Dear Mr. Wachter:

I much look forward to receiving a black and white photograph of the Baptism of the Eunuch, which you showed me. I am certain that I saw that very painting, from Oldenburg, with Prof. Eigenberger in the Academy in Vienna in the early 1950's. It was then for sale as a Rembrandt, at much too high a price.

Congratulations on a very fine sale. It seems to be my fate to be the underbidder with many paintings I really like, so with Nos. 31 and 143 in this sale. The only painting I did succeed in buying was that little Spanish still life, No. 95, and I enclose my check. You have my New York resale number on file. Please allow Mr. Christophe Janet to pick up the painting.

I would appreciate your sending me your black and white photograph of this Spanish still life, together with any information that you have.

Many thanks for all your help, and best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Alfred Bader
