensibility and solidarity.

Best regards

Jorge Diener

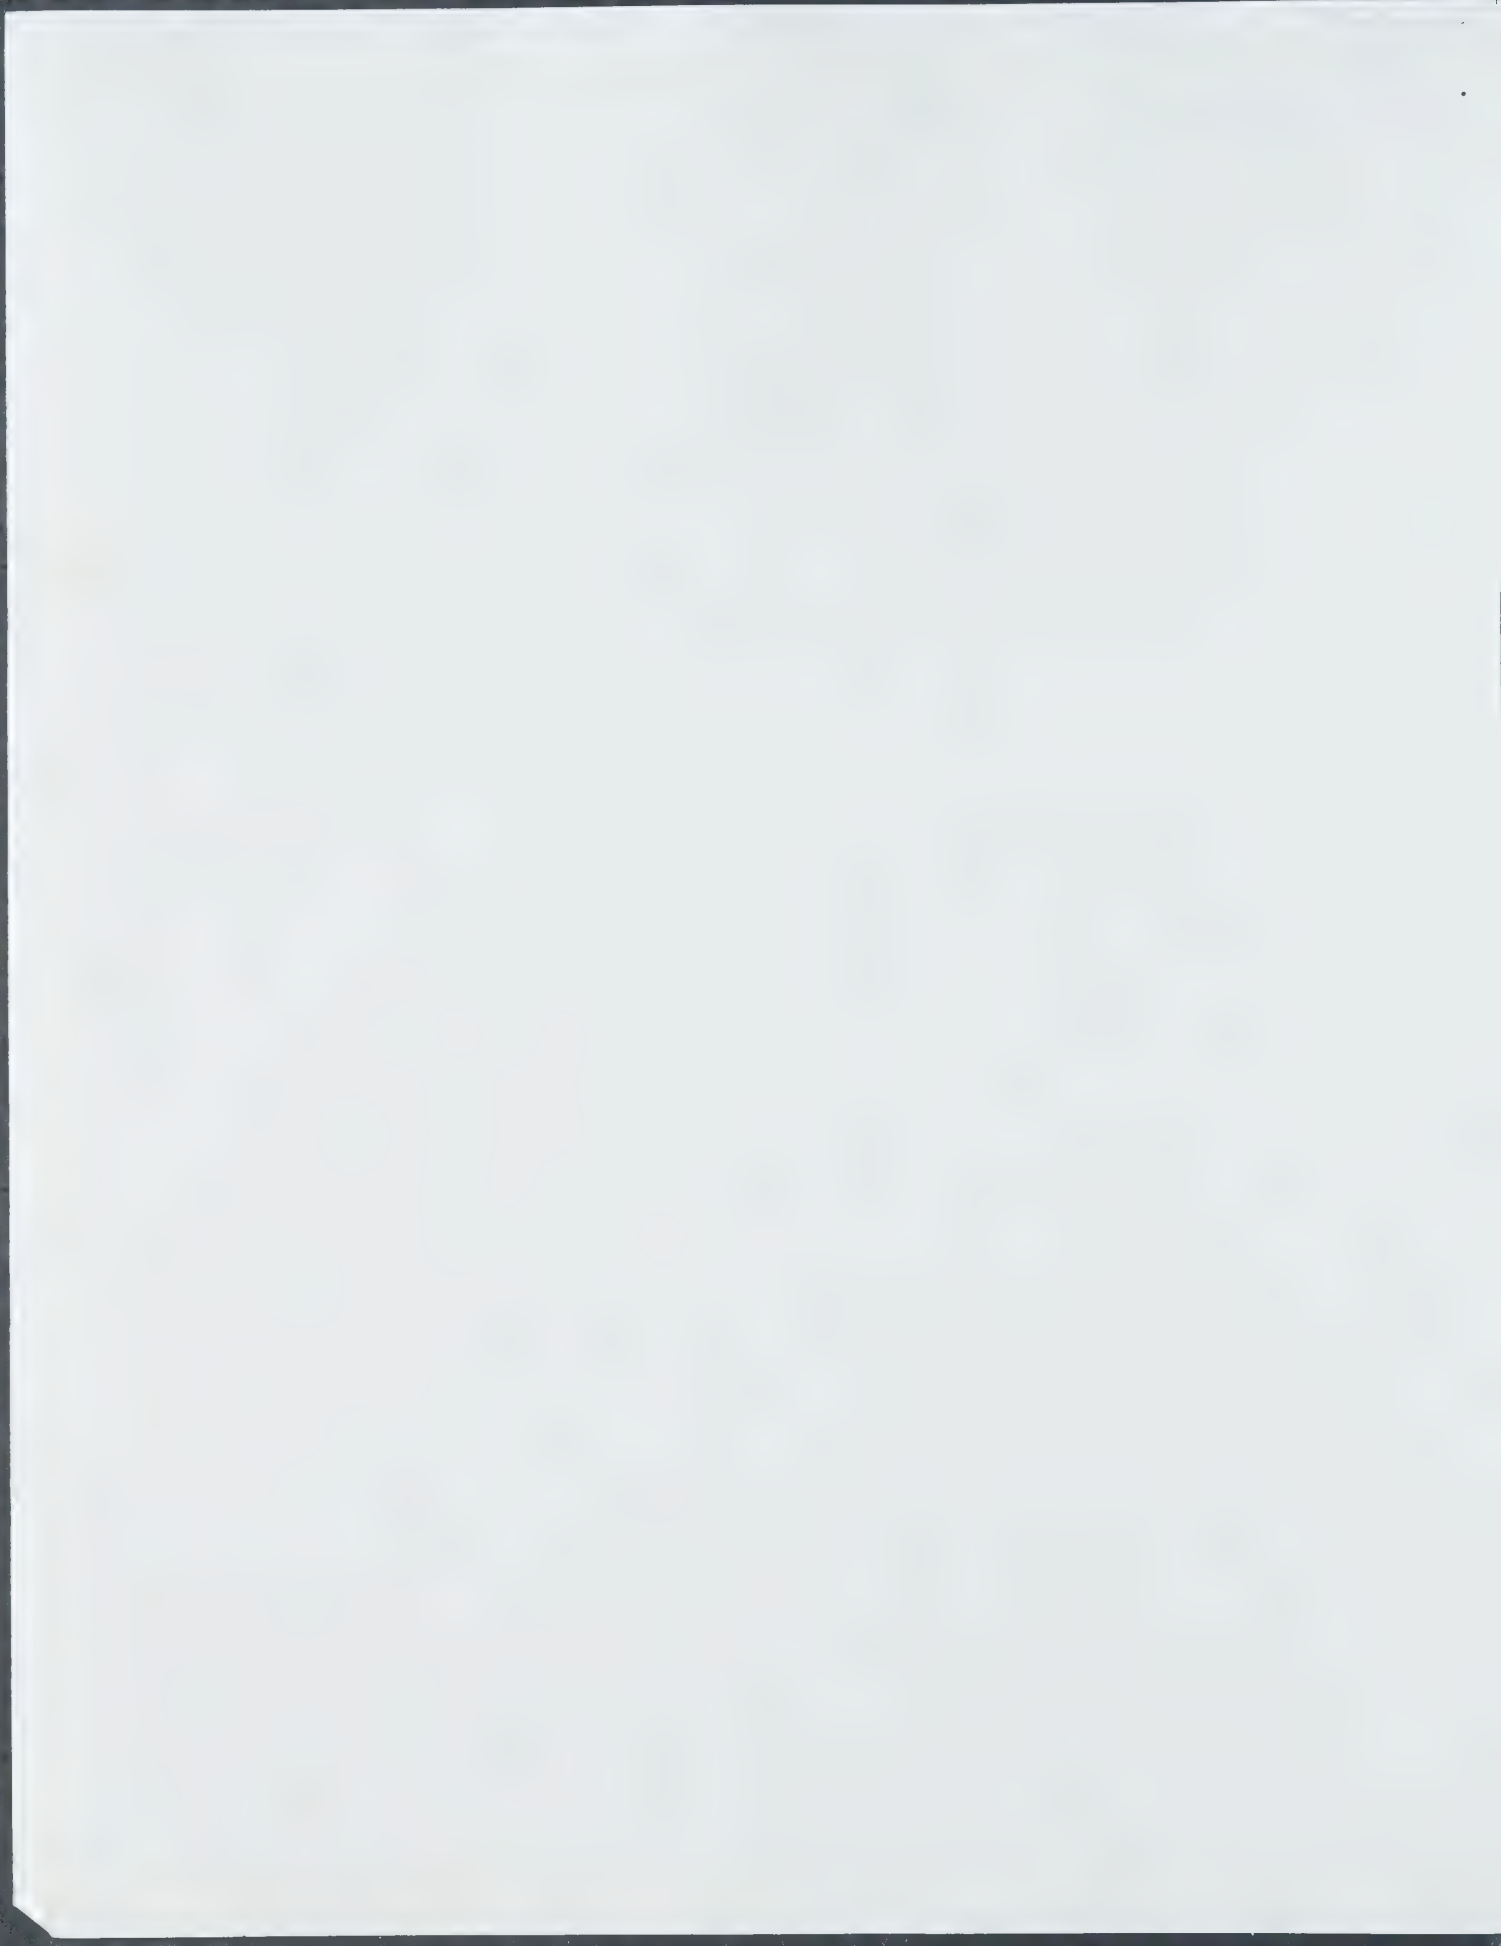

150 more Jewish children currently housed in the state-run facilities that need to be transferred to The Jewish Children's Home of Odessa. The costs accrued in the painstaking process of searching, identifying, and transferring these children -- travel, access to government files, human resource assistance, etc. -- is unfortunately exorbitant. Moreover, the Ukrainian government requires a fee to transfer each child to The Jewish Children's Home of Odessa. Capriciously, the amount can be anywhere from $500 to $2,000 per child. Furthermore, important future programs such as computer classes, implementing a "Big Brother/Big Sister" model, a Jewish music project, and continued partnerships with the Gemilus Hesed, the Jewish Community Center, and the Library of Odessa all require additional funding and support.

