MEMO FROM

W. J. Pardy

Sorry you can't make the reunion. We will miss you.

Please give me a call any time you are in Kingston and have some time. I would like to see you again

Dear Alfie:

This is to bring you up to date on our October 18th Sc'44 Co-op reunion activities. We are pleased with the response and the following eleven members of the original group have made plans to attend with their spouse or friend.

Bruce Campbell
Doug Lillie
Dave Moyer
Bill Pardy
Ken Rush
Jim Wrong

Clyde Lendrum
Dalt McIntyre
Chris Nicholl
Wally Runge
Lloyd Secord

Alfred Bader, Doug Offer, Dan Kelly, Lou Gramoli and Stan Patzalek send their regrets and Bill Sweet will be unable to attend because of ill health. There will be no problem in accomodating anyone who can come at the last moment if your situation changes.

The location for our reception and dinner has been changed to the Donald Gordon Centre. The Golf Club facilities available to us would have been too crowded for our group.

We are delighted that The Honourable George E. Collins and Mrs. Collins have accepted our invitation to attend our reception and dinner. Mr. Collins is the son of Mr. E. A. Collins whose interest and generosity made it possible for us to start Sc'44 Co-op with Collins House. We will also have as our guests Dr. D. W. Bacon, Dean Emeritus of the Applied Science Faculty and Mrs. Bacon and two of the current executives of the Sc'44 Co-op.

Faint, illegible text at the top of the page, possibly a header or introductory paragraph.

Main body of faint, illegible text, appearing to be several lines of a letter or document.

It has been suggested that the group would enjoy seeing a few pictures of the early days at the Co-op. How about digging out three or four of your favourites and sending them along to us. Even if you cannot attend let us have a couple of pictures so that you can be with us. We will see that your pictures are returned to you.

We have planned for hors-d'oeuvres and a cash bar during the reception, and dinner with wine. We estimate this will cost each of the eleven original members $80.00. This assumes that we will cover the cost for our six guests. It has been necessary to make certain financial commitments to the Donald Gordon Centre. Ken Rush has agreed to act as treasurer and we would appreciate you sending him your cheque for $80.00.

KINGSTON, ONTARIO

Would you also let him have the name of your spouse or your friend so that we can make up place cards.

If you have suggestions or thoughts on what you would like to have considered at our reunion let us have them. The only thing we promise is that speeches, reminiscent or otherwise, will not be permitted at the dinner. We will keep you up to date with the plans from time to time and have a final program in your hands well before the 18th of October.

