August 27, 1997

Dear Alfred,

This morning Ms. Thea Kooy who is manager of operations at Little Brown in Toronto returned my call and told me that Ms. Kim had faxed a reply to you yesterday. She indicated that when Little Brown no longer represented Orion, they sold the books to McIntyre and that those McIntyre did not want were sold to Fairmount Books in Toronto. Fairmount bought 168 copies.

I called Fairmount Books at 905-475-0988 (Fairmount Books Inc., 120 Duffield Drive, Unionville). They looked it up on their computer and said that the book was "sold out before the year", "don't know if anyone would have any left" "when the invoices are paid they are wiped off the screen." They would have to go through each account to see to whom they were sold. They sell "all over the world". I suggested that they might check to see if Chapters bought any. They did. In December 1996 Chapters bought 50 copies and they were shipped to KLM Warehousing at 90 Ronson Drive in Rexdale.

I could not find this in the telephone book. However, 90 Ronson Drive is the head address of Chapters. So I called the Head Office. They said that KLM Warehousing is their distribution centre "in Oakville". They had no way of knowing if this book were available. I checked the downtown store once again for fun. They said "we might actually have it as a bargain book and went off to check on the shelves and said the books were actually not in order in this section." They have six copies for $7.99.

Do you want me to purchase them?

Best regards,

Roseann Runte

Dear Dr. Bader,

Subject: Adventures of a Chemist Collector.

We have received a copy of your letter dated August 27, 1997 addressed to Bibliophile Books.

We purchased this title from Little Brown Canada along with the rights to sell in Canada. Unfortunately, in error, some of the stock was sold to Bibliophile. Please accept my apologies for this error.

Yours sincerely,

Marty Cutler,
President.

Gentlemen:

You have been selling my autobiography, your no. 25982, Adventures of a Chemist Collector, first at £5 and then at £4 per volume, stating in phone conversations that this is remaindered stock.

The books were published by Weidenfeld & Nicolson and are my property. Weidenfeld & Nicolson has assured me that it has neither remaindered the books nor sold them to you. Hence, I wonder whether they have been stolen.

I doubt that a British company of your reputation would knowingly sell stolen books. Hence, I request that you send me a copy of the seller's invoice to you, so that I can pursue this further.

