CZECH REPUBLIC

Dear Ing. Vojta,

You will recall that I promised you that I would send copies of the two very interesting articles about Lomnice written by Dr. Dorothea McEwan in London. Copies of those two articles are now enclosed.

If you would like to correspond with her directly, she is working at the Warburg Institute at the University of London, Woburn Square, London WC1 0AB, ENGLAND.

Do you know how the discussions between your school and Mr. Svoboda and Herstmonceux Castle are proceeding? Of course I very much hope that the school will be able to send one really excellent student to see what the English castle and its International Study Centre is like.

With best personal regards I remain

Yours sincerely,

Jug. Milan Vojta
The Mayor, Louisa

Dear Jug Vojta:

Many thanks for your letter of June 19 and particularly for your wonderful reception on June 12. I have spoken to the librarian at Spentwood Castle, Mr Eugene Prochada, and I think that he has been in touch with your school.

The two articles on the Jewish Community of Louisa are in my office in the USA, and I will send them to you in August. I just hope that I can find them. I went to the British Library in London to obtain the details:

Dear Pavel,

Thank you so much for your letter of March 10th with that most interesting
Cheb catalogue.

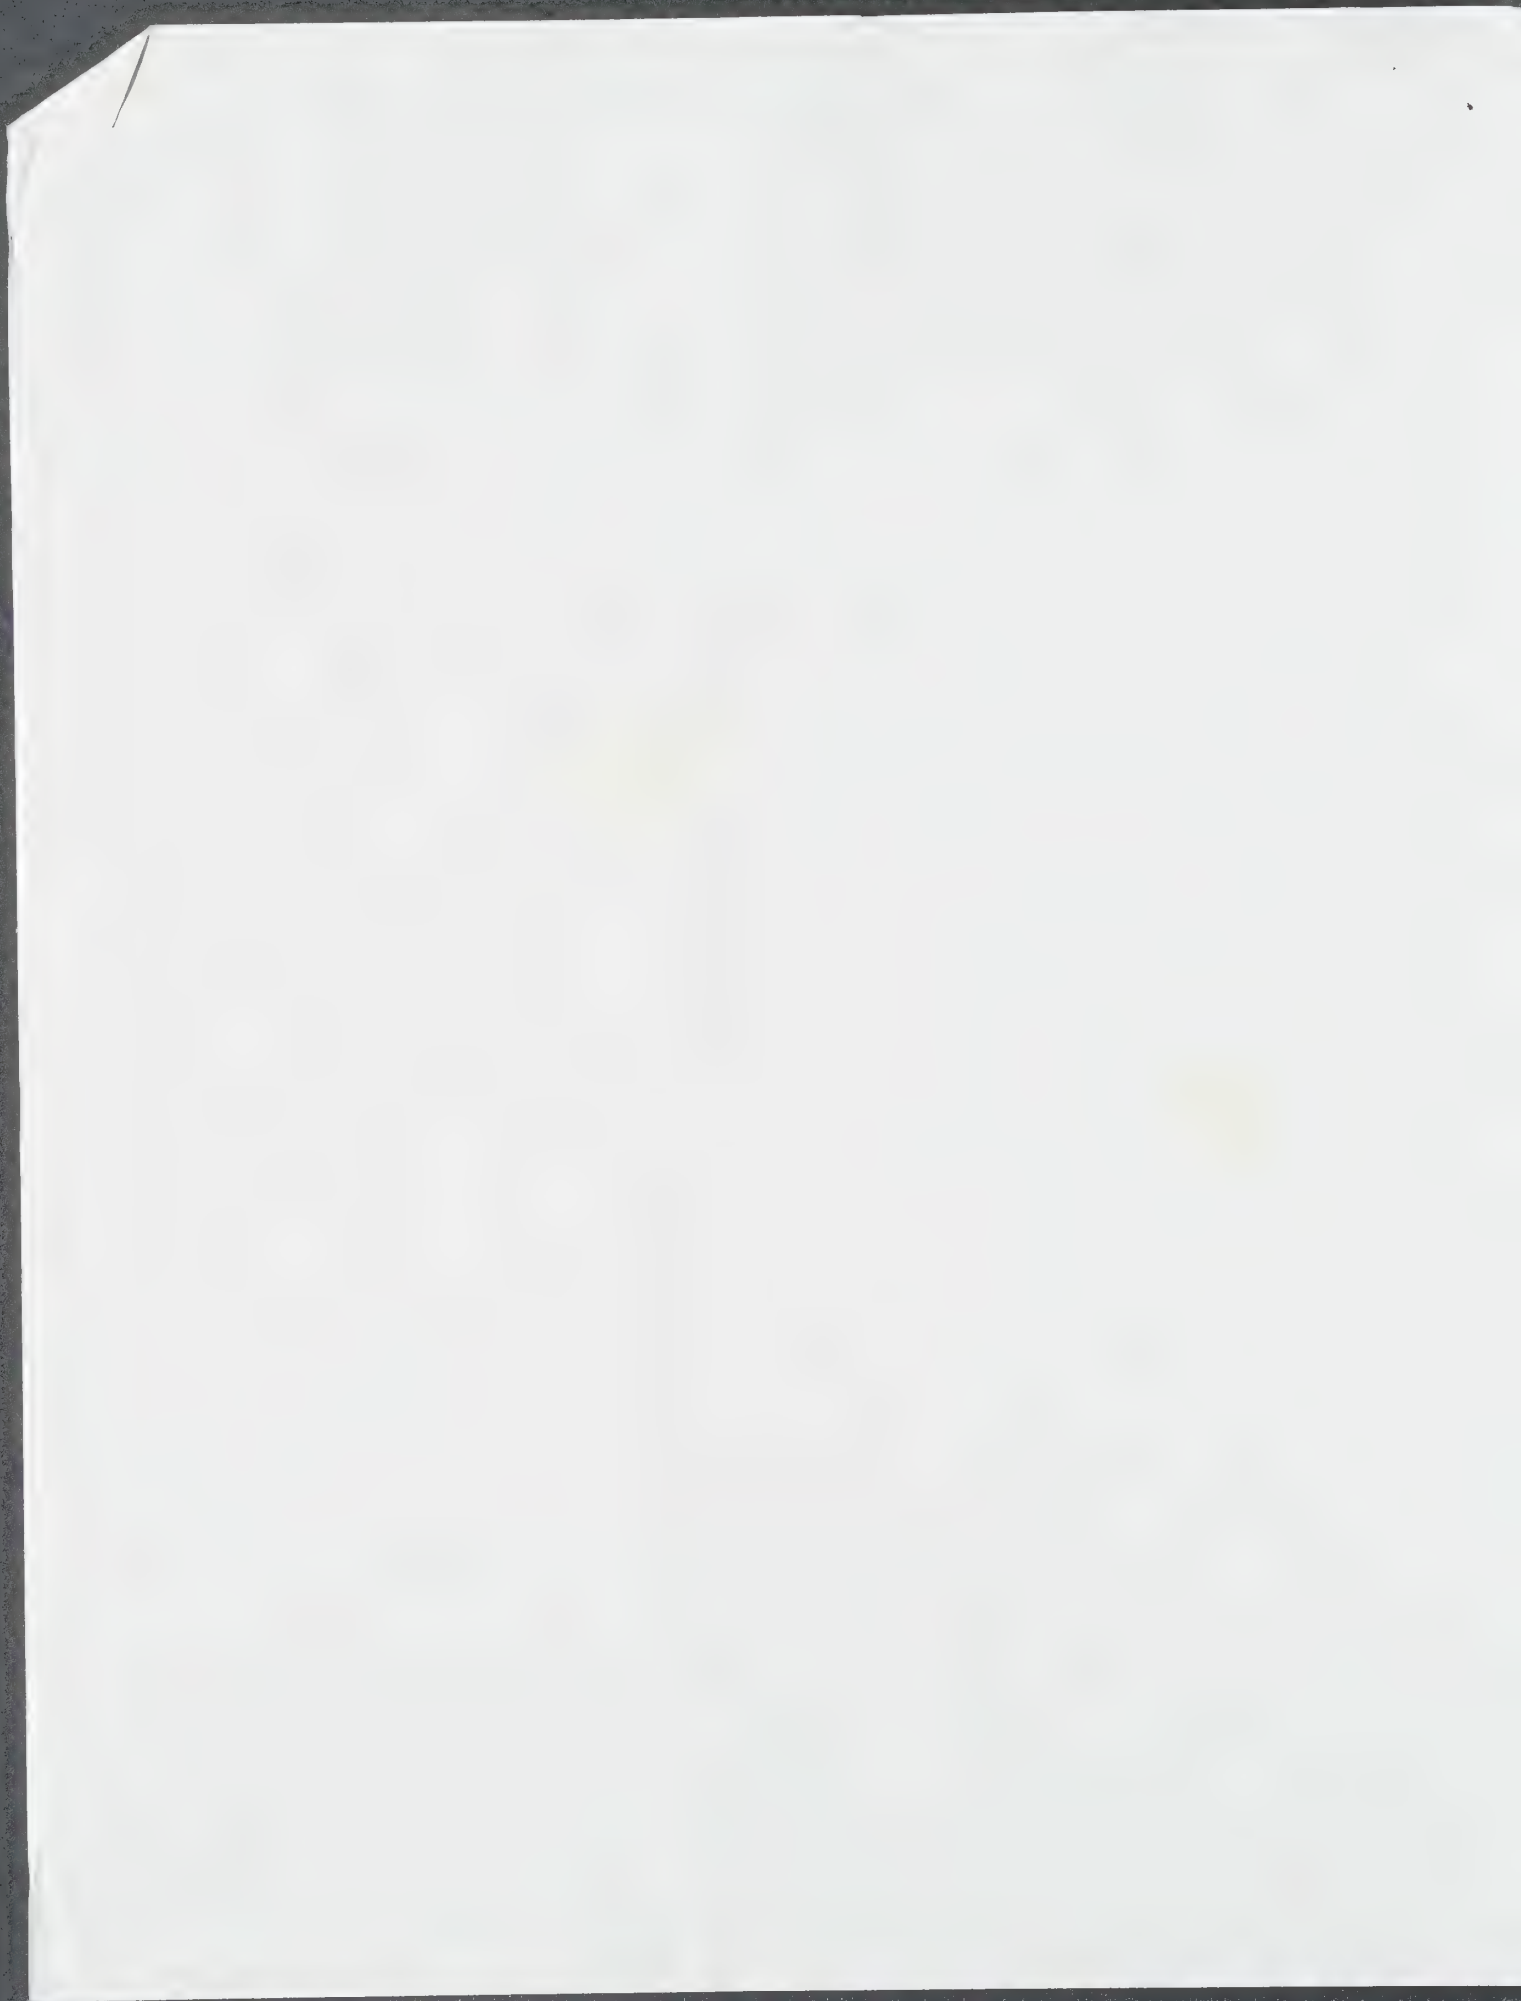

Isabel and I plan to visit England and the continent from May 30th to July 28th. We will be staying in Vienna from June 5th to 11th at the Hotel Austria in the inner city. From there we will then go to Moravia and end up in Prague from the 14th to the 18th of June. It would be fun if we could see you, even if only briefly, while we are in Europe. Next June, however, we can look forward to visiting with you in Vienna.

With all good wishes I remain

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mrs. and Mr. Beder,

First I send you best regards of me and my wife Susanne. Susanne is continuing to run her Tea-room here in the Old town not bad, I continue with restoration working on paintings of the museum of AS, CHEB and the Jewish museum of Prague - where you have been for some time in Praha. They are very kind people working there, some of them are colleagues of mine of the times of our studies of history of art.

I applied the foundation JANINEUM to be allowed to study portrait galleries of the 15th century in Dustie, and, imagine, I was accepted! See the opposite side of this paper. So, next year, I will start in mai the studies (2 months) in Dustie!

I am also happy that I can finally send you the catalogue of the Woldstein Portraits gallery in the museum of Cheb. The reproductions (prints) is a little bit too dark, but, in the whole, the catalogue is not bad. I hope you will find some time to go through some sheets I have written there, and I hope also, you will tell me once, your critical view on that booklet, it would be great of you.

To, dear friends, we wish you both a good health, good and fine spring time with sunny warm days
Yours

P.S. You are ... listed in the catalogue...

Dear Mr. Pavlis,

Thank you so much for your e-mail of august 1st.

Isabel and I would very much like to have a videocassette of what happened in Brno and Lomnice, but I would like to share one problem with you: the University in Brno sent us a videocassette but unfortunately we cannot see anything and I hear my own speech given very quickly. We are now trying to have this cassette changed to the VHS system, which is the only one we can view in our home. We may be able to have the University's cassette changed, but I am not certain. Could you please check whether you could send us a VHS cassette?

I presume that you work with Ing. Milan Vojta and I would like to ask you to transmit two messages: 1. I have not forgotten to find the two papers dealing with the Jewish community in Lomnice. I hope to find them later this month and then send it to Ing. Vojta. The problem is that on my return to Milwaukee a few days ago I found mountains of work. 2. I have spoken to the librarian at Herstmonceux Castle, Mr. Eugene Svoboda, and he is trying to work out a scheme whereby one of the best students in your school could come to Herstmonceux Castle. Of course, Isabel and I would be happy to fund such a trial visit.

With best regards I remain

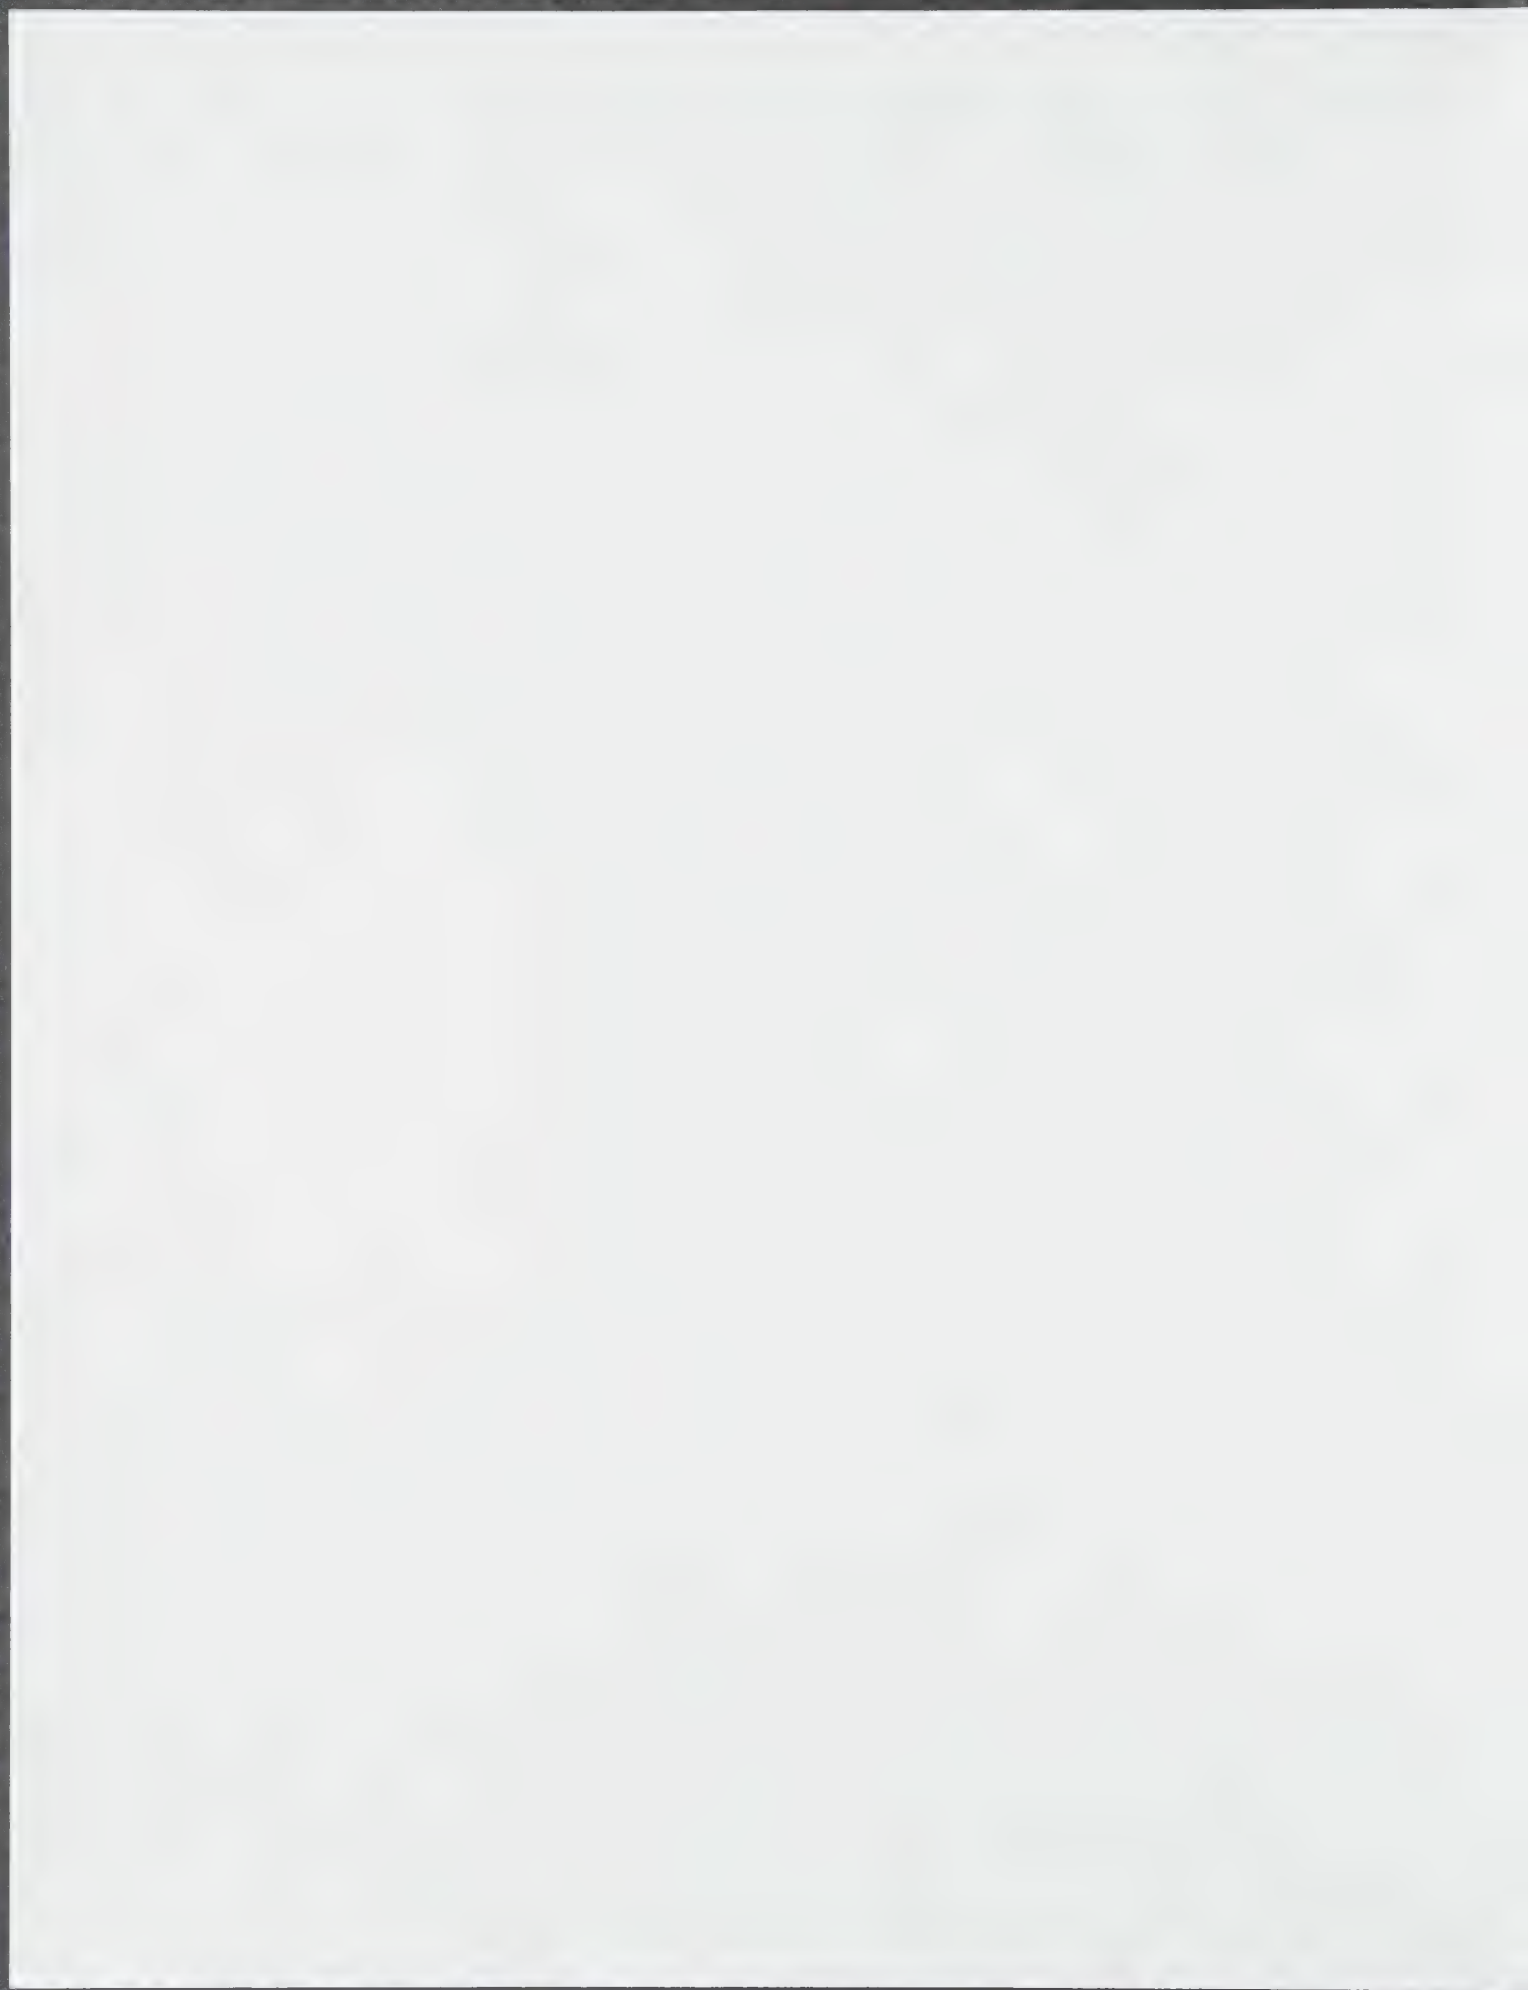

Yours sincerely,
Alfred Bader

Dear Alfred & Isabel,

Your instructions on Calvary payment were loud and clear. Balance in your personal account is $1,597,626 per Noelle yesterday.

We will transfer $1.7 million from Marshall Fund and $500,000 from your personal account into ABFA checking when the check is presented.

$66,667 will remain in ABFA after the check is presented and we have 6,642 currently in the account for a $73,300 balance

To follow your instructions, we need a total of $99,000 in order to maintain $20,000 in both ABFA and Marshall accounts and cover Clovis' check. B&K will be able to transfer about $23,000 into ABFA on 7/31, after we pay the property taxes which are due on 7/31. Kohl's sent us a check for their portion of the taxes – found it today tucked in with the mail Niki processed on your desk. Also, B&K received dividends of about $1,000 from Baird. I am depositing checks to B&K account this afternoon. Winthrop California K-1's were in the pile also, so I faxed copies to Stephen Barney. Both your personal and B&K.