IV. Budget:

An annual budget of $235,000 for a total of three years is required to help develop and sustain The Jewish Children's Home of Odessa. The following list applies separately to the boys and girls sections, but are exactly symmetrical in their amounts. *Please note that for the first budget year, there are some one-time needs with costs totaling $14,600.

Dear Ms. Bieler:

Thank you for your fax of yesterday.

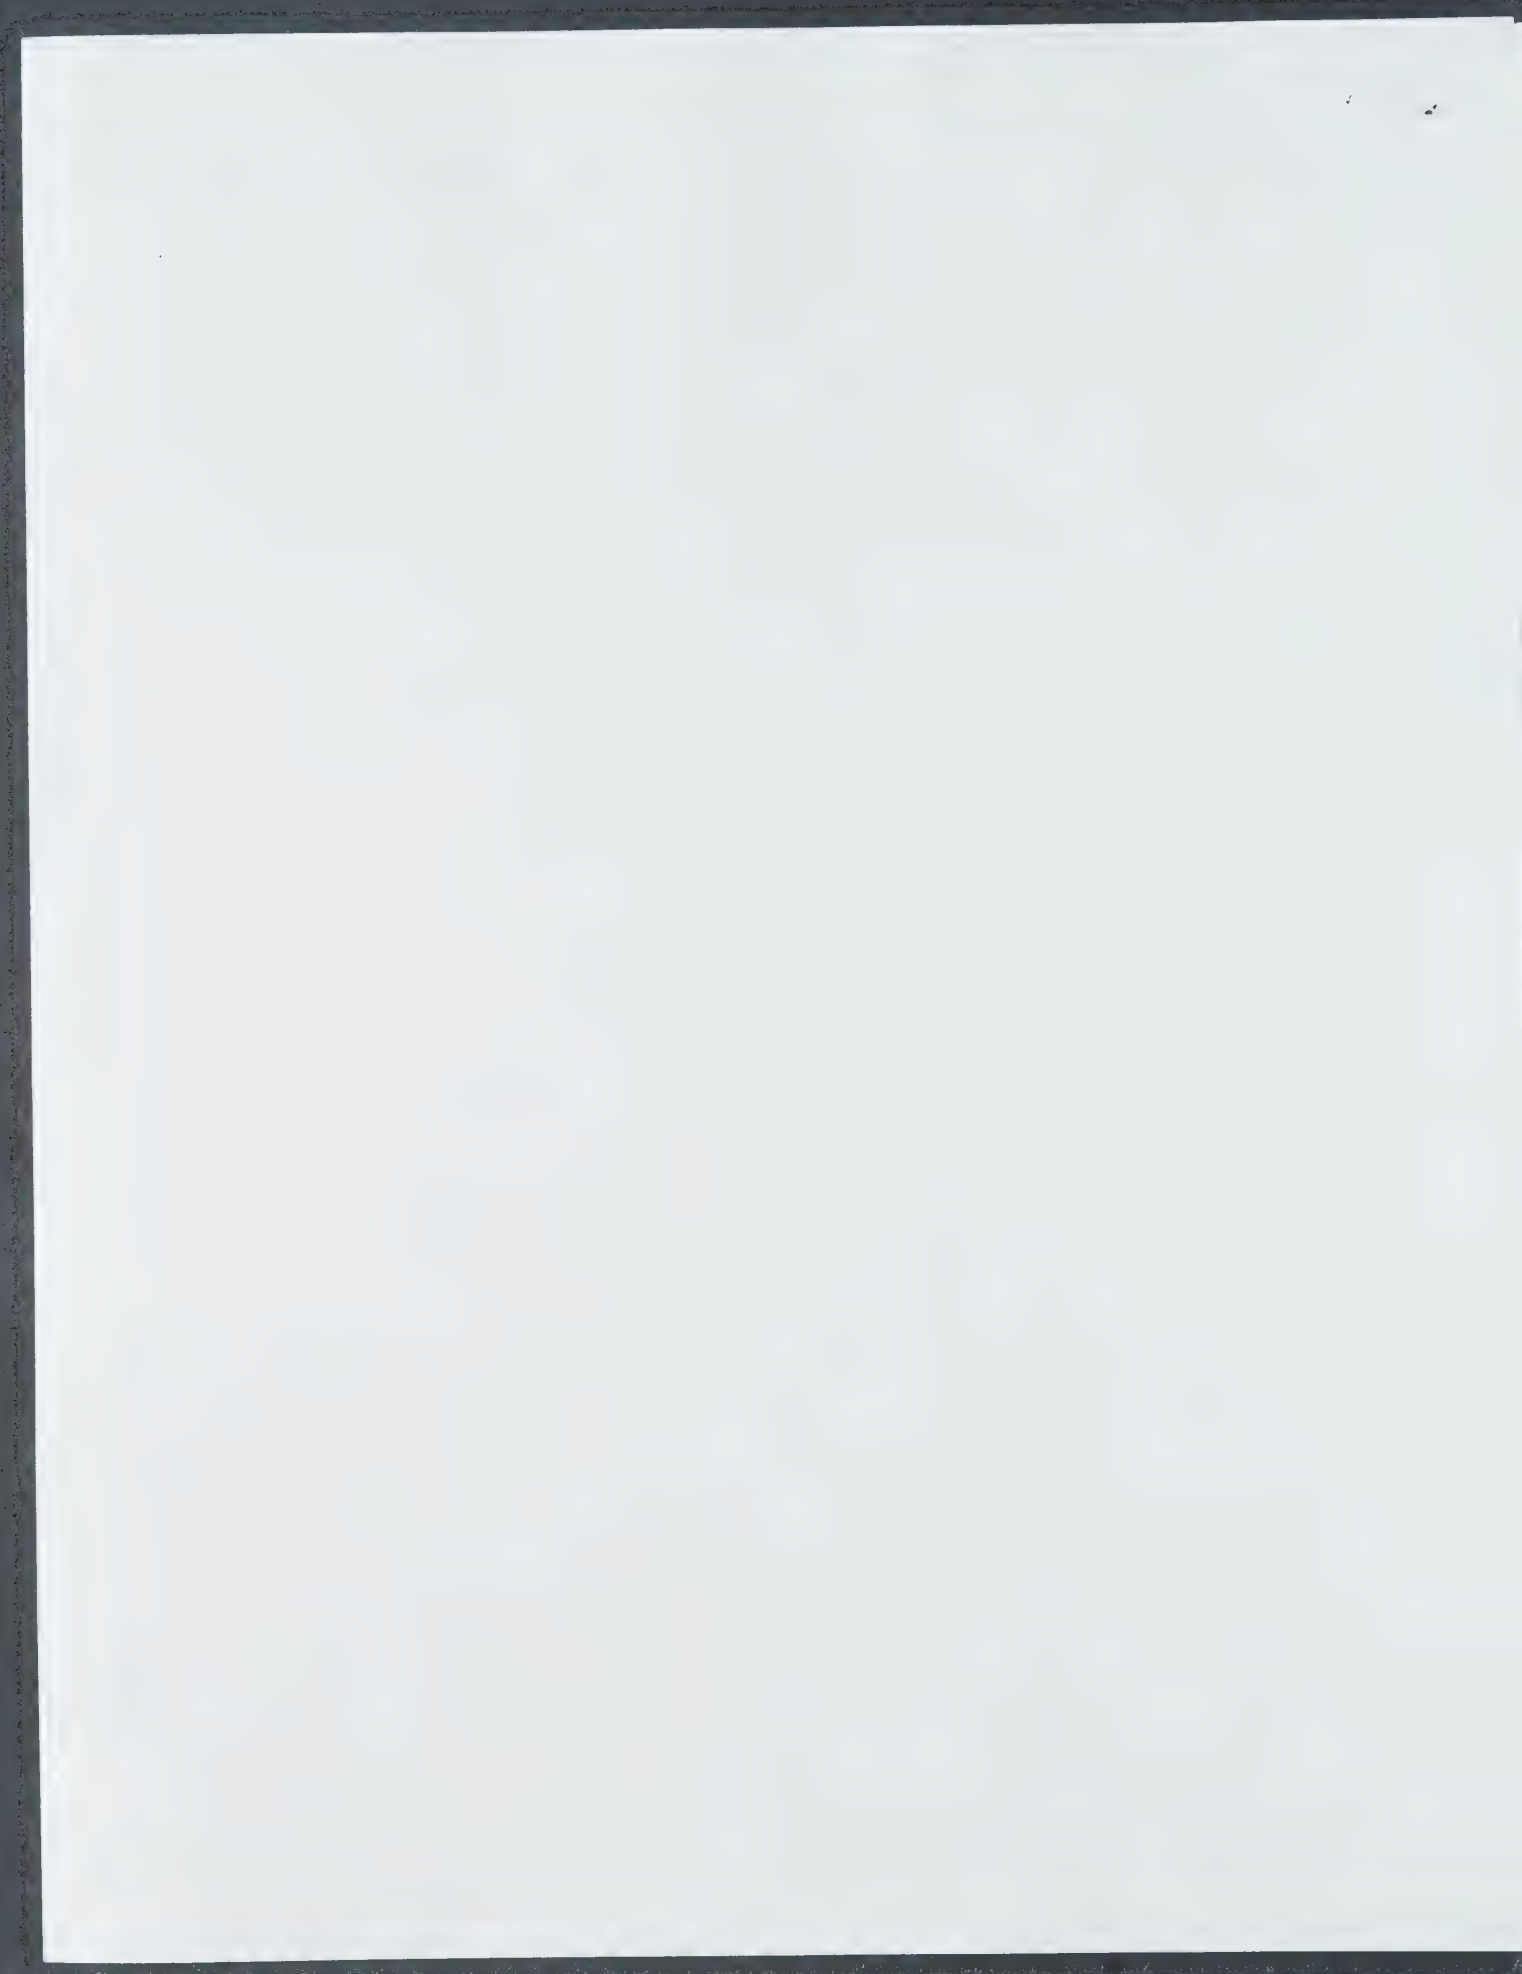

Isabel and I will be in New York on January 29th and 30th, leaving New York from LaGuardia at 7:30 on Friday evening the 30th.

Most of Thursday we plan to spend at the Christie auction at Park Avenue and 59th Street and most of Friday at the Sotheby auction at 70th Street at York. We are staying at the Lowe's Hotel at 51st and Lexington.

Clearly we could meet Mr. Schneider on Friday morning for breakfast or for a fast lunch. Or, if he is not an orthodox Jew, we might meet late Friday afternoon.

What is the cross-street to 711 Third Avenue?

Of course it would give us great pleasure to meet Mr. Schneider but it is more for personal pleasure than tachlitically. We know that we want to do more for the Jewish orphanage in Odessa and could just send you our cheque for twice what we gave last year, namely $20,000. Also we would like to renew our gift to John Goldsmith's organization in Basel which helps the old, needy, righteous gentiles in Eastern Europe. We have already sent you our cheque for $36,000 in renewal of our help to Bulgaria.

Undoubtedly we could learn a good deal from Mr. Schneider about where else help is really needed, but it is probably not a good idea to have to do so hurriedly. Also my son Daniel has become very active in the Joint and so Mr. Schneider could share his suggestions by fax or mail with Daniel and me.

With all good wishes, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Ms. Bieler:

Thank you so much for your letter of December 26th.