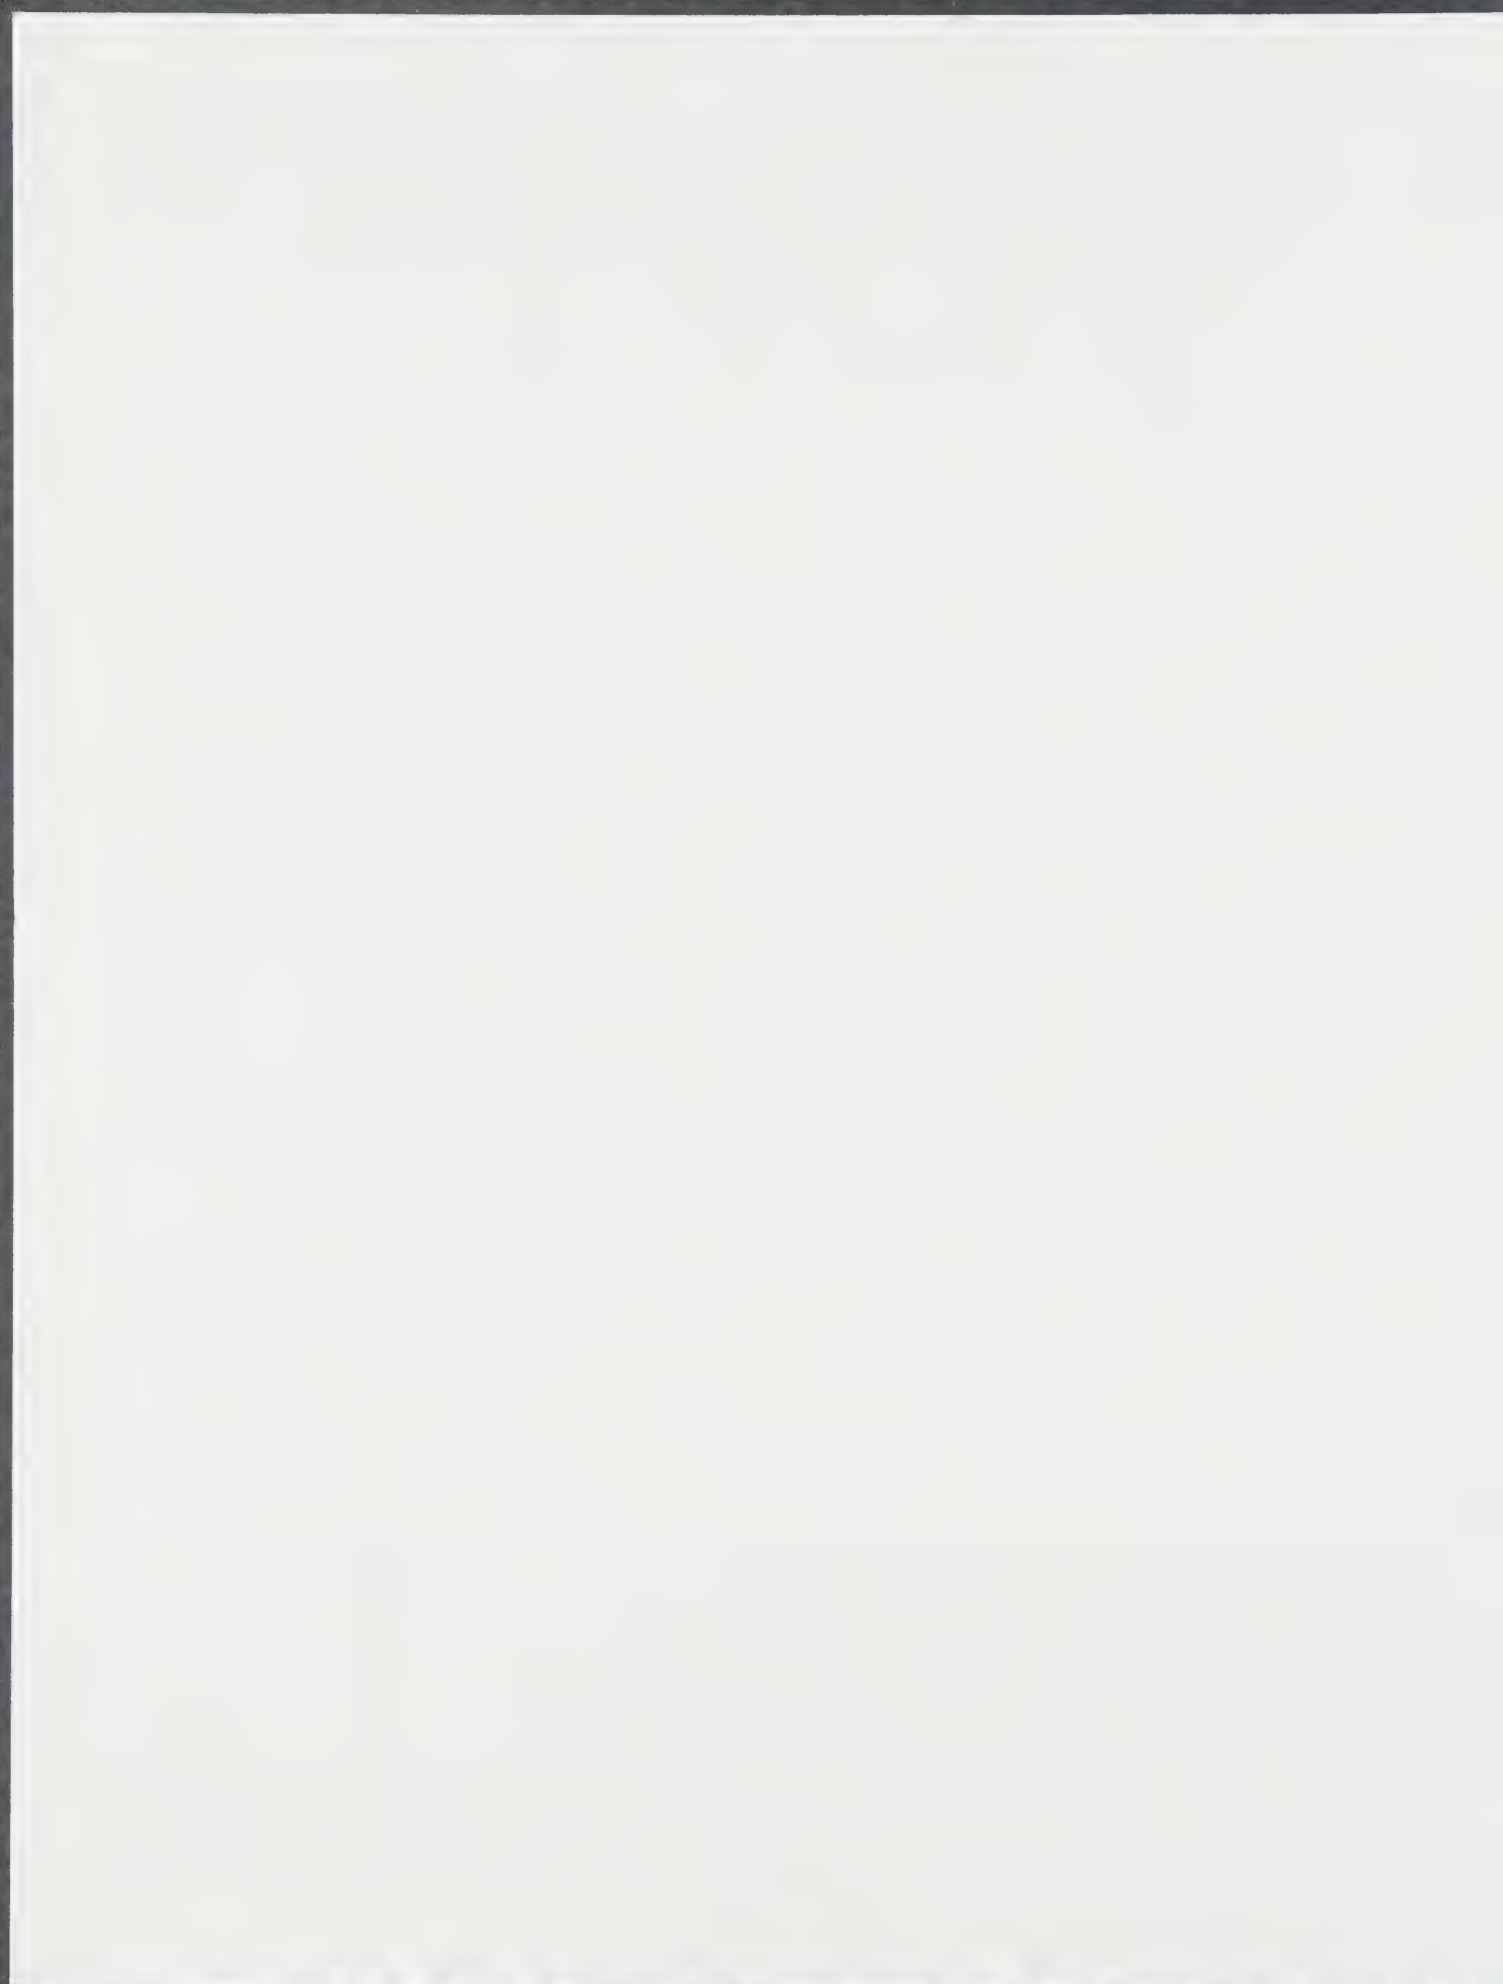

With many thanks for your help and best regards, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

AB/cw

Dear Michael,

I am happy to be able to tell you that the three pallets with the Adventures of a Chemist Collector arrived by truck last week.

We counted the small containers, each containing 10 books, very carefully. There were 208 such containers and also 10 books packed separately in soft paper.

Thus, we received a total of 2,090 books.

As you will see from the enclosed, the delivery note from the Littlehampton Book Services refers to 2,166 books with a notation "T.O.S. 16 copies".

