Dear Dr. Bader:

Thank you for your search request. The Art Loss Register has completed the database search on the following item:

Object: Painting
Artist: Anthony Van Dyck
Description: Portrait of a Boy or Youth
Medium: Oil on canvas
Date: Not provided
Nationality: Flemish
Dimensions: 20 x 16 in.
Provenance (as provided): Neal Force, Palm Bay, Florida.
Color and black and white photographs provided.
No exhibition history or literature references supplied.

As May 17, 2002, this item, as described above based on the information provided, has not been registered as stolen on the ALR database. Nor is the work listed in the published lists of losses from World War II available at the Art Loss Register. However, we do wish to bring to your attention that a work listed in the Repertoire des Biens spoliés en France durant la guerre 1939-1945 as attributed to Anthony Van Dyck that bears some similarity to this work. A copy of the relevant page is enclosed. There is insufficient information available on the one listed in the Repertoire to determine whether they may be the same.

As stated in the Terms and Conditions, the database does not include items, which may have been illegally exported and not every theft is necessarily reported to the Art Loss Register nor are all works looted or confiscated during World War II listed with the Art Loss Register. Nor is this any evidence of authenticity. We do not guarantee the provenance of any item against which we have made a search. Your search with The Art Loss Register demonstrates due diligence but may not excuse you undertaking further research or providing further information where known. Should we become aware of any abuse of this Certificate we may find it necessary to take action.

Should you have any further questions or inquiries, please do not hesitate to contact us by telephone or fax. Thank you for using The Art Loss Register.

Sincerely,

Anna J. Kisluk