best regards,

Ken Bill

Dear Dr Alfred Bader,

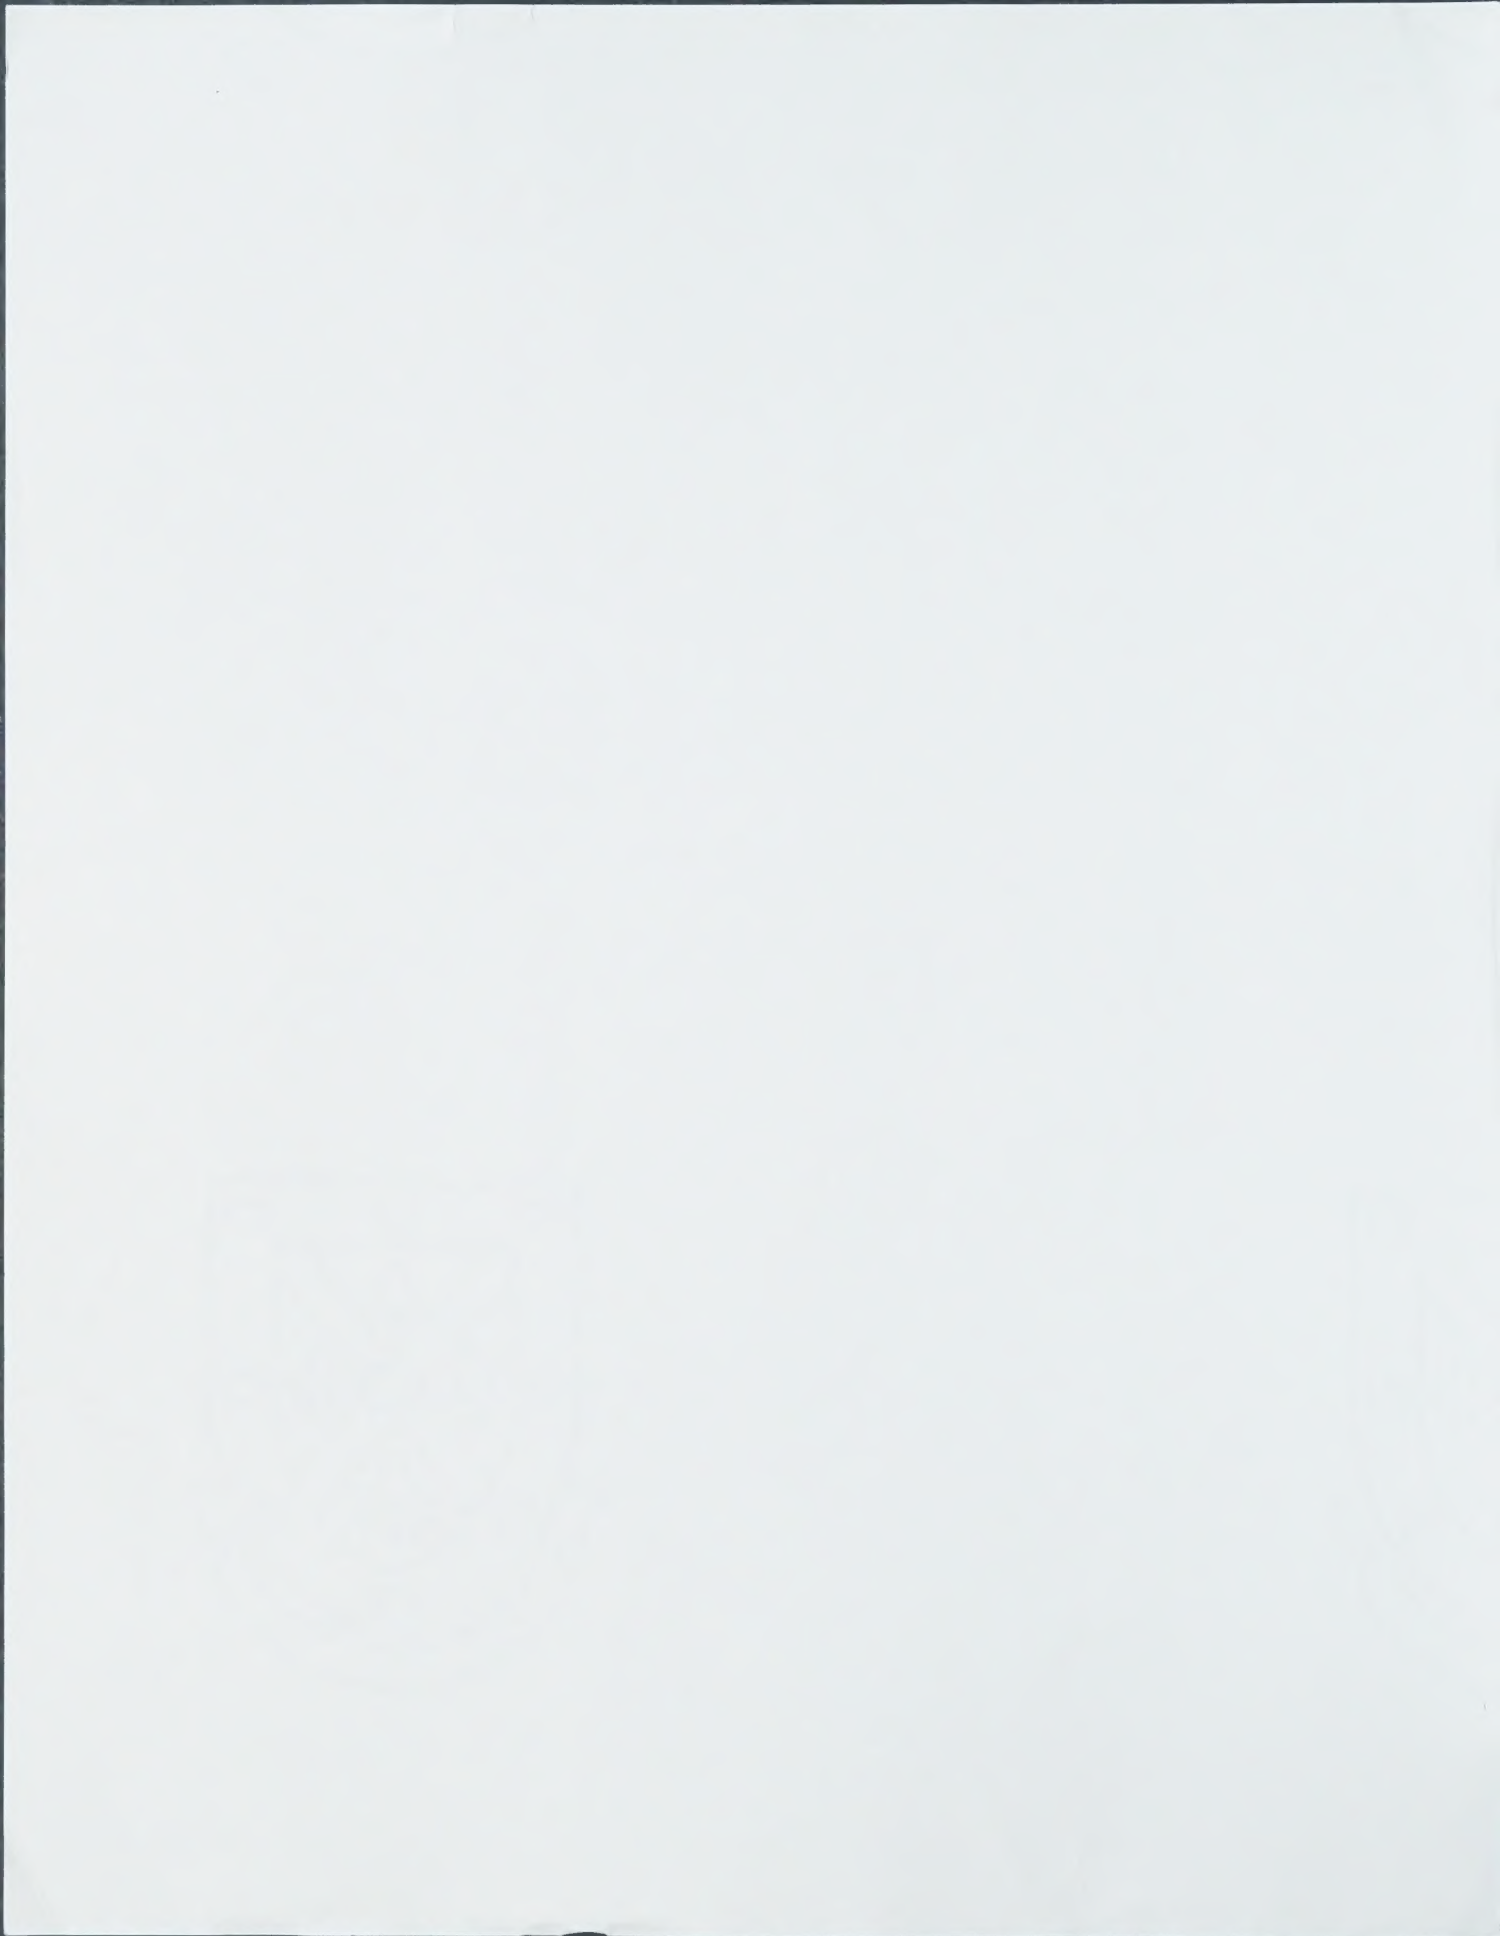

Homecoming 2004 may be long over, but here to refresh your Queen's spirit is your Homecoming Memory Booklet! I hope you will experience as much fun and nostalgia reading it as we did creating it. Every smiling face is a reminder of how special the Weekend truly was. We hope to see you back for your next reunion!