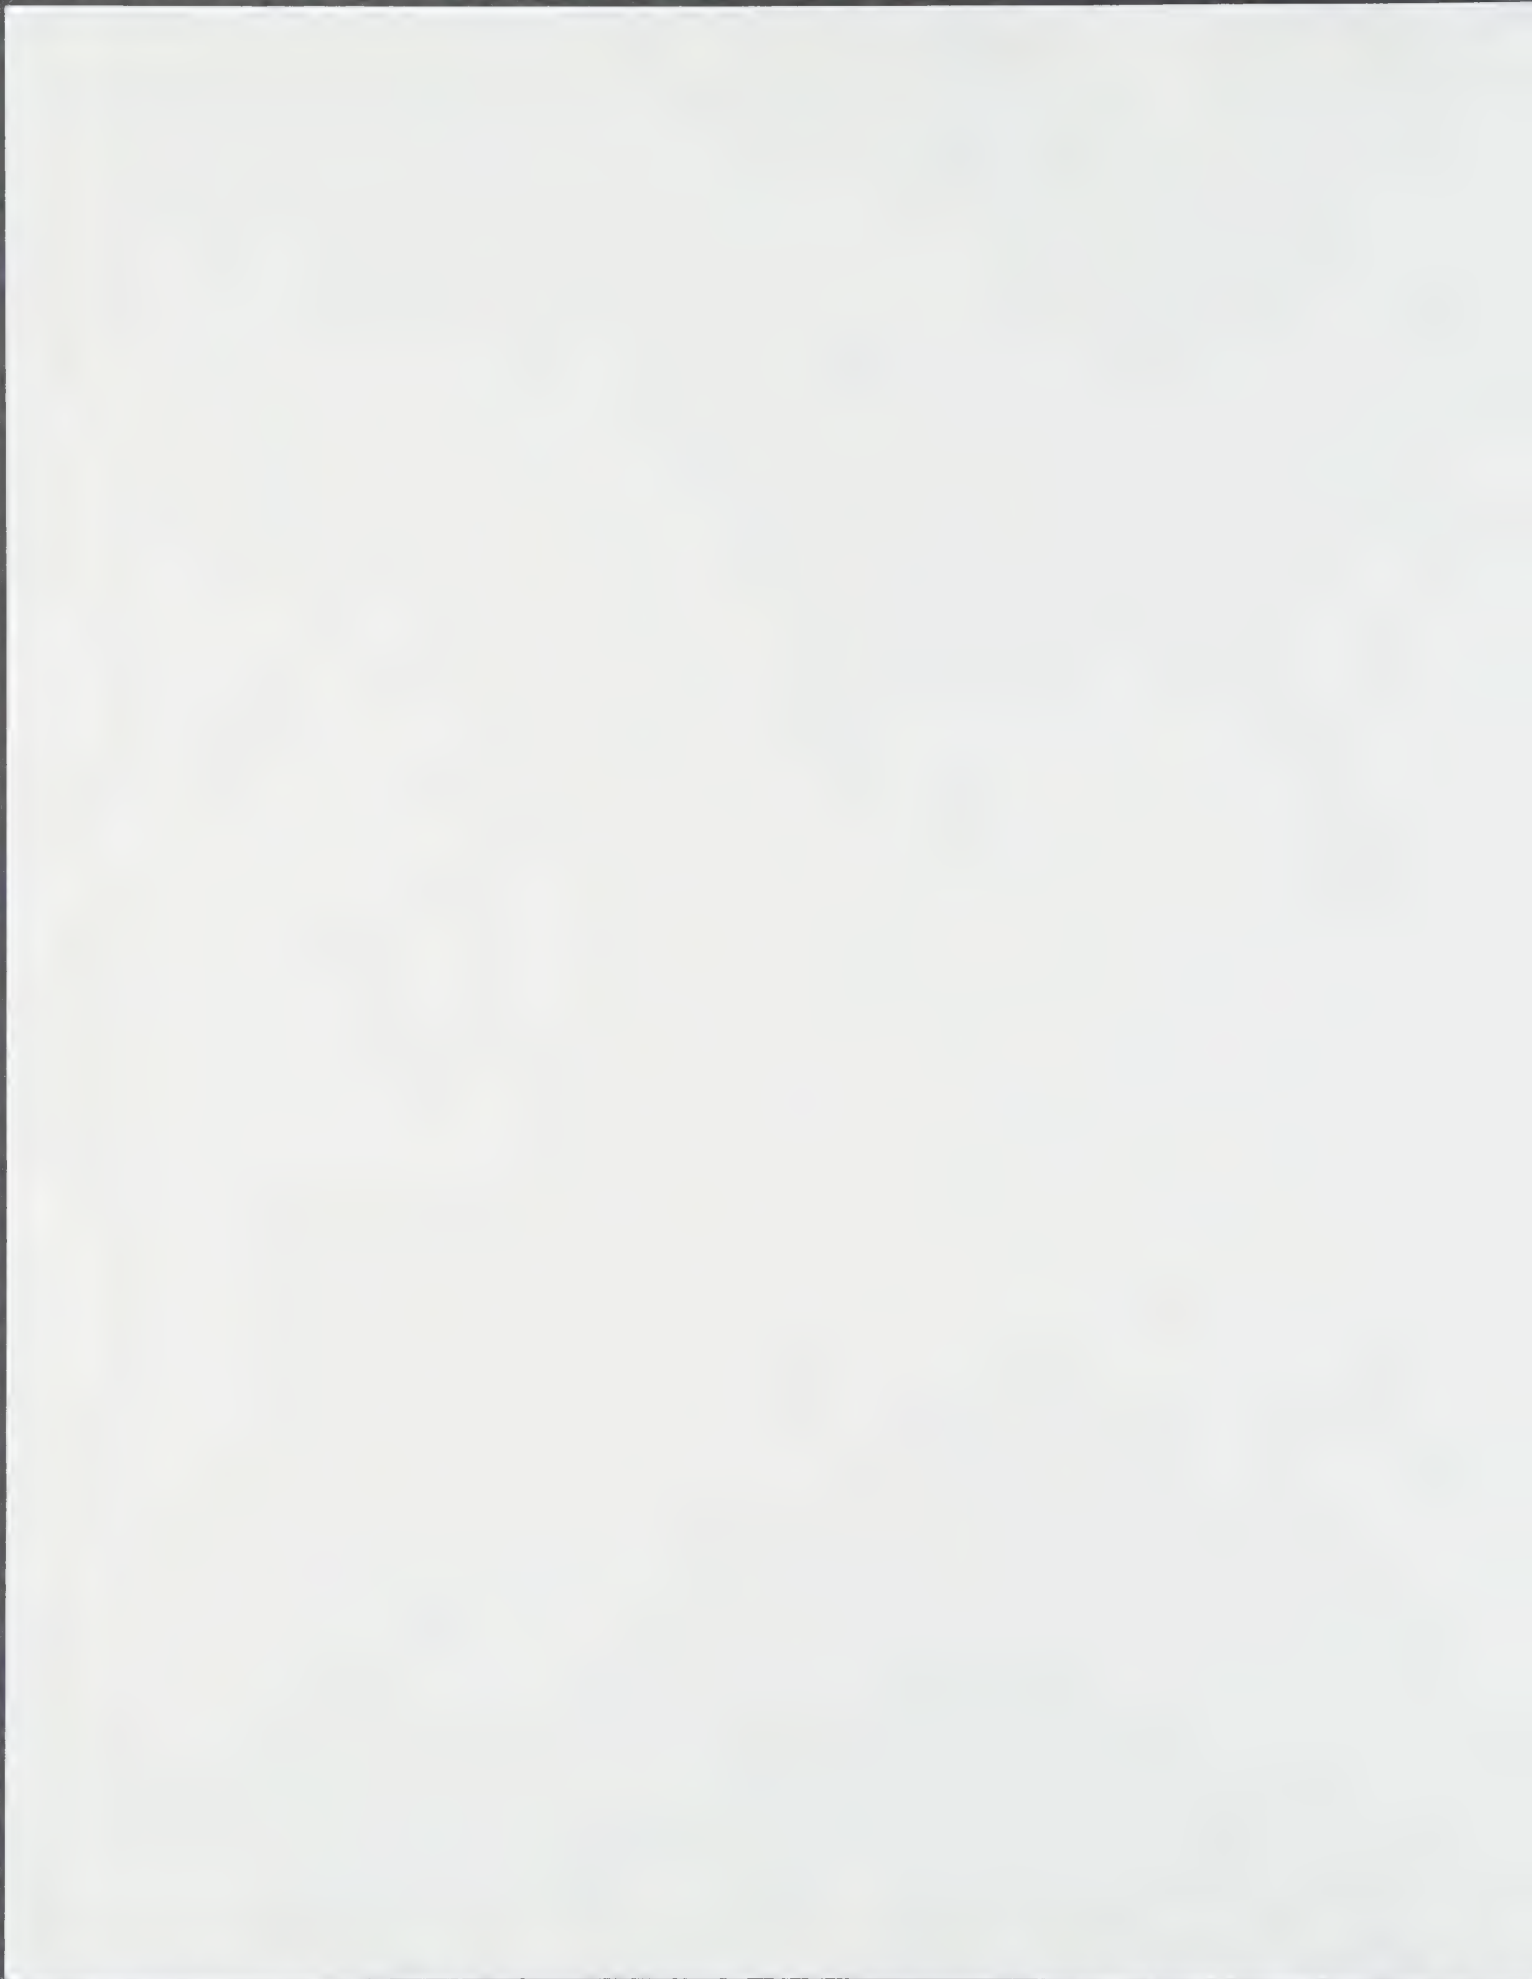

I don't know what T.O.S. refers to and that the difference in numbers is accounted for by books sold since your last accounting.

With many thanks for all your help, I remain

Yours sincerely,

Adventures of a Chemist Collector

Alfred Bader
1st Edition, 1995
ISBN 0297834614
Hard Cover
$32.92

Born in Vienna, Alfred Bader fled to England at the age of fourteen, ten months before the outbreak of World War II. Although a Jewish refugee from the Nazis, he interned in 1940, along with other 'enemy aliens', and sent to a Canadian prisoner-of-war camp.

Today, Bader is one of the most respected men in his field. In this heartwarming book, he tells the fascinating story of how he made good in the land of opportunity, the United States.

It was a case of hard study and hard work. Obtaining his release in 1941, he was accepted at Queen's University at Kingston, Ontario, where he studied engineering chemistry. There followed a fellowship in organic chemistry at Harvard. He worked in Milwaukee as a research chemist for the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company and in 1951 co-founded Aldrich, which today, as Sigma-Aldrich, is the world's largest supplier of research chemicals.

After leaving Sigma-Aldrich, he continued a fruitful career as an art collector and dealer.

Mr. Bader and his family have earned a reputation as generous benefactors, notably in the fields of chemistry, education and Jewish interests. Bader's personal philanthropy has been particularly directed towards helping students of chemistry and art history. He recently donated £6 000 000 to Queen's University to purchase and renovate Herstmonceux Castle in Sussex (the home of the old Royal Greenwich Observatory) - one more 'thank you' to the Canadian institution that had enabled him to take the first steps on the road to success, so entertainingly described in this book.

Thanks for submitting your corrections to the Amazon.com catalog! This is an automatic response to let you know we've received your message, and it is now in our queue. Please do not reply to this message.

If you had a specific question or request, don't worry, we will personally attend to your mail as soon as possible. We do try to handle all correction requests within two business days, but please note that due to the high volume of requests we receive, some messages may not be replied to for several more days.

