Dear Alfred & Isabel:

Not jalled about 2300 last night. He completely forgot about us. He will call this morning to reschedule.

Jai left a message on the machine. He received your notes and thinks obviously there is some mistake. He met Chancellor Nancy Zimpher and thinks they will be doing things together.

David Epstein called from Baird. He would like to meet with you when you return.

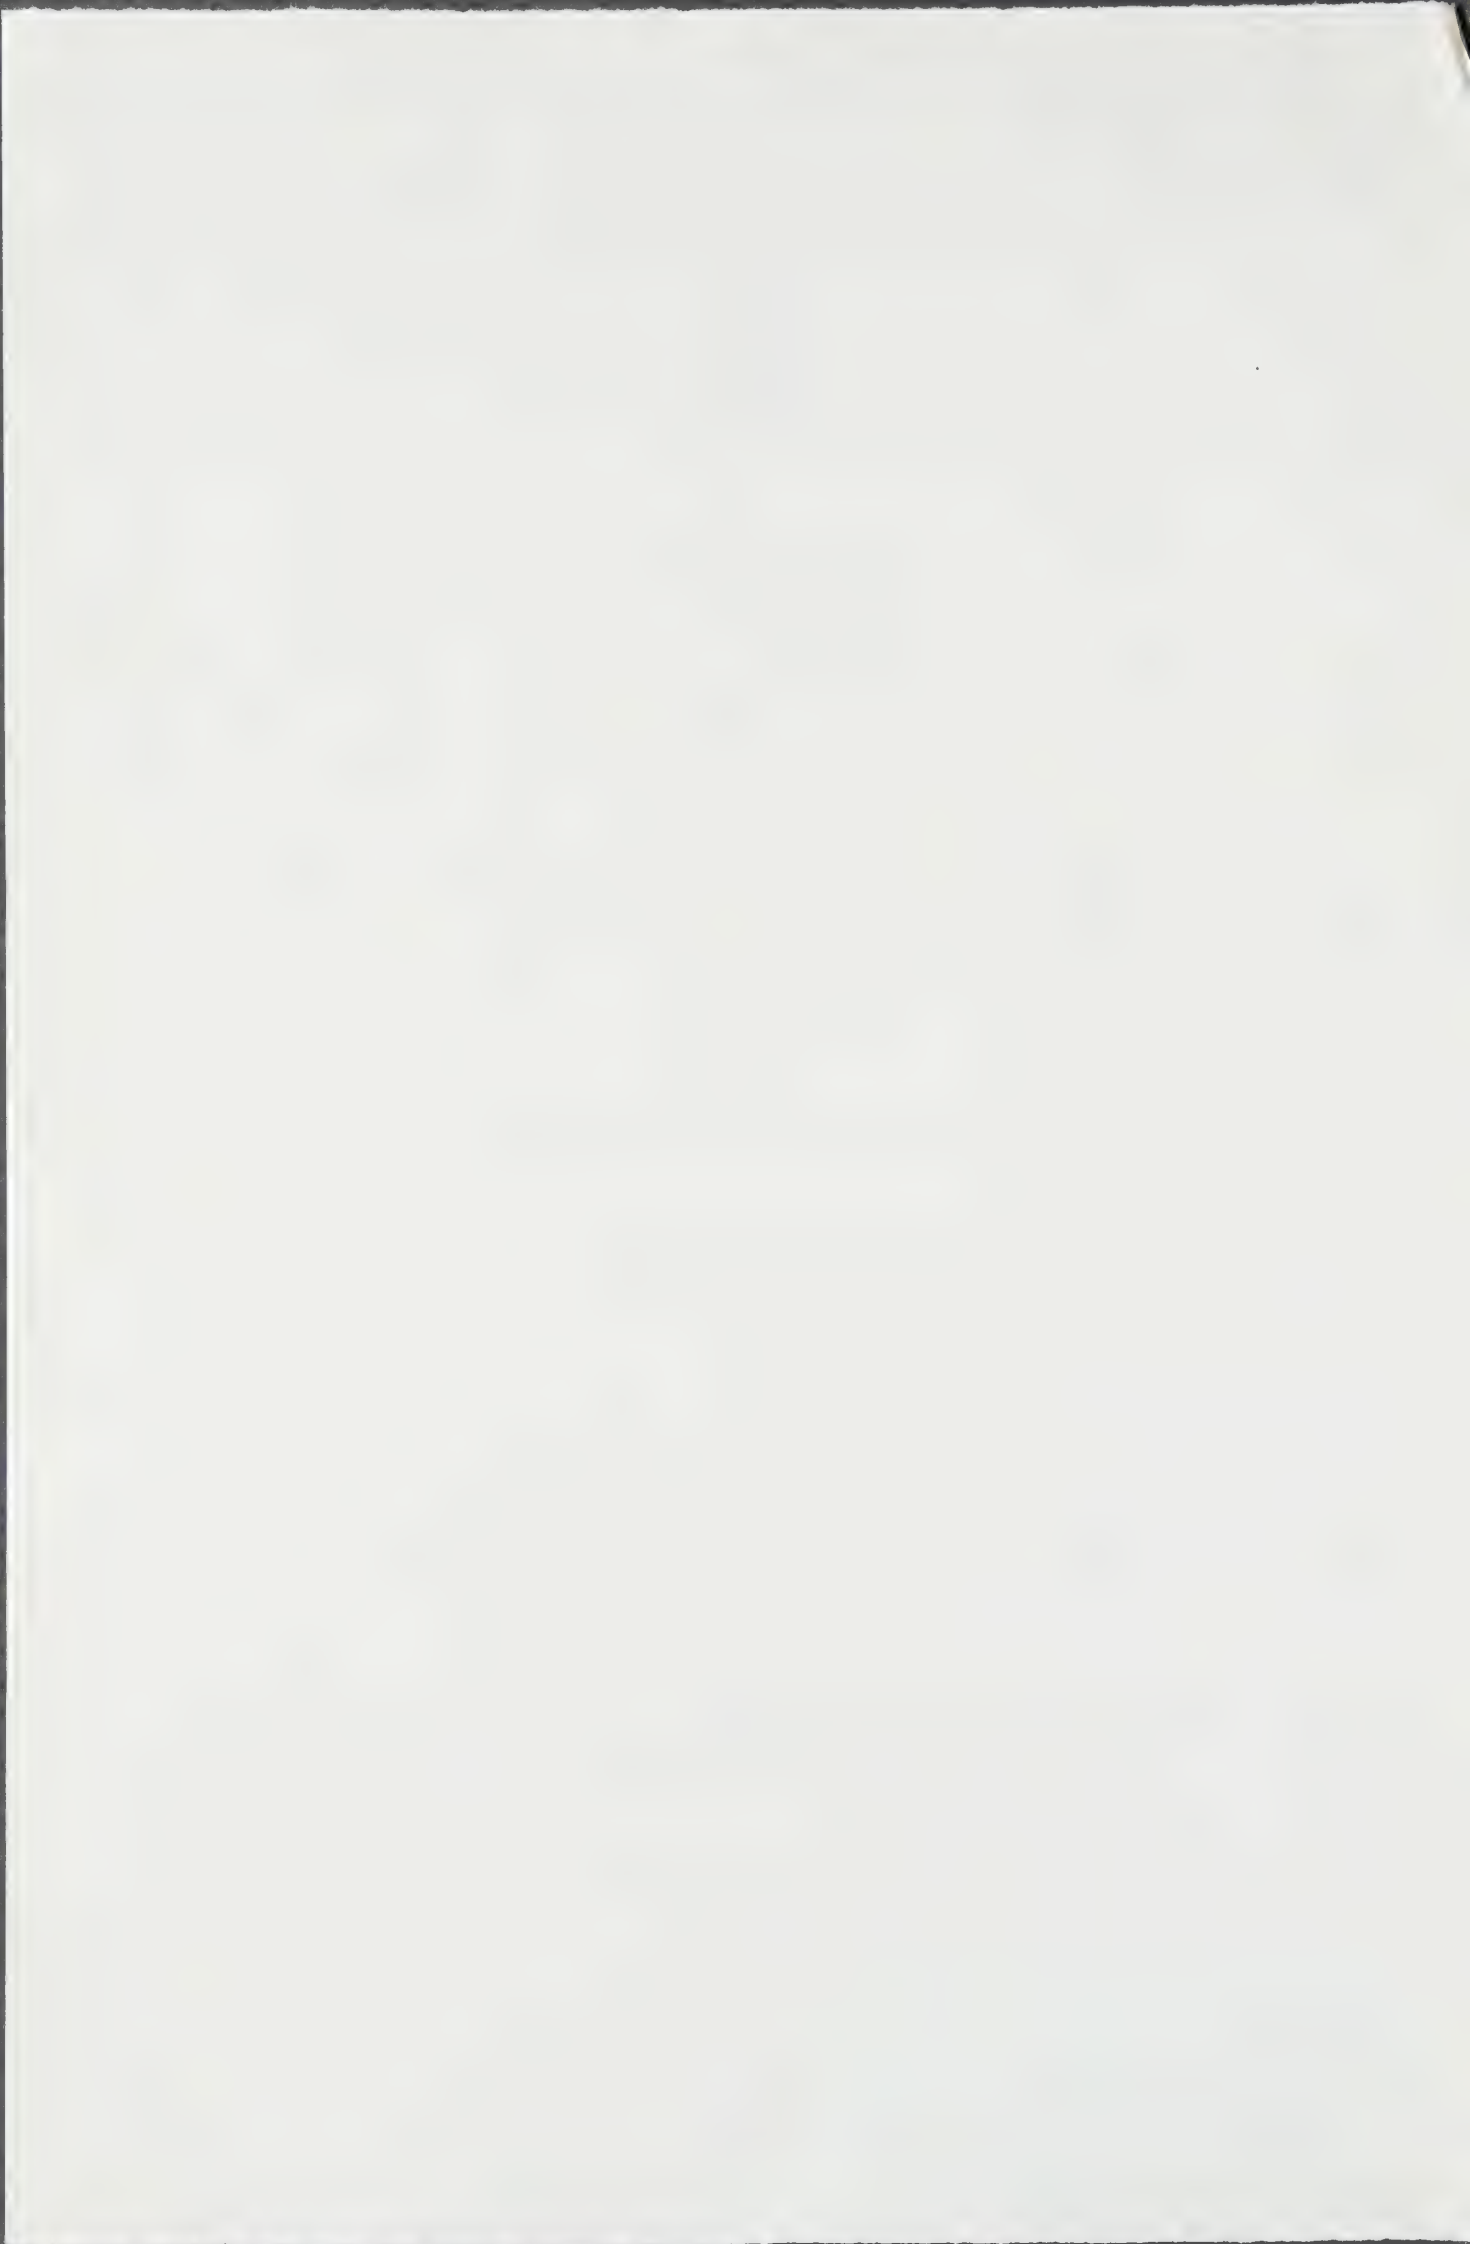

Leo Neufeld called from Albuquerque (Mora Hirsch's husband). He was disappointed with your response, but his purpose was not to have you sell any of his work, rather to present an art promoting program here in Milwaukee. You had suggested UWM to him and the video was a tape of prior presentations he has given. If you did not have a chance to view the tape he will be happy to send it back.

Another response is attached from Madeline Jacobs (found today). Also comes from Mrs. Ulliyot - she sent me their address and I mailed them our letter and the C&E's responses. Copies of response sent also to Drs. Eliel and Brown as you requested. Shall we keep Dr. Runquist informed too?

Bill for John Lerch and letter to Dr. Herman attached.

Did you forget anything I can send you?

Enjoy your visit!

Dear Ms. Hay:

I was delighted to learn from Otto Naumann that you have just received the export permit for Lot 24.

In your sale on April 7, 1995, I bought Lot 61 and as I was leaving the painting with Clovis Whitfield I paid the full amount, including the VAT.

The painting was sold to the United States and I plan to obtain the VAT of £1312.50 refunded.

But I understand that there is some export problem. Could you please fax me the details.

Thank you for your help and best regards.

Sincerely,

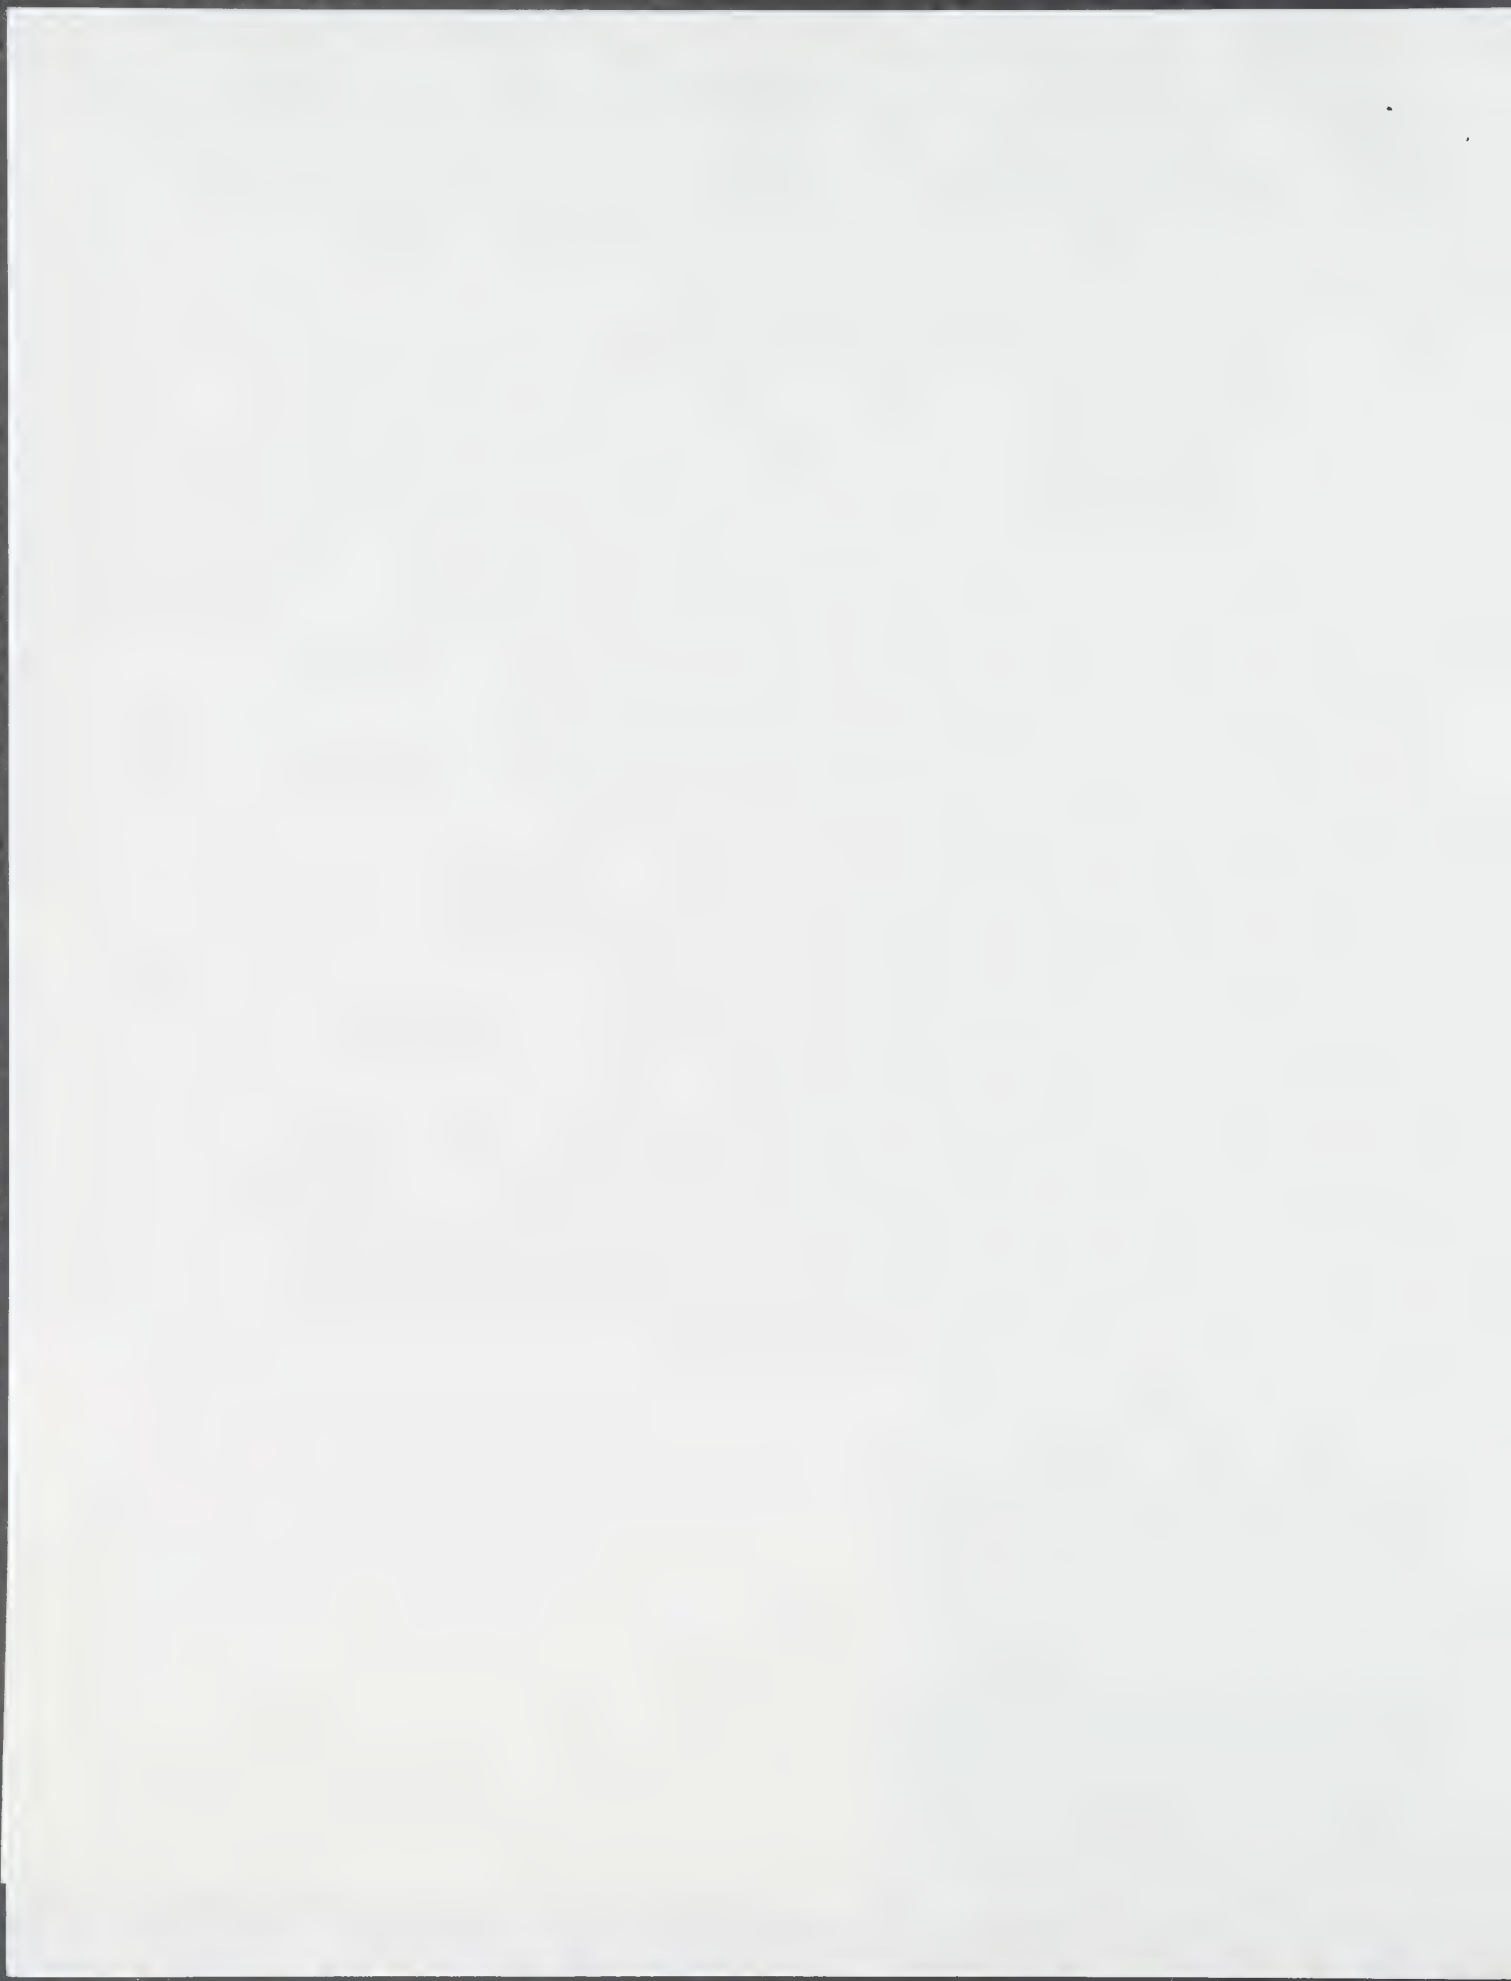

AB/nik

FAX #: 011 44 01424 22 22 23

Welcome back!

Isabel, Deborah needs a check for $500 so she can pay window cleaners, gardener and get some supplies by the middle of the month.

Alfred, here are your 2nd quarter and year to date statements. Inventory on new program is still off (but I will fix it before I go). The correct amount on our old system is inked in. Joan came in yesterday and we added car depreciation (1/3 each year for 3 years per Steve) and changed payroll so that it's absolutely correct now.

Please call Dr. Katz, he needs to discuss some urgent matters and some good news with both of you.

Here is also a copy of a FEDEX bill that almost killed me. Our instructions to Otto to send the frames were to use our account and send them non-priority. Then I called Meli to see when they had been shipped and her shipper hadn't sent them yet. Again I reminded her to send them non-priority. Now we were billed for overnight delivery! Alfred, I think this needs to be discussed with Otto when you see him. To make matters worse, this is the crate we sent back to him! I hope you can reach some type of agreement on this. I will not pay the bill until next week - I have FEDEX looking into their pick up instructions from NY to see if 2 day or non-priority shipping was specified.

A gentleman called and came in to the office yesterday. He sent photos of his painting to Christie's NY who identified the artist as Andre Solario (1460-1522). It is an oil on wood approx. 10 x 13 Ecce Homo. Photocopy attached. I thought you might wish to discuss with Clovis. He wants to sell it at a "fair price" and he knows you will not respond to him until August.

Oscar Denes has a Correggio for sale – photocopy attached also.

Phillips has invited you to their private preview breakfast on Sunday, July 4th from 11-12. Or you can stop in on Monday from 9-6. Everyone you know has invited you to “On view in St. James’s” on Tuesday, July 6th, from 5-9pm.

Photocopies of Sotheby’s three offerings are attached.