You will also find enclosed your class photo taken Homecoming Weekend. Your classmates are sure to treasure these photos for years to come.

Thanks again and should you have any questions or comments regarding Homecoming please feel free to contact our office at 1.800.267.7837 or e-mail reunions@post.queensu.ca.

Dear Dr Bader,

We hope you enjoyed returning to Queen's for Homecoming 2005! As a member of our "Tricolour Guard" (celebrating a Reunion of 50 years or more), a class photograph was taken to commemorate the occasion. Please find yours enclosed.

Additional photographs taken by Taylor Studios may be viewed and ordered at their web site, www.taylorstudio.com.

If you would like to experience the campus spirit and enjoy time with your classmates and friends again, we encourage you to return for Queen's Homecoming every year. Remember, the "Tricolour Guard" is a designation for all Queen's alumni who graduated 50 years ago or more. You no longer need to wait until your next "official" reunion year to celebrate with your classmates, friends and alma mater. We invite you to come back often.

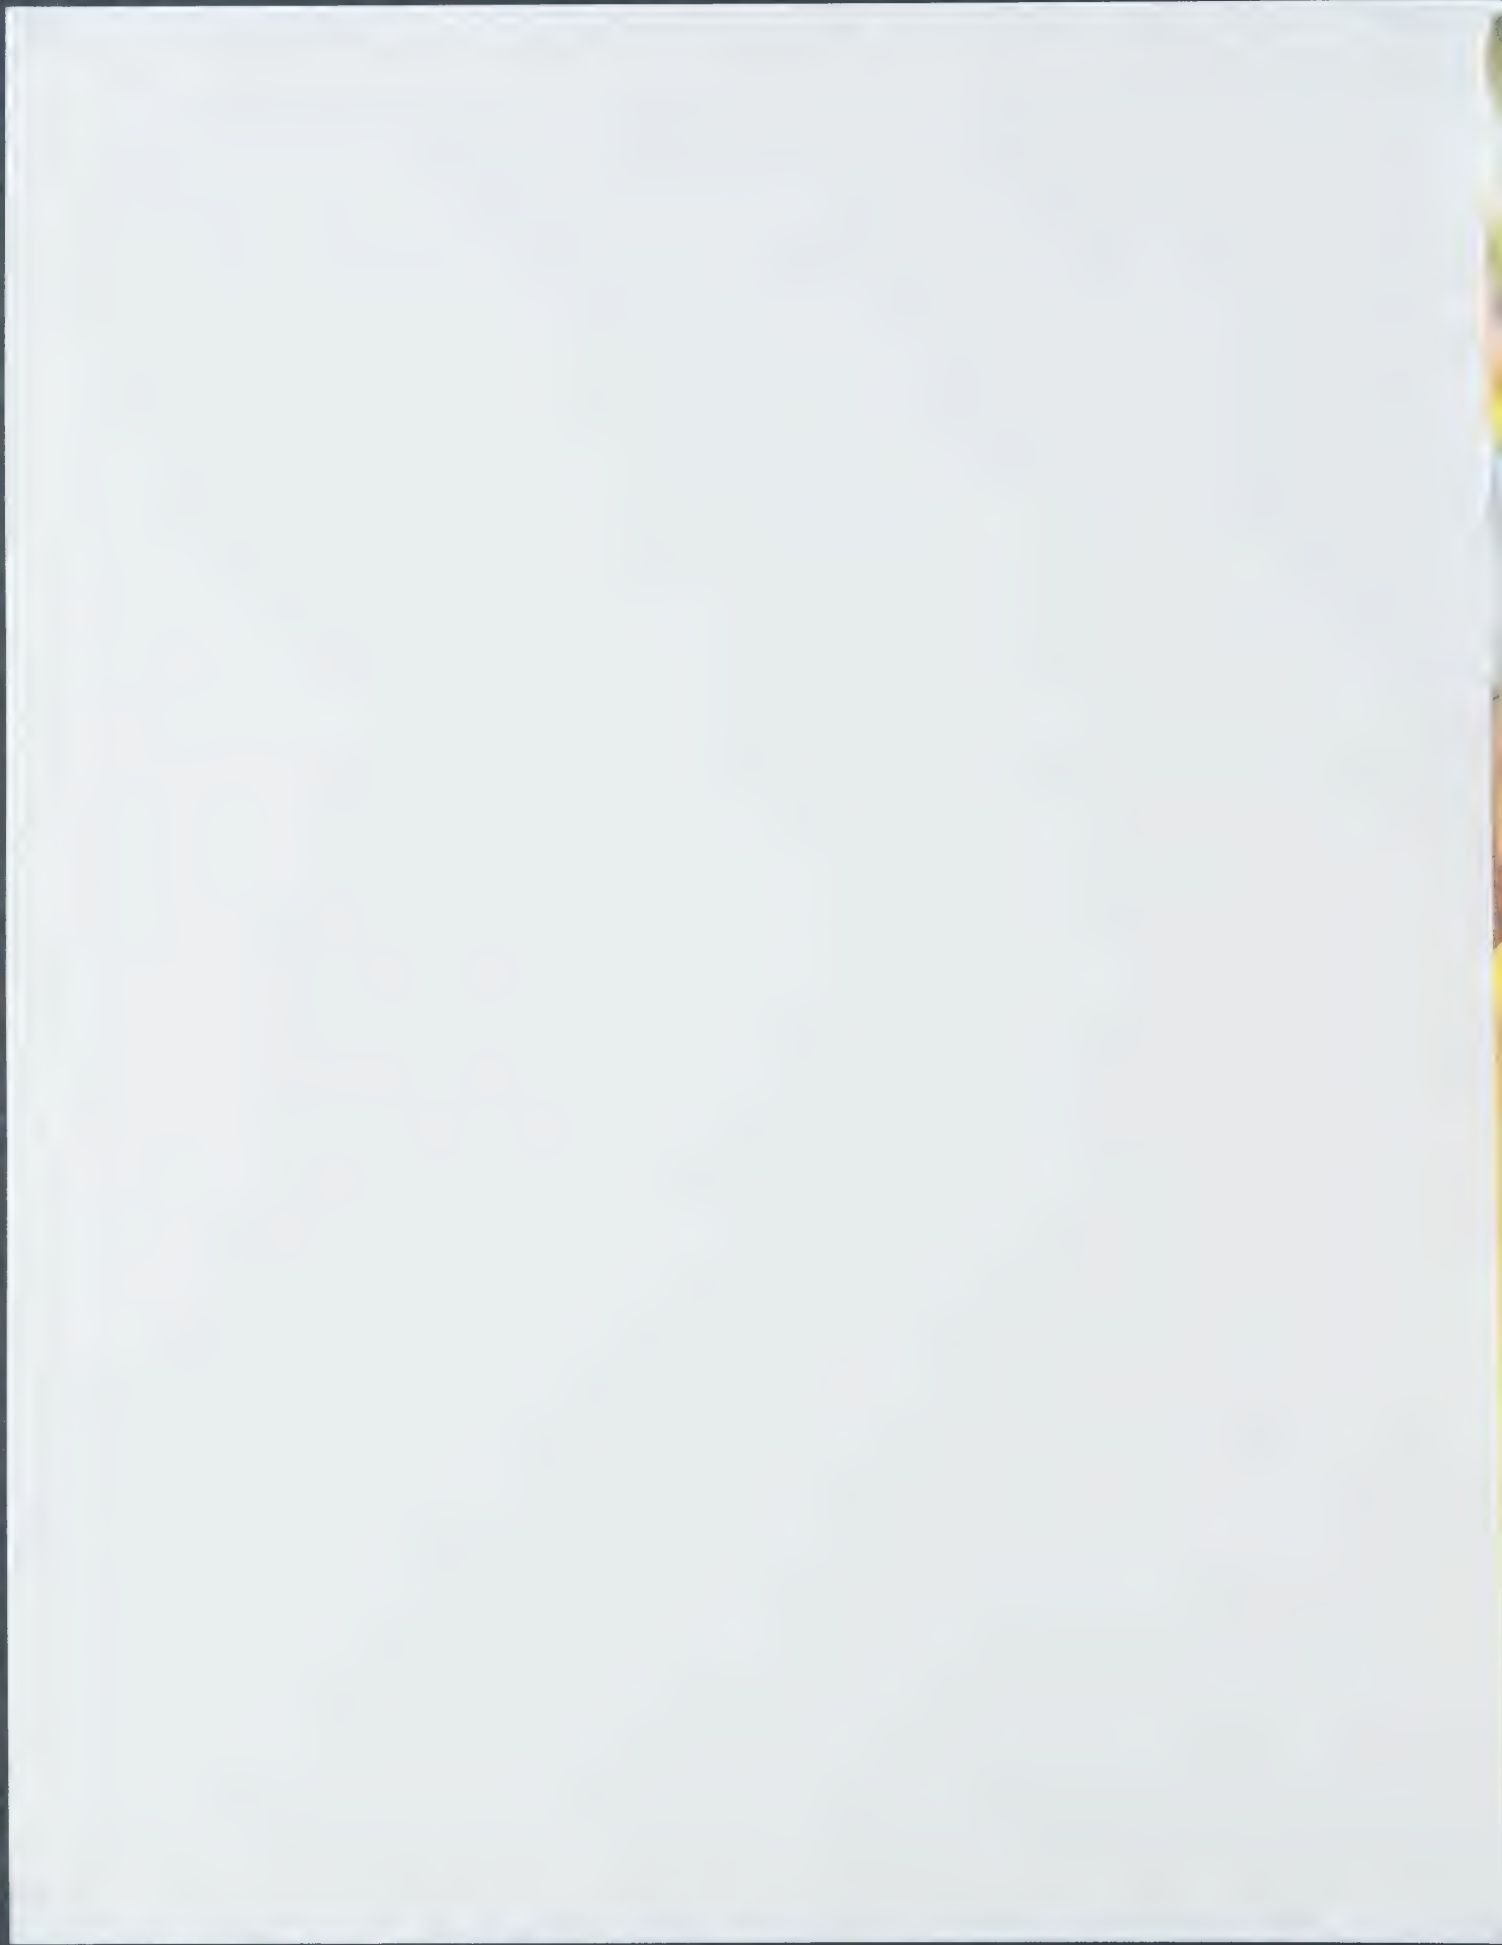