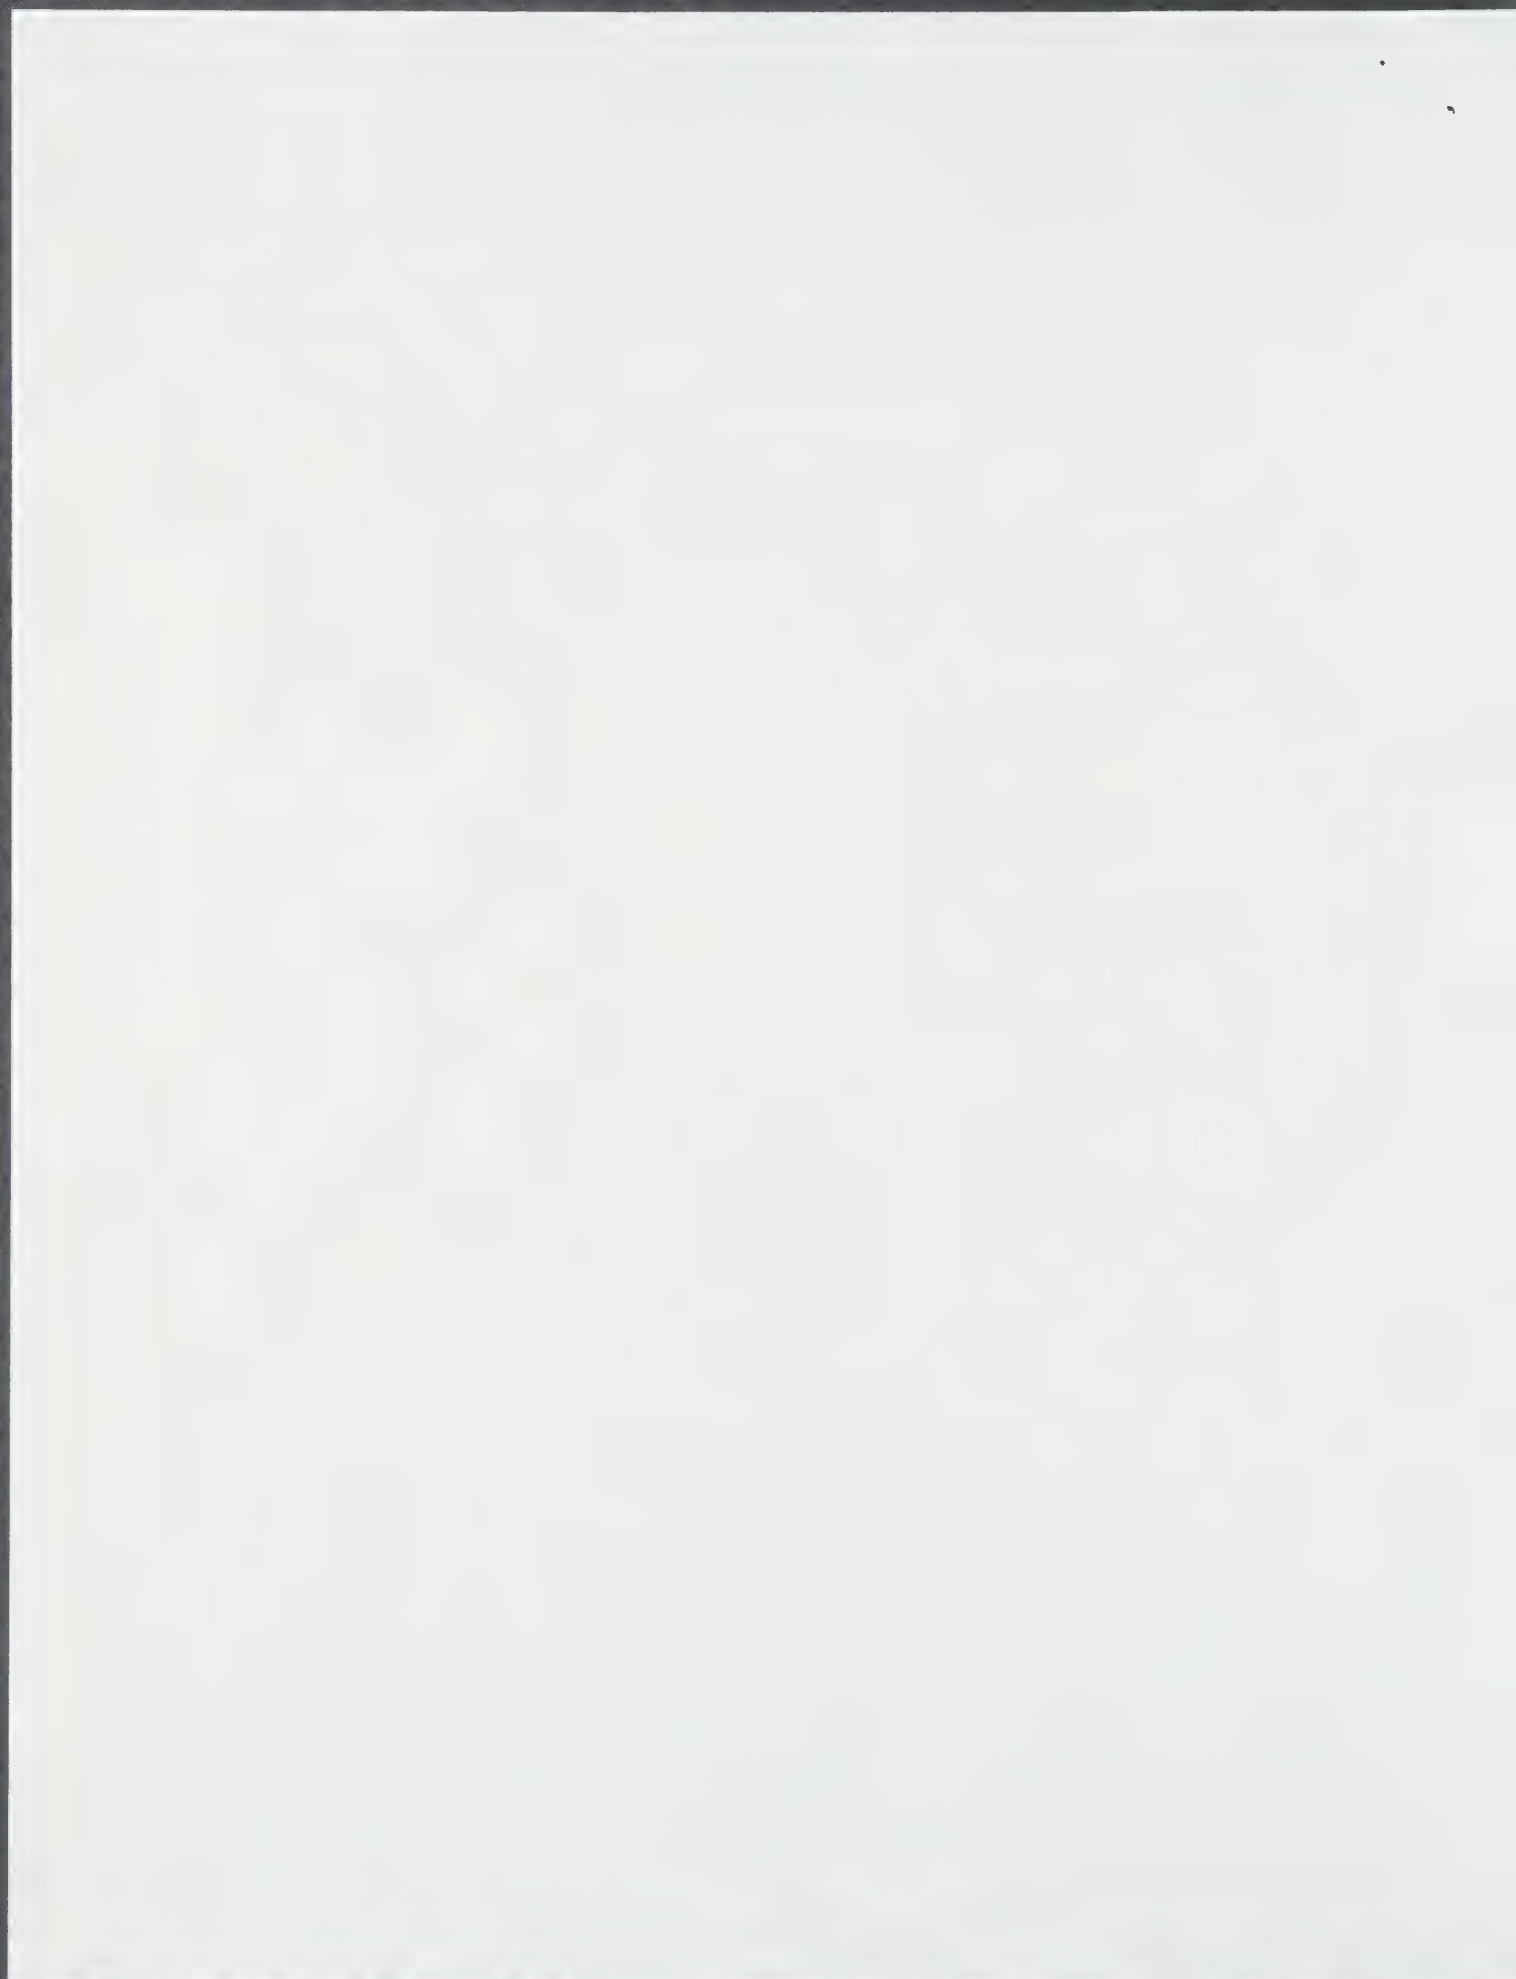

With more than 3 million titles in our catalog including books, CDs, and videos, and with titles constantly going in and out of print, there are many such corrections to be made. Typically, specific corrections appear online five to ten business days after we process and respond to your message, but can occasionally take longer.

If your correction requests or requires a personal response, you should be hearing from us soon, otherwise you should look forward to seeing your change appear online shortly.

Thanks again for writing to Amazon.com. We do appreciate your efforts to help ensure that ours is the most accurate freely available catalog in the world!

