Dear Alfred and Isabelle,

We returned to New York only six hours ago, and I feel eager to thank you for those enjoyable hours at your home (you say more hours of conversation are precious to you, but we also regard these moments as dear to us). Thanks so much for having us. A souvenir of our visit, the huge volume of the "Collected Cats", sits on an easel in a place of honor in our home. We had a most enjoyable flight perusing the many pages of the tome.

I am sending you my only photo of the small "Portrait of a Jew" (? who can tell?) attributed to Isaac Luttichuys. The photo reproduces the painting actual size (!), so you can imagine that the execution is very precise and of the highest quality. The colors are brilliant, which can only be seen in a transparency. If you like the picture at John Hoogsteder's "bottom line" of $6,000⁰⁰ (not 6,500 as I told you in your car last night - please don't tell him I told you), perhaps I could send it to you? I would pay for the charges both ways if you return it; one way if you keep it, of course.

Within the next few days I shall write to Joop van Coevorden of Davaco Publishers, suggesting that he publish Timpel's Raubrandt. I'm sure he will try to meet you on that Saturday in Holland.

Again, Thanks for the wonderful time!

Yours,
C. W.