I found a few other things I should send by fax, so they follow.

Boston will be expensive ($747 each). Midwest Express offers you the following:

10/12 Leave at 9:25 am / Arrive Boston 12:35 pm
OR
Leave 3:30 pm / Arrive Boston 6:40 pm

Hotel Sheraton 11/12

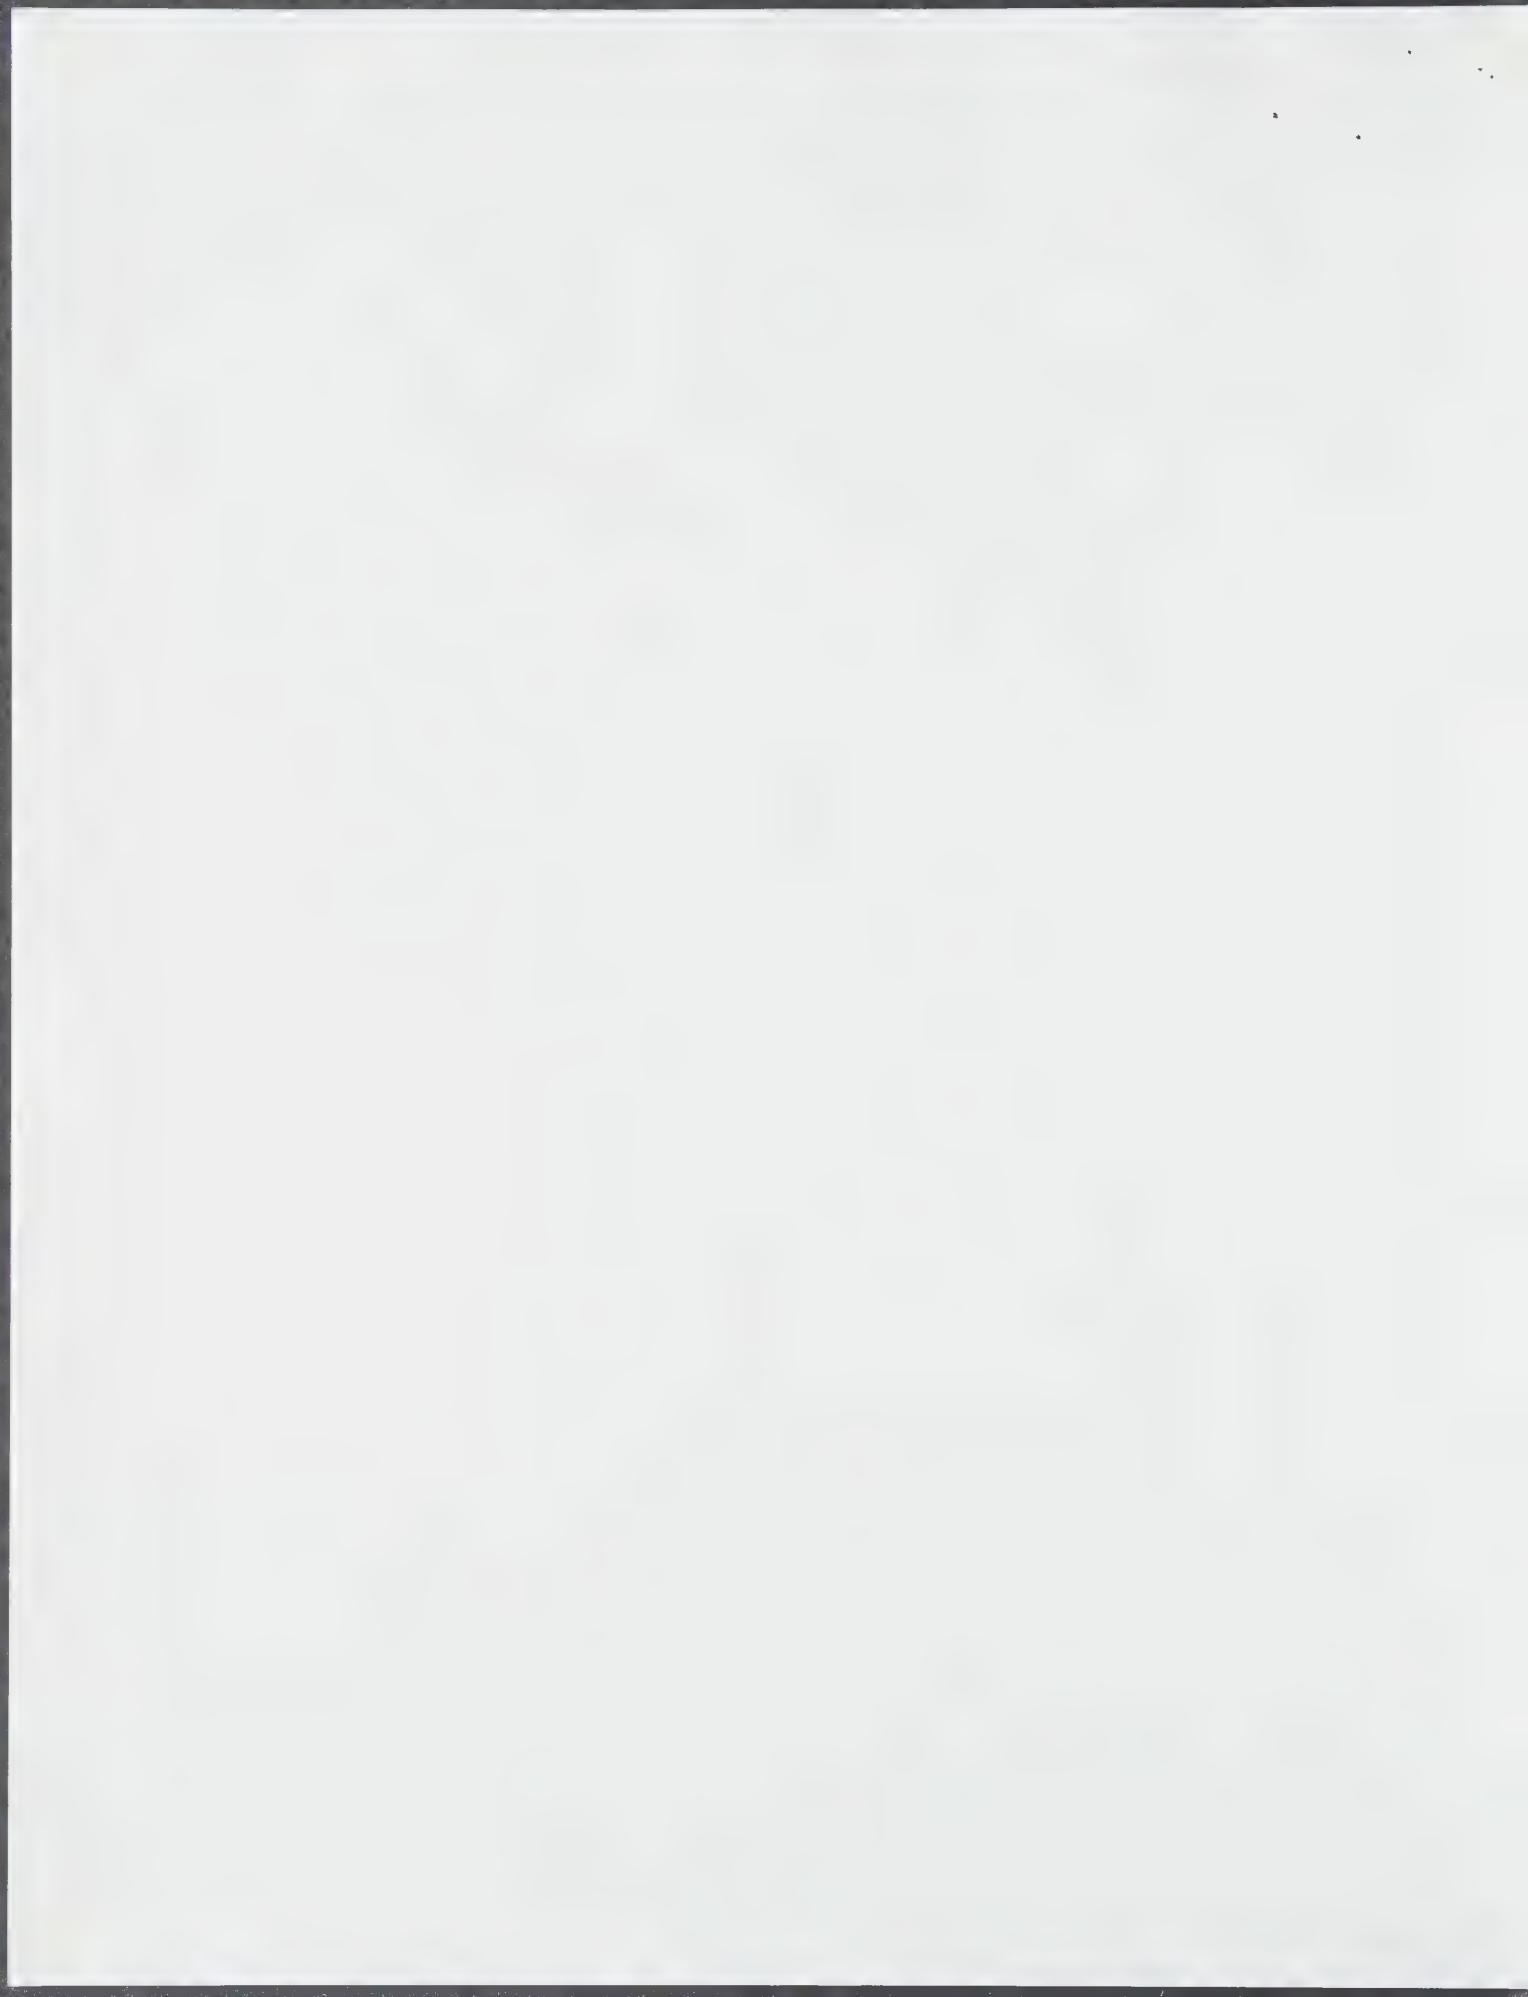

10/15 Leave Boston 7 pm / Arrive 8:30 pm

Three nights at the Sheraton are included in the price.

Which of the outbound flights do you prefer on the 12th? Nothing at all is available around noon. Remember, no changes, cancels or refunds with Midwest Express Vacations – pricing of airfare and then adding hotel accommodations separately added up to almost $1,000 each. Sue and I tried, though.

Call if you need me, I'll be here another half hour or so.

Best regards as always,
Ann

Sigma-Aldrich Second Quarter Chemical Eps Up 18.4%, Sales Increase 7.6%, Gain On B-Line S Exceeds $171 Million

July 25, 2000--Overall results: Sigma-Aldrich Corporation is pleased to report increased sales and earnings per share from its chemical business for the second quarter and first six months of 2000. For the second quarter of 2000, diluted net income per share from chemical operations rose 18.4% to $.4 per share from $.38 in 1999. For the six-month period, diluted earnings per share from chemical operations were $.90 compared to $.77 for 1999, a 16.9% increase. Operations of the B-Line System metal business, which was sold to Cooper Industries on May 1, 2000, added $.03 and $.11 to diluted earnings per share for the second quarter and first six months of 2000, respectively. The sale resulted in a net gain of $171.8 million, bringing total diluted earnings per share to $2.52 and $2.96 for the second quarter and six-month period, respectively.

Chemicals: Excluding the impact of currency exchange rates, sales grew 7.6% for both the second quarter and first six months of 2000. As reported, sales increased 4.5% to $267.8 million in the second quarter and 4.4% to $551.8 million for the first half of 2000. Overall price and volume gains in the second quarter were consistent with those achieved in the first quarter of the year and an improve of levels achieved in 1999. Laboratory and life science products, which represent 75% of total chem sales and are used in both life science and other high tech research, had above average sales gains from increased prices, proactive customer contact by sales forces, increased electronic orders and the distribution of new cell signaling and life science catalogs in the second quarter. Enhancements in and active promotion of e-commerce capabilities increased the electronic order rate to over 7% of our U.S. research sales and 3.5% of worldwide research sales at the end of the second quarter. Improved demand from pharmaceutical customers provided low double-digit volume gains in fine chemical sales. Competitive pricing and fewer instrument placements reduced diagnostic sales.

Pretax income of 20.5% of sales in the second quarter and 20.9% of sales for the first half of 2000 ar in line with expectations. Benefits from price increases and costs eliminated through restructuring and ongoing process improvement activities were offset by the cost of the new catalogs, higher levels of sales efforts with both existing and potential customers and efforts to continually upgrade our award winning web site and internal operating systems to maintain service levels that distinguish Sigma-Aldrich. Interest expense reduced the otherwise reportable pretax gain by $1.4 million and $3. million for the three and six-month periods ended June 30, 2000. Net income from continuing operations reflects investment for enhanced growth of the Company which is expected to continually increase overall internal sales growth from current rates to 10% by the end of 2001.

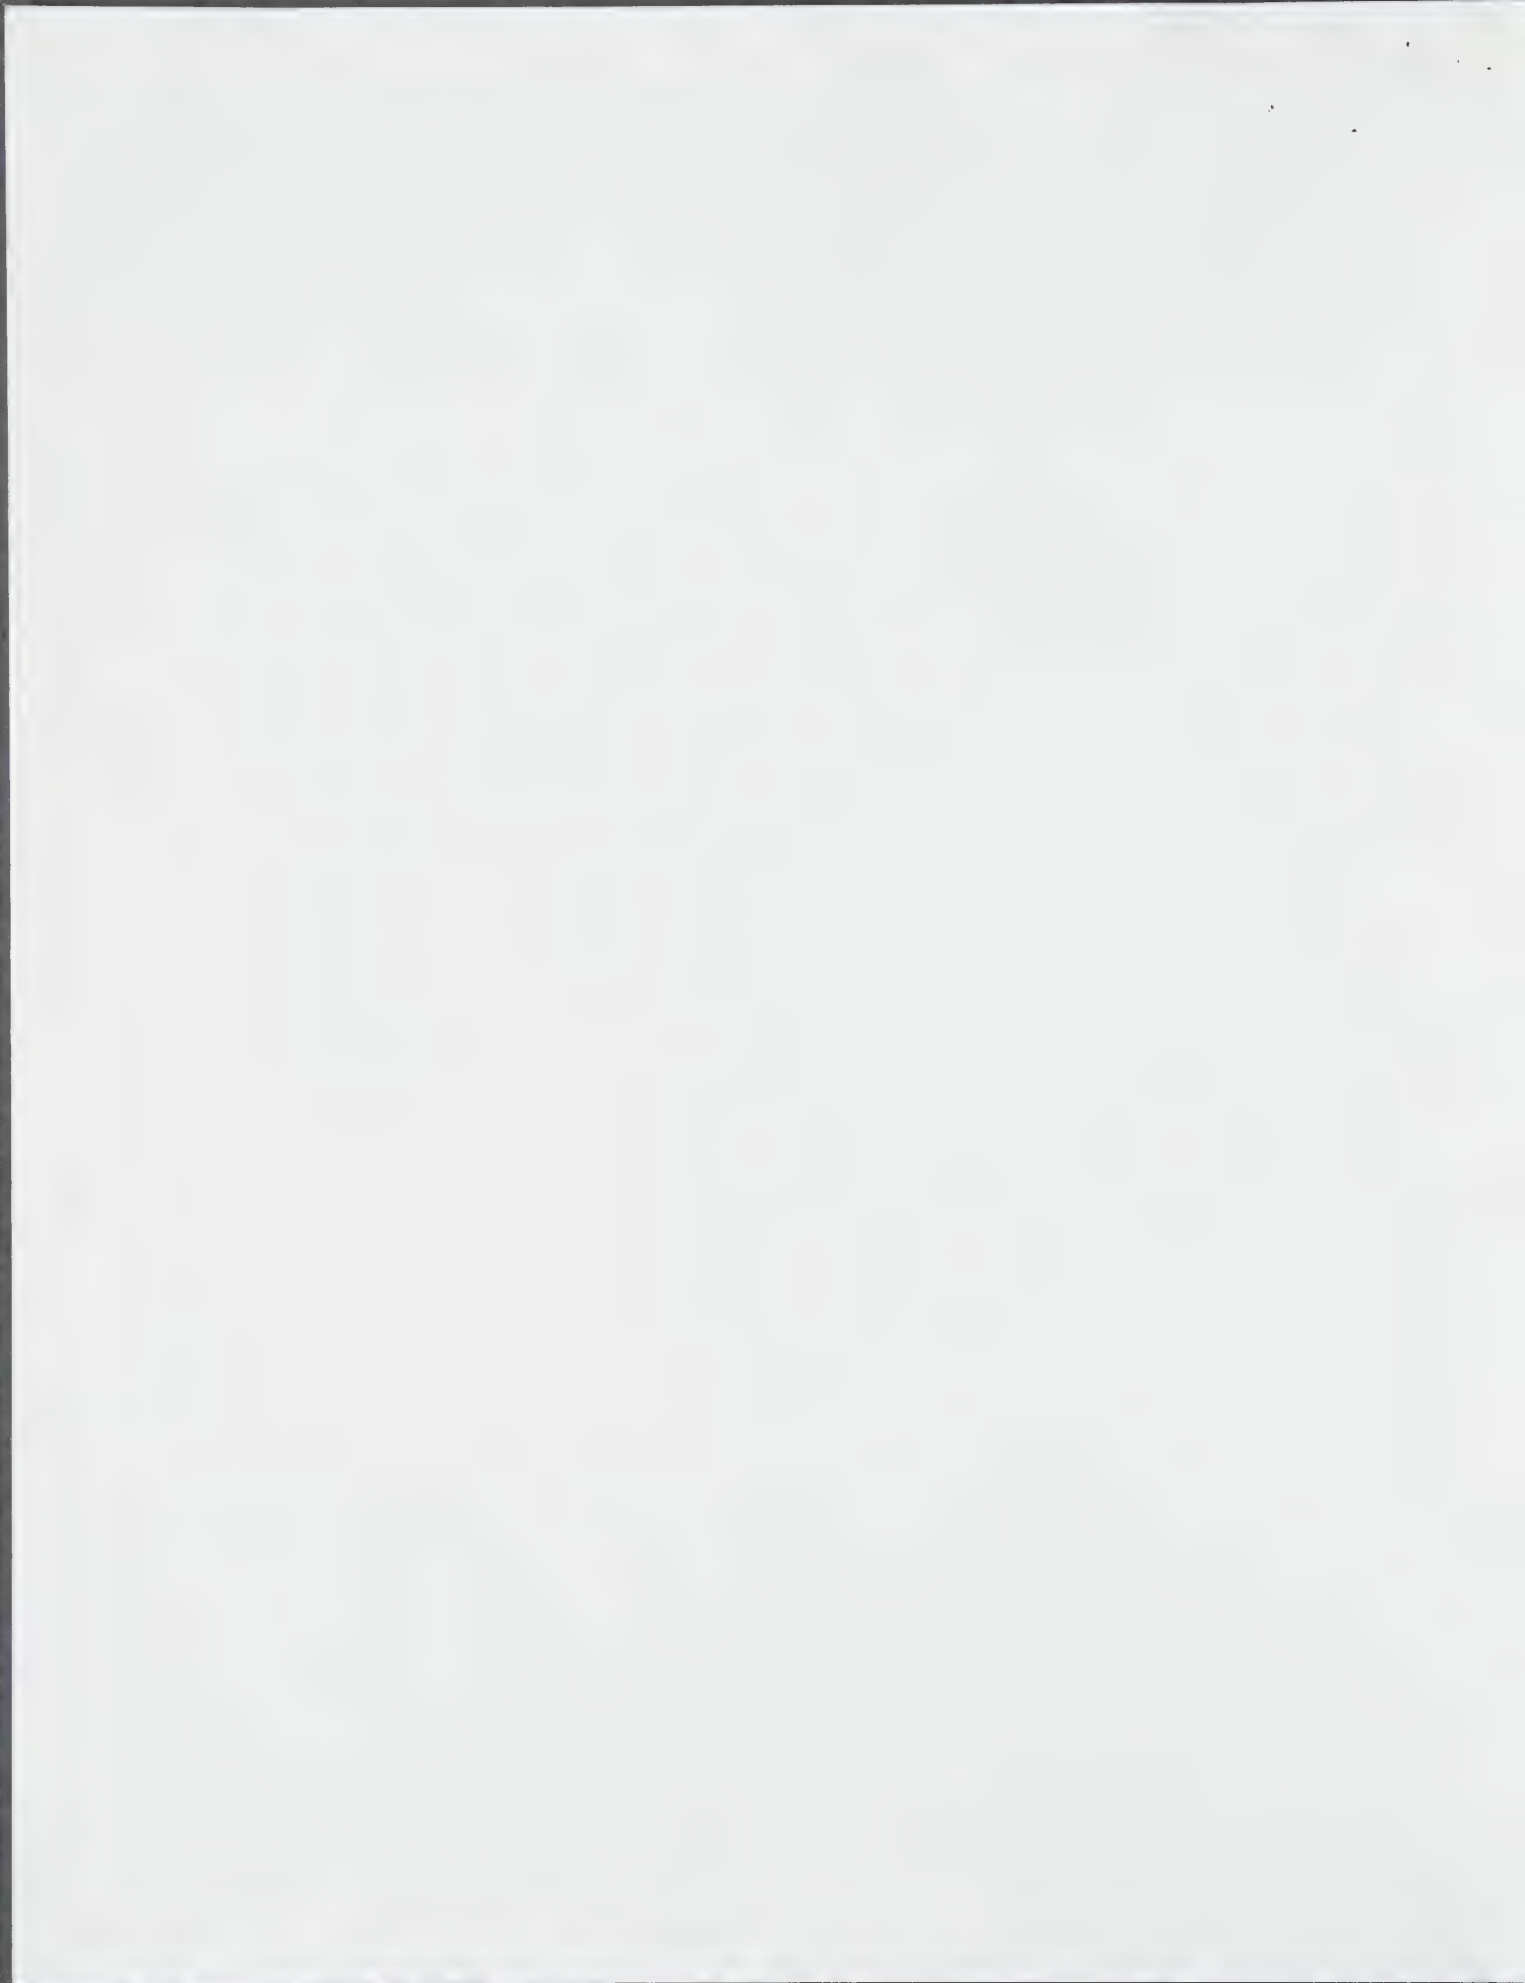

Metals: The sale of the B-Line Systems metal business to Cooper Industries, Inc. was completed on M 1, 2000. At that time, the initial purchase price of $425.2 million was received. The buyer is reviewing purchase price adjustment, which is expected to add approximately $6 million to the initial price to reflect recent performance for this business prior to sale and other sale agreement adjustments. The gain on the sale, which includes this purchase price adjustment, is $171.8 million. Results for this discontinued operation also added $.03 and $.11 to total Company diluted earnings per share for the second quarter and first six months of 2000, respectively.

Share Repurchase: The previously authorized repurchase of 20 million shares of Common Stock was completed early in June 2000. At that time, the Board of Directors authorized the purchase of an additional 5 million shares. At June 30, 2000, a total of 20.3 million shares had been acquired and 80. million shares are outstanding. Additional purchases in July 2000 bring the total shares repurchased t date to 20.6 million shares at an average purchase price of $30.08. The Company expects to continue share repurchases to acquire the remaining 4.4 million shares, but the timing and number of shares repurchased will depend upon market conditions and other factors.