Sincerely,

The Catalog Department

Dear Tanya,

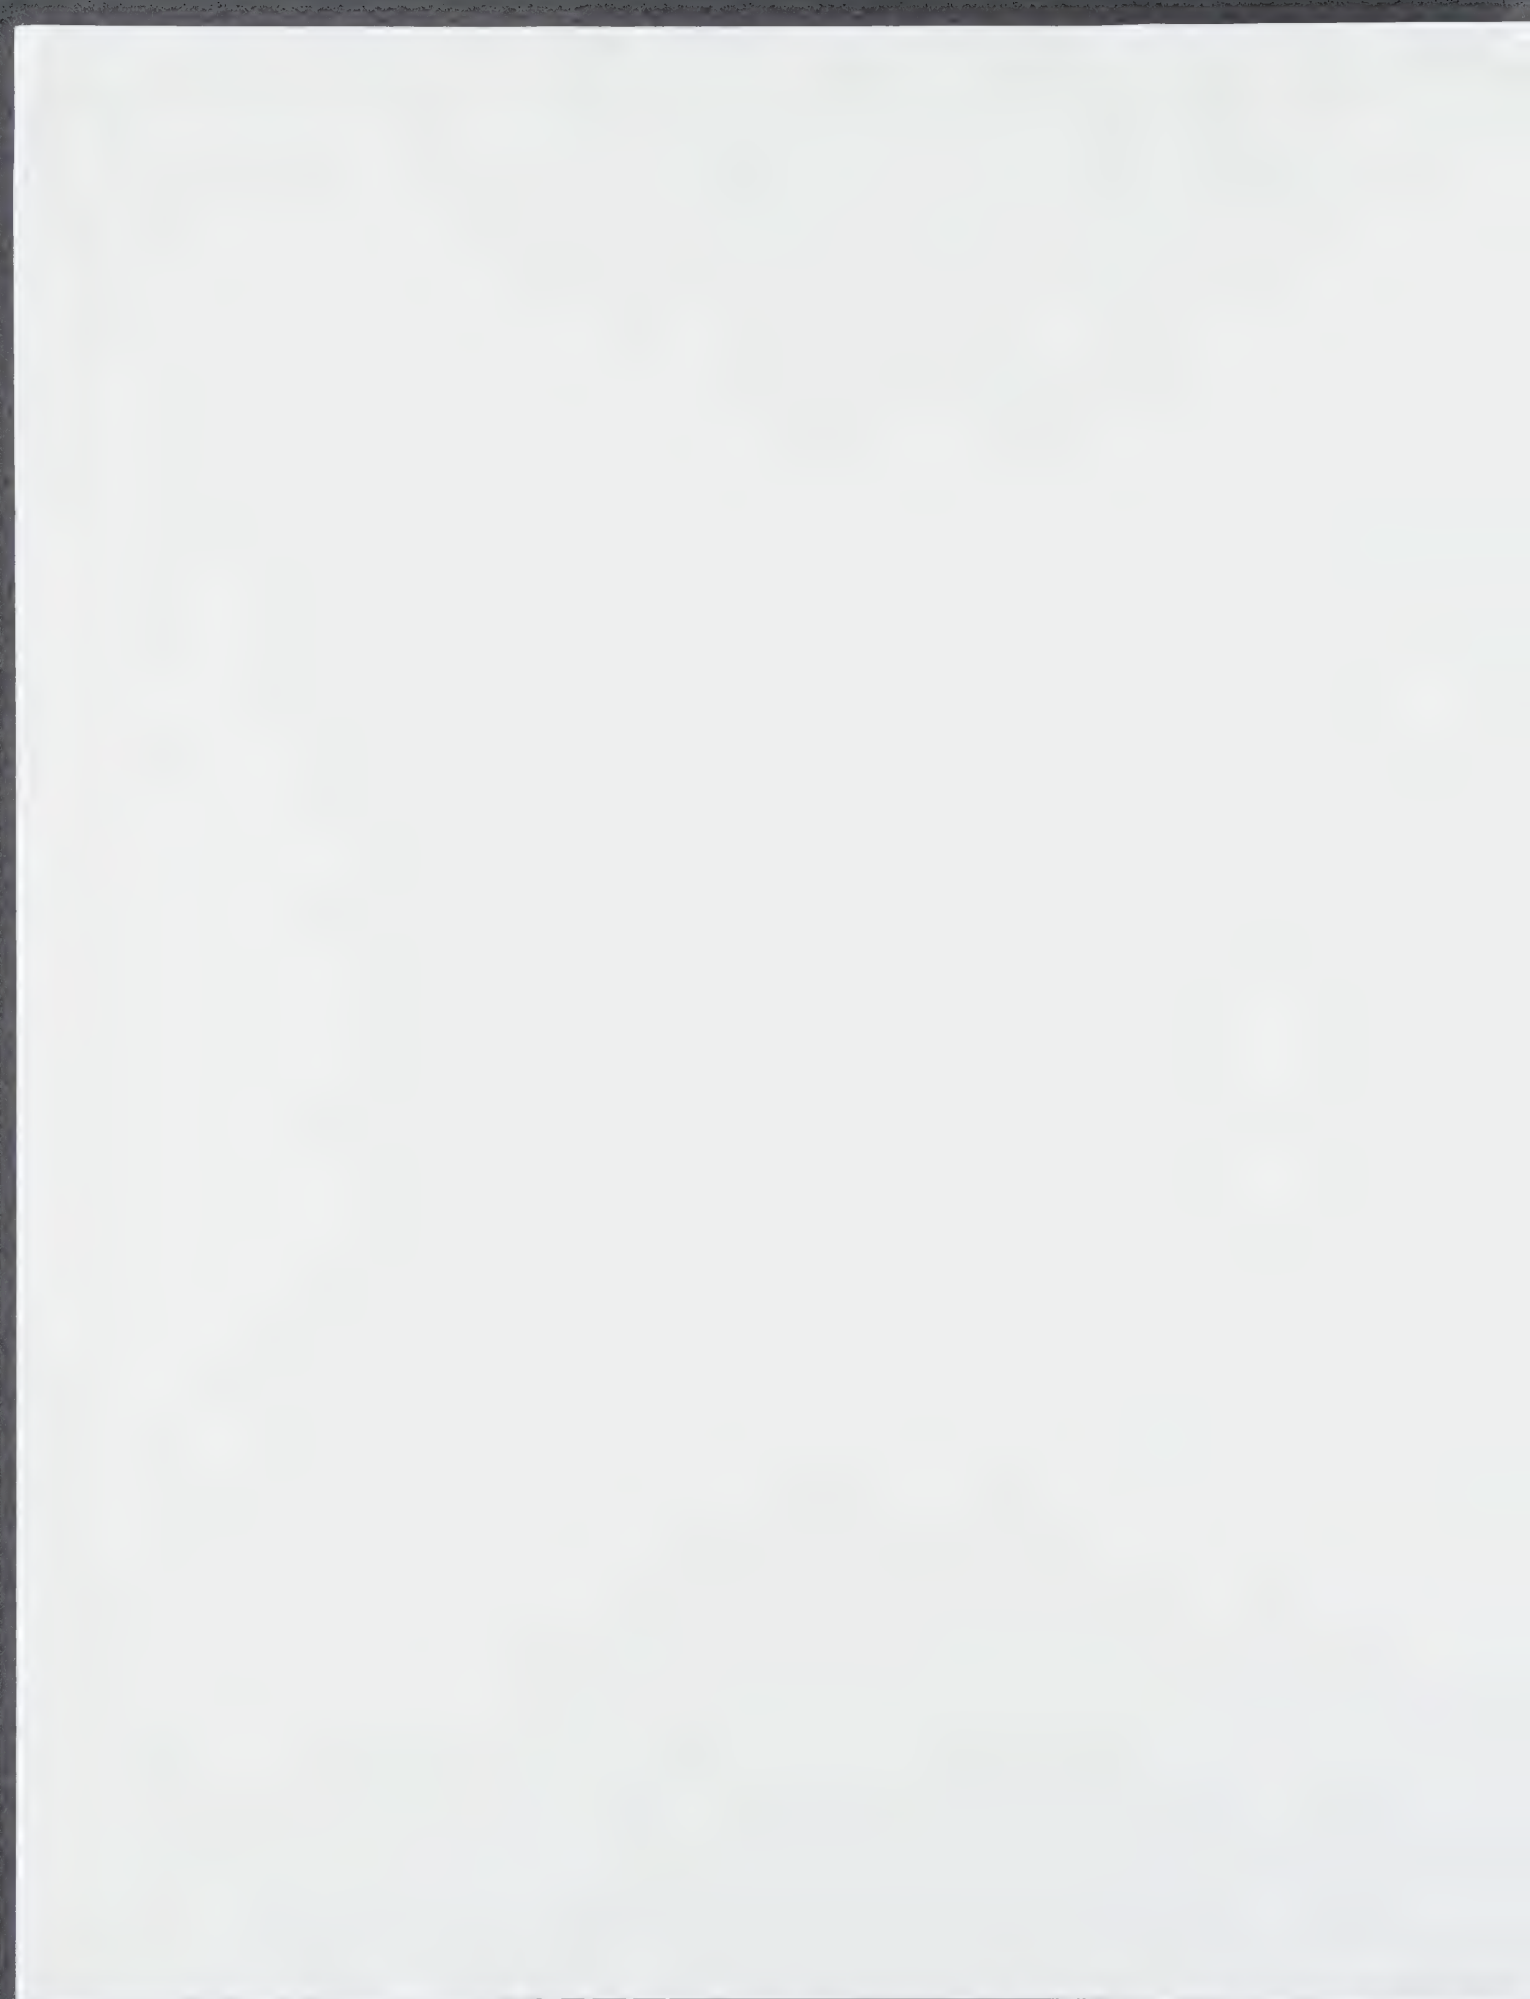

At the end of 1998 you had 363 of my books left in the Castle shop. Hopefully you sold many during 1999.

Enclosed is my deposit slip, to be sent with a check for £ 7.50 per book.

With best regards I remain

Yours sincerely,

Alfred Bader

Dear Alfred and Isabel

Thank you for your letter dated 6 January, I apologise for the delay in getting back to you.