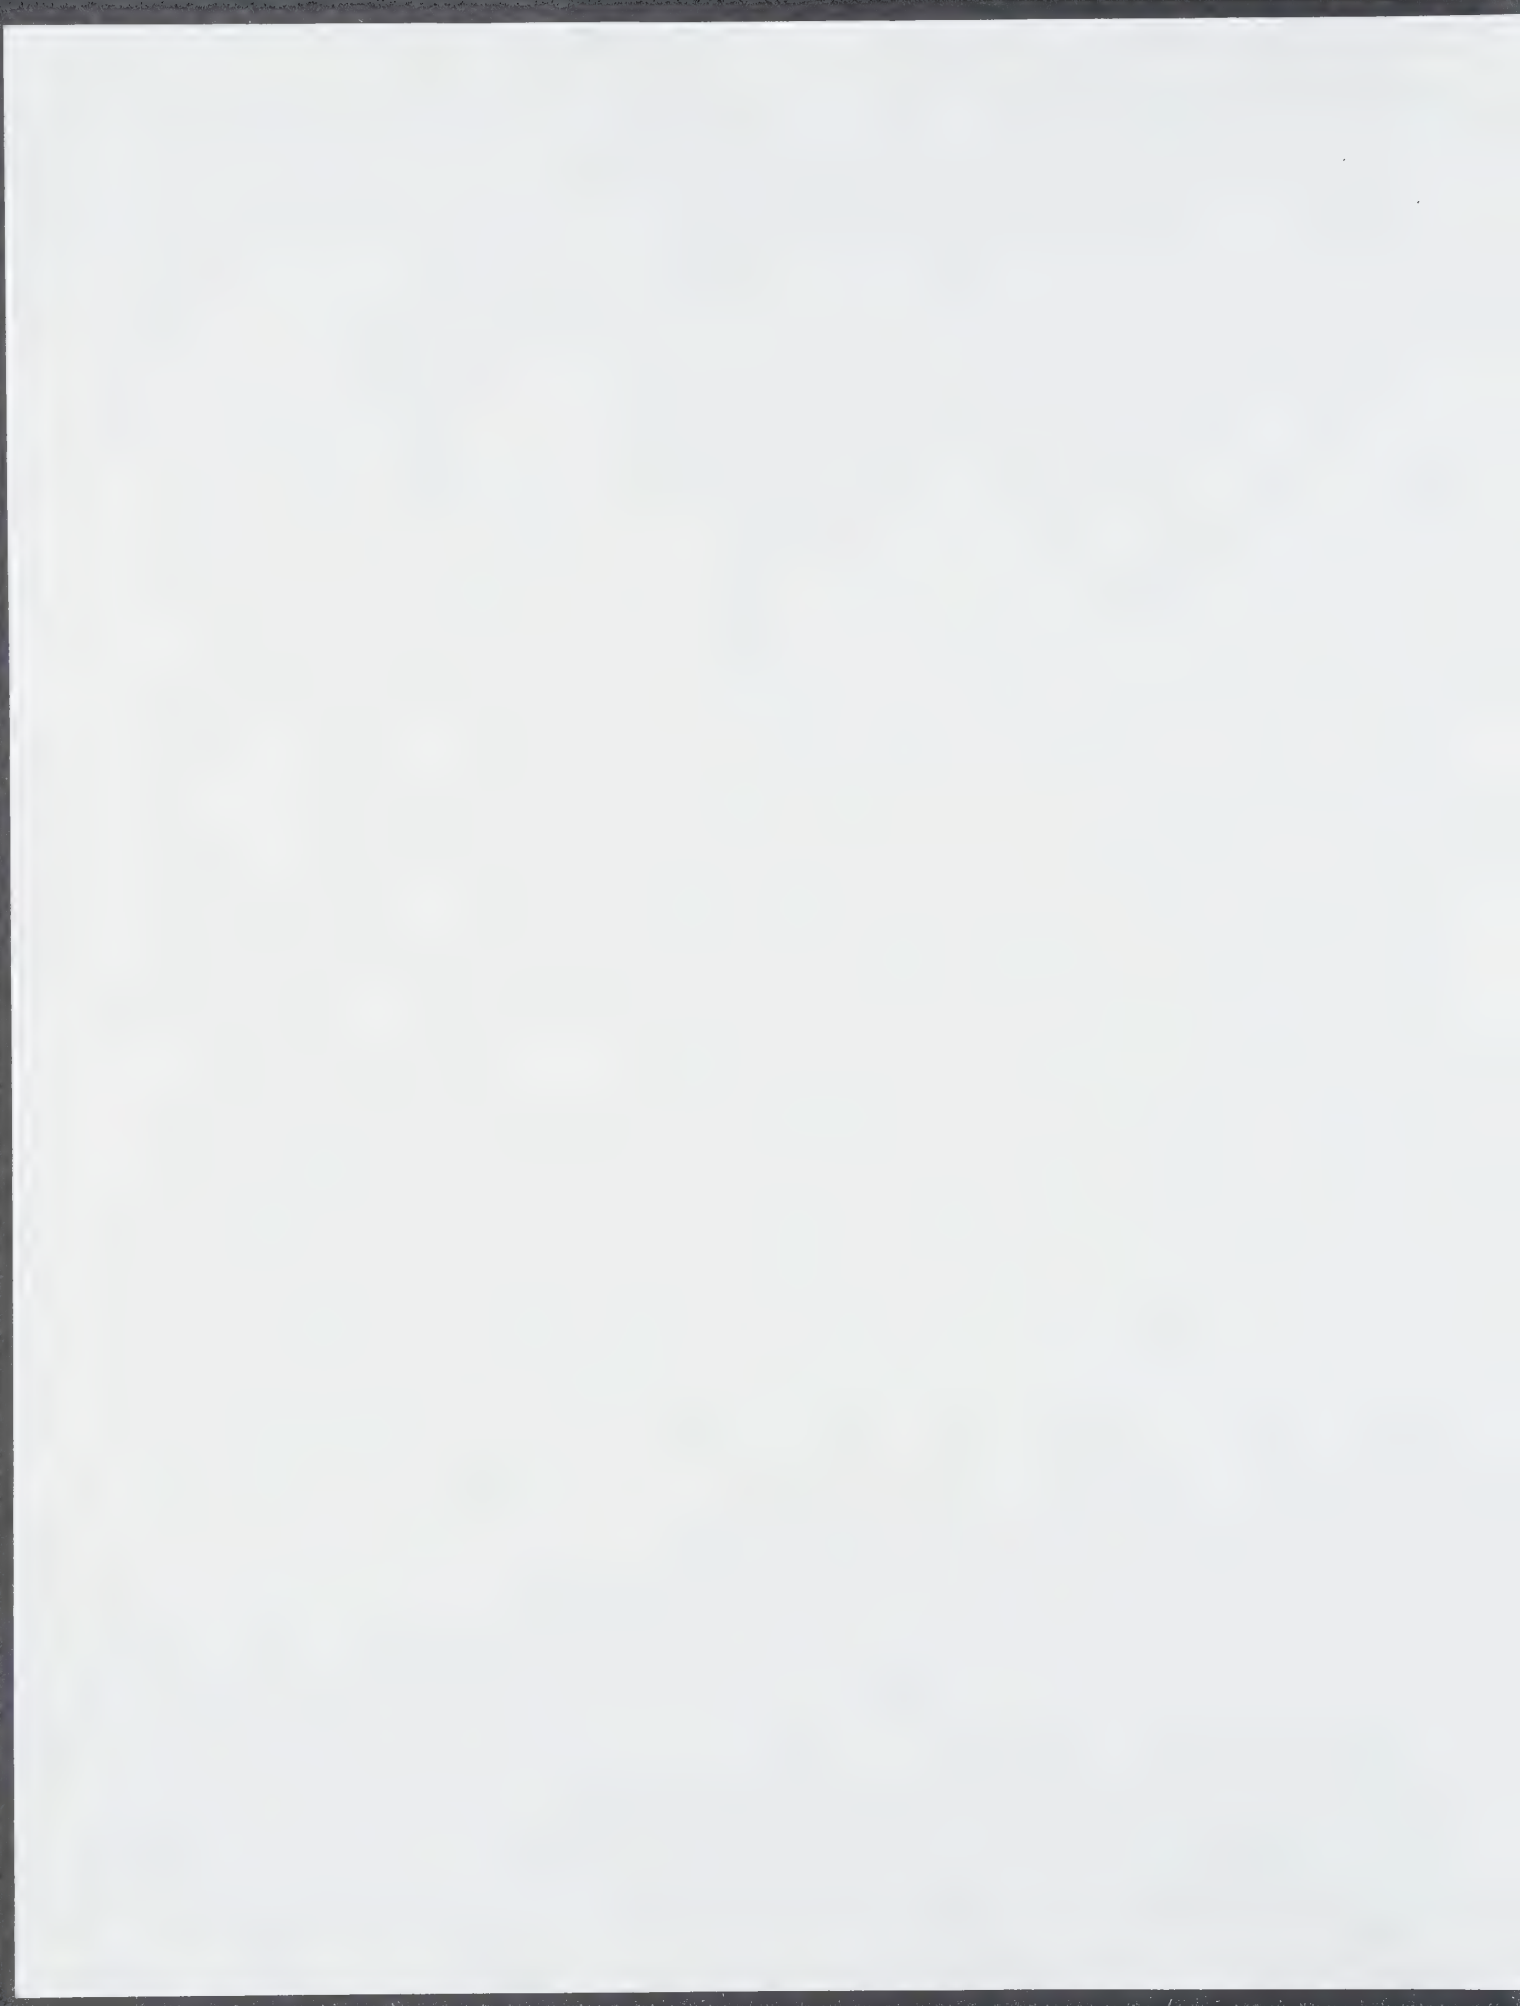

All of this (except the FEDEX bill) is in a Global Priority Mail package I am getting off to you today.

Enjoy your stay – I will call you Friday, July 10, at 3 pm as we agreed.

Best wishes as always,

Ann

Gottfried (Sir Godfrey) Kneller
Lübeck 1646 - 1723 London

A SCHOLAR IN HIS STUDY WITH BOOKS AND A GLOBE

oil on canvas
124 by 98 cm.; 48¾ by 38½ in.

This picture was first recognised as by Kneller by Michael Voggenauer. As Werner Sumowski observes (see Literature), it belongs to a series of paintings of similar subjects, of which one work, in Lübeck, St. Annen-Museum, is dated 1668 (op. cit., vol III, pp. 1486-7, nos. 972-4a, reproduced pp. 1494-7).

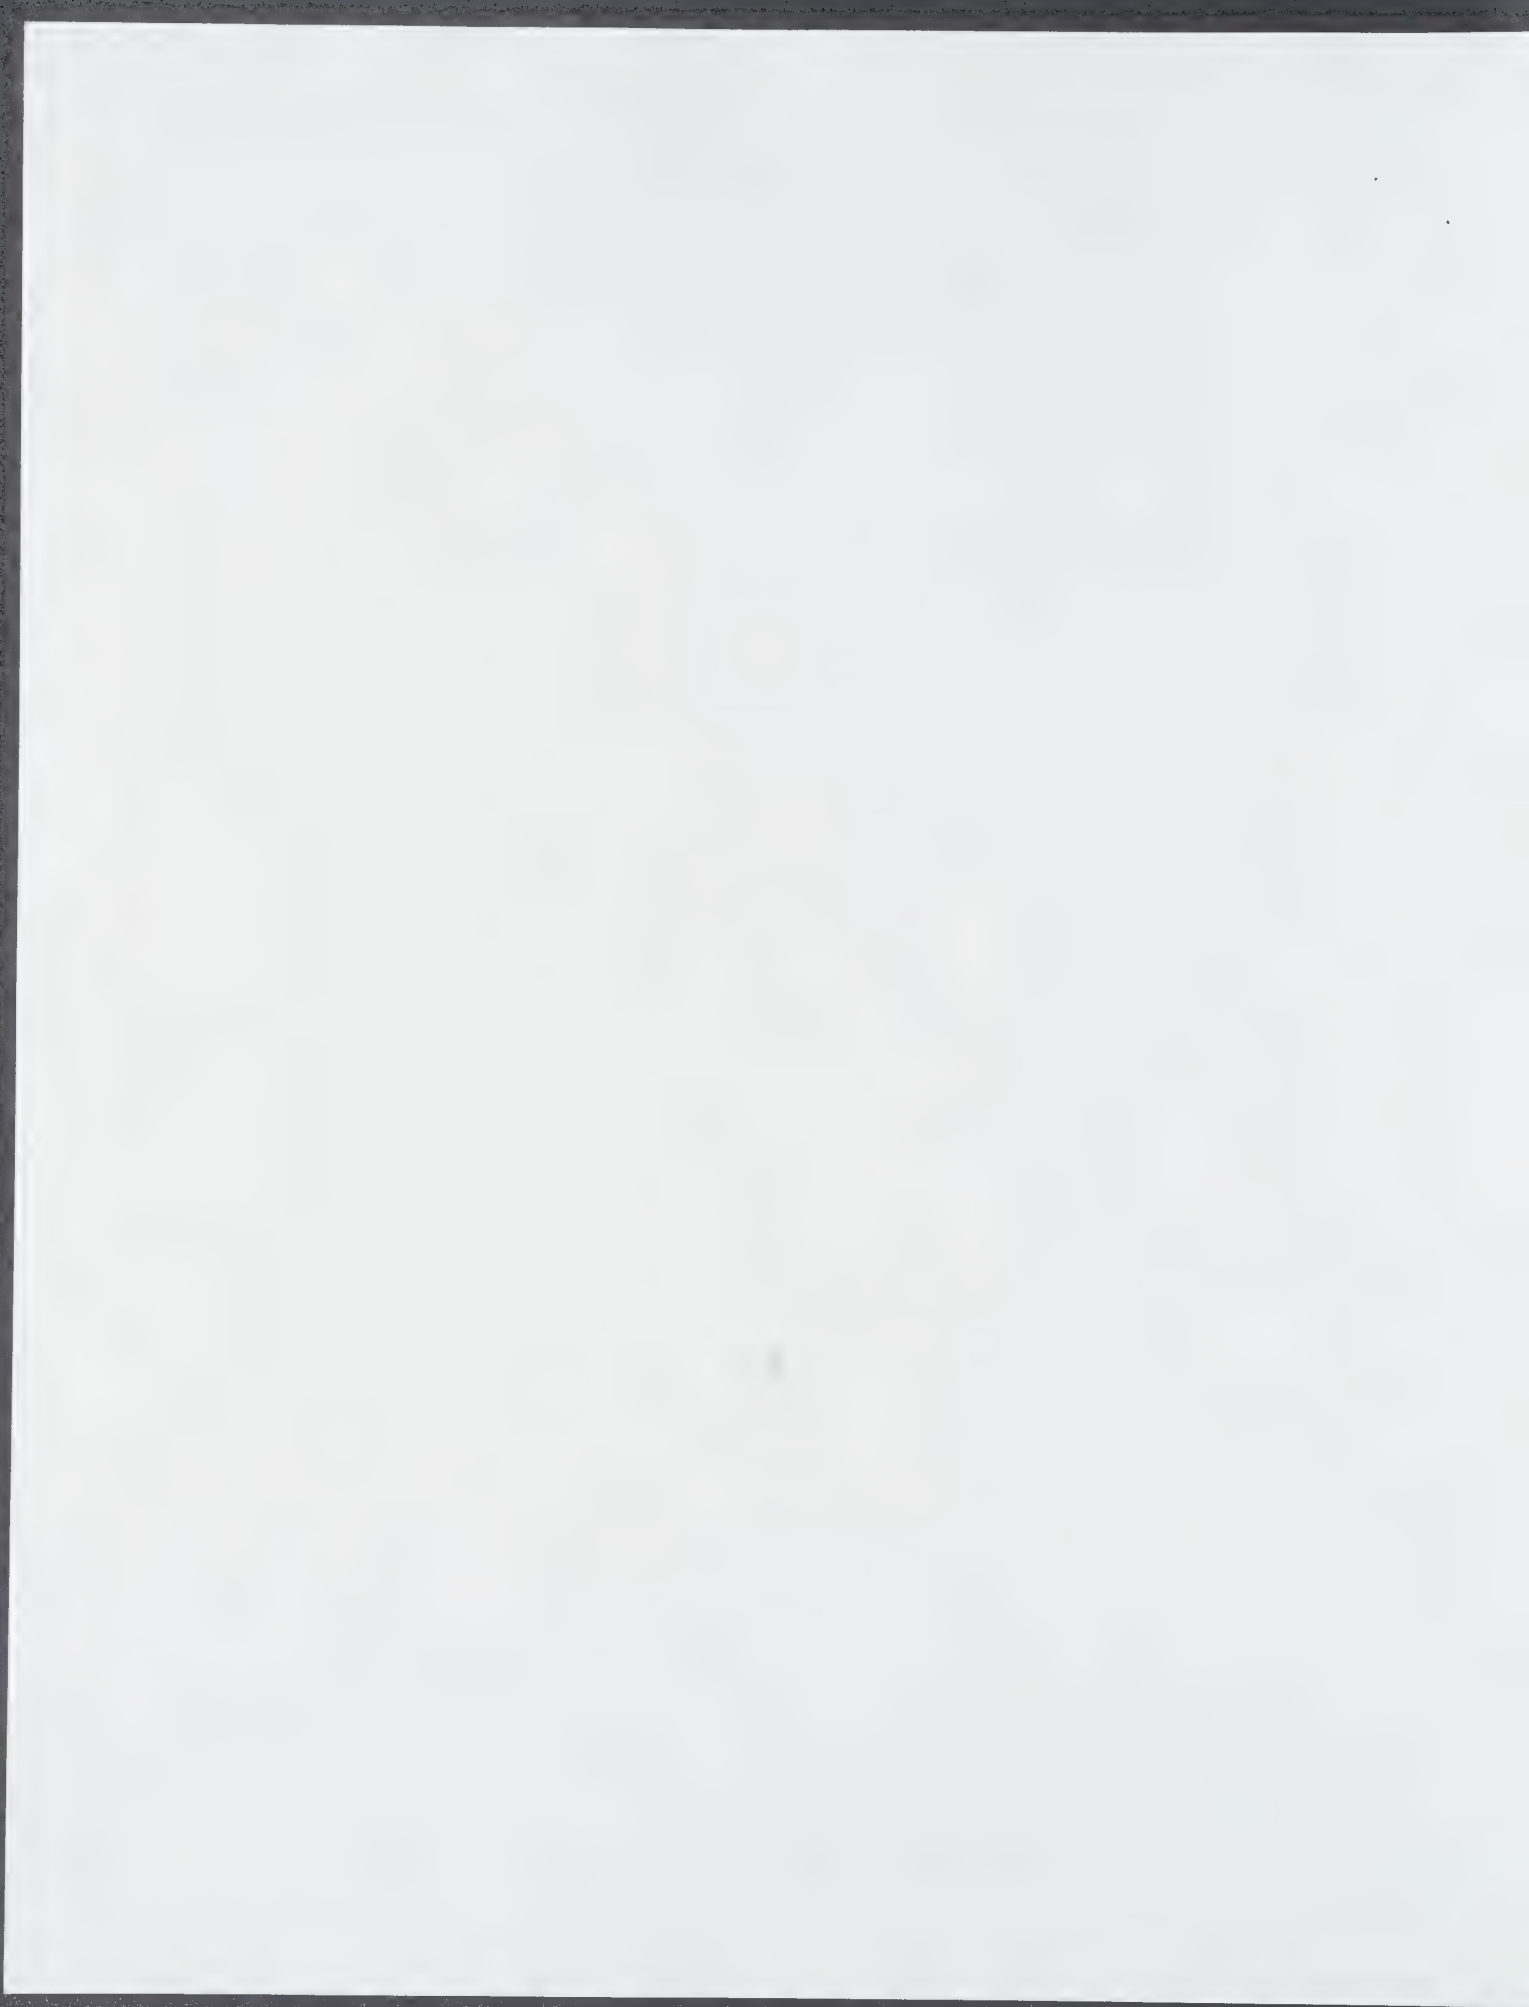

Provenance:

Sir William Wellesley Knighton Bt., Blendworth Lodge, Hants.;
His deceased sale, London, Christie's, 21-23 May 1885, lot 470, to Lesser (as Gerbrand van den Eeckhout);
Private collection, Germany.

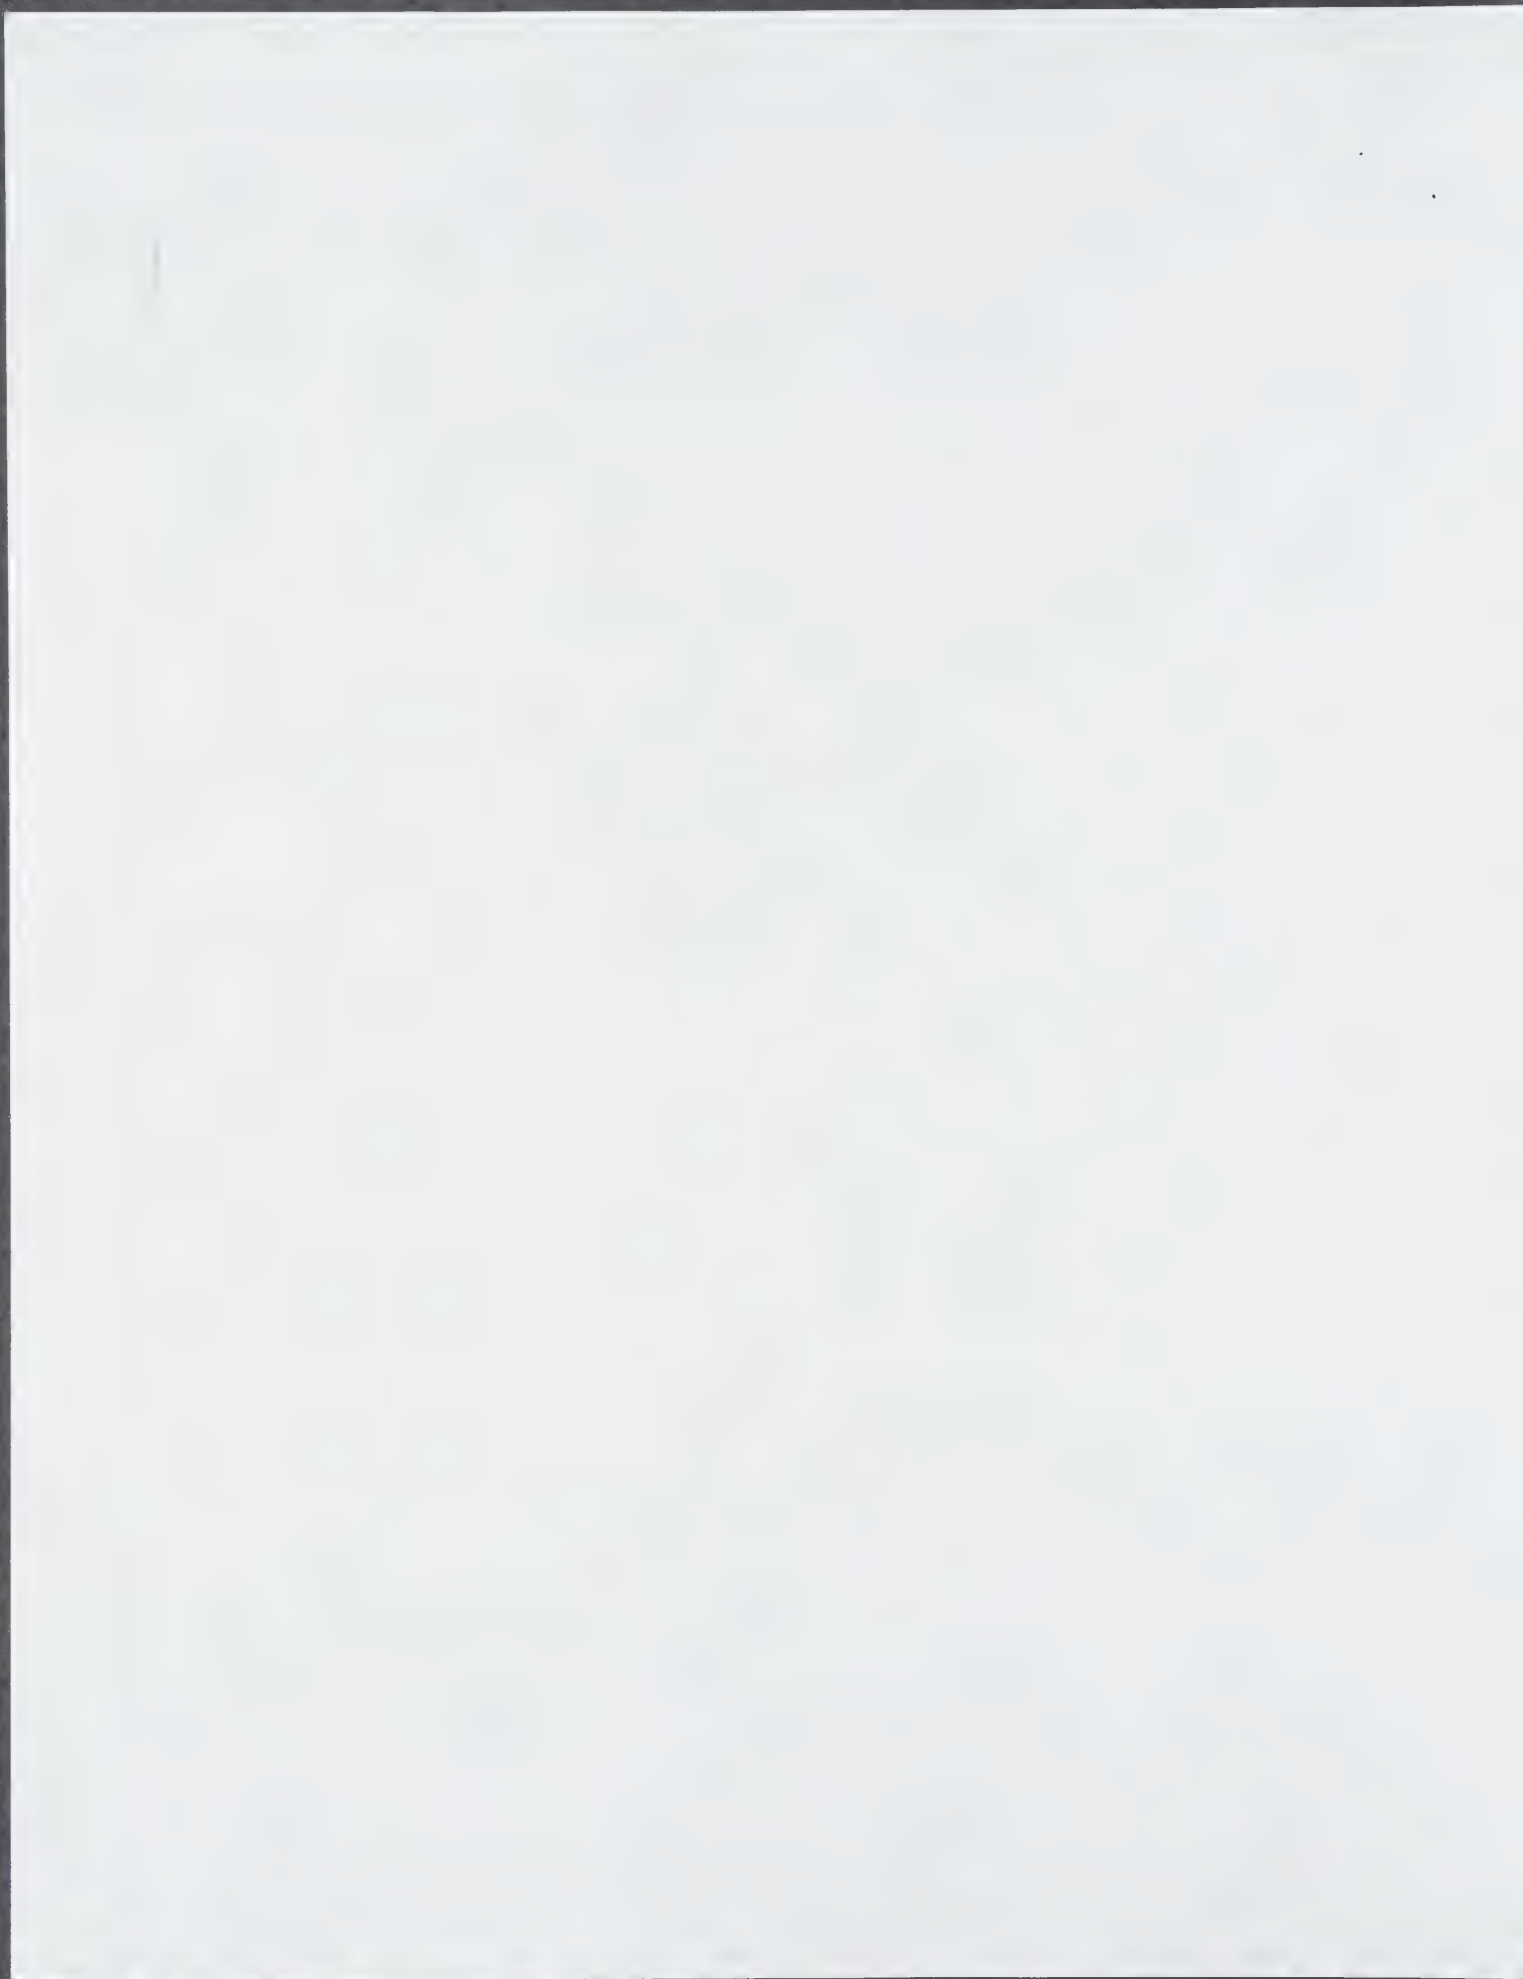

Literature:

W. Sumowski, Gemälde der Rembrandt-Schüler, Landau/Pfalz 1983, vol. VI, p. 3721, no. 2333a, reproduced p. 3934.

PORTRAIT OF A GENTLEMAN, HALF LENGTH, DRAPED IN A RED CLOAK

oil on canvas

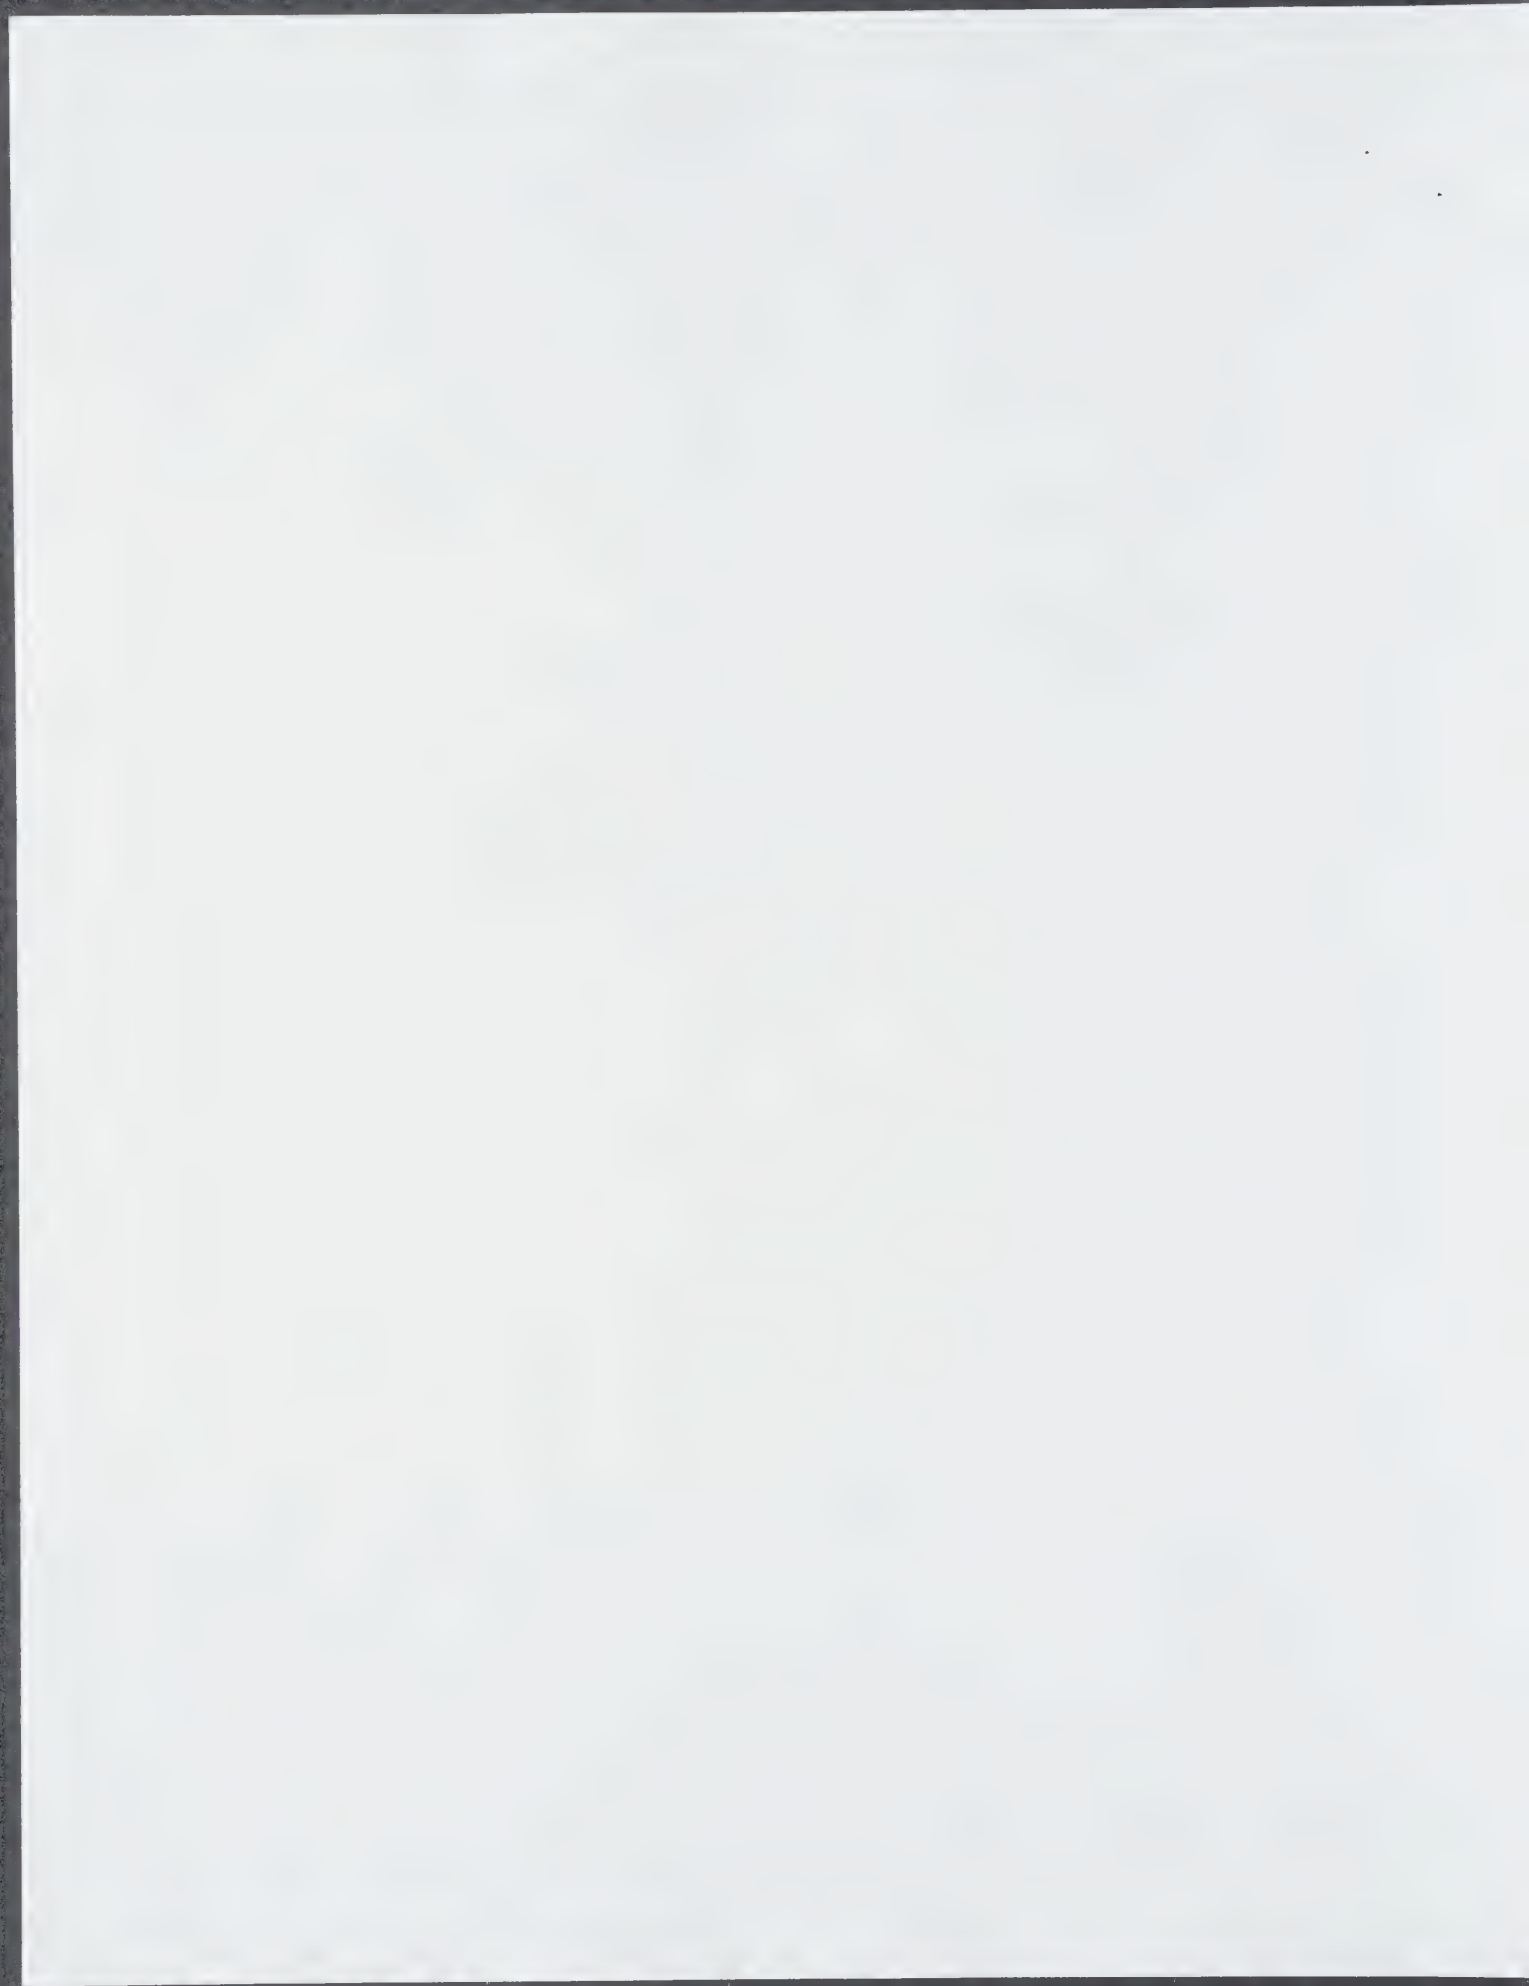

110.8 by 91.8 cm.; 43½ by 36 in.

Professor Sumowski dates this portrait to the late 1650s by comparison with Ovens' signed Portrait of Johan Bernard Schaep in the Historisch Museum, Amsterdam (see W. Sumowski, under Literature, vol. III, p. 2234, no. 1538).

Literature:

W. Sumowski, Gemälde der Rembrandt Schüler, Landau/Pfalz 1983, vol. VI, p. 3738, no. 2411, reproduced p. 4029, plate 2411 (as by Ovens).

Property from a Private Collection

Barend Fabritius

Midden-Beemster 1624 - 1673 Amsterdam

SELF-PORTRAIT AS SAINT JOHN THE EVANGELIST

oil on canvas

99 by 83 cm.; 39 by 32¾ in.

This picture, which bore attributions to other Rembrandt pupils: Nicolaes Maes and Abraham van Dijck; until recognised as a Fabritius by Werner Sumowski in 1973, derives from Fabritius' drawn self-portrait of circa 1650 in Darmstadt, Hessisches Landesmuseum (inv. AE 671, pen and brown ink and wash heightened with white, 147 by 109 mm.), where he also portrays himself standing in a somewhat hieratic pose, facing the viewer, and wearing a long belted smock. His distinctive features may also be easily recognised in painted self-portraits of (inter alia) 1650 in Frankfurt, Städelsches Kunstinstitut, 1660 in Vienna, Gemäldegalerie der Akademie der bildenden Künste (inv. 639), and 1666 in Aachen, Suermondt-Museum (see Sumowski, 1983, under Literature, pp. 926, 923-4, nos. 598, 586, 589, reproduced pp. 976, 965, 967). The present self-portrait dates from around 1660.

The eagle, attribute of the Evangelist Saint John, is seen as a painted relief in the right background.

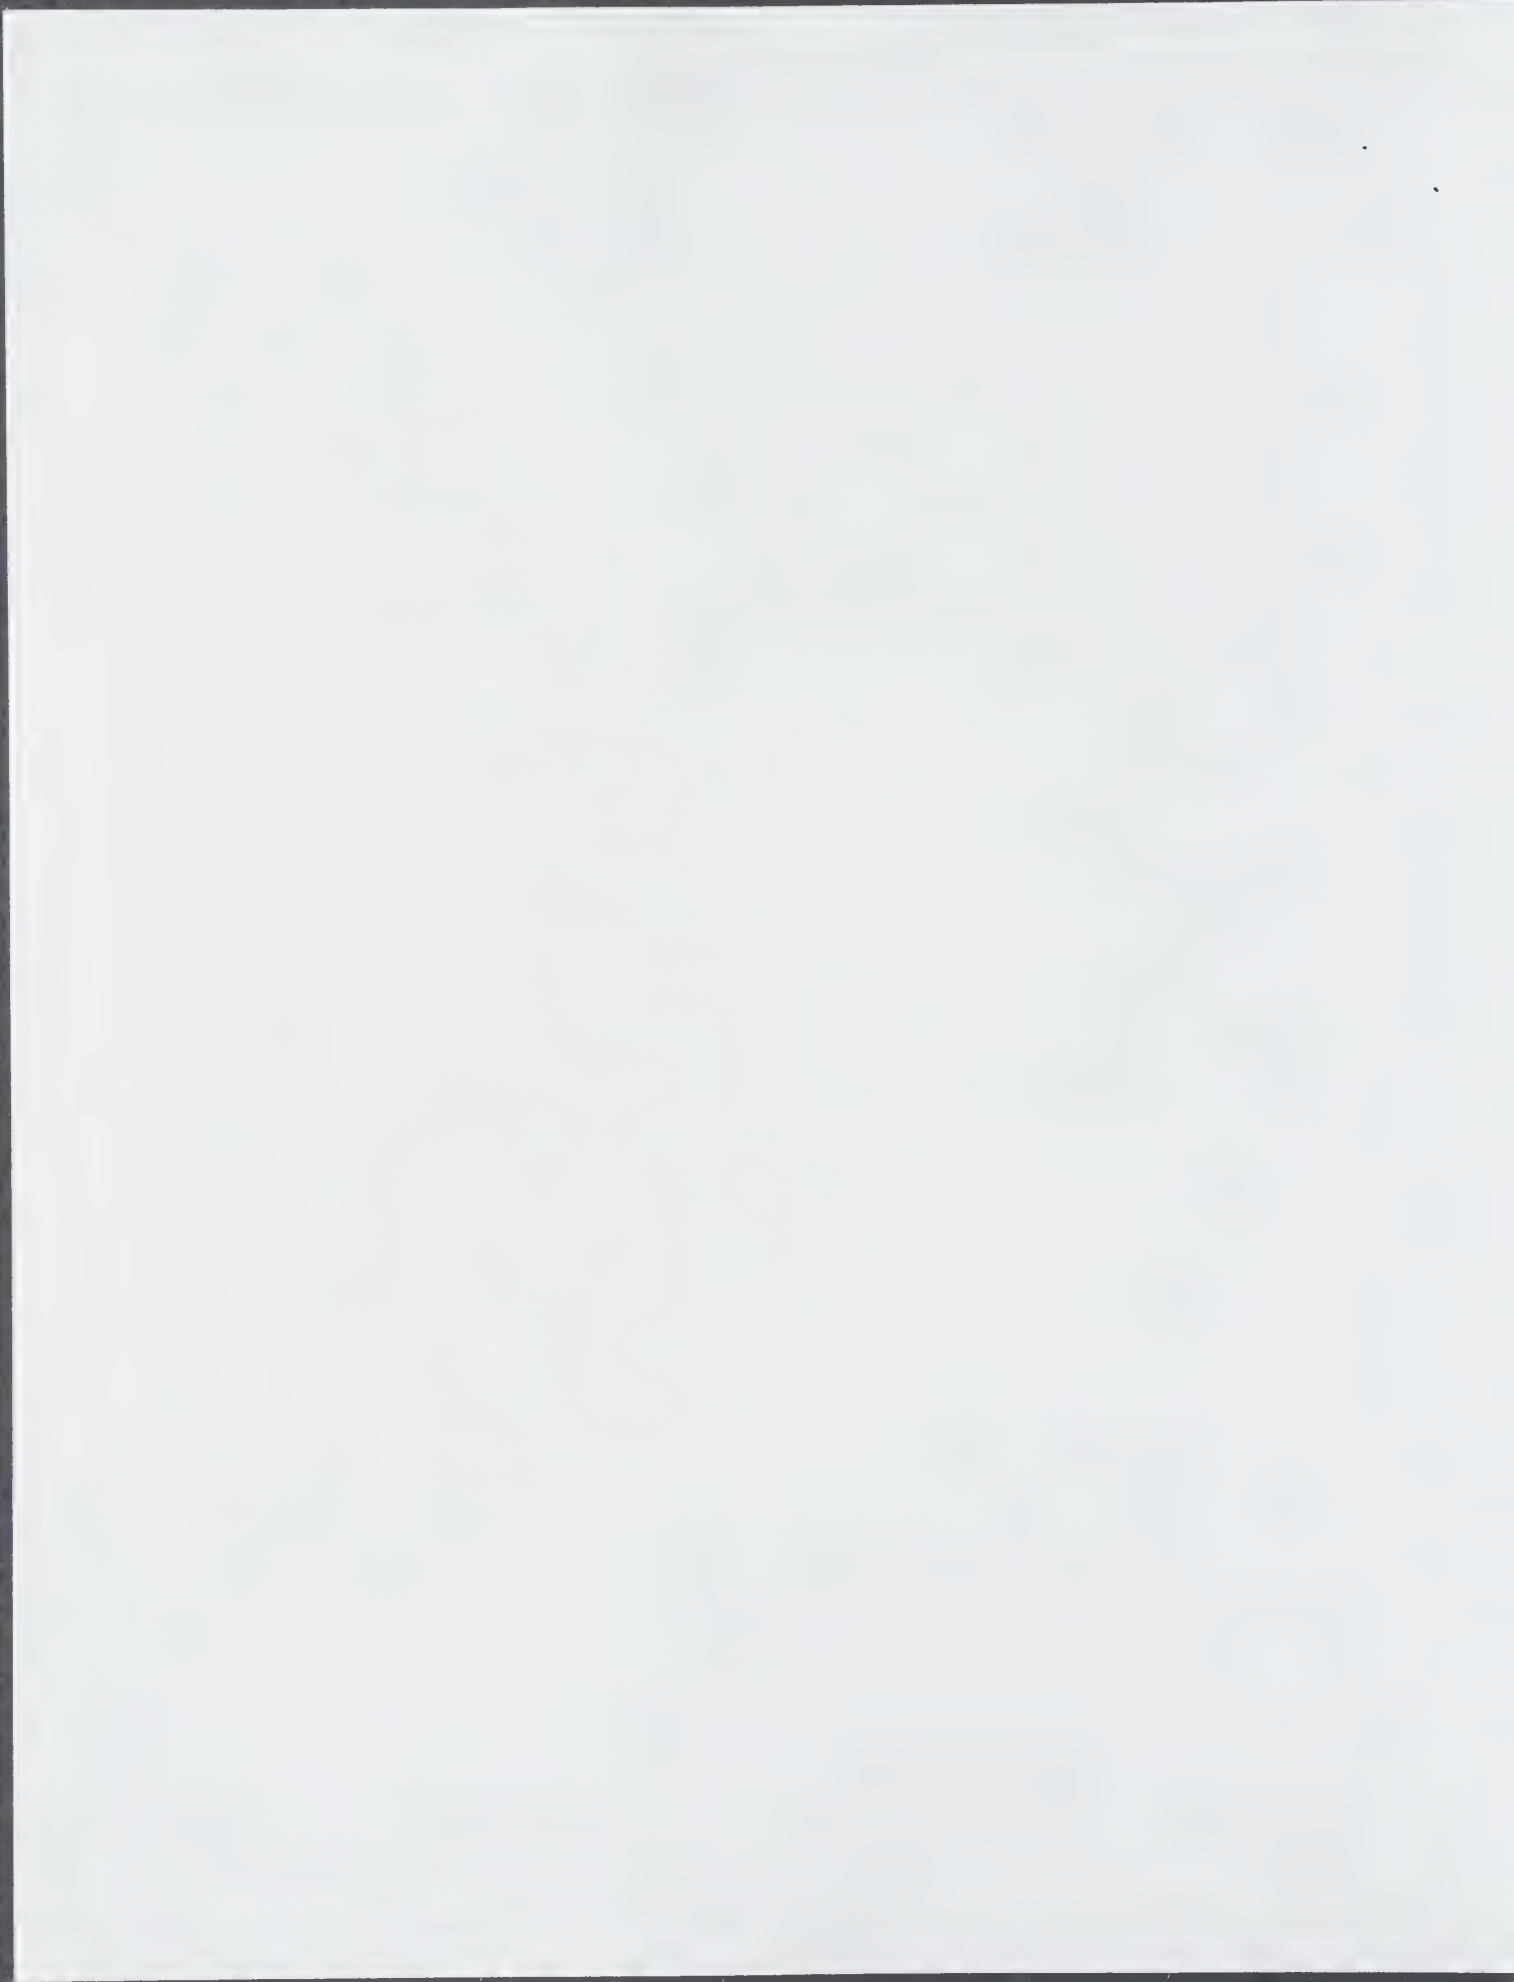

Provenance:

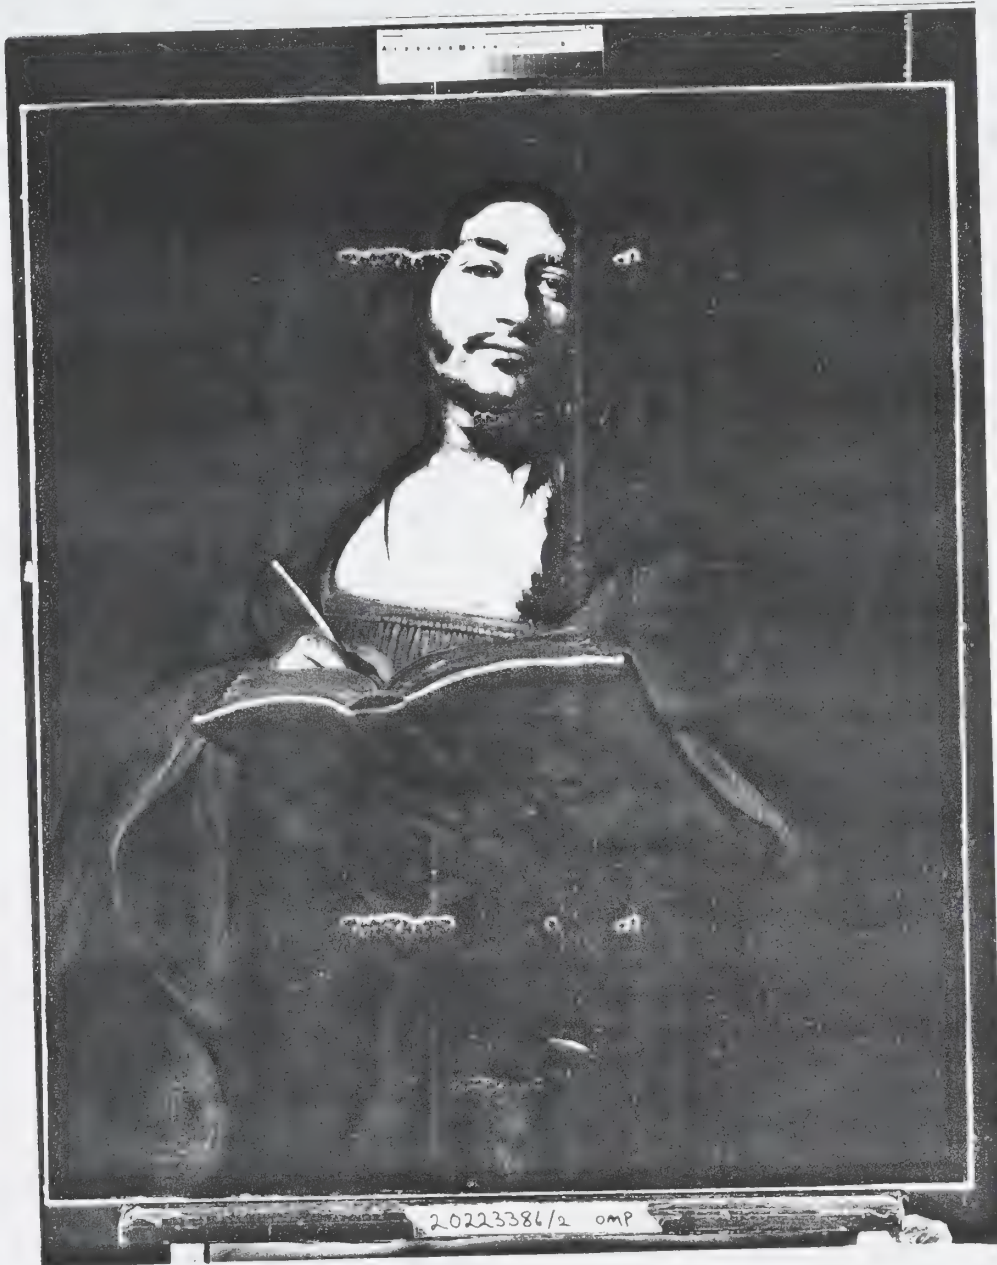

Acquired by the family of the present owner in 1970;
Thence by descent.

Literature:

Dear Alfred,

Diana Katz has been trying frantically to reach you, so I faxed her Dr. Matous' fax numbers. Expect to hear from her today.

Pavel Blatny faxed us his new home phone number this morning! It is (02) 222 203 08, the studio number is 65 18 667. He expects you to call Saturday or Sunday.

Call Dr. Korsten as soon as you can. He called Wednesday.

Lee Howard's wife, Patsy, died on Tuesday. She is being buried today. I left you a message at the Hotel Vienna on Wednesday but have no way of knowing if you ever received it.

George Mort has made good on the one day's interest. Problem was on M&I's end, so $204.43 has been added to your M&I personal account.

Sotheby's George Gordon has sent you some black/white photographs and transparencies of of a Kneller (scholar with globe), an Ovens (half length gentleman in a red cloak), and a Barend Fabritius (self portrait as John the Evangelist). I am mailing these to Bexhill today. Their auction is Wednesday, July 8th.

Everest now has offered $23,000 per unit for Chestnut Hill and extended their offer to June 30th. Interested?

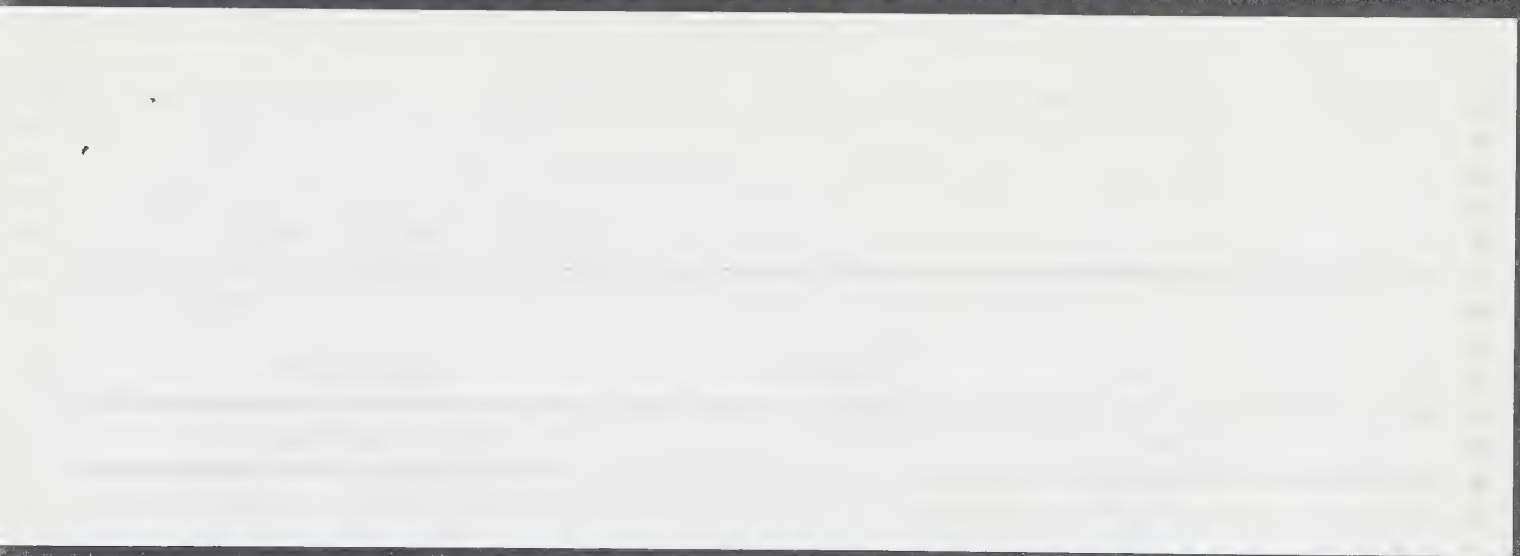

The University of Sussex poster contest: Wiley, the publishers have offered a cash prize. Now they will be awarding two prizes, one for the best British and one for the best German if you are agreeable.