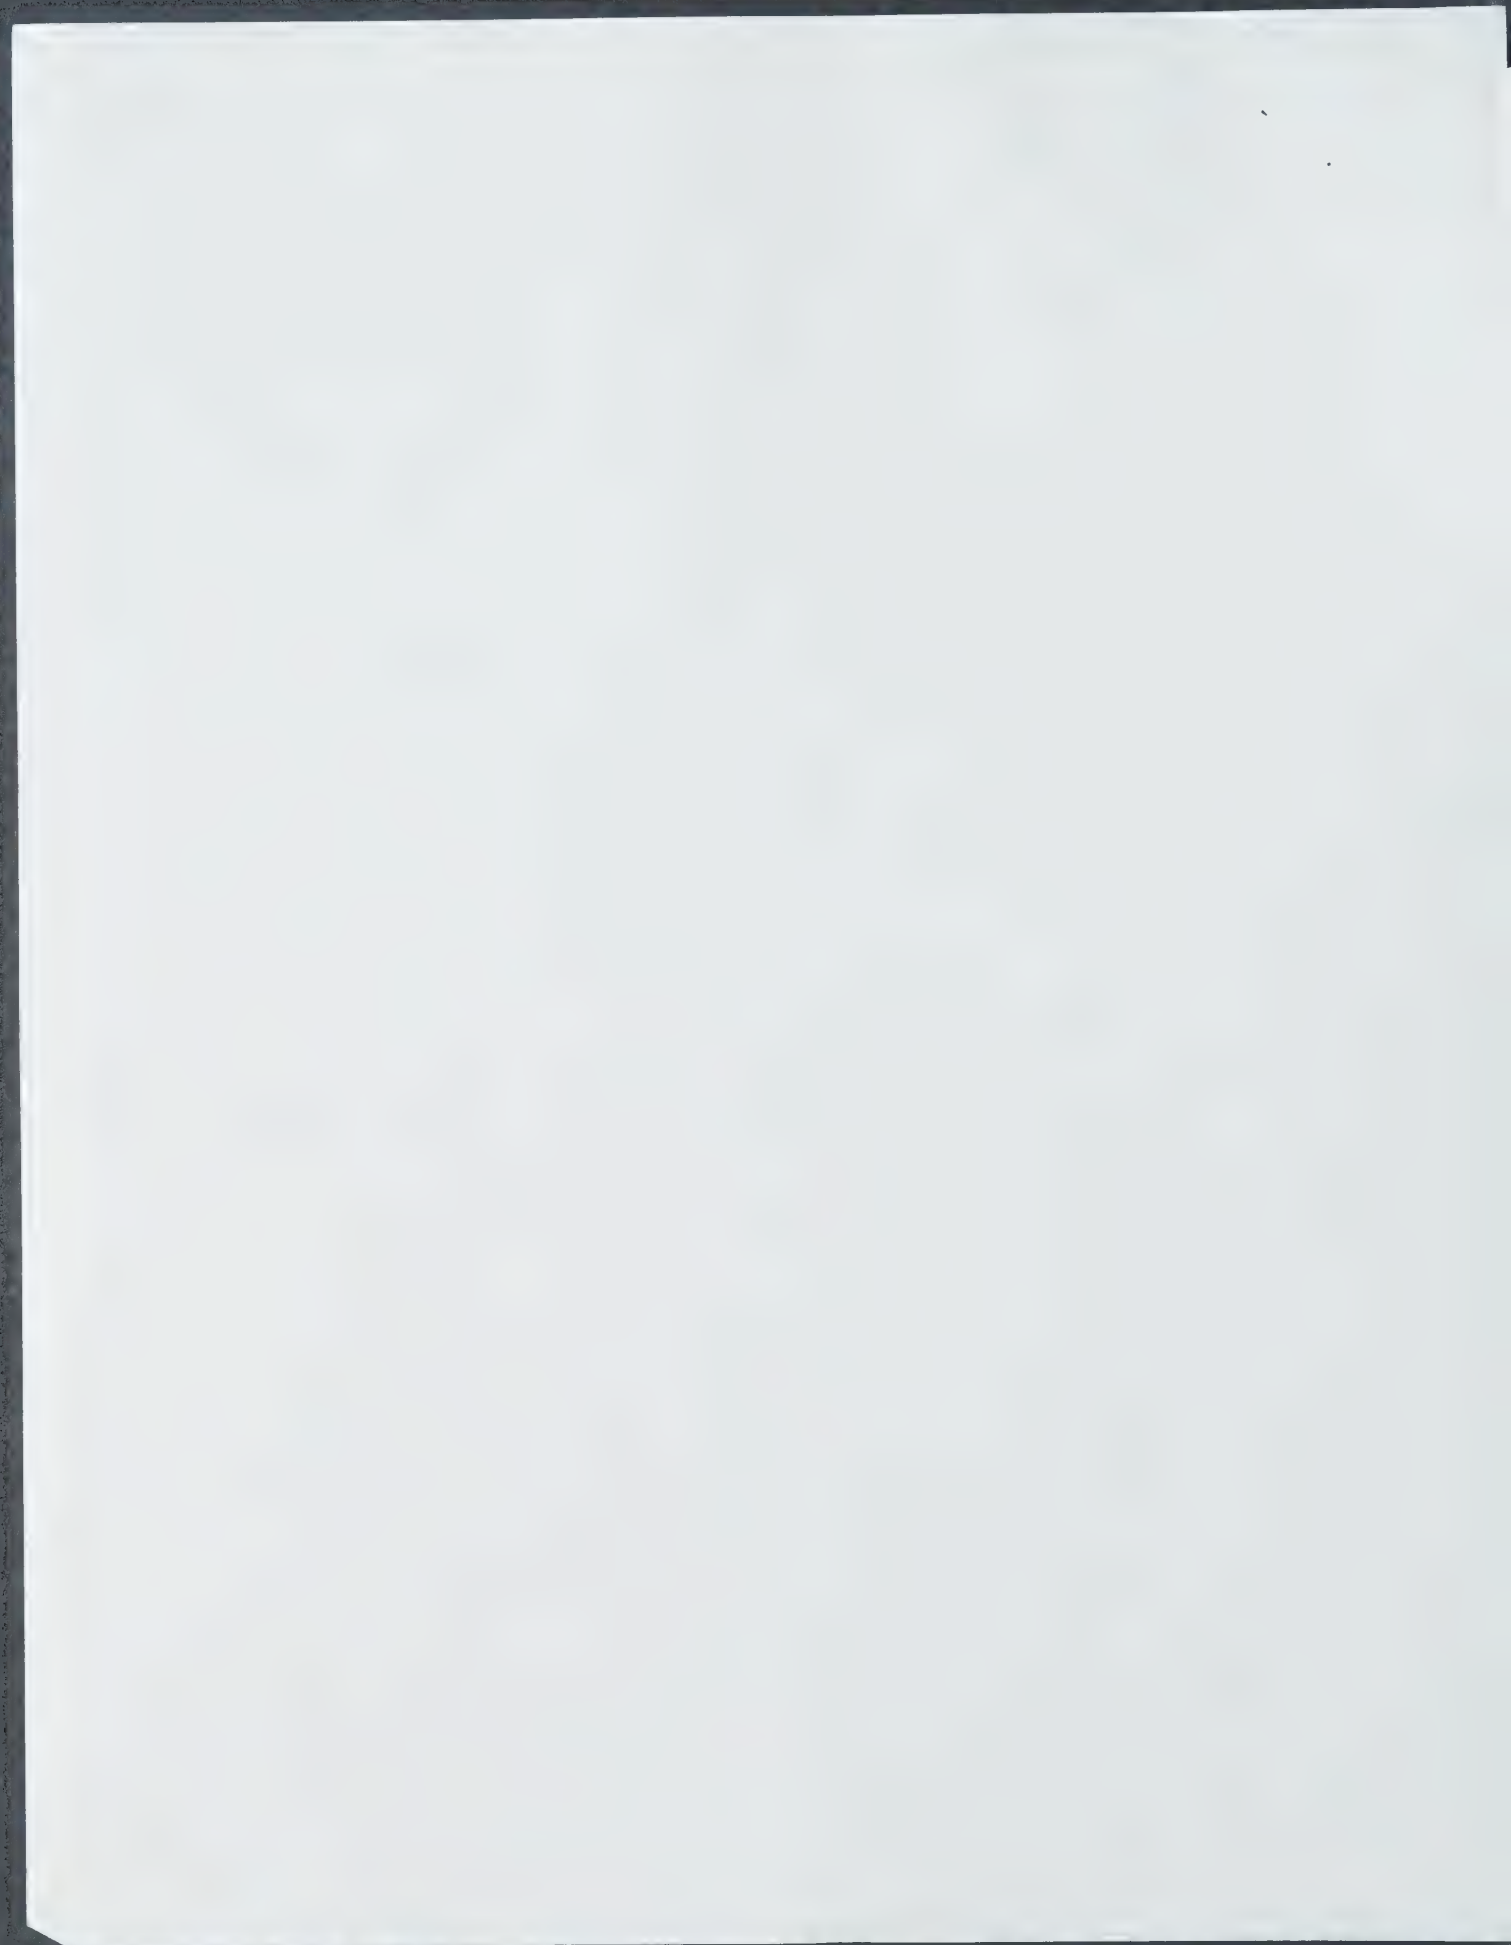

If late Wednesday afternoon - say, around 4:30 pm - January 28th would be convenient to Mr. Schneider, then Isabel and I could be at your office then. Similarly, late Tuesday afternoon, January 27th, would also be convenient.