Working Capital: Cash received from the sale of the B-Line Systems business has been used to reduce outstanding borrowings and continue share repurchases. Short-term borrowings outstanding at June 2000 were also used to continue the share repurchase program. Progress on tighter management of other working capital items continued. Accounts receivable declined by $7 million from first quarter levels while chemical inventories grew a modest 1.9% from their December 31, 1999 levels.

Outlook: Implementation of strategic plan initiatives to achieve an annual internal sales growth rate o 10% by the end of 2001 is progressing satisfactorily. Sales growth for the remainder of 2000 is expected to improve. We continue to strengthen the fundamentals and service associated with both Laboratory and Life Science products. Worldwide distribution of new cell signaling, life science and organic chemical catalogs will improve our market position, aided by new product launches in the fast growing areas of DNA purification and amplification, gene expression and cell growth and ongoing strength in sales of synthetic DNA. Continued exploitation of our unique fine chemical manufacturing capabilities should provide continued above average gains in this business. We remain confident that longer-term sales performance will improve for our Diagnostic business as we pursue niche markets, point of care, and OEM opportunities.

SIAL@aldrich.com

Investments in our future will reduce second half profit margins for our underlying chemical operation below those achieved in the second quarter of 2000. We will continue to invest in growth with increased spending for research and development, expanded sales and marketing activities, continuing investment in information systems and other planned strategic initiatives. By using the full strength of our organization to control costs, we should partially offset these investments, resulting in otherwise second half earnings per share for our underlying chemical operations equivalent to those achieved in the first half of the year. But, interest expense to facilitate continued share repurchases and announced acquisitions will reduce these otherwise reported earnings in the second half by $.02 per share, with share repurchases enhancing earnings per share growth.

Furthermore, as announced on July 24, 2000, marketing and development costs associated with the acquisition of First Medical, Inc. will further reduce projected earnings for Sigma-Aldrich in the last half of 2000 by up to $.04 per share. For additional details on this acquisition, see our July 24, 2000 release "Sigma-Aldrich Acquires First Medical, Inc. To Enhance Position In Cardiac Assessment And Expand In Point Of Care Diagnostics". As a result of all of the above, overall earnings per share for the second half of 2000 may be up to $.06 per share lower than those achieved in the first half. A special charge for purchased research and development in process will result in an additional one-time, non-cash charge in the third quarter of 2000 of $.02-.05 per share.

Sigma-Aldrich develops manufactures and distributes the broadest range of high quality biochemicals, organic chemicals, chromatography products and diagnostic reagents available in the world. Our products are used in high tech research and development in the life sciences, at universities and in industry, for the diagnosis of disease, and as specialty chemicals for pharmaceutical and other manufacturing purposes in more than 160 countries. We are committed to the success of our customers, employees and shareholders through life science, technology and service.

Hope you were not in much pain at the dentist.

Check your post for # 2152 (cost of 10.154-)

£ 23.676 - deposited at RBS yesterday

(£1 = 1.50 - how do we handle pounds. - ?)

I also deposited £ 16.000, VAT from painting

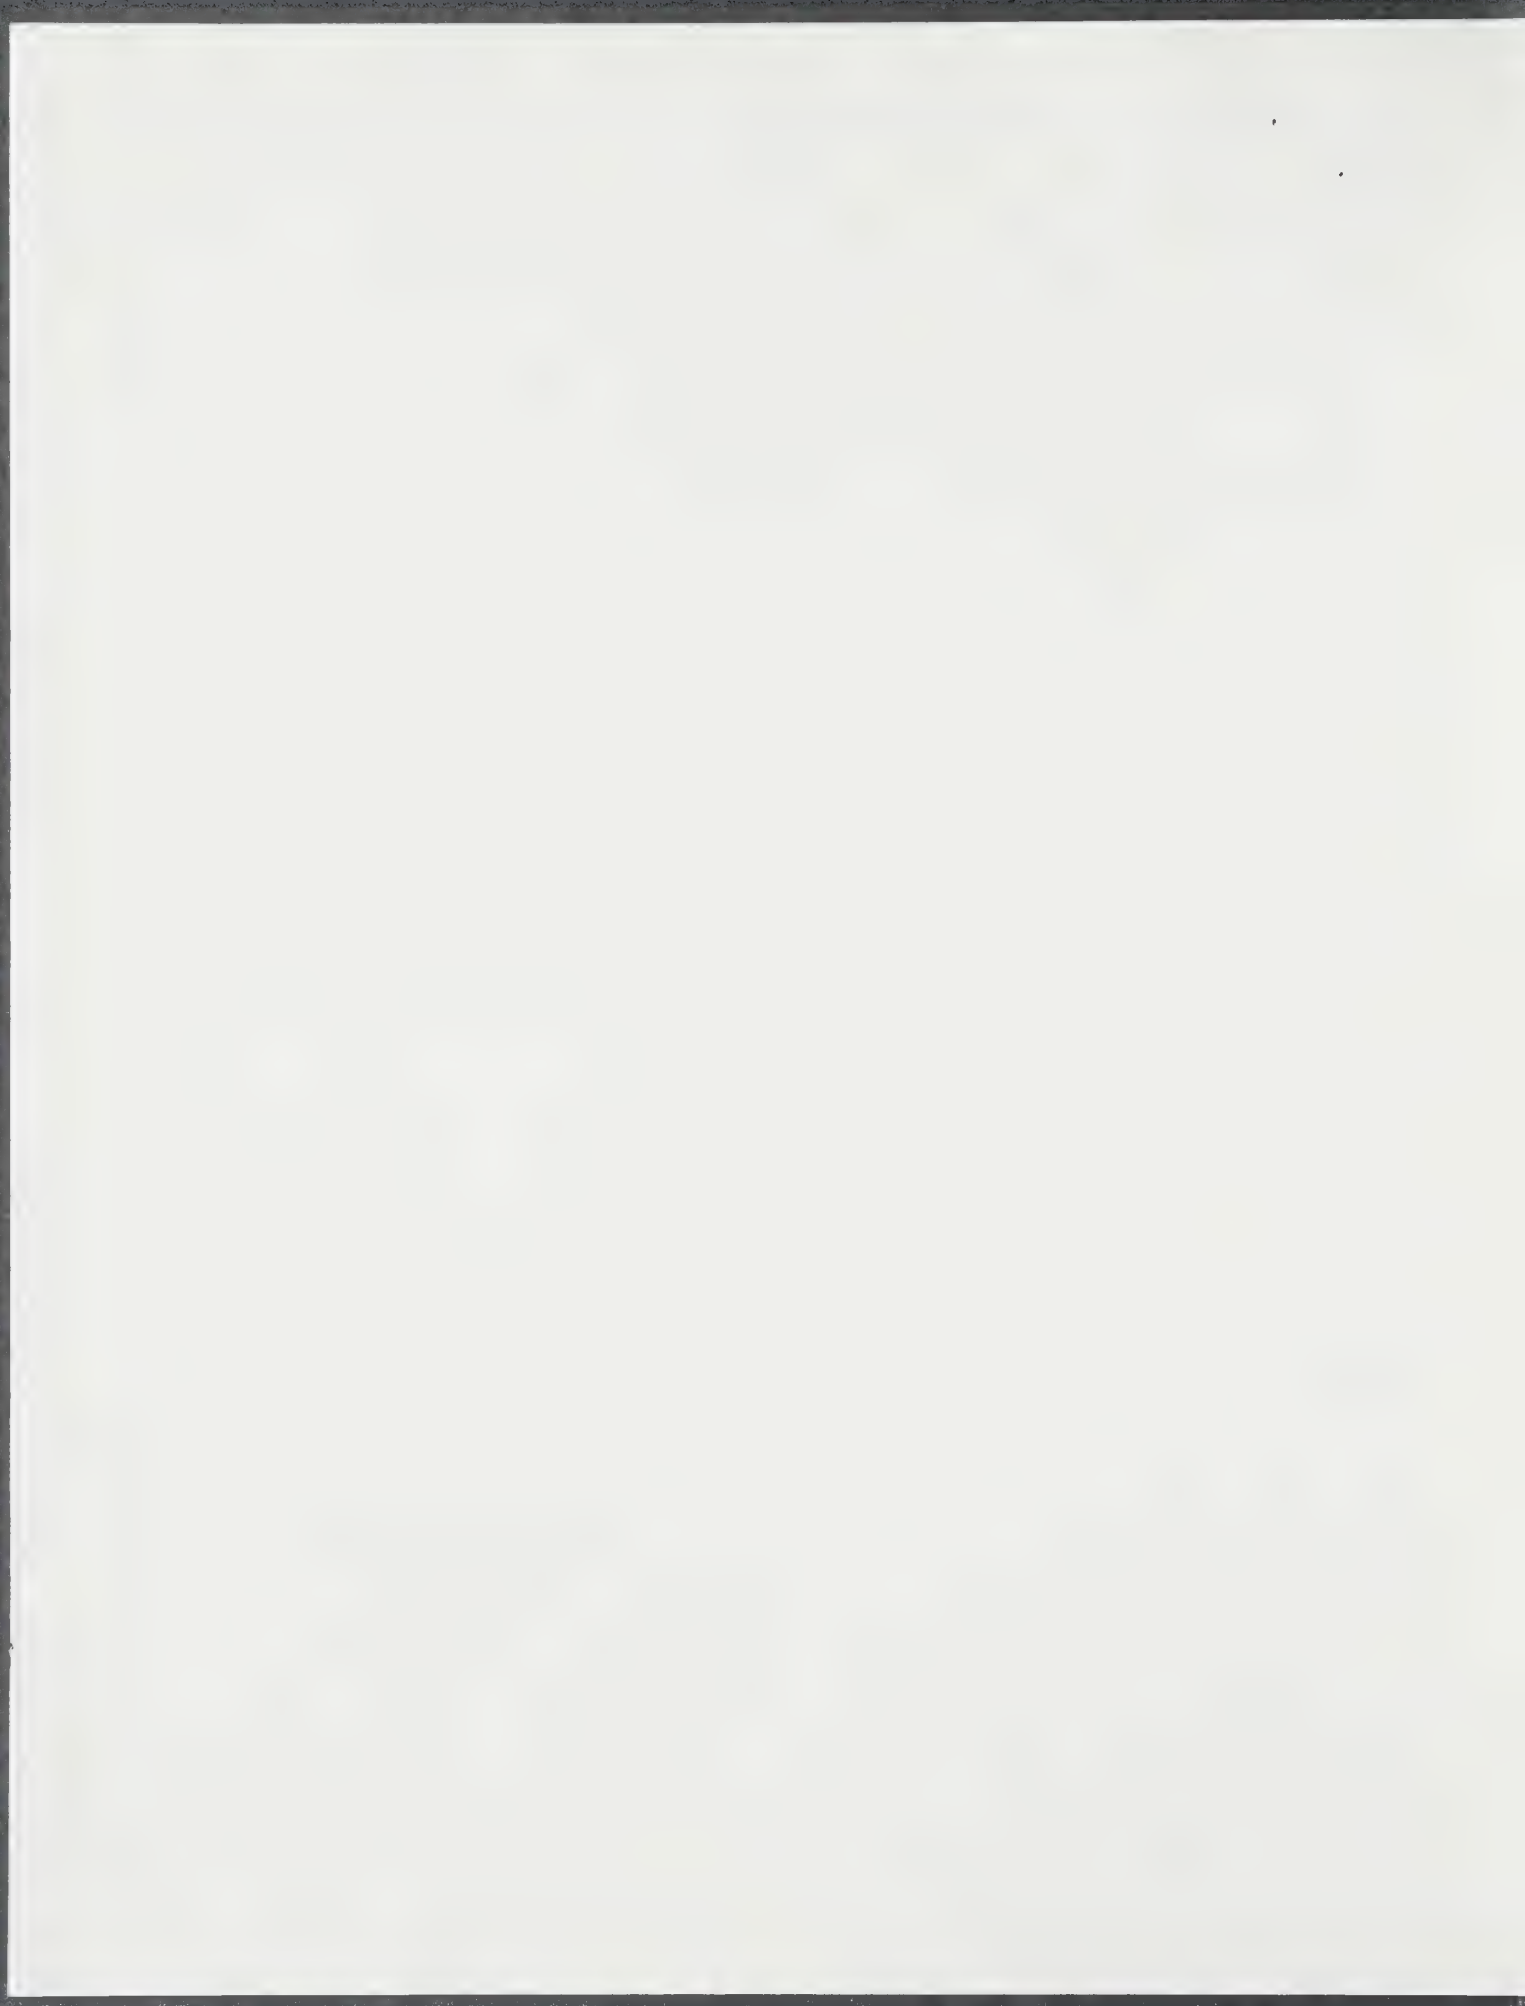

Example 4 notes at Bexhill on May 21 - total with sum £ 916.35. RBS should send you details with follow

Charles tells me that George (with road for Alfred) in that frame is very good. Please circulate photo and color pamphlet (if we have one; if not, could you take one?)

Please ask Janet to be sure not to put any of the papers down yet

Best wishes

Please attach a copy of my speech at the university in Bonn. All my copies were taken away before by journalists.

Please make an appointment for lunch with Dr. Jordan Moore (9111 4000) for long night August, to look at an odd sketchbook or two back to you that we'll get into the Moore album in August.

Dear Alfred & Isabel,

Attached are copies of papers and documents you requested. We have inquired several times about the check mentioned in Clark's letters, as you can see. I checked with the Better Business Bureau and they have no registered complaints. I reached Mrs. Richter's answering machine when I called.

The e-Bay paintings will be put up for sale the week of July 24th. You'll have a lot of time to know how we did and then pick five more to feature. I have it all figured out now. Ned came in this morning and will be able to help us with packing shipping at that time. You need him for the job you called him.

I have e-mailed Martin but have no reply as yet. SLAI is at $90,200 and last week it was under $50,000 until Friday.

Your home mail was on my desk this morning. I've sent a report for Promega for you to review and sign. They want to change some of the Bylaws at the Shareholders Meeting. I think I'll let you know the information today.

Clark has decided not to buy the gas station. I've seen a copy of the correspondence stating that they prefer to remain as is.

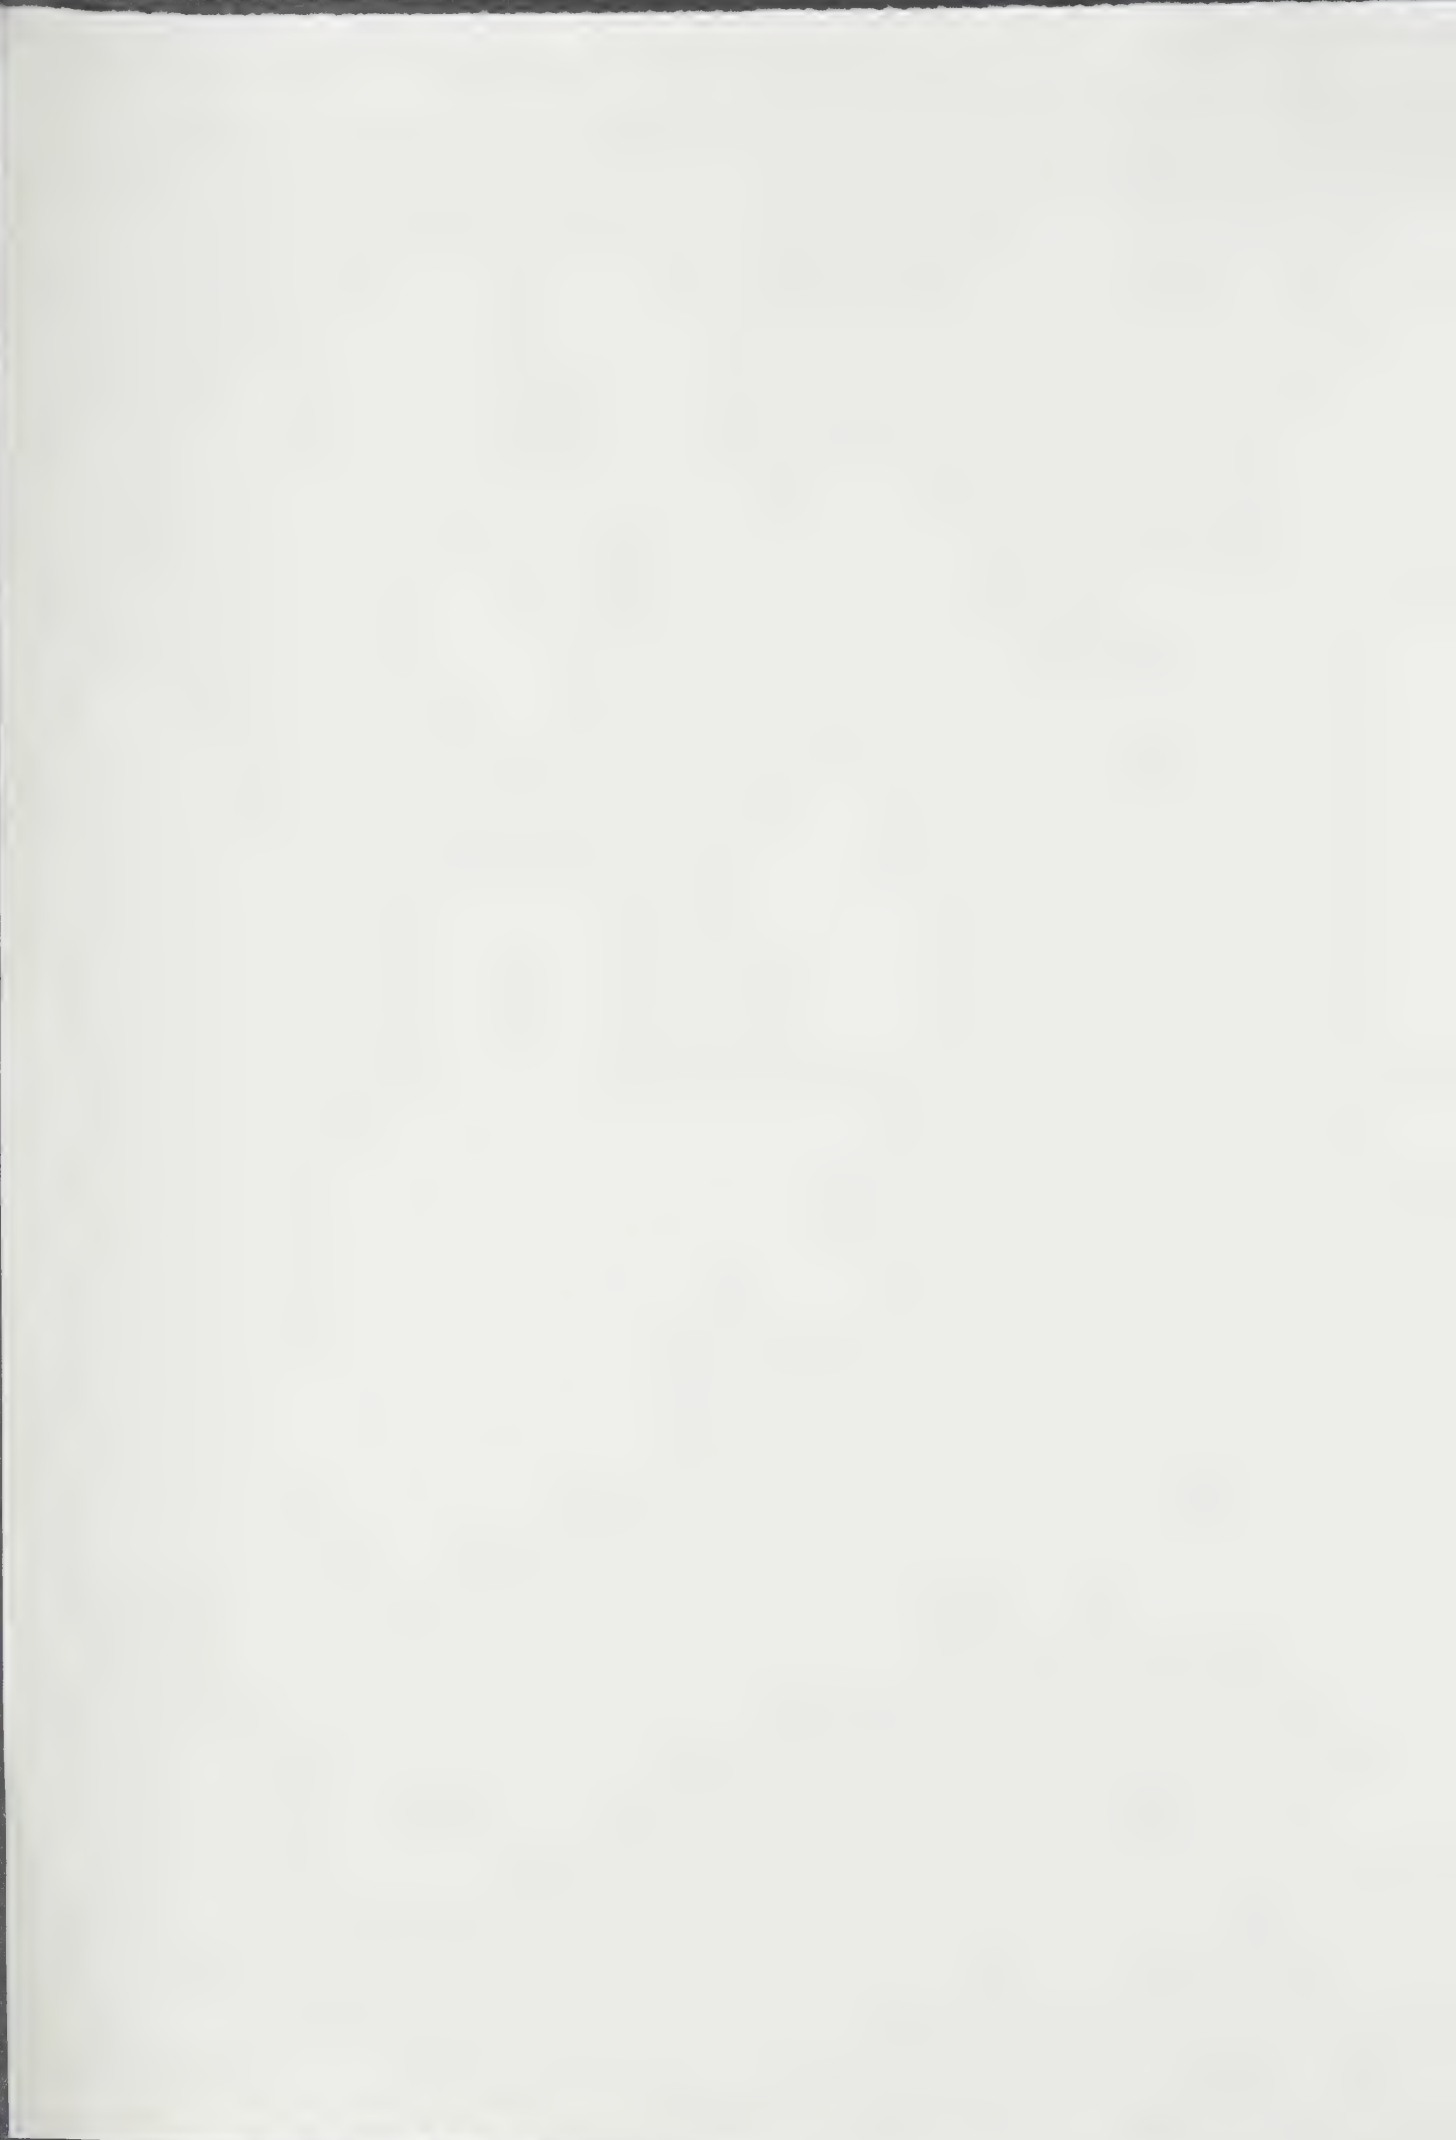

All is well. Niki is coming in tomorrow to see the books and will be here while I am gone. I have the check for $100,000 ready to mail from SO and packed along with some other important things in my carry on.