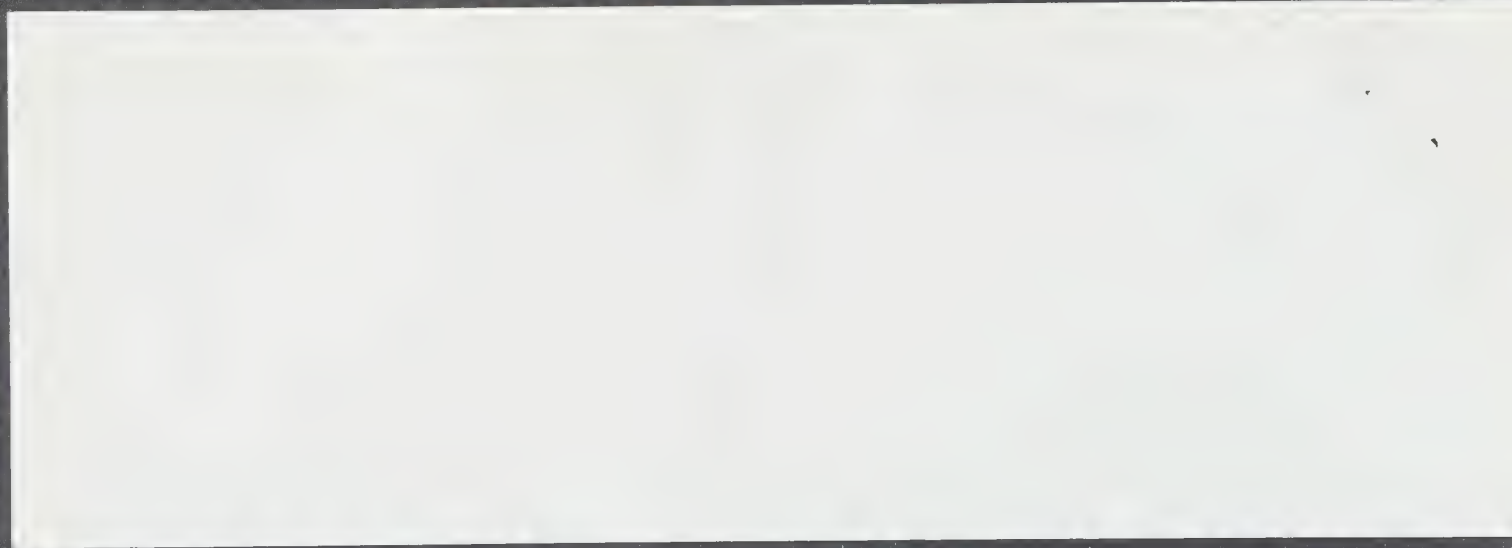

Regards as always,

Ann

Hello, you two,

M & I called earlier to tell me Barclay's received the funds transfer today. Is this a banker's game where one of them gets interest on your money for a day? I just don't understand the delay.

Have been working on entering the balance of the inventory on new system. Will be done soon. Do we want sales to John Lerch in 2nd quarter? How about Unkel?

I'm happy Clovis came through and that you had fun in London.

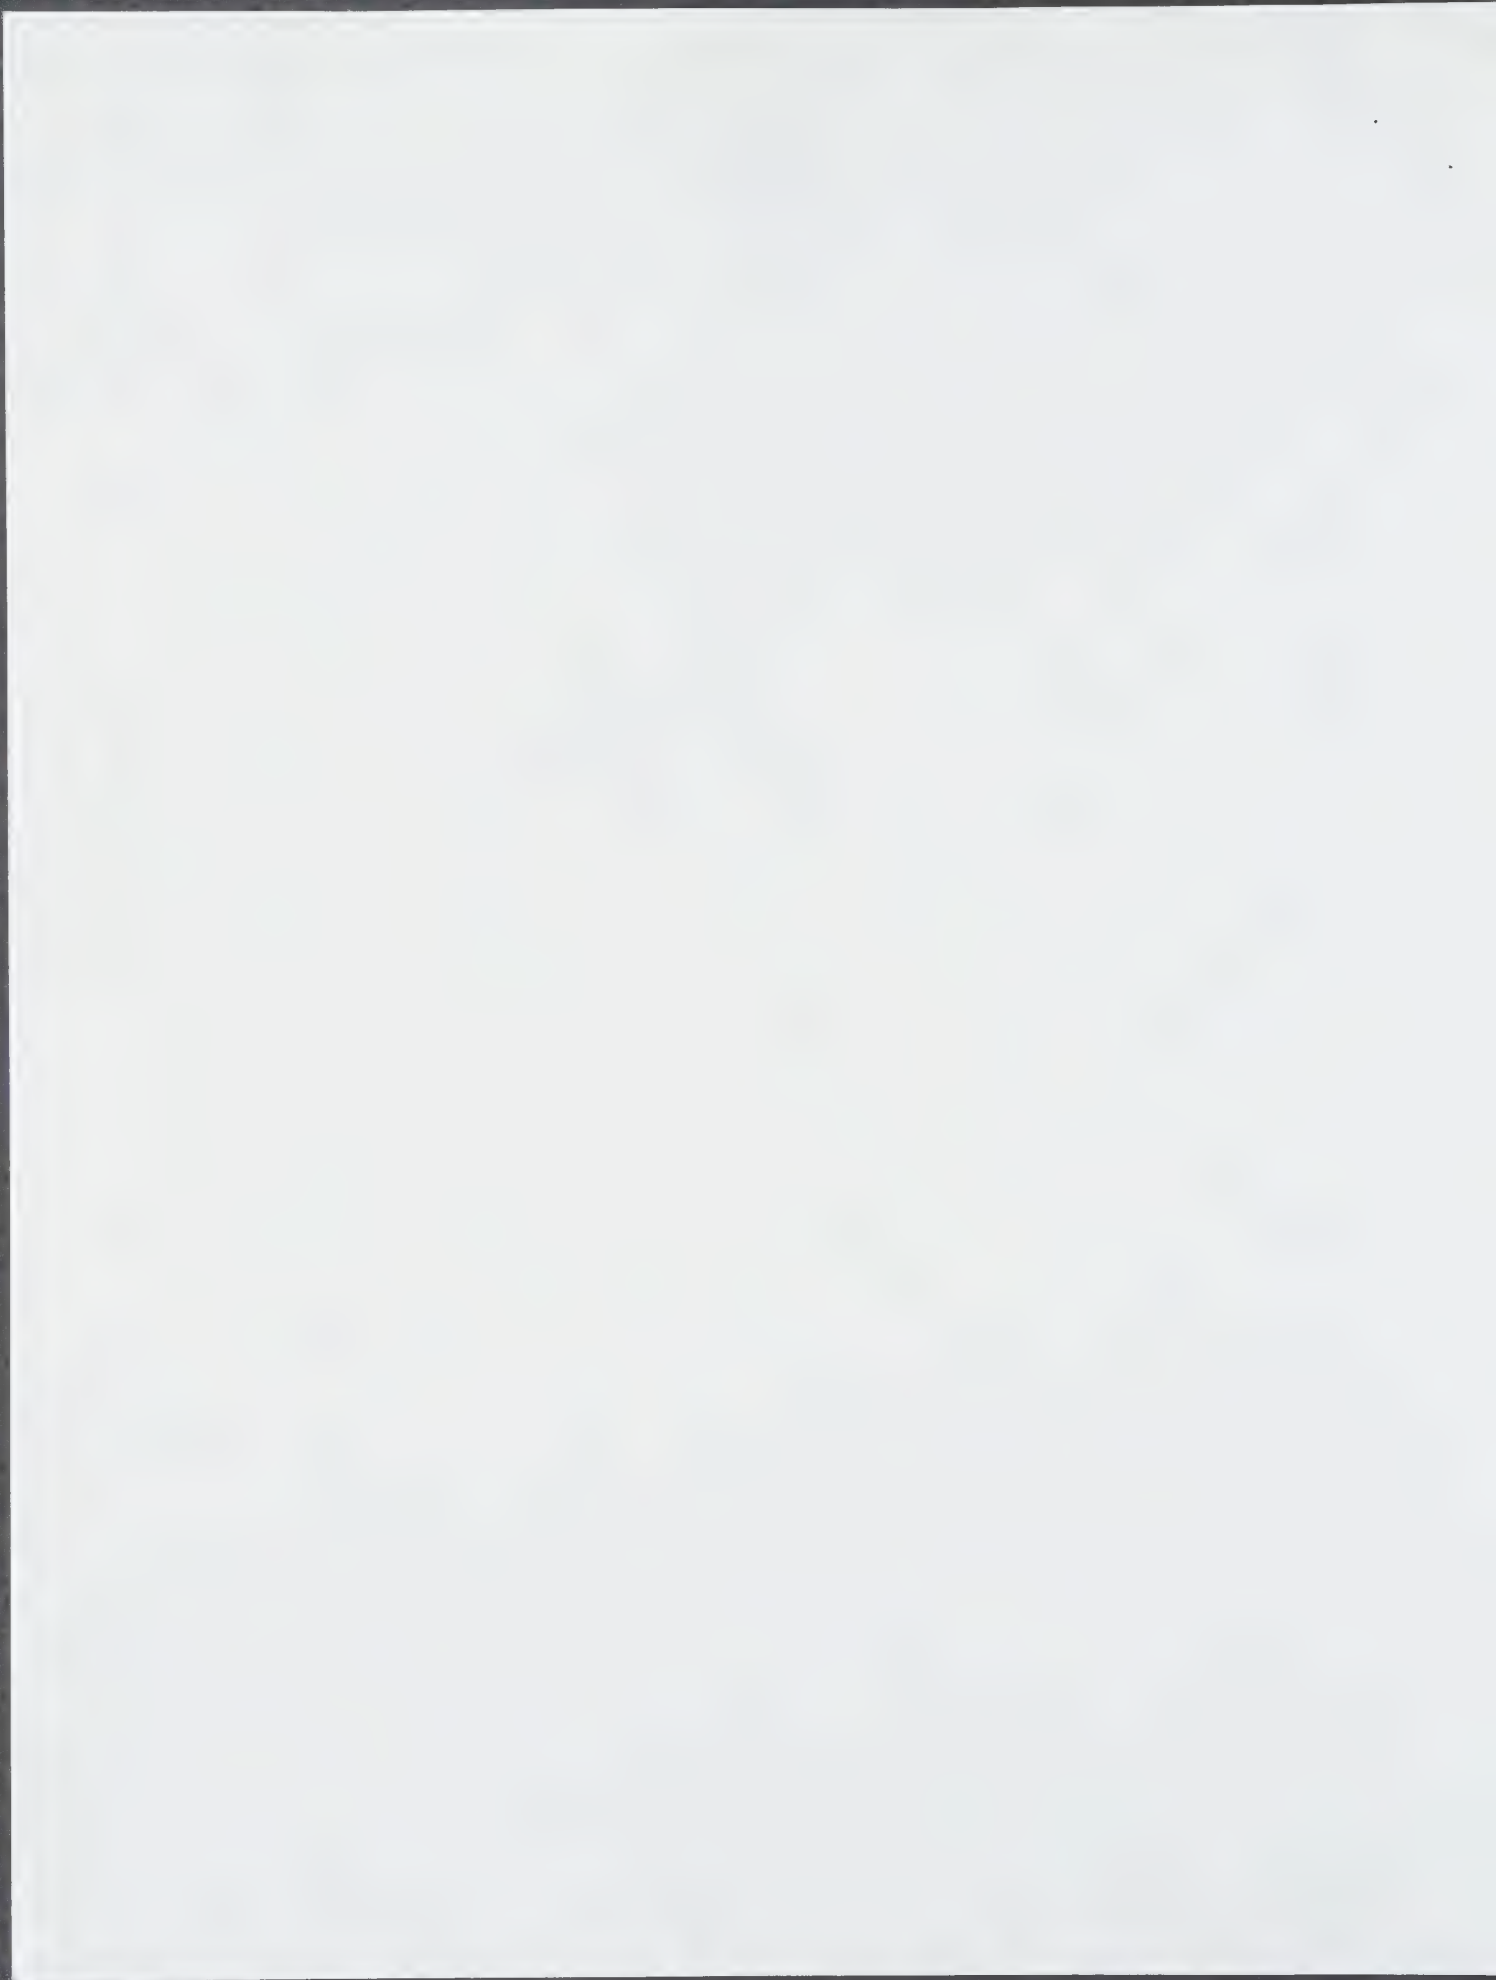

It's been very quiet today. Few phone calls. Only one fax from Nixon copying you in on some Tempest in a Test Tube correspondence. Light mail also. You received a $336 check from Winthrop California along with more excuses about the K-1 not being ready until mid-July.

Shall I still call you in an hour?

Isabel, I spoke with Michael yesterday who promised to relay your message to Deborah about checking in every now and then.

Regards,

Ann

Dear Alfred,

CLOSE BROTHERS TREASURY SERVICES

Further to our recent telephone conversation, this is to confirm that we have received £999,988 value today, 18th June, for account of Alfred Bader Fine Arts. These funds have come via Marshall & Ilsley Bank via Barclays Bank in London. The attached copy payment advice clearly shows that Barclays Bank released the funds to us at 9.01.12 this morning and our account was credited a few seconds later. We can therefore, unfortunately, only give you value 18th June for this money.

May I suggest that you contact Marshall & Ilsley Bank and ask them to compensate you with an extra day's interest on your previous dollar deal with them. It was their responsibility to ensure that their agent bank, Barclays, paid us with the correct value date.

Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

FAX #: 765-7848

Dear Curt and George,

This is just to confirm the order to purchase sterling which I gave to Curt by telephone just now.

I ask you to enter an order for 1 million pounds sterling, good until cancelled, at $1.5910 or better.

When you can make that purchase please wire transfer the million pounds to the account of Alfred Bader Fine Arts at Close Brothers in London to the attention of Mr. Martin Orkin exactly as you have done many times before. Of course you will let me know when this is done.

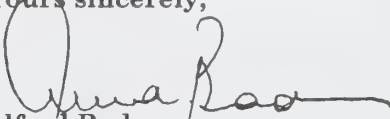

I would like to pay for this by your taking the $1.591 million out of my personal account at the M&I, [REDACTED]. I just checked with Noelle who told me that at the moment my bank balance is $1.583 million but as you know I have many treasuries and interest comes in quite regularly. However, for any shortfall please transfer $100,000 from my Marshall Fund [REDACTED]. I have just received the most recent statement as of 5/31 which shows that I have $6,196,954.80 in that account.

Hence, to reiterate, any shortfall in my personal account to cover the $1.591 million transfer in chunks of $100,000 from my Marshall Fund account into my personal account.

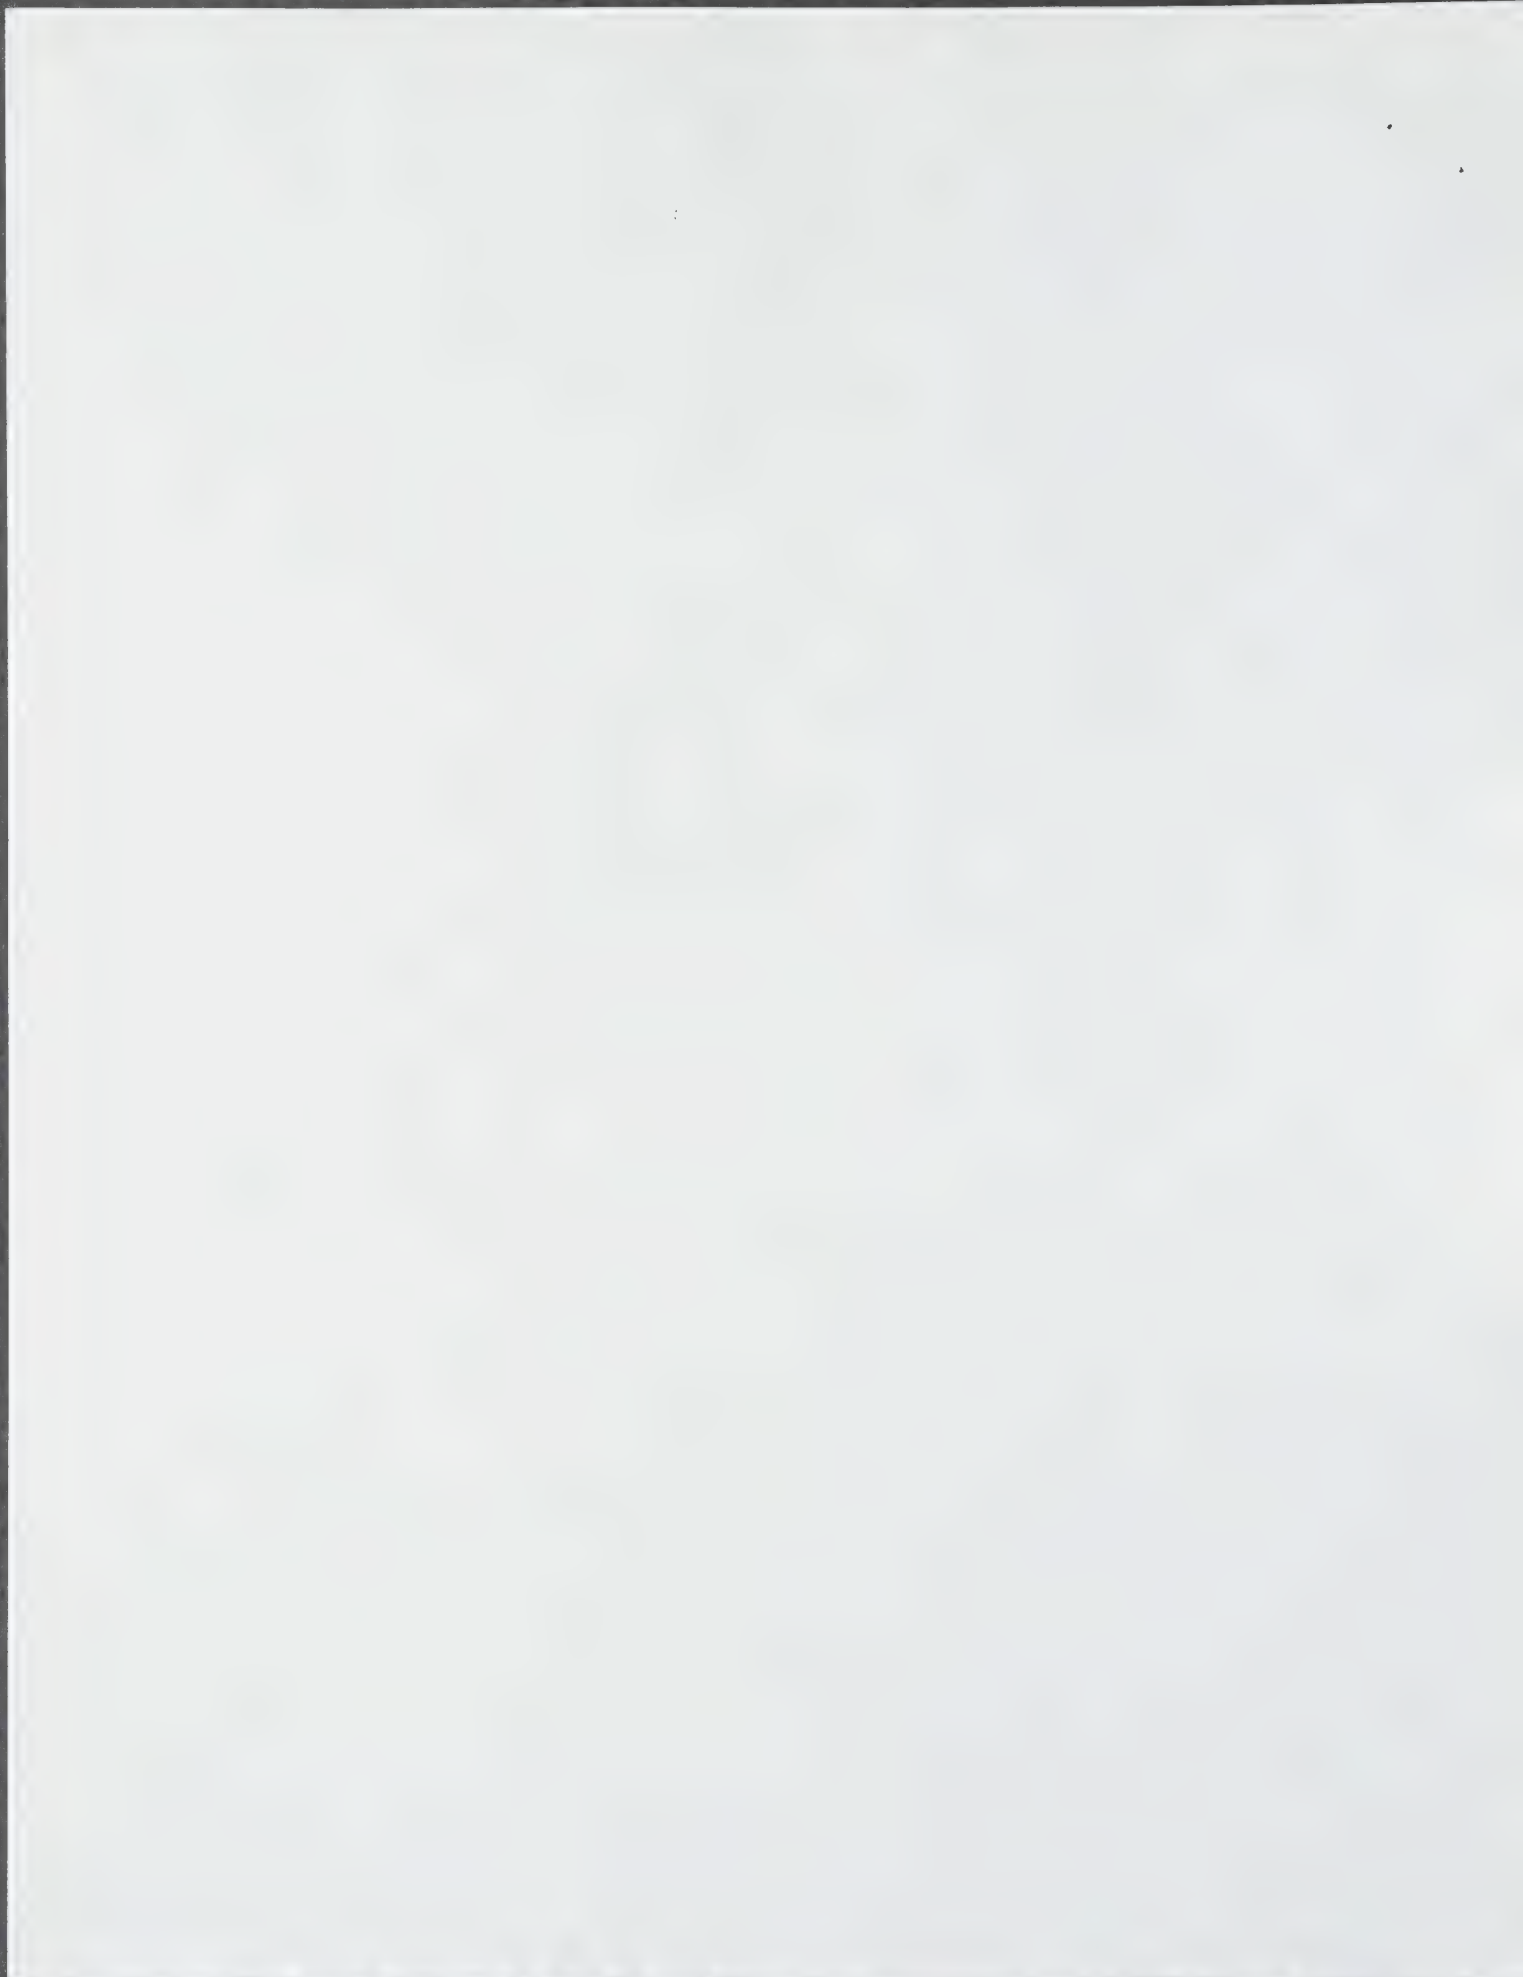

I am leaving for England in an hour so if you have any questions please call me right away.

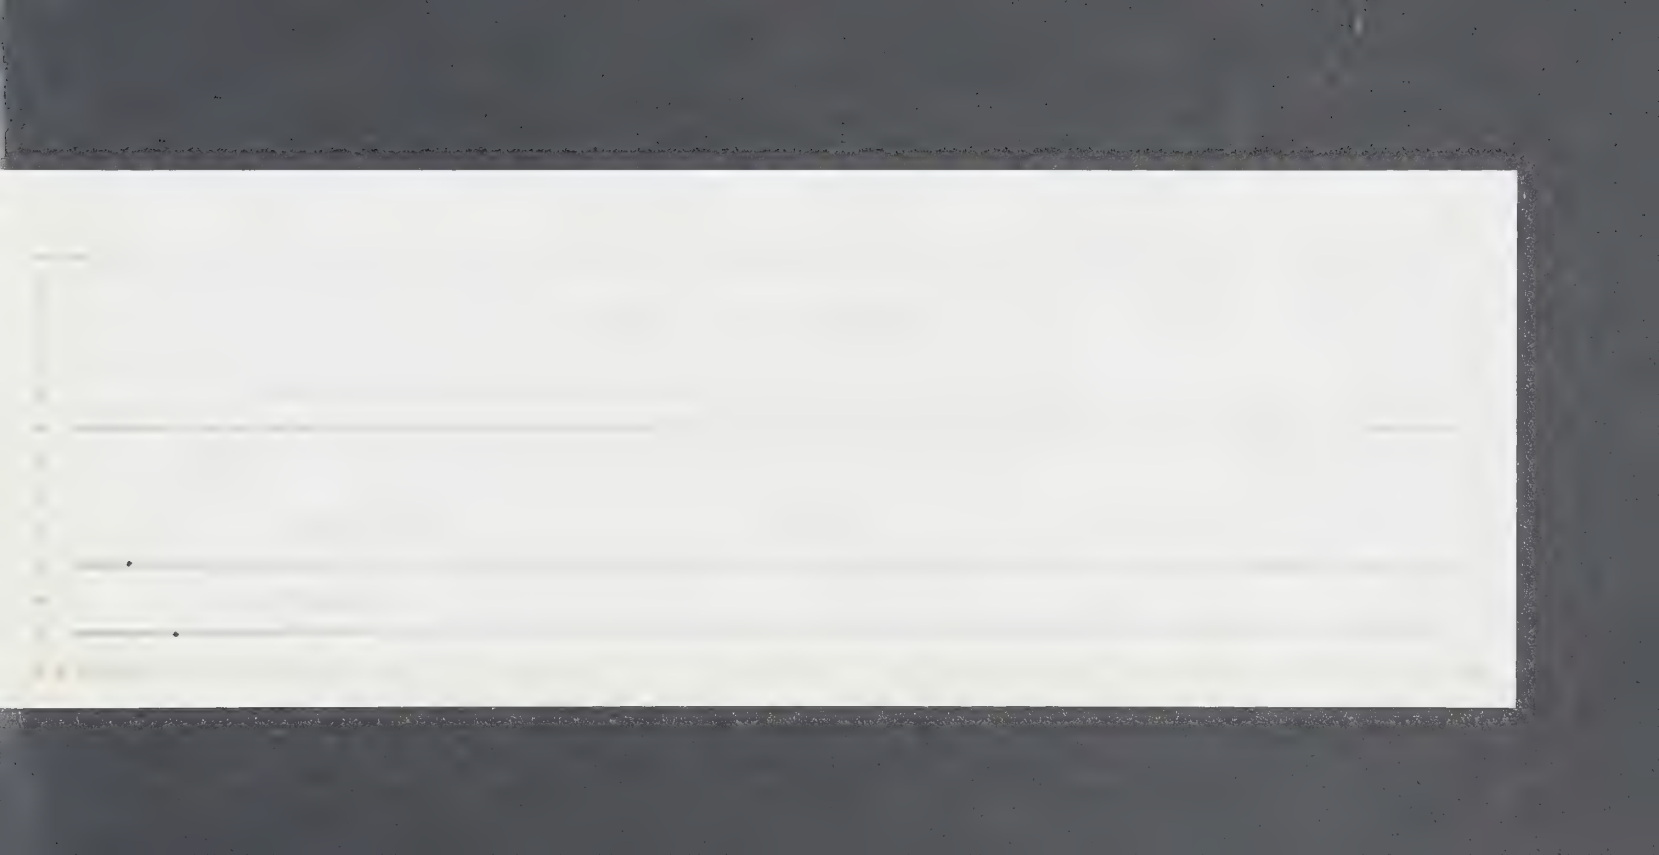

With many thanks for your help I remain

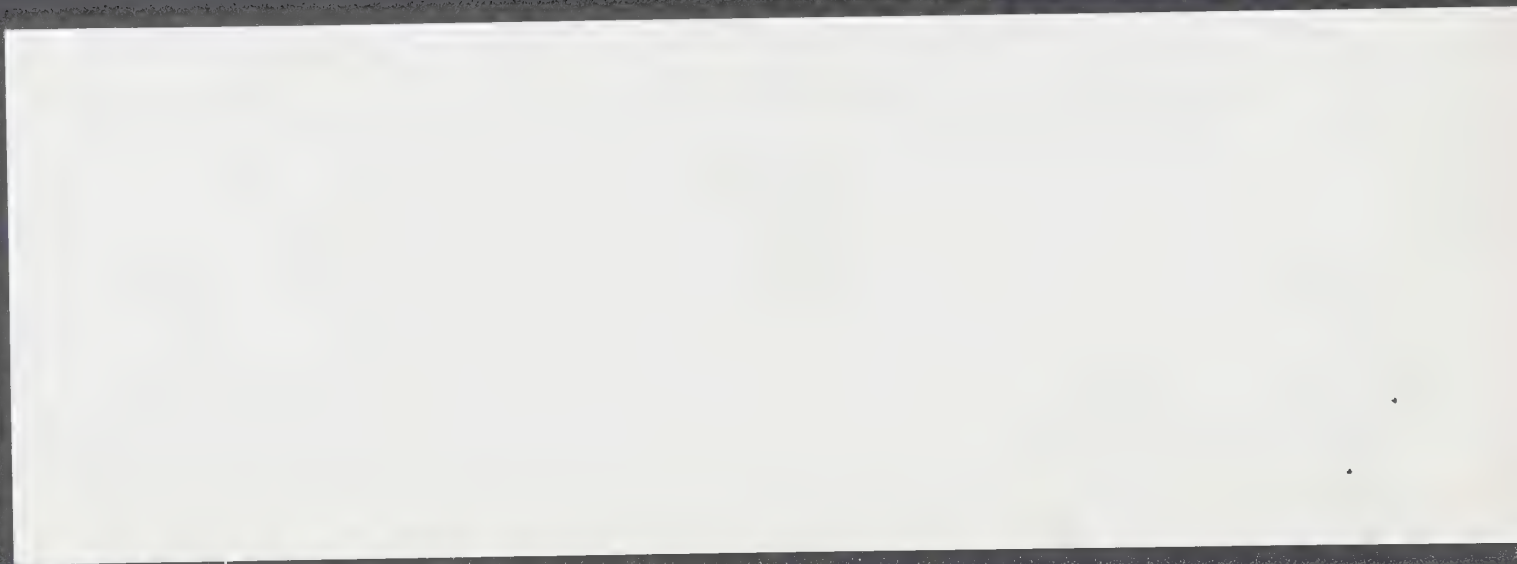

Yours sincerely,

Alfred Bader

Welcome back, you two!