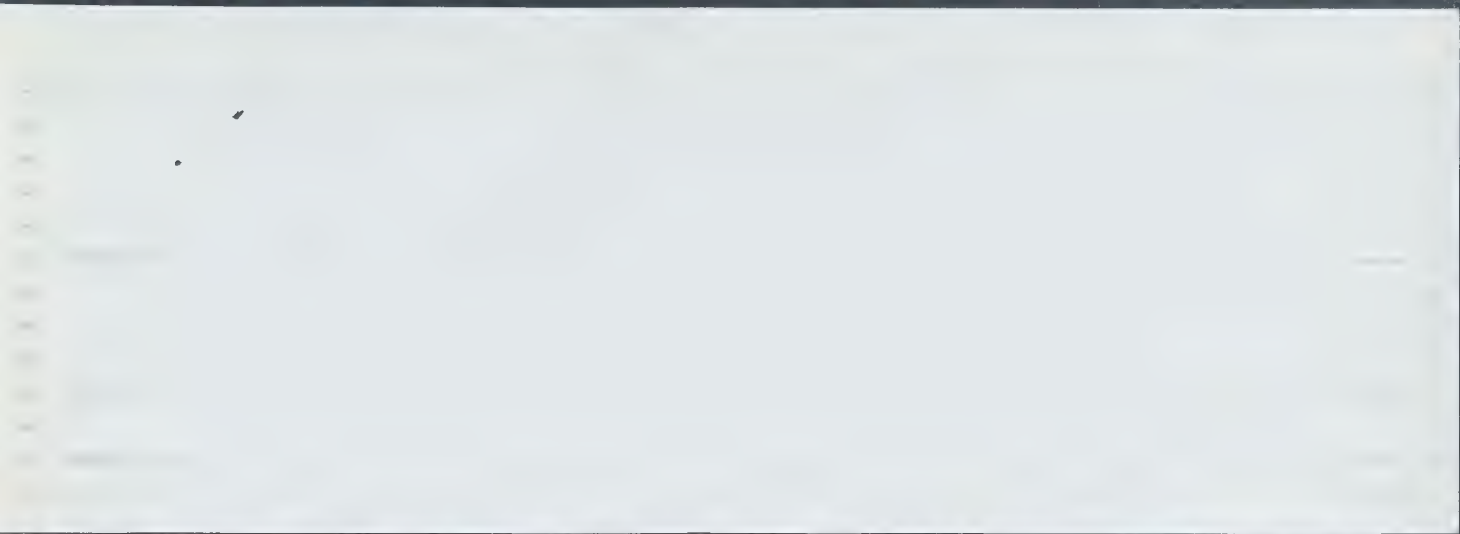

If neither of these times is convenient to Mr. Schneider, please do let me know when Mr. Schneider will be in his office, and we will try hard to adjust our schedule.

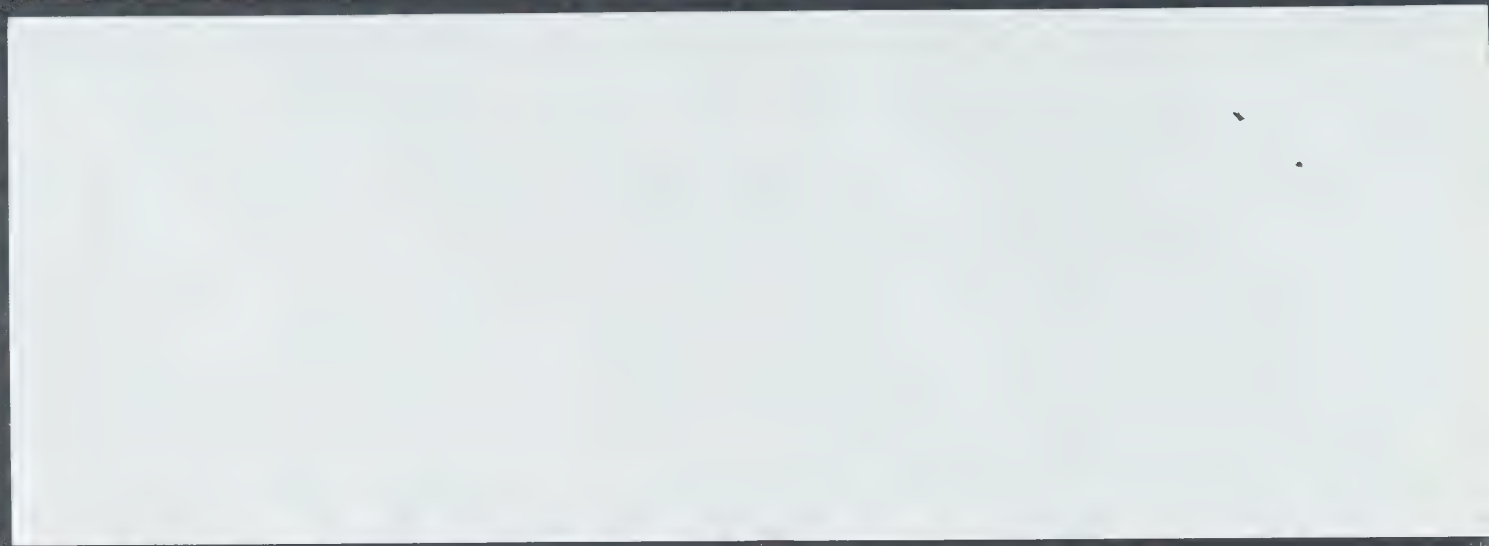

With many thanks for your help and best wishes for 1998, I remain,

Dear Dr. Bader,

Forgive my delay in replying to your letter dated November 3, 1997. As Tzivia Bieler mentioned in her letter, I have been traveling. I am also aware that you have been abroad yourself.

I would be honored if you call me Michael, and I look forward to our meeting at the end of January. When you are able to set a date, Tzivia will deal with it.

By that time we hope to have a report ready regarding the baptized Jews.

I understand that you require clarification regarding the Bulgaria situation. Perhaps I should elaborate a little on how we are viewing the situation in that country:

- A. As I mentioned in a previous letter, the general economic situation is somewhat better.
- B. That does not mean it is good. It is still difficult, particularly for the elderly and this is why you received a proposal from World Jewish Relief.
- C. We are budgeting for aid to the Jewish community over and above our regular allocations, but the increase is only half of that which we applied in 1997.

The Joint Distribution Committee receives its funds chiefly from American Jewry through the United Jewish Appeal/Federation Campaigns. The JDC also receives smaller amounts from the Central British Fund World Jewish Relief and communities in Europe.