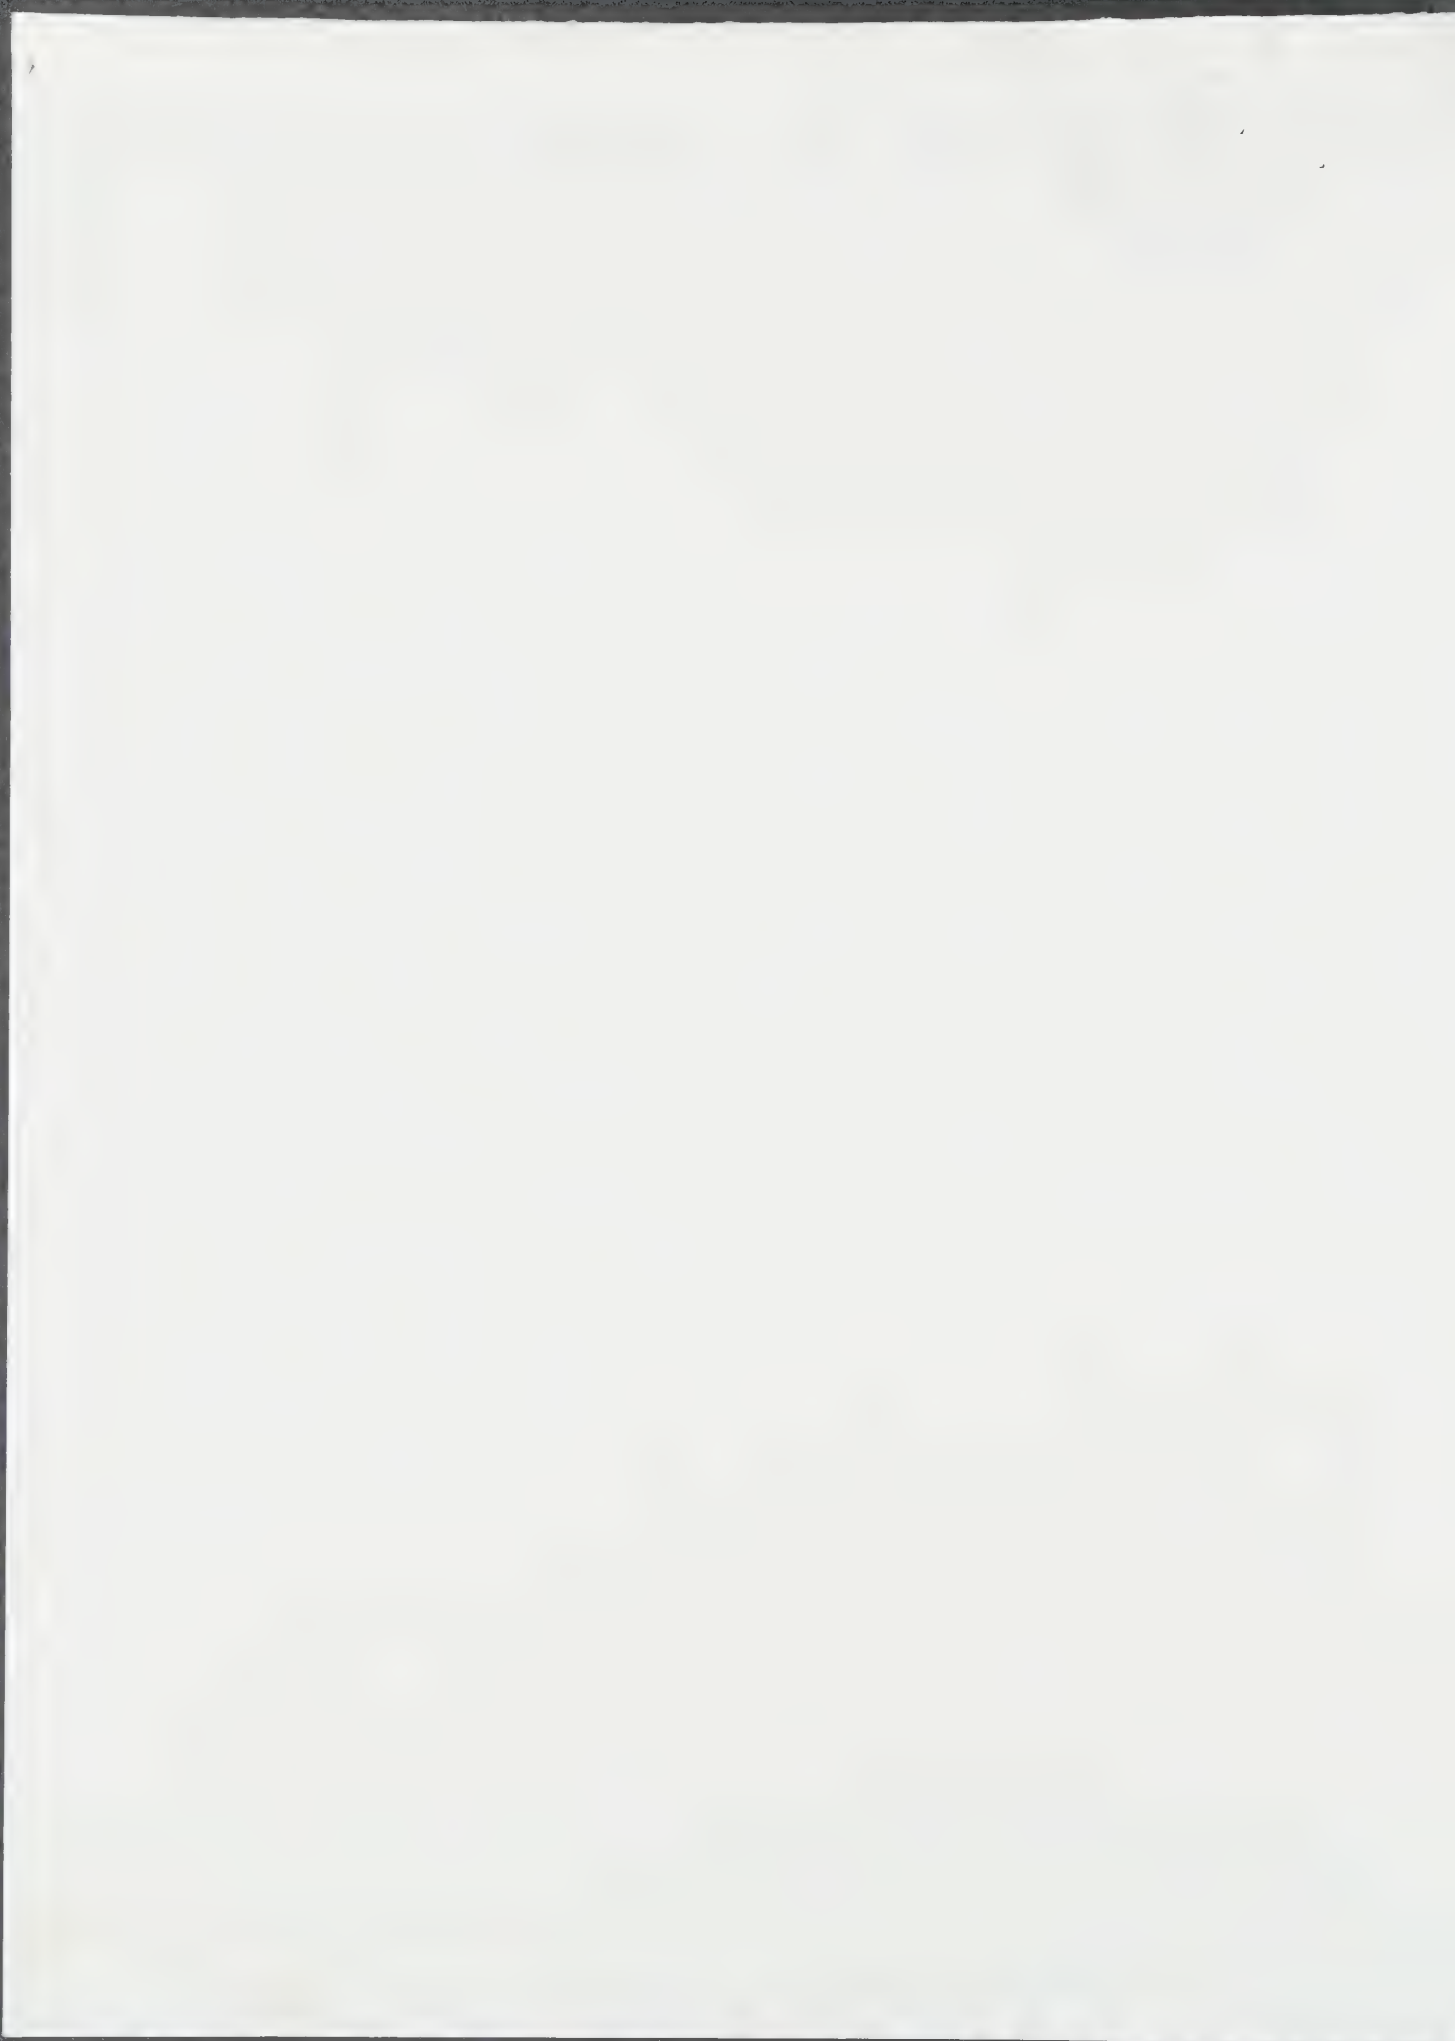

Ruth has checked the book stock of which the reconciliation is below. She cannot trace 25 books that seemed to have been taken sometime at the beginning of last year, but she has agreed to pay for them and to check the book stocks on a monthly basis.

I have mailed your cheque for the sum of £ 570.00 to the Royal Bank of Scotland as requested.

