Dear Mr Bader:

We were happy to see you among with the paintings. We are looking forward to your book. My wife and I descended into the Grand Canyon all the way down to Colorado river.
Finally, just after sunset, we emerged slowly to the rim.

*Frohe Weihnachten
und ein gutes neues Jahr*

Lieber Herr Dr. Bader,
es ist eine schöne Sitte zum
Jahreswechsel Karten zu versenden.
Lassen Sie mich auf diese Weise
noch einmal "Danke" sagen
und Ihnen und Ihrer Frau
ganz herzliche Weihnachtsgrüße
schicken.

Ich wünsche Ihnen beiden ein frohes und glückliches 1995.

Alles Gute

Dear Alfred:

I want to thank you and Inabel for your kind hospitality once again at William Ho's and at the gallery. It is always a good time when Aldrich "do-timers" can get together. I especially appreciated the opportunity to look over several chapters of your book. I was intrigued by your account of Aldrich's dealings with the court, when we had to make way for "the freeway that never was."

BUFFALO BILL'S SCOUTS REST RANCH North Platte, Nebraska

World-famous showman-scout, William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody built his home in 1886. It was here in North Platte, just four years before, that he organized his Wild West Show to become an American byword and the toast of European royalty. Now a state historical park, Scout's Rest Ranch has been open to visitors since 1965.

3 pages

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I imagine that there are not a great many taxpayers who push you to send them your bill for taxes, but I am one.

As you will see from the enclosed copy of my letter/fax to you of October 26th, I am leaving for Europe on November 9th and will not return until the 23rd of December.

Could you please (1) inform me that you received all the paperwork sent to you on October 26th, and (2) let me know whether I may expect your statement for taxes due before we leave on Wednesday.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Enclosure (2 pp.)

Re: SS# [REDACTED] 4 [REDACTED] 0

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Thank you for your patience while we checked our 1990--1992 municipal bond income. Once we understood clearly which of the 1990 owned bonds were single and double tax exempt, checking the 1991 and 1992 returns was much easier.

You will recall that I wrote to you on October 4th, detailing that in the 1990 return we overpaid on eight (8) bonds for a total income of $34,204.69.

As you will see from the enclosed documentation, we underpaid for 1991 on eight (8) bonds with a total income of $54,039.96.

For 1992, we erred on thirteen (13) bonds, and had additional income of $92,220.18.

As requested by you, I put onto each sheet, on the left what is correct, while on the right, that which we had shown in our original calculation and what we believed to be correct.

I am sure that it will be clear to you exactly what happened. We misunderstood the regulations and believed that all housing bonds were double tax exempt, and we didn't know about that crucial date of January 28, 1987. Also, I am certain that you will understand why the interest on various bonds changed from year to year, as so many of the bonds were called in part or in full.

We are leaving for a lecture tour to Canada on October 30th, returning November 6th. On November 9th we are leaving for Europe, returning on December 23rd. If you could send me the calculation of what I owe on state taxes before November 7th, I will make payment at once. If the calculation cannot be made that quickly, please allow me until the end of the year to make payment.

In January 1995, I will re-calculate the municipal bond income for 1993. Should I send that re-calculation to you or should I file an amended return?

Of course, we will make certain that our tax return for this year is correct.

Many thanks for your help and patience.

Sincerely,

Enclosures

Re: SS# [REDACTED] 0

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Thank you for the courtesy of your phone call today.

This is really a most complicated problem, and yet Isabel and I would very much like to solve it ourselves so that we can handle it correctly in the future.

Mr. M. Schinzer has assured us that the five housing bonds in question are all double tax exempt and has sent us voluminous paperwork which I now enclose.

I am going on a lecture tour to northern Wisconsin on Wednesday morning, from which we will return on Saturday. If you could have your decisions back to us by the end of the week, I will then proceed to work on 1991 and 1992 in the manner you suggested.

We will be leaving for Europe at the end of October, and I would very much like to have this completed before then.

Thank you for your patience and assistance.

Sincerely,

Enclosures

Re: SS# [REDACTED] 4 [REDACTED] 1 [REDACTED] # [REDACTED] 0

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Thank you for your thoughtful letter and fax of August 17th, received while Isabel and I were in Europe.

There are five non-Wisconsin housing authority bonds in our 1990 portfolio, and I asked Mr. Mike Schinzer, the expert on municipal bonds at Robert W. Baird, to document whether these five are indeed double tax exempt. They are starred on the enclosed list.

Mr. Schinzer has sent me the bulky prospectuses on these five with his conclusion that they are all double tax exempt. Documentation is enclosed. Thus, I showed an income on nine bonds totalling $43,550.94 as single tax exempt which should have been double. Isabel similarly showed an income of $2,216.25.

On the other hand, we believed that one of the AMT bonds of the City of Madison CDA issued June 1, 1988 was double tax exempt when really only single. So we erred by $6,111.11.

Hence, I believe that the State owes us a credit of taxes due on $39,656.08.

Please do confirm that this is correct.

If you agree, please do not arrange to send us the refund due, but allow us to do the same calculation for 1991 and 1992, where we might well have erred one way or the other. If we owe taxes on those two years, then we would like to ask you to use the credit for 1990 to offset the tax due for 1991 and 1992.

Just before we left for Europe, I talked to Ms. R. Loeffler, who very kindly extended the time for the 1991 and 1992 documentation until September 30th. If you could confirm the accuracy of our 1990 figures sometime next week, then I am confident that we will not have any difficulties filing the next two year documentation this month also.

Right after that, of course, I will also want to check the accuracy of our 1993 filing.

Many thanks for the help from Ms. Loeffler and you.

Sincerely,

Enclosures

Dear Dr. Bader,<sup>nie</sup>

Many thanks and appreciation for your benevolence and understanding. I finally sighed a sigh of relief when you accepted my apology. It is remarkable to hear how much you've overcome to become everything you are.

The chapters I read are most interesting, and I'm amazed at how much detail you carry in your mind! Names, dates, places even food, I can barely recall what year I was born! I'm eager to read the rest of your book.

Also, I thank you for the seforim you gave me. They are a thorough research of all instances of Chazakah (Status Quo) in all of Shulchan Aruch. It is a most impressive work.

I look forward to spending time together when you return to Milwaukee. Perhaps we can share a Shabbos meal together. I hope your trip will prove to be a successful one.

Best regards,

Lieber Alfred, wahrscheinlich seid Ihr schon in Europa
aber ich möchte doch einen schnelleren Frass werden.
Bisher hast auch Du im Katalog von Christie's, F. Nr. 94
unter Nr. 11 unseren Euse Kowic in einer grünen wollenen Kopie als Manner of Tarsien gesehen. Dabei fällt mir ein, Du wolltest mir doch sagen in welchem Museum das Bild nun ist. Bitte tu es.

Mir gefällt Dir das "Kunsthändler"? Und wie geht es, wo allem Dir in Leben Frau? Durch Mr. Richard so höre ich einmal kurz von Dir, etwas mehr würde mich freuen.

Dies Jahr war leider auch persönlich für mich schlecht,
doch hoffe ich jetzt, mich wieder zu fassen.