I just finished with the mail. There is a special offer to double-unwrap books from Mike Schinzer attached. Reply quickly. He closed it at 12:15 and the offer expires at 2:00!

Best wishes, miss you both.

Dear Alfred and Isabel

Alfred, please fax Steve Warner the invoice for your Chevrolet - amount he does not have. He will respond on your behalf to the IRS later.

Close Bros' statement and written instructions to Nordstrom attached. A lady named Heidi Fleese is going into a gallery to send me some photos and pictures in the wonderful German frames. 311-2300, 311-2300 and Cathy Prescher would like you to let your Chicago contacts know to let ASAP

Would you like to give a talk to a ladies group on January 17? A lady named Margie Singer (one of Janine's friends) would like an answer ASAP. 311-0349. Anna Napierkowski has a new job and wants to tell you a lot more. Mt. Pleasant property has been reassessed to $57,000 to $42,000 in 2000.

It's been quiet today. If you need me, I'm here for the next 45 minutes or so.

I'll be back July 23rd PM and back in the office on the 24th. Enjoy the auctions!!!

I have just received your letter of the 15th and am glad to hear that you are well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have not much news to write at present. I have been very busy with my work and have not had time to do much of anything else. I have been thinking of writing you for some time but have not had the opportunity. July 27, 2000

Dear Alfred & Isabel,

The check was presented to M&I today for payment. Noelle has followed instructions and transferred $1.7 million from Marshall Fund to ABFA and $500,000 from AB personal account to ABFA.

Marvin will be stopping in the gallery between 9 and 10; Hatcher will be here with a prospective buyer about 10:30.

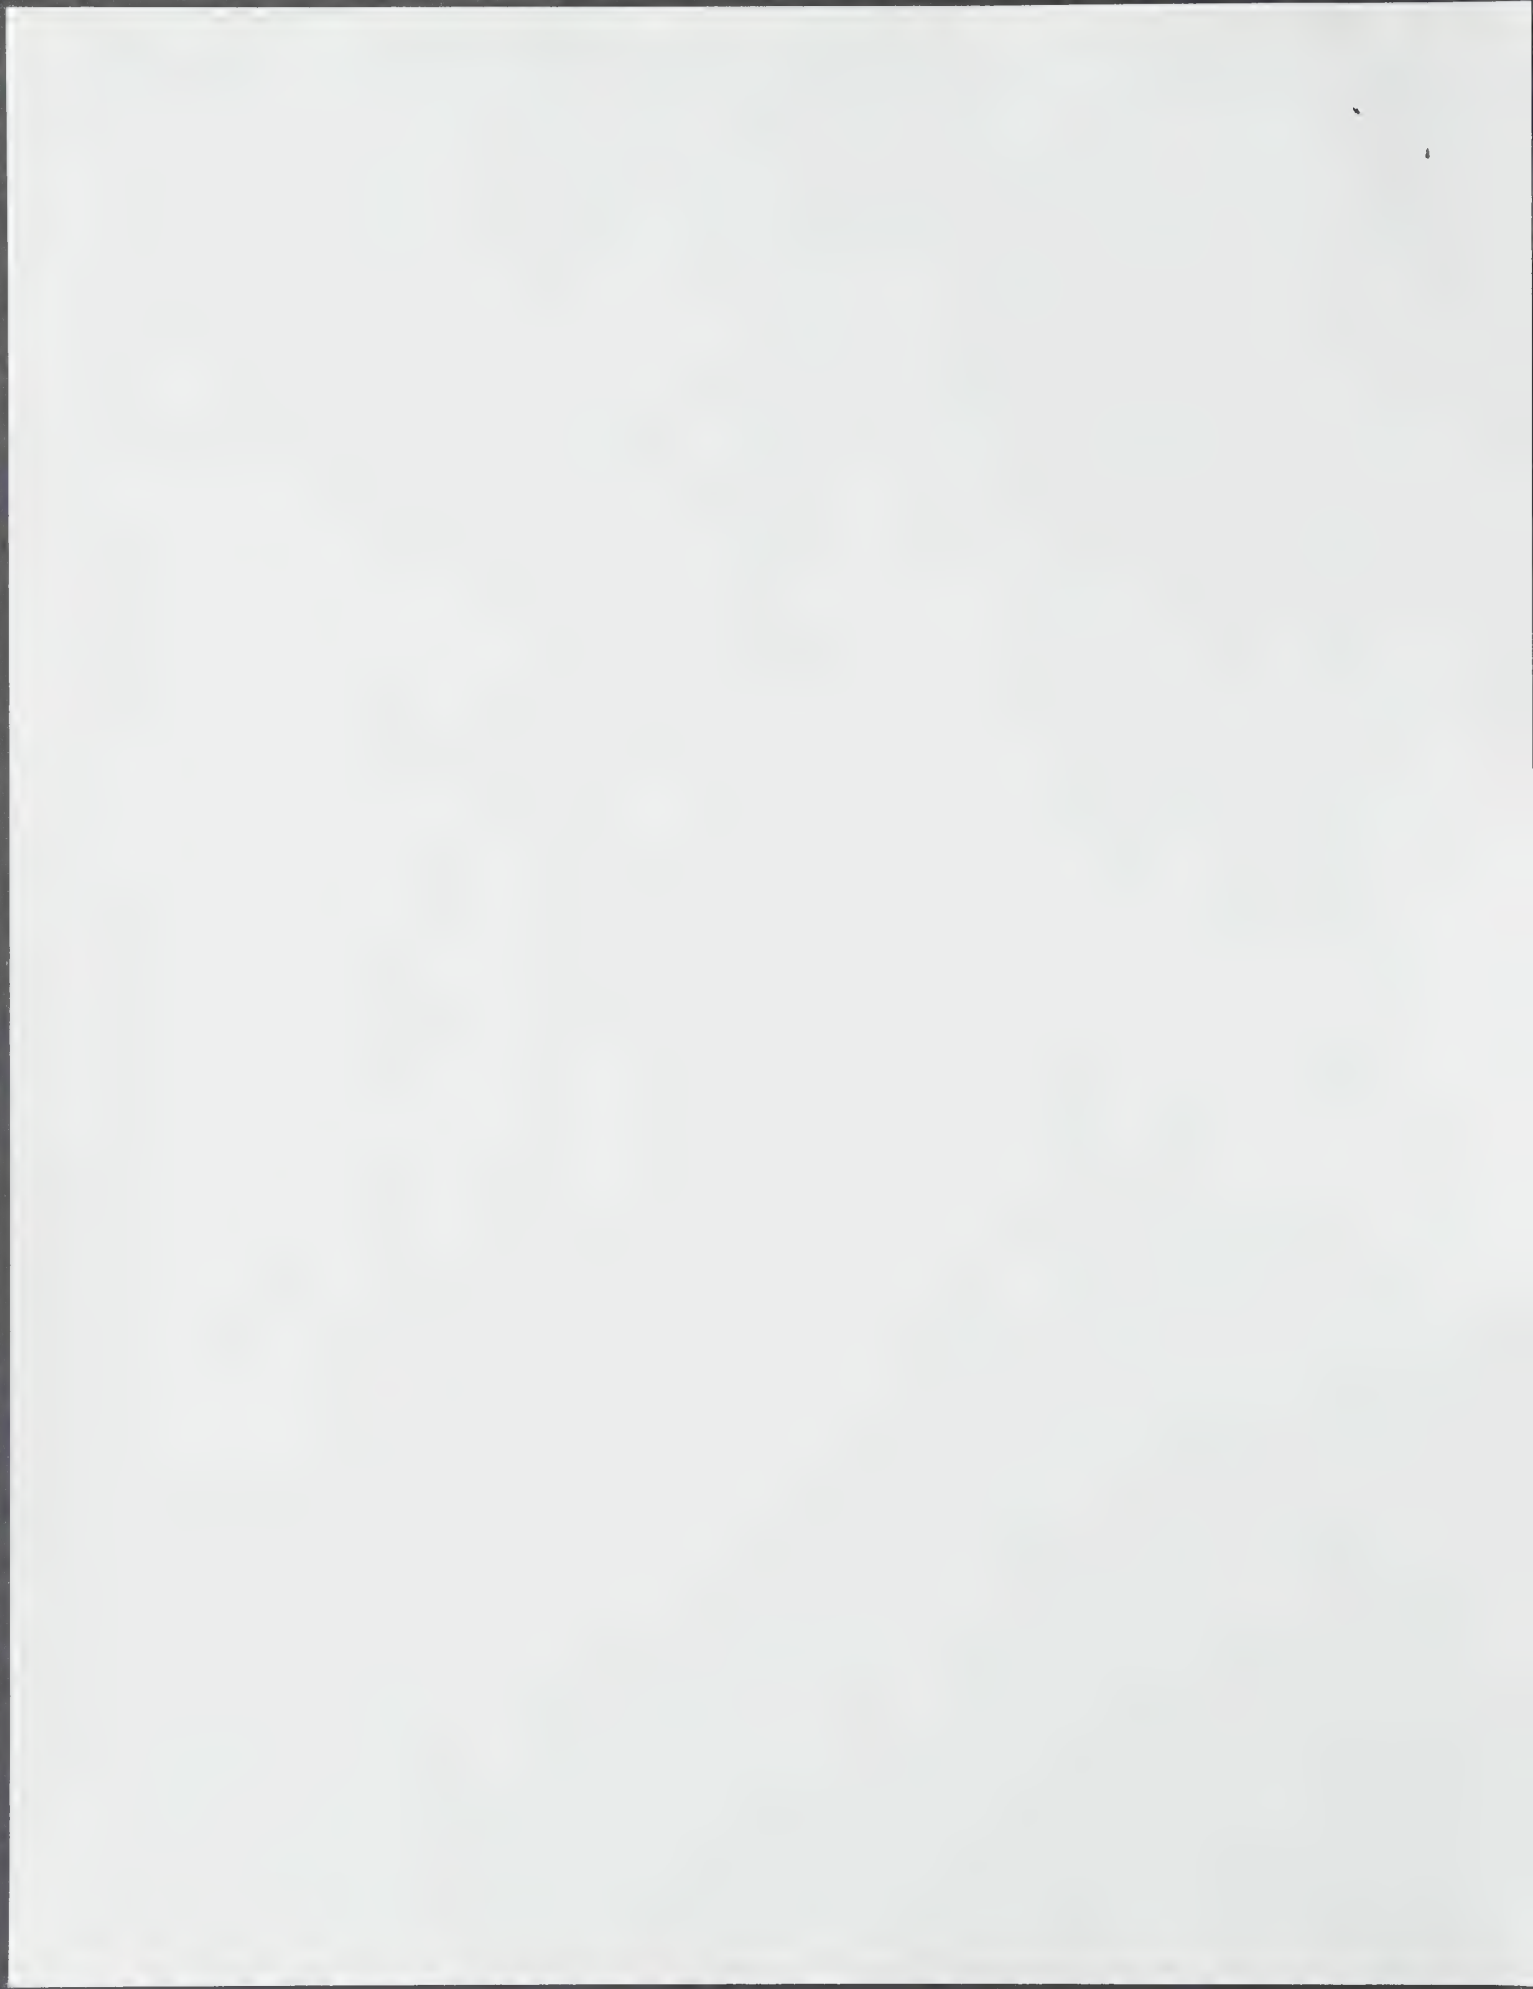

Pat Richter is thrilled with the roofer – she said she has used him for more than three years and thinks his work is superb. Better Business Bureau has no information at all on the company. I will call the roofer this morning and tell him you plan to move ahead and will call him after you return. I re-read your June 25th fax. Apparently I totally misinterpreted your instructions. Sorry.

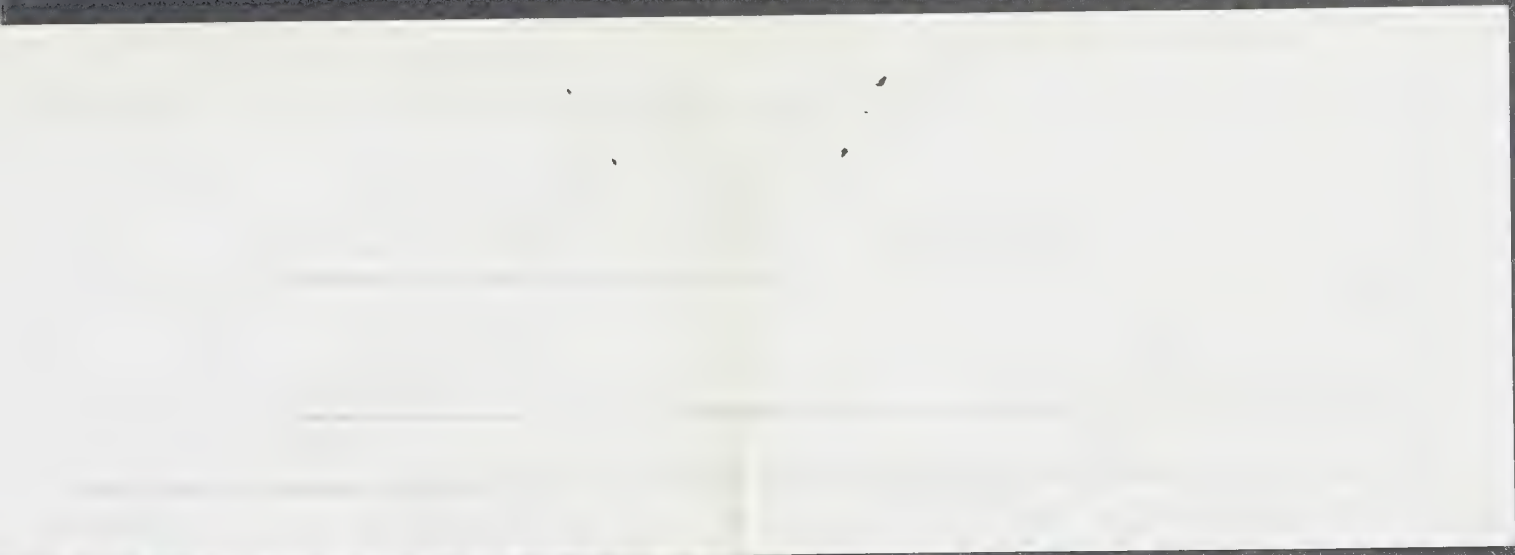

Too early for the mail. Will fax only critical mail – if nothing arrives in two hours, it will be waiting on your desk.

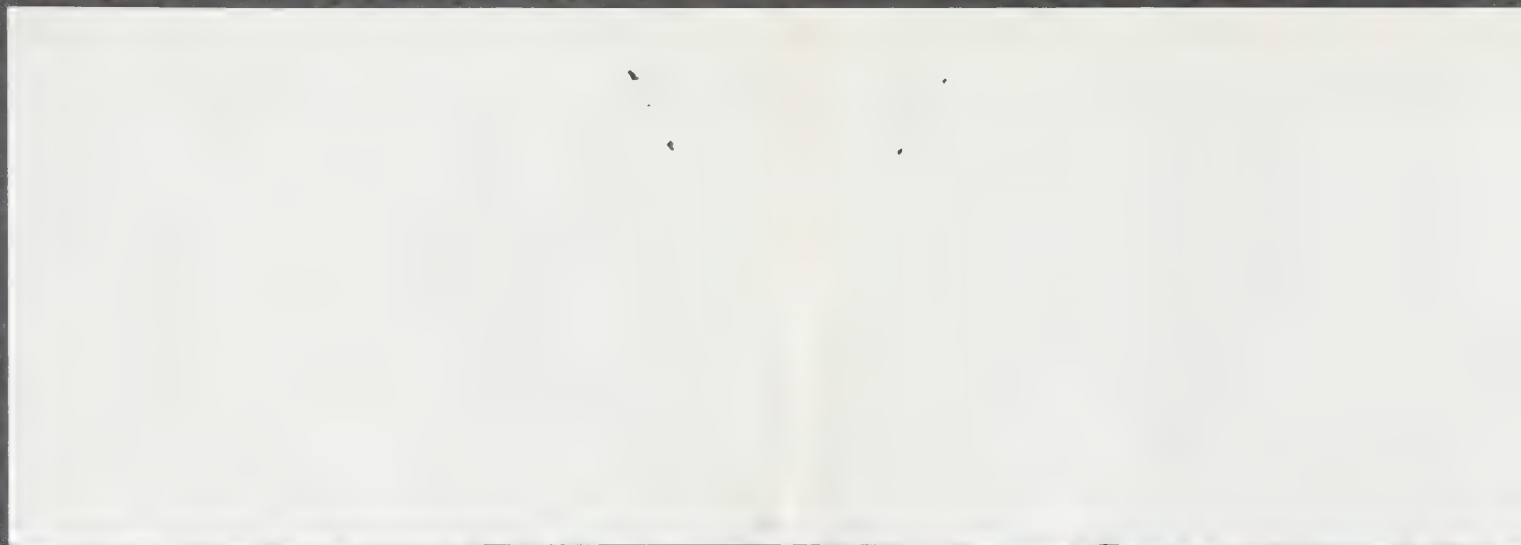

Marvin's here, bye for now!

Ann

Now You Get Direct Service!

You can't teach an old columnist new tricks

By PIERRE FOGLIA

From La Presse

THE NEWSPAPER I work for has a new automated telephone service. Before, I had to go through the switchboard operator—a lengthy procedure. I'd say, "Hi Mary, any messages?" and she'd give them to me. Sometimes we'd talk about life. A lot of time was wasted.

Now you get direct service.

I spent the weekend studying the user's guide. It contains 25 pages of clearly worded explanations, written flawlessly. But still—25 pages!

I pored over the manual, and now I'm ready—I think—to climb on the bandwagon of electronic telephony. Shall we give it a try?

First I have to dial the number that gives me access to the system (say, 285-7887). But from my house that's a long distance call, so I have to dial 0-514-285-7887, plus 19 for service in French. Then I have to punch in my Bell calling-card number, another 14 digits. Are you still with me? At central messaging, they ask for both my mailbox number (say, 1259) and password (say, 8891). Let's recap: 0-514-285-7887-19-23432547-9088-71-1259-8891.

Nice and short, isn't it? But a recorded message informs me that I've entered the wrong access code. The wrong access code? Right. I forgot to press the pound (#) key after entering my password. So I start over: 0-514-285-7887-19-23432547-9088-71-1259-8891-#. Hurray!

"You have two new messages. Message number 1, received at 2:06 p.m. To listen to your message, press 2; to go on to your next message, press 6; to return to the previous message, press 4..."

"What?"

"For more information, press the star key."

Hi Ann
I made no calls
from the continent
calls from Berhill are cheap and simple.
X

I pored over the 25-page user's guide, and now I'm ready to climb on the bandwagon of electronic telephony.

Now You Get Direct Service!

"The star key? Okay, the star key."

"You are now at the main menu. Several options are available to you. To reach the caller, press 9; to answer, press 71; to send one message to several subscribers at the same time, press 74; to transfer the call to another phone, press 73; to erase, press 76; to review options, press 7, then the star key..."

As I was saying, I used to have to call the switchboard operator.

"Hi Mary, any messages for me?"

"Yes, you've got two."

Occasionally she'd ask me, "Is it snowing up there?" or "How are the cats?" In short, I'd be wasting time.

Now you get direct service.

QUESTIONS MARKED

I was grilling hamburgers in the backyard when my four-year-old grandson asked for one. I placed a freshly cooked patty on his plate, but he just stared at it, studying the parallel stripes burned into the meat by the hot grate. "Granddad," he asked, "are we eating zebra meat?"

—Contributed by HARRY E. GATES

A neighbour decided that it was time for her small son, Joe, to learn about privacy, so the next time she went into the bathroom, she shut the door. Joe was soon calling his mom and pounding on the door. "There's a lady in the bathroom," she yelled out to him. "You can't come in."

"Mom!" Joe replied. "Who's in there with you?"

—Contributed by QUENTIN J. MARSH

Returning from a golf outing, my husband was greeted at the door by Sara, our four-year-old daughter. "Daddy, who won the golf game? You or Uncle Richie?"

"Uncle Richie and I don't play golf to win," my husband hedged.

"We just play to have fun."

Undaunted, Sara said, "Okay, Daddy, who had more fun?"

—Contributed by BARBARA J. GEBLER

I hadn't realized how much TV was influencing our family until one Saturday morning when I stayed in bed later than usual. My six-year-old daughter, Tiffany, appeared in my room with a coffee mug.

"I made you something, Mom," she said, carefully handing it to me. I peered inside and saw three little toy men in the otherwise empty mug. "Don't you know," she said sweetly, "that the best part of waking up is soldiers in your cup?"

Dear Alfred & Isabel,

It's good to be back (but it was good to visit the family too)!

Konrad Bernheimer's wire transfer reached the bank on the 19th and was immediately transferred into Marshall Fund. So we have $1.7 Million in Marshall. Noelle will call and let me know when the check is presented, presumably tomorrow or later in the week. All is well on this transaction.

After being on hold for quite a long time, I spoke with the Mayo Clinic and cancelled your September 28th appointments. They had nothing available for both of you on the same date, but we are at the top of the waiting list for any last-minute calls during August and early September.

I'll be here tomorrow morning until about 2 p.m. Fax me if you need anything.

All the best,

Ann

FAX #: 223-1451

Dear Noelle,

Alfred is in England and I am leaving this afternoon for the East coast. Again I'd like to ask for your help.

We are expecting a wire transfer in the amount of $588,000 to reach our Alfred Bader Fine Arts checking account (#00003-68296) either late this week or early next week. Please immediately transfer the entire amount to our Marshall Fund account (#1100001484). If it is impossible to make the transfer to the Marshall Fund on the same day that the wire transfer is received, please put the entire amount into a one-day interest bearing account as you have done in the past.

