CITATION BY THE LEGISLATURE

KNOW YOU BY THESE PRESENTS:

WHEREAS, Dr. Alfred Bader, because of his leadership in philanthropy and contributions to the community, is being presented with the 2006 Centennial Human Relations Award by the Milwaukee Chapter of The American Jewish Committee; and

WHEREAS, Alfred has transformed the injustice he faced firsthand into a lifelong commitment to improving the lives of others by embracing the ABC's of his life—art, bible and chemistry—and has made positive changes in the world through his noble generosity; and

WHEREAS, since 1906 the members of the American Jewish Committee – Milwaukee Chapter have worked to make a real difference to families, neighborhoods and businesses in Milwaukee. Its members and other committed individuals strive to protect the civil and religious rights of all citizens, and advance the cause of improved human relations everywhere; and

WHEREAS, the Centennial Human Relations Award is presented to leaders of the business and civic community throughout the country who, through their skills, influence and dedication, have demonstrated their profound commitment to preserving our democratic heritage; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representatives Wasserman, Richards, Cullen, Fields, Gielow, Grigsby, Jeskewitz, Kessler, Kreuser, Lehman, Molepske, Sheridan, Sherman, Sinicki, Toles, Turner, and Zepnick and Senators Carpenter, Coggs, Darling, Lazich, Plale, and Robson, under Joint Rule 7, hereby commend and thank Dr. Alfred Bader for his years of service and join the American Jewish Committee – Milwaukee Chapter in recognizing his achievements and congratulate him on being presented with the 2006 Centennial Human Relations Award.