From the Queen's Family to yours, we wish you all the best of the holiday season!

Kindest regards,

Classes, Reunions and Events Team

Memories

HOMECOMING 2004

Greetings

Homecoming 2004 has now taken its place in the collective memory of Queen's alumni.

Whether you came from across town or across the country, you answered a call to return to friends, places, and experiences that tie you together in a unique community. Sustained by values and traditions that we celebrate again and again, we can anticipate the future with confidence. I look forward to sharing that future with you, and to working with the next generation of Queen's alumni who will soon join your proud ranks.

I hope that this collection of images will bring back warm memories of Homecoming Weekend 2004.

For those of you who could not make it back, I hope that you will join us in 2009.

Yours sincerely,

Karen R. Hitchcock, Ph.D.

"This is the Queen's network at its best. Thirty strangers walked into my life not so long ago and gave me a precious gift - insight into who my father (Willie Bedell, Sci'54) was, and, in turn, insight into who I am as well. Thanks Science'54. I love you!"

Dear Sci'44 Classmate,

This letter is a follow-up report regarding our 60th reunion that took place on Queen's campus October 22 – 24th, 2004. I believe that our reunion was a success, and I wanted to let you know about a surplus in funds as a result of our Friday evening dinner at the Cataraqui Golf & Country Club in Kingston.

Those who opted for the Friday evening dinner were asked to cough up fifty dollars and since we have not had a bank account since about the time of our 55th reunion, the only simple way out was to make the cheque payable to yours truly. The details of our modest surplus are as follows:

34 attendees at $50.00 each totals: $1,700
Total bill from the Golf Club: $1,409.08
Surplus: $209.92

I have proposed to the Alumni Office that we turn the surplus over to them, which will also cover the cost of sending a class photo to all those who were in it. I have included below a list of us who attended the dinner, and a few who had planned to come but in the end were prevented from doing so.

Sincerely on behalf of the Kingston group,

Chuck Campling
(Permanent Vice-President)