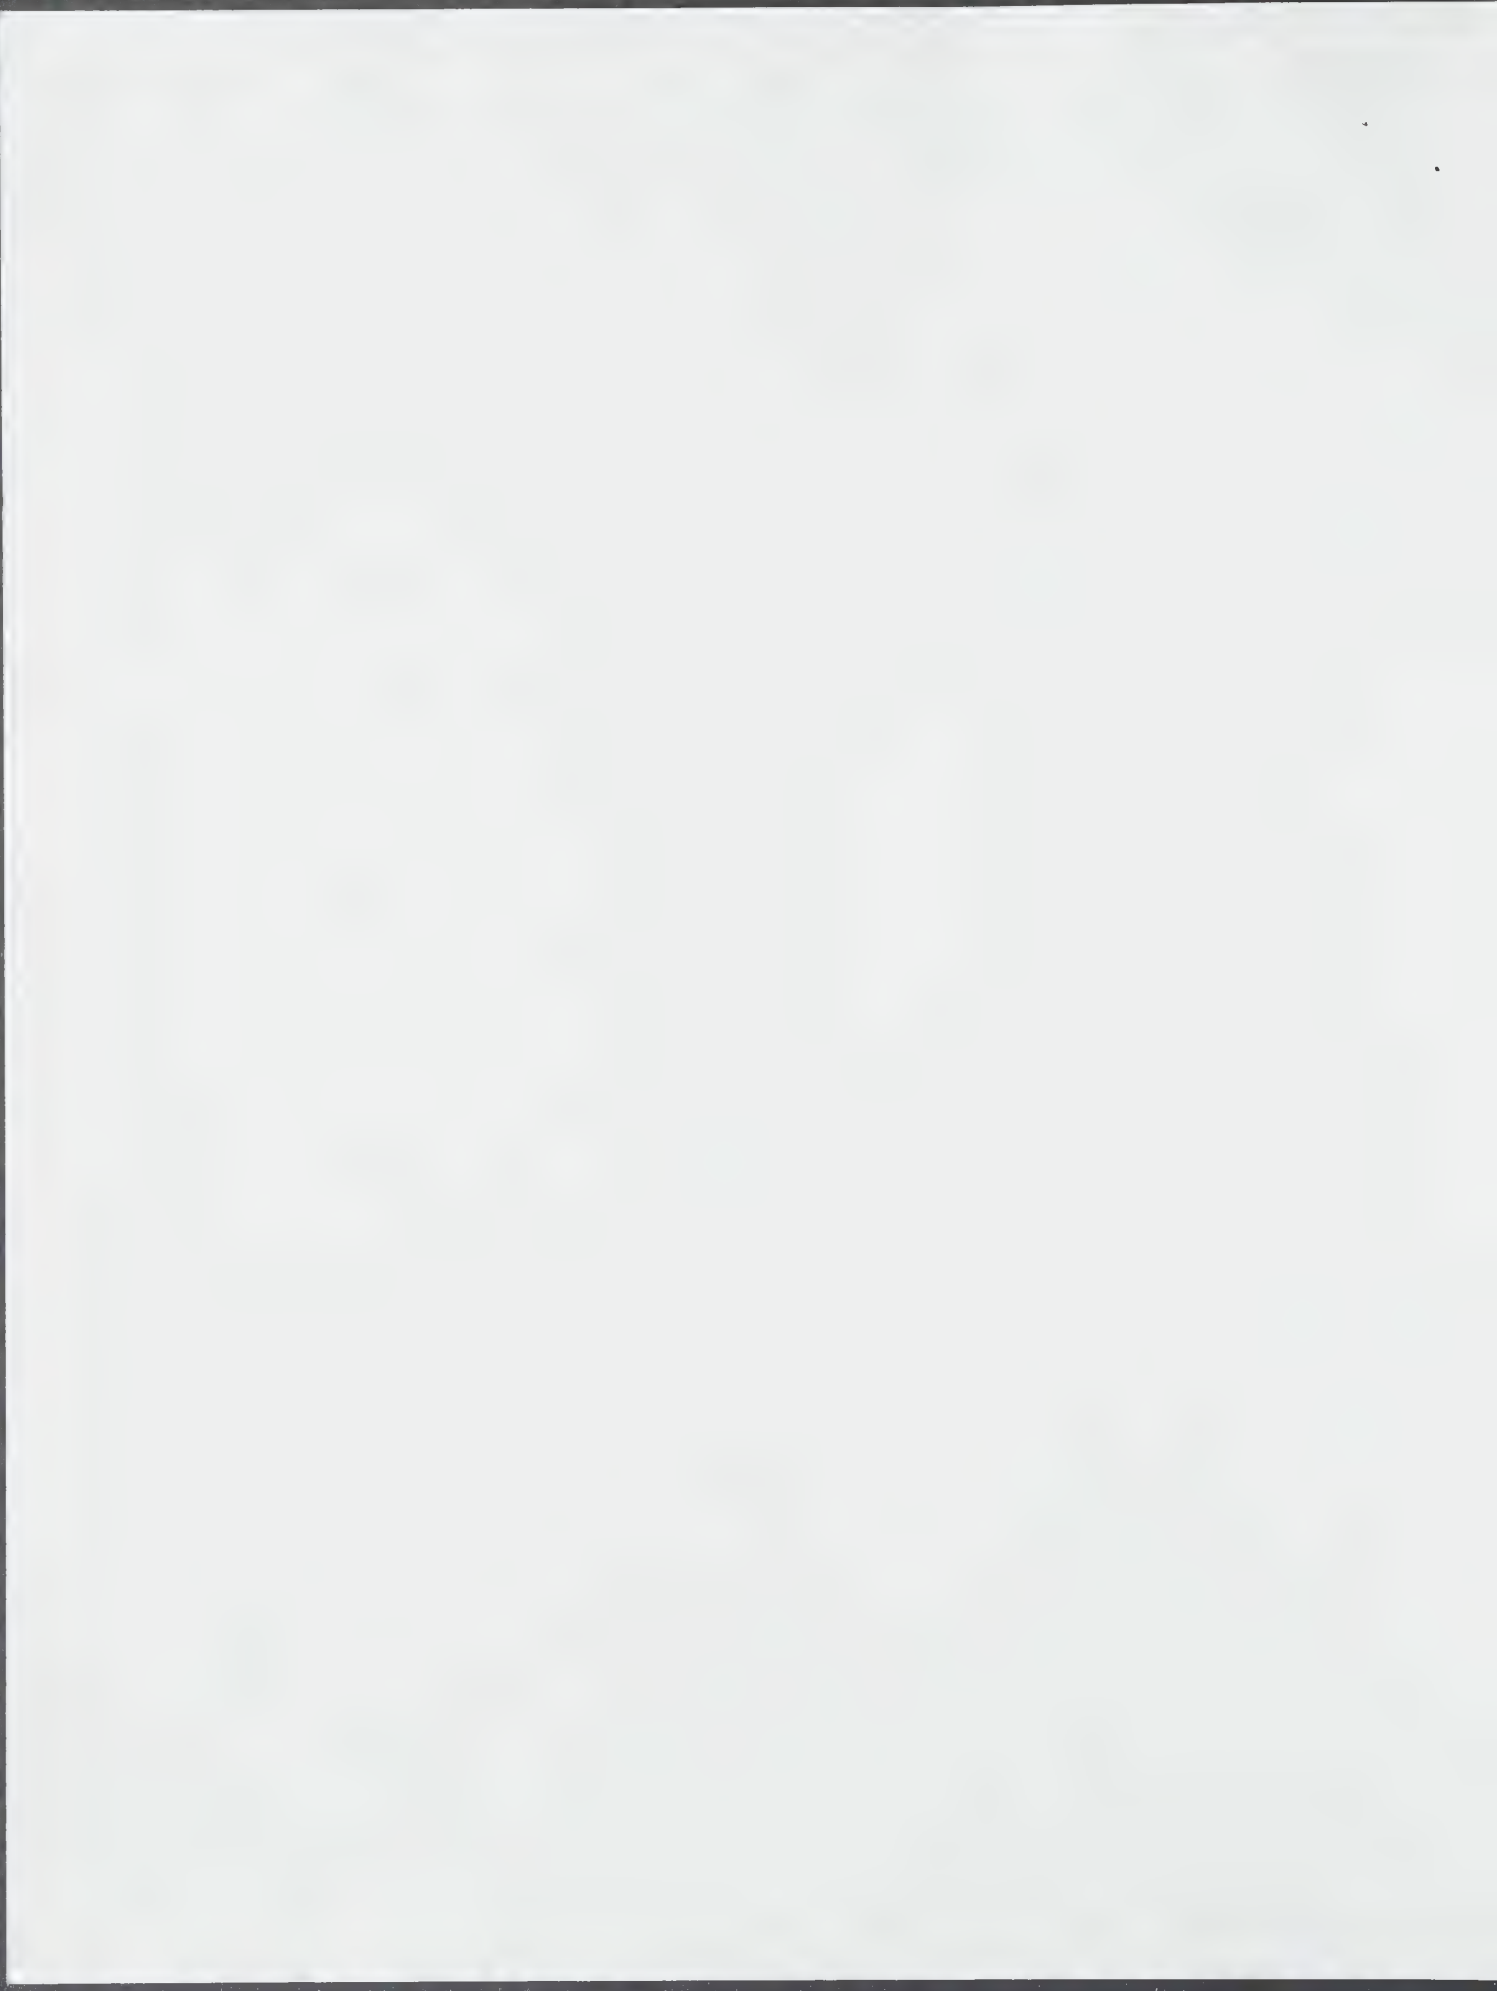

Please fax us at 277-0709 and confirm the receipt of the wire transfer and date, the date of the transfer to Marshall Funds, or the date of the transfer to the interest bearing account and the amount of interest the deposit earned for the day.

I have Niki (Alfred's former secretary) checking the office twice a week while I am gone and she can fax your fax directly to Alfred in England.

Thanks ever so much for your help. I'll call you when I return on July 24th.

Sincerely,

Ann

Alfred Bader
UWM Report 6/2000

By Cathy Prescher

I SPY A REMBRANDT!
BADER PUTS PAINTINGS TO THE TEST

Alfred Bader's marriage of complementary professional pursuits has given him a unique set of skills to trace the authenticity of fine works of art.

As the founder of Aldrich Chemical Company in Milwaukee, which later became the Sigma-Aldrich Corporation, Bader traveled worldwide in his quest to add rare research chemicals to his catalog. Intertwined with his ventures were visits to antique stores, art galleries and auction houses.

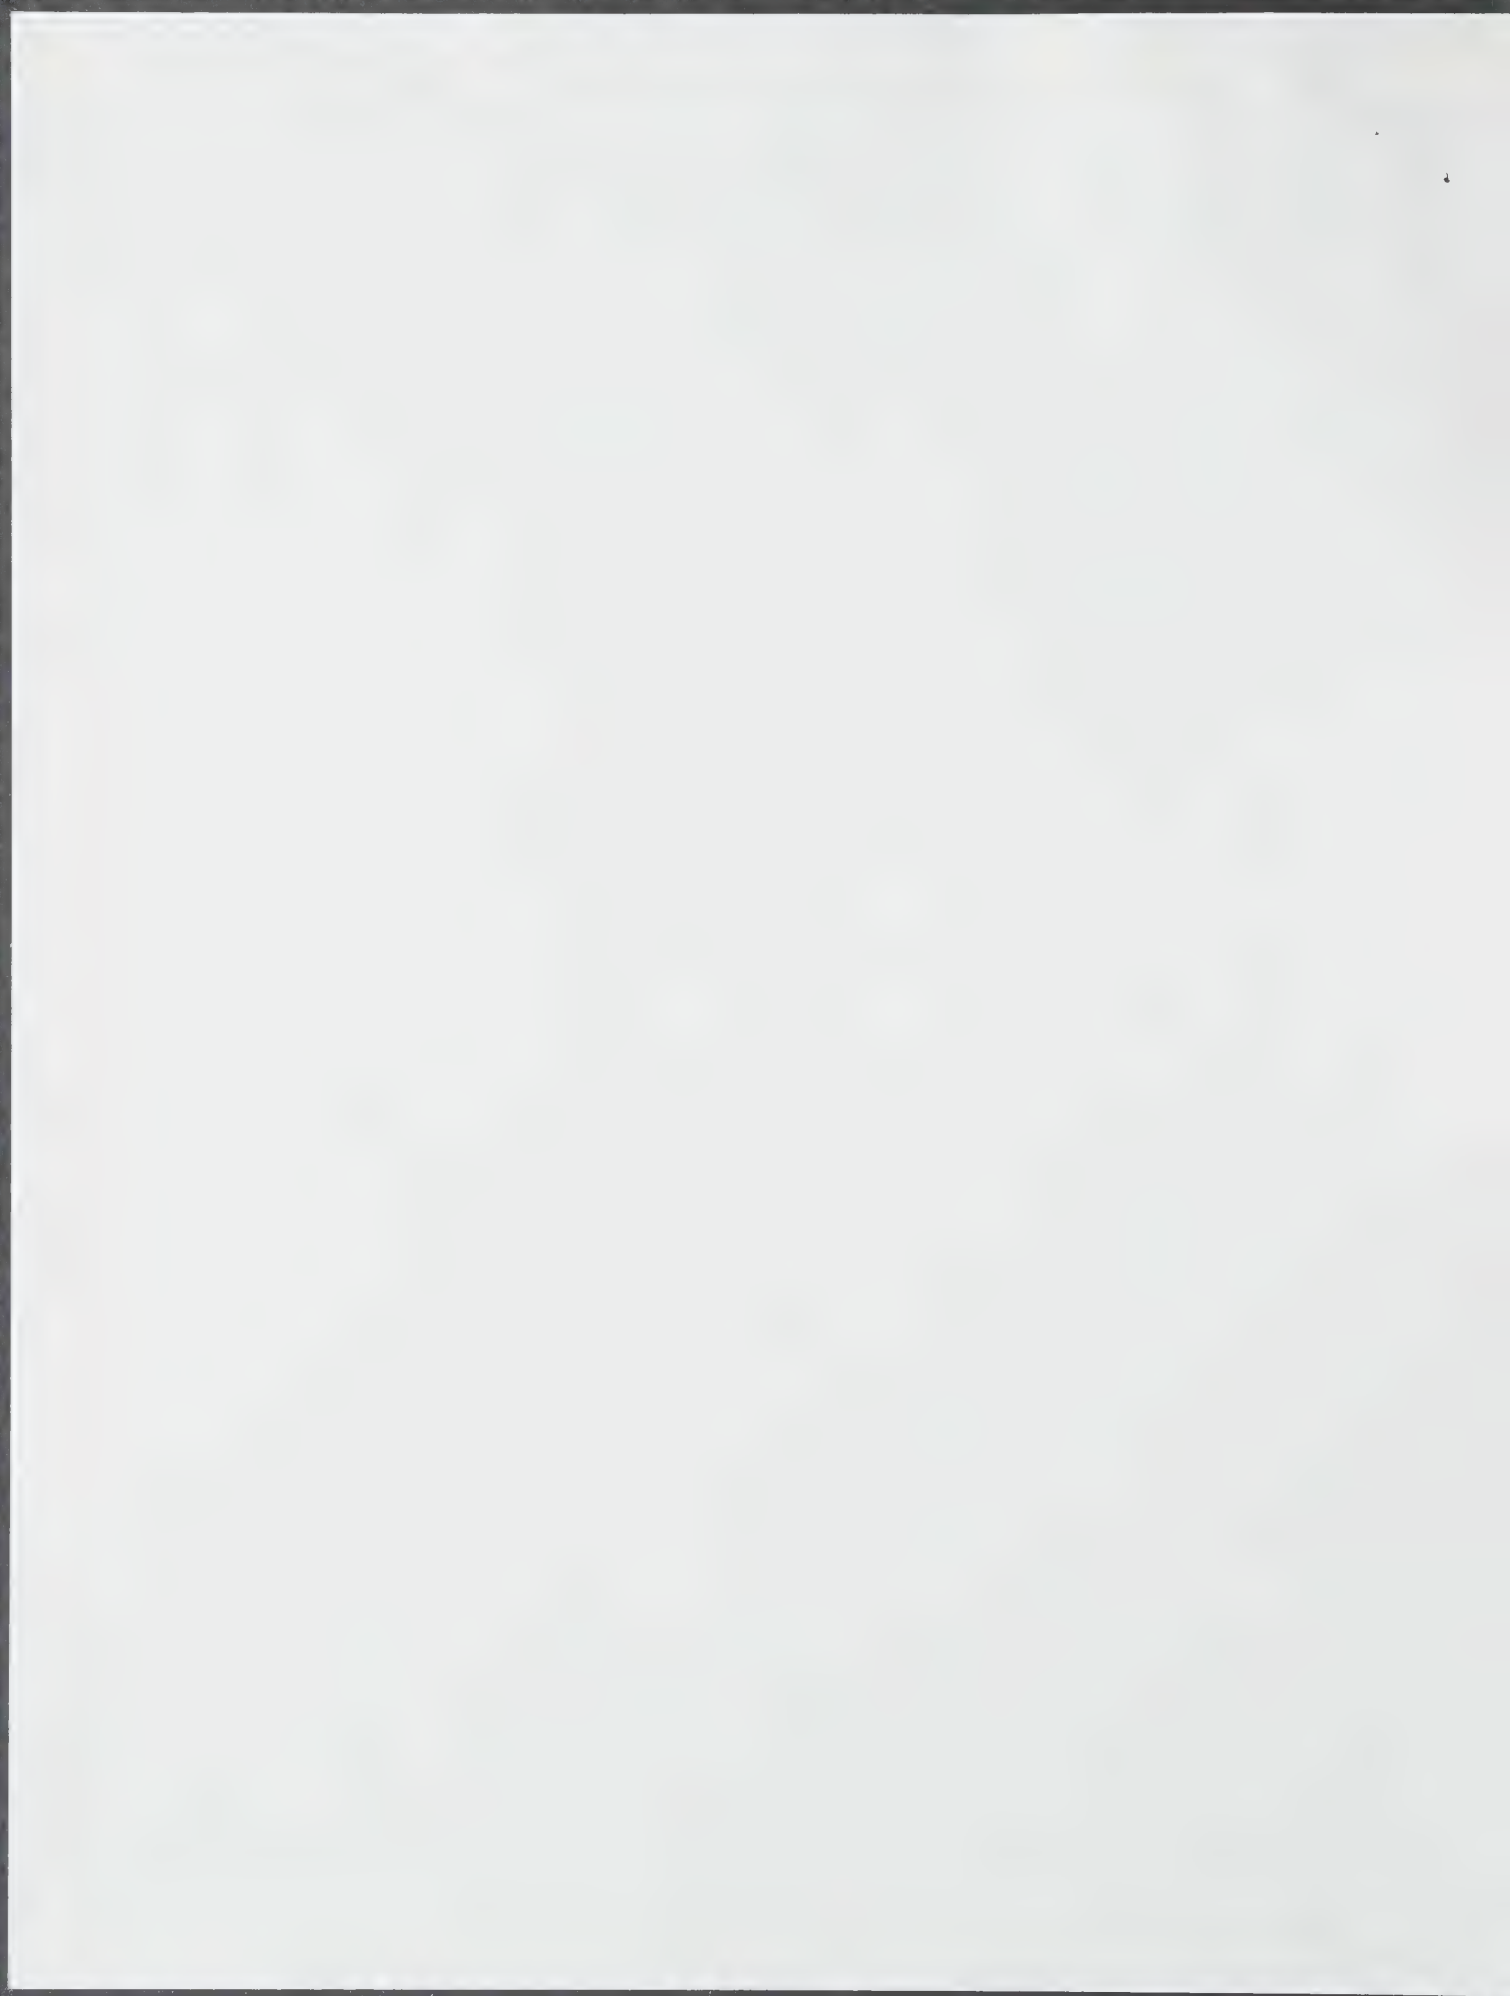

Bader, who is known throughout the world as a chemist-writer-lecturer, also is a respected art collector-dealer. He is exceptionally qualified to unravel the complexities of art world mysteries. After leaving Sigma-Aldrich eight years ago, he opened Alfred Bader Fine Arts in Milwaukee. While his gallery is known for its moderately priced selections representing several eras and styles, its specialty is Dutch masters.

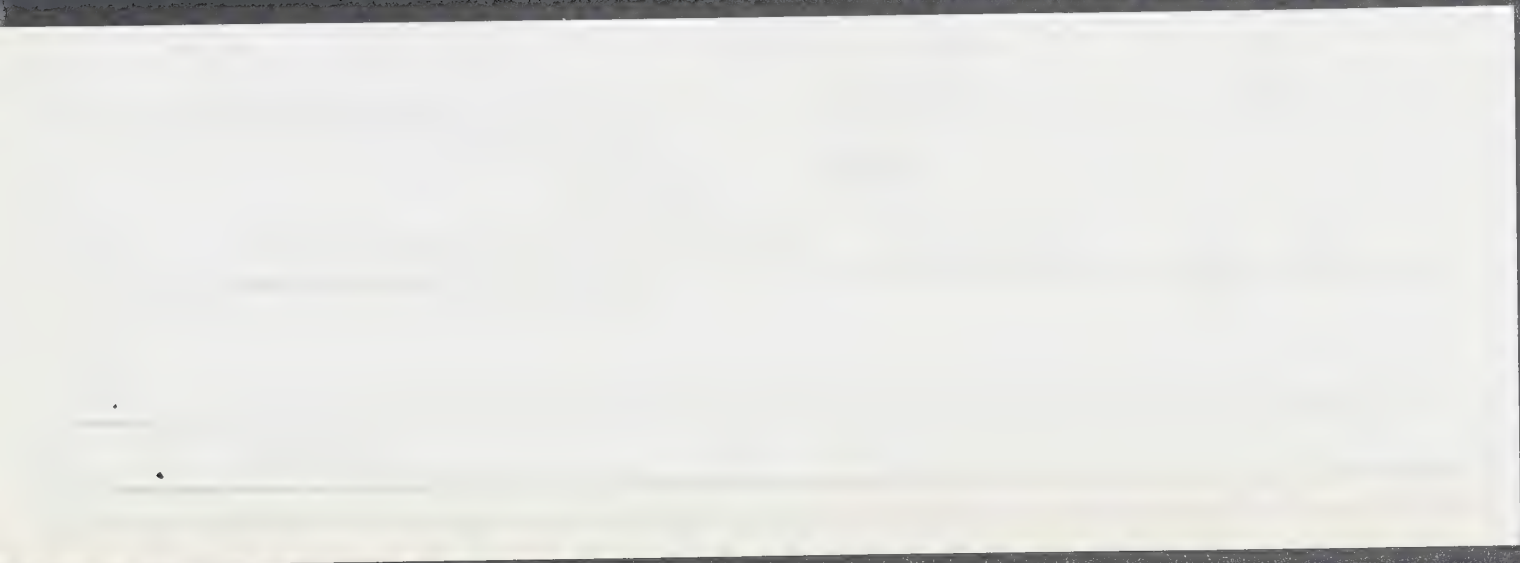

He speaks of a painting circa 1630 that many thought to be the work of a lesser known Dutch painter, Van Vleet. Other art experts believed it was a Rembrandt.

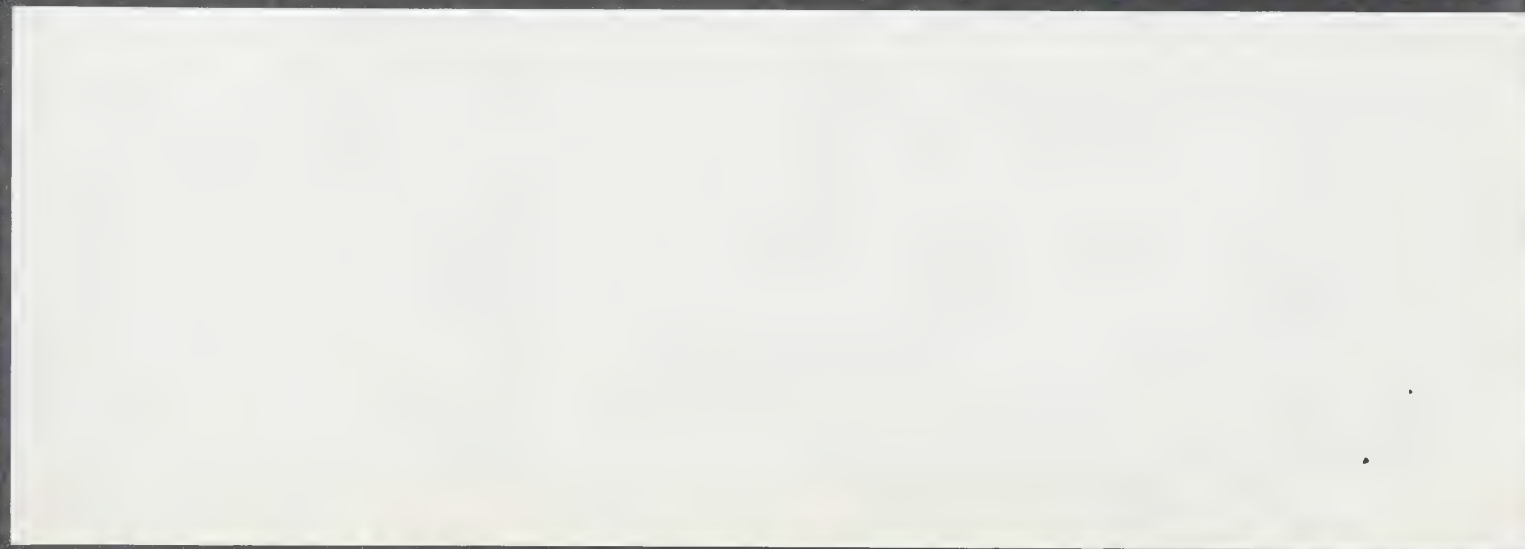

The Gardner Museum in Boston approached Bader, soliciting his opinion before purchasing the work. Bader pointed out that Rembrandt used very rare paper with a singular watermark, which distinguished the piece in question as the Master's. His observations led the museum to add the Rembrandt to its collection.