Alfred, the bank called Tuesday and was able to fill your order for 1 million pounds at $1.591. They placed the order Tuesday and the entire transaction is taking place today. The balance in your personal account today was $ 1,935,938 less the $1,591,000 for the transaction. A withdrawal from your Marshall Fund account was not necessary.

£ 1 million is being wire transferred to Close Brothers attn: Martin Orkin today. (Previous balance was £ 43,378.)

This morning I transferred $600,000 from Marshall Fund into ABFA and deposited the $600,000 ck. (and another $90 one for books) into your personal account. Your new balance is $945,028.69.

I put $1,591,000 into the loan account, then deducted ABFA's $600,000 payment to you, leaving a loan balance of $991,000.

Please confirm that I have done everything we discussed when I call. Copies are attached.

Amazon.com called and ordered 2 books. I am sending them off today along with an invoice.

Paine Webber faxed some information on Sigma-Aldrich which I've attached along with our aide memoire about C&E News, an invitation to meet with the Executive Director of the ACLU, a possible visit with David Silcox and Sr. Mary Virginia, and the assistance letter from Dr. Debra Miller.

Michael Hatcher called about the pokal and may stop in today. It is signed C. or G. Pietsch. Michael suggested you contact Dr. Waltraud Neuwirth (a woman) at the Museum for Angewandte Kunst. He said there is also a glass expert at the new Austrian gallery, not the Dorotheum, but nearby. All he could remember was "Michael" something or other. I'll try to get details. Ned is coming in Tuesday at 9:30 and I plan to call Paul Westphal today to pick up his painting.

Arie Gutman will call you today or tomorrow. He is going to be in London through Saturday and hopes to arrange a visit either Friday or Saturday.

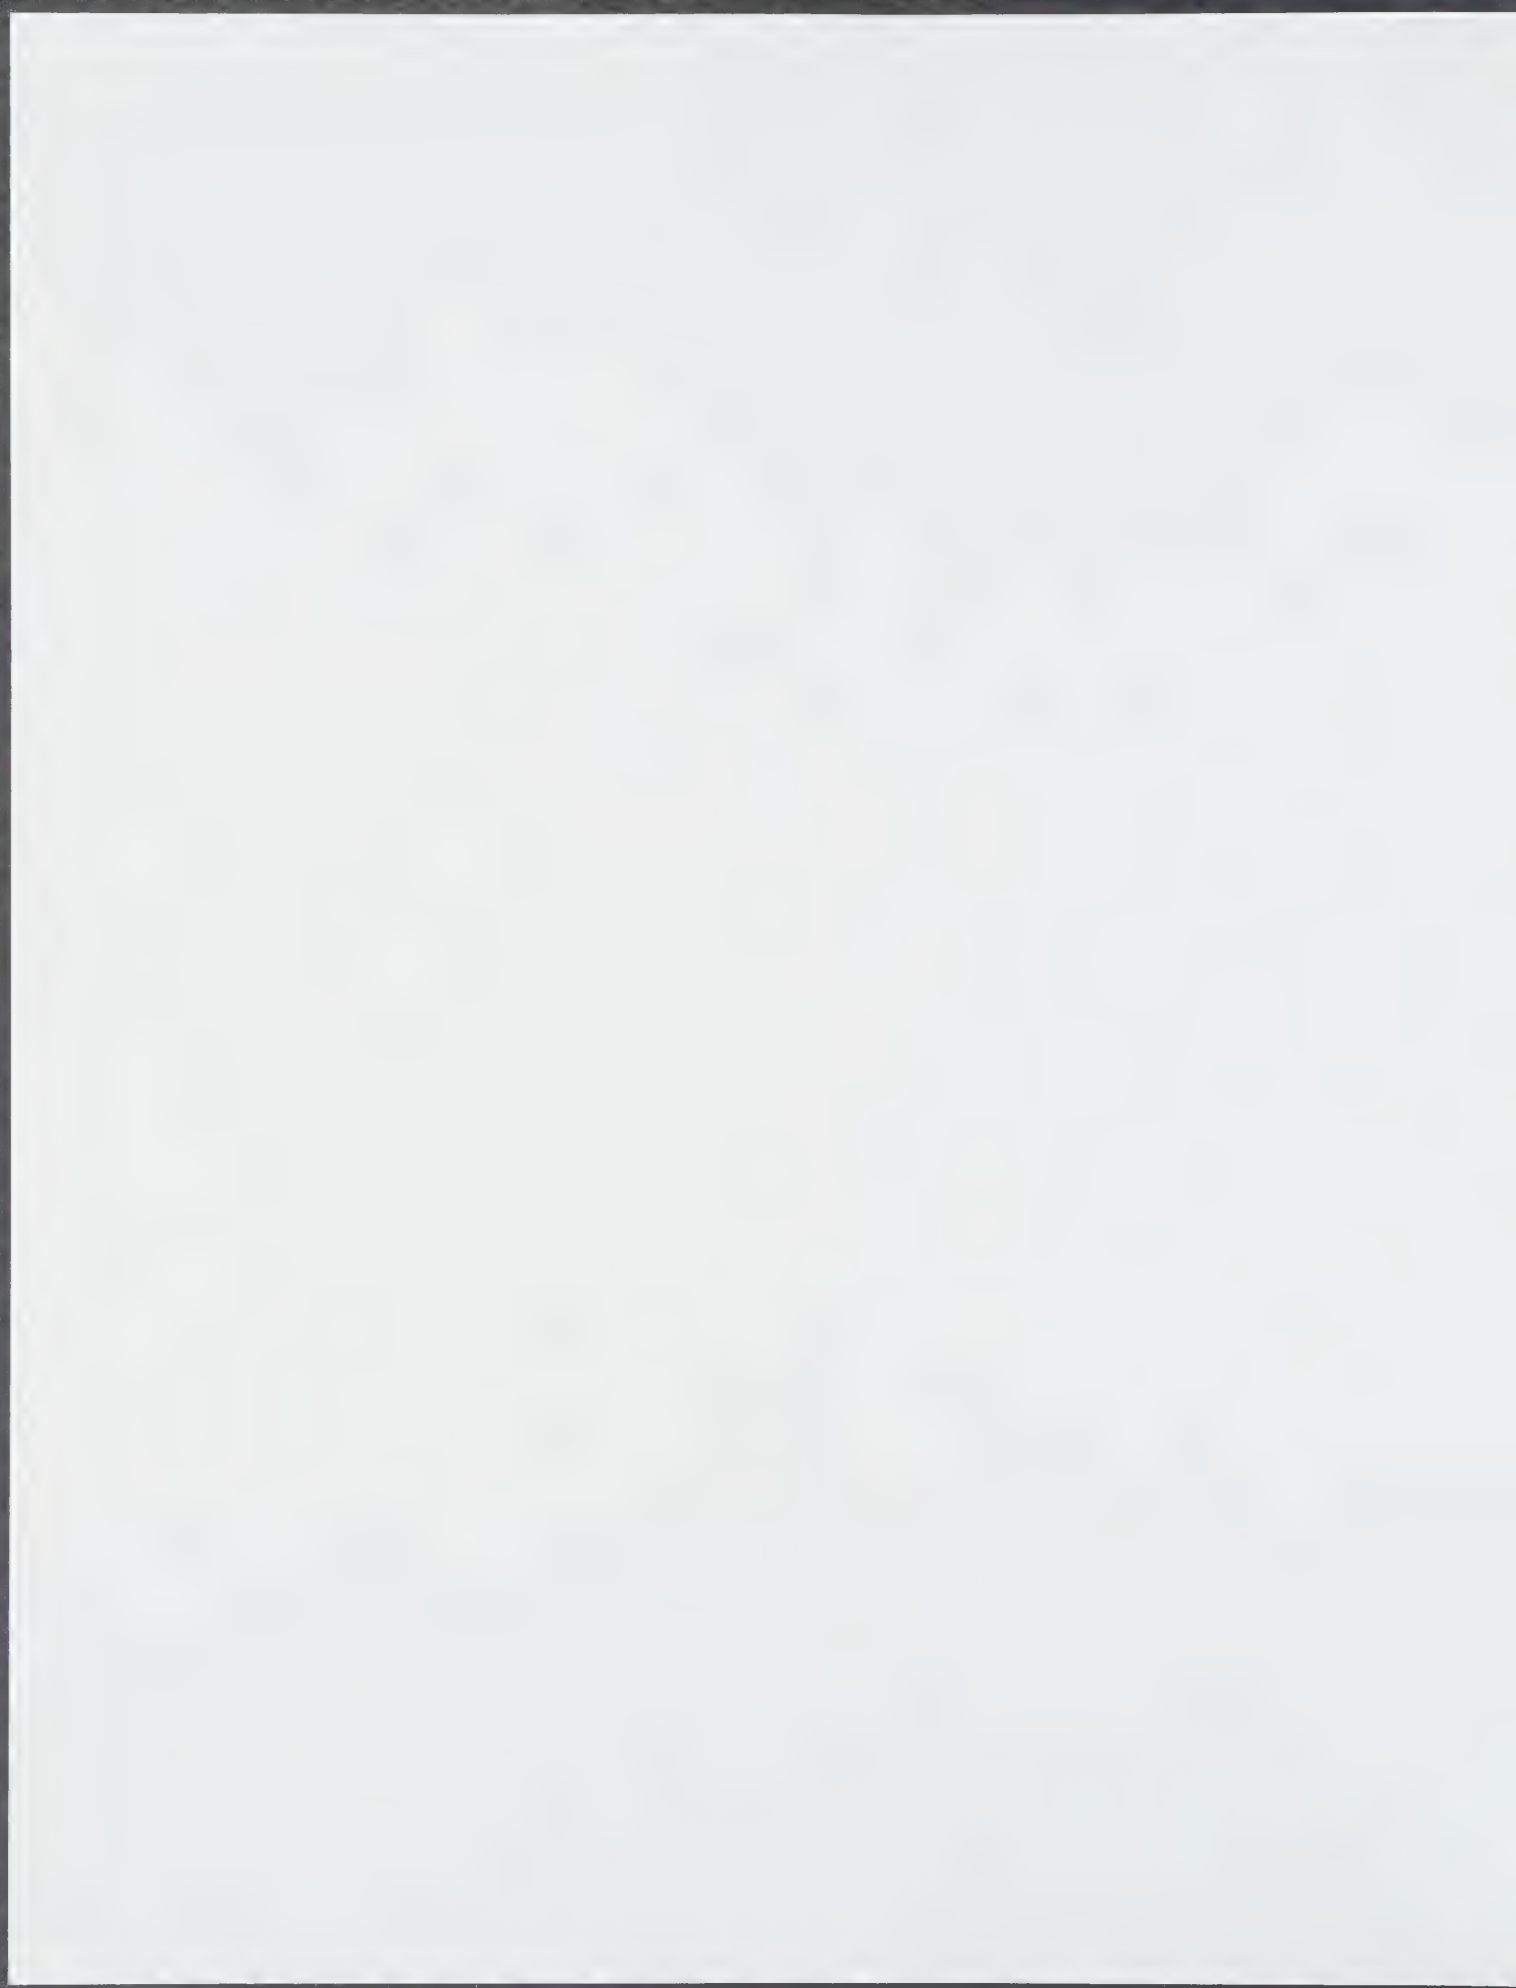

Response from Violations Bureau just arrived in the mail!

Daniel sent you a video of Helen Bader's story along with his thanks. Would you like me to send it along to you?

Please review all the attachments. I will call you in 30 minutes.

Regards as always,

Ann

MEMO TO FILE

TELEPHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN ALFRED BADER AND MS.
MADELEINE JACOBS, EDITOR IN CHIEF OF C&E News

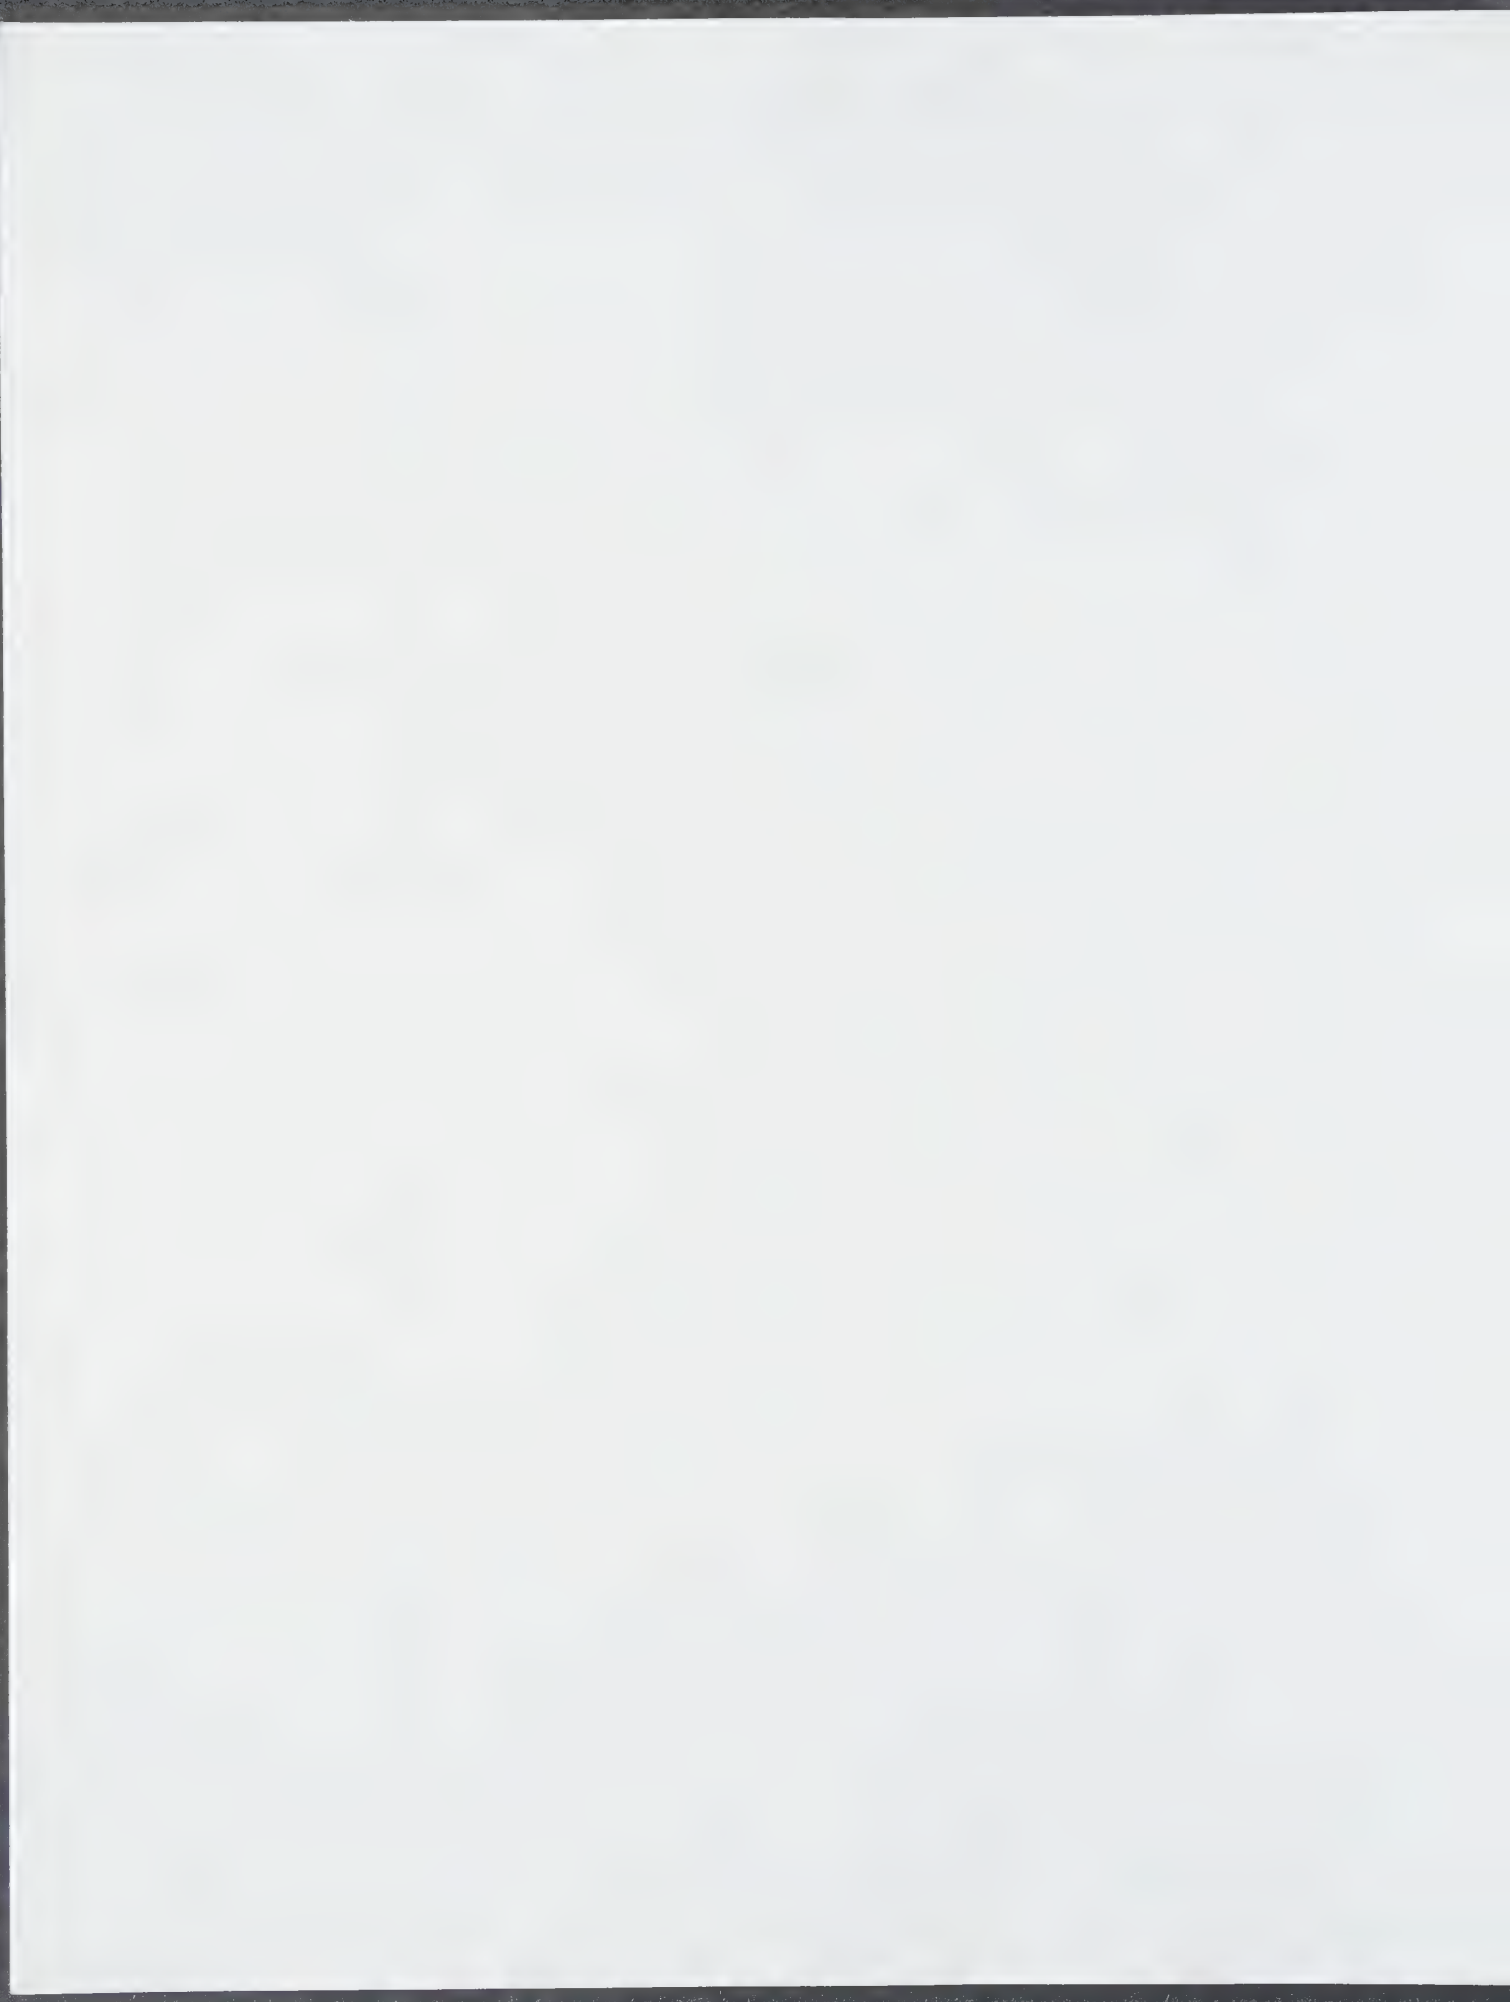

June 11, 1999 3:35PM CST

Alfred placed a call from England to Ms. Madeleine Jacobs to discuss the omission of Sigma-Aldrich from the list of Top 75 Chemical Companies published by C&E News in their June 5 issue.

Ms. Jacobs said that the matter would be reconsidered nine months from now to determine whether Sigma-Aldrich will be included on the next published list.

Ms. Jacobs will not publish Dr. Bader's second letter. She feels the two letters already published and their reply are sufficient.

Dear Dr. Bader:

I'm always interested to read about ACLU members in the newspapers. Your story in the Sunday Journal Sentinel is among the most interesting. You and your fellow civil libertarians are a great group. Who else would support individual liberties?

I'd like to talk to you about civil liberties. What are your ideas? What are we doing in Wisconsin? If you're interested in getting together, please let me know.