Dear Ms. Wright,

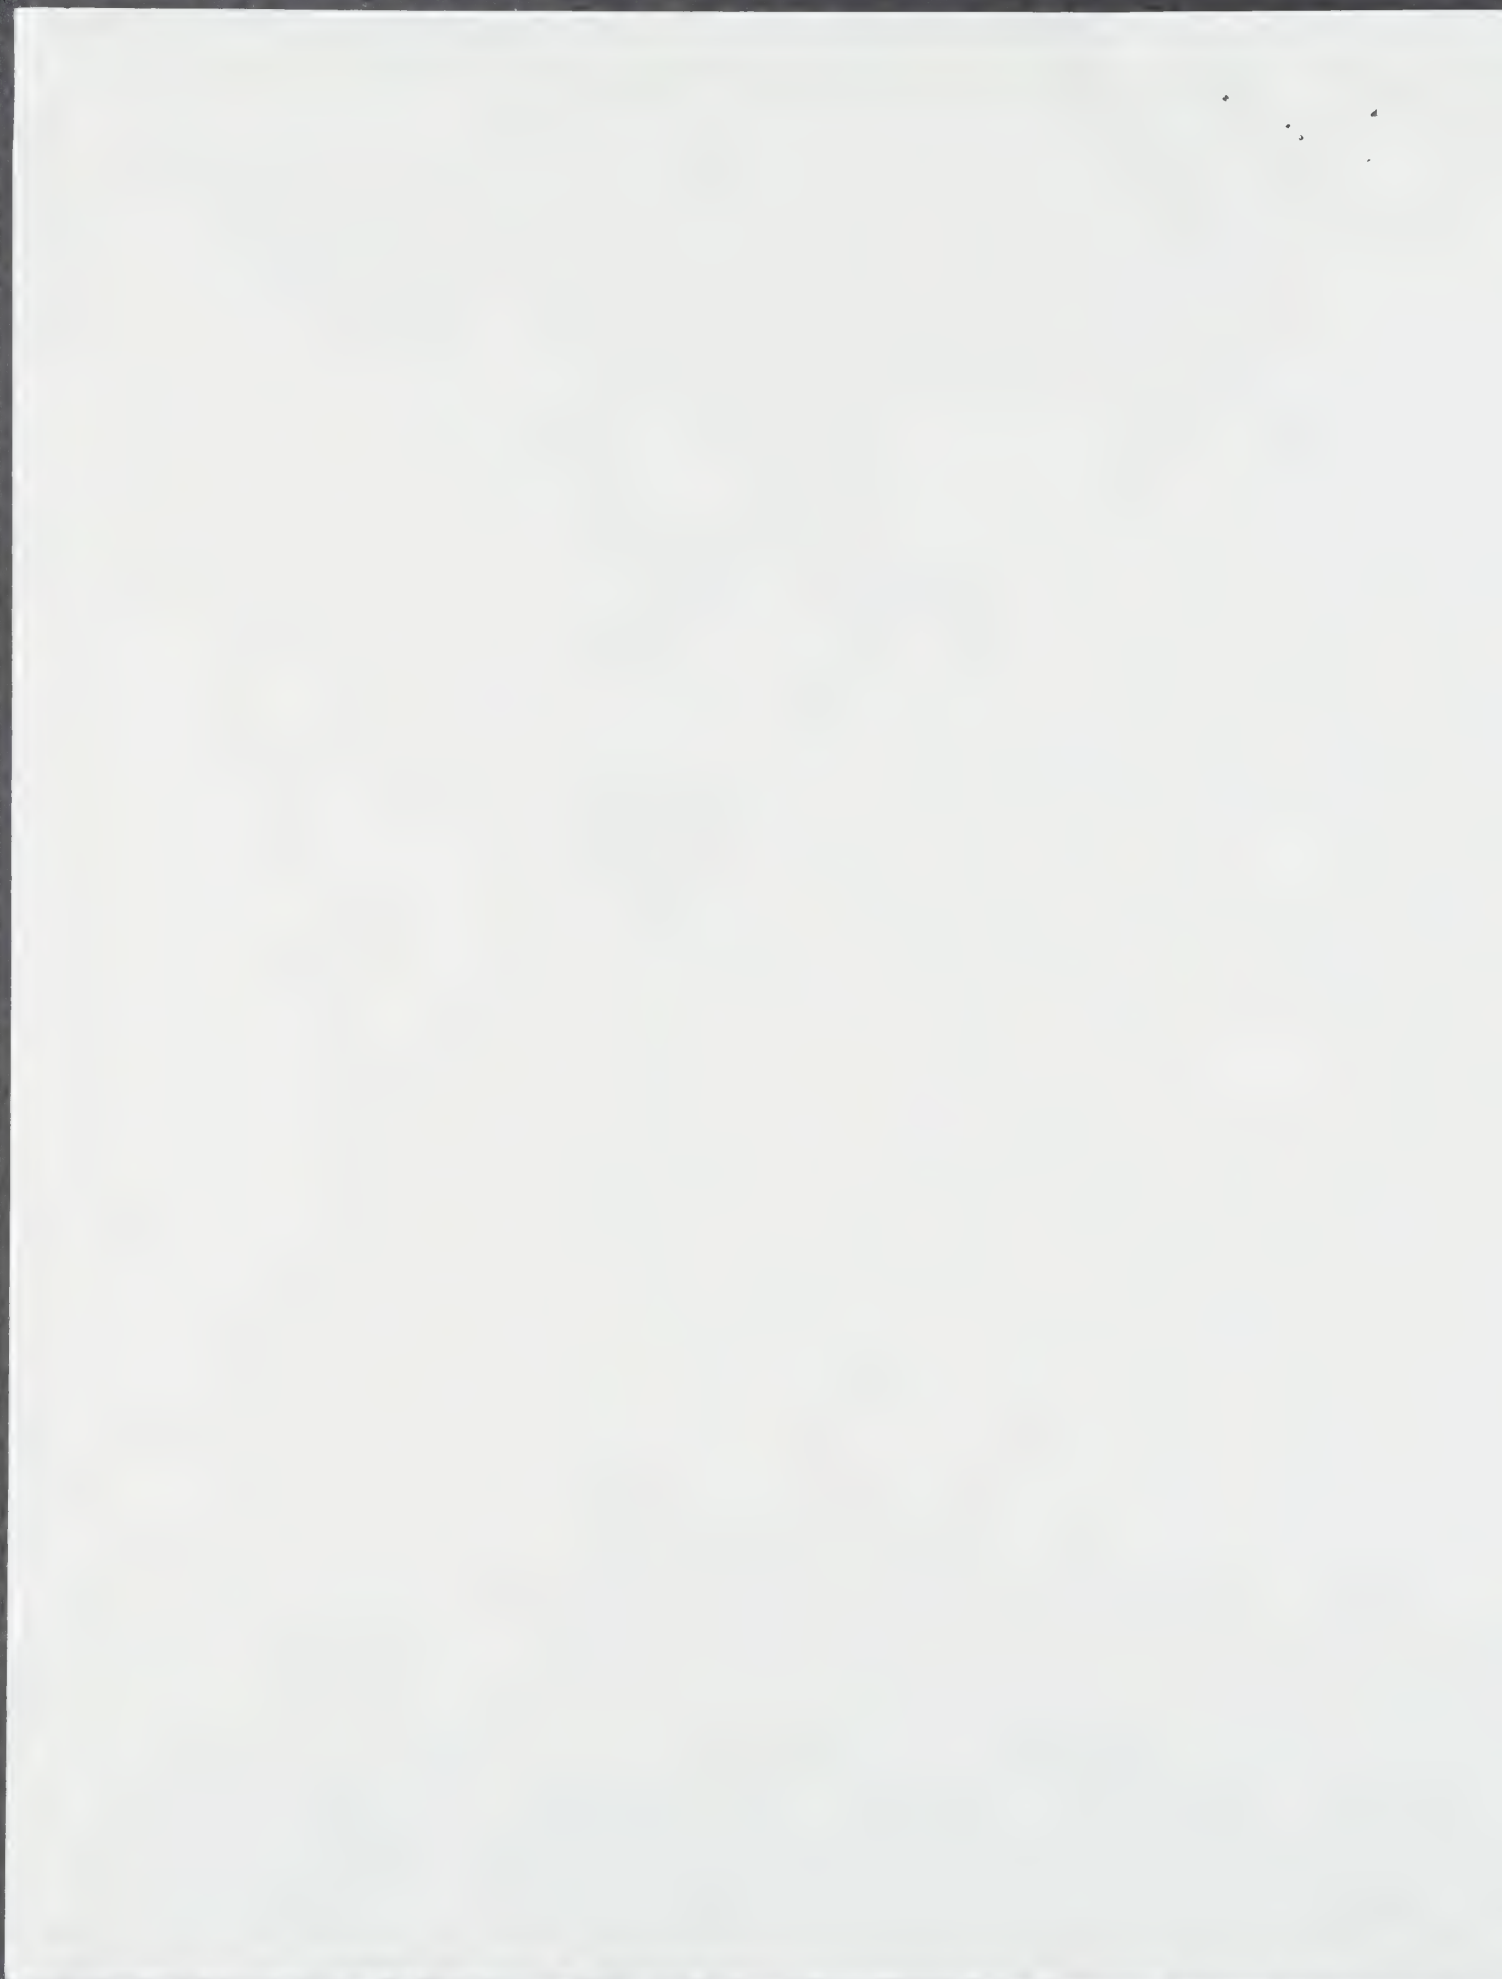

Could you please check how many of my books were sold in 1998 and then send a check, at £7.50 per book, to my English bank account, deposit slip enclosed.

Please let me know in Milwaukee how many were sold and of course we can then calculate how many are left. Incidentally, the book is now out of print and so it may be that you will be able to sell some more in 1999. Also, the more students come, the more books may sell.

With many thanks for your help and all good wishes for 1999, I remain

Yours sincerely,

Alfred Bader