University Outreach is pleased that Bader has agreed to contribute his time to teach "The Rembrandt Research Project and the Collector" for the Arts & Liberal Studies Program, 7-8:30 p.m., Mon., Sept. 18, Grand Avenue.

Bader will discuss how the Rembrandt Research Project, led by eminent

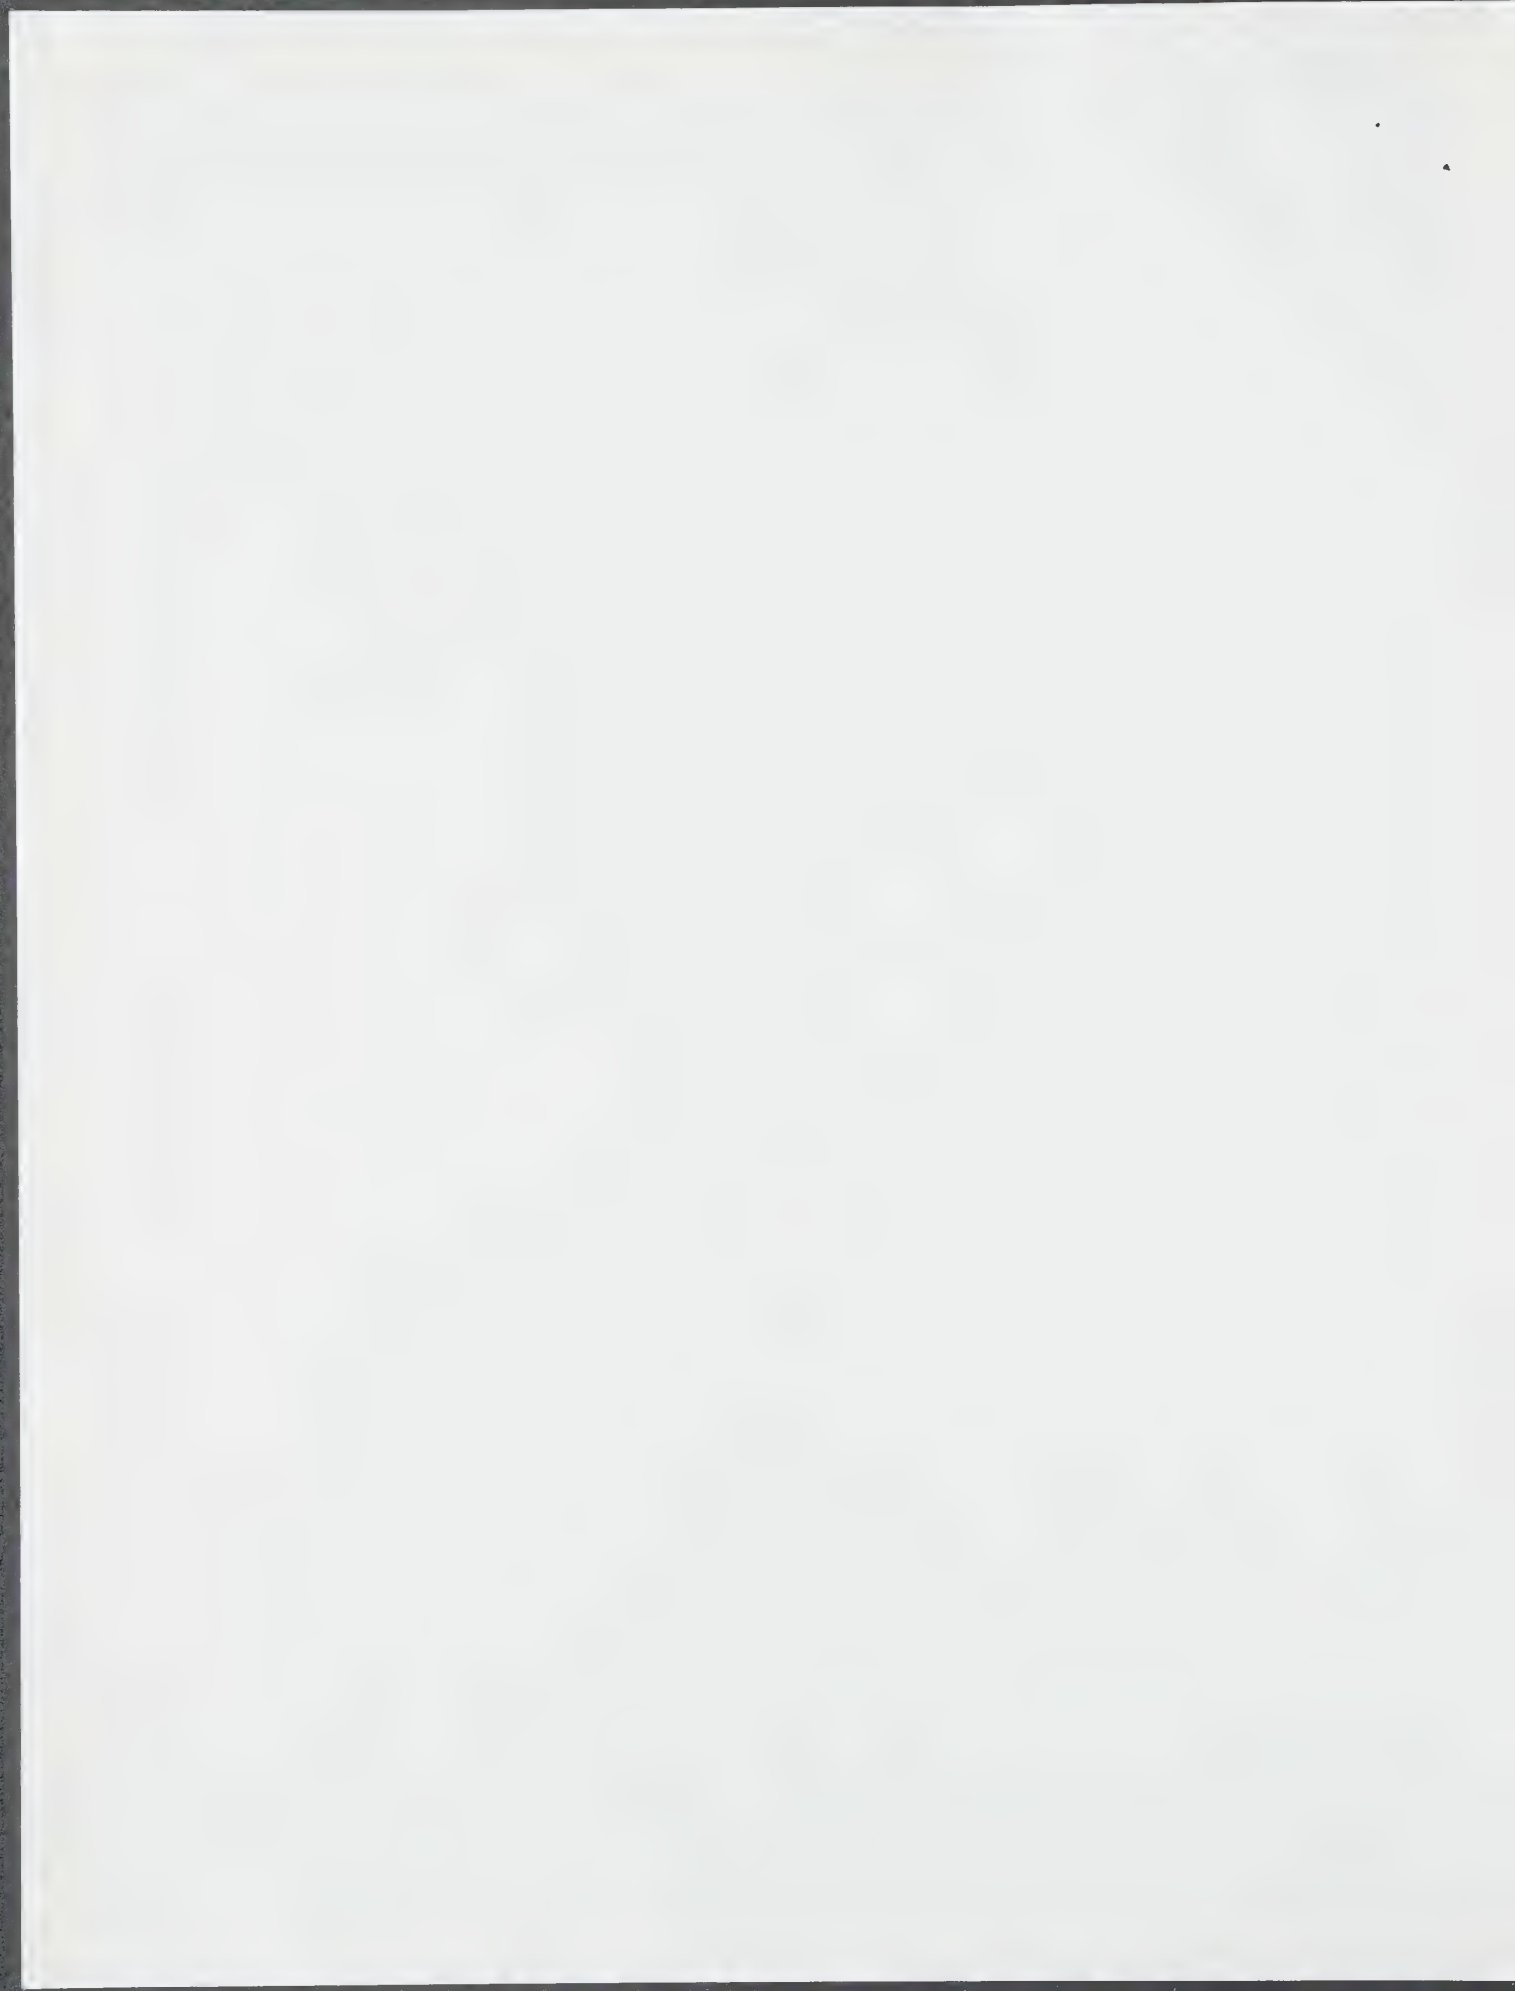

Fwd: working draft

Rembrandt scholars, has examined almost all of the works attributed to the painter. The Project has published three volumes, grading the paintings "A" for accepted, "B" for in doubt, and "C" for not by Rembrandt. Their ratings have impacted the paintings' values. During his talk, illustrated with slides, Bader also will discuss some of the decisions made by the scholars and their impact on the collector.

A $10 fee is charged to cover related expenses.

Dear Alfred & Isabel,

Attached are copies of papers and documents you requested. We have inquired several times about the check earmarked for Czech chemists, as you can see. I checked with the Better Business Bureau and they have no registered complaints. I reached Mrs. Richter's answering machine when I called.

The e-Bay paintings will be put up for sale the week of July 24th. You'll be back in time to know how we did and then pick five more to feature. Harry and I have it all figured out now. Ned came in this morning and will be able to help us with packing/shipping at that time. You made him feel good when you called him.

I have e-mailed Marvin but have no reply as yet. SIAL is at $30.25 (all last week it was under $30.00 until Friday).

Your home mail was on my desk this morning. In it was a packet from Promega for you to review and sign. They wish to change Articles and Bylaws at the Shareholders' Meeting. I think it is best to Air Mail you the information today.

Clark has decided not to buy the gas station – Jere sent us copies of the correspondence stating that they prefer to remain as tenants.

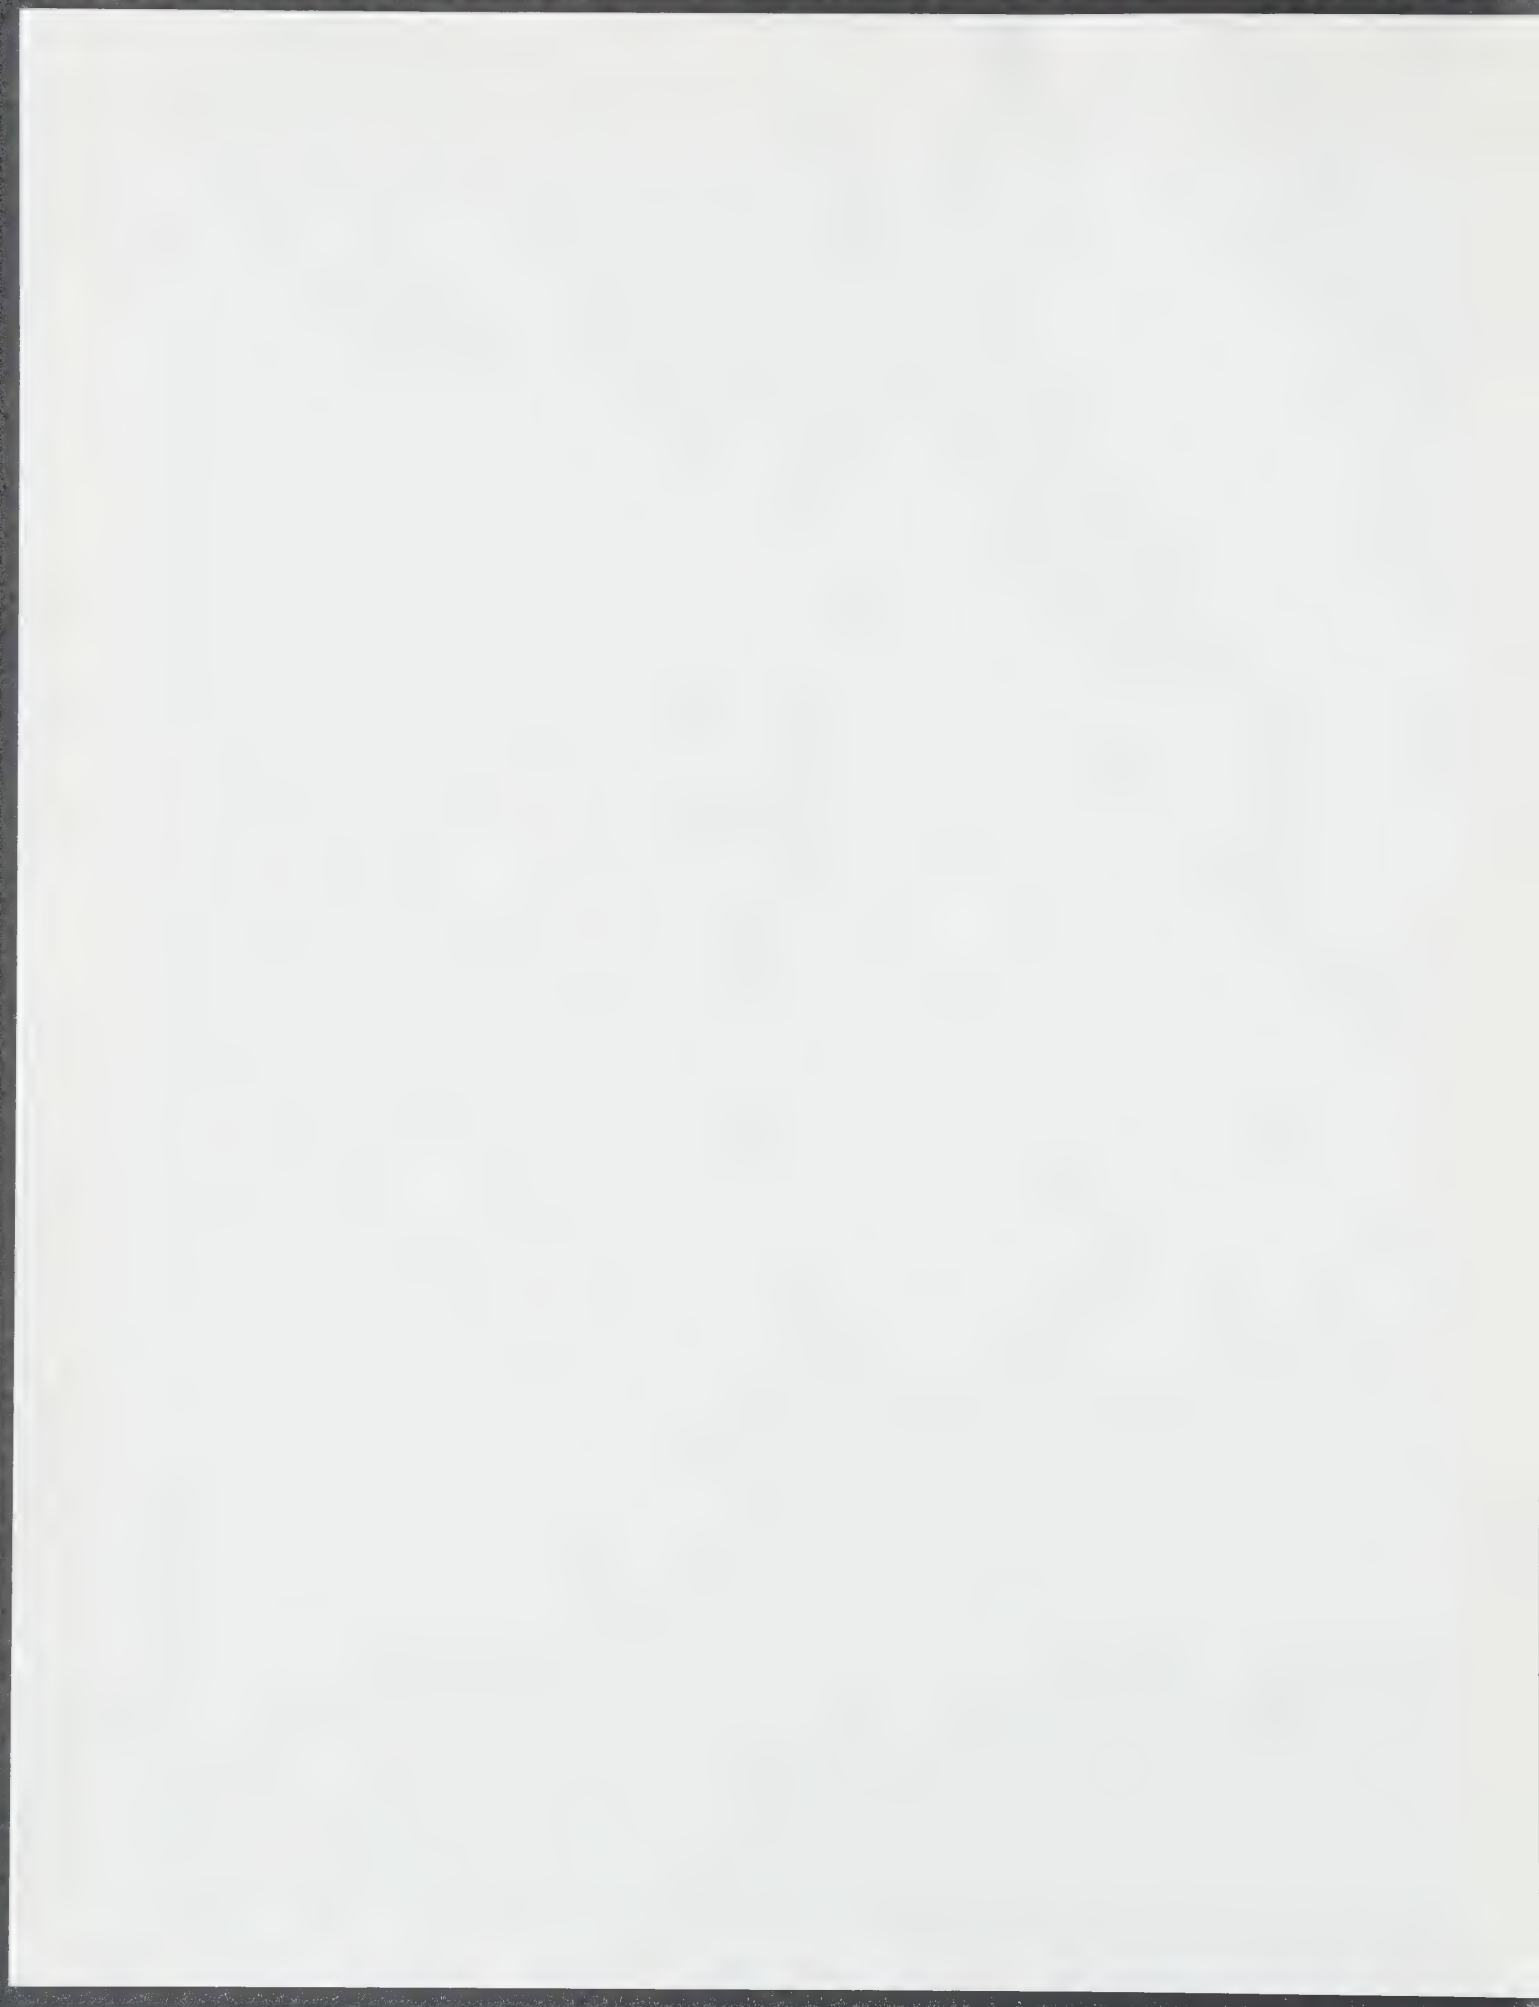

All is well. Niki is coming in tomorrow to see what needs careful attention while I am gone. I have the check for Calvary ready to mail from NJ and packed along with some other important things in my carry-on.