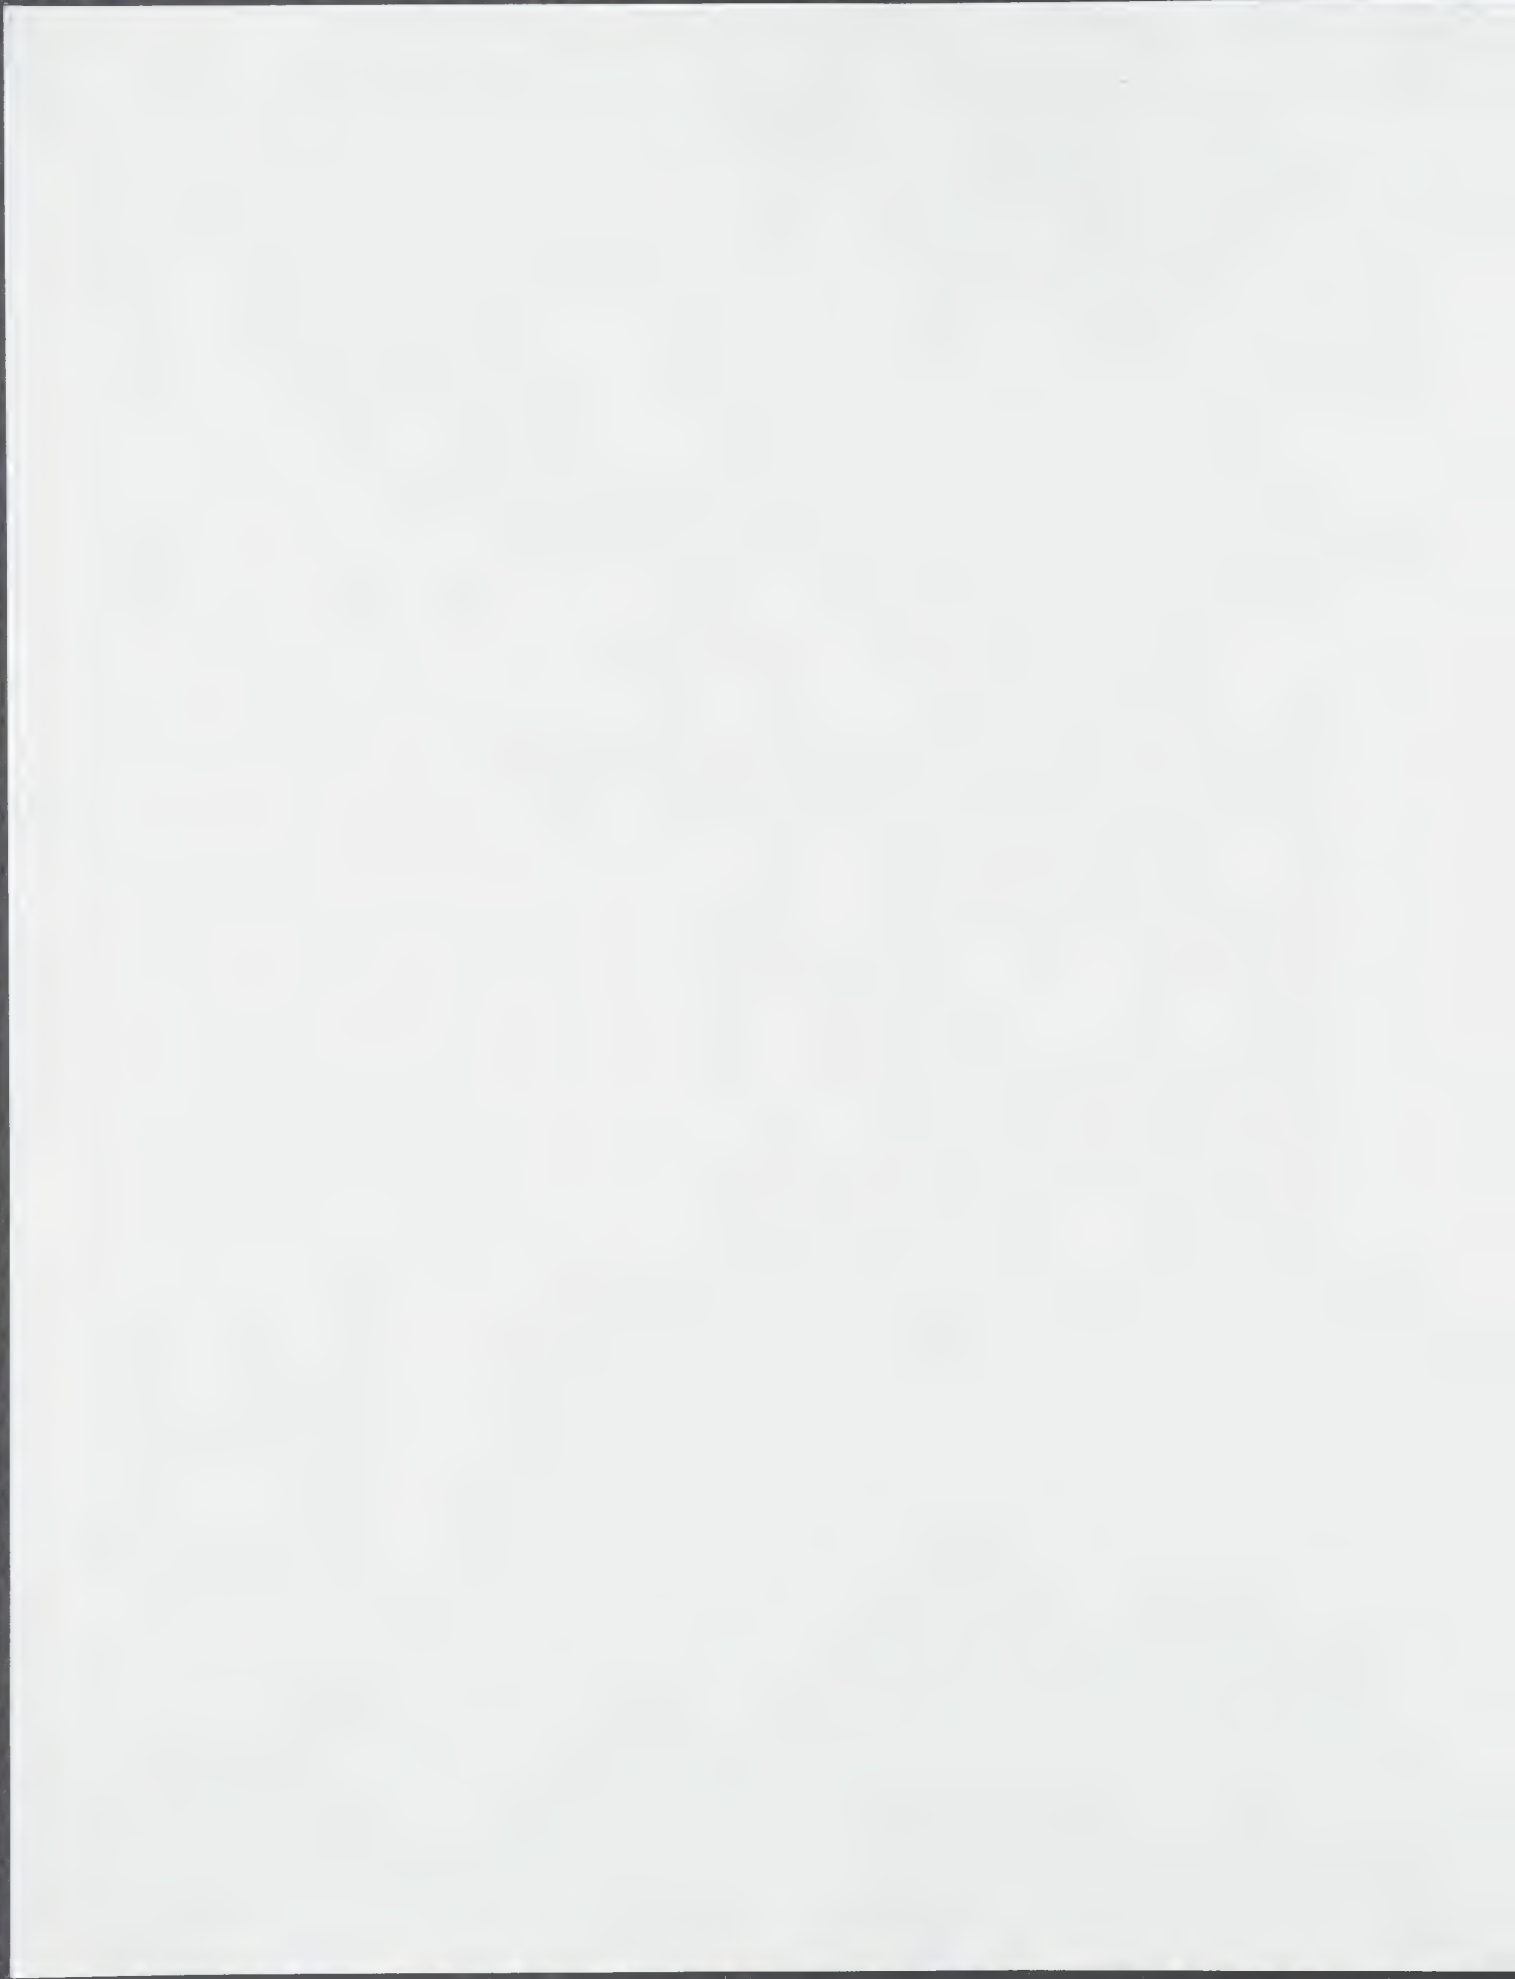

Good luck in your endeavors to get all the painting back.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr Bader,

The pleasure of meeting you on Friday last at Victoria College was something that I have been looking forward to for some time. I knew of your generosity to the Agnes Etherington Art Centre, of course, since my wife and I have also given to the Centre – in our case a lot of Canadian art. I have also, as an executor of the estate of Harold Town, selected major works of his for donation, some $2 million worth. We are all looking forward to seeing the new facilities next year.

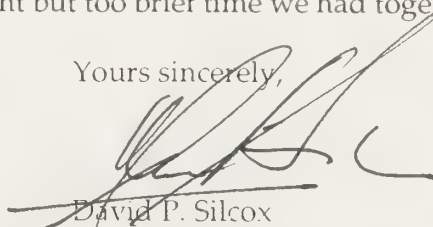

I received the copy of your autobiography yesterday, and I am looking forward to reading it forthwith. In return I am sending, by separate parcel, a copy of the Molly Bobak book. I am looking for a catalogue of Bruno Bobak's work, but have not found it yet. It may be in storage.

You hoped, in your inscription, that we might become better acquainted. Nothing would please me more, so I hope that you will come this way again soon. I would love to show you the plans for the University of Toronto Art Centre renovations, which are starting next month, and to get your advice on our future development. Enclosed is a copy of my strategic plan which was recently adopted by the Board. not enclosed

Finding a reason to visit you in Milwaukee is an alternate way to become better acquainted, so I am exploring possible opportunities that could make that a reality.

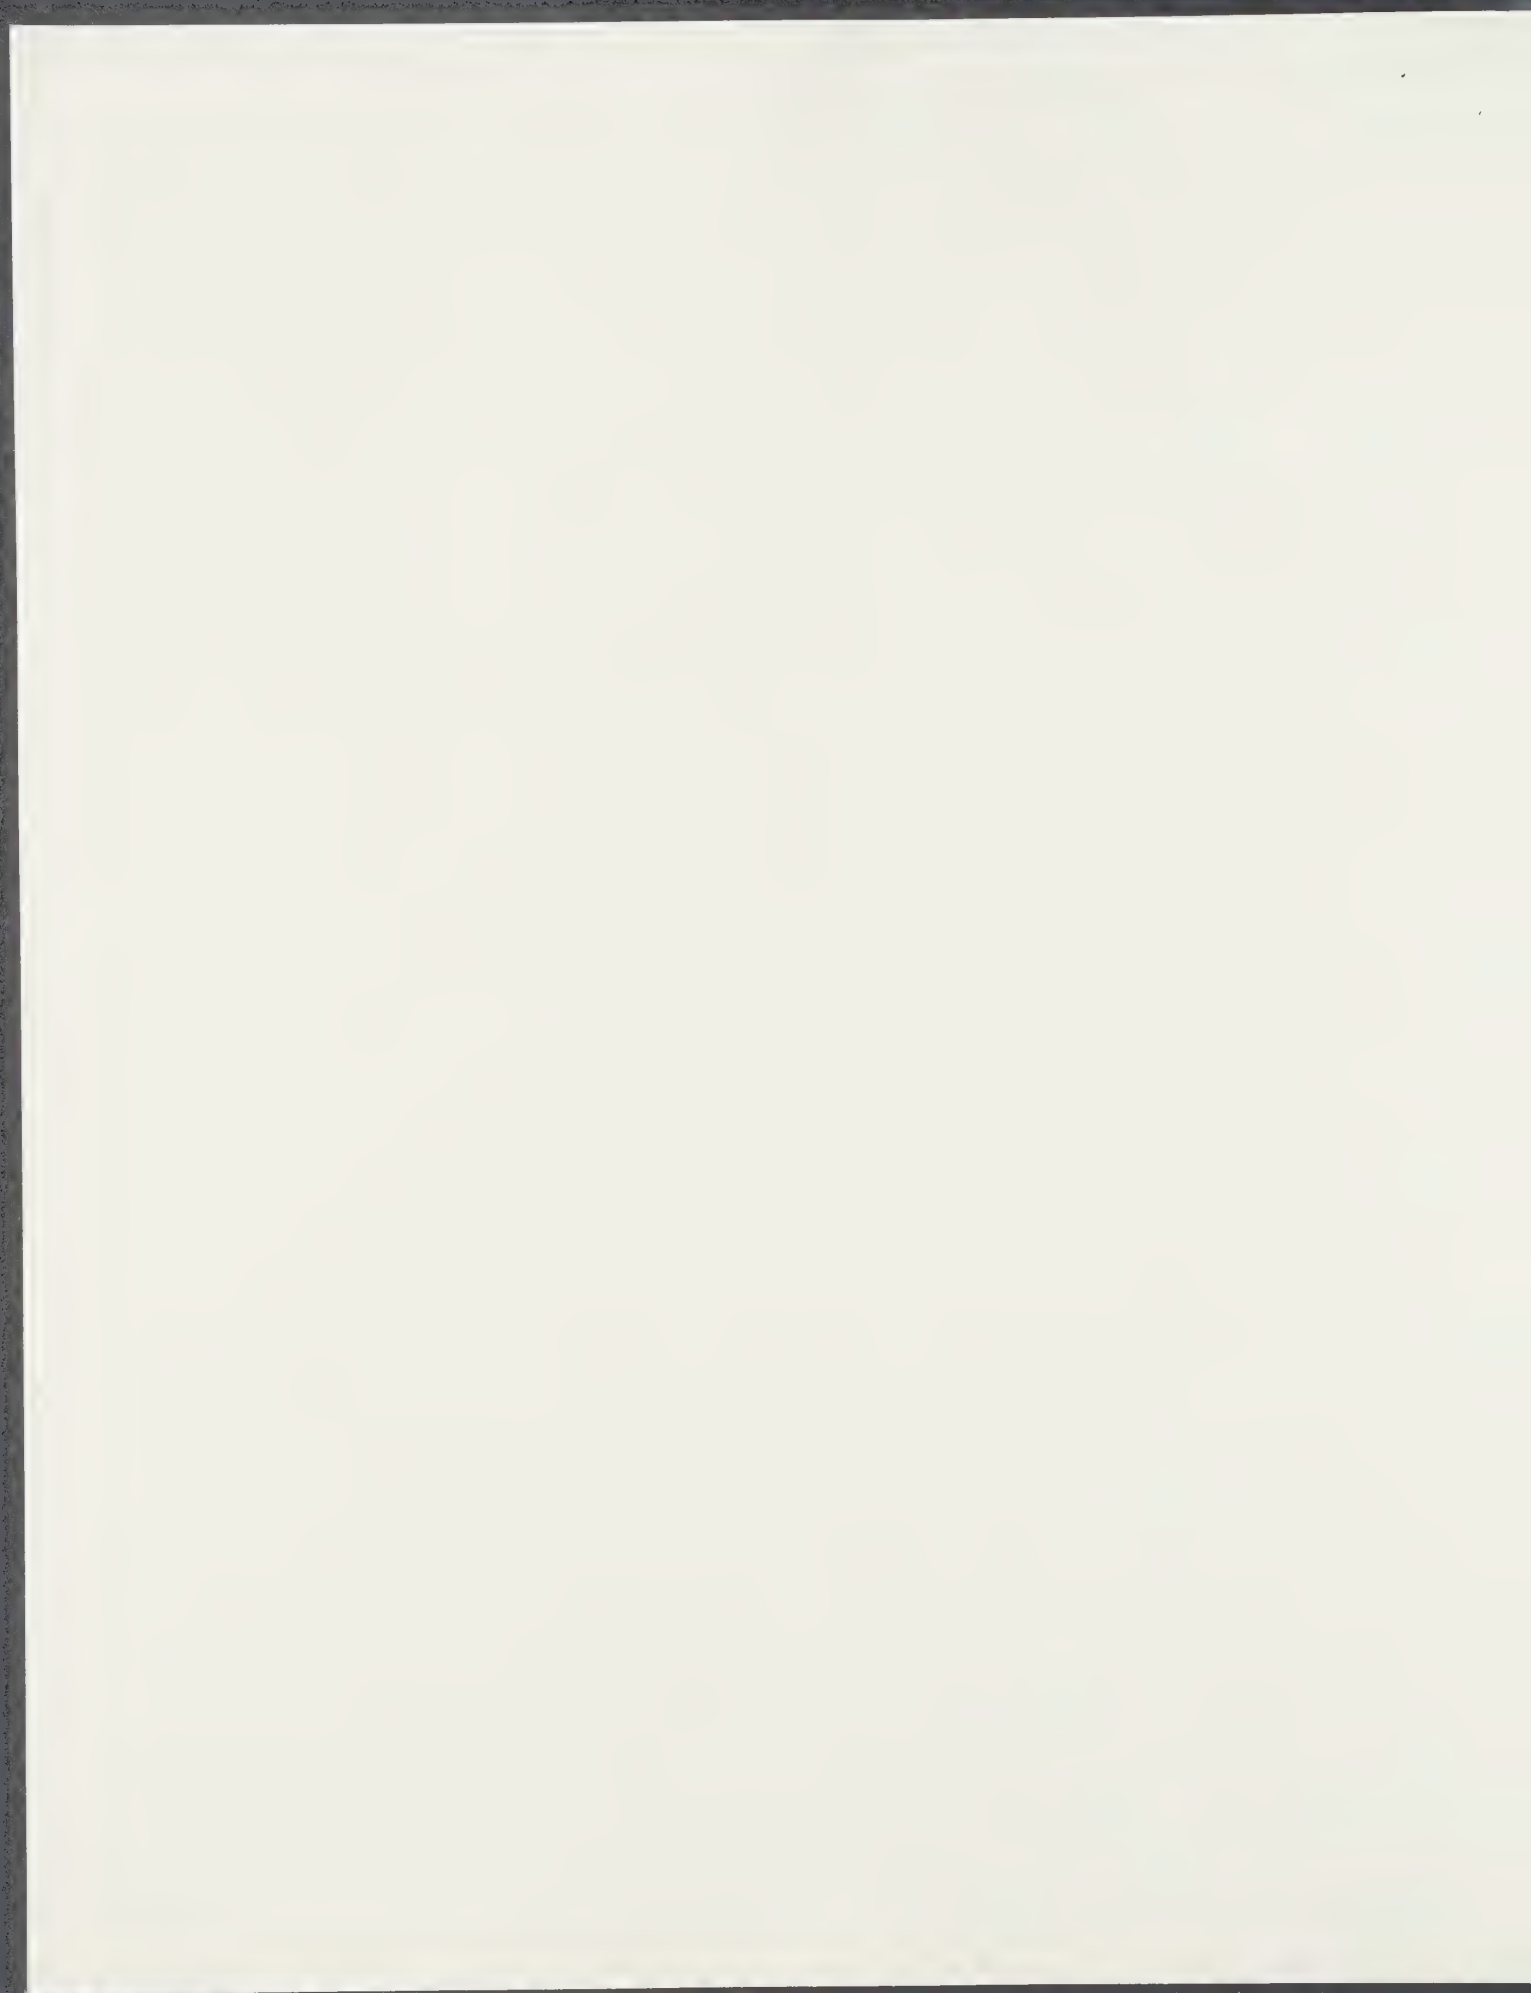

Thank you again for you and your wife's great generosity to Victoria College, and for the pleasant but too brief time we had together.

Yours sincerely,

David P. Silcox

P.S. I agree about the portrait of Eva Kushner. She should try another portraitist!

Dear Alfred,

One of the great things that happened during your trip to Philadelphia is that I got you know you and Isabel better as people – and what kind and helpful persons you are! Does that sentence sound familiar? It is yours - turned around to apply to you and Isabel and exactly what I had planned to write to you when you beat me to the punch and your letter arrived a couple of days ago.

I must say that the week of your visit was one of my highlight weeks of 1999. I just enjoyed interacting with you and Isabel so much. I also came to know both of you as compassionate as well as passionate human beings, and as far as I am concerned, compassion is the bottom line in this world of ours that is so full of other less commendable characteristics.

Thank you so much for sharing so much of yourself with us.

Thank you too for the books which arrived almost simultaneously with your letter. Enclosed is payment – and thanks for the deep discount!

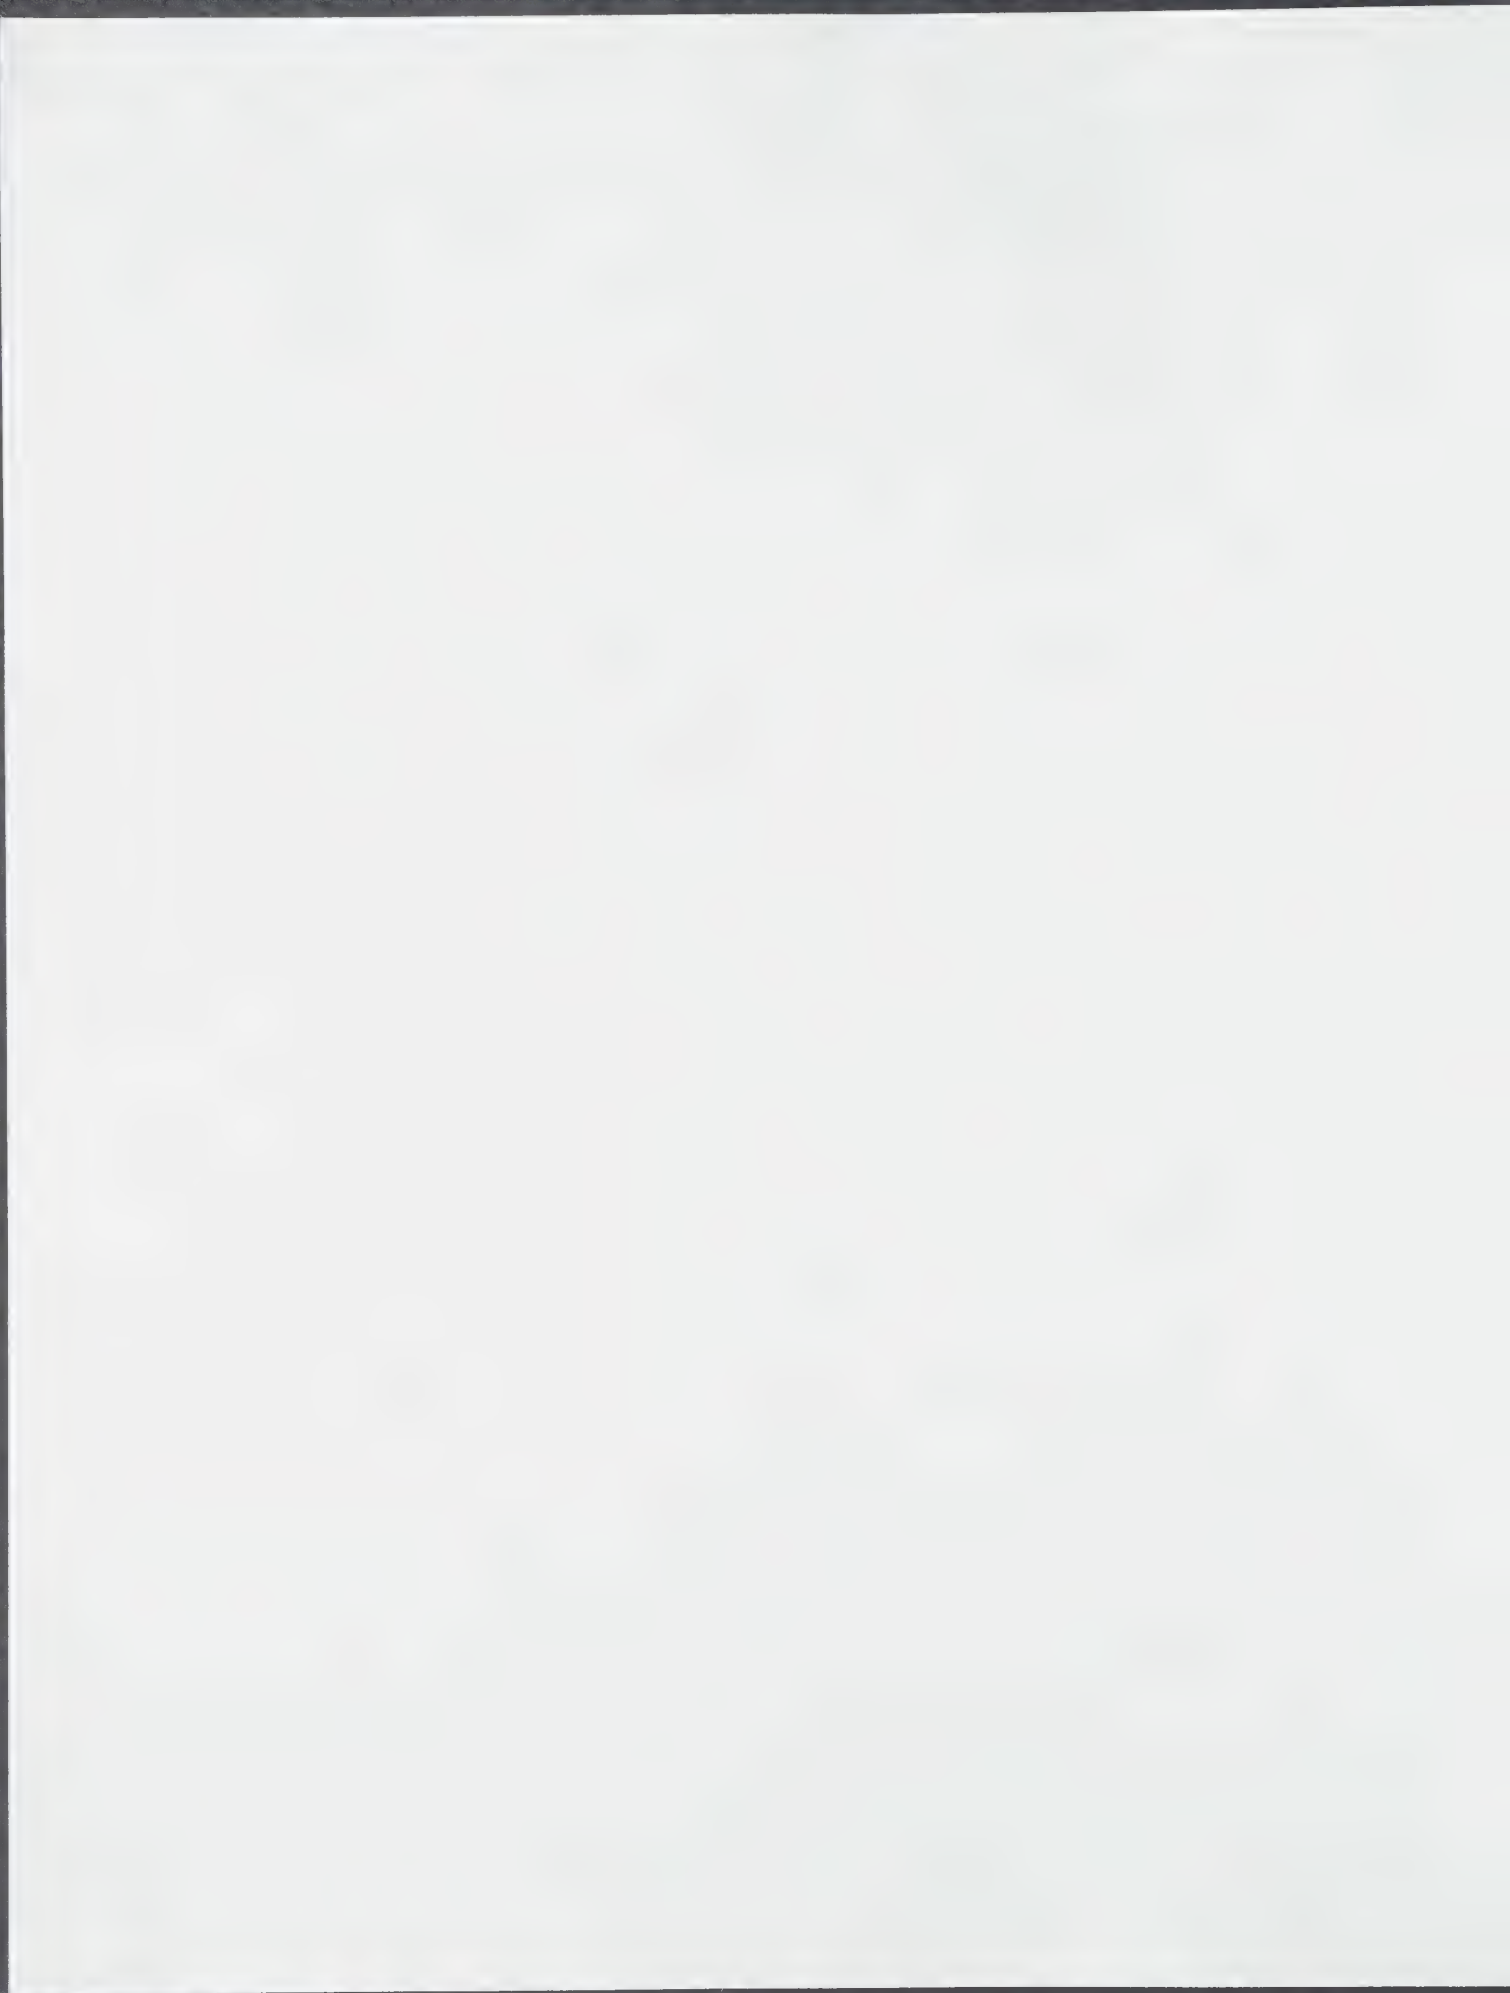

Some time later in the summer, I would like to “chat” with you by e-mail regarding a mutually convenient time for a visit to Milwaukee.

