HISTORY OF THE KINDERTRANSPORT

Between November, 1938, and September, 1939, nearly 10,000 children escaped with their lives from the Nazi Holocaust. The children, whose ages ranged from a few months to 17 years, had to flee alone, without their parents.

The British government and its people, through their compassion and generosity, at a cost of 50 British pounds per child, agreed to save these children by bringing them to Great Britain. A handful escaped to other countries including Holland, Belgium, France, and the U.S.A., but one and a half million children could not be saved, and perished at the hands of Hitler's Germany.

The children traveled by train from Germany, Austria, Danzig, and Czechoslovakia, through Europe and on to England. This exodus of children without parents was named, in German, the "Kindertransport" (Train Children). In Great Britain they were scattered to various private homes, hostels, schools, and farms, throughout England, Scotland, Wales, and Ireland. The vast majority never saw their parents again. They managed to live, but have never forgotten!

It is estimated that approximately 2500 of these "Kinder"(children) eventually immigrated to North America, and it is these individuals, and their families, who make up the KTA.

THE KTA ORGANIZATION

THE PURPOSE OF THE KINDERTRANSPORT ASSOCIATION (KTA) IS:

1. TO LOCATE, REUNITE, AND BRING TOGETHER, THOSE INDIVIDUALS WHO, MANY YEARS AGO, WERE DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN THE "KINDERTRANSPORT", AND WHO HAVE SINCE IMMIGRATED TO NORTH AMERICA.
2. TO EDUCATE AND INFORM THE "NEXT GENERATION", AS WELL AS THE PUBLIC IN GENERAL, REGARDING THE STORY OF THE KINDERTRANSPORT AS AN IMPORTANT PART OF THE HOLOCAUST HISTORY.
3. TO BE INVOLVED IN CHARITABLE WORK, PARTICULARLY AS IT PERTAINS TO NEEDY CHILDREN WITHOUT PARENTS, REGARDLESS OF RACE, CREED, COLOR, OR RELIGION.

This non-profit association is headed by a national committee based in New York, together with regional groups in various parts of the country. National as well as regional meetings are held, and a newsletter and other activities take place from time to time.

To participate, or for further information, please contact the New York office.