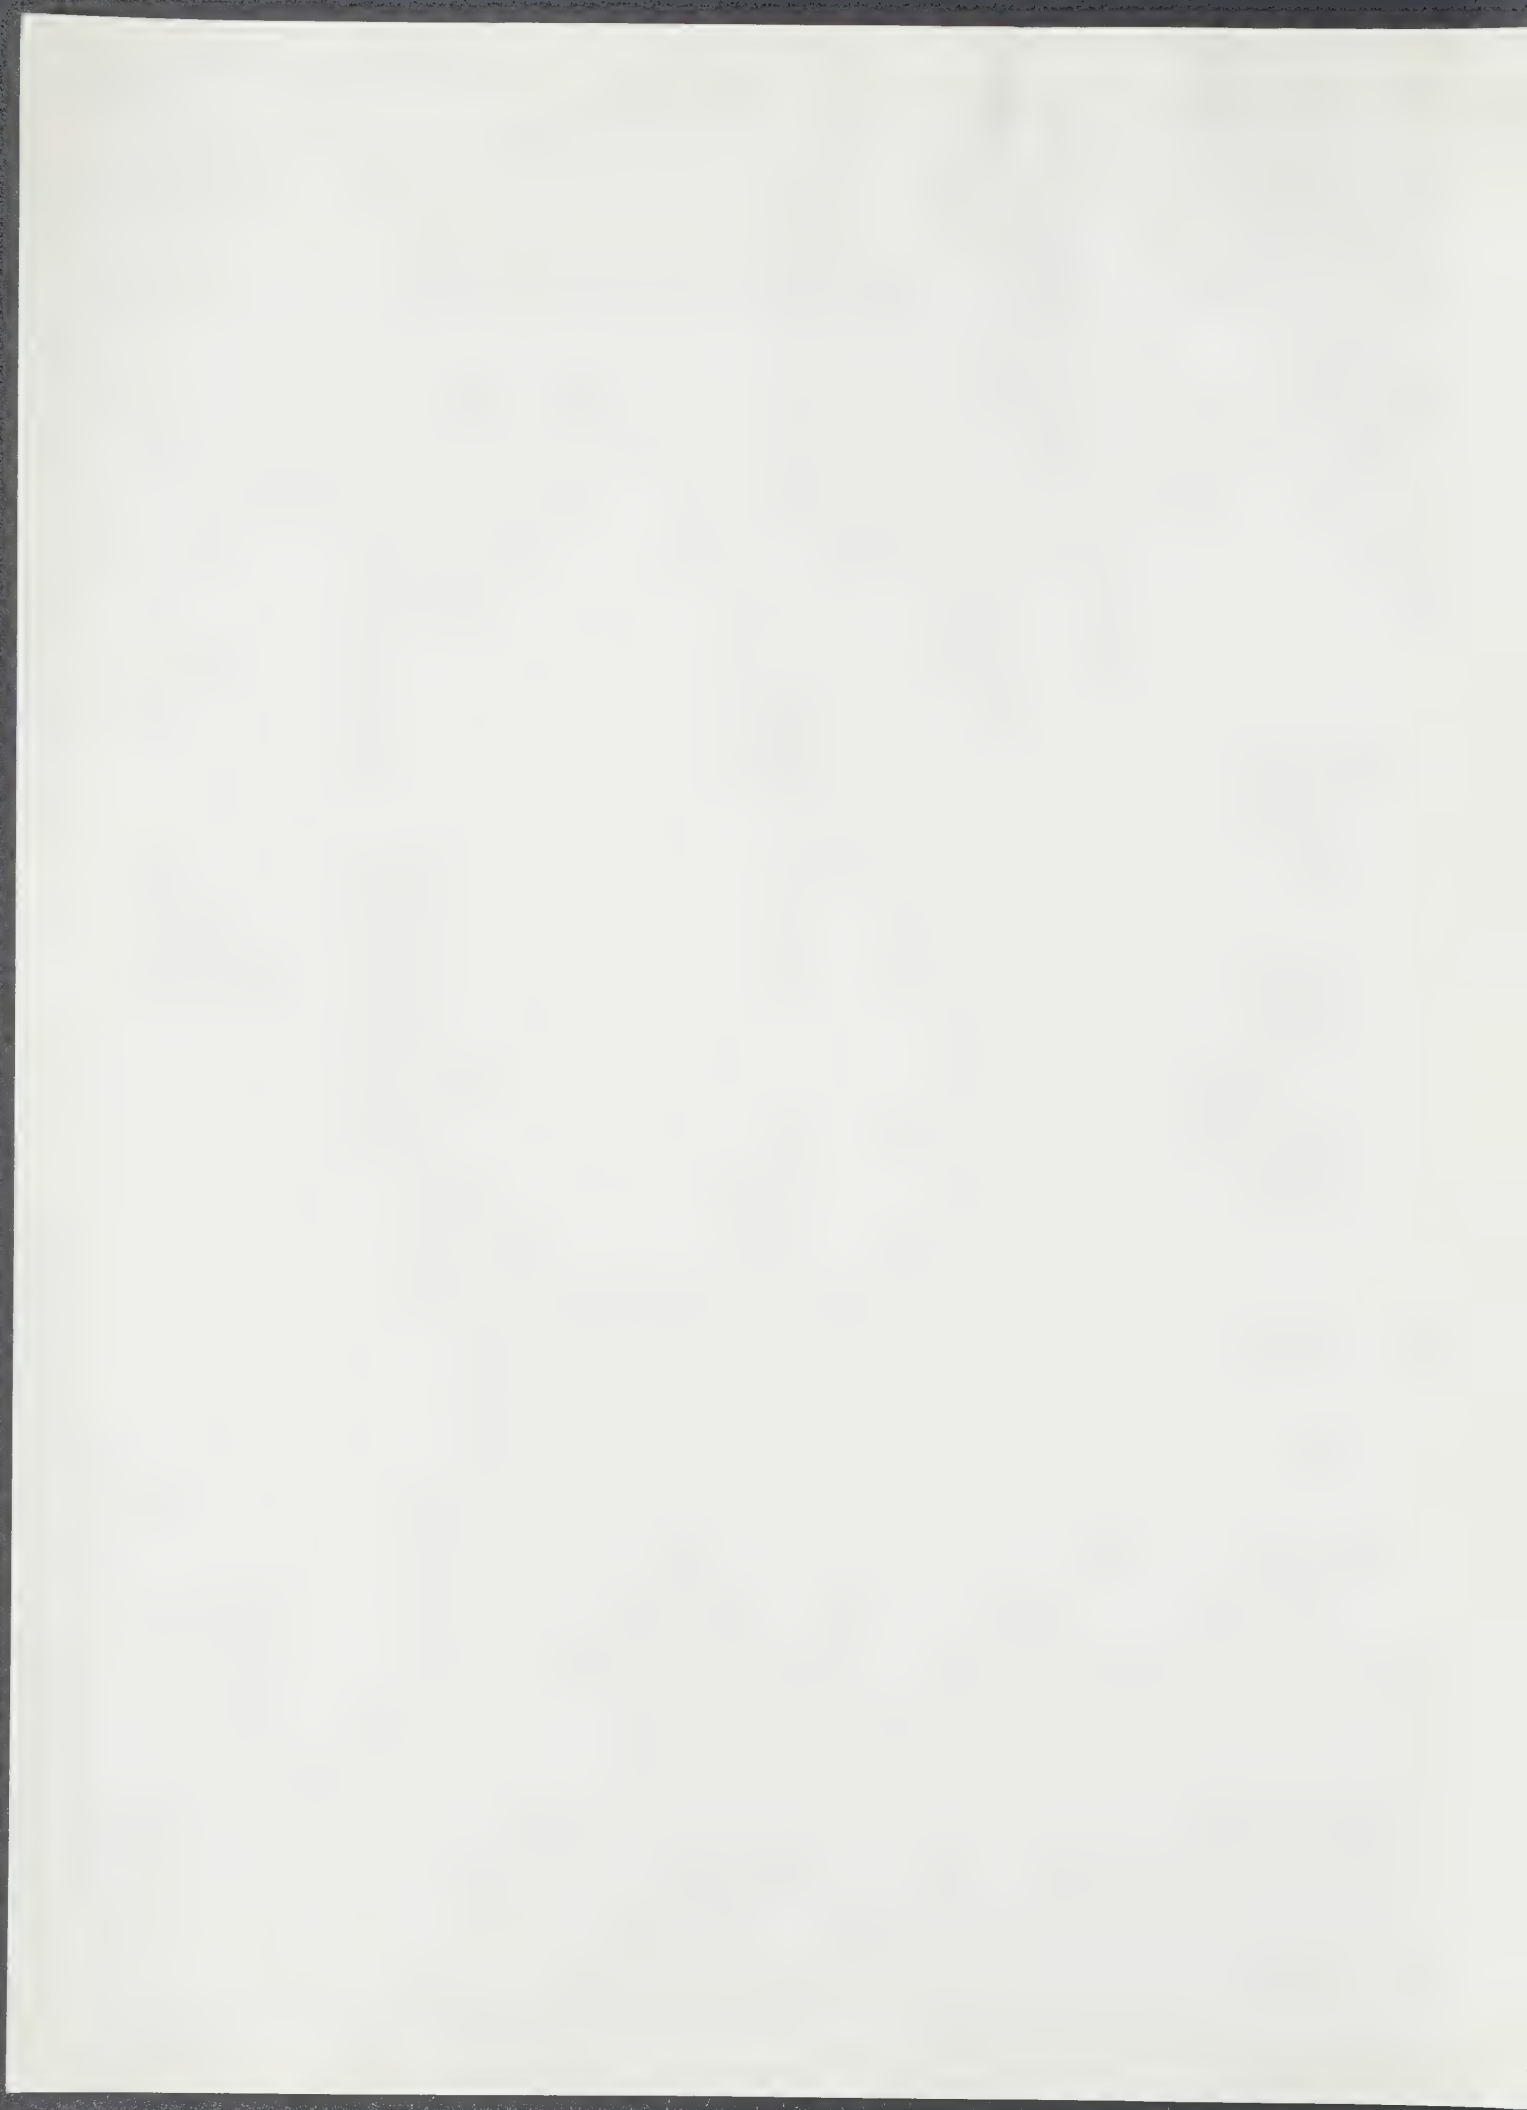

I just finished with the mail. There is a special offer on double-exempt bonds from Mike Schinzer attached. Reply quickly – he faxed it at 12:45 and the offer expires at 2:00!

Best wishes, miss you both,

Ann

Dear Alfred and Isabel,

How nice to know you are reachable! Please check the fax machine paper – I have 7 or 8 pages to send you. Four are from Otto, one is the Bordone calculation (also mailed) and the last is the transaction listings for A.G. Edwards.

I called Ned a little while ago. He said you left a very nice message. He says he is feeling better and actually worked on some paintings this week. On Monday afternoon he meets with the specialists who will give him his options. He will stop by Monday morning to drop off a check. None of our things are done.

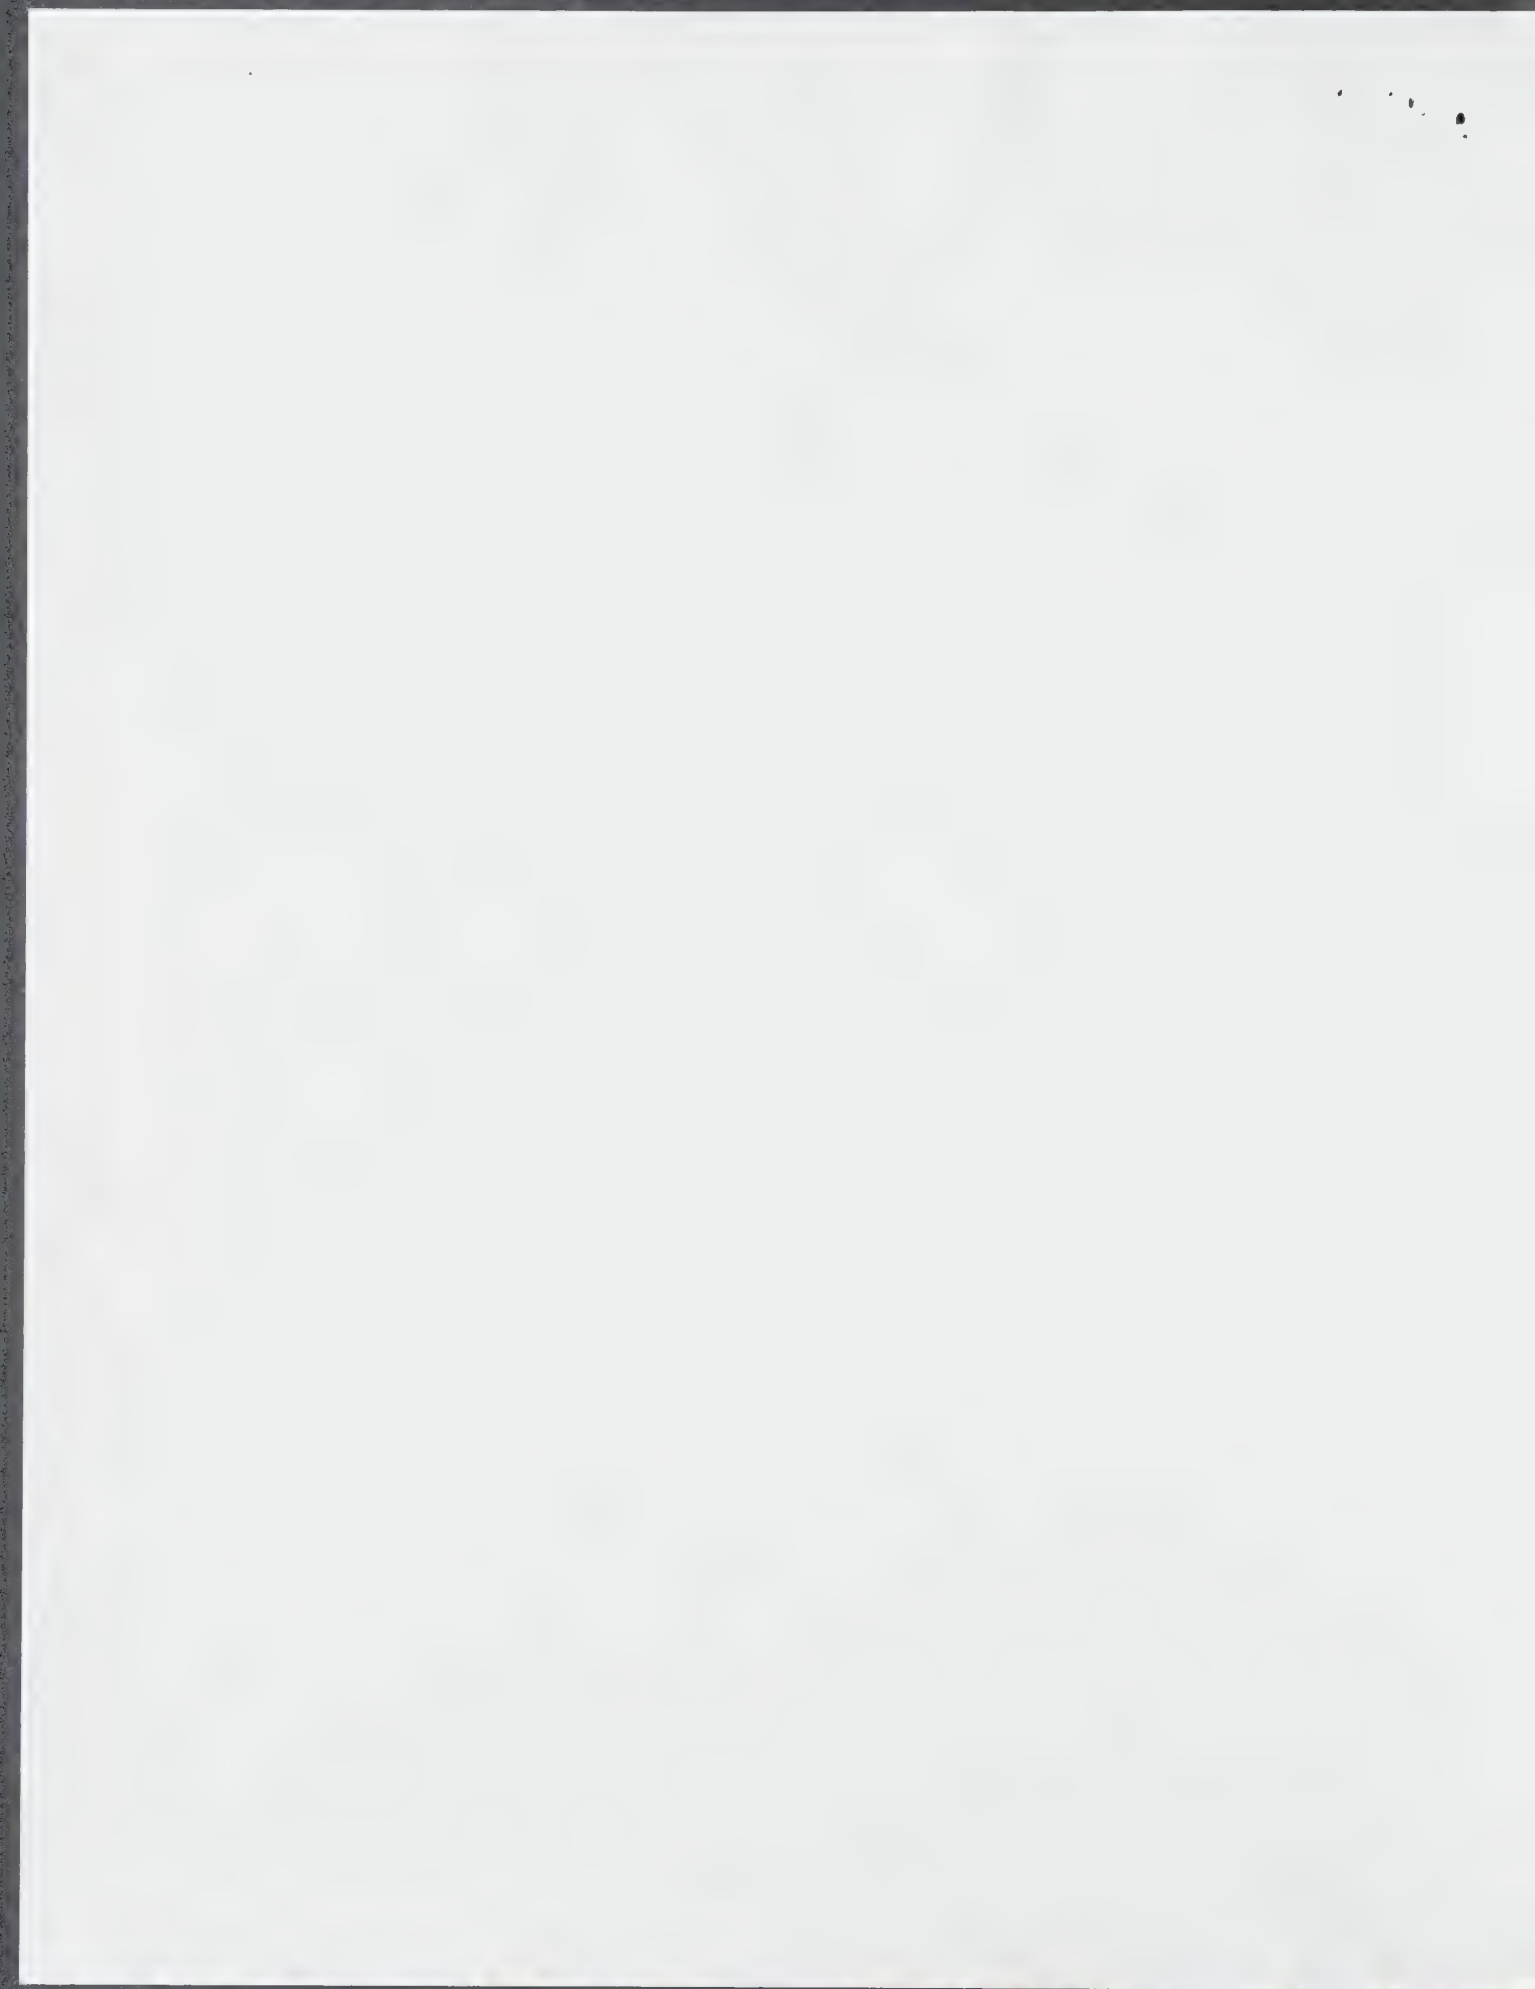

Max Gergel is a spitzbub! We had an appointment all set for 4 PM. At 5:30, when I e-mailed you, I was still here waiting for the group. At 5:45 I called the Holiday Inn (where Max said he was staying), only to discover that Max was not registered there. Then I called the desk to see if his guests had registered at the Astor. I called the room, intending to invite his guests to the gallery – lo and behold, I had Max Gergel on the phone! After I gave him a piece of my mind, they came up and we had six people at the gallery until about 7:30 PM. Nobody bought anything, but you did get your umbrella back (the one you thought Max stole from you). What a character!

Baird credited your dividend to your Money Market acct. at M&I. (Listed on sheets to follow).

John's work is ok, he will return from California later today. I will call Michael on Monday and if Deborah is still sick I will pick up your mail on Tuesday. I had three calls from Promega and responded to all three. They were anxious to get some papers to you for signatures. I asked her to fax them to me and I would get them to you, but I have not received them yet (perhaps not ready?)

You are still on the waiting list for Mayo. I found much correspondence with John Sherk about Mrs. Middeldorff, but no financial papers.

You planned to discuss payment for ABFA 1985, the Bordon, with Clovis to see if he preferred payment in dollars or sterling. We planned to pay him with interest after your return. Yes, we did pay for the half the restoration, see the calculation I will be faxing.

The woman at Christie's, London, is Ms. Rosie Seaward in the Old Masters department. Her fax # is 0171 389-2209, but I do not have her telephone number.

Dr. Lindsay Shaw-Miller has some interesting news on the Sweerts painting. You can reach her today at 1763 208 450.

That's all for now. Load up your fax machine and give me just one ring at the office when you are ready.

We will speak at 4.

Best wishes as always, Love to Paul

ATT: ARIKA KOFUKU

Dear Mr. Kofuku,

Alfred-

Here's where we stand so far. I think Charles Muehl should do the restoration. (and document his work in color slides) Yours,

OTN

Herewith I am enclosing a copy of Alain Goldrach's condition report on the painting by Aert de Gelder. As you can read, he feels as I do, that the overpainting is excessive, and the picture could look just as good or even better with less restoration.

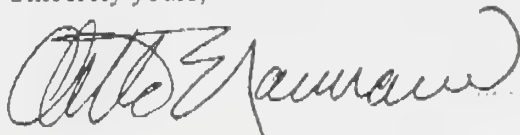

Incidentally, his estimate for a complete restoration of the painting in the proper manner would be $6,000 to $7,500.

CM for $5000?

If you are very seriously interested in the painting, and you would buy it if the condition were acceptable, I would suggest that we go ahead and re-restore the painting, documenting the progress as we go, and you will then have a better idea of the true state of preservation of the picture.

You were probably able to see in the exhibition catalogue to the Aert de Gelder show that this painting is one of the artist's masterpieces. I am certain that this is one of the last chances that one will ever have of buying such a major picture by this master.

Sincerely yours,

Otto Naumann

Condition Report, June 22, 2000:

The quite large canvas was relined with glue, probably in the nineteenth century. The painting was cleaned and restored quite recently, and one must admit that in regular light with the naked eye the painting appears to be in good state of preservation. However, under ultra-violet one can clearly see an extensive network of retouches or more aptly reinforcements, strengthening and outright reglazing. Below the retouches lay a very opaque layer of varnish that must have been applied prior to the retouching. One can confidently say that because of the boldness and free handling of the restoration, possibly few of the repaints cover actual damages, like tears or losses, but more likely cover some thinnesses and abrasions. One must also mention that in spite of the restoration the painting reads well. It is my opinion that a large portion of this restoration is cosmetic and unnecessary. One could accomplish the same effect with far less inpainting.

Dear Mr. Kofuku,

I shall have an extensive restoration report prepared by one of the most capable restorerers in the country, Alain Goldrach. He will examine the painting on Thursday, and by Friday of this week I shall fax you a copy of his report. You can call Mr. Goldrach for any further clarification that might be needed. Meanwhile, I have made so calls to see which photographer can take infared photos. We shall proceed one step at a time.

Dear Mr Naumann,

I discussed with my colleagues about your painting by De Gelder. Probably the best way to know the painting is to examine it in our laboratory. But I don't like to transport it with either our expenses or your expenses at this momet. I think this will be our next proceeding. Actually it had better ask you to supply us some scientific photos (x-ray and infrared photos). You don't have to take new photos. But if you don't have them, I'm afraid we can't decide before our own examination of the painting.