Cordially,

Dear Alfred:

I enjoyed our visit in Philadelphia. Thank you for including me in your plans, and thank you for your very generous offer to help with the publication of the Victors book.

Otto called me yesterday, after he received a copy of your letter outlining our options. Of course we agree that to do nothing would be a terrible waste of valuable information. We also feel that to bring a new graduate student in at this point would create unnecessary complications and delays, since Professor Manuth and I already have a strong background and knowledge of Victors, which the student would lack. Otto was very encouraging in his belief that Davaco would be happy to publish the book, as originally intended, with the aid of a $20,000 subvention from you. So now the only remaining problem is the funding I will need for travel to The Hague (RDK) and London (Witt Library) to update my catalogue raisonne, and to Queen's University to confer with Professor Manuth.

Unfortunately, I do not have the financial means to undertake this project. As you know, I have no full-time position, no institutional affiliation, and consequently, no steady income in Art History. Otto and I discussed the minimum amount of time and resources I would need to complete the necessary travel as indicated above. If I were to go off-season, at the lowest available airfares, and to stay at the most economical tourist-class hotels/bed and breakfasts, and to eat very modestly (all of which I always do on funded research trips), we estimate my expenses at approximately $10,000. I would not require any additional funding for my time at home writing, or in New York (Frick Art Reference Library), where I could stay with family.

All expenses considered, it would cost me considerably less than the $30,000 you estimated for a graduate student to spend a year in The Netherlands. Now my question to you is: would I be eligible for a Bader Fellowship as a visiting scholar at Queen's University, or are the grants specifically designated for graduate students there? Otto and I discussed the possibilities of my application for outside funding, and he wasn't very optimistic about my chances. Because of my age, my lack of an affiliation, and the fact that this represents the revival of a 15-year-old project, he believes it highly unlikely that I would have any success getting a research grant. Were I to apply to outside sources, it would delay the project by at least a year, as most grants are awarded on April 15 for a period beginning the following September. And again, my application would not be guaranteed of funding.

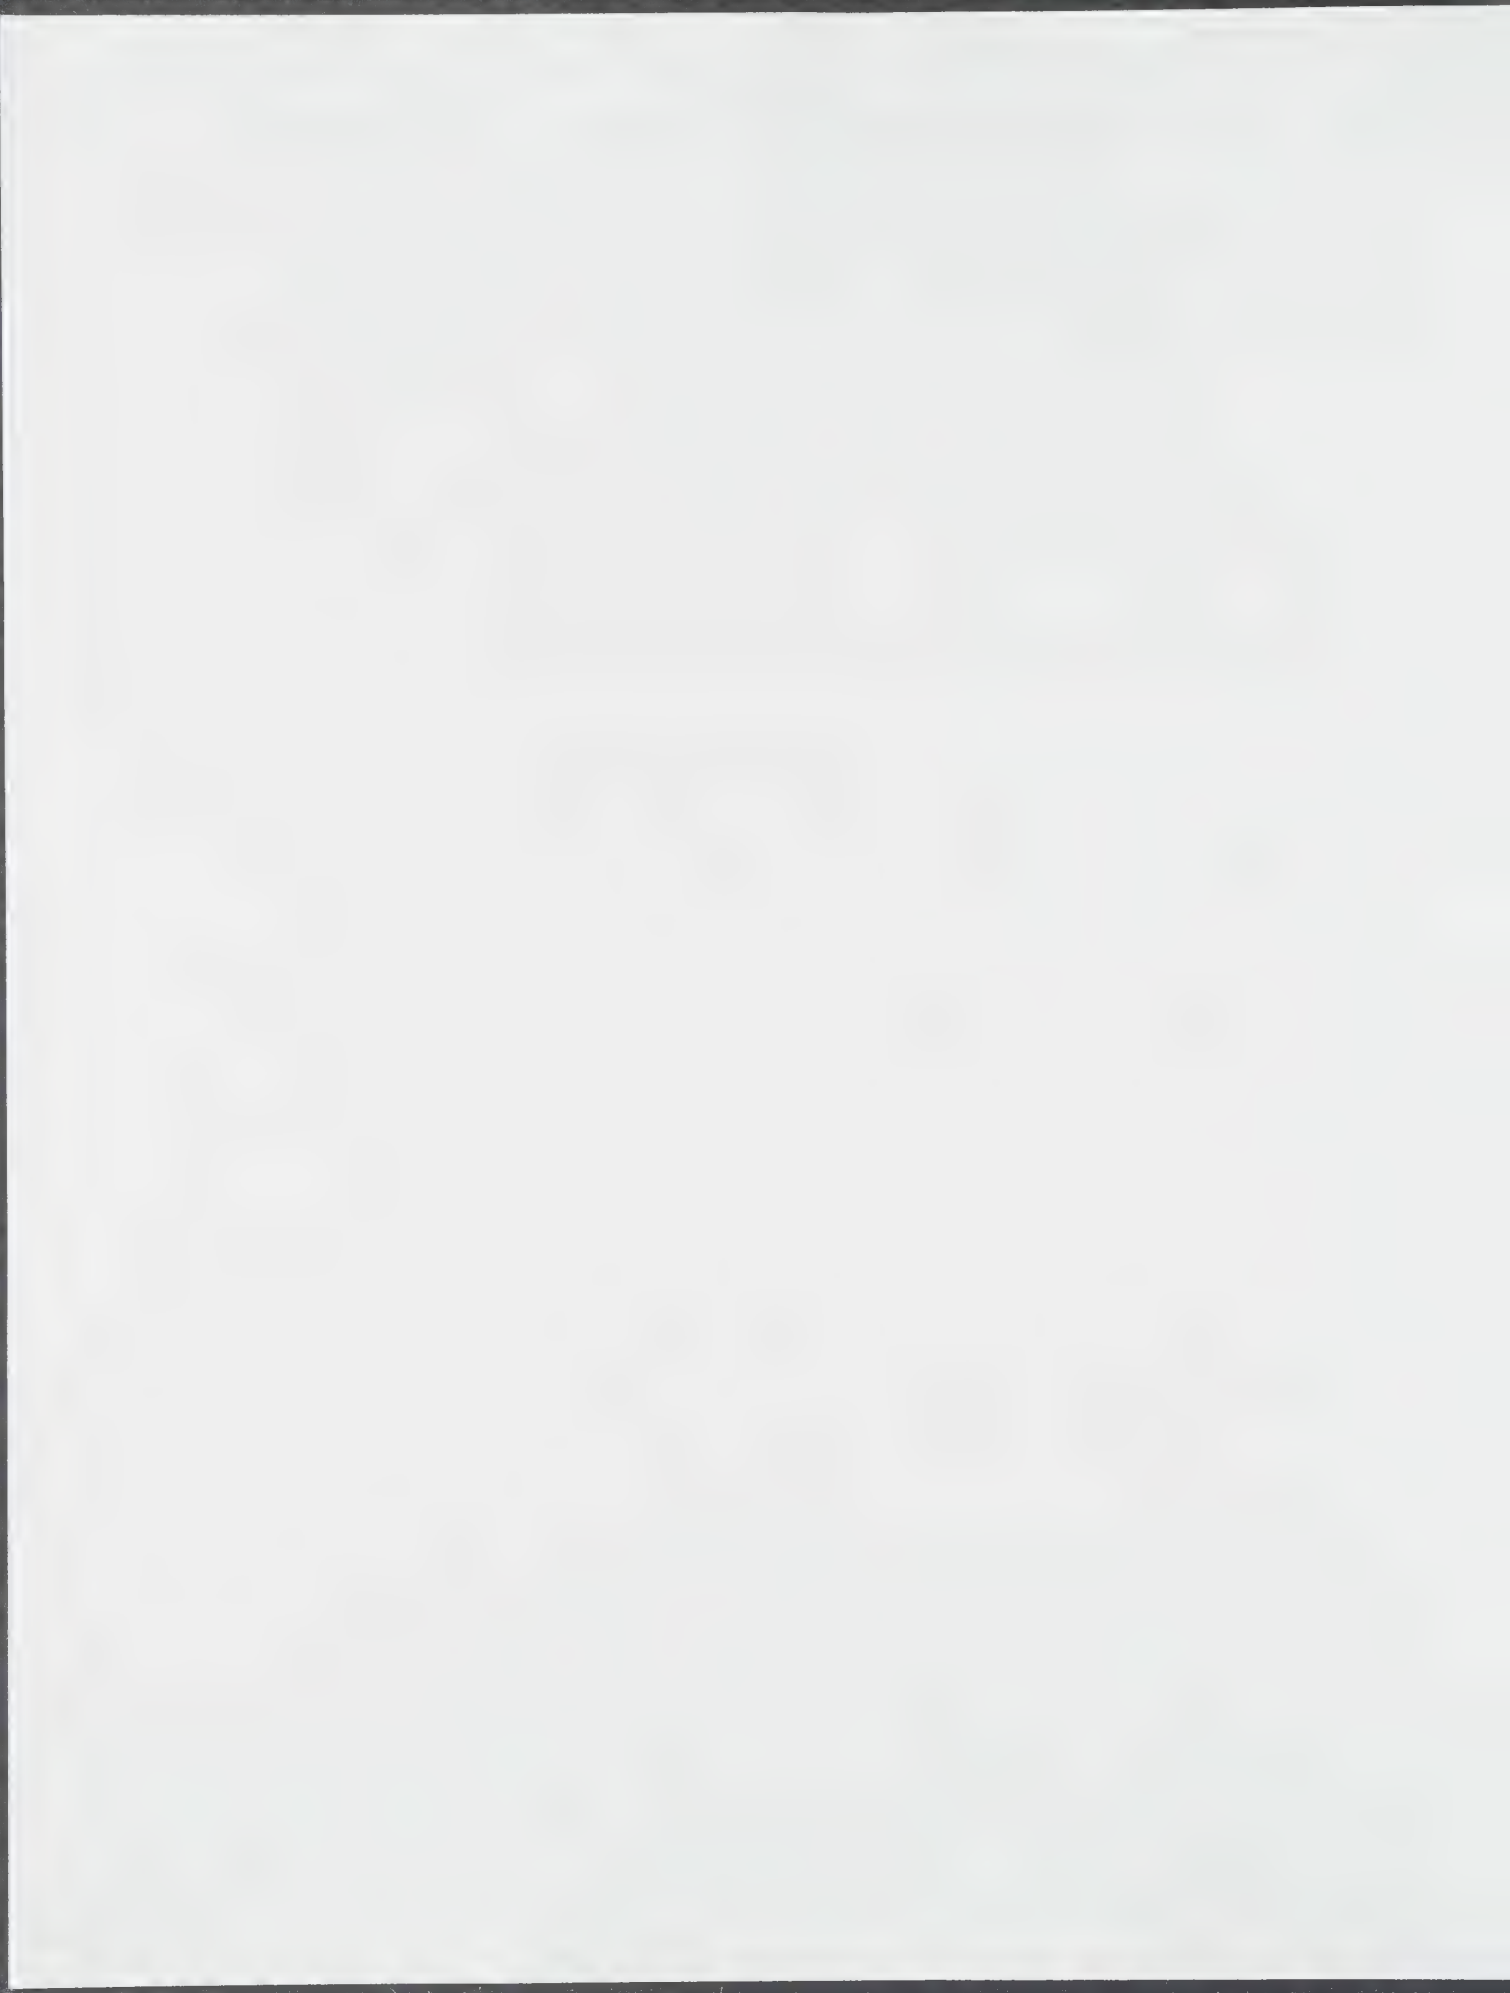

It is very frustrating for me to have the material at hand, the interest of a publisher, and the offer of assistance from you, but still to have serious financial obstacles in the way of completing this important project. Please consider the appropriateness of my application for a Bader Fellowship at Queen's University--it would be the perfect solution to my needs and we could get this publication out at last!

I leave for my study abroad program in Paris and London this Sunday (June 13); I return on June 25. I will contact Professor Manuth when I return, to discuss our options. All my best to you and Isabel.

Kindest regards,

Debra Miller

Dear Madame or Sir,

I would still like to dispute the parking violation described on Citation #240222990 received May 4th.

On May 6th I wrote (copy enclosed) and asked that the Citation be voided. My secretary called on May 13th and May 20th and was told to wait for your response. On June 1st she was told that your response was returned to the Violations Bureau because it was not sent to me at the correct address! I will be out of the country from June 10 to July 30. Surprisingly, a court date was set for July 1 and I have asked my secretary, Mrs. Ann Zuehlke, to represent me.

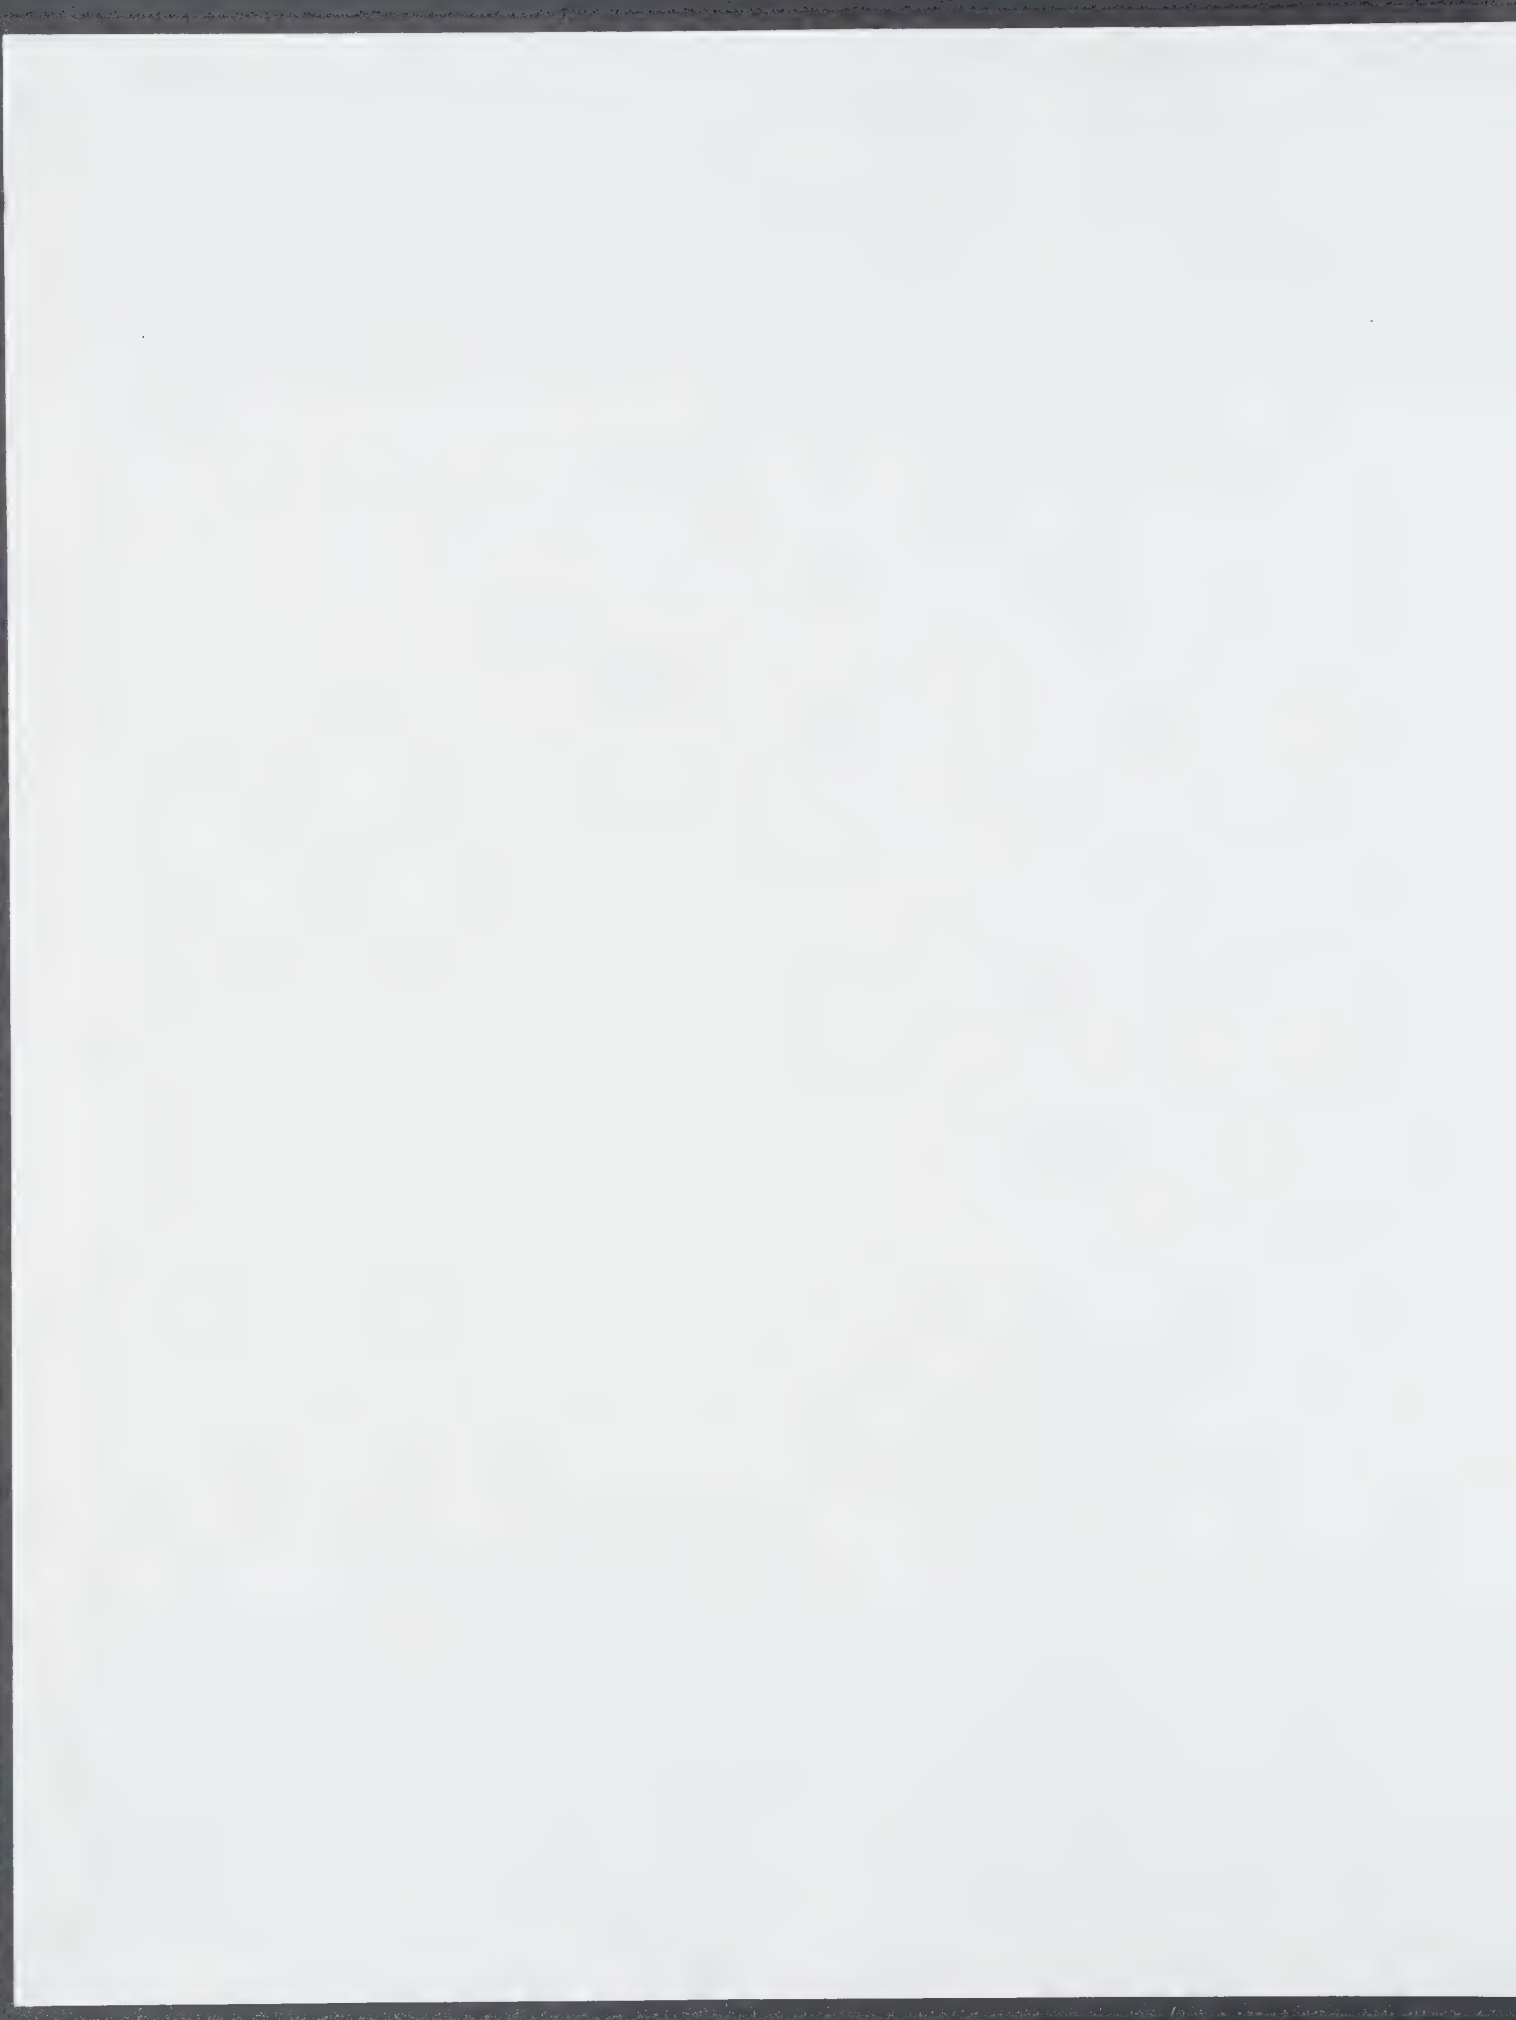

On Tuesday, May 4th, I was visiting Columbia Hospital for physical therapy and was parked a block north, a bit more than four feet from the driveway of a house on N. Frederick Avenue.

Officer Fleury left the Citation on my windshield and again I checked my distance. I have a 12" shoe, put my feet toe to heel four times and still had several inches to my bumper.

I truly feel that Officer Fleury did not pace or measure the exact distance. Hence, I respectfully request once again that this parking violation be voided.

Yours sincerely,

Alfred Bader

Dear Madame or Sir,

I would like to dispute the parking violation described on the enclosed.

Last Tuesday I was visiting Columbia Hospital for physical therapy and was parked a block north, four feet from the driveway of a house on N. Frederick Avenue.

Please ask Officer Fleury to double check his photograph and he will see that I was really not in violation.

Hence, I respectfully request that this parking violation be voided.

Incidentally, and perhaps beside the point, my wife and I have taken several walks on the east side during the last two days and have counted hundreds of cars which are parked less than four feet from the nearest driveway.