Best regards.

Subject: Arent de Gelder

Dear Dr. Kofuku,

The painting by Arent de Gelder, Tobias in the House of Edna and Raguel, is still in my gallery. It had been unavailable for sale for over one year, while it was in the Arent de Gelder exhibition in Dordrecht and Cologne last year (no. 29 in the catalogue). The price of $850,000 has never changed.

As I'm sure you know, it is one of the most important paintings by this artist to come on the market in many years. When it was with Agnews in London in the mid 1980s, the price was 1.7 million pounds! This was ridiculous, which the former owner realized when he took it away from Agnews. Luckily, through an agent in Amsterdam, I came in contact with the owner and purchased the picture. I still make a profit at $850,000, but not a huge one, especially if one takes into account the cost of money for the years I have owned the painting.

I have looked at the painting under the blacklight, and unfortunately there are quite a few areas of inpainting. However, I honestly believe that all of the inpainting is cosmetic. Most of it follows the forms, so I believe the last restorer was simply "sprucing up" the painting. According to the last owner, Agnews had the painting cleaned in London, and I can even guess who did it! In all likelihood, it was the Hume Brothers, restorers who are notorious for overly inpainting pictures in excellent condition.

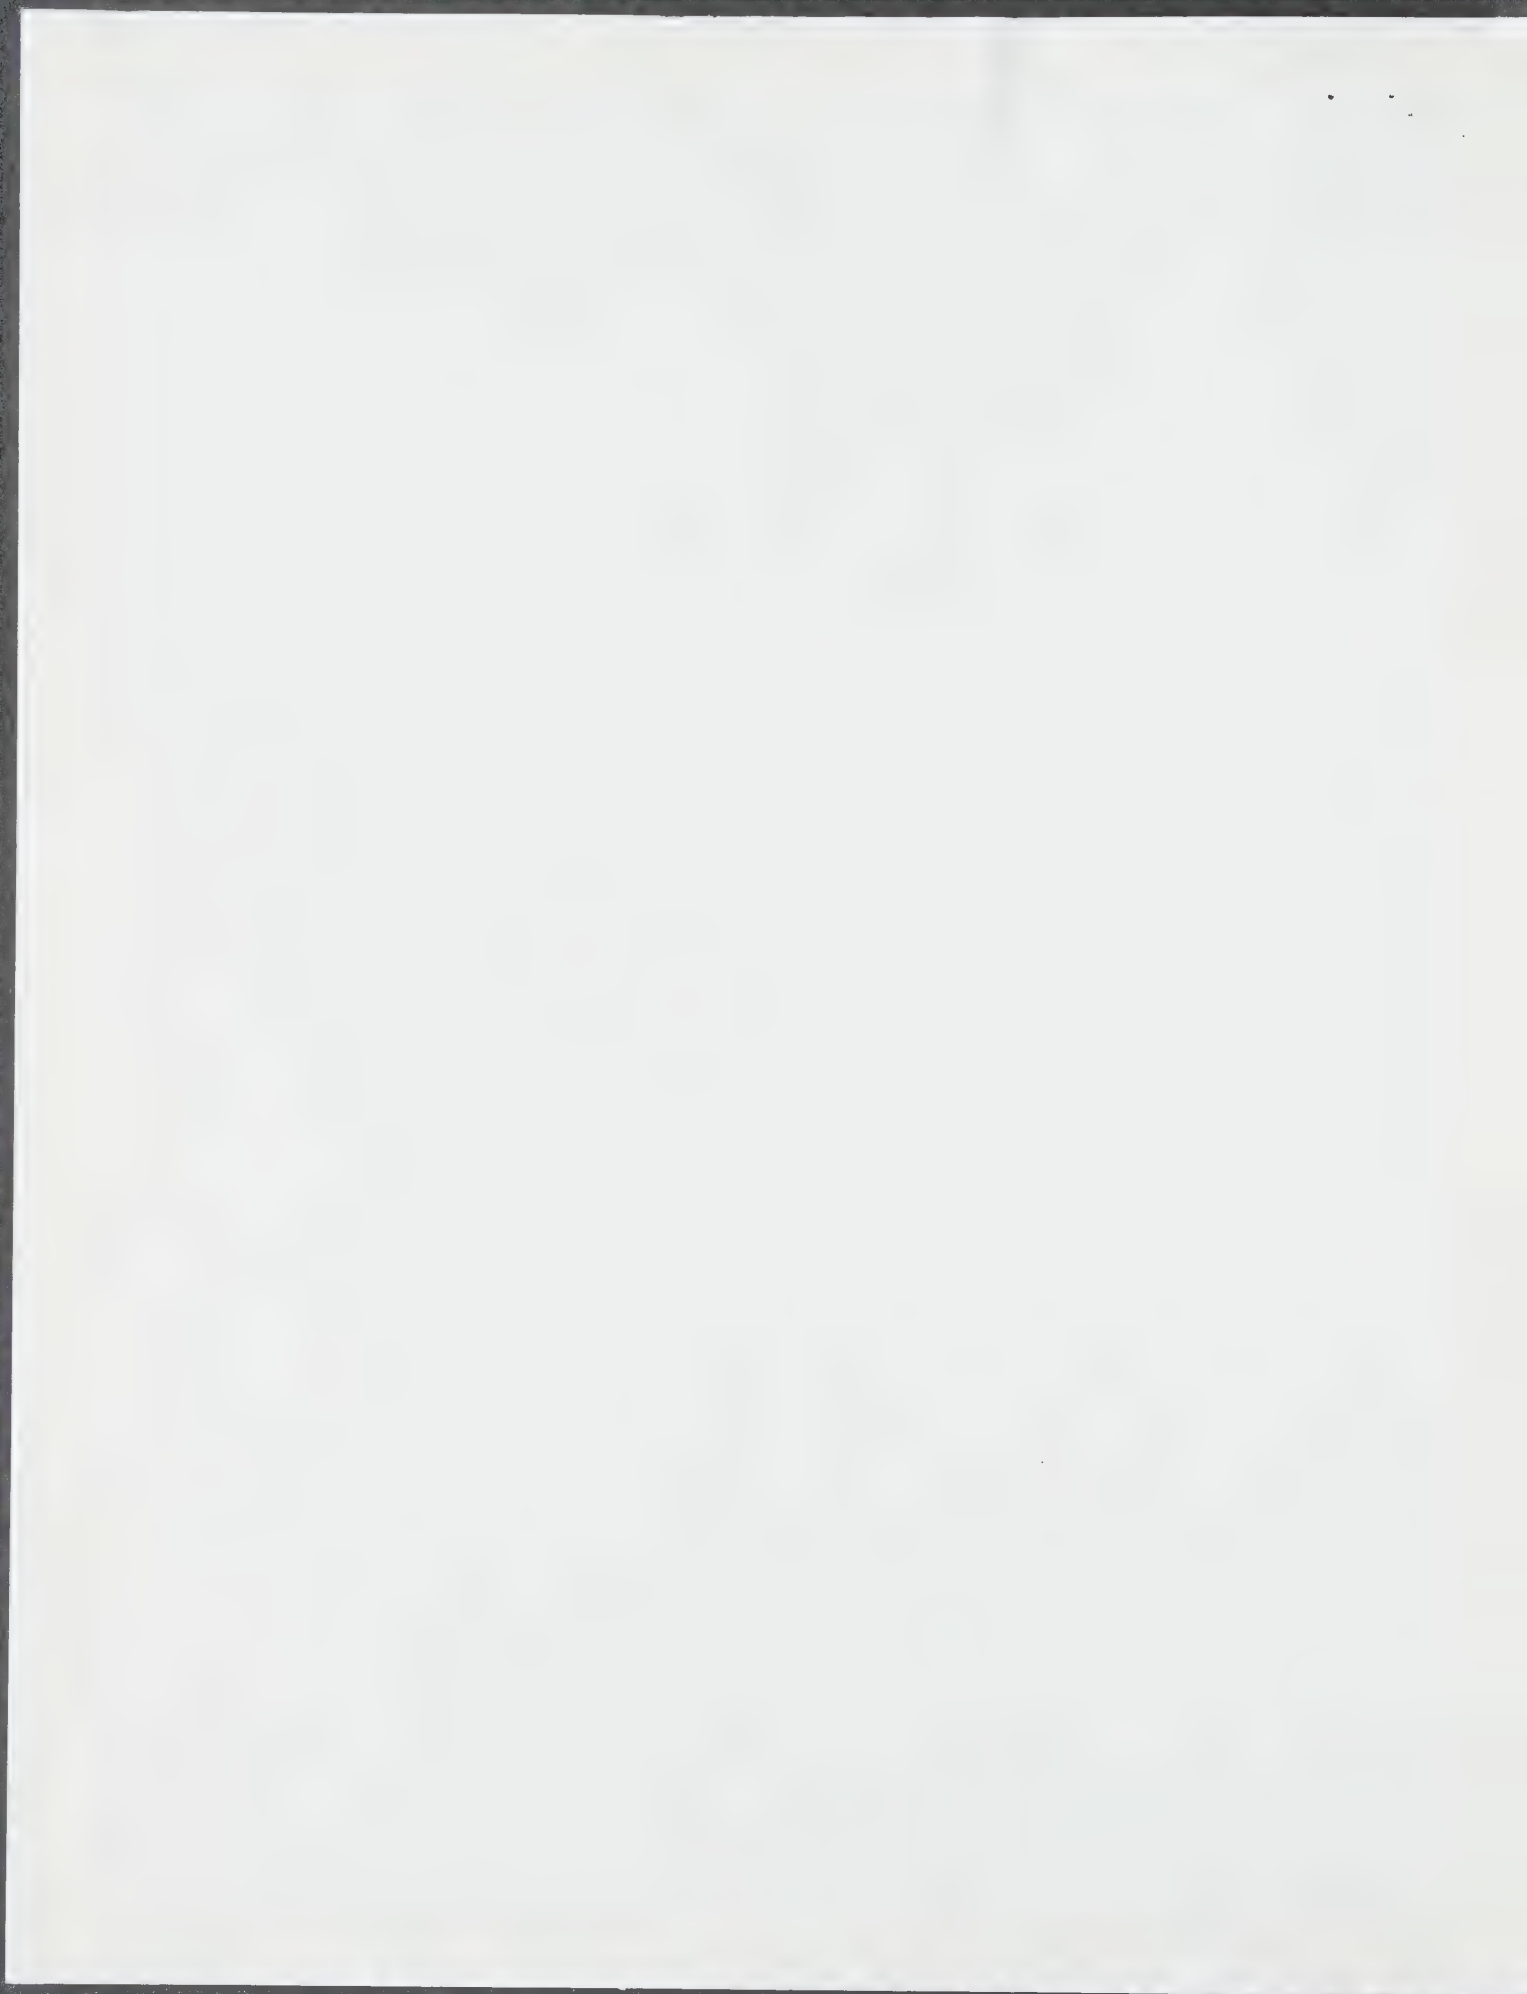

What I would suggest is that you get the report of a local restorer in New York before you proceed. I am confident that a good restorer will see that the painting is in a very good state of preservation. I would suggest Alain Goldrach, who works mainly for museums, or Simon Parkes, who does a lot of work for privates and Sotheby's as well as dealers.

Please let me know your thoughts,

Yours,
Otto

Dear Alfred and Isabel,

I hope you both are having a wonderful time! Here are some things I thought might be important or of interest to you.

Your taxes were sent Certified on 6/15, the Sotheby's check was sent Certified on 6/16. Ned finally called yesterday in response to my call about the Man in a Yellow Tunic. He was a patient at the Mayo Clinic for 8 days - the medication which gave him some relief for a few weeks did significant damage to his liver and he suffered hepatitis. He has not been able to start on anything you gave him. So for now the best I can do is provide you with the black/white. Bordone calculation enclosed - M+I interest on the $1M error is a little more than I calculated.

B&K received the payout on Hussmann stock and Alfred has received dividends (2) from SIAL holdings at Baird and A.G. Edwards. SIAL dropped below 29 today, stock market dropped 125 points. All deposited.

Michael Hatcher would like a price on the Marcel Vertes fashion illustration in your basement and asked that I remind you about the FOYLE booksale catalogue from Christie's.

Greg Lessard would like you to hand out scrolls at Friday's banquet - I spoke with him today and told him that I could neither accept nor decline for the two of you, but suggested that he try to catch you as you arrive.

I miss you both and I am truly looking forward to talking with you on Friday at 4PM!

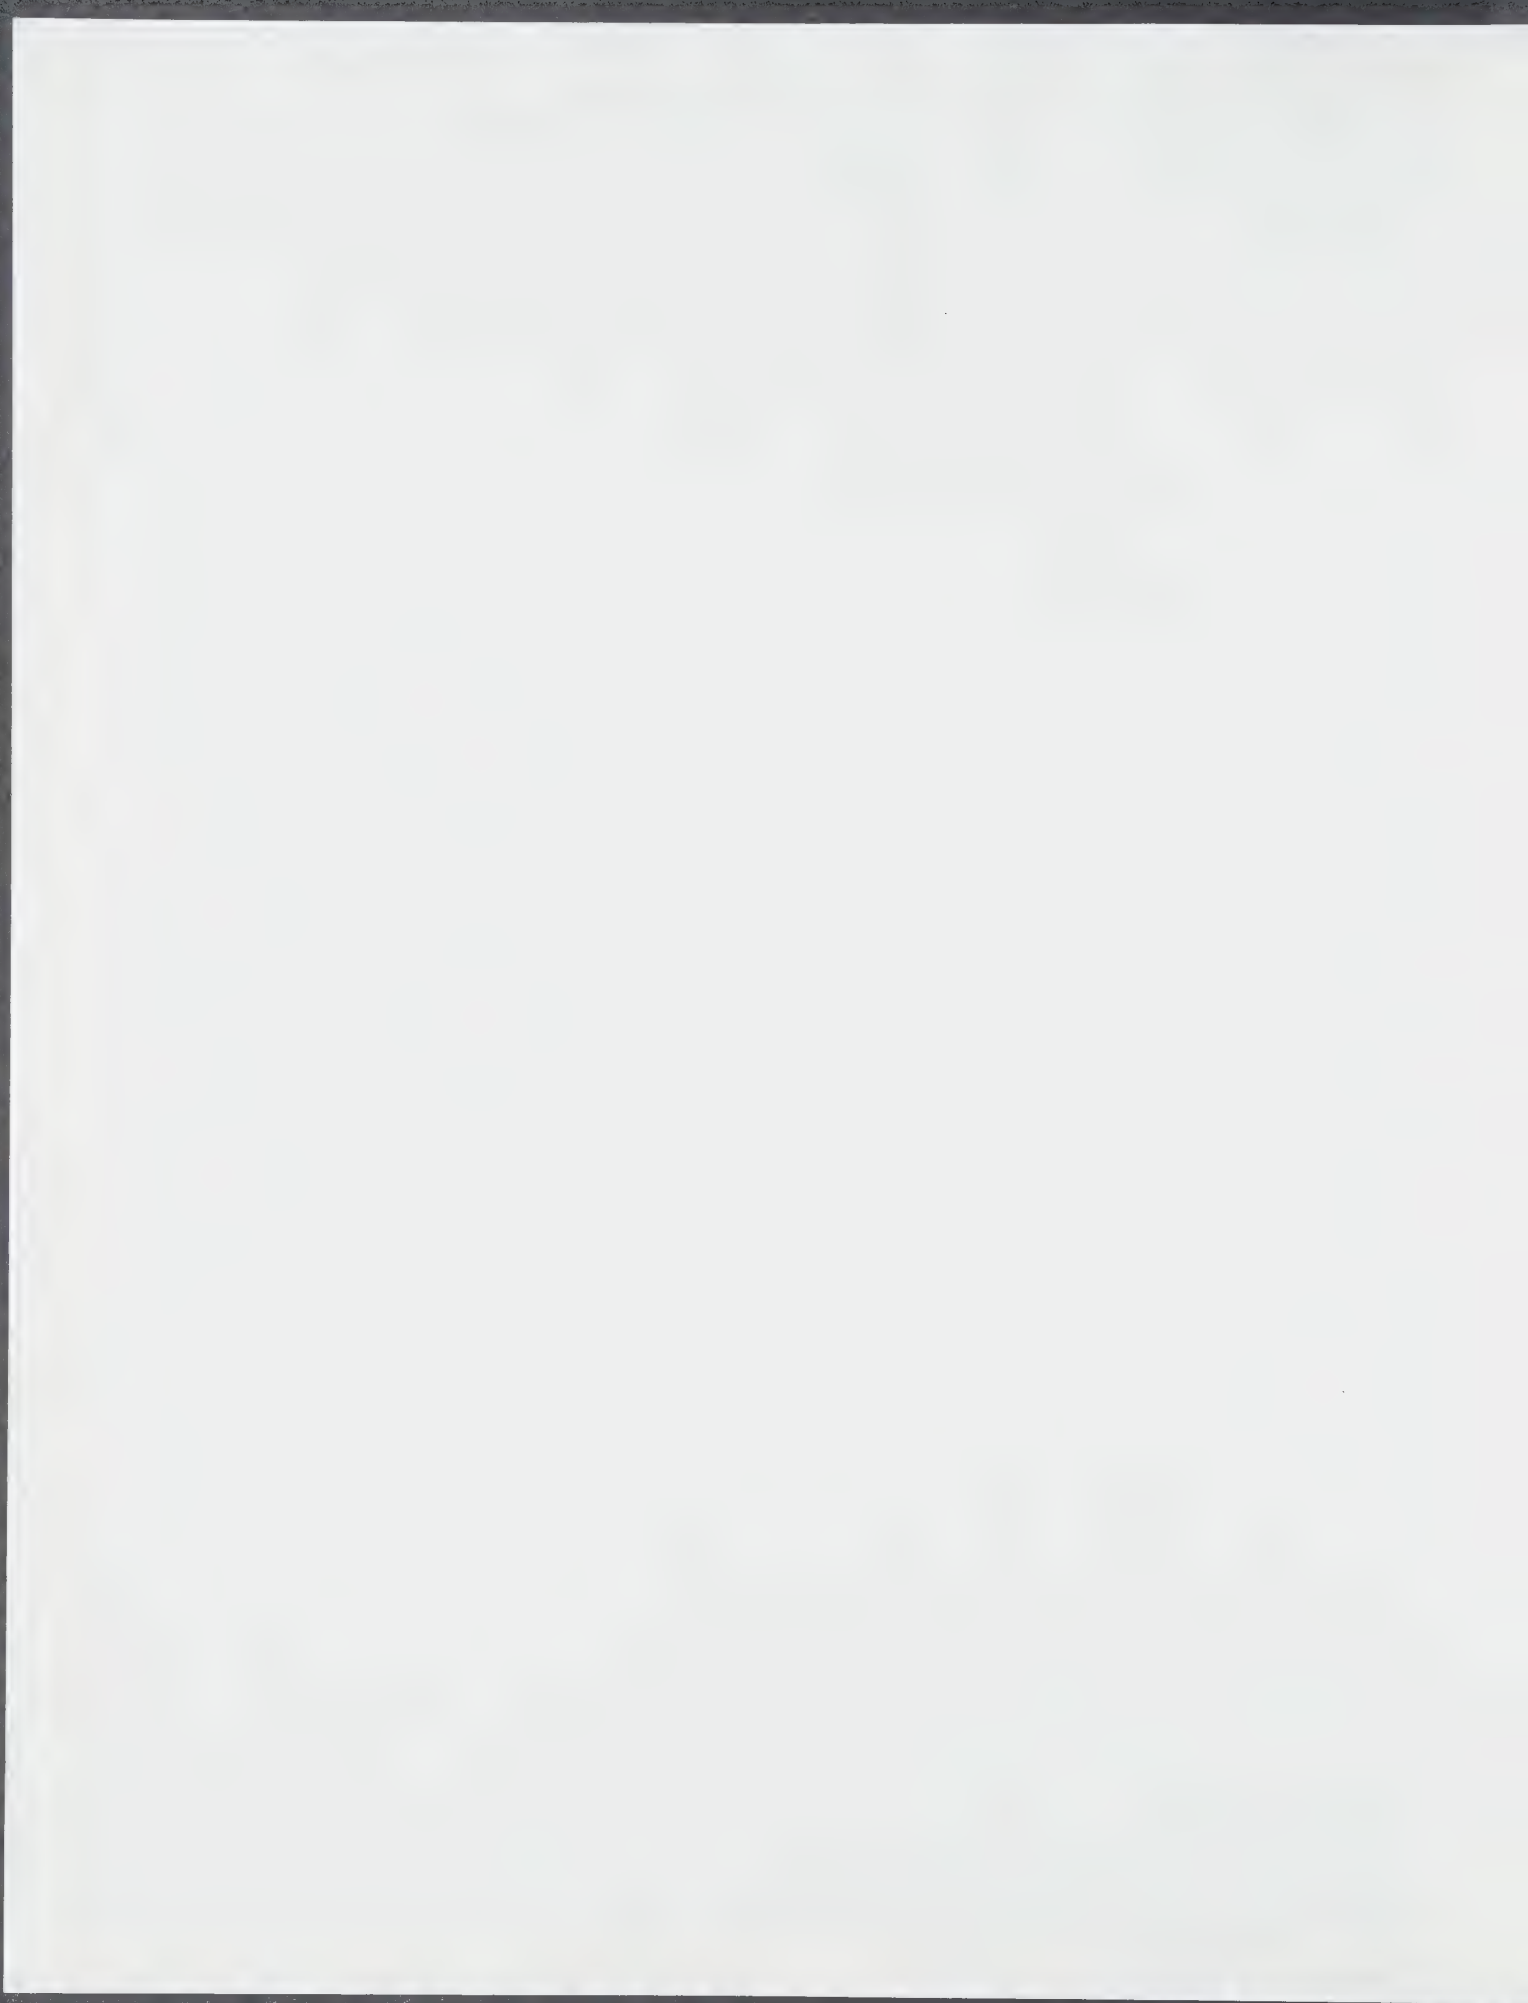

Best wishes as always,

Ann

International award travel on Virgin Atlantic and Swissair is limited to certain destinations and routes; award seats are limited. International travel must originate in the U.S. or Toronto, Canada. Taxes for Northwest, Virgin Atlantic and Swissair are the responsibility of the passenger. Contact the Frequent Flyer office for specific international award destinations, seat availability and date restrictions.

Tips to help you get the most out of your Frequent Flyer award mileage:

- Plan your travel for off-peak days and times: between Monday noon and Friday noon.
- Award travel availability is limited, so book early! With the exception of seasonal service, all markets can be booked 331 days prior to travel. Have alternate travel dates and times in mind when making your request.
- Make your reservation before requesting your award. This will keep the miles in your account until you're ready to use them.

IMPORTANT: Once issued, award certificates are valid for travel one year from the date of issue unless otherwise noted. All Frequent Flyer award tickets are subject to program rules. Award levels are subject to change. Award seats are limited and may not be available on certain dates and flights. Please contact Midwest Express for availability.

Restricted Travel Dates: Award travel is not permitted on Midwest Express or Skyway Airlines on: 2000: January 1-2; June 29-30; July 1-4; November 21-27; December 22-31. In addition, award travel is not permitted to or from Denver, Phoenix or Florida on: 2000: March 18-19, 25-26; April 1-2, 8-9, 15-16, 20-23, 29-30. Additional restricted dates apply to travel on our program partners. Restricted award travel dates are subject to change. Contact Midwest Express for details.