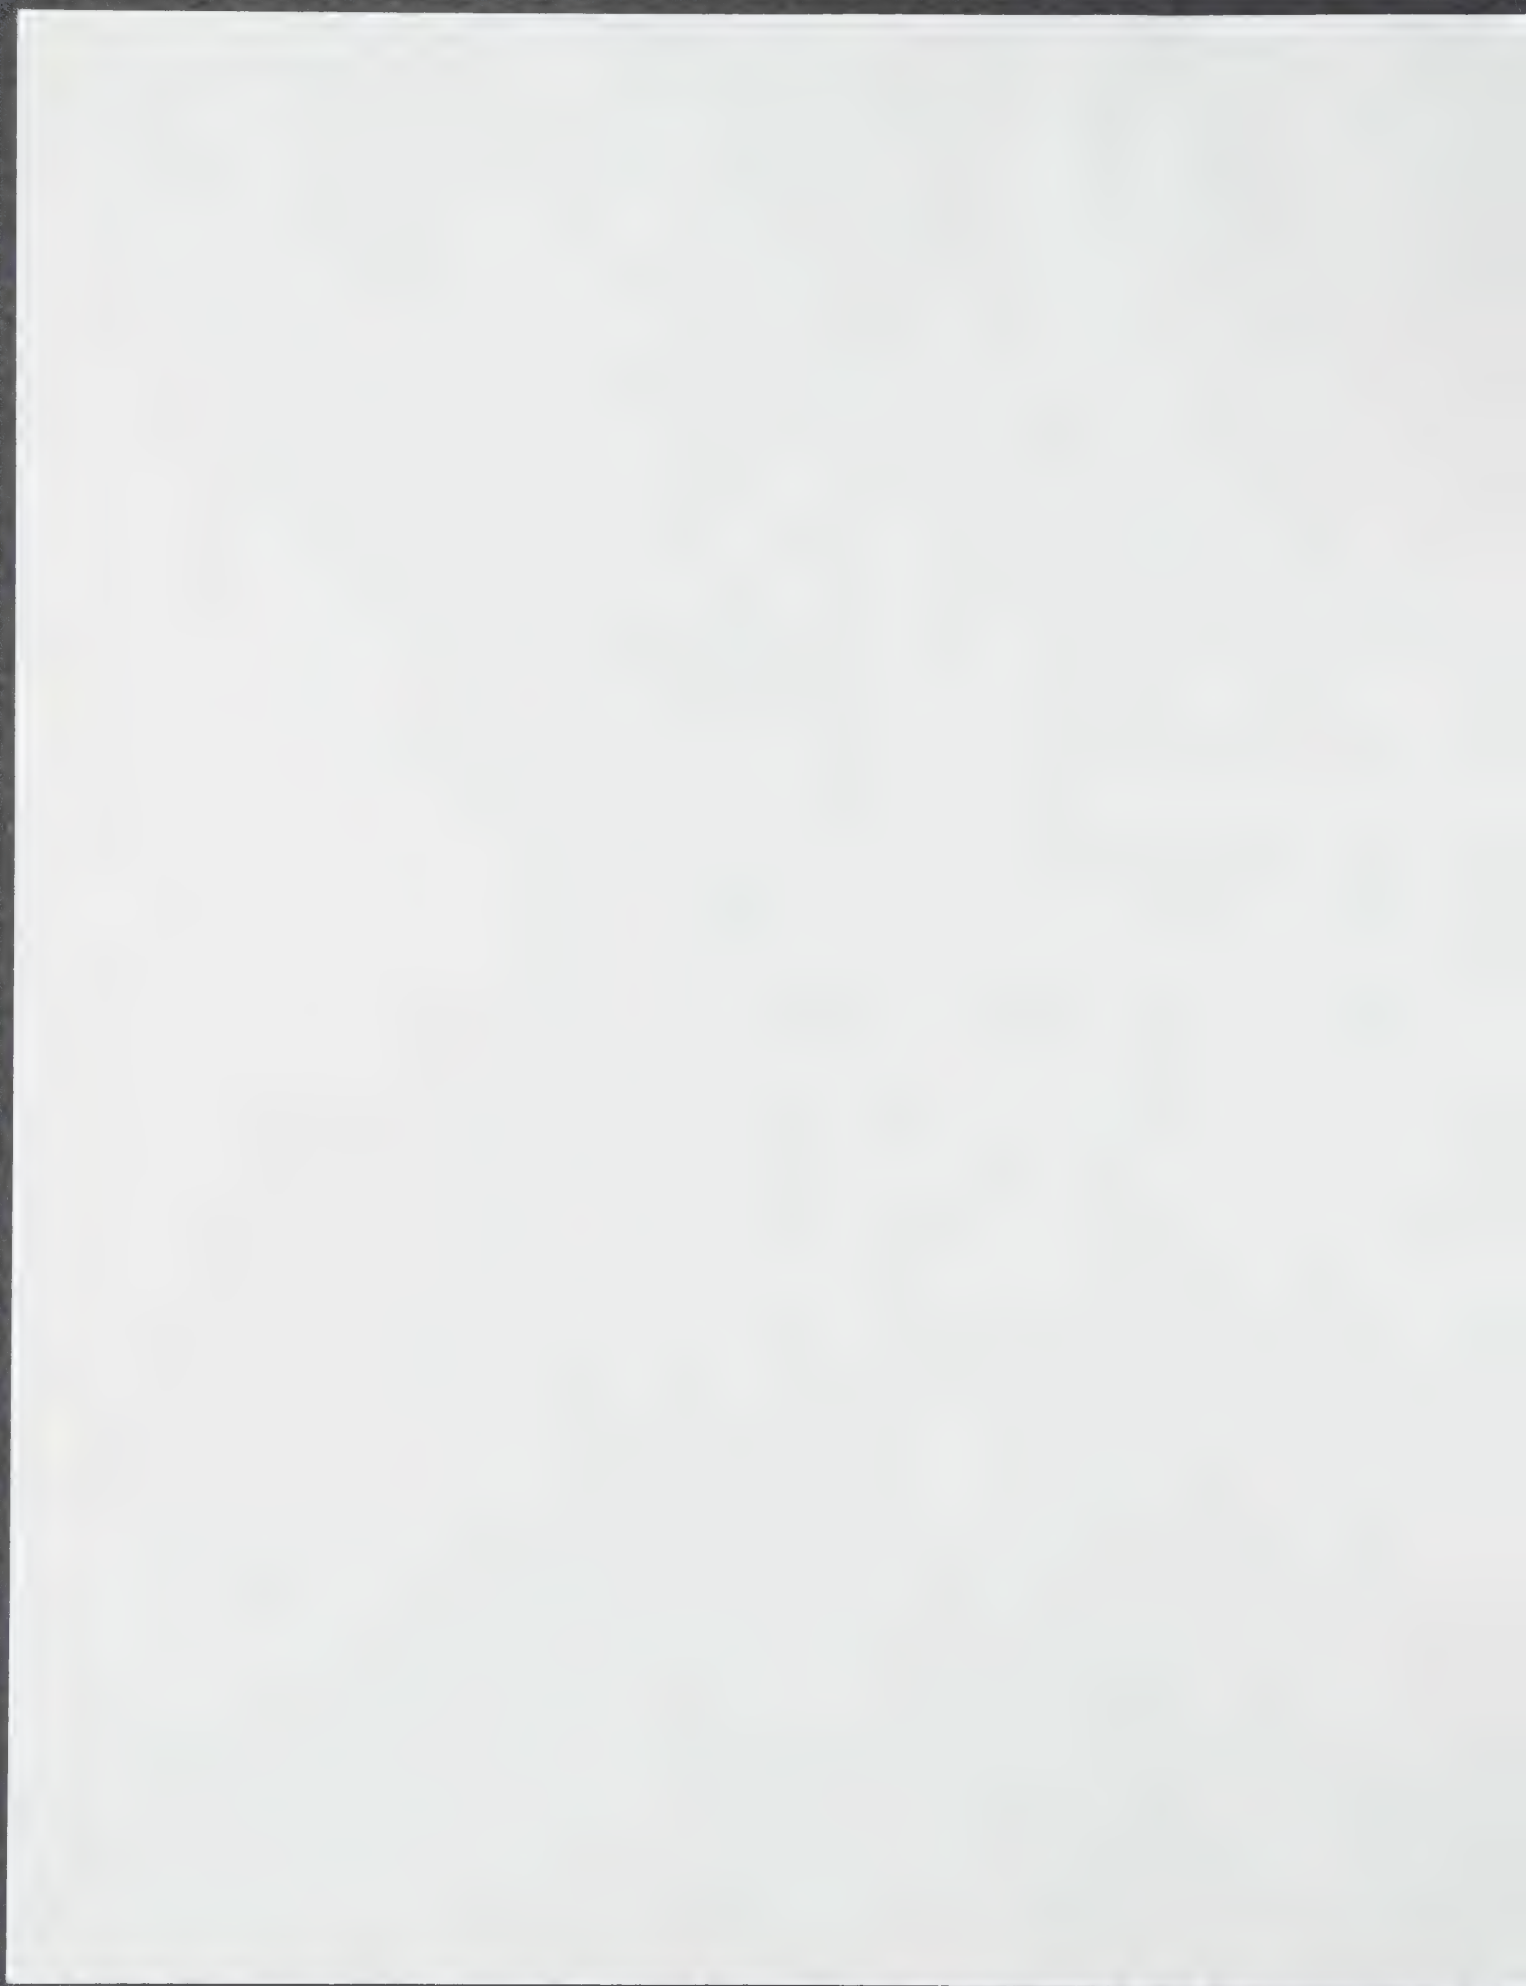

With thanks for your help and best regards I remain

Yours sincerely,

Dear Alfred & Isabel,

Ned called about 5:30 last night. He completely forgot about us. He will call this morning to reschedule.

Jai left a message on the machine. He received your notes and thinks obviously there is some mistake. He met Chancellor Nancy Zimpher and thinks they will be doing things together.

David Epstein called from Baird. He would like to meet with you when you return.

Leo Neufeld called from Albuquerque (Meta Hirschl's husband). He was disappointed with your response, but his purpose was not to have you sell any of his work, rather to present an art promotion program here in Milwaukee. You had suggested UWM to him and the video was a tape of prior presentations he has given. If you did not have a chance to view the tape he will be happy to send it back.

Another response is attached from Madeleine Jacobs (e-mail today). Also one from Mrs. Ulliyot - she sent me their address and I mailed them our letter and the C&EN responses. Copies of response sent also to Drs. Eliel and Brown as you requested. Shall we keep Dr. Runquist informed too?

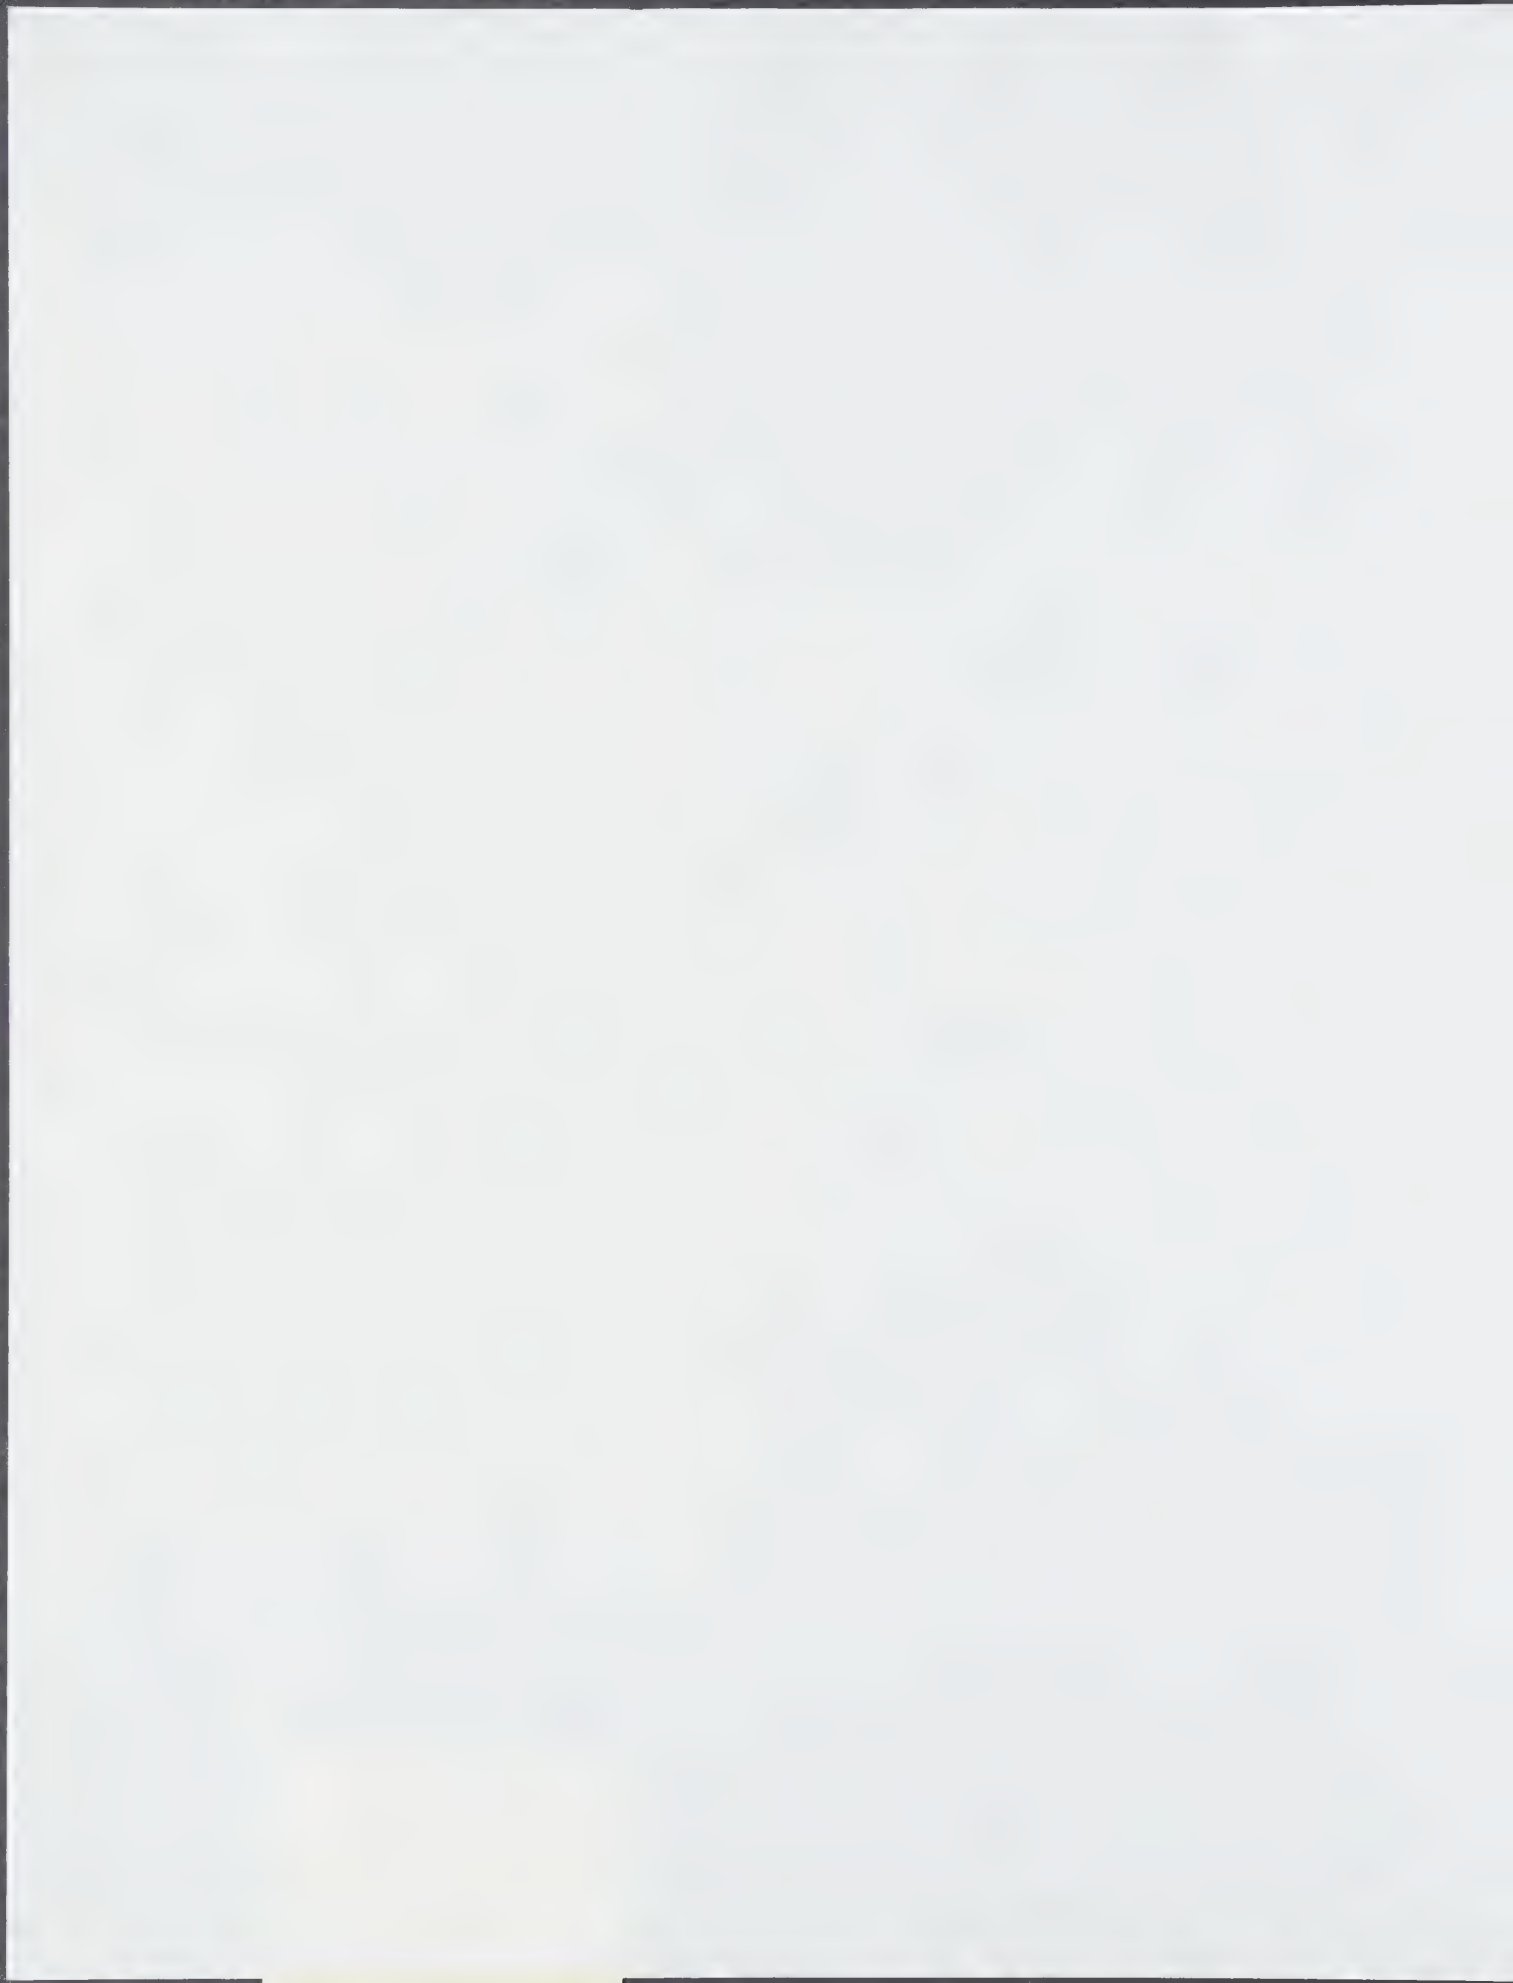

Bill for John Lerch and letter to Dr. Herman attached.

Did you forget anything I can send you?

Enjoy your trip!

Ann

Many of you will be joining us for the Fellows Program in Madison next week. At our May meeting in Milwaukee, the committee recommended that we host an additional reception for Frank Zeidler in the fall. This event will be held on September 9 in the Zeidler Room of the Milwaukee Public Library from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. We hope that you and your guests will be able to attend. Mr. Zeidler, who will also be attending the induction ceremony in Madison, is delighted to be honored again in Milwaukee.

We look forward to seeing you very soon.

Leaving London Heathrow on 3:20 PM on June 20th is just fine.

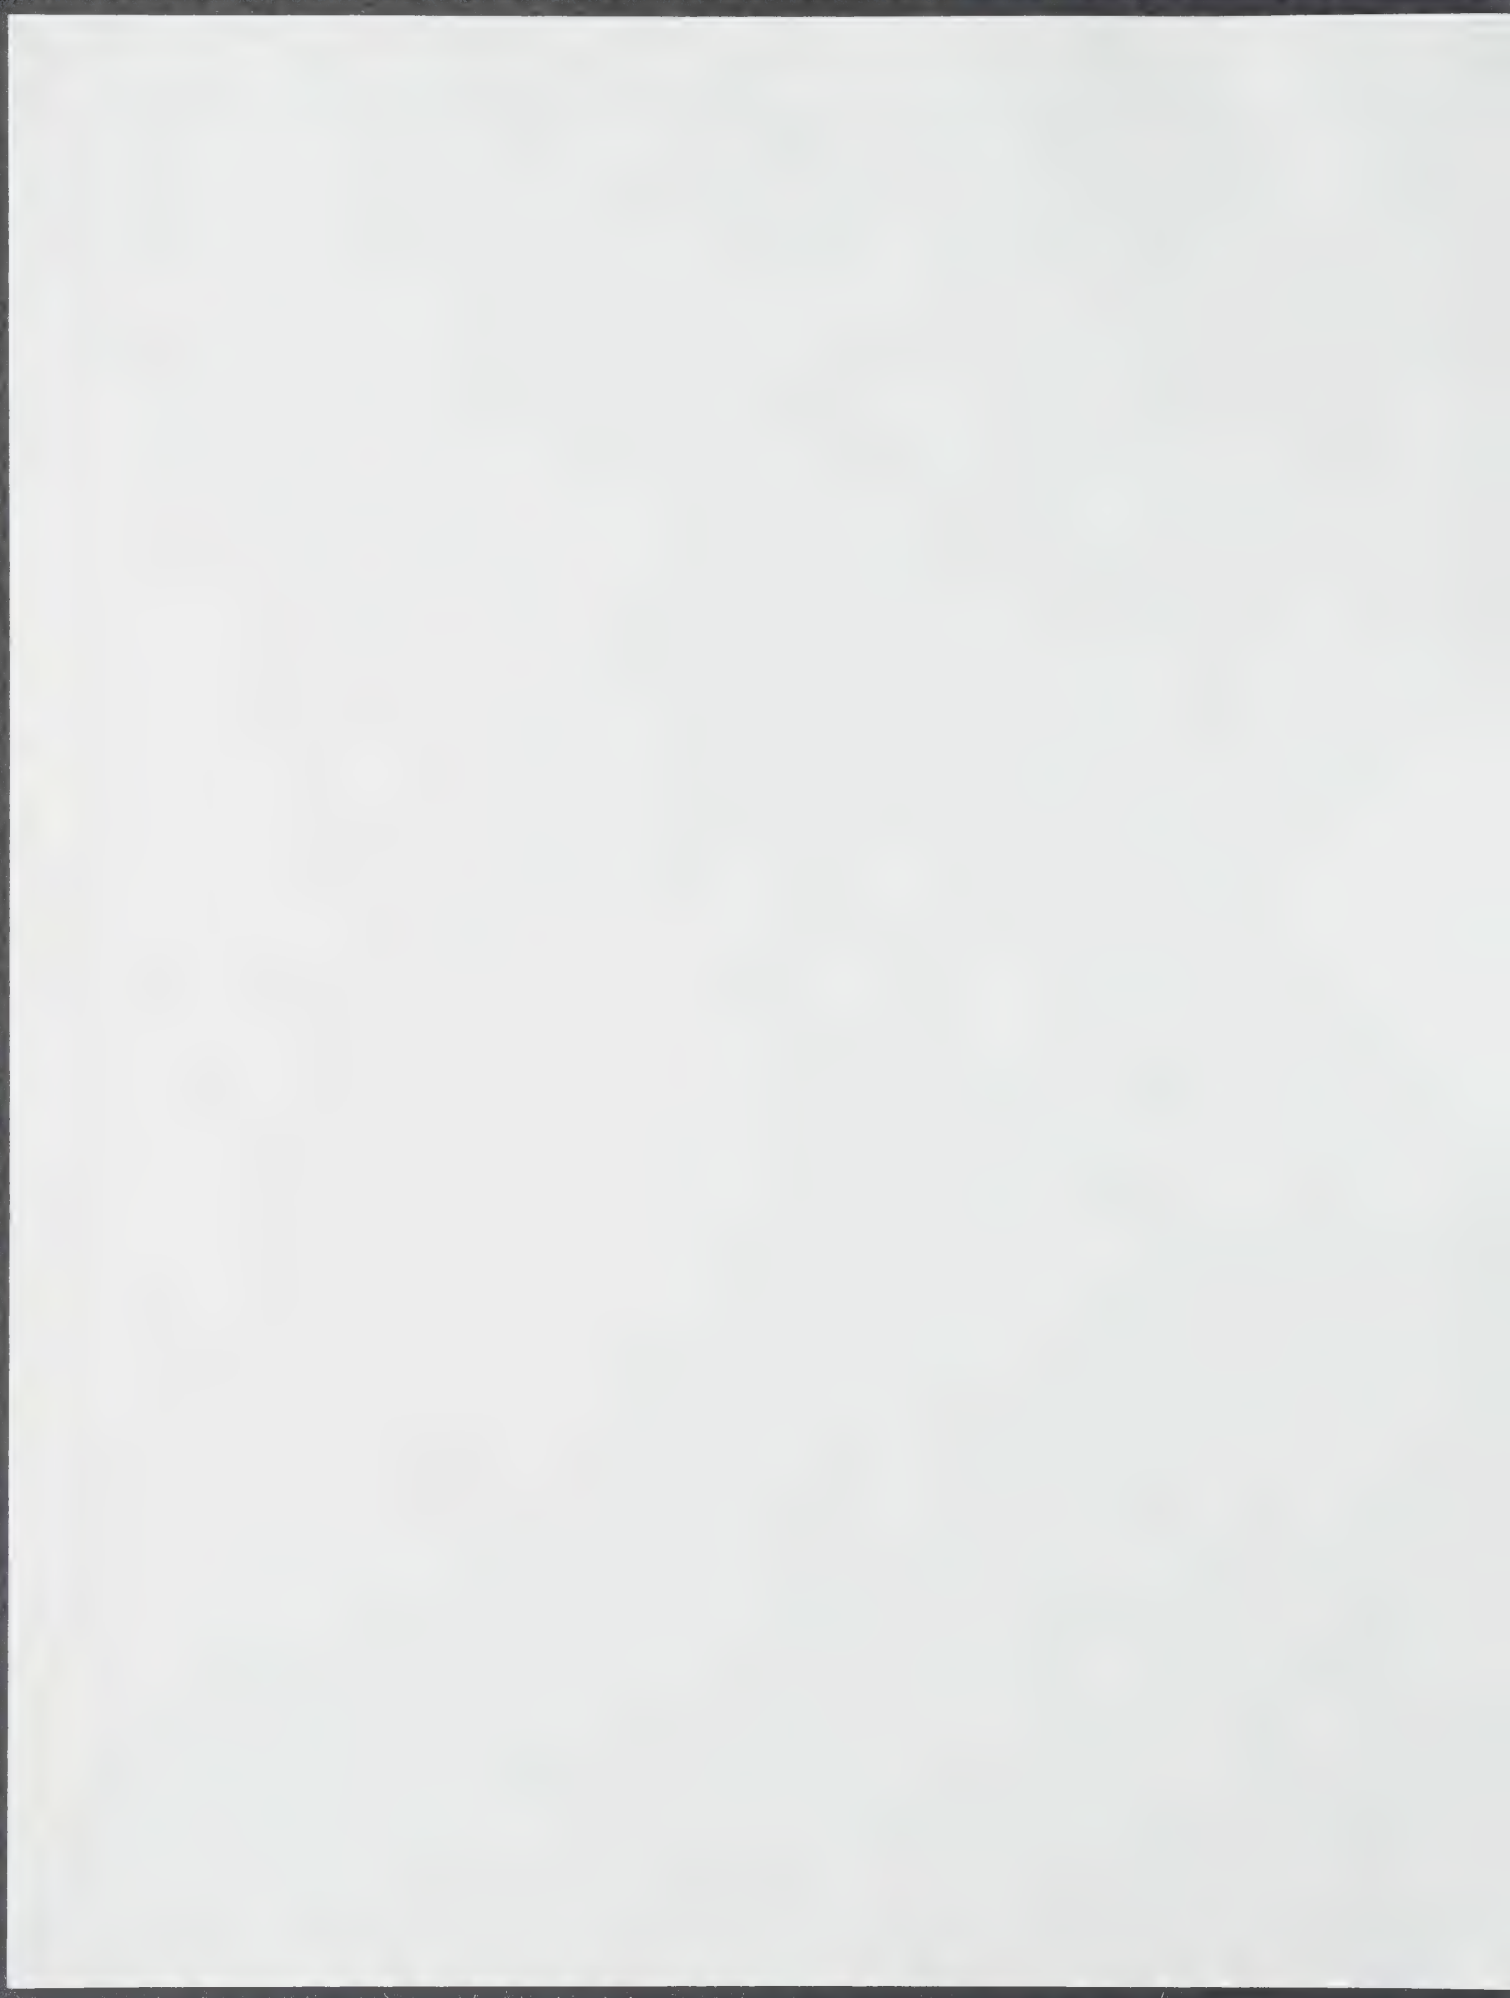

But checking the connections by train from Stuttgart to Frankfurt I find that the flight on July 4th leaving at 11:25 a.m. would be very hard to catch. What is the next BA flight from Frankfurt to London

Also, $410.00 each is so much higher than Sabena. Does it include

I'll be here all day today; please call me at your convenience.
